TIP-OFF

The New Mexico State men's basketball looks to rebound from its first home loss of the season this Saturday, Nov. 17, when it travels to #Aggiequerque for the first contest in this year's Battle of I-25 against New Mexico.

Jenny Cavnar will have the call alongside Joe Cravens serving as the analyst inside Dreamstyle Arena when the Aggies and Lobos tip-off at 4 p.m. (MT) on AT&T Sports Network (DirectTV: 674).

To find AT&T Sports Network, go to <https://southwest-attsn.att.com/channel-finder/>.

Cavnar made waves throughout the sports broadcasting world on April 23 of this year when she became the first woman since 1993 to do play-by-play on an MLB telecast when she had the call between the Colorado Rockies and the San Diego Padres.

ROUND I

NM State won't have too much time to dwell on Wednesday night's loss, turning its focus towards Battle of I-25 rival New Mexico with just two days to prepare. The Lobos enter the first of two meetings 2-0 after wins over CSUN on the road and Iona at home. The 221st meeting between the two programs could see NM State walk away with its 100th win against its rivals while the host Lobos could tally their 122nd win against the Aggies.

New Mexico currently has a whopping six players averaging in double-figures and is paced by Corey Manigault - who is posting 18.0 points per game and 7.5 rebounds per game heading into Saturday's match-up. He's followed by Anthony Mathis with 13.0 points per game while Vance Jackson checks in with 12.5 points per game. Makuach Maluach checks in averaging 10.5 points while Dane Kuiper and Keith McGee are averaging 10 points apiece to round out the double-digit scorers.

Of the bunch, Jackson is averaging a double-double as well - averaging 10 rebounds in addition to his 12.5 points per game. Manigault is also big on the boards through two games, averaging 7.5 rebounds while Vladimir Pinchuk is scoring 9.5 points to go with 6.0 rebounds.

As a team, the Lobos are shooting 51-percent from the floor and 41-percent from downtown. UNM's length has helped the team on defense, averaging 4.5 blocks so far on the year and have swiped the ball 15 times two games into the season.

DEEPER DIVE INTO THE RIVALRY

Heading into Saturday's contest, the Aggies have won three-straight against the Lobos and look to make it four by the end of Saturday night. The last time the Aggies won four-straight games against the UNM came during the 1993-94 seasons - coincidentally also the last time NM State swept New Mexico in back-to-back seasons. Below is a list of instances the Aggies have swept the Lobos in back-to-back season with a few notations.

- 1916 and 1917 (1 game each)
- 1922 and 1923 (4 games in 1 year, unknown dates for 2 games)
- 1937 and 1938 (4 games each year)
- 1939 and 1940 (4 in '39 and 6 in '40)

1954 and 1955
 1957 and 1958 (1 game each)
 1993 and 1994

RIVALRY REWIND

Head coach Chris Jans became the only first-year head coach in New Mexico State basketball history to sweep both New Mexico and UTEP last season. The win also gave NM State its first victory in Albuquerque since 2013. The last time NM State swept both the Lobos and Miners was during the 2002-03 season under legendary head coach Lou Henson. That was also the last time the Aggies claimed three-straight wins against UNM. The last NM State first-year head coach to sweep the Lobos was Weldon Drew (1979-80).

A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN

Heading into the 2018-19 season, the Aggies are one of 21 basketball programs in the country that have won at least 20 games in the last six seasons. Of those 21, only New Mexico State, Arizona, Boise State, BYU, Gonzaga, Oregon and Saint Mary's hail from the western states.

Through games on Tuesday, Nov. 12, New Mexico State is just 1-of-8 schools in the west to have won at least 100 or more games at home since the 2011-12 season. The other seven? Arizona, Gonzaga, Oregon, San Diego State, Saint Mary's, UCLA and Wyoming.

