BY STEVE WIGGINS
After weeks of speculation, the Lobo board made the call. And they decided to go with a new head football coach. Danny Gonzales, a former University of New Mexico assistant coach and player, will become the 22nd head coach of the Lobo football team, replacing Bob Davie. Gonzales, 45, a Valley High alumnus, has spent the past several years at Arizona State University, where he also was promoted to assistant head coach before this season began. This will be Gonzales' third job as a college head coach. Coaches' details weren't immediately known.

UNM athletic director Eddie Nunez made the official announcement at the media luncheon Tuesday night at the University Arena. "The UNM athletic association asked that I remain in their area for a special appointment as the interim head coach," Nunez said. Bob King Coats will be a special assistant to the director.

Danny Gonzales speaks to the crowd in the Pit at halftime of the Lobo men's hoops game after being introduced as UNM's next football coach.

Gonzales, right, UNM's 22nd head football coach, holds up a jersey, the No. 10 from his days as a former player, with director Eddie Nunez during an introductory press conference on Wednesday.

NEW MEXICO MEDIA POLICIES & PROCEDURESNew Mexico Media Luncheon

In the fall, the New Mexico Media Luncheons are Tuesdays from noon to 1 p.m. Coach Danny Gonzales is available at 12:30 p.m. and he will be followed at the podium by offensive coordinator Derek Warehime and defensive coordinator Rocky Long. Audio and video clips from the UNM communications office, and also at www.golobos.com. The press conferences are also streamed on GoLobos.com by LoboTV. Please note that the Mountain West no longer conducts a football coaches teleconference. The luncheon is on the Zia II level of the West press box. So COVID 19 changed all of that. There will not be any media luncheons in 2020. COVID willing, they will return for the 2021 season. Marty Watts should have built up a few stories in the interim.

Danny Gonzales Interview Opportunities

Coach Gonzales is available after practice on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday during game week. His first interview opportunity after road games will be on Monday morning after practice. After road games, Coach Gonzales will be available via ZOOM (links will be sent to participating media).

New Mexico Player Interview Opportunities

All player interviews must be arranged through the UNM athletics communications office. In the fall, the main time for interviews is after practice. Wednesday is the last day for player and coach interviews. For lengthier interviews, please call the communications office to arrange a better time that is more conducive to the interview. The only players off-limits during the season (general rule) are true freshmen who haven't played. Exceptions can be made depending on the circumstances.

Postgame: The UNM locker room is closed. Requested players will be brought to the football classroom on the second floor of the Tow Diehm football building and outside the locker room for road games. UNM communications will have coach Gonzales and two players address the media, and other players that are needed for one-on-ones may be requested. The student athletes will be available in the football classroom after the press conferences for one-on-one opportunities. Thanks COVID. It's all ZOOM and media will have links regardless if the game is home or away. For UNM media that isn't in the stadium, the ZOOM pressers will still be accessible for your coverage.

Wireless in the Press Box

The press box at University Stadium is fully equipped for wireless connections. Access is free, but those wanting access need their own internal or external wireless cards. Phone lines are available. There won't be a lot of media there this season, so it should be a very strong signal.

www.collegepressbox.com

CollegePressBox.com gives the media one-stop access to updated contact information, media guides, game books, photos, quotes, links and more for each of the league's schools and the Mountain West office. Log-in information will be provided by the MW office to accredited media, or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Live Stats

The University of New Mexico will utilize StatBroadcast in 2020. Media members in the arena for home games can log onto www.statbroadcast.com from any laptop or tablet.

On Game Day, the northeast box office at University Stadium opens four hours prior to kickoff, and the Lobo Ticket Office at University Arena opens three hours before game time. The northwest University Stadium box office opens 90 minutes before kickoff.

Lobo Talk & The Lobo Coaches Show

In the fall, host Robert Portnoy and coach Danny Gonzales discuss UNM football at Lobo Talk on Thursdays. The show airs from 7-8 p.m. from a site to be determined. Fans can call 866-350-4309 to ask coach Gonzales a question. Also in the fall, the Lobo Coaches Show will be produced by LoboTV, with distribution channels to be announced in.

