- National Cotton Candy Day celebrates the spun sugar treat that delights candy fans of all ages. On December 7th get your favorite flavor of this sweet delight that dates back to the 1400s. Originally called spun sugar, cotton candy is still a staple at carnivals, fairs, and the circus. While it may be reminiscent of childhood days, fairy floss also reminds us of fluffy clouds. Since the heated sugar gets spun into thin strands of fine sugar and blown into fat puffs twirled onto paper sticks

Three Ball Too Much for Cowboys to Overcome in Loss to Air Force, 86-77

The Wyoming Cowboys ran into hot three point shooting in a 86-77 loss to Air Force on Wednesday evening in the Arena-Auditorium. The Falcons hit 17 three pointers in the contest, as it was the most by an opponent in Arena-Auditorium history. Wyoming falls to 3-6 overall and 0-1 in MW play with the Falcons improving to 4-5 overall and 1-0 in the conference.

"What I shared with the team is I thought we got into an offensive battle tonight," UW head coach Allen Edwards said. "I thought we started the game very strong defensively and then we got caught up with the scoring piece. Our offense will come, but we have to stay true to our defense and I thought tonight we didn't play great defense."

Wyoming was led by redshirt sophomore Hunter Maldonado with 18 points, eight rebounds and a career-high nine assists. He has scored in double-figures in every game this season. He has scored in double-figures in 15 of his last 17 games dating back to last season. Senior Jake Hendricks added 17 points hitting five threes on seven attempts. Sophomore Hunter Thompson added 17 points on 6-of-8 shooting.

Both teams combined for 31-of-61 from behind the arc for 51 percent. The Falcons held a 33-28 advantage on the glass. Wyoming shot a season best 52 percent from the field and 45 percent from behind the arc. Air Force countered hitting 53 percent of their shots and 57 percent from the arc.

HEAD COACH ALLEN EDWARDS

Allen Edwards enters his fourth season with the Cowboys.

Edwards became the first coach in Wyoming history to win at least 20 games in his first two seasons.

During the 2018-19 season, Wyoming's Justin James became the first player since Penney Hardaway in 1993 to average over 22 points per game, over four assists, eight rebounds and one steal. James was the 40th selection in the NBA Draft by the Sacramento Kings for the second Cowboy drafted in the last five seasons.

The Pokes have also recorded the highest recorded cumulative GPA in Wyoming basketball history last season and during the 2016-17 campaign.

The Cowboys struggled with injuries during the 2018-19 campaign with three starters out for the entire season. Wyoming earned a win over South Carolina at home for the first win against a team from the SEC in Laramie since 2002.

Edwards helped the Pokes make NCAA history in 2017-18. Wyoming became only the second team in NCAA history to go 6-0 in overtime games in a single season. Edwards teams have also gone 34-2 when leading at halftime in his first two seasons.

In 2017-18, Edwards helped mentor Justin James, Hayden Dalton, Alan Herndon and Louis Adams to Mountain West honors. James and Dalton were All-MW selections. Herndon was named MW Defensive Player of the Year by the Media.

Adams was named the conference's Sixth Man of the Year by the Media.

James and Dalton also earned NABC All-District honors. Dalton participated in the NABC's Reese College All-Star Game during Final Four weekend.

Edwards mentored the Cowboys to their highest team GPA in school history last spring. With that seven Cowboys earned their degrees. But success also came on the floor, as three of those players signed professional contracts. Herndon and Dalton also saw time in the NBA Summer League.

His first season was one to remember as the Cowboys won the 2017 College Basketball Invitational defeating Coastal Carolina. The Cowboys won their first postseason title since winning an NCAA Championship in 1943

Edwards' recorded 23 wins in his first season. Of the 29 first-year head coaches in Division-I basketball, Edwards' 23 wins are tied for the third-highest total behind only New Mexico State's Paul Weir (28) and Valparaiso's Matt Lottich (24).

