CAROLINE SCORES 40 AS NO. 6 NEVADA BEATS COLORADO STATE 98-82

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) Jordan Caroline scored 30 of his season-high 40 points in the first half and No. 6 Nevada beat Colorado State 98-82 on Wednesday night for its eighth straight win.

Caroline finished five points shy of his career high set Jan. 7, 2017, at New Mexico. He added 12 rebounds for his 14th double-double of the season, and his 41 career double-doubles are the most in Mountain West Conference history, breaking a tie with Kawhi Leonard and Andrew Bogut.

Caleb Martin added 25 points for Nevada (22-1, 9-1), including a dunk off a lob from his twin, Cody, that capped a 10-2 run to end the game.

Nico Carvacho led the Rams (9-14, 4-6) with 24 points and 17 rebounds. Colorado State lost by 40 in Reno two weeks ago but gave the Wolf Pack a fight at home.

Caroline was 11-of-19 shooting on the night. He hit his first six 3-pointers and had as many points as the Rams (20) midway through the first half. He was 9-of-11 shooting overall and added six rebounds in the first 20 minutes.

Carvacho had 14 points and eight rebounds at the half, and his teammates picked up some of the slack after the break. The Rams trailed by 17 at one point but cut it to five on Adam Thistlewood's 3-pointer and to three on Carvacho's layup with 12:45 left. Martin's two free throws midway through the second half made it 76-66, but the Rams cut it to seven with 3:59 left. Caroline hit five free throws in the final 3:32 to help put it away.

In year three head coach Eric Musselman led the Nevada basketball program to a place it had not been since 2004 reaching the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 for just the second time in school history. The Wolf Pack fell just a point short of reaching the Elite 8 for the first time, falling 69-68 to Loyola Chicago, a team they will play in 2018-19. The Pack went 29-8 on the season and tied the school record with the 29 wins.

Nevada became just the second conference school to win back-to-back outright regular MW season titles with BYU being the first in 2007 and 2008. The Wolf Pack were just the second MW school, joining SDSU to reach the Sweet 16. The Pack's appearance in the NCAA Tournament was the second in a row and eighth in school history.

Musselman earned four coach of the year honors after the Pack's successful season; MW coaches and media, USBWA District VIII and NABC District 17.

In addition to Musselman earning numerous honors several of the players hauled in top honors after the outstanding season. Caleb Martin garnered Associated Press honorable mention All-American, MW Player of the Year, MW Newcomer of the Year, MW first team, USBWA District VIII Player of the Year, USBWA VIII team and first-team NABC District 17 honors in his junior campaign.

Jordan Caroline was selected to the MW first team, USBWA District VIII team, NABC District 17 first team and to the MW Tournament team.

Cody Martin earned MW Defensive Player of the Year honors, was selected the MW second team and to the MW Defensive team. Kendall Stephens earned third-team MW honors after setting the conference and school record with 126 made 3-pointers. Lindsey Drew joined Caleb Martin on the MW Defensive team. All but Stephens will return for their senior campaigns in 2018-19.

Musselman has led the Pack to 24, 28 and 29 win seasons in his first three years on campus and the 81 wins is ninth most at Nevada. He joins Mark Fox (2004-09) as the only Nevada coaches to win 20 or more games in three consecutive years and in their first three years at the helm. Fox accomplished the feat in all five of his seasons at Nevada.

In year two Musselman led the Pack to its first MW regular season and tournament titles. With the tournament title Nevada earned its first NCAA Tournament birth in a decade. The Pack went 28-7 and 14-4 in conference play. The 28 wins is tied for the second most in program history

The regular season title marked the first since the 2011-12 season and the tournament title was the first since 2005-06. The success did not go unrecognized as Musselman was named the USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year.

Under Musselman, several Wolf Pack players earned postseason honors in his second season. Senior Marcus Marshall was named to the All-Mountain West first team by both the conference coaches and media after breaking the then Nevada single season record with 115 threes made. Marshall was named the Newcomer of the Year in both polls.

Sophomore Cameron Oliver earned first team honors from the Mountain West media and second team honors from the conference coaches. Caroline earned second team honors in both polls and was the MW Tournament MVP. Senior D.J. Fenner earned second team honors from the coaches and third team honors from the media.

In his first season at Nevada Musselman changed the culture of the men's basketball team. Musselman led the Wolf Pack to a 24-14 record and the College Basketball Invitational Championship. The 85-82 overtime CBI Championship victory over Morehead State came on Apr. 1, marking the only time a Wolf Pack basketball team had played a game in the month of April. BleacherReport named him their Mountain West Coach of the Year. It was the first postseason title for a Nevada and a MW school.

The 24 wins is the fifth most in season at Nevada. Musselman's first collegiate win was 73-56 over Coastal Carolina in a tournament played in Hawaii. The Pack's 15-win improvement from nine wins to 24 ranked the team as the sixth most improved NCAA I squad

Three members of the Pack earned postseason honors under his direction. Senior Marqueze Coleman earned second-team All-MW honors from the coaches and media. Coleman was also named to the NABC District 17 team. Fellow senior Tyron Criswell was selected as the MW Sixth Man of the Year by the conference media. Musselman returns to Reno where he spent the 2010-11 season coaching the NBA D-League's Bighorns and led them to their first Western Conference title in franchise history.

Musselman's father Bill was also an NBA head coach and they were the first father-son combination to become head coaches in the NBA. Bill also coached the Reno Bighorns of the CBA in 1978-79.

Musselman's first head coaching job came at the age of 23 when he was hired by the Rapid City Thrillers of the Continental Basketball Association in 1989. He was the youngest coach in CBA history and the fastest to win 100 games.

Musselman has served as a head coach in the CBA, the United States Basketball League (USBL) and the NBADL along with the two NBA head coaching stops. His teams have collected six division titles and have advanced to the postseason seven times. He has coached 24 players that went on to play in the NBA. Five times he was named CBA all-star coach.

He led the USBL Florida Sharks to a 53-3 record in two seasons and a league championship which earned him USBL Coach of the Year honors.

He led the Warriors to 38 wins, a team-high in more than 10 years, and was runner-up in the NBA Coach of Year voting. He also coached the Warriors during the 2003-04 season.

Following a year as an assistant with the Memphis Grizzlies under Mike Fratello, he coached the Sacramento Kings for the 2006-07 season.

Musselman worked as an analyst on radio and television prior to coaching the Reno Bighorns (2010-11) and LA D-Fenders (2011-12) of the NBADL. In 2012 he earned Coach of the Year honors.

While coaching the Reno Bighorns in NBADL he worked with Jeremy Lin, Danny Green and Steve Novak who were called up to the NBA. Gerald Green, Malcom Thomas, Darius Morris, Jamarion Moon and Courtney Fortson earned trips to the NBA when he coached them with the D-Fenders.

Musselman has experience coaching international basketball having served as the head coach of the Dominican Republic National Team (2010-11), The US and Team China in the Adidas Global Experience (2009, 2010) and The Venezuela National Team (2011-13).
