2009-10 Season Review

School-record 30 wins, 2nd straight Mountain West title, NCAA 2nd round appearance and Top-25 ranking in final polls highlight record-setting season

By Richard Stevens -- Senior Writer/GoLobos.com

You have to begin the story of the New Mexico Lobos' magical 2009-10 basketball season the same way you began the wrap of 2008-09. You begin with the championship ring.

But you can't linger too long on a Mountain West Conference championship ring that marks back-to-back league titles for Steve Alford's Lobos. There is just so much special carved out by a group of Lobos really not seasoned enough to do so much carving, to do so much good work.

It was an amazing season with a school-record 30 wins (30-5), highlighted by an impossible 14-game MWC win streak that left the Lobos alone atop the league, ranked No. 8 in the nation, and pushed them to a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

"These guys never seemed to understand that they probably were too young to do some of the things they did," said Alford. "They were truly amazing.

"This is a team with great resolve that handled everything that was thrown at them and kept finding ways to win. I believe so much of that comes back to their work ethic, before the season, during the season. These guys understood that to get what they wanted, they had to work harder than anybody else."

The group of Lobos Alford took into the 2009-10 season had some obvious blemishes. It was one of the youngest teams in the nation returning only one senior (Roman Martinez) and one junior (Dairese Gary) from the previous season.

It was a team with no true center and had to go against the behemoths of Division I ball behind the athleticism and guts provided by two power forwards: 6-8 A.J. Hardeman and 6-8 Will Brown. "A.J. and Will were the biggest question marks and they were unreal," said Alford.

It was a team with a handful of super sophomores: Gary, Phillip McDonald, Brown, Hardeman, Nate Garth. It was a team with three diaper dandies on the bench in freshmen Jamal Fenton, Chad Adams and Curtis Dennis.

It also was a team that believed in itself. "We knew we had a special team," said Gary. "We just had to go out and prove it. We knew we had this kind of potential. It was all about how hard we were willing to work, what we were willing to put forward."

It also was a team blessed by a special transfer named Darington Hobson, who was willing to throw his talented 6-foot-7 frame into a team concept while still leading the Lobos in scoring, rebounding and assists. He was the first Lobo to ever lead the team in all three categories.

"We knew Darington Hobson was special, but we didn't know he was going to be this good," said Alford of his junior that roared not only to Mountain West Player of The Year honors, but All-America recognition as well.

Surely, it was a team of special individuals, but it was the team thing that maintained these Lobos through so many hard times and so many severe challenges. It was the team thing the Lobos leaned upon when they roared to a 14-1 non-conference record.

It was the team thing they fell back upon two games into the MWC race. In case you had forgotten, Steve Alford's Lobos began this MWC journey 0-2 and looking up at everyone. They finished it looking down.

Maybe, arguably, probably, this is the most amazing part of this 30-5 season.

The impossible truth of this run to the ring is this: The Lobos had to string out 14 straight wins, win seven straight league road games, and sweep BYU and Utah in order to win the outright MWC title.

Yeah, like that was going to happen! A season earlier Alford's Lobos had to throw out an impossible five-game MWC streak in order to win the title. But the 14-game MWC run somehow happened. It happened because of teamwork, work ethic, defense, and a talented bunch of Lobos led by one of the nation's top coaches.

"This is as good a chemistry team as I've ever had," said Alford. "These guys were all about winning."

The MWC title run ended in The Pit with a 73-66 win over TCU. The Pit was still packed for the post-game celebration. It was a Pit party climaxed with Lobos cutting down nets and Martinez telling The Pit that any future MWC championship wannabes have to come through New Mexico to be Kings.

"These kids have taken us on a journey that's not going to sink in for a while," said Alford, the MWC Coach of The Year and a finalist in several national Coach of The Year races. "Those things (14-game run) don't happen very often. It was amazing.

"This program has won back-to-back titles and that's very, very difficult to do. It was a great season with great experiences."

We return again to the ring because this back-to-back thing is special, especially when you add a historical note. Prior to 2009, the New Mexico men's basketball team had not earned a championship ring in 15 years by winning a league title. Now, Alford's young Lobos have two in a row.

Here are a few of the more dazzling:

- · A school record 30-win season
- Back-to-back MWC titles
- · A No. 8 national ranking
- An MWC-record 14-game league win streak
- MWC Coach & Player of The Year
- 10 road wins; seven MWC road wins

The on-the-court season stuff is over now. The Lobos advanced to the NCAA East Region as the No. 3 seed. They beat a solid Montana team and lost to a veteran Washington team that lost to West Virginia, a Final Four team.

"Washington just looked more comfortable there than we did," said Alford of the loss in San Jose, Calif.

The Lobos' comfort zone surely will be wider in 2010-11. The Lobos graduate only Martinez. There is more talent on the way, including more muscle in the paint.

The recognition that comes to a 30-5 league champion that raced into the Top 10 also continues to come to these deserving Lobos. Martinez was invited to The Final Four to participate in a 3-point shooting contest.

Hobson has received All-America honors from The Associated Press, FOX Sports.com, Basketball Times and Sporting News. He was a finalist for the Wooden Award. Alford was a finalist for AP and Naismith Coach of The Year. Martinez was named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American -- the first Lobo to earn that distinction since 1975. Martinez also won the Chip Hilton Award, a national honor based on character, leadership and on-court accomplishments.

Gary joined Hobson on the All-MWC First Team and the powerful, junior point guard was named to the MWC All-Defense Team. McDonald was All-MWC Honorable Mention.

Not bad for a team that was picked to finish fifth in the 2009-10 MWC race and was expected to slip into the NIT bracket when it was all over.

A season wrap of this team really has to include a glimpse into the future. The renovated Pit will be a high-tech welcoming mat next season for the young Lobos and their special fans.

"It's unbelievable what we did this year and so much of what we did is because of our fans," said Martinez, the lone senior. "We don't just play for championships. We play for the state of New Mexico. I think that's what separates us from a lot of teams."

Said Alford: "I'm excited to get into the new Pit and continue to work to take this program to another level. We've made some impressive strides, but we're not through yet."

The tease here is an obvious one: Come back next year, Lobo fans. See the new Pit. See if the young Lobos will be even better.

LOBOS IN TOP 25 IN BOTH MAJOR POLLS AT SEASON'S END

For only the fifth time in program history, the University of New Mexico finished a season ranked in both major polls. UNM was No. 8 in AP and No. 16 in the USA TODAY/ ESPN Top 25 coaches' poll. No. 8 in the final AP poll is UNM's second-highest all-time.