Game Credentials

Regular UNM media will receive game credentials prior to the start of the season. Media members with season credentials will also serve as a parking pass for the Baseball South lot across from the stadium (the Baseball East lot is no longer a media lot)

Visiting team media should request single game credentials through their team's media relations office. Media passes work as parking passes for the Baseball South lots:

Media members not associated directly with a team can email requests to fmercog@unm.edu. Please have these Wednesday of game week (Tuesday for the Friday night home game):

For media members picking up credentials at will call without parking passes, it is located in the Northeast corner of the stadium by Gate 7 or 8. With parking passes credentials will be located at the University Drive entrance to the Baseball South lot with the parking attendant. This should allow you to get your credential without having to wait in line or deal with parking on the north side of the stadium. Finally a COVID benefit. Media will be able to park in Stadium West right by the media entrance which is Gate 3. The media level this year will be Zia I, which is outside, so dress accordingly. There is an inside area to work from for print, photo and digital on that level.

Parking

Media parking is located across and just south of the stadium off University Drive. Media members can park in the Baseball South lot which is located next to University Drive. The Baseball South lot entrance is off University Drive south of the new R.D. and Dale Hubbard Clubhouse. Just kidding it's Stadium West and just show your credential.

Visiting Radio

The visiting radio booth is located on the fourth level of the main press box, next to the main media area.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

Founded in 1889 as New Mexico's flagship institution, The University of New Mexico now occupies nearly 800 acres near old Route 66 in the heart of Albuquerque, a metropolitan area of more than 500,000 people. From the magnificent mesas to the west, past the banks of the historic Rio Grande to the Sandia Mountains to the east, Albuquerque is a blend of culture and cuisine, styles and stories, people, pursuits and panoramas.

Offering a distinctive campus environment with a Pueblo Revival architectural theme, the campus buildings echo nearby Pueblo Indian villages. The nationally recognized campus arboretum and the popular duck pond offer an outstanding botanical experience in the midst of one of New Mexico's great public open spaces.

The People

As a Hispanic-Serving Institution, the University represents a cross-section of cultures and backgrounds. In spring of 2019, 22,225 students, attended main campus with another 6,752 students at branch campuses and education centers.

UNM boasts an outstanding faculty that includes a Nobel Laureate, two MacArthur Fellows, 35 Fulbright scholars and several members of national academies. Faculty publish in many professional journals including Scientific American and The New England Journal of Medicine and Nature. UNM professors have been quoted in Newsweek, the Los Angeles Times, Business Week, People Magazine, Parade Magazine, U.S. News and World Report, and The New Yorker, among others. They have shared their expertise on CNN, the Today Show, Good Morning America, Nova National Geographic and other news shows.

UNM employs more than 20,000 people statewide, including employees of University Hospital. It has more than 159,000 active alumni, with Lobos in every state and more than 1,400 alumni outside the U.S. More than half of UNM's alumni choose to remain in New Mexico.

The Places

The University has branch campuses in Gallup, Los Alamos, Taos and Valencia County, as well as the extension UNM Health Sciences Rio Rancho Campus. UNM offers bachelor and graduate degree completion programs throughout the state via Extended Learning and has education centers located at the four branch campus locations as well as in Santa Fe, Farmington, and at Kirtland Air Force Base. UNM's libraries, museums, galleries and performance spaces are a rich cultural resources for the state. Home to the Lobos and contenders in the Mountain West, UNM athletics draw fans from all over. University Arena or "The Pit" is one of college basketball's most famous and recognizable buildings. In fact, The Pit was ranked 5th by the Travel Channel as one of the best college basketball venues.

The Programs

UNM is a place where cutting-edge research and creative endeavors flourish. UNM research injects millions of dollars into New Mexico's economy, funds new advancements in health-care, and augments teaching – giving students valuable hands-on training in state-of-the-art laboratories.

The Health Sciences Center is the state's largest integrated health care treatment, research and education organization. U.S. News and World Report's 2018 edition of "America's Best Graduate Schools" ranks the UNM School of Medicine 20th in primary care and 72nd in research. Additionally, in health disciplines, UNM's nursing-midwifery program is ranked seventh. UNM School of Law is ranked 88th, while ranking 14th in clinical training. UNM College of Fine Arts is ranked 48th, with its photography program ranked fifth in the nation. The engineering program is ranked 83rd nationally, with electrical engineering coming in at 75th, and Chemical Engineering ranking at 72nd.