Oregon	119	Virginia	108	UCLA	104
Kentucky	118	Cincinnati	107	Michigan State	103
Saint Mary's (CA)	117	Duke	107	Michigan	102

LAST TIME OUT

New Mexico State kept its pace Saint Mary's early on in the first half, but a big run by the Gaels heading into the break was too much for the Aggies to overcome. Despite a comeback effort in the second stanza by NM State, the veteran Saint Mary's team weathered the storm and handed the Aggies their first loss of the year 73-58.

AJ Harris led the Aggies with 15 points while Ivan Aurrecochea posted 12 points on six rebounds. Eli Chuha chipped in with nine points and six boards of his own while Terrell Brown added seven points with four boards.

UP NEXT

The Aggies return home the following week and plays host to Eastern New Mexico on Wednesday, Nov. 21, in a 6 p.m. contest on the WAC Digital Network. NM State won't have to travel very far after that as it heads east to face Battle of I-10 rival UTEP on Wednesday, Nov. 28, at the Don Haskins Center.

THE BIG 5-0

The 2017-18 campaign serves as the 50th anniversary since the Pan American Center was built in 1968-69 and has since been home to the NM State men's basketball team. To celebrate, the NM State marketing department created a special edition posters that includes an image from the construction of the building.

PROJECT THIS HOUSE

New Mexico State is 621-154 (.801) all-time inside the Pan American Center and has gone 140-24 the last 10 years at home (including the 2018-19 season [2-1]). NM State has not lost more than two games on its home floor, since 2011-12 when it dropped three games on Lou Henson Court.

New Mexico State begins the 2018-19 campaign with a dominant 102-11 (.903) record on Lou Henson Court dating back to the 2011-12 season. After this past Wednesday's loss at home to Saint Mary's, the Aggies are now 104-12 (.897) at home since the 2011-12 season.

MINER RUSHED

After a slow start, the NM State men's basketball team's engine began to rev and it sure went fast, outscoring Battle of I-10 rival 84-48 after going doing 21-12 at the 14:48 mark in the first half for the 96-69 victory. The Aggies were paced by five players in double-figures while the bench erupted for 52 points to UTEP's three. As a team, New Mexico State also held a 42-26 advantage in the paint against the Miners.

The Last time NM State had five players score in double-figures against a Division I team was against Long Beach State on Dec. 3, 2016, a 93-85 battle in favor of the Aggies. NM State did have five players score in double-figures against Eastern New Mexico last season, however, the Greyhounds are a Division II team.

Clayton Henry led the Aggies with 14 points and five boards on 5-of-9 shooting while C.J. Bobbitt added 13 points and four rebounds on 3-of-6 shooting from beyond the arc. Meanwhile, Eli Chuha, Terrell Brown and Ivan Aurrecochea chipped in with 11 points apiece in the rout of UTEP. Redshirt freshman Jabari Rice had a nice showing off the bench, scoring six points with six rebounds four other Aggies tallying six or more points.

#FLASHBACKFRIDAY

Last Friday's Battle of I-10 rivalry game against UTEP, the New Mexico State men's basketball wore throwback jerseys that paid homage to its teams from the past. The throwback jerseys will be auctioned off later in the year. Further details will be forthcoming regarding the auction.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

After Tuesday's home and season-opener, here's how the Aggies have fared throughout the years in their first game...

- Season-Openers: 68-42-1
Home-Openers: 82-27-1
Season/Home Opener was the Same Game: 56-18-1

The Aggie men have now won ive-straight home-openers and eight of their last nine. Only loss during that stretch came against Western Michigan in 2013. The only year NM State didn't have a home-opener was during the 1907-08 campaign.

TOP OF HIS CLASS

Head coach Chris Jans' 28-6 overall mark and .824 winning-percentage was best among first-year head coaches and first-year head coaches at a new school last season.

50 MARKS THE SPOT

NM State head men's basketball coach Chris Jans picked up his 50th career victory at the Division I level on opening night of the 2018-19 campaign when the Aggies dispatched North Dakota State 73-56 at home as part of the Summit League/WAC Challenge.

