OPENING TIP

For the first time in 41 years, UC Davis will head to New Mexico to compete in its final road non-conference game of the season. Tipoff inside Dreamstyle Arena — The Pit will take place on Sunday at 1 p.m. PT/2 p.m. MT.

A free video stream of the third all-time game between the Aggies and Lobos is available on the Mountain West Network. Sports 1140 KHTK will carry Scott Marsh's courtside call; an internet audio broadcast is also available on the station's Tuneln channel.

Live stats and in-game Twitter updates are also available; links for each medium are available at Gameday Central on UCDavisAggies.com.

This is the first post-holidays game for each team and the penultimate Big West tune-up for the Aggies. After they return home from Albuquerque, one more game remains before UC Davis opens league play at home, versus UC Riverside, on January 9.

New Mexico is already 2-0 against Mountain West teams after defeating Boise State and Wyoming earlier this month, and will resume conference play at San José State on New Year's Day following this matchup.

A young UC Davis roster, which includes a combined 10 freshmen and sophomores, will continue to improve itself and prepare for its Big West schedule thanks to a challenging non-conference slate. When the Aggies face the Lobos on Sunday, they will battle a team that is riding a seven-game win streak, is 9-0 at home for the first time since the 2010-11 season and enjoying an undefeated month of December.

Head coach Jim Les is preparing his team to compete in a challenging environment by heading to New Mexico, a decision that could pay dividends in March at the Big West Tournament. The Aggies need to become comfortable playing in a noisy and intimidating environment, and The Pit provides this opportunity.

Known as one of the loudest facilities in college basketball, Dreamstyle Arena — The Pit sits nearly a mile above sea level and averaged 95 percent of seating capacity since it opened in 1966.

Series Record: UC Davis trails 2-0
Last New Mexico Win: 12/20/78 — A, 86-74
Last UC Davis Win: N/A

- Recently, the Aggies won conference championships in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, men's soccer, and men's water polo
- UC Davis also holds recent individual conference titles in gymnastics, women's golf, men's golf, swimming and diving, and track and field

- UC Davis Athletics also sets the national standard in preparing student-athletes to launch successfully into jobs and graduate school opportunities through its innovative Aggie EVO System

THE HOME OF BIG WEST BASKETBALL

- Since head coach Jim Les took the helm of the men's basketball program on May 5, 2011, he and his staff turned UC Davis into the home of Big West basketball
- Highlighted by their appearance in the 2017 Division I NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, the Aggies advanced to postseason play three times within a four-year timespan
- Starting with their first, earned during the 2014-15 season, the Aggies won three Big West Conference championships within that four-year timespan

- UC Davis also posted three 20-win seasons in four years
- The Aggies rightfully earned their spot on college basketball's national map, and continue to strengthen their status on a yearly basis, as evident by the quality of opponents on this season's schedule
- The Pavilion has turned into the biggest home court advantage for any Big West school since Coach Les took over the program: In addition to posting two perfect home records within three years (14-0 in 2014-15 and 11-0 in '16-'17)
- Last season, no school earned more All-Big West accolades than UC Davis

DON'T FORGET YOUR ID

- Four of the Aggies' 16 non-conference games will take place at home — the second-lowest total during the Jim Les era; the 12 games outside of Davis are the most during Les' nine years as head coach

THAT'S WHY YOU PLAY FROM TIPOFF TO THE FINAL BUZZER

- Senior guard Joe Mooney provided the perfect ending to UC Davis' Dec. 16 home game, vs. LMU, when he hit a buzzer-beater from midcourt (watch: <http://bit.ly/MooneyBuzzerBeater>) to lift UC Davis to a 67-65 victory vs. LMU
- Trailing by 14 at halftime and as many as 18 in the second half, that shot capped the Aggies' comeback efforts
- In addition to shooting 3-for-12 throughout a 12:26 timespan, before Erik Johansson's layup gave the Lions a 65-64 lead with three seconds remaining, LMU was held scoreless for the following blocks of time in the second half: 5:07, 4:03, 2:49 and 2:12 — a collective 14:11 of action
- Kennedy Koehler scored eight of his career-high 13 points after halftime, shot 3 of 4 overall and connected on all six of his shots at the free throw line, another career high
- Stefan Gonzalez hit all four of his baskets from three and scored all 13 pts. after halftime