Among the University's outstanding research units are the Center for Advanced Research Computing, Cancer Center, New Mexico Engineering Research Institute, Center for High Technology Materials, Design Planning Assistance Center, Innovation Academy and the Mind Research Network.

UNM Traditions-The Lobo Nickname

A number of legends have arisen over the years as to how The University of New Mexico got "Lobo" as its official nickname. When the university began playing football in 1892, the team was simply referred to as "The University Boys" or "Varsities" to distinguish themselves from the prep school kids.

The student body, at least as early as 1917, began to seriously explore the possibilities for both a mascot and a new name for the student newspaper, which was then called simply the "U.N.M. Weekly." Several names for the paper were suggested, including The Rattler, the Sand Devil, the Ki-yo-te and the Cherry and Silver. However, there was no single name that struck a responsive chord among the students and when school opened in the Fall of 1920 the U.N.M. Weekly was still there.

On Sept. 22, 1920, sophomore George S. Bryan, editor of the U.N.M. Weekly and football team student manager, was present at a Student Council meeting for the purpose of suggesting that the University teams be given a mascot name as at that time many universities had them. Bryan suggested Lobo, the Spanish word for wolf, as the nickname. The name was enthusiastically received. The Oct. 1 issue of the student paper said, "The Lobo is respected for his cunning, feared for his prowess, and is the leader of the pack. It is the ideal name for the Varsity boys who go forth to battle for the glory of the school. All together now; fifteen rahs for the LOBOS."

From that beginning, the Lobo nickname has remained with The University of New Mexico for 100 years.

UNM Traditions - The Lobo Mascot

After "Lobo" was adopted as the school's nickname in 1920, it was not long thereafter that a real Lobo became the mascot.

Bruno Dieckmann, class of 1902, and by 1920 a successful Albuquerque insurance and real estate agent, acquired the first Lobo for the University at his own expense. At the time he was treasurer of the Athletic Association and "one of the most admired men in town."

Elsie Ruth Chant, class of 1923, recalled, "All of the girls on campus wanted to be seen with him. He was an accomplished concert violinist as well as being a successful businessman, and he was rich. He drove a Stutz Bearcat convertible around town and all of the girls would compete to get rides with him. Sometimes he had five or six girls in the car, and when he finally got married, he left broken hearts all over campus. Anyway, he either caught it himself or he paid to have a wolf captured in the Mount Taylor area. The wolf was brought into the school and a student by the name of Bowman would take it on a leash to the football practice area."

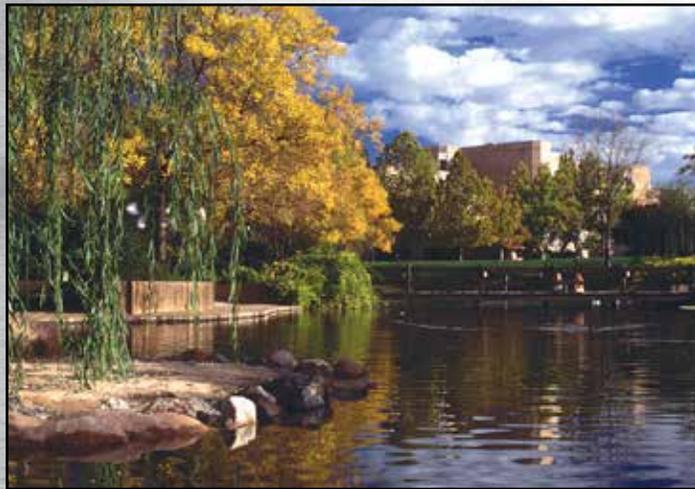

Apparently, a government trapper named Jim Young caught a wolf pup on the Floyd Lee Ranch near Mount Taylor in western part of the state. The cub became the responsibility of the cheerleaders and it appeared in harness at every football game. However, in the late 20s, a child teased the wolf and the child was bitten at one of the games. UNM officials were forced to dispose of the wolf, as one historian put it, "for fear other ill-bred brats might become tempted to play with the wolf and bring a damage suit."