Unranked at the start of the season, UNM was ranked for 12 weeks and rose to No. 8 in both major polls on March 8, the school's highest ranking since December of 1997.

UNM'S POSTSEASON HISTORY; 12th SHOWING IN NCAA

The Lobos made their 30th postseason appearance in 2009-10 - 12 NCAA tournaments and 18 NITs. All have come in the past 47 seasons, since 1963-64 when UNM advanced to the NIT championship game. New Mexico has made 22 postseason showings in the past 27 seasons, since 1983-84.

New Mexico is 24-31 all-time in postseason play, 7-12 in 12 NCAA Tournaments and 17-19 in 18 NIT appearances.

NEW MEXICO IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

New Mexico is 7-12 in 12 NCAA Tournaments. The 2010 tournament was the Lobos' first NCAA appearance since 2005, and just the second showing since 1999. UNM qualified seven times in nine seasons from 1991-99 - all under former head coach Dave Bliss - making it to the second round four straight seasons from 1996-99.

The Lobos have never won more than one game in the tournament since the field expanded to 64 teams in 1985. UNM did make it to the West Region semifinals in 1974.

HEAD COACH STEVE ALFORD

Steve Alford, 45, has completed three seasons in charge of New Mexico hoops and his 19th year as a collegiate head coach. He was named UNM's 19th head coach on March 23, 2007. Alford, who has never been an assistant coach is his collegiate career, was 26 when he became head coach at Manchester (Ind.) College.

The two-time MWC Coach of the Year after leading the Lobos to consecutive MWC titles, Alford has a 384-208 (64%) career record, 76-26 (74.5%) at New Mexico. His teams have qualified for postseason play 14 times, produced 16 winning seasons and reached 20 wins on 11 occasions.

UNM, ALFORD AGREE ON TWO-YEAR EXTENSION

On April 3, University of New Mexico Vice President for Athletics Paul Krebs announced the University and head coach Steve Alford had agreed on a two-year contract extension that will keep Alford at UNM through the 2019-20 season.

Alford is 76-26 (.745) in three seasons at New Mexico, guiding the Lobos to postseason play every year. Alford has more wins, a higher winning percentage and more regular-season conference titles (2) than any previous Lobo coach after three seasons.

"In three years, Steve has not only raised the profile of the New Mexico basketball program within the Mountain West Conference, but also on the national stage," said Krebs. "Lobo basketball has made dramatic improvement competitively and academically under Steve's watch. Steve has been a tremendous ambassador for the University of New Mexico, the city of Albuquerque and the state of New Mexico. We hope he and his family will be here a long time."

Despite having just one senior in 2009-10, New Mexico finished 30-5 while setting a school record for wins and playing in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in five years. UNM was a No. 3 seed in the East Region and advanced to the second round of the tournament for the first time since 1999.

The Lobos were ranked in the top-25 for 12 weeks and finished No. 8 in the final AP poll, the second-highest in school history.

"I feel very blessed that the administration wanted to sign me to an extension," said Alford. "I couldn't be more pleased with being with the Lobos for a long time. I think we are building something very special. For the administration to show loyalty to our program and what we are trying to accomplish both in the classroom and on the basketball floor means a great deal to me, my staff and our families. I am very appreciative that this team and this relationship will continue for a long time."

UNM was picked to finish fifth in the MWC each of the past two seasons. The Lobos tied for the title in 2008-09 by winning its last five games. In 2009-10, New Mexico started 0-2, but won a conference and school-record 14 straight to earn its first outright conference crown in 16 years.

Alford has been chosen MWC Coach of the Year each of the past two seasons. He is 37-11 (.771) in three seasons of conference play. The Lobos' lowest finish under Alford is third place in 2007-08 after landing in eighth place the year before Alford started at UNM.

"The success of this year's team brought an unprecedented amount of national coverage and positive attention to our University," said Krebs. "While it's nearly impossible to calculate the financial impact of all the articles and interviews that were conducted on New Mexico basketball, I think it is fair to say it would be in the millions of dollars. All that publicity places the University of New Mexico in a very positive light."

ALFORD IS BEST LOBO COACH AFTER 3 SEASONS

After three seasons, Alford has more wins, a higher winning percentage and more regular-season conference titles than any previous Lobo coach:

Coach (Years)	Pct.	Record	Conf. Titles
Steve Alford (2008-10)	.745	76-26	2
Bob King (1963-65)	.716	58-23	1
Woody Clements (1945-47)	.683	41-19	1
Norm Ellenberger (1973-75)	.683	56-26	1
Dave Bliss (1989-91)	.639	62-35	0
Fran Fraschilla (2000-02)	.573	55-41	0
Ritchie McKay (2003-05)	.562	50-39	0

ALFORD MWC COACH OF THE YEAR AGAIN

After never earning coach of the year honors in his first 13 seasons at the Div. I level, New Mexico head coach Steve Alford has made it two in a row after leading UNM to consecutive Mountain West regular-season titles.

Alford joins Dave Bliss, who was feted by the Western Athletic Conference in 1993-94 and 1995-96, as the only UNM head coaches to be recognized twice.

The United States Basketball Writers also chose Alford coach of the year in District 8.

Alford was a three-time Indiana Collegiate Conference coach of the year in 1993, '94 and '95 while at NCAA Div. III Manchester (Ind.) College.

AN AMAZING JOB BY STEVE ALFORD IN FIRST 3 SEASONS

The list of superlatives in his first three years is extremely impressive for the former Indiana All-American:

- 76-26 record in 3 seasons
- Has more wins (76), a higher winning percentage (.745) and more regular-season conference titles (2) than any previous Lobo coach after first three seasons
- UNM finished third (2008), tied for a conference title (2009) and won an outright league championship (2010)...the Lobos finished 15-17 in the Mountain West the year before Alford arrived, finishing 8th, and losing the play-in game at the MWC Tournament
- Two of UNM's top-4 semester grade-point-averages have come in the past four terms
- 5 of 6 seniors have graduated and current senior Roman Martinez will graduate in May 2010, making it 6 of 7
- UNM's first Academic All-American (Roman Martinez 2010) in 35 years...Martinez also received the 2010 Chip Hilton Award given to the nation's top Division I men's graduating senior for demonstrating outstanding character, leadership and talent
- Two-time Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year (2008-09 and 2009-10)
- Overall road record of 24-15, 16-8 in MWC games...the Lobos only won 22 road games in nine seasons before Alford arrived
- Two MWC players of the year (J.R. Giddens 2008, Darington Hobson 2010)
- One NBA 1st round draft pick (J.R. Giddens, Boston Celtics in 2008)

2007-08 (Season No. 1 / 24-9 / 11-5 MWC / 3rd place)

- Set a school record for wins by a UNM head coach in his first season (24) and tied the record for most victories by a Lobo coach in the regular season (24)
- New Mexico was a +9 in wins from the previous season, the 5th-biggest improvement in school history...UNM was a +7 in conference games, from 4-12 to 11-5
- An 8-6 road record, tying a school record for road wins: 8-4 in 1972-73, 8-2 in 1977-78 and 8-3 in 1995-96
- Broke three losing streaks in road games: 7 in a row at Air Force, 10 straight at Wyoming and an 18-game drought at Utah

2008-09 (Season No. 2 / 22-12 / 12-4 MWC / T1st place / NIT 2nd Rd.)

