The Leaders

- New Mexico Head Coach Paul Weir (York, 2004) is in his second season as leader of the Lobos with a 27-24 record and third as a head coach overall with a 55-28 mark.

A Quick Look at New Mexico

- Senior guard Dane Kuiper is the lone returning starter, but senior guard Anthony Mathis is the leading returning scorer and has improved on last year's numbers as he paces UNM in minutes per game (28.8), points (15.9), three-pointers made (55), three-point percentage (42.3) and free throw percentage (87.8).

A New Leader But Familiar Face

- While he may be in his first season in charge of the program, head coach Niko Medved was already a familiar face around Fort Collins and to Rams' fans. Medved previously was on the coaching staff from 2007-13 under two different coaches. He was a key part of recruiting players that helped the Rams to four consecutive postseason appearances, the last two in the NCAA Tournament that included a win over Missouri in 2013.

Postseason Experience

- Head coach Niko Medved has had extensive success wherever he has coached, both as a head and an assistant.
- As an assistant coach, he helped turn around the CSU program to improving its win totals from his first year in each successive year, ending in four straight postseason appearances.
- He continued that trend at Furman and Drake, improving both programs' win totals from the previous year in each of his five seasons as a head coach, finishing his last three years in postseason play.

Basketball Staff

- Head coach Niko Medved brought four members of his staff from Drake with him. Dave Thorson, JR Blount and Ali Farokhmanesh were assistant coaches with Medved, while Aaron Katsuma joined him again as Director of Basketball Operations. Thorson has extensive experience as a high school coach and had previously worked with Medved at the University of Minnesota. Blount and Farokhmanesh also bring extensive recent playing experience with them as Blount played at Loyola Chicago, graduating in 2009, and Farokhmanesh was a key part of a Northern Iowa squad that knocked off No. 1 Kansas in the NCAA Tournament in his senior year in 2010.

Coors Light Coaches Show Is Back

- The Coors Light Basketball Head Coaches Show returns to Lucky Joe's Sidewalk Saloon in Old Town Fort Collins this year. Join men's head coach Niko Medved and women's head coach Ryan Williams starting at 6 p.m. on the Mondays listed below to hear their thoughts on the previous week and look forward to upcoming action
- January: 14, 21 & 28
- February: 4, 11, 18 & 25

Roster Size... But Inexperienced

- The Rams started the year with 14 eligible players on the roster, one of the largest opening day rosters in recent history. CSU had 11 players available to start the 2017-18 season. Of those 14 this season, a total of 11 were part of the program last season, with seven having played, with four returners who did play and also four newcomers to the lineup this year.
- Last year's Rams combined for just 7.5 seasons of NCAA Division I experience to start the season, but this year's squad comes in with 17 combined Division I seasons, a marked improvement.

Returning/Lost...By the Numbers

- The Rams added several key newcomers for 2018-19 as Colorado State looked to fill some gaps from last year's production on the floor, though CSU returns a significant portion on all categories.
Here is a quick look at what the Rams returned in major statistical categories:

Newcomers (Lots of)

- The Rams have a strong group of newcomers to the floor this year, made up of three transfers and four freshmen.
The class distribution, as all have seen the floor for CSU the first time this season, is:
-- Juniors (Hyron Edwards, Kris Martin, Zo Tyson)
-- Freshmen (Sam Bannec, Kendle Moore, Jack Schoemann, Adam Thistlewood)

Moby Arena Home Court Advantage

- CSU has a record of 551-230 (.706) record all-time at Moby Arena.
The Rams have finished at least .500 in each of the last nine years, dating back to the 2008-09 season when the program was 6-9.
Current head coach Niko Medved was part of a coaching staff at CSU that posted two of the top records in program history at home, as the 2012-13 team set the best mark at 16-1 with the 2011-12 team going 14-1. Overall as an assistant at CSU, he was part of a team that went 97-97 overall and 59-30 in Moby Arena and improved their overall record in each successive season.