PEPPER ENJOYS BREAKOUT GAME AT UTAH

- Freshman guard Elijah Pepper enjoyed his best game as an Aggie when UC Davis faced Utah on Nov. 29 in the second of back-to-back games against Pac-12 competition

12-29 at New Mexico >> Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit >> Albuquerque, New Mexico

- After earning his spot in the starting lineup earlier in the month, the Selah, Wash. native rewarded Coach Les' decision by setting numerous career bests against the Utes
- In addition to finishing with a career-high 14 points, he set new highs by hitting 4 of 5 shots from three and 5 of 7 overall from the floor

THE FUTURE LOOKS BRIGHT

- This year's men's basketball roster skews young with a combined 10 freshmen and sophomores, and the Aggies' newcomers have faced a baptism by fire this season
- However, the decision to play its talented newcomers is starting to pay off, as evident by the way UC Davis played against its first Power Five opponent of the season
- When the Aggies faced Cal on Nov. 26, freshman guard Ezra Manjon posted his first 20-point game of the season when he finished with a game-high 21 against the Golden Bears
- UC Davis' defense caused 15 turnovers, which includes three charges drawn by Elijah Pepper at key points in the first half

PROTECT THE ROCK AT ALL COSTS

- UC Davis did a phenomenal job protecting the ball at Cal since it only committed four turnovers throughout the entire game
- All four turnovers took place in the first half
- This is the first time since Sec. 17, 2012 (in a home game against Eastern Washington), that UC Davis committed five turnovers or less in a game

CALEB MCGILL SIGNS NLI DURING FALL WINDOW

- Caleb McGill, a 6-foot-7 forward from Aurora, Colorado, signed a National Letter of Intent with UC Davis basketball during the fall window
- McGill, an AP Scholar with Distinction, three-year academic and athletic letterwinner, is equally successful on the court by leading Grandview High School to a 5A State championship in 2018.
- That successful postseason run ended with 5A Playoff All-Team accolades
- The Wolves finished that season with a 24-4 overall and 11-3 league record, won its last 11 games in a row, earned a No. 1 ranking among all Colorado high school teams and No. 37 in the nation
- Throughout McGill's tenure at GHS, the basketball program has enjoyed nothing but success and is consistently ranked among the country's top programs

- Entering his senior year, the Wolves won 80 percent of their games (64-16 combined record) and 33 of 42 matchups against league opponents (.786 winning percentage)
- A McGill-led Grandview team won a 5A Centennial championship last year and will begin its title defense during the 2019-20 season
- In addition to helping the Wolves win another championship, McGill's junior season also included All-State honors
- Last summer, the NCAA selected McGill to participate in one of its four new NCAA youth development camps
- He was part of a select list of individuals from across the country to develop their skills, from an athletic and academic perspective, and prepare for the daily rigors faced by Division I student-athletes

THEY DIDN'T PLAY LIKE NEWCOMERS

- Throughout the Red Wolves Classic, the Aggies' lone tournament of the season, their newcomers played like seasoned veterans
- Against Idaho, it was Ezra Manjon who capped UC Davis' comeback with a running layup, in the final seconds, to win the game
- In the team's Oct. 17 tournament finale, Manjon's free throw, made with nine seconds remaining in regulation, forced overtime for the first time this season
- In OT, it was a three nailed by freshman guard Elijah Pepper that evened the score at 74, vs. VMI, and took that game into double overtime
- That day, Pepper posted eight points and led all Aggies with a career-high 10 rebounds — nearly one-fourth of the team's total since it finished with 43
- Junior forward Kennedy Koehler's defense frustrated the Keydets all game long by forcing turnovers and crashing the glass on both ends of the court, and finished his day with eight points and eight rebounds (both career highs)