- UNM's first conference championship in 15 years...also, Alford's first in 14 seasons as a head coach at the NCAA Div. I level...he won two titles with NCAA Div. III Manchester (Ind.) College in 1994-95
- 46 wins, the most by a Lobo head coach in his first two seasons

2009-10 (Season No. 3 / 30-5 / 14-2 MWC / 1st place)

- UNM's 1st NCAA appearance since 2005

ALFORD'S LOBO TEAMS IMPRESSIVE ON THE ROAD

The Lobos are 24-15 in true road games under Alford. To put his road success in perspective, it took the Lobos 9-plus seasons and 94 games (1998-2007) to reach 24 road wins. UNM was 22-72 on the road in nine seasons before Alford arrived. The comparison:

- Steve Alford was named MWC Coach of the Year for the 2nd straight season in 2009-10...he finished 3rd in the balloting for AP National coach of the year and was 1 of 4 finalists for Naismith National coach of the year
- 76 wins the past three seasons is the second-best three-year total in school history...UNM was 77-21 from 1996-98
- After an 84-81 victory over (16/18) Texas A&M in Houston on Dec. 12, New Mexico was 10-0 and earned its first national ranking since the 1998-99 season...UNM was No. 19 in both major polls
- The Lobos eventually started 12-0 before losing at Oral Roberts 75-66 on Dec. 23
- UNM won its first NCAA Tournament game since defeating Missouri 61-59 in the first round in Denver in 1999
- The Lobos had winning streaks of 12 and 15 games, respectively
- UNM tied a school and MWC record with 14 wins in conference play...the Lobos went 14-4 in the Western Athletic Conference in 1993-94...BYU finished 14-2 in the MWC in 2007-08
- Based on a minimum of six games played, UNM was the only team in the nation undefeated when playing a ranked opponent in 2009-10...the Lobos were 6-0
- Junior guard Darington Hobson was named 3rd Team All-America by AP and MWC Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year...he also gained All-America honors from FOXSports.com, Sporting News and Basketball Times...Hobson is the first Lobo to lead the team in scoring, rebounding and assists in a single season, and the first Lobo to reach 500 points, 300 rebounds and 150 assists in a season
- Hobson and Ohio State's Evan Turner were the only players in to average more than 15 points, 9 rebounds and 4 assists a game
- UNM had two first team all-conference selections (Hobson and Dairese Gary) for the first time since 1998 (Clayton Shields and Kenny Thomas)
- Senior forward Roman Martinez was named 2nd team Academic All-American, the first Lobo in 35 years to be so acclaimed
- Martinez won the Chip Hilton Award, given to a Division I men's graduating senior for demonstrating outstanding character, leadership and talent
- Martinez is the first Lobo to reach 1,000 points, 600 rebounds, 200 3-pointers and 200 assists in a career

A LOT OF QUESTIONS AT THE START OF THE SEASON

Third-year head coach Steve Alford had numerous questions when UNM opened practice in October. Obviously, UNM came up with suitable answers to those questions...and more.

How would UNM survive the loss of two post players - 6-9 Isaiah Rusher (dismissed in the summer) and 6-10 Kem Nweke (medically unable to play after three knee surgeries)? How would rebounding be affected with no player taller than 6-foot-8?

UNM led the MWC in rebounding margin in 16 conference games at +7.6

What kind of leadership would be provided from a team that returned just two upperclassmen in Roman Martinez and Dairese Gary?

Arguably the best leadership in decades.

How would junior college transfer Darington Hobson mesh with new teammates in his first season playing at the Div. I level?

Just fine. Hobson was named to several All-America teams, was voted MWC Player of the Year and became the first Lobo in program history to lead the team in scoring, rebounding and assists in the same season.

As Alford tried to forecast the season, he thought UNM's predicted finish of fifth place in the Mountain West may be a notch too high. A .500 season seemed like a real possibility.

Alford ended up calling this year's Lobo squad the best team he has had in 19 seasons as a head coach "from a chemistry standpoint."

QUITE A SEASON FOR ROMAN MARTINEZ

It's hard to imagine a more fulfilling season for one student-athlete than what senior forward Roman Martinez had in 2009-10. Of course, as the old saying goes, Martinez did it the old-fashioned way: He earned it.

Dec. 9, 2009: Tied a school record with 89% (8-9) shooting from 3-point in an 82-78 win at the University of San Diego

Feb. 6, 2010: Becomes 14th Lobo to reach 1,000 points and 500 rebounds in a career in 88-86 OT win against San Diego State

Feb. 22, 2010: Named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America by the College Sports Information Directors of America...is the first Lobo named to the Academic All-America team in 35 years

March 3, 2010: New Mexico Gov. Bill Richardson proclaims "Roman Martinez Day," in the state...the Lobos defeat TCU 73-66 in Martinez's 100th career start to clinch their first outright conference title in 16 years

March 12, 2010: Becomes 1st New Mexico player to reach 1,000 points, 600 rebounds, 200 assists and 200 3-pointers in a career

March 25, 2010: Chosen to participate in the 3-point shooting contest during Final Four activities in Indianapolis

March 30, 2010: Named national winner of the Chip Hilton Award, given to a Division I men's graduating senior for demonstrating outstanding character, leadership and talent

More on Martinez's career at UNM:

- Played in 133 career games with 104 starts
- UNM had a 91-42 record in his four seasons
- 3.48 cumulative grade-point-average and scheduled to graduate this May with a degree in business administration and an emphasis in marketing
- UNM career rankings: tied for 2nd in games played (133), 19th in scoring (1,159), 10th in rebounding (633) and 6th in 3-pointers made (205)

A LOT OF HARDWARE FOR HOBSON

Junior guard Darington Hobson was named the Mountain West Conference Player of the Year for his play throughout the 16-game league season.

