NO. 6 NEVADA ROMPS PAST UTAH STATE 72-49 TO REMAIN UNBEATEN

RENO, Nev. (AP) The last time Nevada won its first 14 games in a season, the Wolf Pack played in the Far Western Conference and Harry S. Truman was president.

Jordan Caroline scored 15 points and No. 6 Nevada matched a school record set in 1951-52 by beating Utah State 72-49 on Wednesday night.

Cody Martin and Tre'Shawn Thurman had 14 points apiece in the Mountain West Conference opener for the Wolf Pack (14-0, 1-0), one of four undefeated teams in the nation.

Sam Merrill led Utah State with 16 points.

Nevada held the Aggies (10-4, 0-1) to 26 percent from the floor. They entered averaging 81 points per game on 48 percent shooting.

Nevada and Utah State compiled the two best records among Mountain West teams in non-conference play, but this one was no contest.

"That's probably the most Utah State has played zone the whole season combined," Musselman said. "I think right now people think that's the formula because Washington beat us in an exhibition game (91-73). We're a lot different team. The lineup has changed a lot since then."

Utah State coach Craig Smith acknowledged the Aggies had played zone on only five defensive possessions the entire season before implementing it throughout much of Wednesday's game.

Musselman and his players alluded to the Washington exhibition loss Oct. 21 multiple times as a watershed moment for a team that hasn't lost since on the way to equaling the best start in program history.

After a 10-2 run pulled the Aggies to 29-25 with 1:45 left in the first half, Nevada answered with a 6-0 spurt for a 35-25 lead at the break.

WOLF PACK LAYUPS

- ▶ At 14-0 Nevada is one of four undefeated NCAA I teams.

NEVADA SET TO BEGIN DEFENSE OF MW CHAMPIONSHIPS AS CONFERENCE PLAY BEGINS: Nevada has won the last two Mountain West regular season titles and defeated Utah State 72-49 on Wednesday to get the conference season started. The Wolf Pack takes to the road to play at New Mexico on Saturday in the second game of the conference season. The Pack were picked in the preseason media poll to three-peat followed by San Diego State, New Mexico, Boise State, and Fresno State to round out the top five.

Caleb Martin, Cody Martin and Jordan Caroline were all named to the 2018-19 preseason MW team. Caleb Martin the 2017-18 MW Player of the Year was selected as the 2018-19 pre-season Player of the Year. Cody Martin was the 2017-18 MW Defensive Player of the Year and Caroline joined Caleb Martin on the 2017-18 MW first team. Cody Martin was a second-team selection last year. Freshman Jordan Brown was the preseason Freshman of the Year.

The Wolf Pack is one of 13 schools to increase its conference win total each of the last four seasons from 5 wins to 10, 14 and 15. Head coach Eric Musselman went 10-8 his first season in the MW then followed that with a 14-4 mark and won both the regular season and tournament titles. The 2017-18 squad became just the second MW school joining BYU to win consecutive conference titles going 15-3. No school has won three in a row.

Overall Musselman is 40-15 MW play, 23-5 at home and 17-10 on the road. Three of those home losses came in his first year. The Pack has gone 17-2 at home the last two plus seasons in MW play and is 14-1 in the last 15 MW home games.

PRESEASON HONORS: Several members of the Nevada roster have garnered preseason honors this season led by senior Caleb Martin who was named the Associated Press and ESPN preseason All-America teams. He is the first player in school history to be named to a preseason All-America team. Caleb Martin was also selected to the Julius Erving Award watch list which honors the top small forward in Division I basketball and the Lute Olson Award watch list that honors the Division I Player of the Year. The 2017-18 Mountain West player of the Year he is the 2018-19 preseason MW Player of the Year.

He was also selected to the preseason Mountain West team along with twin brother Cody Martin and Jordan Caroline. Cody Martin was named to the Bob Cousy Award watch list which honors the top point guard in college athletics.

Freshman Jordan Brown earned a pair of honors being named the MW preseason Freshman of the Year. Brown was named to the Karl Malone Award watch list. The award honors the top power forward in Division I basketball.

Most recently Caroline and Caleb Martin were named to USBWA Oscar Robertson Trophy midseason watch list.

