Next Up

- This is Eric Morris' first season-opening game as a collegiate head coach. As a college assistant coach, Morris was 7-1 in season openers. As an offensive coordinator at Texas Tech from 2013 to 2017, his Red Raiders were 5-0 in opening games. As an assistant at the University of Houston from 2010-11, his Cougars won both season openers. The only stumble occurred during his lone year as an assistant at Washington State, 2012, when the Cougars fell in their first game.
- Morris comes to UIW from Texas Tech and has deep Texas ties. He played at Tech before spending five years as its offensive coordinator, and he plans to bring the same exciting style of offense to Benson Stadium. He was also a graduate assistant under University of Houston head coach Kevin Sumlin, who later went on to coach at Texas A&M. Additionally, Morris coached at Washington State under former Texas Tech head coach Mike Leach.
- The Cardinals have an all new staff filled with young coaches who have a ton of energy and passion. Throughout the spring, they worked to change the culture of the team and will look to take that momentum into the season.
- This is UIW's 10th season of intercollegiate football. The Cardinals are 3-6 in season-opening games. UIW won its inaugural football game in 2009, 32-19, over Monterey Tech. The Cardinals won their season opener in 2012, 19-12 over Texas College, and in 2015, 18-16 over Texas A&M Kingsville.
- UIW has a challenging schedule for the 2018 season. Four of UIW's 2017 opponents finished the season ranked: Sam Houston State (3), Central Arkansas (8), McNeese (18), and Nicholls (23). The Cardinals face these four opponents in consecutive games this season. Additionally, UIW takes on FBS opponents New Mexico and North Texas.

UIW Name Usage

Please note that there are two primary and two secondary versions of our institution's name: Upon first reference, we are the University of the Incarnate Word. After that, UIW is the preferred name. Incarnate Word and Incarnate Word Cardinals are also available as secondary terms. Any other reference, including Incarnate Word University or Incarnate Word College, is incorrect. Additionally, all teams, including women's athletic teams, are known as Cardinals.

Eric Morris | Head Coach/QBs

Eric Morris was announced as the third head coach of the University of the Incarnate Word football program by Director of Athletics Dr. Brian Wickstrom, on Saturday, Dec. 30, 2017.

Morris joined UIW from Texas Tech, where he spent the previous five seasons as offensive coordinator for the prolific Red Raiders offense.

"I'm excited about the vision and the leadership that Dr. Evans and Dr. Wickstrom have established for UIW athletics," Morris said. "They've been awesome throughout this process. To have what I see as a power-five president and a power-five athletic director to help generate the resources we need to get the program where it needs to go is exciting."

Morris produced one of the most high-scoring offenses in the country, guiding Tech to annual top 20 rankings in total offense and top 10 rankings in passing offense.

The Red Raiders averaged over 30 points per game during Morris' tenure and set the single-season school record with 45.1 points per game in 2015.

Morris helped Tech to three bowl appearances, including a Birmingham Bowl bid in 2017. The Red Raiders ranked 10th in passing offense and 16th in total offense that season, racking up 474.6 yards per game, including 333.7 through the air.

Tech led the nation in 2016 with an average of 566.6 yards of total offense, including 463 passing yards per game.

Morris tutored Jonathan Giles and Keke Coutee -- both true sophomores in 2016 -- to breakout years. Giles earned All-Big 12 second team honors after recording 1,158 receiving yards and 13 touchdowns, both of which ranked in the top 10 in Tech single-season history. Coutee finished second on the team with 890 receiving yards and seven touchdowns.

The program's success offensively in 2015 pushed Tech to an appearance in the AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl. The Red Raiders closed the 2015 campaign ranked No. 2 nationally in total offense, scoring offense and passing offense.

Tech was consistent throughout the 2015 season, totaling at least 25 points in all 13 games. The Red Raiders were one of just two teams nationally and the only team in a Power 5 conference to score 25 or more points in every game that season.

Morris created a balanced attack that featured a 4,000-yard passer in Patrick Mahomes II, a 1,000-yard rusher in DeAndre Washington and a 1,000-yard receiver in Jakeem Grant. It marked the first time in Tech history that three different Red Raiders reached those marks in the same season.

