NEW MEXICO TRAVELS TO FLORIDA FOR HICKORY POINT LAKE BASH

The New Mexico beach volleyball team looks to extend its winning streak and gain more experience as it takes on a competitive slate of five matches at the Stetson/Hickory Point Lake Bash this weekend in Tavares, Florida.

Playing at Hickory Point Beach, the Lobos (2-4) have designs on picking up some more wins as they face off against Houston Baptist, No. 15/18 Stetson and No. 14/13 Florida International on Friday and UNC Wilmington and the College of Charleston on Saturday.

This weekend looks to present some similar challenges as New Mexico squares off against some more ranked teams.

Four of the teams the Lobos play this week are either ranked or receiving votes in both of the two national polls, the DIG Magazine Poll and the AVCA Coaches Poll, including No. 14/13 Florida International and No. 15/18 Stetson.

Additionally, like UNM, the College of Charleston is receiving votes in both polls, while Houston Baptist is receiving votes in the AVCA Poll.

However, for UNM to make strides this weekend, their roster will need to continue improving.

The team's top-seeded tandem of Maddie Irwin & Erin Martin has posted some strong marks to open the season, going 3-3 despite never playing collegiate beach volleyball before.

The only duo to have played together all season, they've led the team in the early going and have won two in a row heading into this weekend.

The rest of the lineup, however, is more in flux. Last weekend, the partnership of Eastyn Baletto & Chloe Crappell notched a 2-1 record playing in the No. 2 slot, providing UNM with some firepower at the top of the lineup.

The duo of Carly Beddingfield & Abbey Willison also logged a 2-1 record from the No. 4 spot last week, including a key point in New Mexico's win over Grossmont.

Elsewhere, Mercedes Pacheco & Yasmin Tan and Emily Nenninger & Kayla Long battled in their first action of the season last week, playing out of the 3's and 5's, respectively.

NEW MEXICO RECEIVING VOTES IN NATIONAL POLLS

New Mexico beach volleyball is receiving votes in of both the AVCA Collegiate Beach Coaches Poll and the DIG Magazine Beach Volleyball Poll that were released Monday, March 12.

After securing their first wins the season, the Lobos head into the third week of their 2018 campaign receiving votes in both major national beach volleyball polls, which list 20 teams each.

Unofficially, the Lobos rank 26th in the DiG Magazine poll and 27th in the AVCA poll.

UNM was also receiving votes in the preseason editions and first regular-season editions of both polls.

In both polls, Pepperdine is ranked No. 1, followed by UCLA. USC, the winners of the first two NCAA Beach Volleyball Championships, is tabbed No. 3 in both, with No. 4 Florida State and No. 5 Hawai'i rounding out the top five.

New Mexico will face off against more ranked teams this weekend, as the team has done at least once in the first two weeks of the season.

This week at the Hickory Point Lake Bash, the Lobos will play No. 14/13 Florida International, No. 15/18 Stetson and two teams receiving votes in at least one poll with College of Charleston and Houston Baptist.

FIFTY 50

Through the first three years of the program, one Lobo has stood above the rest as the winningest player for UNM.

Eastyn Baletto, a senior from Seattle, continues her final year in the sand with 53 career wins in the sand, easily tops in the team's record books.

A three-year alum of the program, Julia Warren, is second with 47 wins, while Marisa Doran and Lise Rugland both have 41.

The next closest active player is Lauren Twitty with 19 career wins.

Baletto's career record is 53-20, which stands third-best in program history with a minimum of 20 matches played. Doran (41-10, .803) and Twitty (18-5, .783) are the only two Lobos ahead of Baletto.

SHE'S BEEN EVERYWHERE

Over the course of the three-year history of New Mexico beach volleyball, only one player has managed to play at least one match in every position. That player: Chloe Crappell.

Crappell, a senior from Albuquerque, has seen action at the 1's, 2's, 3's, 4's and 5's positions for the Lobos.

She's played the bulk of her 32 career matches at the Nos. 2 and 3 courts, going 5-5 and 0-7, respectively. She is also 1-4 all-time at the 1's, and 4-2 at the 4's and 3-1 at the 5's.

The only other players who have come close to the platinum sombrero are alumnae Julia Warren and Lise Rugland, who played in four of the five positions during the first three years of the program.

