LOBOS HEAD TO PHOENIX FOR TRIO OF MATCHES

The University of New Mexico beach volleyball team is aiming to pick up some experience as it plays three matches against No. 10/12 Grand Canyon, Abilene Christian and Grossmont College this Friday and Saturday in Phoenix.

After starting their 2018 campaign with some solid performances, the Lobos (0-3) are looking for their first wins of the season as they face off against the Lopes (2-4) and Wildcats (0-4) on Friday and the Griffins (6-0) on Saturday at the GCU Beach Volleyball Stadium.

This week's slate, like most this season, continues a season-opening stretch of four weeks with at least one nationally ranked opponent.

Grand Canyon, despite its record, is ranked 10th in the DiG Magazine Poll and 12th in the AVCA Poll, while the Lobos are receiving votes in the AVCA Poll.

However, as they venture back into the sand, this week provides New Mexico chance to improve.

Last weekend, UNM was able to compete against a trio of top-20 foes at the Arizona Invitational. But, in their first action of the season, the Lobos couldn't pull out any upsets.

Two partnerships did score last weekend, and, as New Mexico heads back to Arizona, the team will rely on those tandems to lead them in Phoenix.

In the Lobos' losses to Arizona and Loyola Marymount, the duos of Eastyn Baletto & Lauren Twitty and Maddie Irwin & Erin Martin scored once each, providing the team with some firepower near the top of its lineup.

For Baletto & Twitty, the winningest individuals on the team with 51 and 19 wins, respectively, their experience is critical as the newcomers on the team start to catch up with them in terms of game experience.

Irwin & Martin, playing out of both the Nos. 1 and 2 positions last week, were able to show well in their collegiate beach volleyball debuts, earning a point vs. LMU.

Additionally, the Lobos can look to Chloe

Crappell & Yasmin Tan in the top spots in the lineup, as they played twice at the 1's and once at the 2's.

Elsewhere in the lineup, New Mexico played Emily Nenninger & Carly Beddingfield mostly in the No. 4 position, while the freshmen duo of Kayla Long & Abbey Willison saw action largely in the No. 5 spot.

NEW MEXICO RECEIVING VOTES IN AVCA COACHES POLL

New Mexico beach volleyball is receiving votes in the second regular-season edition of the AVCA Collegiate Beach Coaches Poll that was released Monday, March 5.

Following up on its second straight season of 17 wins, New Mexico continued to receive votes in the AVCA Coaches Poll. Unofficially, the Lobos rank 27th in the 20-team poll.

UNM was also receiving votes in the preseason edition and first-regular season release of both polls.

Pepperdine took over as the top-ranked team in the AVCA Poll, knocking previous No. 1 USC down a notch to second. No. 3 Hawai'i, No. 4 UCLA and No. 5 Florida State round out the top five.

After taking on three ranked teams last weekend at the Arizona Invitational, New Mexico will face off against another ranked foe this week as they travel to Phoenix to play No. 12 Grand Canyon.

FIFTY 50

Through the first three years of the program, one Lobo has stood above the rest as the winningest player for UNM.

Eastyn Baleto, a senior from Seattle, continues her final year in the sand with 51 career wins in the sand, easily tops in the team's record books.

A three-year alum of the program, Julia Warren, is second with 47 wins, while Marisa Doran and Lise Rugland both have 41.

The next closest active player is Lauren Twitty with 19 career wins.

Baleto's career record is 51-19, which stands third-best in program history with a minimum of 20 matches played. Doran (41-10, .803) and Lauren Twitty (18-5, .783) are the only two Lobos ahead of Baleto.

SHE'S BEEN EVERYWHERE

Over the course of the three-year history of New Mexico beach volleyball, only one player has managed to play at least one match in every position. That player: Chloe Crappell.

Crappell, a senior from Albuquerque, has seen action at the 1's, 2's, 3's, 4's and 5's positions for the Lobos.

She's played the bulk of her 29 career matches at the Nos. 2 and 3 courts, going 3-4 and 0-7, respectively. She is also 1-4 all-time at the 1's, and 4-2 at the 4's and 3-1 at the 5's.

The only other players who have come close to the platinum sombrero are alumnae Julia Warren and Lise Rugland, who played in four of the five positions during the first three years of the program.

SUCH NICE NEIGHBORS

New Mexico is a bit of an island in the world of NCAA beach volleyball. The Lobos are the only team in the state of New Mexico to sponsor beach volleyball as an NCAA varsity sport, so with the lack of in-state competition, UNM has to find nearby neighbors for games.

With multiple schools in Arizona sponsoring the sport, the Lobos can travel west for some matches, which means New Mexico has played its fair share of games against those schools.

In fact, of the 70 matches ever played in UNM history, 19 have come against Arizona schools. (That's just over 27 percent.)

The Lobos have played Arizona seven times, Arizona State six times and Grand Canyon five times. The 19th match came in the team's 2017 opener vs. Benedictine University at Mesa.

UNM will get more opportunities to add to this list during the 2018 season as it plays Arizona twice and Arizona State, Grand Canyon and Benedictine once each.

HOME AWAY FROM HOME?

As noted above, the Lobos have played schools from Arizona a number of times, with 19 matches against Copper State schools through the first three seasons of the program.

However, New Mexico's affinity for the state of Arizona doesn't stop there.

Over the program's 70-match history, UNM has played 36 of its matches in the state of the Arizona, just a tick more than half of its total number of matches (about 51.4 percent, in case you were wondering).