Under Morris' guidance, Grant ended his career as the all-time leading receiver in Tech history. An All-America honoree by several publications, Grant totaled 3,164 receiving yards over his four seasons, breaking the previous school record that was set by two-time Biletnikoff Award winner Michael Crabtree.

In 2014, Morris' first season as the lone offensive coordinator, Tech finished with a No. 10 national ranking in total offense after the Red Raiders averaged 504.1 yards per game. Tech also averaged 351.1 yards per game through the air to end the season with a No. 5 national ranking.

The Red Raiders displayed a balanced attack that season thanks in part to Washington's impact on the ground game. Washington rushed for 1,103 yards over 12 games, marking the first time a Red Raider running back reached the 1,000-yard mark since Ricky Williams in 1998.

Morris shared offensive coordinator responsibilities during his debut season in 2013. The Red Raiders displayed the nation's second-ranked passing attack (392.8 yards per game) and the eighth-best unit for total offense (511 yards-per-game). The solid offensive season earned Tech an appearance in the National University Holiday Bowl, where the Red Raiders pulled off a stunning 37-23 victory over No. 16 Arizona State.

Jace Amaro closed 2013 campaign with one of the best seasons by a receiver in program history. Amaro, a second-round selection in the 2013 NFL Draft by the New York Jets, set an NCAA FBS record for most receiving yards (1,352) in a single season by a tight end and was named an NCAA Consensus All-American.

Morris, a native of Shallowater, Texas, spent the 2012 season as the inside receivers coach for former Tech Head Coach Mike Leach at Washington State. In his only season with the Cougars, the Washington State receiving corps hauled in 3,965 yards and 23 touchdowns.

Prior to heading to Pullman, Morris spent two years on Kevin Sumlin's staff at the University of Houston, first as an offensive graduate assistant in 2010 and then as the offensive quality control assistant in 2011. Morris coached the Cougars alongside current Texas Tech Head Coach Kliff Kingsbury, who served as Houston's quarterbacks coach in 2010 before being promoted to co-offensive coordinator a year later.

Morris and Kingsbury helped produce one of the nation's top offenses in 2011 as the Cougars led the country in passing (443.8 yards per game), total offense (599.0 yards per game) and scoring average (50.8 points per game). Houston concluded the season with a 12-1 record, which included a win over Penn State in the TicketCity Bowl.

Before joining the coaching ranks, Morris played in the Canadian Football League for the Saskatchewan Roughriders in 2009.

Morris was a versatile, all-round player during his four seasons as a Red Raider wide receiver (2005-08). He caught 184 passes for 1,965 yards and 19 touchdowns over his four seasons, the majority of which came during his final two years. Morris concluded his collegiate career as one of four players in NCAA FBS history to be part of multiple receiving trios where each player recorded at least 60 receptions in a season.

Morris was also instrumental as Tech's primary punt returner the final two seasons, where he averaged over 10 yards per return. He was named to the All-Big 12 second team as a punt returner by the Fort Worth Star Telegram following his senior campaign. He was also a member of the 2007 Academic All-Big 12 first team.

Morris arrived at Tech after a stellar prep career at Shallowater High School, where he was named the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal All-South Plains Super Team Offensive Player of the Year as a senior in 2003. He finished with 926 rushing yards and 24 touchdowns that season, while throwing for another 1,926 yards and 22 touchdowns.

Morris received his bachelor's degree in Communications Studies from Texas Tech in 2008. He and his wife, Maggie, have a son, Jack.

Josh Kirkland | Assistant Head Coach and Running Backs

Prior to UIW, Kirkland, a Levelland, Texas, native, was the athletic coordinator and head football coach at Lehman High School (Texas). Under his tutelage, Lehman broke the record for passing yards and completion percentage. Prior to Lehman, Kirkland was the athletic coordinator and head football coach at El Paso Parkland High School. Under Kirkland, Parkland led the state in rushing yards (3,924 yards) and was third in total offense (6,351 total yards).

