ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND YEAR

HEAD COACH JOSH TAYLOR

Josh Taylor enters his third year at the helm of the Nevada softball program, following back-to-back successful seasons with the Wolf Pack. In just his first two years, Taylor, a former baseball player and a member of the Nevada Hall of Fame, brought Nevada to the postseason for consecutive years.

During the 2018 season, Nevada clinched five Mountain West All-Conference honors with three of the five returning for the 2019 season. Taylor also marked a .500 record or better for the past three years after the Pack went 27-27 in 2018.

Along with its 27-27 overall season record, the Wolf Pack posted a 12-12 mark in league play, which is the second-most victories Nevada has had in conference play since joining the Mountain West.

Under his direction, Nevada saw four of its players receive Mountain West All-Conference honors in 2017, including two first-team selections. In 2017, Taylor also helped the Pack reach the 30-win plateau in back-to-back seasons, which is the first time such a task has been accomplished since the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

With a 13-11 record in conference play, Taylor guided Nevada to record the program's most wins in MW play since joining the league in 2012. Two of those wins came at Fresno State, who was the preseason favorite to win the conference in 2017.

In his first year as a Division I head coach, Taylor earned his first victory over a top 25 team as he led Nevada to a seventh inning, comeback win over No. 17 Utah. Taylor also earned two more wins over Power-5 schools in 2017, defeating Iowa State and Kansas in the process.

Prior to moving back to Reno, Taylor served a brief, two-month stint in charge of the softball program at the College of Southern Nevada before being named the head coach at Nevada in August 2016. He joined a Wolf Pack softball program that he was very familiar with as Taylor has been part of the Wolf Pack coaching staff since the 2012 season.

Before accepting the position at the College of Southern Nevada, Taylor served as the assistant softball coach at Nevada for four seasons, where the team saw three winning seasons and over 100 wins. During his time under previous head coach Matt Meuchel, Taylor was responsible for all aspects of team and individual defense while also overseeing camps and clinics, recruiting visits and recruiting databases.

In 2016, Taylor helped lead the team to one of its most successful seasons since joining the Mountain West. The 32 wins Nevada collected marked a 19-win improvement from the 2015 campaign and earned Nevada a third place tie in the 2016 MW standings, which is the team's highest finish as a member of the conference.

His first season leading the defense was the Wolf Pack's best, setting a school record with a .965 fielding percentage that also ranked second in the Mountain West. Nevada also committed just 52 errors as a team that season, the second-lowest total in the conference.

Prior to joining the Wolf Pack, Taylor served as the head coach at Feather River College in Quincy, Calif. Taylor, who was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Feather River baseball team in his first stint from 2004-07, led the Golden Eagle softball program to three-consecutive Super Regional appearances from 2010 to 2012. His overall record in his four years at Feather River was 113-59.

The 2012 season was highlighted by Taylor's third-consecutive 30-win season and his 10th playoff victory in the regional playoff. In 2011, Feather River reached its second-straight Super Regional in a season that also saw Taylor receive the Gatorade Coach of the Year award.

In 2010, Taylor was named Golden Valley Conference Coach of the Year after leading the Golden Eagles to their first GVC title since 2006. The Taylor-led offense topped the GVC in team batting average, runs, RBI, doubles and triples.

While at Feather River, Taylor oversaw all major aspects of the program including travel and budget, academic progress of student-athletes, recruiting efforts, facility and maintenance upkeep and weight training. Taylor also developed and implemented fundraising efforts for the program. Feather River also put Taylor to the task of serving as the fitness center director and an advisor for the Associated Students of Feather River College.

Taylor previously served as associate head coach for the Marysville Gold Sox, a collegiate summer league team, from 2008-11. On top of running all aspects of hitting and fielding instruction, Taylor coached multiple players who went on to earn Division I scholarships and two big leaguers in Cody Anderson and Max Stassi. Prior to joining the Gold Sox, Taylor spent a season as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at San Joaquin College in Stockton, Calif. from 2007-08.

A former Wolf Pack baseball player, Taylor had an impressive senior season in 1994 where he appeared in 41 games, starting in 25, hit .284 with a home run and 12 RBIs. That year, the Pack compiled a season record of 41-15 while going 16-5 in the Big West Conference en route to capturing its first Division I conference championship and appearing in the program's first NCAA Regional.

Nevada was ranked as high as No. 6 in the nation that season and finished the season ranked No. 17. Taylor was inducted into the Nevada Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015 as part of the 1994 baseball squad.

Taylor and his wife, Michelle, have one daughter, Madyson, who is a junior at Nevada.