Moby & Record Improvement With Medved (CSU Asst.)

Table with 5 columns: Year, Overall, Moby, Total Attend., Avg Att. Includes years 2012-13 through 2007-08 and Totals.

Last Time Out...

- Colorado State used several runs and an up-tempo game to pull away from visiting Air Force for an 87-64 victory Tuesday night in Moby Arena, snapping a five-game losing streak for CSU.
Air Force got out to an 8-4 lead in the early going, but CSU grabbed the lead with an early inside-outside mix heavy in redshirt-junior center Nico Carvacho and freshman guard Kendle Moore that sparked a 10-0 run over the next 4:04 for a 14-8 Ram lead.
Both teams shot better than 50 percent in the game, but the extra possessions were the difference as CSU had 10 more shots from the floor from a plus-nine turnover differential, connecting on 35-of-62 field goal attempts (56.5 percent).
The Rams also had a 52-38 advantage on points in the paint for the night.

- Carvacho and Moore led CSU with 27 and 23 points, respectively, with the pair combining for nine assists and five steals to one turnover.
Two other Rams tallied double figures as redshirt-junior Kris Martin chipped in 12 points and four assists and redshirt-senior J.D. Paige added 10 points and five assists.
Air Force was led by Lavelle Scottie with 20 points, while Ryan Swan was the only other Falcon in double figures with 10.

Last Year's Meetings...

- Colorado State couldn't rebound from a slow start and dropped its final regular season game in Moby Arena to New Mexico State, 108-87, Feb. 28, 2018.
New Mexico started quick with two straight triples and never trailed in the contest, taking a 21-5 lead with less than six minutes gone in the game.
On the night, Colorado State shot 50.0 percent (31-of-62) from the field but just 31.3 percent (5-of-16) from beyond the three-point line.
Colorado State had four players reach double-digit scoring figures, led by junior guard Prentiss Nixon's 27 to go along with a career-high five steals.

(See page 19 for complete box score)

- Despite a solid run to start the second half, Colorado State's miscues were too much to overcome in an 80-65 road loss at New Mexico, Jan. 27, 2018.
New Mexico opened the scoring and never trailed in the game, leading 15-8 at the first media timeout on the strength of a pair of three pointers by Jachai Simmons.
Playing without its two leading scorers due to previous injuries, CSU got its defense going stronger in the second half, holding New Mexico to just 2-of-11 to start the second half as the Rams trimmed the lead to 53-48 with 9:02 to play in the contest, the closest since a 10:54 in the first half.
For the contest, Colorado State shot 53.1 percent (26-of-49) from the floor and 50.0 percent (5-of-10) from the three-point line.
Individually, junior forward Deion James led CSU with 17 points and nine rebounds, while redshirt-sophomore Nico Carvacho was the only other CSU player in double figures with 14 points and 15 rebounds.

Sharing the Load

- Through 16 games, seven different Rams have either led or tied for the team-high points in a game.
- Six different Rams -- redshirt-senior J.D. Paige (3), red-shirt-juniors Anthony Masinton-Bonner (4), Nico Carvacho (5) and Kris Martin (2) and freshmen Kendle Moore (3) and Adam Thistlewood (2) -- have each led multiple times.