AGGIES KEPT IT 100 IN THEIR HOME OPENER

- In the first home game of the season, all 13 active players saw action against William Jessup (11/7) and scored a combined 109 points
- That game marked the first time that UC Davis scored 100 points or more, on Bob Hamilton Court since it scored 108 in a one-point OT victory vs. UC Irvine on Jan. 29, 2011
- Until that night, UC Davis did not score 100 or more points, in a regulation victory, since joining the Big West Conference in 2007

- That feat last took place on Jan. 23, 1999, in a 102-71 result vs. Chico State

A YOUNG, YET EXPERIENCED ROSTER

- The 2019-20 roster provides ninth-year head coach Jim Les with a variety of lineup options, depending on the Aggies' opponent
- All four members of this year's senior class — Stefan Gonzalez, Matt Neufeld, Joe Mooney and Rogers Printup — are fifth-years
- Combined with Kennedy Koehler, the team's only junior transfer, only five members of this year's squad are upperclassmen
- Cameron Ba and B.J. Shaw redshirted the 2018-19 season and will make their debut this year
- Sophomore Wes Harris transferred from Otero Junior College, and finished his freshman season with four top-25 stats among all junior college players in the nation
- Of the program's four true freshmen, two competed abroad last year (Ade Adebayo, England; Oliver Gehrke, Sweden); Gehrke represented Team Sweden in last summer's FIBA Championships

AGGIE TRIO RECEIVE INVITATIONS TO REPRESENT THEIR HOME COUNTRIES

- Sophomore guards Damion Squire, Caleb Fuller, and freshman forward Oliver Gehrke each earned invitations to compete in various FIBA championship tournaments this past summer as members of Team Canada, Team Great Britain and Team Sweden, respectively
- At the FIBA U19 Basketball World Cup, Squire played a key role in all seven of Team Canada's games
- During group play versus Senegal, the Montreal native finished with 18 points, three rebounds and a team-high four assists to help the second-ranked team in the world draw a matchup against France in the quarterfinals
- In Canada's final two games of the tournament, Squire finished with 10 points, two rebounds and two steals versus Puerto Rico, which led to Top Performer of the Game honors
- In the team's World Cup finale against Serbia, Squire posted three rebounds and a tournament-high five assists
- Throughout the last four years, Gehrke competed for Sweden's National Team as a member of its U16 and U18 squads
- Before heading to Davis to take summer classes, and participate in the team's

- strength and conditioning workouts, Gehrke represented his country once again at FIBA's U20 European Championship
- The incoming freshman started championship competition with an attention-grabbing 20 points, six rebounds, three steals and three assists, and continued his stellar play throughout 10-day event
- By finishing with 12 points and a tournament-high nine rebounds against Estonia, Sweden's final Championship opponent, Gehrke shot 39 percent overall and 34 percent from three-point range for the tournament
- Before joining the Aggies in the summer of 2018, Fuller represented Great Britain in two FIBA championship tournaments; his last competition with the National Team ended with a U19 title, which led to another invitation to compete for Team GB earlier this summer
- Fuller respectfully declined this offer to spend time with his family, an opportunity that rarely presented itself last year — his first at UC Davis — due to his academic workload and athletic commitments

IT SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY, NOT TWO DECADES AGO

- The 2019-20 season will mark the 22nd anniversary of UC Davis basketball's Division II National Championship season (1997-98)
- UC Davis finished with a 31-2 overall record, won all 14 games against Northern California Athletic Conference teams, and all 17 home games played throughout the regular season and playoffs
- Current UC Davis associate head coach Kevin Nosek competed for the Aggies that season

ESPN WILL FEATURE UP TO SEVEN UC DAVIS GAMES AS PART OF BIG WEST'S 2019-20 BROADCAST SCHEDULE

- Two UC Davis basketball home games, and a pair of road contests were included in ESPN's Wild Card schedule when network and Big West officials announced this year's conference television package
- Potential nationally televised home games include matchups versus UC Irvine (Jan. 30) and CSUN (Feb. 15)
- Aggie road contests at Cal State Fullerton (Feb. 8) and Cal Poly (Feb. 20) were included in this season's Wild Card slate
- ESPN3 will broadcast three UC Davis men's basketball games during league play: at Long Beach State (Jan. 16), CSUN (Jan. 18), and UC Irvine (Feb. 6)
- UC Davis' game at Cal State Fullerton (Feb.

