A LOOK AT THE 2015 MOUNTAIN WEST SCHEDULE

The 2015 Mountain West football schedule is comprised of 97 games, including 48 Conference matchups. The scheduling format for the 12-member football lineup consists of five intra-divisional games and three cross-divisional contests. Each institution will play four home and four road Conference games. This is the third year of the initial four-year cycle in which each member institution will play every other Mountain West opponent home and away. In 2015, the cross-divisional opponents will flip from the first two years, with teams playing their new opponents from the other division.

The 2015 schedule will play out over 14 weeks, concluding on Sat., Dec. 5 with the Mountain West Football Championship Game to be played at the home stadium of the highest-ranked of the two divisional champions.

The non-conference slate features 22 games against teams that earned bowl berths in 2014, including Arizona, Arizona State, Auburn, BYU (4 games), Minnesota, Mississippi, Michigan State, Navy, Northern Illinois, Ohio State, Penn State, South Alabama, Texas A&M, UCLA, Utah (2 games), Washington (2 games) and Wisconsin. TWO NEW HEAD COACHES JOIN MW RANKS IN 2015

For the second consecutive year, the Mountain West welcomes two new head football coaches. Colorado State will be under the direction of Mike Bobo, while Tony Sanchez takes over at UNLV. Both are first-year head coaches.

Bobo comes to Colorado State from the University of Georgia, where he had spent the previous 14 seasons, including the last eight as offensive coordinator. Bobo's 14-year stint at Georgia, where he was a quarterback in the late 1990s, began in January, 2001, when head coach Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach. He was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2007. During his time at UGA, Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two Southeastern Conference championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. Prior to his time with the Bulldogs, Bobo began his coaching career at Jacksonville State (1999-2000).

Sanchez spent the last six seasons leading Bishop Gorman (Las Vegas) High School on an overall record of 85-5 and six consecutive state 4A championships. In his six seasons at Bishop Gorman, Sanchez saw 34 of his players earn collegiate football scholarships, including 25 to FBS programs. Prior to his stint in Las Vegas, he coached at Ocate High School in Las Cruces, N.M. and Irvin High School in El Paso, Texas. His lone collegiate coaching experience came in 1996 as he was an undergraduate assistant at New Mexico State, the school where Sanchez was a two-year letterwinner.

FIRST-YEAR HEAD COACHES IN THE MOUNTAIN WEST

The Mountain West has welcomed 24 new head coaches over the last 16 seasons. Former BYU head coach Gary Crowton and current Boise State head coach Bryan Harsin have posted the most victories and highest win percentage among the group with 12 victories and an .857 win percentage in their inaugural years in 2001 and 2014, respectively. Harsin became the first to conclude his inaugural season by winning the Mountain West Championship Game, the first of two outright MW Championships in program history. Harsin is the only alumnus to lead the Broncos as head coach in the history of Boise State. Harsin is one of three first-year coaches to win at least 10 games in their inaugural season, joining Crowton (12 wins, 2001) and Urban Meyer (10 wins, 2003).

WHAT TO WATCH FOR

- A victory over New Mexico would give Utah State bowl eligibility for the fifth straight season. A victory for the Lobos would give them their first 5-win season since 2007. That year, UNM compiled a 9-4 record and defeated Nevada in the New Mexico Bowl.
- When it produces a 100-yard rusher, Utah State has won 19 consecutive games.
- Utah State LB Nick Vigil leads the Mountain West with 11.1 tackles per contest, which ranks eighth nationally. On the year, Vigil has 89 tackles.
- Utah State is one of six FBS teams (Western Kentucky, Navy, California, Penn State, Houston) to recover 10 fumbles this season.
- Aggies LB Kyler Fackrell was named a semifinalist for the Butkus Award, given annually to the top collegiate linebacker. This season, Fackrell has 53 tackles, including 11 tackles for loss and three sacks, four fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles.
- Utah State has won 13 of its last 16 Conference road games. Under head coach Matt Wells, the Aggies are 7-3 in Mountain West road contests.
- New Mexico has recorded a takeaway in 16 of its last 18 games. This season, the Lobos have 14 takeaways, which is fourth-best in the Mountain West.
- The Lobos are 3-0 this season when rushing for 300 yards and 1-4 when rushing for fewer than 300 yards. UNM rushed for 205 yards against San José State in its last game. The Lobos have only won once when rushing for fewer than 200 yards under head coach Bob Davie (2015 vs. Hawai'i).
- Among active FBS players, UNM's Carlos Wiggins ranks third with a career kick return average of 28.4 yards on 77 returns. His five career touchdowns are tied for second nationally.
- The Lobos are 11-of-14 (.786) on fourth-down attempts, which ranks ninth nationally and first in the Mountain West. They have converted a fourth-down conversion in seven of eight contests this season, and the only game they didn't convert one was because they didn't register an attempt.
- New Mexico leads the Mountain West and ranks ninth nationally, averaging 8.1 tackles for loss per contest. The Lobos have recorded double-digit tackles in the backfield, including 13 in the season opener vs. Mississippi Valley State.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR

- Hawai'i and UNLV have split each of the last six games in the series, with the home institution winning each of those contests. Half of those six games, including the last two meetings, have been decided by two points or less.
- The Rebels haven't lost at home to the Rainbow Warriors since Sept. 15, 2007 (49-14).
- Hawai'i has dropped six consecutive contests, with its last victory coming against UC Davis on Sept. 19, 2015 (47-27). This is tied for the fifth-longest active losing streak in the FBS.
- The Rainbow Warriors last road victory was at San José State (13-0) on Nov. 15, 2014.
- After being held to -2 yards rushing last weekend vs. Air Force, Hawai'i's fewest yards of the ground in a game since 2009 (-7 vs. Louisiana Tech), the Rainbow Warriors now rank 126th nationally, averaging 86.1 yards per contest.
- The Rebels defense has intercepted 10 passes in 2015, which ranks in the top-20 nationally. The 10 picks, which have been recorded by nine different players, are three more than UNLV registered last season.
- In the last 21 games, UNLV has only lost four fumbles. The Rebels set a program record for fewest lost fumbles in 2014 with three, and they've only lost one this year (vs. UCLA). They are tied for first nationally with Florida State with only one fumble lost.
- UNLV WR Devonte Boyd finished last Saturday's game vs. Boise State with 10 receptions for 116 yards. It marked the fifth 100-yard game of his career. Fellow WR Aaron Criswell had 105 yards on six catches, marking his first career 100-yard game and the first time UNLV boasted two 100-yard receivers in a single game for the first time since Boyd (102) and Devante Davis (100) did it at Arizona in the 2014 season opener.
- UNLV got its third defensive score of the season when CB Fred Wilson returned a Boise State fumble one yard for a score. It marked the first fumble return for a TD by the Rebels since former Rebel DB Kenneth Penny returned one 30 yards at Boise State on Oct. 20, 2012.

2015 MOUNTAIN WEST FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The 2015 Mountain West Football Championship game will kick off at 4:30 p.m. PT/5:30 p.m. MT on Saturday, December 5. ESPN2 will broadcast the title match-up.

HOST SITE DETERMINATION

Host Determination. The Conference Football Championship Game shall be played at the site of the divisional champion with the highest College Football Playoff (CFP) Selection Committee ranking. The site determination shall be made no later than the Sunday following the final week of regular-season games, utilizing the latest available CFP poll.

If one divisional champion was ranked ahead of the other divisional champion in the CFP Selection Committee ranking and wins in the final weekend of the regular season, they will be declared the host. If, in that same scenario, the divisional champion that was the highest-ranked in the CFP poll loses in the final weekend of the regular season, a composite of selected computer rankings following the games of November 29 will be used to determine the host.

If no Mountain West teams are ranked in the latest available CFP Selection Committee poll, a composite of selected computer rankings following the games of November 28 will be used to determine the host.

Host Tie Breaker. In the event of a tie in the latest CFP Selection Committee ranking or the composite of selected computer rankings, the following comparison procedure shall be used (in order as necessary) to determine the site of the game:

- If one team was the winner of a Conference game between the two teams, it shall be the Championship Game host.
- If a tie still exists, winning percentage against common Conference opponents shall determine the Championship Game host.
- If a tie still exists, winning percentage against the next highest-placed common opponent in the Conference based upon (in order): 1. order of finish in the respective divisions, 2. record in all Conference games, and 3. most recent composite of selected computer rankings, proceeding through the Conference, will break the tie.
- Coin toss.

Divisional Champions. A divisional champion shall be the team with the highest winning percentage in all Conference games, both inter-divisional and intra-divisional, in the division. (Adopted January 2013)

- Tie Games. A tie football game shall count as half-a-game won and half-a-game lost in the standings

[Note: A team ineligible under NCAA or Mountain West rules for post-season (bowl) competition shall not compete in the Championship Game.]

DIVISIONAL TIEBREAKERS

Tie Between Two Teams. In the event of a percentage tie for a divisional championship between two teams, if one team was the winner of the Conference game between the two teams, it shall be the divisional champion.

If no game was played between the two tied teams, or that game ended in a tie, the following comparison procedure shall be used to break the tie:

- Winning percentage in games played within the division.
- Winning percentage against the next highest-placed team in the division (based upon the team's record in all games played in the Conference), proceeding through the division.
- Winning percentage against common Conference opponents.
- Highest CFP ranking (or the composite of selected computer rankings if neither team is ranked in the CFP rankings) following the final week of Conference regular-season games.
- Overall winning percentage against FBS opponents.
- Coin toss.

Tie Between More Than Two Teams:

In the event of a percentage tie for a divisional championship between more than two teams, the following comparison procedure shall be used to eliminate all but two tied teams, at which point the two-team tie-breaking procedure shall be used:

- Winning percentage in games played among the tied teams.
- Winning percentage in games played against division opponents.
- Winning percentage against the next highest-placed team in the division (based upon the team's record in all games played in the Conference), proceeding through the division.
- Winning percentage against common Conference opponents.
- Highest CFP ranking (or the composite of selected computer rankings if neither team is ranked in the CFP rankings) following the final week of Conference regular-season games

MW BOWL SYNOPSIS

The number of postseason appearances for the Mountain West will be driven by on-the-field performance, starting with the opportunity to play in the national semifinals or another New Year's Day bowl game as part of the College Football Playoff arrangement. The highest-rated champion from among the five non-contracted conferences (American, C-USA, MAC, MW, Sun Belt, or chosen by the playoff selection committee) is guaranteed a slot in the system. In the 16 seasons since the league's inception, the Mountain West's champion or a current MW member has secured that position 12 times, placing teams in the Fiesta (3), Rose and Sugar (2) Bowls during that period.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

The MW also has agreements with seven (7) different bowl games that in any given year will generate as many as seven (7) postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions in some or all years with the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, Hawai'i Bowl and the Arizona Bowl - and a secondary position with the Cactus Bowl.

NOTE: The MW is the primary backup for the Ticket City Cactus Bowl if the Big 12 or Pac-12 does not fill.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

In its second season, the College Football Playoff format remains unchanged: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and the national championship game played in a different city every year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

THE SELECTION COMMITTEE

A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performances during the regular season, including strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game.

THE ROTATION

The semifinals will rotate among six different bowls, extending the experience to more fans. In the years when the bowls are not hosting semifinals, the bowls will feature eight other teams in four compelling matchups.