MEET THE NEWCOMERS

With just five players returning from last year's historic run, Coach Jans and his staff scoured the country once again and finished with 10 new players. In addition, the Aggies had two new members join them on staff with James Miller and Sean McClurg taking over duties for Lou Gudino and Jordan Sperber, respectively.

Of the 10, four will redshirt during the 2018-19 season and of the four, one is sitting out due to NCAA transfer rules. The Aggies will also get the services of JoJo Zamora, Jabari Rice, C.J. Bobbitt and Robert Brown, who redshirted last season.

Freshman Berrick JeanLouis comes to NM State as a three-star recruit according to 247Sports.com after spending his last two prep seasons at Canterbury School. There, he led the Cougars to the Florida High School Athletic Association Class 3A finals as a senior after an undefeated run in District 6 play (14-0) before finishing with a 21-6 overall record. He was also named The News-Press Male Athlete of the Year at the Annual Southwest Florida Sports Award after averaging 17.7 points, 7.1 rebounds, 4.3 assists, 2.0 steals and 1.3 blocks.

JUCO transfer Terrell Brown is set to make his Aggie debut this season after leading City College of San Francisco to its second California Community College Athletic Association championship in three years. The junior was named the Coast Conference-North MVP and also earned CCCAA All-State Championship Tournament Team honors after leading CCSF to a 33-1 overall record and undefeated mark in conference play (12-0). The 6-1 guard averaged 15.9 points, 4.3 rebounds and 3.0 assists while shooting 50.3-percent from the floor and 47.3-percent from beyond the arc.

The Canadian pipeline continues for NM State with Clayton Henry. The JUCO transfer from Palm Beach State College averaged 10.3 points, 6.4 rebounds and 2.6 assists as a sophomore with the Panthers. Henry tallied seven double-doubles that year, including a triple-double against Miami Dade with 22 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists on 10-of-19 shooting. As a freshman, the Calgary, Canada, product helmed guide Palm Beach State College to a 25-6 overall record and participated in the Southeastern JUCO Jamboree and All-American Jamboree.

Ivan Aurrecoechea, a top-10 ranked JUCO player when he signed with the Aggies, led Indian Hills Community College to its fifth-consecutive National Junior College Athletic Association National Championship appearance and finished 33-1 on the year - which was a program best in wins. The 6-8 forward earned Iowa Community College Athletic Conference All-Region First-Team for the second-straight year after averaging a double-double with 13.1 points and 11.5 rebounds with a .592 shooting clip. Aurrecoechea tallied 17 double-doubles while pulling down 10-plus boards in 19 games.

Addison Wallace was highly touted coming out of Cleburne High School where he guided the team's resurgence into relevancy with its first playoff appearance in eight years as a junior. The 6-3 guard wrapped up his high school career leading CHS to a 22-12 overall mark while averaging 24.0 points, 10.4 rebounds, 4.0 assists, 2.4 steals and 1.3 blocks as a senior. Wallace named District 9-5A MVP as a junior and senior while garnering all-district honors his entire prep career - including Johnson County MVP honors as a junior. The Cleburne, Texas, native also excelled in the classroom, owning the third-highest GPA in his graduating class and is a member of the National Honor Society as well as the Beta Club.

Last, but not least, is Mohamed Thiam, who is a JUCO transfer from Marshalltown Community College. The 6-9 forward had a breakout sophomore campaign, averaging 19.7 points, 9.6 rebounds and 1.8 assists while leading Marshalltown CC to another National Junior College Athletic Association Tournament appearance. The sixth-ranked JUCO player according to JucoRecruiting.com garnered NJCAA Third-Team All-American accolades for his efforts as well as First-team All-Region XI honors this past season. He opened last season with 13-straight games with double-digit scoring and finished the season with 16-straight contests in double-figures.

Redshirting this season for NM State will be Junub Chuol, William McNair, Tennessee Owens and Trevelin Queen.