- 8), and regular season finale at UC Riverside (March 7) are among a list of events ESPN has the option to air on those respective weekends, as part of the network's Wild Card package

PRINTUP LEADS TEAM USA TO GOLD IN WORLD DEAF BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

- As a representative of Team USA at the World Deaf Basketball Championships, hosted by Gallaudet University in July, 2018, then-junior guard Rogers Printup led his team to a gold in this international tournament
- Printup learned after Team USA's 81-63 victory vs. Japan, in the championship game, that he was named to the Best Five Team for the Men's 2018 U21 World Deaf Basketball Championships — a group that features the tournament's five strongest overall performers
- After defeating Israel, 103-24 in its opening game, Team USA collected additional wins against Australia (95-28), Ukraine (93-48) — which included a game-high 20-point performance from Printup — Lithuania (113-39), Canada (126-23) and a thrilling 78-73 result against Spain, which allowed the hosts to earn an opportunity to compete for gold

UC Davis punched its ticket to the Big Dance for the first time in 2017 when the Aggies defeated UC Irvine, 50-47, in a Big West Conference Tournament championship thriller in 2017. After making its NCAA Tournament debut in Dayton, Ohio, with a 67-63 victory vs. North Carolina Central in the First Four, the Aggies advanced to the Midwest Region First Round and drew Kansas as its opponent.

Big West basketball has called Davis its home in recent seasons: In addition to its three Big West titles and three postseason appearances in the last four years, UC Davis posted three 20-win seasons during that same timespan and turned the Pavilion into one of the strongest home court advantages among all BWC teams.

THE AGGIE EVO SYSTEM

UC Davis student-athletes will understand how the real world works and possess the skills to navigate it. They will launch into a great job or graduate school opportunity without unwanted delay.

“We are uncommonly committed to preparing student-athletes for successful lives after graduation. Our approach is based on the science of human development. You will not find another school more dedicated to helping you be positioned for a great job or grad school opportunity after sports end, whenever that may be.”

- UC Davis Director of Athletics Kevin Blue

It is this uncommon commitment towards student-athletes that led to the creation of the Aggie EVO System, a multi-faceted student-athlete outcomes program focused on preparing young men and women for a successful launch after graduating from the fifth-ranked public school in the nation.

We define launch as moving beyond graduation into a meaningful professional path that builds on the college experience, sets a graduate on a path of financial and social well-being and effectively replaces the sport as the primary piece of their identity.

The Aggie EVO System (“EVO” is shorthand for a student-athlete’s “evolution” during college) is an important part of the student-athlete experience at UC Davis – just like weights and conditioning, attending class or getting athletic medicine treatment. This unprecedented program was designed to focus on four key elements to help UC Davis student-athletes prepare for future success by helping them better “know and navigate the World of Work”:

- SKILLS that employers want and will make student-athletes even more effective in their sports: self awareness, emotional intelligence, social/cultural competence and leadership.
- KNOWLEDGE of what careers and paths are out there (we call this the “World of Work”), what fits one’s interests and abilities, who in our gigantic network can advise and guide them and each individual can navigate a path to get there.
- OPPORTUNITIES to enjoy internships, jobs and other learning opportunities through a powerful network of Aggie alums. Student-athletes hear from and meet alums in a wide variety of fields, attend recruiting events and visit members of the EVO Pro network at companies in San Francisco, Silicon Valley, and Sacramento.
- TOOLS that student-athletes need to secure these opportunities. We require a few more basic tools or updates each year they are on campus. This includes resumes and cover letters, LinkedIn profiles, interviewing skills, business cards, professional headshots, and anything else that helps student-athletes prepare for a more successful launch.

Head Coach
Ninth Season
Bradley '86

@CoachJimLes

Since Jim Les became the 23rd head coach in UC Davis' history on May 5, 2011, the Aggies posted their best records as a Division I program, won every game played on Hamilton Court twice within a three-year timespan, captured their first Big West Conference championship, Big West Tournament championship, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

The program's championship tradition continued in 2018 when the Aggies won their third Big West title within four years and earned another trip to the postseason.