Carvacho Growing On the Floor

- Redshirt-junior center Nico Carvacho showed his increased comfort level on the floor, growing extensively the last two seasons.
- In the 2017-18 season, Carvacho was the leader on the glass for CSU with 331 boards (125 offensive) in 32 games (the only Ram to start all 32 last year). His 10.3 boards per game average ranked second in the Mountain West, as he had double-digit boards in the last 16 games (averaging 13.6 per game in that span). He also just had the sixth-ever individual 300-rebound season in CSU history, surpassing the mark at Nevada, Feb. 25.
- Last year, he averaged 11.1 points and 12.3 rebounds in Mountain West play, leading by a wide margin in rebounding for league games only (next was 9.6 per game). He also had seven of the top 14 single-game totals in MW action.
- He had double-doubles in 10 of the last 16 games he played in 2017-18 and had a higher rebound average in MW league contests than Emmanuel Omogbo had in 2016-17 (10.9).
- Carvacho posted a career-high 26 points and tied a then-career best with 20 rebounds in the win over San Jose State, Feb. 10, 2018. The last Ram to have a 20-point/20-rebound game prior to that one was current Washington Wizards' Jason Smith, with 27 & 22 in a win over Wyoming on Feb. 24, 2007.
- He finished the season in fifth with 331 boards, surpassing former standout and current Washington Wizard Jason Smith in sixth.
- For his play in '17-18, Carvacho was named Honorable Mention All-Mountain West by both the league's coaches and media members in two separate votes.
- This season, Carvacho has started out effectively, recording double-doubles in nine games and is currently averaging a team-high 16.2 points and a nation-leading 12.7 rebounds per game while shooting a league-best 60.5 percent from the floor.

- Carvacho's 23-point/22-rebound game was the second of his career, matching Smith as the only Rams with multiple 20/20 games in their career.
- At UNLV Jan. 2, Carvacho set a new career best with 28 points and added 20 rebounds for his second 20-20 game of the year and school-record third of his career.

CSU student-athletes have the right to hold all injury information, except body part and playing status, confidential and private. As a standard operating procedure, coaches, athletic communications staff, and other athletic department personnel should refrain from sharing specific injury information with the media. However, in certain occasions, injury information could be released at the discretion of the athletic communications department after authorization is obtained from the student-athlete.

It is the policy of the CSU athletic training staff to not address the media unless it is absolutely necessary. Therefore, inquiries by the media regarding medical situations should be addressed to the Athletic Communications office.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Paige Wheels & Deals

- In 2016-17, Paige led CSU assists (2.5 apg), was third in steals (0.9 spg) and blocked shots (0.7) and fourth in scoring (8.8 ppg).

- Paige tied his career high with 23 points, including a career-best five three-pointers in the win over Fresno State, Feb. 11, 2017.
- Last season, Paige picked up a season-high 22 points versus San Diego State (1/2/18), making a career-high field goals.
- Paige scored in double figures in five of his last six games in 2017-18, including the performance at San Diego State and a 14-point, six-rebound outing in the win at Wyoming, Jan. 13. He also had 19 points against UNLV, Jan. 20.
- After missing six games with a broken hand suffered at San Diego State on Jan. 24, Paige returned to the lineup against Boise State (Feb. 21) with 12 points and averaged 10.4 points per game, third on the team, and had a team-high 2.6 assists per game.
- Paige missed the season opener but returned with 14 points (4-of-5 3-pointers) and a career-high tying six assists in the win against Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Nov. 10.
- He tied his career high against Montana State, Nov. 14, tallying a team-high 23 points on 9-of-15 shooting from the field in the win.

NIKO MEDVED

Head Coach • First Year at CSU • Minnesota (1997)

Niko Medved is starting his first year as the head coach of the Rams' men's basketball program. Medved, a Colorado State assistant coach from 2007-13, most recently served as the head coach at Drake University for one season where he guided the Bulldogs to their first postseason berth in six years. Prior to his appointment at Drake, he engineered considerable success as head coach at Furman from 2013-16.

"We are extremely excited to have Niko assume the leadership of our basketball program," Parker said. "Throughout our discussions, he showed a great understanding of what basketball means to Colorado State University and the community while demonstrating how much he has developed in his five years as a head coach. He has not only had success on the court at Furman and Drake in taking his teams to the postseason in each of the last three years, but also grew his student-athletes into young men who were also solid in the classroom and engaged in the community. We welcome Niko and Erica back to Fort Collins and are excited that Aly will be growing up as a Ram in Colorado."