LOFTON SIGNS TWO-WAY CONTRACT WITH PISTONS

Former Aggie guard Zach Lofton signed a two-way contract with the Detroit Pistons after a impressing the front office at the NBA Summer League and training camp. Lofton averaged 10.8 points, 2.5 rebounds, 1.0 steals and 1.0 assists in six games for the Pistons, including a 21 point performance against the Los Angeles Lakers in the quarterfinals of NBA Summer League Playoffs.

A couple days after signing his two-way contract, Lofton saw action in the Detroit Piston's opening-night roster. The 6-4 guard made his NBA debut that night and started the second quarter for Detroit and registered a steal.

Lofton had a tremendous debut with the Grand Rapids Drive, the G League affiliate for the Detroit Pistons, on opening night. The St. Paul, Minn., native was an assist shy of a triple-double in his G League debut, posting 26 points on 10-of-23 shooting with 11 rebounds and nine assists along with four steals.

#SUPERJJ SIGNS WITH SOUTH BAY LAKERS

Former NM State All-American Jemerrio Jones was selected No. 18 overall by the Santa Cruz Warriors in the 2018 G League Draft before being traded to the South Bay Lakers. The 6-5 forward made his pro debut with the South Bay Lakers on Saturday, Nov. 3, posting five points, nine rebounds, three assists and two steals.

#PROAGGIES

New Mexico State men's basketball has 16 former players who are currently playing professional basketball around the world. The list is highlighted by 2016 NBA first rounder Pascal Siakam and 2018 undrafted free-agent Zach Lofton. When Lofton entered the game on opening night in the second quarter, he and Pascal became the first pair of Aggies to play on opening-night of the NBA since Randy Brown (CHI) and Reggie Jordan (MIN) did so in 1997. For a complete list of Aggies playing professional around the world, fans can visit www.nmstatesports.com/proaggies.

SUMMIT LEAGUE/WAC CHALLENGE

The first season of a two-year deal between the WAC and Summit League that'll pit teams from each conference against another begins this season. The Challenge features head-to-head competition between all nine teams. Matchups were set based upon factors including the previous year's achievements, records and RPI rankings, as well as projected rankings in the upcoming season. Those teams with home games in 2018 will play on the road in 2019 and vice versa. In addition, teams won't face the same opponent in back-to-back years.

ATHLETIC PROWESS

At the end of last season, New Mexico State was one of 13 schools with 28 wins in 2017-18, joining Virginia, Cincinnati, Gonzaga, Villanova, Michigan State, Loyola Chicago, Saint Mary's, Xavier, Purdue, Stephen F. Austin, South Dakota State and Michigan.

Of those 13 teams, ONLY New Mexico State (Arizona Bowl), Michigan State (Holiday) and Purdue (Foster Farms Bowl) had their football program win a bowl game while their men's basketball team posted 28 wins on the season.

WAC BLUE BLOODS

Since joining the Western Athletic Conference, New Mexico State has enjoyed great success, winning eight of the 13 conference tournaments it has played in - including four-straight from 2012-15.

The Aggies are 29-5 all-time at the WAC Tournament, giving them the most victories in conference tournament history and passed Battle of I-10 rival UTEP (27-15). Its .853 winning-percentage is the best amongst WAC Tournament teams with a winning record.

VIVA LAS VEGAS!

New Mexico State is now 18-2 all-time when playing at Orleans Arena after last season and 29-5 all-time in the WAC Tournament - including an 11-0 stretch where the aggies won four-straight WAC Tournament titles (2012-15). The two losses for NM State in Las Vegas came in the first year the tournament was moved to Sin City when it lost to the second-seeded Broncos of Boise State in the semifinals while playing as the No. 3 seed. NM State's other loss came in 2016 to CSU Bakersfield in the championships game on a buzzer beater.