A live wolf has really never been a part of the athletics scene since. In the early 1960s a human mascot named "Lobo Louie" was created. A second mascot, "Lobo Lucy" was created in the early 1980s. Both are now members of the school's cheerleading squad.

UNM Traditions - Cherry and Silver

The most common origin of New Mexico's school colors dates back over 100 years. Apparently, the school colors in the early 1890s were black and gold. Ms. Harriet Jenness, a faculty member who taught drawing, delarte (drama), penmanship and music, suggested a change in school colors because black and gold did not give a true feeling of New Mexico. She suggested the crimson evening glow of the majestic Sandia mountains to the east. The silver came from when students and faculty took picnics in the Sandias and noted the Rio Grande looked like a silver ribbon winding through the valley below. Her ideas were enthusiastically adopted by the faculty and staff. The crimson was later changed to cherry, the color of a Sandia sunset. Miss Jenness died in 1895, two years before the colors were adopted as "official." From 1973-79, turquoise was integrated into the official school colors, at least, for the athletics teams. The football team wore turquoise jerseys at home during those years. Cherry and silver returned as the predominant colors in 1980.

UNM Traditions - The Alma Mater

The Alma Mater (in Latin means "Nourishing" or "Dear Mother") was a source of contention at UNM in 1947. The original Alma Mater was set to the tune of "Annie Lyle," which was an unpopular tune with the student body for a long period of time. The student body voted in a general election to change the Alma Mater and found Glee Club Director Craig Summers to oblige. Actually Mr. Summers and his father wrote the present Alma Mater three years before and called it "The New Mexico Hymn."

New Mexico, New Mexico
 We sing to honor thee.
 This golden haze of college days
 Will live in memory.
 This praise we sing will ever ring
 With truth and loyalty New Mexico, your fame we know
 Will last eternally.

UNM Traditions - The Fight Song

The UNM fight Song was written in 1930. The music to the Fight Song was written by Dean Lena Clauve, who served the University for 32 years as a professor of music education and as the Dean of Women. Dr. George St. Clair, professor in the English Department, wrote the lyrics.

Hail to thee, New Mexico,
 Thy loyal sons are we. Marching down the field we go,
 Fighting for thee.
 RAH! RAH! RAH!
 Now we pledge our faith to thee,
 Never shall we fail.
 Fighting ever, yielding never.
 HAIL! HAIL! HAIL!

CENTER FOR STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS

Mission

The Lobo Center for Student-Athlete Success, in conjunction with the University of New Mexico, provides support services for prospective, current, as well as former student-athletes in an effort to increase academic and personal success. Student athletes are encouraged to develop personal responsibility, intelligent decision making, and leadership skills through the provision of educational experiences both inside and outside of the classroom. The Lobo Center also celebrates the academic and civic achievements by our student-athletes.

Services Offered Study Hall

The study halls are sport specific and designed to accommodate each athletic team in a structured and professional academic setting. The atmosphere is intended to foster an environment that is conducive to learning and group facilitation.

Each team study hall is staffed and monitored by at least one study hall monitor. The study hall monitors are proficient in a myriad of subjects and provide assistance to the student-athletes when needed

Athletic Computer Labs

The athletic computer lab is an academic aid to student-athletes, and its primary purpose is to facilitate the scholastic pursuits of student athletes at the University of New Mexico.

Laptop Computers

Laptop computers are available to all student-athletes on a first come, first serve basis. The laptops are for student-athletes to use when they are on the road traveling for competition.

Learning Strategist

The Center also has an in-house Learning Strategist devoted to providing support to student-athletes who have been diagnosed with a learning disability as well as those who need additional instruction in specific content areas and general study skills. The Learning Strategist also provides workshops that address study skills and time management. Individual appointments can be made as needed as well as class specific reviews can be coordinated.

Books on Loan

A benefit of being a student-athlete on scholarship is an in-house bookroom where student-athletes can get their textbooks for their classes. Our bookroom administrator can look up student's class schedules to determine the necessary textbooks, which eliminates the time-consuming tasks of going to the bookstore to research the books for each class and then standing in long lines to purchase them!