In 2016-17, Justin James was named the MW Sixth Man of the Year and also earned Third Team All-MW honors. He was also named the MVP of the CBI Tournament. Hayden Dalton earned Honorable Mention All-MW honors.

The Cowboys were also dominate on their home floor. Wyoming went an impressive 19-3 inside the Arena-Auditorium for the most home wins in school history during his first season.

The Wyoming offense was the most explosive in school history in 2016-17. UW scored the most points in school history and set a school and Mountain West record for three pointers made.

Edwards was introduced as the 21st head coach of the Cowboy basketball program by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman on March 21, 2016. He had previously served as an assistant under former UW head coach Larry Shyatt the previous five seasons. With 12 appearances in postseason tournaments and 14 conference championships, Edwards has created success during his playing career at Kentucky and as an assistant the past 14 seasons.

"An institution is fortunate when it has the opportunity to hire its next head coach from within a successful program," Burman said at the time of Edwards' hiring. "Larry Shyatt's Cowboy basketball legacy has allowed us to do that. We are thrilled to place its future in the hands of Allen Edwards. His basketball pedigree is undeniable, including two national championships with one of the game's most storied programs, Kentucky. He has coached with, and played under some of the game's finest coaches. During his five years here, his impact on our program has been significant, while earning the respect of our players. We believe Wyoming basketball has an extremely bright future."

"This opportunity to lead the Wyoming Cowboys is a blessing I'm truly thankful for," Edwards said. "I'd like to thank Larry Shyatt for bringing me to Laramie and allowing me to grow and develop as a professional with his help. My gratitude to Tom Burman, as well, for the faith that I can continue the tradition of success in the game of basketball and the game of life that Larry has established for this program."

Since joining the program in 2011, Edwards has helped the Pokes compile an overall record of 98-69. He added to his extensive postseason experience with the Cowboys qualifying for the CBI from 2012-14 and the NCAA Championships in 2015. That 2014-15 season included winning the Mountain West tournament title to secure the Pokes' first appearance in the NCAA tournament since 2002. During his time in Laramie, the Cowboys have claimed six wins over top-25 opponents, including one against a top-five foe, and six players have earned 15 all-conference honors, including a MW Player of the Year and two MW Defensive Players of the Year. He helped coach Larry Nance Jr., who was picked 27th overall in the first round of last year's NBA draft by the Los Angeles Lakers. Edwards also took the reins for one game on Jan. 22, 2014, to lead Wyoming to a come-from-behind 66-59 win at Air Force when Shyatt was ill.

"I want to congratulate coach Shyatt on the outstanding job he did at Wyoming," Nance said. "He took a 10-win program to nearly four-straight seasons with 20 wins. It's awesome to see him get some time to relax for a little bit. He's earned that. In the same breath, he couldn't be handing off the program to a more capable person. Coach Edwards is one of the smartest basketball minds I know, even at the NBA level. How he handles his players and staff, he commands respect and he deserves it. Allen is the right man for the job and he will continue the success there at Wyoming."

Edwards came to Wyoming from Western Kentucky, where he spent the 2010-11 season under Ken McDonald as an assistant coach.

Those two positions for Edwards came after a very productive three-year stint at Virginia Commonwealth University with head coach Anthony Grant from 2006-09. He helped guide the Rams to a 76-25 overall record during that time, including 45-9 in the Colonial Athletic Association, as the Rams won three conference regular-season titles and two tournament titles. VCU played in the NCAA tournament twice, including a first-round upset of Duke in 2007, and the NIT once. During that 2006-07 season, the Rams led the nation in three-point field goal percentage defense and were 10th in field goal percentage defense. Edwards helped cultivate Eric Maynor, the 20th overall pick in the 2009 NBA draft, and Larry Sanders, the 15th overall selection in the 2010 NBA draft.

Edwards' first full-time assistant position was at Morehead State from 2003-06 under head coach Kyle Macy. He previously