In addition to numerous championships and playoff appearances, Les also created a unique home court advantage like no other team in the conference. In the last four years, no mainland squad boasts more home wins than the Aggies; during that same timespan, no Big West team holds a higher home win percentage than UC Davis.

UC Davis' historic 2017 NCAA Tournament run, which started with a come-from-behind victory against the defending league champions, continued with another win in the NCAA First Four vs. North Carolina Central and a matchup against Kansas in the Midwest Regional First Round, are the latest accomplishments for a program that has a well-deserved reputation for succeeding in the classroom, on the court, and in the community — all earned throughout Les' tenure.

The 2014-15 Big West Coach of the Year led UC Davis to its first-ever Big West Conference championship and its inaugural postseason berth as a D-I team when the Aggies faced Stanford in the opening round of the National Invitation Tournament. That appearance capped a season that included new school records for the most overall, home, road, conference and non-conference wins.

For the first time in school history, UC Davis ended the season as the NCAA's national team three point champions by virtue of its .447 shooting percentage - the highest mark recorded by any team since the three-point line was pushed back to its current distance. Corey Hawkins, the country's No. 1 three-point shooter with his .488 percentage, brought the team's first-ever individual title to Davis. The 2014-15 squad recorded UC Davis' highest three-point team percentage since 1994.

As the only team in the nation to hold top five three-point and overall field goal percentages on a weekly basis, men's basketball posted a +16 win differential - a Big West Conference record and the nation's No. 1 turnaround that year.

Under Les' tutelage, no league team collected more all-conference and specialty awards that UC Davis - home of the Big West Coach of the Year, Player of the Year (Hawkins) and Sixth Man of the Year (Josh Fox). This season marked the first occasion that an Aggie received each award.

That accomplishment took place once again in 2017-18 when the Aggies collected more all-league hardware than any other team. Included in that year's honor roll were three of the Big West's top individual awards: Player of the Year, Newcomer of the Year — both won by TJ Shorts II, who became the first player in league history to win its top two individual honors — and Coach of the Year.

The following season, no team was more dominant on defense than UC Davis. In addition to posting the lowest scoring average in the league, both overall and during conference play, the Aggies set new program records in all major rebounding categories and by holding opponents to season-low percentages, both overall and from three-point territory.

Les came to the Aggies after spending nine years as the head coach at Bradley, his alma mater, where he won more than 150 games and led the Braves to the 2006 NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen. In all, Les possesses more than 30 years of successful playing and coaching experience in both the collegiate and professional ranks.

Les is no stranger to the Sacramento area, having spent four years as a player with the Sacramento Kings, followed by three seasons as an assistant for the WNBA's Sacramento Monarchs. After a nine-year professional playing career, which included seven seasons in the National Basketball Association, Les enjoyed a successful venture into the financial world before returning to his basketball roots. After three years spent with the Monarchs, Les returned to Bradley and was named the 12th men's basketball coach in Braves history on April 7, 2002.

In his first head coaching position, Les' resume continued to build as his career continued Bradley. The Braves averaged better than 20 wins in five seasons from 2005 to 2010, while racking up 10 postseason wins throughout that time. Along the way, Les became the first coach to win games in four different postseason tournaments in NCAA history.

HEAD COACH JIM LES/COACHING STAFF

Les' coaching career has been defined by more than just wins and losses, however. Of the 26 seniors he has coached in his first nine years, 24 earned their degrees, while the other two played professional basketball overseas.

Under Les' direction, Bradley set a program record for grade point average and had 11 team members earn a spot on the Bradley Athletic Director's Honor Roll during the 2009-10 academic year for posting a minimum 3.0 semester GPA during at least one of the two grading periods that year.