SUCH NICE NEIGHBORS

New Mexico is a bit of an island in the world of NCAA beach volleyball. The Lobos are the only team in the state of New Mexico to sponsor beach volleyball as an NCAA varsity sport, so with the lack of in-state competition, UNM has to find nearby neighbors for games.

With multiple schools in Arizona sponsoring the sport, the Lobos can travel west for some matches, which means New Mexico has played its fair share of games against those schools.

In fact, of the 73 matches ever played in UNM history, 20 have come against Arizona schools. (That's just over 27 percent.)

The Lobos have played Arizona seven times, Arizona State and Grand Canyon six times each. The 20th match came in the team's 2017 opener vs. Benedictine University at Mesa.

UNM will get more opportunities to add to this list during the 2018 season as it plays Arizona twice and Arizona State, Grand Canyon and Benedictine once each.

HOME AWAY FROM HOME?

As noted above, the Lobos have played schools from Arizona a number of times, with 20 matches against Copper State schools through the first three seasons of the program.

However, New Mexico's affinity for the state of Arizona doesn't stop there.

Over the program's 73-match history, UNM has played 39 of its matches in the state of the Arizona, just a little over half of its total number of matches (about 53.4 percent, in case you were wondering).

This season, UNM will again venture west as it's scheduled to play nine of its 22 matches in Arizona.

SCOUTING HOUSTON BAPTIST

Sitting at 5-5 entering the Hickory Point Lake Bash, Houston Baptist is receiving votes in the AVCA Coaches Poll.

The Huskies, led by coach Trent Herman, have wins over UAB, ULM and Jacksonville State, and also gave a few nationally ranked teams team good games, including TCU (a 4-1 loss), Florida Atlantic (a 3-2 loss) and Georgia State (a 3-2 loss).

Houston Baptist's top-seeded tandem of Jessica Wooten & Ariel Horton have only lost twice this season, while the team's No. 2 duo of Kayla Armer & Tori Hinojosa are 9-1.

This is officially the first-ever matchup between HBU and UNM after the first schedule contest in 2016 was canceled due to weather.

SCOUTING STETSON

Perennially ranked, Stetson sits at No. 15 in the DiG Magazine Poll and No. 18 in the AVCA Coaches Poll. However, the Hatters are just 6-5 this season, having beaten all the unranked teams they've played and losing to the all the ranked teams they've played.

Nonetheless, Stetson, the reigning ASUN regular-season and ASUN Tournament champions, are still incredibly balanced under head coach Kristina Hernandez.

The Hatters rely heavily on the top of their lineup for results, as the team's No. 1 pairing of Suniva Helland-Hansen & Carly Perales is 9-2 on the season and the team's No. 2 duo of Darby Dunn & Sammee Thomas is 8-3.

This is the second meeting all-time between New Mexico and Stetson, with the Hatters claiming a 4-1 win at this same event last season.

SCOUTING FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL

Like Stetson, Florida International is nationally ranked — No. 13 in the AVCA Coaches Poll and No. 14 in the DiG Magazine Poll — and enters this weekend 6-5.

However, FIU has fared relatively well against ranked teams, owning wins over Stetson, TCU and Florida Atlantic (the latter two on the road). That said, the Panthers struggled their last time out, dropping four matches to top-five teams at the East Meets West Tournament in California.

At that tournament, FIU lost by a 3-2 margin to No. 1/1 Pepperdine, No. 2/2 UCLA, No. 5/5 Hawaii, while falling 4-1 to No. 3/3 USC.

The tandem of Margherita Bianchin/Federica Frasca lead Florida International from the No. 1 spot in the lineup, going 10-1 this season. The only other partnership to have played all 11 matches this season are Estefanie Bethancour/Natalia Giron, who are 7-4 primarily out of the No. 4 slot.

This is the first meeting between the two teams.

SCOUTING UNC WILMINGTON

UNC Wilmington sports a 3-3 record heading into the week, and like most of the teams competing at the Hickory Point Lake Bash, it has beaten the unranked teams but not the ranked teams.

They Seahawks have wins over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, Austin Peay and Jacksonville State, but they've also lost to three ranked teams in South Carolina, LSU and Georgia State.

UNCW has relied on the same four pairs through its first six matches, with two sitting over .500. The team's No. 1 pairing of Maddy Kline/Nicole Lott are 4-2, while Courtney Mullinax/Jaime Thomas own the same record at the No. 5 spot.

This is the first meeting between UNC Wilmington and New Mexico.