Academic Monitoring

Student-athlete progress is monitored by the Student Support Staff, housed in the Lobo Center. Three times a semester instructors will provide feedback on student-athletes academic progress. Progress forms are sent at the 4th, 8th, and 12th week during the academic semester. The information provided in these forms are forwarded to coaches and used to help student-athletes with their academic progression.

Academic Advisement

Each student-athlete at UNM is required to meet with their athletic academic advisor at least once a semester for class registration advisement. Once a major is declared, the student-athlete is required to meet their assigned major advisor at least once per semester and then return a completed pre-enrollment form to their assigned athletic advisor. An athletic academic advisor is always available to answer any and all questions.

University 101

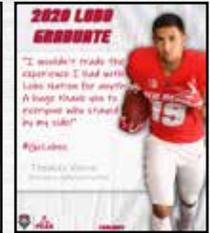

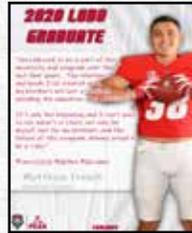

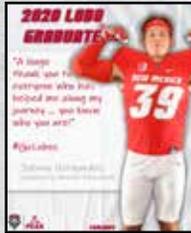

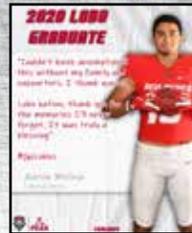

University 101 is a three (3) credit hour course that is designed to help freshmen student-athletes successfully transition into life and learning at the university. This course provides freshman student-athletes with a special orientation to the university community, the UNM athletics program, and the NCAA rules and regulations. Although the course does not fulfill core curriculum requirements, it is applicable towards elective credit. Furthermore, it is required for all incoming freshmen scholarship student-athletes.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Lobo Football Watches 21 Graduate in Fall and Spring

Despite school switching to online classes solely due to the COVID-19 crisis, that didn't stop Lobo football. After watching seven student-athletes graduate in the fall, 14 more earned their degrees in the spring. The Lobos also had 19 student-athletes earn Mountain West All-Academic honors, and the team saw its APR improve as well.

Lobos in Other Leagues

Along with the NFL, the Lobos have been well represented in other professional leagues. The United States Football League (USFL) lasted from 1983-85. Don Elliott was the 288th and final pick of the inaugural USFL first-year player draft in 1983, selected by the Los Angeles Express in the 24th round. In NFL terms, he would have been Mr. Irrelevant.

The same year three Lobos, Mike Carter, Keith McGee and Dave Osborn, were taken in the USFL Territorial Draft by the Arizona Wranglers. Three other Lobos saw action in the USFL, with Frank Giddens playing for Arizona in 1984 and Jimmie Carter playing for the Arizona Outlaws in 1985. The short-lived AAF, the Alliance of American Football, saw Jhurell Pressley lead the league in rushing for the Arizona Hotshots, and his teammate was former Lobo Marquis Bundy. Pressley also spent time in the XFL's 2020 reincarnation.

The best run in the USFL might go to Jonathon Sutton, a defensive back with the Philadelphia Stars, who was on their title winning team in 1984, winning the USFL Championship Game 23-3 over Arizona. The next year the Stars moved to Baltimore and won the championship again, winning 28-24 over the Oakland Invaders.

Many Lobos have played in the various indoor leagues around the country. Six former Lobos spent the 2017 season with the Duke City Gladiators, including Brett Bowers, Darryl Johnson, Donovan Porterie, Fatu Ulale, Jaymar Latchison and Chris Smalls, and Austin Apodaca and Avery Jordan have played in the CFL with the Montreal Alouettes and the Hamilton Tiger Cats.

UNIVERSITY STADIUM & BRANCH FIELD

University Stadium & Branch Field

Entering its 61st season, University Stadium is the home of the New Mexico Lobos. The stadium complex has seen plenty of upgrades over previous seasons, including a new athletic performance center in the Tow Diehm Football Building, the largest scoreboard and video board in the Mountain West, and a new synthetic playing surface courtesy of a generous gift from Turner and Margaret Branch.

The stadium opened its gates Sept. 17, 1960, when UNM hosted the National University of Mexico. The Lobos thumped their foreign visitors, 77-6, UNM's biggest margin of victory at University Stadium.

Prior to 1960, UNM played its home games at Zimmerman Field (1938-59) and University Field (1892-1937), where Ortega Hall, the Humanities building and Woodward Hall presently stand.