WINNING PERCENTAGE AS A HEAD COACH

YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE

GATORADE COACH OF THE YEAR AWARD

FAMILIARITY

- Assistant coaches Lisa McKinny and Brianne Durfee both played for Oregon State. McKinny caught Durfee for the Beavers 2003-06 and was an All-Pac-10 catcher and qualified all four years for the NCAA regionals, including an appearance in the 2006 Women's College World Series. Durfee was named the Pac-10 Pitcher of the Year and advanced to the NCAA WCWS in 2006. Twice during her career she was selected as a National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-American. The Pack plays Oregon State in early non-conference

PLAYERS TO WATCH

- Kenzi Goins – Mountain West accolades and All-Tournament recognition after the Puerto Vallarta College Challenge is just the beginning for the Reno native. Put together a four-week stretch during conference play having recorded eight multiple hit performances in 11 games, including five three-hit outings and found herself among the best in conference.
- Julia Jensen – Had a standout rookie season posting six single season top 10 records and 13 wins in her 25 starts in the circle. Tossed a gem against receiving votes, Louisiana Tech, where she threw a complete game and only allowed one run in her debut. Her 14 strikeouts against Utah Valley marked the second-most in one game in school history.

LOCAL GIRLS STAY HOME

- The Wolf Pack has discovered it doesn't need to look far in order to find players that best fit its program as nearly 35 percent (8 players) of the 2019 roster is from the Northern Nevada region.
- Goins, along with sophomores Julia Jensen, Jessica Sellers and Rheanna Smith all played together at Reed HS, where the four of them have had success in years past, winning a state championship in 2015.
- Not all of the Pack's Northern Nevada players are from the Reno-Sparks area as Nevada's roster covers nearly 1,100 square miles of the Northern Nevada region.

NEWCOMERS

- The Pack brought on seven new faces to the 2019 roster, including six freshmen. Kendall Fritz, Dallas Millwood, Riley Brooks, Brianna Seek, Danielle Lew and Natalie Medina.
- Joining the team also is a junior walk-on Aubrey Slocum, who spent time as a manager last season

NEVADA CHOSEN SIXTH IN PRESEASON POLL

- The Wolf Pack was slated sixth in the Mountain West preseason poll, which was voted upon by the league's coaches and announced on Feb. 5. The Pack finished fifth in MW the past two years.
- With a total of 64 points and eight first place votes, Boise State was chosen to defend the conference. Following the Broncos is Fresno State who received 57 points and one first place vote.
- San Jose State (50) beat out UNLV (35) for third while San Diego State (31) edged out Nevada (29), Colorado State (26), Utah State (21) and New Mexico (9).

WHAT A RIDE IT WILL BE

- With 53 contests scheduled, including 24 prior to the first home game and conference play. The Pack squares up against a trio of Power-5 opponents and eight that participated in the 2018 NCAA Regionals.
- Nevada also will take on five opponents who were receiving votes in the USA Today preseason poll and one (Arkansas) who is ranked in the ESPN.com poll.
- 2019 is also highlighted by a three-game series with the reigning MW Champion Boise State Broncos and a trio of contests with UNLV, an intrastate rival.

ROAD WARRIORS

- Prior to its home-opener against Utah State (March 15), Nevada will play its first 23 games away from Hixson Park, all non-conference contests to begin the season.
- Out of the 53 games that are on Nevada's schedule, 41 will be played outside of Reno, making this the third consecutive season the Pack will play more than 60 percent of its games away from Hixson Park.

YOU'RE OUT!

- Freshman pitcher Kendall Fritz recorded 12 strikeouts against Houston in the Houston Classic. She went on to have her first collegiate one-hit shutout against Nicholls State on Feb. 16th the sweep the day in Houston.

MELLO YELLO

- Junior Sierra Mello tied the most hits in a single game dating back to 2006 when Brittany Lorenzen hit five against LA Tech. Mello went 5 for 5 against California Baptist in the double digit hitting fest for the Pack.

WALK IT OUT

- Nevada was on a 36 game streak drawing at least a single walk dating back to the series opener against Utah State; March 31, 2018 until the game against CSUN on March 8, 2019 when the streak was snapped. Ending at 36 games.

MARCH MADNESS BEGINS

- The Pack played in its last tournament of the season and went 2-2 in the Silicon Valley Classic, with wins over (RV) Cal State Fullerton and Northern Kentucky.
- Nevada spent the afternoon in Moraga, Calif. where it won both games of the doubleheader, 2-0 and a run-rule 5-inning victory, 9-0.
- The team had three winning weekends in a row, 3-1 at the Libby Matson, 3-1 at the Wooo Pig Classic and 4-2 at the Silicon Valley/Saint Mary's visit.

SID THE NOT SO SLOTH

- Sadaria McAlister had a career game against the Utah State Aggies where she went 4-for-4 at the plate in the Saturday contest with two home runs and five RBI. The Reno native also had a career high 11 bases and helped the Pack win, 6-4.

DRILL SARGENT

- Senior Kali Sargent recorded a career weekend against the Aggies, going 2-0 with three appearances and one start. The Minden native tallied 20 K's on the weekend with a total of 14.0 innings pitched and only two runs (one earned) in all three games.
- Secured the win over Utah State in the Sunday game after a bases loaded, full count K looking ended the threat of the Aggies taking back over.

DOWN GO THE AGGIES

- Nevada and Utah State matched up in Reno for the Mountain West opener; the Pack is now 2-4 in conference opening series.
- Nevada went into the series with four consecutive seasons being .500 or better entering conference play.
- Nevada took two of the three games from the Aggies including a 6 inning, 11-2 win on Sunday to secure the series.