Hobson led the MWC in rebounding (10.1 rpg), was 3rd in scoring (14.9 ppg) and 3rd in assists (4.8 apg). Hobson was even better the last six weeks of the regular season when he averaged 18.2 points, 11 rebounds and 5.8 assists over the final 9 games.

Hobson joined Ruben Douglas (2002-03) and J.R. Giddens (2007-08) as Lobos that

HOBSON SET NEW STANDARDS

Assists have been tracked at UNM since 1969 and no Lobo has ever led the team in scoring, rebounding and assists in the same season until Darington Hobson came along. Hobson is the first to do so and also the first Lobo to reach 500 points, 300 rebounds and 150 assists in a season.

Hobson had a rare double-double for rebounds (10) and assists (11) - plus 8 points - in the overtime win at Utah on Feb. 13. The last Lobo to pull that off was Luc Longley, who had a triple-double with 17 points, 14 rebounds and 10 assists against Penn State on March 28, 1990. Longley is the only UNM player to have a triple-double, and he did it twice.

Hobson had 14 double-doubles this season, including 9 in the last 12 games. The last Lobo to have 14 d-d's in a season was Kenny Thomas had 16 in 1997-98.

A look at Hobson's strong finish:

	PPG	RPG	APG
First 22 games	14.8	8.4	4.1
Last 13 games	17.6	10.8	5.2

GARY 1ST TEAM ALL-MWC AND DEFENSIVE TEAM, MARTINEZ 2ND TEAM

New Mexico junior guard Dairese Gary joined Hobson on the All-Mountain West Conference team, giving UNM a pair of first-team selections for the first time since 1998 when Clayton Shields and Kenny Thomas were so honored in the Western Athletic Conference. Gary was also named to the All-MWC Defensive Team.

Senior Roman Martinez was named second team All-MWC while sophomore guard Phillip McDonald earned honorable mention. Martinez also garnered first team all-district honors by the United States Basketball Writers.

12 PLAYERS AND JUST 4 CARS

When Steve Alford arrived at UNM three years ago, he insisted that the team live together in on-campus housing just like any other student. That remains the situation today.

The 12 Lobos (including walk-on Kevin Nelson and UCLA transfer Drew Gordon) reside in the Student Residence Center (SRC) right in the middle of the UNM campus. The SRC is a 14-building co-ed complex, comprised of 84 apartments with 6 single bedrooms each.

The Lobos certainly look out for each other especially when it comes to transportation. That's because among the 12 players, only four of them have cars: Gordon, Nelson, A.J. Hardeman and Roman Martinez. So, there is a lot of ride-sharing.

LOBOS WIN 2ND STRAIGHT MWC REGULAR-SEASON TITLE

After sharing the 2008-09 MWC championship with BYU and Utah with a 12-4 record, the Lobos won it outright in 2009-10 at 14-2. That's two losses to start the conference season followed by a 14-game winning blitz that carries into this week's tournament.

The defining and title-clinching triumph was a dramatic 83-81 victory at (13/11) BYU on Feb. 27, the Lobos' first win over the Cougars in Provo since 2000. UNM also snapped BYU's 21-game winning streak at the Marriott Center.

New Mexico's last outright title came in 1994 when it was a member of the Western Athletic Conference. UNM also won WAC titles in 1964 (shared with Arizona State), '68, '74 and '78.

Only one other time has UNM won back-to-back conference titles and that was in 1944 and '45 when it claimed Border Conference championships during World War II.

AND QUITE A WELCOME HOME

The day after UNM won at BYU to clinch the MWC regular-season title, approximately 1,000 fans waiting inside the Albuquerque International Sunport greeted the traveling party.

The crush of well-wishers was so extensive that some of the players needed a police escort just to get them to the team bus that was waiting to take them back to The Pit.

NEW LEVELS FOR WINNING ON THE ROAD

UNM's 83-81 victory at BYU on Feb. 27 extended school records and established new Mountain West standards for road success:

- 7 conference road wins (started 0-1, won last 7)
- 10 road wins in a season...old UNM record was 8 in 1972-73, 1977-78, 1995-96 and 2007-08...MWC record was 9 by BYU In 2008-09
- 13 wins away from Albuquerque (road and neutral sites)...old UNM record was 9 in 1963-64, 1992-93, 1995-96 and 1997-98

LOBOS' NCAA TOURNAMENT RESUME WAS OUTSTANDING

Heading into the NCAA Tournament, UNM's Rating Percentage Index (RPI) was No. 10 according to ncaa.com. That's probably why the Lobos got a No. 3 seed for the NCAA Tournament.

More impressive facts about the Lobos before the NCAA Tournament began:

- RPI of 10
- 11-1 in last 12 games
- 10-2 in road games and 12-3 in games away from Albuquerque
- 5-2 record against teams ranked 1-25 in the RPI
- 1-1 record against teams ranked 26-50 in the RPI
- 5-0 record against teams ranked 51-100 in the RPI

LOBOS' HISTORY IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

The Lobos' first national ranking came during the 1964-65 season under head coach Bob King. UNM was 19-3 after a 70-66 win over Arizona on Feb. 20, 1965. The ranking was short-lived, however, as the Lobos lost their last five games to finish 19-8.

The Lobos have a 157-64 record as a ranked team, 109-7 at home/in The Pit, 34-45 on the road and 14-12 at neutral sites.

6-0 VS. RANKED TEAMS IN 2009-10 IS BEST EVER

New Mexico established a school record with six wins (6-0) against ranked teams. The ledger in 2009-10:

Date	Ranking/Opponent	Result	RPI thru 3/14
Dec. 2	rv/25 Cal	W, 86-78	20
Dec. 12	vs. 16/18 Texas A&M	W, 84-81	13
Dec. 29	19/17 Texas Tech	W, 90-75	72
Jan. 27	12/10 BYU	W, 76-72	23
Feb. 10	at 23/25 UNLV	W, 76-66	48
Feb. 27	at 13/11 BYU	W, 83-81	23

UNM was 7-1 this season against teams that were ranked at some point during the season: wins over Cal, Texas A&M, Texas Tech, Dayton, BYU twice and UNLV, and a loss to UNLV.

BYU is the highest ranked team UNM has defeated since getting past No. 8 Wichita State 71-68 in Las Vegas on Dec. 22, 2006. BYU is the highest ranked team UNM has beaten in The Pit since Jan. 16, 1999. No. 16 UNM edged No. 7 Arizona 79-78.