"My family and I are ecstatic to have the opportunity to return to Fort Collins and Colorado State University to become the head men's basketball coach," Medved said. "This is obviously an incredibly special place to me, and to my family. Some of the best memories I've had personally and professionally happened at Colorado State. We have tremendous leadership from the top down and we look forward to partnering with everybody in the Fort Collins and Colorado State communities to build Colorado State basketball into one of the premier programs in the Mountain West."

As a Colorado State assistant coach for six years beginning in 2007 when former head coach Tim Miles took the reins of the Rams' program, Medved was instrumental in the rebuild of the program that saw it improve from seven wins in 2007-08 to five consecutive postseason berths, including NCAA tournament appearances in his final two seasons. As recruiting coordinator at CSU, Medved was responsible for recruiting many of the contributing players on the Rams' roster who helped return the program to prominence, a list that includes:

- two-time All-Mountain West selection and eventual Olympian Andy Ogide
- 2013 honorable mention AP All-American and first-team All-Mountain West Conference choice Colton Iverson
- second team All-MW pick Dorian Green
- third team all-league and two time all-defensive team selection Pierce Hornung
- 2012 first team All-MW guard Wes Eikmeier
- 2013 MW Sixth Man of the Year Daniel Bejarano

During his season at Drake, he engineered a 10-game improvement over the previous season, including 10 wins in the Missouri Valley Conference, the most in 10 years and just the 11th time the squad had won 10 or more league games in a season. The turnaround was the 17th best in the nation this year from a 7-24 record prior to his arrival. The postseason berth in the CIT was the first since 2012 and the His squad defeated Wake Forest during non-conference play, the program's second-ever win against an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent. He also had a player named Missouri Valley Scholar-Athlete of the Week seven times during the season out of 11 opportunities and had four players named to MVC Scholar-Athlete teams.

In four seasons as head coach at Furman, Medved guided the Paladins from a seven-win squad prior to his arrival and led it to improved records each season. The run culminated in a 23-11 record in 2016 that earned him Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors and saw the program earn a share of its first SoCon regular season championship since 1990-91. Medved's team reached the semifinals of the CollegenInsider.com (CIT) postseason tournament in 2016-17, its second consecutive season in the CIT.

He spent seven seasons as an assistant coach at Furman (1999-2006), including serving as the school's interim head coach in the spring of 2006.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT NIKO MEDVED

"Having known Niko over the years, it's been great to see his evolution from a hungry, young assistant coach to the savvy recruiter and now an accomplished head coach. Niko was great for us at Colorado State, he turned around the Furman program, and then showed his talent by making Drake a team to be reckoned with in the highly competitive Missouri Valley Conference. I have complete confidence Niko will do a phenomenal job for the Rams."
-- Tim Miles, Nebraska Head Coach

"Colorado State hired a great young coach and even a better person today. He will work hard every day to make CSU successful and he will do it the right way. I am thrilled for this great opportunity for Niko, and know he is excited to be back in the Ram family."
-- Dan Monson, Long Beach State Head Basketball Coach (Medved's former boss at Minnesota)

"I'm happy for the opportunity Coach Niko has been presented with, and am looking forward to the continued growth of the CSU basketball program."
-- Joe De Ciman, former CSU Ram

"It's a great hire. Niko has already shown he can turn programs around and had great success at Furman and in his brief time at Drake. He knows the game and is a great teacher and excellent recruiter. He knows Colorado State and what it takes to win there and will have a great vision and plan for the program."
-- Wes Eikmeier, former CSU Ram

"I'm excited for Niko and the program that I have such great memories of. He has already shown he can build programs as a head coach. He is also a great fit at Colorado State because he understands the landscape of the university, was a big part as an assistant coach in our success when I was there and knows how to teach the game. He is also just a great person that truly cares about his players both on and off the court."
-- Dorian Green, former CSU Ram