Inheriting a team that produced a 9-20 record during the 2001-02 season, Les laid a solid foundation for a program that re-emerged as a force in the Missouri Valley Conference. Les finished with a 152-140 record in nine seasons as Bradley's head man, having directed the Braves to the Sweet 16s of the 2006 NCAA Tournament and 2007 National Invitation Tournament, followed by runner-up finishes in the inaugural College Basketball Invitational (2008) and Collegen Insider.com Postseason Tournament (2009).

In 2005-06, Les' veteran Braves were able to find their stride down the stretch and play their way into the postseason picture by winning 13 of their last 17 contests, including a seven-game win streak that took the team all the way to the MVC Tournament championship game. Bradley went on to win a pair of NCAA Tournament games, defeating No. 4 seed Kansas (77-73) and fifth-seeded Pittsburgh (72-66) at the Palace of Auburn Hills to make its first Sweet 16 appearance since 1955.

Les began his college career at Cleveland State, but transferred to Bradley during the winter break of his sophomore season. Once in the Bradley fold, Les led the Braves to a 60-27 (.690) record in his 87 games, consecutive trips to the postseason (1985 NIT and 1986 NCAA Tournament) and one of the greatest seasons in the history of both Bradley and Valley men's basketball.

The 1985-86 squad won the MVC regular season title with a perfect 16-0 league record and it remains the last Valley team to post an undefeated conference slate. Although the Braves lost the MVC Tournament championship game at Tulsa, Bradley earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, where it lost to eventual national champion Louisville in the second round. Bradley's 83-65 victory versus UTEP in the first round of the 1986 West Regional, however, was the program's first NCAA Tournament victory since 1955.

During Bradley's memorable 1985-86 season, Les averaged 14.2 points and led The Valley with 7.9 assists per game. In addition to being named MVC Player of the Year in 1986, the 5-foot-11 point guard won the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Hall of Fame Award as the nation's best player less than 6-feet tall.

Les was inducted into the Bradley Athletics Hall of Fame Feb. 7, 1998. He also has been inducted into the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame, the Greater Peoria Sports Hall of Fame and the Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame. Additionally, Braves fans voted Les one of the 15 greatest players in program history during the celebration of Bradley's first 100 basketball seasons.

Following his senior season, Les was a third-round (70th overall) selection by the Atlanta Hawks during the 1986 NBA Draft. He went on to play seven seasons for Utah, the Los Angeles Clippers, Sacramento and Atlanta. He led the NBA in 3-point field goal percentage (.461) during the 1990-91 season and he was the runner-up to Chicago's Craig Hodges in the AT&T Long Distance Shootout during the 1992 NBA All-Star Weekend.

Among the coaches for whom Les played during his NBA career are Lenny Wilkens, Jerry Sloan and Dick Motta, three of the winningest coaches in NBA history.

Originally from the Chicago suburb of Niles, Ill., Les is married to the former Jodi Martineau. The couple has three children: son Tyler and daughters Amber and Hannah.

KEVIN NOSEK

Associate Head Coach
18th Season
UC Davis '99

@CoachKevinNosek

Kevin Nosek, who brings two decades of experience as either a UC Davis assistant coach or student-athlete, is in his 18th season as a member of the men's basketball staff.

Under Nosek's tutelage, UC Davis won three Big West championships in a four-year timespan and advanced to postseason play on as many occasions within that block of time.

With Nosek on staff, the 2016-17 team not only earned its first berth in the NCAA Tournament, thanks to a come-from-behind victory in the championship game of the Big West Tournament (collecting the program's first tourney title in the process), but captured its first Division I postseason victory at the NCAA First Four. With their win over North Carolina Central, the Aggies advanced to the Midwest Regional First Round where they faced Kansas.

UC Davis earned a berth in the first round of the National Invitation Tournament the following season. The Aggies first competed in the NIT in 2015

He began his Aggie coaching career in 1999-2000 after competing for UC Davis all four seasons on campus as a student-athlete. After serving a three-year stint as head coach at Menlo College, Nosek returned to the Aggies in 2006-07. He assists in all aspects of the program.

Nosek, a true veteran of the men's basketball staff whose connection to the program dates back to his youth days, first served as a ball boy for Bob Hamilton's teams in the late 1980s. Since his return in 2006, he has been instrumental in helping the program complete its transition to Division I, a process that includes the program's first official D-I and Big West Conference season in 2007-08.