3-POINT STREAK INTACT

UNM has made at least one 3-pointer in 623 straight games...the last time it didn't was Jan. 3, 1991, missing on 8 attempts against Colorado State...since the 3-point shot became part of college basketball in 1986-87, the Lobos have made 10 or more 123 times....the record in those games is 97-26:

Season	3FG-A	Pct.
1992-93	238-611	390
1993-94	300-782	384

PIT GETTING $60 MILLION RENOVATION

On Nov. 6, 2008, University of New Mexico Vice President for Athletics Paul Krebs outlined details of the $60 million renovation to University Arena that are expected to be completed by the start of the 2010-11 season. Images are available at www.golobos.com.

"Our goal is to create the best collegiate basketball venue in the nation," said Krebs.

Financing is coming from three sources: 1) $25 million in debt service which is the responsibility of athletics; 2) $18 million in state capital outlay which was committed several years ago; and 3) $17 million from private fundraising given specifically for this project.

The focus of the design, led by the Albuquerque architectural firm of Molzen-Corbin & Associates, is to maintain and improve the fan experience but not change The Pit. The planning committee was charged with keeping The Pit intimate, respecting its history, keeping the mystique of the arena, maintaining great site lines and the current bowl seating mix and embracing new technology. As a result, the renovation includes:

- 60,000 square feet of new space
- Doubling the number of concessions points of sale
- Doubling the total number of rest rooms
- Expanding the concourse to enhance pedestrian traffic flow
- Extensive glasswork as well as increased ceiling height that will allow patrons to take advantage of views, including the Sandia Mountains and downtown Albuquerque
- New state-of-the art locker room facilities for both men's and women's basketball teams
- Addition of new weight room and training room dedicated to men's and women's basketball
- Addition of a Lettermen's lounge to provide access to UNM letterwinners from all sports
- Increase technology to enhance the fan experience, including video boards, ribbon boards and digital signage throughout the arena
- Extensive signage and graphics package to highlight the history of Lobo athletics
- Addition of 40 suites and more than 400 club seats
- New commissary to support improved concessions as well as club and suites
- The Lobo Store will nearly double its current size
- Ticket office will be expanded and relocated
- Exterior updated and upgraded

6-0 VS. RANKED TEAMS WAS BEST IN THE NATION

Not many teams in the nation were undefeated in games played against ranked opponents, like New Mexico. The list is based on highest winning percentage and a minimum of six games played against teams in either the AP or ESPN/USA Today polls:

Team	Record	Pct.
New Mexico	6-0	1.000
Kansas	8-2
Syracuse	8-2	800
Kentucky	7-2	778
Duke	9-3	750
Wisconsin	5-2	714
Purdue	6-3	667
Butler	6-4	600
Kansas State	6-4	600

NOTES TO KNOW

- In MWC games, the Lobos led the league in rebound margin at +7.6
- Hitting the Offensive Glass: The 2009-10 Lobos had the 2nd-highest pergame average for offensive rebounds in school history...the list:

Season	Reb.	G	Avg.
2001-02	399	30	13.30
2009-10	458	35	13.08
1993-94	354	31	11.42
2000-01	384	34	11.29
1987-88	405	36	11.25

- Winning the Close Ones: The Lobos were 7-1 in games decided by 3 points or less and 13-1 when the differential was 6 points or fewer
- A Lot of Balance: The Lobos had four players average between 10.4 and 15.9 points in all games and 11.1 and 14.9 points in MWC contests...all 5 starters led the team in scoring at least once... UNM was the only school in the MWC that has had four different players named MWC Player of the Week: Roman Martinez and Darington Hobson twice and A.J. Hardeman and Dairese Gary once
- Same 5 All the Time: UNM used the same starting lineup in every game this season: Dairese Gary, A.J. Hardeman, Darington Hobson, Phillip McDonald and Roman Martinez...the last the same quintet started every game for an entire season was 1993-94: Greg Brown, Lewis LaMar, Canonchet Neves, Charles Smith and Marlow White...that team 16 years ago won the outright Western Athletic Conference regular-season title

STATISTICAL TRENDS

- Same 5 All the Time: UNM used the same starting lineup in every game this season: Dairese Gary, A.J. Hardeman, Darington Hobson, Phillip McDonald and Roman Martinez...the last the same quintet started every game for an entire season was 1993-94
- 70 is the Number on Offense: UNM has won 33 straight games (24-0 this season) when scoring 70 or more points...the last loss was 81-76 last year at San Diego State
- And 60 is the Number for Defense: The Lobos have won 41 straight games when holding the opponent under 60 points (34-0 under Steve Alford), and they are 60-2 in such games since 2004-05...the last loss was 51-46 at Air Force on Feb. 22, 2006
- Halftime Lead Was Good: UNM was 24-1 when leading at halftime this season, the only loss coming against San Diego State in the MWC Tournament... UNM led the Aztecs 39-38 at the break but fell 72-69

- Under Steve Alford, New Mexico is 32-1 when scoring 80 or more points...the only loss was 82-80 to Utah in overtime in the 2008 MWC Tournament in Las Vegas
- UNM was 13-0 this season when Darington Hobson led the team in scoring and 8-0 when Roman Martinez led...the Lobos were 14-0 when Hobson had a double-double and 20-2 when he led the team in rebounding

THE PIT AND THE ONGOING CONSTRUCTION

One of college basketball's most famous and recognizable buildings, University Arena is the home of New Mexico basketball.

The 2009-10 season marked the 44th year of basketball in The Pit/Bob King Court, which was opened Dec. 1, 1966. UNM has an all-time mark of 631-145 (81%) in the building that resides 37 feet below street level. The Lobos have had a winning record in The Pit in 43 of their 44 years, including a school-record 41-game home winning streak from 1996-98.

Since the beginning of the 2004-05 season, the Lobos are 95-13 (88%) at home. What is even more impressive about UNM's home court is that more than 12 million fans have flocked into the sunken edifice to see their beloved Lobos play basketball. The Lobos have averaged nearly 15,500 fans the past 44 years, an amazing 95% of capacity.

A $60 million renovation is currently underway and is expected to be completed by the start of the 2010-11 season. Due to the renovation, the mezzanine level was closed and no standing-room-only tickets were sold. Arena capacity for 2009-10 was decreased to 14,586 from 18,018. It will be around 17,000 when the project is finished prior to the 2010-11 season.

OUTSIDE BATHROOMS, CONCESSIONS DON'T DETER HOME CROWDS

Due to the ongoing renovations at The Pit, Lobo fans had to endure portable restrooms and concessions stands located outside in the winter air. No doubt the team's success help make the inconveniences tolerable, but the attendance numbers were impressive none the less:

- UNM had sell out crowds of 14,586 for its last five games, and nine times in 18 home games...average attendance in 2009-10 was 13,595, which is 93% of capacity in a renovated Pit
- The final sellout against TCU pushed UNM past the 12-million mark all-time at The Pit...total attendance is now 12,010,173 for 776 games since the arena opened on Dec. 1, 1966

MEMORABLE ROAD TRIP

Two venues and cities the Lobos have had little previous success turned out to be fruitful stops in mid-February. Successive victories at UNLV and Utah moved New Mexico into the top spot in the MWC standings.