DIRECTIONS

Located on the southeast corner of Avenida Cesar Chavez and University Boulevard, University Stadium can be easily accessed by exiting off I-25, just south of the Big-I, at Avenida Cesar Chavez. Head east on Avenida Cesar Chavez. After crossing University Boulevard, University Stadium is located on the right.

L.F. "TOW" DIEHM FOOTBALL FACILITY

Lobo Football is housed in the L.F. "Tow" Diehm Football Facility, a large all-emcompassing building in the south end of University Stadium. Named for former trainer Tow Diehm and completed in 1995, the facility houses UNM's locker room, athletic performance center, training room and medical areas, team offices and meeting rooms, and a hospitality area. On game days, the third floor hospitality area serves as a premium seating area on the U.S. Bank Club Level, with indoor and outdoor seating, climate control, carving stations and a full bar.

The facility is named in honor of Tow Diehm, who did as much for Lobo athletics as anyone. He came to UNM in 1957 to serve as the school's athletics trainer, a position he would hold for 31 years. It was during that time that Diehm treated and befriended thousands of student-athletes. In 1988, he was elevated to associate athletics director where he began lobbying efforts with the state legislature to help fund a desperately needed athletics training facility.

His endless trips to Santa Fe resulted in the construction of the magnificent facility that now bears his name. Diehm was also instrumental in prompting legislators to pass a tuition waiver bill for out-of-state student-athletes, which provides a huge savings to all of the state's four-year institutions. Although he officially semi-retired in 1992, Diehm continued to work the legislature on behalf of UNM until his death in 1998

ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE CENTER

Athletic Performance Center

The 2014 season saw the debut of perhaps one of the most important pieces in the facility puzzle for the University of New Mexico football team. The new Athletic Performance Center for Football opened for business in August of 2014, giving the Lobo football team a state of the art athletic performance and training center for year-round dedicated use.

The New Mexico football team never had the chance to see the center being constructed, as it was locked away from the players and prying eyes. The team got to see the facility for the first time after the completion of fall camp in Ruidoso, and the team was stunned at what they saw. Along with brand new flooring and branding with the Lobo shield everywhere, racks and racks of dumbbells, machines, and every other piece of strength equipment you can imagine was there at their disposal including a 40-yard turf sprinting area). Every single thing brand new, gleaming and sparkling under all-new lighting as well.

“There was so much energy going through my body as soon as I walked through the door,” said then-captain LaMar Bratton, one of the first players through the door to the new facility. “When I came here as a freshman, I could never imagine a weight room like it is now.” The Athletic Performance Center reveal video made the national rounds on sites like SI.com and FootballScoop.com, and it remained the most viewed UNM football video for the program for four years.

The new Athletic Performance Center for Football is one of many major facility upgrade for the program, joining the FieldTurf installation in 2012, the Mountain West’s largest scoreboard in 2013 and a state-of-the-art sound system for the stadium in 2015 and refurbishing the office space, including all meeting rooms, in Tow Diehm in 2017. The 2018 season saw a refurbished locker room, the first locker room renovation in over 30 years.

For Lobo Football, getting bigger, stronger and faster is a definitive goal of head coach Danny Gonzales, and Lobo football can take that to another level with the equipment and facility at the teams’ disposal.

“Having a weight room that is a major conference quality weight room will allow for our athletic performance team to really work properly with our student-athletes,” said Gonzales. “We have so many machines and such a large area at our disposal that we can really cater to the needs of our different positional needs.”

DANNY GONZALES
HEAD COACH
1ST SEASON AS HEAD COACH
11TH SEASON AT NEW MEXICO
New Mexico, 1999
Albuquerque, N.M.