PACK UP TO FIFTH IN USA TODAY COACHES POLL, SIXTH IN AP: The University of Nevada moved up a spot to fifth in the USA Today Coaches poll, the highest ranking in school history in the poll. The Wolf Pack remained sixth in the latest Associated Press poll. The highest ranking of fifth in the AP poll came this season on Nov. 26.

The Wolf Pack were ranked seventh in the preseason AP poll and ninth in the USA Today Coaches poll. Last season the Pack appeared in the polls for eight weeks and were 20th in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. The AP does not conduct a final poll after the season.

NEVADA EQUALS BEST START IN SCHOOL HISTORY AND NEARING SCHOOL WIN STREAK, RECORD FIRST UNBEATEN NON-CONFERENCE SEASON: Nevada's 14-0 start has tied the 1951-52 team for the best start in school history. The Wolf Pack's 13-0 non-conference record is the first undefeated non-conference season in school history.

The longest win streak at Nevada 16 games by the 1965-66 and 2011-12 teams. The 1965-66 team posted a 21-6 record and won the Far Western Conference with a 10-0 mark.

The 2011-12 team went 28-7, won the Western Athletic Conference with a 13-1 mark and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT.

ONE OF FOUR: At 14-0 Nevada is one of four undefeated teams that remain in NCAA I basketball. All four appear in the Associated Press top 25: No. 2 Michigan (12-0), No. 4 Virginia (11-0), No. 6 Nevada (14-0) and No. 22 Houston (14-0).

FILLING THE PLACE: The University of Nevada athletics department has announced six sellouts for the top-10 Wolf Pack this season. Sellouts were for the Akron, South Dakota State and Utah State games.

Future games this season against Boise State, UNLV and San Diego State have also already sold out, giving the Pack six sellouts in 2018-19 so far.

There is availability for Jan. 9 San José State by calling (775) 348- PACK or visit NevadaWolfPack.com today.

Carolina, and Wisconsin will all play six non-conference games away from their home arena. Kansas and Duke will play five while No. 3 Tennessee has three.

The Pack won four true road games by double figures at Loyola Chicago (79-65), USC (73-61) and Utah (86-71). Nevada won two neutral site games at the Orleans Arena in Las Vegas over Tulsa (96-86) and UMass (110-87). Two more neutral wins, 72-66 over Arizona State at the STAPLES Center in Los Angeles and 74-66 vs. Grand Canyon in Phoenix at Talking Stick Resort Arena. The GCU game was played in front of a predominantly GCU crowd as the Lopes campus is less than 10 miles from the arena.

NEVADA BOASTS FIVE 1,000 POINT SCORERS

Nevada has five 1,000 point scorers on its roster in Jordan Caroline, Caleb Martin, Tre'Shawn Thurman, Corey Henson, and Nizré Zouzoua. All five are transfers and scored points at previous schools.

Caroline has scored 1,741 points in his college career, 303 at Southern Illinois and 1,438 at Nevada. Currently he ranks 12th at Nevada with the 1,438 points in the Silver & Blue and is four points from 11th. His 1,741 career points is 16th among active players in Division I.

Caleb Martin currently has 1,497 collegiate points. In two years at North Carolina State he scored 551 points and has 947 at Nevada. He needs 54 points to become the 29th player in Pack history to score 1,000 points.

Thurman totaled 1,164 in three years at Omaha before coming to Nevada and redshirted last year. Currently he has 1,283 in 107 games for an average of 12 points per game.

Henson netted 1,150 in his three seasons at Wagner and also redshirted last year at Nevada. He has 1,183 career points in 105 games.

Zouzoua played two years at Bryant and scored 1,025 points. He also redshirted last year at Nevada but has two seasons to play for the Pack. Has scored 1,042 collegiate points in 72 games. An averaged of 14.5 points per game.

MUSSELMAN NEARING 100 WINS AT NEVADA

Fourth year head coach Eric Musselman is nearing 100 college basketball victories, all coming at Nevada. The win over Utah State was his 95th leading the Wolf Pack and ranks seventh on the Pack's career victories list. Next on the list is David Carter's 98 victories leading the Wolf Pack.