UNM quieted No. 23/25 UNLV 76-66 as it beat the Rebels for only the second time in the past 13 games at the Thomas and Mack. The victory was the Lobos' first against a ranked team on its home floor since a win at 2nd-ranked Arizona 70-68 on Dec. 21, 1999.

Before a Feb. 13 game at Utah, the Lobos were 6-52 all-time against the Utes in Salt Lake City. UNM escaped with a 68-65 overtime victory as Steve Alford became the first New Mexico head coach to beat Utah twice on its home floor.

OVERTIME WIN STREAK AT 4

The Lobos won their fourth straight overtime game Feb. 13 at Utah, taking a 68-65 decision. UNM is 7-2 in overtime games under current head coach Steve Alford, 4-0 on the road:

Jan. 2, 2008	W, 86-85 at UTEP
Jan. 5, 2008	W, 99-92 at Wyoming (2 OT)
Jan. 22, 2008	W, 77-67 vs. Utah
Feb. 26, 2008	L, 70-69 vs. BYU
March 13, 2008	L, 82-20 vs. Utah (as Las Vegas)
Feb. 7, 2009	W, 73-69 vs. UNLV
Feb. 28, 2009	W, 81-79 at Colorado State (2 OT)
Feb. 6, 2010	W, 88-86 vs. San Diego State
Feb. 13, 2010	W, 68-65 at Utah

UNM'S HISTORY IN THE MOUNTAIN WEST

New Mexico has an 89-75 overall record in Mountain West Conference play, but is 37-11 under current head coach Steve Alford.

The Lobos are 60-22 in The Pit and 29-53 on the road. UNM was 7-37 in league road games in six seasons before Steve Alford became New Mexico's head coach, but has gone 16-8 the past three seasons. A look at UNM in MWC play:

A GREAT START FOR THE LOBOS

New Mexico won its first 12 games for only the third time in school history. Only one Lobo team started better than the 2009-10 squad, and that was 17-0 in 1967-68. The 12-game winning streak ties for the 3rd-longest in school history and is the best by a Lobo team since taking 14 in a row in 1977-78.

17-0	1967-68
12-0	2009-10
12-0	1973-74

UNM'S LARGEST COMEBACKS

Of the Lobos' 10-largest rallies to victory, three have come in head coach Steve Alford's short tenure at UNM:

Deficit	Time	Half	Opponent / Date	Final Score
20 (11-31)	5:30	1st	at Hawai`i / Jan. 15, 1993 .	61-58

20 WINS AGAIN...AND THE FASTEST TEAM TO GET THERE

The win at TCU provided UNM and head coach Steve Alford with a third straight 20-win season, a feat last accomplished by the Lobos from 1996-99 when they did it four consecutive seasons.

It's Alford's 11th 20-win campaign in 18 full seasons as a head coach and New Mexico's 23rd, all coming since 1964.

Alford has more wins in his first three seasons at UNM (70) than any previous Lobo coach. The next closest is Dave Bliss, who won 62 from 1989-91.

As the calendar goes, this year's Lobo team reached 20 wins quicker than any other when it beat TCU in Fort Worth on Jan. 30. Previously, the earliest to come came on Feb. 14, 1978.

As for number of games required to reach 20 victories, the 2009-10 Lobos needed the third-fewest.

FOUR LOBOS NAMED MWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Junior guard Dairese Gary became the fourth different Lobo to earn MWC Player of the Week honors for his play in road games against Colorado State and BYU in late February.

Sophomore forward A.J. Hardeman was recognized Jan. 18 for his performances against Utah (Jan. 13) and Wyoming (Jan. 16).

Junior G Darington Hobson picked up UNM's first honor Nov. 23 after the Lobos went 4-0 against New Mexico State, Nicholls State, Louisiana Tech and Miami (Ohio). He also shared the award after the San Diego State victory on Feb. 6.

Senior F Roman Martinez was recognized twice, Dec. 7 after wins against Cal (Dec. 2) and New Mexico State (Dec. 5). He also shared the honor a week later following UNM road wins over San Diego and Texas A&M.

UNM AMONG THE NATION'S YOUNGEST TEAMS

According to a survey by the University of Central Florida media relations office, only four schools had fewer upperclassmen than New Mexico in 2009-10. St. Louis and Washington State have one player in their junior-senior class while Arizona and Toledo list two. UNM, George Mason, UCF and Wyoming have three.

The Lobos have one senior (Roman Martinez), two juniors (Dairese Gary and Darington Hobson), four sophomores and three freshmen on their 10-man scholarship roster in 2009-10.

SEASON NO. 107

The University of New Mexico men's basketball program completed its 107th season in 2009-10. The Lobos first laced up the hightops on Feb. 2, 1900, when they lost 8-6 to the Albuquerque Guards. While this season was actually the 110th anniversary of that inaugural year, UNM did not field a team for various reasons in 1900-01, 1903-04, 1917-18 and 1920-21.

The Lobos have been playing continuously since 1921-22 and have compiled an all-time record of 1,340-1,023 (.567).

New Mexico was 418-495 (.458) from 1900-62, but has gone 922-5278 (.635) over the past 48 seasons, an average of more than 19 wins per year. The Lobos have made 29 trips to the postseason during that span, including 11 appearances in the NCAA Tournament and 18 showings in the NIT.

NCAA MEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP RETURNS TO THE PIT

On Sept. 21, 2009, the NCAA announced the University of New Mexico will host first and second round games in 2012. The dates are March 15 and 17, 2012. Four games will be played on Thursday, March 15 with two games scheduled for Saturday, March 17. UNM will be hosting the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship for the 10th time, but the first time since 2005.

A total of 37 NCAA Championship games have been played in The Pit since the first time in 1968, including the 1983 Final Four.

"It's great to see the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship return to Albuquerque and The Pit," said UNM Vice President for Athletics Paul Krebs. "This would not have happened without the commitment from Gov. Richardson and the State Legislature."

GRANGER DONATES $500,000 TO PIT RENOVATION

By Richard Stevens - Senior Writer/GoLobos.com - Sept. 17, 2008

If you know that much about ex-Lobo Danny Granger, it doesn't come as a surprise that he is willing to dig deep into his pockets, pluck out $500,000, and hand it over to the University of New Mexico in the school's quest to renovate University Arena.