ONE TIME FOR THE ONE TIME

With its resounding 82-58 win over UMKC in the Pan American Center on senior day last year coupled with a Utah Valley loss, New Mexico State clinched the Western Athletic Conference regular-season title for the third time in four years. Other than the three the Aggies had won since the 2014-15 season, the last time NM State won a regular-season title outright was when it captured the Big West Conference back-to-back years from 1992-94.

Chris Jans also became the only first-year head coach in program history to win a regular-season conference title outright last season. Former Aggie head coach Marvin Menzies shared the WAC regular-season title his first year at the helm.

TITLETOWN USA

New Mexico State wrapped up its 10th WAC Tournament Championship appearance since joining the conference in the 2005-06 season with a 72-58 victory over Grand Canyon this past March. The Aggies moved 8-2 when playing in tournament title games, losing only in 2008 and 2016. NM State also played in its seventh-straight championship game, it last missed out on the title match in 2011. Counting last season's championship game, NM State has played in the title match 10-of-13 years since joining the league. In addition, the WAC Tournament MVP has come from NM State eight of the last 13 seasons after Jemerrio Jones was crowned the tournament MVP in 2018.

WAC DOMINANCE CONTINUES

After a successful 2017-18 regular-season campaign, New Mexico State head coach Chris Jans was named the Western Athletic Conference Don Haskins Coach of the Year. He became the first WAC men's head coach since Nevada's Mark Fox (2004-05) to win coach of the year honors in his first season at the helm. Jemerrio Jones' WAC Player of the Year honor made it three-straight for New Mexico State. It was also the fourth time an Aggie has been named the league's top player in five years.

The Aggies posted a 25-5 overall mark in the regular-season and 12-2 record in conference play under his direction. The 12-2 record in the WAC gave NM State its third regular-season title in four years outright and is the second-best record in conference play since joining the WAC. In addition, Jans guided the Aggies to their first win over an AP top-10 ranked opponent since 1990 when NM State defeated then-No. 6/7 Miami 63-54 in the semifinal game of the 2017 Hawaii Airlines Diamond Head Classic.

CONFERENCE POWERHOUSE

Heading into the 2018-19 season, New Mexico State has finished in the top-three in conference play for 13-straight years, which ranks them fifth in the nation and trails only Gonzaga (22), Kansas (19), Belmont (17) and BYU (14).

New Mexico State Director of Athletics Mario Moccia handed the reigns to the coveted Aggie men's basketball program to Chris Jans on Monday, April 17, naming the Fairbank, Iowa, native the 26th head men's basketball coach at NM State.

The 25-year veteran took the helm of an Aggie team that won a program record 28 games and won 28 games himself in his first year. Since his arrival, New Mexico State has beaten its first AP top-10 opponent in 17 season as well as take down a pair of Power 5 teams in Illinois and then #6/7 Miami. His tenure started off with a bang, sweeping both UNM and UTEP before winning 11-straight.

Jans was named the WAC Coach the Year after leading the Aggies to a 12-2 conference finish to claim the regular-season title and added a WAC Tournament title to his name when the Aggies defeated Grand Canyon 72-58. Under his direction, Jemerrio Jones was named the WAC Player of Year while Zach Lofton was named First-Team All-WAC. Jones was also named to the all-defensive team while AJ Harris joined Lofton on the all-newcomer list. In addition, Jones and Lofton were named to the U.S. Basketball Writers Association's All-District VIII team.

He recently began his second-stint at Wichita State prior to the start of the 2016-17 season under head coach Greg Marshall. At the conclusion of this past season, Jans was elevated to associate head coach before taking the NM State head coaching job.

Prior to returning to WSU, Jans coordinated one of the nation's best turnarounds in 2014-15 in his first year as the head coach at Bowling Green. In just one season, he took a BGSU team that lost 20 games in 2013-14 and guided it to a record-setting 21-12 overall mark in 2014-15 - which was the most wins in a single-season for Bowling Green since 2001-02 (24).