Musselman along with Mark Fox are the only two coaches in Pack history to win 20 or more games in their first three seasons at Nevada. Fox accomplished the feat in five consecutive seasons.

Musselman has the highest winning percentage (.766) of any Wolf Pack head coach.

Back-to-back trips to Los Angeles started with a 73-61 win at USC. After returning to Reno the Pack traveled back to Los Angeles to play No. 20 Arizona State at STAPLES Center in the Hall of Fame Classic. Nevada won 72-66 and continued on to Phoenix to play Grand Canyon in the Jerry Colangelo Classic at Talking Stick Resort Arena. The Pack completed the 6-0 road trip with a 74-66 victory over the Lopes.

CALEB MARTIN DOUBLE MW WINNER

Senior Caleb Martin was named the Nov. 26 Mountain West Player of the Week and earned his second MW weekly and career honor on Dec. 31. The first honor came after helping guide the Wolf Pack to a 3-0 record. Martin was named the MVP of the Continental Tire Las Vegas Holiday Invitational after the Pack claimed the title. It is the first MW weekly honor for Martin.

Martin averaged 21.3 points, 4.7 rebounds, two assists and 1.7 steals in 28.3 minutes per game for the Wolf Pack that improved to 6-0 on the season. For the week he shot 43.6 percent from the field and 87.5 percent at the free throw line connecting on 21-of-24 of his free throw attempts.

He started the week with 14 points and five rebounds in a 35-point victory over California Baptist in 24 minutes. In the semifinal game with Tulsa in Las Vegas he netted 21 points and grabbed six rebounds playing 34 minutes.

In the title game he scored a then career-high 29 points playing just 27 minutes in the 110-87 victory over UMass. He made 9-of-15 fields that included 6-of-10 three pointers and made 5-of-6 free throws.

The Dec. 31 honor came after after helping the sixth ranked Wolf Pack post a perfect non-conference record of 13-0 as the Pack won 86-71 at Utah.

Martin scored a career-high 33 points, 25 in the second half in the win over the Utes. With the Pack leading by just a single point, 38-37 at halftime he scored Nevada's first nine points of the second half as they went on to win by double figures.

He scored 25 of the Pack's 48 second half points. With twin brother Cody in foul trouble he moved to point guard and finished with a game and career high seven assists and did not commit a turnover. In addition he had four steals and two blocks playing 39 minutes.

Martin's 23 attempted field goals and 16 attempted 3-pointer established new career marks. His 11 made field goals and six made 3-pointers tied career highs. From the field he was 11-of-23 (47.8%) which included 6-of-16 (37.5%) from behind the arc and 5-of-8 (62.5%) free throws. In the second half he made 9-of-14 shots, 4-of-7 three pointers and 3-of-6 free throws.

CAROLINE GOES BACK-TO-BACK AND EARNS THIRD MW WEEKLY HONOR THIS SEASON, FIFTH OF HIS CAREER

Nevada's double-double machine Jordan Caroline doubled up winning his second consecutive Mountain West Player of the Week honor, third of the season and fifth of his career.

The first honor this season came as the Nov. 12 Mountain West Player of the Week after helping the sixth ranked Wolf Pack to a pair of wins to begin the season.

In the two games he averaged a double-double scoring 20.5 points and grabbing 10 rebounds per game. In the win 86-70 win over BYU he posted a double-double finishing with 25 points and 16 rebounds which were both games highs. The 16 rebounds tied his career high. In the first half he had his double-double with 13 points and 14 rebounds.

In the win over Pacific he scored 16 points and had four rebounds.

The second MW honor this season was Dec. 3 and came after the Pack won two road games at Loyola Chicago and at USC. In the two games Caroline averaged 19.5 points, 8.5 rebounds and 1.5 assists playing 36 minutes per contest. In his return to his home state of Illinois he scored 15 points and grabbed six rebounds at Loyola Chicago as the Pack won 79-65. He connected on 6-of-10 shots in the victory.

At USC he posted his sixth double-double of the season, finishing with a game-high 24 points and had 11 rebounds in the 73-61 victory over the Pac-12 Trojans.