Because Danny Granger loves The Pit. He loves Lobos basketball, too.

"This is something I've wanted to do ever since I got drafted," said the former UNM star, about to begin his fourth season in the NBA with the Indiana Pacers. "New Mexico is a second home to me and the University of New Mexico gave me a lot of opportunities and I attribute so much to them for all the things I've been able to make of myself.

"The Pit holds a special place in my heart for all the love The Pit showed, not just to me, but to the whole team. I want to give something back to the school because I'm a Lobo fanatic and this is a great way for me to do that."

Granger's donation of $500,000 will come in five annual donations of $100,000. It is part of the $17 million UNM needs to raise from the private sector to reach the $60 million price tag on The Pit's face-lift.

Larry Ryan, a UNM associate athletics director in charge of development, said Granger's donation will be one of the largest donations to ever come to UNM athletics from an individual.

Ryan said once final approval is granted by the UNM Board of Regents and the naming committee, Granger's name will become part of the renovated locker rooms in The Pit.

"I met with (UNM President David J. Schmidly) and he was telling me about some of the things he is planning to do at UNM," said Granger. "He is really planning some great things and I wanted to be a part of this one (Pit renovation)."

Granger played for the Lobos from 2004-05. He was All-Mountain West Conference in 2004 and 2005 and All-American (Basketball Times) in 2005 after leading UNM to the 2005 MWC tourney title. The Lobos stunned No.

15-ranked Utah 60-56 in the MWC championship game. Granger averaged 19.5 points as a Lobo in 2003-04 and 18.8 points in 2004-05.

Granger was noted for his all-around play on the court and for his humility and sportsmanship off the court.

One of the best insights into Granger, as a person and as a teammate, came during a practice session in which former Lobos coach Ritchie McKay was making point guard Javin Tindall run a few extra sprints to the far baseline and back.

McKay sent Tindall on the sprint by himself while the rest of the Lobos watched. When Tindall finished his solo run, McKay said, "Again." When Tindall returned to his waiting teammates, McKay said, "Again." This time Tindall did not sprint alone. Granger had joined him and ran along side his teammate. McKay did not say, "Again," when Granger and Tindall finished their sprint.

That was very much the type of player and teammate Granger was at UNM. Those qualities are also why Granger is putting some of his NBA money into renovating his former home court.

"The Pit needs to remain a special place," said Granger. "I was so amazed when I got to UNM. I had never played in a place like that before where the crowd can make such a huge difference."

Granger's success at the NBA level is no surprise to the thousands of Lobo fans who watched him star for UNM for two seasons.

Granger is all-around. The 6-foot-8 forward/wing can rebound, pass, defend, score inside, score outside and can put the ball on the floor.

He averaged 7.5 points and 4.9 rebounds his rookie NBA season in 2005-06. He scored 13.9 points and pulled down 4.6 rebounds per game in 2006-07. This past season his numbers jumped to 19.6 and 6.1. He shot .855 percent from the free throw line.

"My role has changed and increased every season," said Granger. "I'm expecting an even bigger role next season (2008-09).

And thanks, in part, to Danny Granger, the Lobos are closer to doing some great things to his old stomping grounds = The Pit.

A LOOK AT THE NEW LOBOS FOR 2010-11

CAMERON BAIRSTOW • 6-9 • 230 • Forward • Fr-HS • Brisbane, Australia • Australian Institute of Sport

Head Coach Steve Alford on Drew Gordon

"Drew maybe gets forgotten in this class, but he is definitely a headliner. He's a UCLA transfer who has a lot of good experience in the Pac-10. He brings us a post presence. He's very explosive inside and a great passing big man. I think he will make an immediate impact."

ALEX KIRK • 6-11 • 230 • Post • Fr-HS • Los Alamos, N.M. • Los Alamos HS

Signed with UNM in November of 2009...rated No. 97 overall prospect and the 7th-best center in the ESPNU 100 entering his senior season...three-time first team all-state pick at nearby Los Alamos HS...three-year averages of 23.8 points, 12.7 rebounds and 6.7 blocks...has a wingspan of 7-foot-2...head coach is his father, Alan...played in the Jack Jones Shootout in Memphis, Tenn., on April 10...will also play in the Academic All-American Classic in Los Angeles on May 1 and the New Mexico North/South game in July...New Mexico Gatorade player of the year and district 2AAAA Player of the Year as a senior when he averaged 25.2 points, 13.7 rebounds and an astounding 8.1 blocks per game for the Hilltoppers...shot 61% from the floor and 76% from the line...averaged 27.6 points, 14.2 rebounds, 7 blocks and 3 assists as a junior...PERSONAL... born Nov. 14, 1991, in Los Alamos...age is 18...full name is Alex Ryan Kirk...son of Alan and Pat Kirk...interested in business as a major.

Head Coach Steve Alford on Alex Kirk

"Alex put up huge numbers this season. There were some games where he had 40 (points) and 20 (rebounds). He gives us that big presence that we need. We think Alex will be able to do a lot of things for us very quickly. He is strong with an incredible wingspan. He has a great touch, can shoot the 3 and has good moves with his back to the basket."

TONY SNELL • 6-7 • 195 • Guard • Fr-HS • Riverside, Calif. • Westwind Prep Academy

Signed with UNM in November of 2009...averaged 19.5 points, 10 rebounds and 8.8 assists this season at Westwind Prep Academy in Phoenix, Ariz...head coach is Bobby Bossman...also had 71 steals and 48 blocks...ESPN.com called Snell "one of the top sleepers on the West Coast" and a "diamond in the rough"... averaged 14 points, 7 rebounds, 4 blocks and 3 assists as a senior at King HS in Riverside, Calif., in 2008-09...the Wolves were 30-3 that season, and finished seventh nationally in the MaxPreps/National Guard computer rankings...played for head coach Tim Sweeney...King teammate Kawhi Leonard was the Los Angeles Times' Player of the Year and just completed his freshman season at San Diego State...PERSONAL...born Nov. 10, 1991...age is 18...favorite color is red.

Head Coach Steve Alford on Tony Snell

"Tony put up nearly triple-double numbers this year. He is a very versatile guard, a lot like Darington (Hobson), just a younger version who can play the 1, 2 or 3. He brings a lot of versatility to our backcourt."

San Antonio College in Walnut, Calif...oldest sister Chelsea attends UC Irvine while another sister, Britni, is a record-setting goalkeeper for the University of Arkansas soccer team...she will be a senior in the fall...Kendall is an avid chess player.