With the 21 wins, Jans became the first head coach in Falcons history to lead the team to 20 wins or more in his first year at the helm. His record-setting 21 wins eclipsed the 18 wins set previously by hall of famers Harold Anderson and Bill Fitch.

The 2014-15 campaign also saw Jans lead BGSU to its first national postseason tournament victory since 1975 when the Falcons defeated Saint Francis (Pa.) in the 2015 Collegeinsider.com Tournament (CIT).

In that same year, Bowling Green finished Mid-American Conference play 11-7 - which was the most wins in MAC play for BGSU since going 11-5 during the 2008-09 season. In addition, the Falcons also reeled off 11 road victories for the first time since the 1947-48 season.

With the historic year for Falcon men's basketball, Jans was chosen by his peers as the National Association of Basketball Coaches' top first-year head coach with the 2015 Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year award.

Before taking the helm at BGSU, Jans spent seven years alongside Marshall at Wichita State (2007-14). He was a member of the inaugural staff with Marshall at WSU and turned the program around to become the staple of the NCAA Tournament it is now. After just one season, the Shockers earned a CBI bid in 2009 followed by an NIT bid at home in 2010 with the help of future NBA guard Toure' Murry and center Garrett Stutz.

The Shockers began to break through in the 2010-11 campaign when they recorded 24 wins and a runner-up finish in conference play. Despite missing the Big Dance, WSU gave Shocker fans some hope when it reeled off five-consecutive wins and won the program's first NIT Championship.

Wichita State claimed the Missouri Valley Conference title the following year and made its first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 2006 as the No. 5 seed before falling to the 12th-seeded Cinderella VCU Rams.

Jans was instrumental in landing Ron Baker, a future All-American and NBA player, who helped guide WSU to its deep run in the NCAA Tournament in 2013. The Shockers broke a lot of brackets that season, taking down Pittsburgh and the overall No. 1 seed Gonzaga to reach the Sweet 16 before taking down a hot La Salle and Ohio State team to earn Wichita State its first Final Four appearance since 1965.

In the final season of his first stint with the Shockers, Jans helped Wichita State set an NCAA record with a 35-0 start to the season. During that stretch, WSU ran the gamut in the Valley and became the first program to go undefeated in nearly 30 years. That season also saw Fred VanVleet, Cleanthony Early and Baker earn first-team all-conference selections while Early and VanVleet notched All-America honors on top of VanVleet adding MVC Player of the Year to his mantle of awards.

He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at NCAA Division III Elmhurst College in 1992 before taking a similar role at NAIA Grande View College in 1994. Jans earned his first head coaching opportunity when he took over at NJCAA Division II Kirkwood Community College in 1996.

Jans was named the Region XI Coach of the Year after guiding the Eagles to a 25-10 season, which included a conference title and the program's first-ever national tournament appearance. He followed up his rookie season with a 31-6 campaign highlighted by Kirkwood capturing the NJCAA Division II National Championship and Jans being named the National Coach of the Year.

Sandwiched in between his time at Independence Community College (1998-99) and Howard College (2001-03), Jans got his first taste of the Division I level as an assistant coach at Idaho (1999-01) under David Farrar.

After Howard, he took over at Chipola Junior College and joined forces with Greg Heiar - who played for Jans in his rookie season as a head coach at Kirkwood CC and was a fellow assistant coach at WSU. Success continued to follow Jans as he led Chipola JC to its first conference title in a decade while finishing sixth at the NJCAA Division I National Tournament and finished 32-5 overall.

Jans then made his second appearance at the Division I level, this time as an assistant coach at Illinois State (2004-07) on Porter Moser's staff before joining Marshall at Wichita State.

Jans was a three-year starter at Loras College (1987-91) and was named a captain as a senior. During his time in Dubuque, Iowa, he helped the Duhawks break 16 scoring records and two NCAA Division III records for three-point shooting.

A graduate of Loras College in 1991, Jans earned his bachelor degrees in marketing and finance. He and his wife Sheri have two kids, Nick and Maddie Gazda.