Cody Crill | Offensive Coordinator

Crill comes to UIW after nine seasons at Navarro College, the final three of which he served as the head coach. Since he arrived at Navarro, the Bulldogs accumulated a 97-24 record, three conference titles, four bowl wins and the 2010 NJCAA national championship. He has guided 30 offensive linemen to the Division I level and several former players have played in the NFL.

Justin Deason | Defensive Coordinator

Deason comes to UIW from Texas A&M-Commerce, where he spent four seasons as the defensive coordinator. Deason helped guide the Lions to a National Championship in 2017. Under Deason, the Lions had the 15th best scoring defense in Division II, allowing just 16.7 points per game. Deason's defense was also ninth in the country in interceptions (19), 11th in defensive passing efficiency, 13th in tackles for loss per game (8.5), 20th in red zone defense and sacks, 25th in turnovers gained (25), total defense (303.4 yards per game) and third down defense (32.8 percent).

Brandon Lechtenberg | Special Teams Coordinator and Linebackers

Prior to UIW, Lechtenberg spent the 2017 season as the safeties coach at UT Martin. In one season, the Skyhawk defense quickly elevated to one of the top defenses nationally in FCS football. In addition to finishing fourth in the nation in scoring defense, sixth in total defense, and first in redzone defense, two of Lechtenberg's three safeties finished with All-Ohio Valley Conference honors.

Rickey Hunley | Recruiting Coordinator and Safeties

Prior to working with the Cardinals, Hunley served as the linebacker coach and special teams coordinator at the University of West Georgia. During each of his three seasons, the Wolves led the GSC in total defense. UWG also ranked 44th nationally in kick return defense and seventh in kick return average in 2017.

Brett Watson | Defensive Tackles

Prior to UIW, Watson spent two seasons at Southeastern Oklahoma State University. During the 2017 season, he was the defensive line coach and the junior college recruiting coordinator. He coached the linebackers in 2016. In 2017, Watson helped guide SOSU to a 7-4 record with a 4-2 mark in the Great American Conference. The Savage Storm recorded 791 tackles with 53 tackles for loss and 15 sacks.

Darren Garrigan | Cornerbacks and Camps Coordinator

Prior to UIW, Garrigan spent four seasons as the secondary coach at Texas A&M-Commerce. In four seasons, Garrigan tutored a secondary that was not only at the top of the Lone Star Conference, but was also one of the top in the country. He helped produced 14 all-conference players, three all-region players, one LSC Defensive Back of the Year and one All-American. In four seasons, the Lion defense intercepted 71 passes, caused 185 pass breakups and scored 12 defensive touchdowns.

Steve Foley | Defensive Ends

Prior to UIW, Foley spent one season as the volunteer assistant coach at the University of Louisiana Monroe. Before ULM, Foley played in the NFL for seven seasons. While in the NFL, he split time between the Cincinnati Bengals (1998-2001), the Houston Texans (2003) and the San Diego Chargers (2004-05).

Jordan Shoemaker | Offensive Line

Prior to working at UIW, Shoemaker helped lead Magnolia West to become co-district champions and bi-district champions with a 9-2 record and an appearance in the second round of the playoffs. Before Magnolia West, Shoemaker spent five seasons working in the Baylor football program. In his final two seasons with the Bears, he was an assistant director and analyst.

Tad Blaylock | Director of Football Operations

As the director of football operations, Blaylock oversees the administrative duties for the football team. He does everything from the day-to-day operations to responsibilities including budget control, team travel, office organization and facility management. He also serves as the football program's liaison to university departments and all other units within the athletic department.

Jordan Davis | Wide Receivers

Prior to UIW, Davis was an offensive graduate assistant at Texas Tech University, where he worked closely with Eric Morris, then the offensive coordinator for the Red Raiders, during the 2016 and 2017 seasons. In 2017, Davis helped guide TTU to a top-10 national ranking in passing offense. The Red Raiders also ranked 16th in passing offense, averaging 474.6 yards per game, including 333.7 yards through the air. Texas Tech played in the Birmingham Bowl to conclude the 2017 season.