After starring at nearby Davis Senior High, Nosek played for UC Davis from 1996-99, highlighting his career with a NCAA Division II national championship in 1988. He enjoyed his best collegiate game during his senior year, when he hit 4 of 5 from three-point range en route to a career-high 12 points against Holy Names. Perhaps as a premonition of things to come, his teammates dubbed him "Coach Nosek" for his unrelenting diligence both on and off the court.

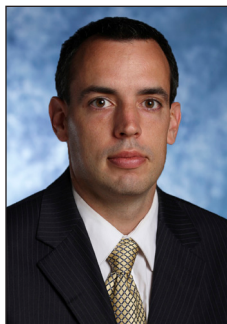

Nosek remained with the Aggie program as an assistant to Brian Fogel from 1999-2003. In his four seasons, the Aggies compiled a 67-23 record and qualified for the NCAA D-II West Regional (1999-2000).

Following his first tenure at UC Davis, Nosek earned his first collegiate head-coaching role when he took the helm of the men's basketball program at Menlo College. In three seasons with the Oaks, he turned around a program that finished 4-22 his first season, to one that posted a 17-11 mark and its best record in seven years. The Oaks advanced to the Cal Pac Conference Tournament semifinal game during the 2004-05 season and reached the title game the following year.

Nosek's Menlo tenure included a roster that led all D-II teams in rebound defense, also ranking among the nation's leaders in rebound margin and field goal percentage defense.

Nosek graduated from UC Davis in June of 1999, earning his bachelor's degree in organizational studies. He received his masters in sport coaching from the United States Sports Academy shortly thereafter.

Nosek and his wife, Nicole reside in Davis. They have two daughters, Maya and Grace, and a son, Derek.

KYLE VOGT

Assistant Coach
Eighth Season
Lakeland '02

@CoachKyleVogt

Kyle Vogt enters his eighth season at UC Davis as an assistant coach after being hired in June, 2012. In his role, he assists in all areas of the Aggies' program, specializing in defensive schemes, perimeter play and development, recruiting and opponent scouting.

With Vogt on the sidelines, the 2016-17 team not only won its first-ever Big West Tournament championship, earning the league's automatic NCAA Tournament bid in the process, but captured its inaugural Division I postseason win by defeating North Carolina Central in a First Four matchup.

That result allowed the Aggies to advance to the Midwest Regional First Round where they faced Kansas for the first time in school history.

UC Davis won its third Big West championship as part of the 2017-18 season, and advanced to postseason play once again when it faced Utah in the National Invitation Tournament. That appearance marked the program's third postseason berth in the last four seasons.

Vogt brought 11 years of coaching experience to UC Davis, which included stops at UW Platteville (2003-04), Bradley ('04-'11) and Western Illinois ('11-'12). Vogt was a part of five postseason teams throughout those 11 years, including Bradley's 2006 Sweet 16 run.

In back-to-back years, teams Vogt coached set single-season school records for the most Division I wins - 18 at Western Illinois and 14 at UC Davis.

"I am very excited to add Kyle to our staff," said head men's basketball coach Jim Les shortly after Vogt's hiring. "He is an accomplished Division I assistant that brings with him great knowledge and enthusiasm. He will be a tremendous asset to our staff and an excellent resource for our players both on and off the floor."

A native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Vogt graduated from Lakeland College in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in marketing. An outstanding player for the Muskies, Vogt was a three-time all-conference performer and scored 1,123 points throughout his career. He is ranked No. 2 all-time with 183 three-point field goals and was amongst the Div. III national leaders in three-point percentage during both his junior and senior seasons.

Vogt and his wife, Erin, live in Davis with their three children: Jackson, Nolan and Avery.