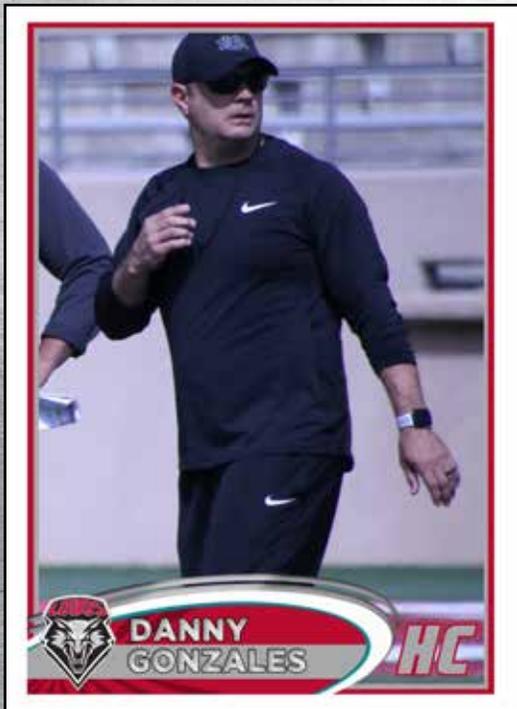

Danny Gonzales, a native of Albuquerque who played football at Valley High School before playing for UNM and then serving as an assistant coach, has come home.

Gonzales, who has taken part in bowl games in 14 of the past 16 seasons, enters his first season as the head coach of The University of New Mexico. Gonzales was hired on December 17, 2019. The announcement was made by Director of Athletics Eddie Nuñez at halftime of a Lobo men's basketball game, and then he was formally introduced at a press conference the next day at University Arena.

The new Lobo head coach is certainly familiar with UNM, as a player, staff member and as a Lobo assistant coach, as well as through his time coaching against UNM. He joined his mentor and former coach Rocky Long as Lobo football players returning to coach their alma mater. In a 2006 article in the Albuquerque Journal, Long predicted that Gonzales would one day be the head coach of the Lobos.

Gonzales came to UNM after spending the past two seasons at Arizona State as defensive coordinator, and the previous seven before that as safeties coach and defensive coordinator at San Diego State. In 2018, he was a nominee for the Broyles Award, given to the most outstanding assistant coach in college football.

Gonzales came to UNM as a walk-on safety and punter after playing for the Valley Vikings. Gonzales lettered three times with the Lobos and was the 1998 winner of the Chuck Cummings Memorial Award, which is given for morale and spirit, and was the Lobo Club First Team Award winner for unselfish devotion to the team. At UNM, Gonzales played under Dennis Franchione and the aforementioned Long. Gonzales was a part of UNM's 1997 WAC division championship team that went 9-4 and played in the 1997 Insight.com Bowl against Arizona.

After his playing career, he served as a graduate assistant for Long, helping UNM start a school-record seven consecutive bowl-eligible seasons from 2001-07. In 2003, Gonzales moved over a few offices to become video coordinator, a role he held from 2003-05. From 2006-08, he coached safeties and special teams, and he was a part of the coaching staff for UNM's 2007 squad that went 9-4 and won the

New Mexico Bowl 23-0 over the Colin Kaepernick-led Nevada Wolf Pack. That win ended a 46-year bowl victory drought for the university.

Under Gonzales' watch in 2007, former walk-on placekicker John Sullivan became UNM's third consensus All-America selection, hitting a school-record 29 field goals. Sullivan did that despite a torn ACL. Sullivan was just one of many specialists that excelled under the tutelage of Gonzales, a former punter and defensive back. In addition, placekicker Kenny Byrd was a first team All-MW pick, punter Jordan Scott was honorable mention, and kicker James Aho was named a Freshman All-America.

Future NFL draft picks Glover Quin (Houston Texans) and Quincy Black (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) also earned all-conference honors at safety under Gonzales.

Overall, Lobo safeties had 55 pass breakups over the 2007-08 seasons, and the 2007 New Mexico squad ranked 13th nationally in total defense, 14th in scoring defense and 20th in passing defense.

In 2018 and 2019, Gonzales served on Herm Edwards' staff at Arizona State, where the Sun Devils have made it to back-to-back bowls and won two straight Territorial Cup games over Arizona.

In his first season in Tempe, Gonzales oversaw a Sun Devil defense that allowed the fewest points (332) since the 2012 season. ASU held nine of its opponents under 30 points, including seven consecutive games to start the season. ASU was one of seven teams to accomplish this, a feat that has only been done five times at the school in the Pac-10/12 era.