SCOUTING COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON

Although only 2-2 this season, the College of Charleston is receiving votes in both the AVCA Coaches Poll and the DiG Magazine Poll. That might have something to do with the Cougars' 3-2 win over Florida International in their season opener on March 2.

However, since that weekend, CofC hasn't played. This will be the Cougars' first action since March 3.

The middle of the College of Charleston's lineup provides most of the teams scoring, with three different pairings 2-2. The Cougars' weakness to open the season has been its No. 1 duo, which went winless on opening weekend.

This is the first meeting between New Mexico and the College of Charleston.

BEACH VOLLEYBALL CONTINUES ACADEMIC SUCCESS IN FALL 2017

After posting another strong campaign in the sand last spring, the University of New Mexico beach volleyball team posted a superb semester in the classroom last fall.

The Lobos registered a team GPA of 3.84 for the Fall 2017 semester, the second-highest team GPA in the seven-semester history of the program. The Lobos' Fall 2017 GPA trails only their Spring 2017 GPA of 3.85.

This past semester was the sixth semester that the team registered a mark of at least 3.4.

The beach team combined with the rest of the women's sports at UNM for a 3.57 GPA. It's the 21st straight semester of at least a 3.3 GPA and the ninth straight semester with at least a 3.5 recorded by the combined women's teams, as well.

BEACH VOLLEYBALL EARNS AVCA TEAM ACADEMIC AWARD IN 2017

New Mexico beach volleyball was honored by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) on Monday, July 24, as the Lobos earned the AVCA Team Academic Award for the 2016-17 academic year.

The team recorded team GPAs of 3.46 in both the Fall 2016 and Spring 2017 semesters.

The award, which was initiated in the 1992-93 academic year, honors collegiate and high school volleyball teams that displayed excellence in the classroom during the school year by maintaining at least a 3.30 cumulative team GPA on a 4.0 scale.

19 collegiate beach teams were recognized for the 2016-17 academic year.

This honor was the first such selection for the program, which wrapped up its third season of competition last spring. The Lobos logged back-to-back program records in GPA during the 2016-17 academic semesters.

A PRIMER ON BEACH VOLLEYBALL

Beach volleyball and court volleyball share many of the same basic rules. Each side gets three hits, there's rally scoring, and a team earns a point when the ball hits the ground or goes out of bounds. But there are some key differences between the two sports:

- Beach volleyball is a partner sport played during the spring. Court volleyball is a six-player sport played during the fall.
- Beach volleyball plays the best of three sets, with the first two sets played to 21 points, and a tiebreaker set played to 15 points, if necessary. A set must be won by at least two points.
- Open-handed tipping is prohibited in beach volleyball and the block touch counts as one of three permitted contacts.
- Coaches may only speak or give any kind of input to their players during timeouts or between sets.
- Beach volleyball players switch sides of the court every seven points during a 21-point set and every five points during a 15-point set.
- Beach volleyball is usually contested in dual matches, where the winning team is the school that wins three of five individual matches versus its opponent. Similar in format to tennis, each of those individual matches consist of a doubles — a pair of teammates ranked by ability — that are matched against their corresponding doubles from the opposing team.

BEACH VOLLEYBALL ENTERS 3RD SEASON AS 90TH NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP

Before the 2016 season, the NCAA approved beach volleyball as the 90th NCAA Championship at the 2015 NCAA Convention, which allowed the sport to advance from the emerging sports for women list to a full-fledged NCAA championship.

The NCAA Beach Volleyball Committee also determined the sport will be officially referred to as “beach volleyball”. When the sport was placed on the list of emerging sports for women in 2009, it was called sand volleyball. But because the sport is known as beach volleyball at all other levels of play throughout the world, the committee made its decision to refer to the sport as beach volleyball.

The third-annual NCAA Beach Volleyball Championships will take place May 4-6, 2018 at the Beach at Gulf Shores in Gulf Shore, Alabama. The championship will have an eight-team bracket that will be played in a double-elimination format.

USC has won the first two NCAA National Championships, 3-0 over Florida State in 2016 and 3-2 over Pepperdine in 2017.

Beach volleyball is the fastest-growing NCAA sport with 55 Division I colleges and universities sponsoring. NCAA rules require 40 sponsoring schools to request an NCAA championship. Data shows that on average, 60 percent of participants at a sponsoring school participate only in beach volleyball instead of playing both beach and indoor volleyball.