JONATHAN METZGER-JONES

Assistant Coach
Fourth Season
Pacific '02

@CoachJMJones

Jonathan Metzger-Jones was hired as an assistant coach at UC Davis on June 16, 2016. In his time with the program, he helped lead the Aggies to the best two-year stretch in their Division I history. In addition to its back-to-back postseason appearances, which includes a Big West Tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth in 2017, followed by a Big West regular season championship and National Invitation Tournament appearance in 2018, both seasons ended with the Aggies winning 22 or more games.

The 2017 postseason run began with a come-from-behind victory in the championship game of the Big West Tournament — the first time UC Davis advanced to the NCAA Tournament in school history by earning the conference's automatic bid. By defeating North Carolina Central in the First Four, the Aggies advanced to the Midwest Regional First Round and faced Kansas in the inaugural head-to-head meeting in school history.

After winning the Big West's regular season championship, on the final day of league play with a double-overtime win on the road at conference rival UC Irvine, the 2017-18 season culminated with another postseason appearance when the Aggies faced Utah in the first round of the NIT.

Metzger-Jones arrived at UC Davis after spending five seasons as an assistant coach at Montana. Throughout his tenure in Missoula, the Grizzlies won three Big Sky regular season championships and advanced to postseason play on four occasions. In addition to competing in the 2012 and 2013 NCAA Tournaments, Metzger-Jones' teams also competed in the 2015 National Invitation Tournament and 2016 College Basketball Invitational.

With Metzger-Jones on staff, Montana won 20 or more games in four of five years. Under his tutelage, 17 Grizzlies earned All-Big Sky Conference honors -- a list that includes Kareem Jamar (2013 Big Sky Conference MVP), Will Cherry (Cleveland Cavaliers), Jordan Gregory and Martin Breunig. All four players received NABC All-District recognition.

While at Montana, Metzger-Jones was tasked with recruiting, player skill development, opponent scouting, in-game strategy, scheduling, the program's fundraising efforts and player academics — an area that saw the Grizzly basketball team post its highest cumulative GPA in program history.

Before he joined the Grizzlies' staff, Metzger-Jones helped lead UC Santa Barbara to its most successful stint in program history. Over the course of his four years the Gauchos won the 2008 and 2010 Big West regular season titles, consecutive Big West Tournament championships and the program's first-ever back-to-back berths at the NCAA Tournament in 2010 and 2011. UCSB also qualified for the 2008 NIT.

While at Santa Barbara, Metzger-Jones recruited and mentored Orlando Johnson, James Nunnally and Alan Williams. Johnson and Williams received Big West MVP distinction in 2010 and 2014 respectively; all three have NBA experience.

Metzger-Jones played two seasons at Pacific, was named co-captain as a senior and etched his name in the Tigers' records book as one of the program's top 10 three-point shooters when he graduated in 2002 with a bachelor of science degree in business administration.

Afterwards, he spent three seasons playing professionally in Europe with stops in Switzerland, Denmark and Finland.

Upon his return to the United States, Metzger-Jones started his coaching career as Cal State Fullerton's director of basketball operations..

Metzger-Jones is married to the former Alison Keck. The couple has one son, Jason.

. With Pepper leading the way, Selah High School's on-court success continued in 2017-18 with another CWAC crown, another deep state playoff run — the Vikings finished second and third during his sophomore and junior seasons — and an extensive individual honor roll that included his second-straight first team all-conference and league MVP honors, Washington State MVP and All-State first team recognition

. In just three years, Pepper became the school's all-time leading scorer with more than 1,650 points to his credit — an accomplishment that was bound to take place sooner than later since he crossed the 1,000-point threshold midway through his sophomore season

. Pepper also tied the school's single-game scoring record twice by finishing with 46 points

PERSONAL

. Born in Shepparton, Australia before relocating to Washington, Pepper's signing is the latest highlight of his family's strong basketball lineage since his dad and uncle both played professionally

. Oldest of Danielle and Ryan's four children

. Noah and Levi are his younger brothers, Makenna is his younger sister

. His dad played ball at Central Washington University before competing as a professional in Australia

. Most people do not know he was born in Australia

. Graduating from Selah HS is his proudest personal accomplishment

. The great facilities, people involved with the program, team's potential to succeed and outstanding relationships with the coaching staff were the reasons he chose UC Davis