The second in a row was the Dec. 10 when the Pack won consecutive games at the Hall of Fame Classic in Los Angeles over No. 20 Arizona State 72-66 when he netted 16 points and grabbed eight rebounds. Two days later he posted a double-double with game highs of 22 points and 14 rebounds in a 74-66 win over Grand Canyon in Phoenix in the Jerry Colangelo Classic. In the two games he averaged 19 points and 11 rebounds.

He was selected as the player of the game in both classics.

THREE POST DOUBLE-DOUBLES IN LITTLE ROCK WIN

Nevada had three players post double-doubles in the win over Little Rock. Jordan Caroline (17 pts, 12 rebs), Cody Martin (14 pts and 10 assists) and Jordan Brown (12 pts and 11 reb). The last time three Nevada players had double-doubles and one that included a player with 10 or more assists was March 4, 2017 in a home win over Colorado State.

WIN TOTALS INCREASE UNDER MUSS: Nevada has increased its win total each of head coach Eric Musselman's three seasons. In the year prior to Musselman's arrival the Wolf Pack won nine games. In his first year the Pack won 24 games and the CBI Championship. It was the first postseason basketball title for a Nevada team and Mountain West school. In year two the Pack went 28-7, captured the schools' first regular season and MW tournament title to advance to the NCAA Tour-namment. The NCAA Tournament appearances was the first in a decade. Year three was even more impressive winning a second regular season MW Championship and reaching the Sweet 16 in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in school history. The Pack was also just the second MW school to reach the second weekend of NCAA Tournament play.

A Nevada team has won 20 or more games in 15 seasons and three of those have come under Musselman. He joins Mark Fox as the second coach at Nevada to win 20 or more games in his first three years at the helm. Fox did it five consecutive years. The Pack has won 20 or more games in 11 of the last 15 seasons.

Nevada is one of 13 schools to increase its conference win total each of the last three season from 5 wins to 10, 14 and 15.

FRESHMEN SCHEDULED TO REDSHIRT

Freshmen K.J. Hymes and Jalen Townsell are all scheduled to red-shirt this season.

DREW TO MISS SEASON AFTER HIP SURGERY

Senior guard Lindsey Drew had right hip surgery and will miss the remainder of the 2018-19 season. Drew will redshirt and play his senior year in 2019-20 for the Wolf Pack.

Drew is scheduled to have surgery on his left hip in 4-6 weeks. The recovery time is from the surgeries is 3-6 months. He was recovering from a ruptured achilles that he suffered in the Pack's game at Boise State last season on Feb. 14 and had not played this year.

NEVADA INKS TWO

Nevada head coach Eric Musselman signed Bossier Parrish Community College guard Eric Parrish during the early signing period to play for the Wolf Pack next season and on Dec. 20 signed Pittsburgh transfer Shamiel Stevenson to play for the Pack after the end of the fall semester of 2019.

Parrish, a 6-6, 195-pound guard, played his freshman season at Akron where he made 21 starts and appeared in all 32 games for the Zips. He averaged 8.8 points, 4.7 rebounds, and 1.4 assists in 27 minutes per game. From the field he shot 51.7 percent, 32.4 percent from behind the arc and 62.1 percent at the free throw line.

A native of Cypress, Texas he played his prep basketball at Cypress Springs High School where he averaged 18.4 points, 8.2 rebounds, three assists, two steals and 1.6 blocks per game as a senior. He scored 1,132 points during his high school career and twice was named the team's MVP. Parrish was a two-time all-district selection and a two-time academic all-district honoree.

Originally from Toronto, Ontario, Canada the 6-6, 245-pound Stevenson played his prep basketball at Hillcrest Prep in Arizona. He was rated the No. 34 small forward in the 2017 recruiting class by 247 Sports. Stevenson averaged 14.2 points, 6.3 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.2 blocks in his only season at Hillcrest Prep.

As a freshman at Pitt he played in 32 games and earned 13 starts for the Panthers where he averaged 8.5 points and 4.4 rebounds per game. From the field he shot a team high 50.5 percent and topped the squad with 141 rebounds. From behind the arc he was good on 37.5 percent of 3-pointers and connected on 60.7 percent of his free throw attempts. He was and academic All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection.

In 13 games he scored in double figures and 15 times grabbed five or more rebounds. He posted a career high 19 points and had six rebounds against Montana.