Bret Huth | Director of Strength and Conditioning

Bret Huth joined the University of the Incarnate Word football program as the director of strength and conditioning in the spring of 2018. Prior to the Cardinals, Huth worked as the assistant director of strength and conditioning with the Rice football team in 2017. Before Rice, Huth spent three seasons with the football program at Cal. After two seasons as an assistant director of strength and conditioning

Huth was promoted to associate strength and conditioning coach for his final season.

Clint Killough | Quality Control – Wide Receivers

Prior to returning to San Antonio, Killough was a defensive and offensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green State University from 2017-18. While in Bowling Green, Killough worked with the secondary before transitioning over to the offensive side of the ball with the wide receivers. Before joining the BGSU staff, Killough, a San Antonio native, played for the Cardinals for three years, one of which he suffered a season-ending injury after just three games as a junior.

TEXAS TIES

Eric Morris played his high school and collegiate football in Texas, at Shallowater High and Texas Tech University. He coached at Texas Tech and the University of Houston. His only two non-Texas football gigs were one year as a player for the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League and one year as an assistant coach at Washington State.

TEXAS TIES: ASSISTANT COACHES

Only one of Eric Morris' 11 position coaches/coordinators does not have a Texas background as either a player, coach, scholar, or native-born son.

UIW VERSUS THE MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

This will be the second time that UIW has played a Mountain West Conference member in football. The Cardinals fell at Fresno State, 66-0, in the 2017 season opener (Sept. 2).

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

- The Lobos were 3-9 overall in 2017. They were led by Tyrone Owens, who rushed for 801 yards in 12 games. Owens is a redshirt senior in 2018.
- This will be Bob Davie's 12th opening game as a collegiate head coach. He is 8-3 in season-opening games.
- Bob Davie has Texas football ties. A native Pennsylvanian, Davie spent nine seasons in College Station coaching at Texas A&M. He was the outside linebackers' coach from 1985-88 and defensive coordinator from 1989-1993.

UIW VERSUS FBS OPPONENTS

This will be the first season in which UIW plays two Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) opponents. After New Mexico, the Cardinals follow with a game at North Texas on Sept. 8.

NO GRASS FOR THE CARDINAL GRIDDER

With this summer's installation of new Field Turf at UIW's Gayle and Tom Benson Stadium, the Cardinals boast the newest artificial playing surface in the Southland Conference. All 11 of UIW's games this season will be played on synthetic turf. Saturday, the Cardinals challenge the Lobos on UNM's Field Turf at Dreamstyle Stadium.

HIGH ALTITUDE ENCOUNTER

Dreamstyle Stadium sits at an altitude of 5,100 feet above sea level, the highest elevation at which a UIW team will have played a football game in program history. The previous maximum game day elevation was 4,100 feet against the UTEP in the Sun Bowl during the 2015 season. In 2011, the Cardinals played at West Texas A&M University in Canyon, Texas, at an altitude of 3,500 feet.

STRENGTH IN NUMBERS

When new UIW head football coach Eric Morris held spring football drills in March, he had a roster that numbered in the sixties. When fall drills began in August, those numbers had increased to 105. The new roster included a 20-player recruiting class announced on Feb. 7 (19 high school prospects and one transfer), plus numerous recruited and walk-on players who joined the team later.

MAKING THE GRADE

Since UIW head coach Eric Morris took charge of the Cardinal football team in December 2017, his student-athletes have increased the team GPA -- previously under a 2.5 -- through hard work and dedication. The emphasis that Morris and his assistant coaches placed on classroom attentiveness paid off in one semester. When spring semester grades arrived in late May, the team achieved a collective GPA of 3.2.

TEAM CAPTAINS

Five team captains, chosen by their fellow players, will provide leadership on and off of the field for the Cardinals this season. Center Tyler Preston from Georgetown and wide receiver Kody Edwards from Mesquite, both seniors, represent the offense. Senior linebacker Silas Stewart, from Wilmington, Delaware, and junior linebacker Mar'kel Cooks, from Irving, Texas, will lead the defense, while special teams members will look to senior kicker Cody Seidel, from Keller, Texas.