This season, UNM will again venture west as it's scheduled to play nine of its 22 matches in Arizona.

SCOUTING GRAND CANYON

Grand Canyon and New Mexico square off for the sixth time in program history, with the Lobos looking for their first-ever win against the Lopes.

GCU enters the weekend with an uneven record, having gone 2-4 to open the season. But the Lopes probably couldn't have picked a harder slate to open their 2018 campaign with, as all four losses have come against top-10 teams: No. 1 Pepperdine, No. 2 USC, No. 6 Cal Poly and No. 9 LSU.

Grand Canyon, under third-year head coach Kristen Rohr, did earn a win against No. 20 Loyola Marymount, a team that beat UNM.

Even if their defeats, the Lopes manage to win courts against their opponents, with three (Cal Poly, LSU and USC) coming down to a single court.

SCOUTING ABILENE CHRISTIAN

Abilene Christian heads into its second week of competition looking to improve the team's first-ever week of action.

A first-year team, ACU went winless two weeks ago at the Cactus Classic in Tucson, falling twice to San Jose State and once to Arizona and Benedictine at Mesa.

The Wildcats, coached by indoor head Angela Mooney, have a large roster of 19 players — including 17 from Texas. There's also size for Abilene Christian as five players stand 6-0 or taller.

SCOUTING GROSSMONT

Grossmont College, out of the California Community College Athletic Association, has gone 6-0 to start 2018. However, the Griffins have only played fellow community colleges, with this week's action as their first against NCAA teams.

Nonetheless, Grossmont has dropped just a single point all season.

The Lobos have had success against CCCAA teams, beating MiraCosta College and Irvine Valley College in 2016.

BEACH VOLLEYBALL CONTINUES ACADEMIC SUCCESS IN FALL 2017

After posting another strong campaign in the sand last spring, the University of New Mexico beach volleyball team posted a superb semester in the classroom last fall.

The Lobos registered a team GPA of 3.84 for the Fall 2017 semester, the second-highest team GPA in the seven-semester history of the program. The Lobos' Fall 2017 GPA trails only their Spring 2017 GPA of 3.85.

This past semester was the sixth semester that the team registered a mark of at least 3.4.

The beach team combined with the rest of the women's sports at UNM for a 3.57 GPA. It's the 21st straight semester of at least a 3.3 GPA and the ninth straight semester with at least a 3.5 recorded by the combined women's teams, as well.

BEACH VOLLEYBALL EARNS AVCA TEAM ACADEMIC AWARD IN 2017

New Mexico beach volleyball was honored by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) on Monday, July 24, as the Lobos earned the AVCA Team Academic Award for the 2016-17 academic year.

The team recorded team GPAs of 3.46 in both the Fall 2016 and Spring 2017 semesters.

The award, which was initiated in the 1992-93 academic year, honors collegiate and high school volleyball teams that displayed excellence in the classroom during the school year by maintaining at least a 3.30 cumulative team GPA on a 4.0 scale.

19 collegiate beach teams were recognized for the 2016-17 academic year.

This honor was the first such selection for the program, which wrapped up its third season of competition last spring. The Lobos logged back-to-back program records in GPA during the 2016-17 academic semesters.

A PRIMER ON BEACH VOLLEYBALL

Beach volleyball and court volleyball share many of the same basic rules. Each side gets three hits, there's rally scoring, and a team earns a point when the ball hits the ground or goes out of bounds. But there are some key differences between the two sports:

- Beach volleyball is a partner sport played during the spring. Court volleyball is a six-player sport played during the fall.
- Beach volleyball plays the best of three sets, with the first two sets played to 21 points, and a tiebreaker set played to 15 points, if necessary. A set must be won by at least two points.
- Open-handed tipping is prohibited in beach volleyball and the block touch counts as one of three permitted contacts.
- Coaches may only speak or give any kind of input to their players during timeouts or between sets.

- Beach volleyball players switch sides of the court every seven points during a 21-point set and every five points during a 15-point set.
- Beach volleyball is usually contested in dual matches, where the winning team is the school that wins three of five individual matches versus its opponent. Similar in format to tennis, each of those individual matches consist of a doubles — a pair of teammates ranked by ability — that are matched against their corresponding doubles from the opposing team.

BEACH VOLLEYBALL ENTERS 3RD SEASON AS 90TH NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP

Before the 2016 season, the NCAA approved beach volleyball as the 90th NCAA Championship at the 2015 NCAA Convention, which allowed the sport to advance from the emerging sports for women list to a full-fledged NCAA championship.

The NCAA Beach Volleyball Committee also determined the sport will be officially referred to as "beach volleyball". When the sport was placed on the list of emerging sports for women in 2009, it was called sand volleyball. But because the sport is known as beach volleyball at all other levels of play throughout the world, the committee made its decision to refer to the sport as beach volleyball.

The third-annual NCAA Beach Volleyball Championships will take place May 4-6, 2018 at the Beach at Gulf Shores in Gulf Shores, Alabama. The championship will have an eight-team bracket that will be played in a double-elimination format.

USC has won the first two NCAA National Championships, 3-0 over Florida State in 2016 and 3-2 over Pepperdine in 2017.

Beach volleyball is the fastest-growing NCAA sport with 55 Division I colleges and universities sponsoring. NCAA rules require 40 sponsoring schools to request an NCAA championship. Data shows that on average, 60 percent of participants at a sponsoring school participate only in beach volleyball instead of playing both beach and indoor volleyball.