In year three head coach Eric Musselman led the Nevada basketball program to a place it had not been since 2004 reaching the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 for just the second time in school history. The Wolf Pack fell just a point short of reaching the Elite 8 for the first time, falling 69-68 to Loyola Chicago, a team they will play in 2018-19. The Pack went 29-8 on the season and tied the school record with the 29 wins.

Nevada became just the second conference school to win back-to-back outright regular MW season titles with BYU being the first in 2007 and 2008. The Wolf Pack were just the second MW school, joining SDSU to reach the Sweet 16. The Pack's appearance in the NCAA Tournament was the second in a row and eighth in school history.

Musselman earned four coach of the year honors after the Pack's successful season; MW coaches and media, USBWA District VIII and NABC District 17.

In addition to Musselman earning numerous honors several of the players hauled in top honors after the outstanding season. Caleb Martin garnered Associated Press honorable mention All-American, MW Player of the Year, MW Newcomer of the Year, MW first team, USBWA District VIII Player of the Year, USBWA VIII team and first-team NABC District 17 honors in his junior campaign.

Jordan Caroline was selected to the MW first team, USBWA District VIII team, NABC District 17 first team and to the MW Tournament team.

Cody Martin earned MW Defensive Player of the Year honors, was selected the MW second team and to the MW Defensive team. Kendall Stephens earned third-team MW honors after setting the conference and school record with 126 made 3-pointers. Lindsey Drew joined Caleb Martin on the MW Defensive team. All but Stephens will return for their senior campaigns in 2018-19.

Musselman has led the Pack to 24, 28 and 29 win seasons in his first three years on campus and the 81 wins is ninth most at Nevada. He joins Mark Fox (2004-09) as the only Nevada coaches to win 20 or more games in three consecutive years and in their first three years at the helm. Fox accomplished the feat in all five of his seasons at Nevada.

In year two Musselman led the Pack to its first MW regular season and tournament titles. With the tournament title Nevada earned its first NCAA Tournament birth in a decade. The Pack went 28-7 and 14-4 in conference play. The 28 wins is tied for the second most in program history

The regular season title marked the first since the 2011-12 season and the tournament title was the first since 2005-06. The success did not go unrecognized as Musselman was named the USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year.

Under Musselman, several Wolf Pack players earned postseason honors in his second season. Senior Marcus Marshall was named to the All-Mountain West first team by both the conference coaches and media after breaking the then Nevada single season record with 115 threes made. Marshall was named the Newcomer of the Year in both polls.

Sophomore Cameron Oliver earned first team honors from the Mountain West media and second team honors from the conference coaches. Caroline earned second team honors in both polls and was the MW Tournament MVP. Senior D.J. Fenner earned second team honors from the coaches and third team honors from the media.

In his first season at Nevada Musselman changed the culture of the men's basketball team. Musselman led the Wolf Pack to a 24-14 record and the College Basketball Invitational Championship. The 85-82 overtime CBI Championship victory over Morehead State came on Apr. 1, marking the only time a Wolf Pack basketball team had played a game in the month of April. BleacherReport named him their Mountain West Coach of the Year. It was the first postseason title for a Nevada and a MW school.

The 24 wins is the fifth most in season at Nevada. Musselman's first collegiate win was 73-56 over Coastal Carolina in a tournament played in Hawaii. The Pack's 15-win improvement from nine wins to 24 ranked the team as the sixth most improved NCAA I squad in the country.

Three members of the Pack earned postseason honors under his direction. Senior Marqueze Coleman earned second-team All-MW honors from the coaches and media. Coleman was also named to the NABC District 17 team. Fellow senior Tyron Criswell was selected as the MW Sixth Man of the Year by the conference media. Criswell ended his final campaign being named the MVP of the CBI.

Freshman Cameron Oliver had one of the best seasons by a Pack freshman breaking the Nevada record, school freshman mark and MW freshman record with his 99 blocks. Oliver was selected as the Freshman of the Year by the MW media and to their All-MW second team. The conference coaches named him to their defensive team and third team. After back-to-back double-doubles at the MW Championships he was named to the All-MW Tournament team. He was the only player on the squad that did not play in the title game.