Head Coach Steve Alford on Kendall Williams

"Kendall gives us a very athletic guard. He can score. He's a very good rebounding guard, an athletic guard. He has a great basketball IQ and a lot of passion to play. We're real excited about what Kendall will add to our backcourt."

HEAD COACH STEVE ALFORD

Steve Alford has completed three seasons as the head coach at the University of New Mexico. He was named UNM's 19th head coach on March 23, 2007, after spending the previous eight seasons as the head coach at the University of lowa

Alford, 45, has a 384-209 (65%) career record in 19 seasons as a collegiate head coach. His teams have qualified for postseason play 14 times, produced 16 winning seasons and reached 20 wins on 11 occasions.

In eight seasons at Iowa, Alford compiled a 152-106 record with a school-record seven consecutive winning seasons, and six postseason appearances. The Hawkeyes won two Big Ten Conference tournament titles (2001 and '06). Iowa was 17-14 in 2006-07. It was 9-7 in the Big Ten, tied with NCAA teams Illinois and Purdue for fourth place.

Prior to Iowa, Alford posted a 78-29 record in four seasons (1992-95) at NCAA Division III Manchester (Ind.) College and a four-year (1996-99) record of 78-48 at Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State). The Bears defeated Wisconsin and Tennessee to advance to the Sweet 16 of the 1999 NCAA Tournament before losing to top-ranked Duke in the regional semifinals. In 1997 Alford led the Bears to a 24-9 record (second in the Missouri Valley Conference) and a trip to the National Invitation Tournament.

The Bears were 16-12 in Alford's first season at the Division I level in 1995-96. In 1997-98 Southwest Missouri won 12 of its final 18 games, posting a final record of 16-16 while advancing to the title game of the MVC postseason tournament for the second straight season. Alford joined the collegiate coaching ranks at Manchester College in 1992, taking over a team that had lost its first eight games. After winning four of 20 games that season, Alford led Manchester to a 20-8 mark in his first full year of 1992-93.

The following season Manchester was 23-4 followed by a 31-1 mark in his fourth and final season. Manchester won three straight conference tournament titles from 1993-95, advancing to the NCAA Division III Tournament all three seasons.

Manchester advanced to the 1995 NCAA Division III championship game before suffering its first defeat in 32 games to place second in the nation. Alford was named Indiana Collegiate Conference coach of the year in 1993, 1994 and 1995 and his record was 74-13 over his final three seasons.

A native of New Castle, Ind., Alford was a prep standout for his father, Sam Alford, at New Castle Chrysler High School. He earned Indiana's Mr. Basketball Award in 1983 after averaging 37.7 points per game as a senior.

During his collegiate career at Indiana, Alford started all but five of 125 games, helping the Hoosiers post a four-year mark of 92-35. Alford served as head coach Bob Knight's team captain in 1987 when Indiana posted a 30-4 overall record and won the national championship.

Alford concluded his college career as Indiana's all-time scoring leader with 2,438 points and he became the first player to win the Indiana MVP award four times. He is also Indiana's career leader in steals and three-point field goal percentage. Alford was a consensus first team all-America selection and the Big Ten MVP as a senior.

Alford earned first team all-Big Ten honors in each of his final three seasons and also earned all-America honors as a junior. He was named to the NIT all-tourney team as a sophomore when the Hoosiers finished second to UCLA. His career free throw percentage of .897 (535-596) ranked fourth best in NCAA history and he led the nation in free throw percentage as a freshman.

Alford was named to the all-tournament team at the 1987 NCAA Final Four and to the NCAA tournament all-decade team for the 1980s. He set an NCAA Final Four record when he made 7 of 10 3-point baskets in the 1987 championship game victory over Syracuse. In 1997, Alford was inducted into the Indiana University Athletics Hall of Fame and in 2001 he was one of 15 players selected to Indiana's all-Century team. He was one of five players named to ESPN's Big Ten Conference Silver Anniversary team in 2004. The Sporting News recently published Legends of College Basketball, a publication that recalled the careers of the 100 greatest Division I college basketball players. Alford was No. 35 on the list.

Following his freshman season at Indiana, Alford was selected to play for the United States basketball team at the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Alford shot 64.4% percent from the field, averaged 10.3 points per game and was second on the team in assists as the U.S. collegians won the gold medal.

Alford was inducted into the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame in 2009. If you are wondering what took so long for Alford's induction, there is a 26-year waiting period after high school graduation so he was a first ballot selection. In fact, Alford was just the eighth honoree to be selected in his first year of eligibility. Joining Alford in the 2009 class were NBA coaches Gregg Popovich (Merrillville) and Scott Skiles (Plymouth).

Alford was born Nov. 23, 1964, in Franklin, Ind. He holds a bachelor's degree in business from Indiana University. Alford is married to the former Tanya Frost, whom he has known since the two were schoolmates in grade school in New Castle. The Alfords have three children: Kory, Bryce and Kayla.

2010 NCAA TOURNAMENT

• 29 points and 9 rebounds in 70 minutes against Montana and Washington...team-high 19 points and 6 boards against Montana, while playing all 40 minutes... needed 4 stitches above his left eye in the second half against Washington after taking an inadvertent elbow from teammate Will Brown as Brown was grabbing a defensive rebound...had to remove his blood-stained jersey and switch to No. 41 for the rest of the game

2010 MWC TOURNAMENT

- 20 points, but just 4 rebounds, in the 2 games...foul trouble against San Diego State limited him to a season-low 22 minutes
- 9 points and 3 rebounds vs. Air Force...11 points vs. San Diego State, and he connected on his 200th career 3 in the 2nd half

2009-10 • SENIOR SEASON

The real heart, soul and glue of the team...probably made more clutch plays (baskets, rebounds, assists, deflections, etc.) than any other Lobo this season

GAME NOTES

 Hobson's 2 FTs with 2.7 seconds left in the OT were the difference. SDSU missed a 3-point try at the buzzer...Lobos led 70-60 with 2:05 left

 Hobson had 8 of UNM's 10 points in overtime, plus 12 rebounds for his 6th double-double this season
• The Lobos are 21-3 for the first time since 1997-98 and have won 7

- straight conference games since an 8-game run in 1997-98
 UNM snapped San Diego State's NCAA-leading 9 straight games in
- overtime with wins...the Aztecs' last loss had been Feb. of 2005

 The winning team in the UNM-SDSU series has reached 70 points in each of the past 16 games
- The Lobos shot 50% or better (29-58, 50%) for only the 4th time this season and just the 2nd time at home
 • Martinez joins Charles Smith and Clayton Shields as only Lobos to sur-
- pass 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 150 3-pointers in a caree