Nevada is Musselman's first collegiate head coaching position but he has been a head coach for seven professional teams, including two seasons with the Golden State Warriors (2002-04) and one with the Sacramento Kings (2006-07). He has won more than 500 games as a head coach with an overall winning percentage of .625 (566-340).

The 53-year old Musselman spent three seasons as an assistant coach at power five schools, Arizona State and LSU. In 2013 the Sun Devils advanced to the second round of the NIT and earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2014. The 2015 Tiger squad also advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

The 2013 ASU squad improved by 12 wins and advanced to postseason play for the first time in three years. He was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2013-14 season.

While at ASU, Musselman coached 2013 second-round NBA selection Carrick Felix, 2012-13 Pac-12 co-Freshman of the Year Jahii Carson and Jordan Bachynski who led the nation in blocks in 2013-14.

In his only season at LSU, he coached two first-team All-SEC selections in Jarrell Martin and Jordan Mickey. Mickey was also selected to the SEC All-Defensive team.

Musselman returns to Reno where he spent the 2010-11 season coaching the NBA D-League's Bighorns and led them to their first Western Conference title in franchise history.

The Ashland, Ohio native is one of several former NBA head coaches working in NCAA basketball. He joins John Calipari (Kentucky), Lon Kruger (Oklahoma), Larry Krystkowiak (Utah), Mike Dunlap (LMU), Avery Johnson (Alabama), Mike Dunleavy (Tulane), Leonard Hamilton (Florida State) and Chris Mullin (St. John's) as just a few to make the transition from NBA head coach to college head coach.

Musselman's father Bill was also an NBA head coach and they were the first father-son combination to become head coaches in the NBA. Bill also coached the Reno Bighorns of the CBA in 1978-79.

Musselman's first head coaching job came at the age of 23 when he was hired by the Rapid City Thrillers of the Continental Basketball Association in 1989. He was the youngest coach in CBA history and the fastest to win 100 games.

Musselman has served as a head coach in the CBA, the United States Basketball League (USBL) and the NBADL along with the two NBA head coaching stops. His teams have collected six division titles and have advanced to the postseason seven times. He has coached 24 players that went on to play in the NBA. Five times he was named CBA all-star coach.

He led the USBL Florida Sharks to a 53-3 record in two seasons and a league championship which earned him USBL Coach of the Year honors.

After working as an assistant under Doc Rivers and Hall of Fame coach Chuck Daly, he was named the head coach of the Golden State Warriors in 2002. He led the Warriors to 38 wins, a team-high in more than 10 years, and was runner-up in the NBA Coach of Year voting. He also coached the Warriors during the 2003-04 season.

Following a year as an assistant with the Memphis Grizzlies under Mike Fratello, he coached the Sacramento Kings for the 2006-07 season.

Musselman worked as an analyst on radio and television prior to coaching the Reno Bighorns (2010-11) and LA D-Fenders (2011-12) of the NBADL. In 2012 he earned Coach of the Year honors.

While coaching the Reno Bighorns in NBADL he worked with Jeremy Lin, Danny Green and Steve Novak who were called up to the NBA. Gerald Green, Malcom Thomas, Darius Morris, Jamario Moon and Courtney Fortson earned trips to the NBA when he coached them with the D-Fenders.

Musselman has experience coaching international basketball having served as the head coach of the Dominican Republic National Team (2010-11), The US and Team China in the Adidas Global Experience (2009, 2010) and The Venezuela National Team (2011-13).

Born in Ashland, Ohio he attended high school in Brecksville south of Cleveland. He attended the University of San Diego and helped the Toreros to a 24-6 record as a senior and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. USD lost in the first round to Auburn. While at USD he was named to the West Coast Conference All-Academic team three times and the Toreros played in two NCAA Tournaments.

Musselman is married to Danyelle Sargent Musselman who has worked at ESPN, Fox Sports and the NFL Network as a broadcaster. Musselman has two sons Michael (22) and Matthew (17) and the couple has a daughter Mariah (8).

Michael, a 2018 graduate of San Diego, has joined his father's staff at Nevada as a graduate assistant. He joins the Musselman family tree of legendary coaches along with his father and grandfather.