Despite having one of the nation's youngest defenses, Gonzales managed to significantly improve that side of the ball. Sun Devil freshmen (true or redshirt) combined for 3,300+ snaps on defense in 2018. Comparatively, freshmen combined for just 918 total defensive snaps played in 2017 and 1,035 in 2016.

Under Gonzales' tutelage, Merlin Robertson was named the Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year after becoming the first Sun Devil freshman to lead the team in tackles since Jason Shivers in 2001. Aashari Crosswell also earned All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention for a campaign in which he led ASU in interceptions (four) and pass breakups (nine) and was seventh in the nation with 127 yards on interception returns.

During the regular season, ASU held opponents to just 3.5 points per fourth quarter, the fifth-lowest total in FBS. For comparison, the defense ranked 112th, 124th, and 121st in the same category over the past three seasons. Additionally, ASU allowed just 4.9 points per first quarter in the regular season, moving its national rank from 82nd in 2017 to 36th nationally in 2018. The Sun Devils allowed 25.1 points per game in the regular season, good for 49th nationally compared with 103rd (32.8 ppg) in 2017.

ASU finished the regular season tied for 20th nationally in fewest passing plays over 40 yards allowed, giving up just five. ASU ranked 90th in the category in 2017, allowing 12 such plays and 127th in 2016, allowing 22 passing plays over 40 yards allowed. Additionally, the Sun Devils finished 60th in the regular season allowing 5.63 yards per play this year, moving up over 50 spots from the team's 111th place finish in the category in 2017 (6.33 yards per play). ASU had finished 109th or worse in the category in three consecutive seasons prior to the current campaign.

In 2019, it was more of the same as the Sun Devils ranked 22nd in rushing defense, and 19th in yards per carry against at just 3.40 yards per carry. The Sun Devils once again lowered their points allowed per game to 23.1 (41st) from 25.5 (50th) in 2018. Prior to Gonzales' arrival, Arizona State allowed 32.8 points in 2017 es Bowl. That year, the Aztecs ranked 21st nationally in scoring defense (20.2 points per game) and 11th nationally in total defense (314.8 yards per game). The Aztecs that year allowed the fewest plays of 10 yards or more (101) of any team in the FBS.

It was a season that saw the Aztecs pick up a pair of Pac-12 wins, defeating Stanford 20-17 and Arizona State 30-20. Four Aztecs were named All-Mountain West on defense and his defensive charges picked up three Mountain West Player of the Week awards.

From 2011-16, Gonzales served as the safeties coach, coming to the Aztecs when Long was named head coach for the 2011 season.

From 2011-16, SDSU's 100 interceptions were the third-most in the country, while its 14 interceptions returned for a touchdown were tied for the fifth-most over that span. The Aztecs' 49 interceptions in 2015 and 2016 were the most in a two-year span (103rd), 39.8 points in 2016 (123rd), and 33.5 points in 2015 (99th).

Furthermore, in 2019 the Sun Devils picked up 22 takeaways (13 fumbles and nine interceptions), good for a tie for 18th in the FBS. The Sun Devil defense continued to limit big plays, ranking tied for 14th nationally with just eight plays of 40 yards or more against them. The Sun Devils allowed just one rush of 30 yards or more (tying for third nationally) and none of 40 yards or more (one of five teams to make that claim).

The two years with Arizona State followed a seven-year stint from 2011-17 under Long at San Diego State, the first six as safeties coach and the final as defensive coordinator.

The Aztecs made seven straight bowls with Gonzales on staff, winning three Mountain West titles and three division titles along the way. In his first season as defensive coordinator in 2017, the Aztecs went 10-3, the program's third straight double-digit win season, and the team played in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forc-in FBS play since Boston College had 51 in the 2007 and 2008 campaigns. SDSU led the country in interceptions (26) in 2016.

In 2015, the Aztecs finished among the top 10 in the four main defensive categories, including a tie for second with 23 interceptions, fifth in total defense (287.3), seventh in scoring defense (16.4) and rushing defense (108.7) and 10th in passing defense (178.6).

SDSU produced one of the best defensive efforts in school history in 2014, finishing in the top 20 nationally in nearly every defensive category, including scoring defense (13th) and total defense (16th).

Gonzales coached Nat Berhe and Eric Pinkins, both of whom were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft. Berhe was a fifth-round selection of the New York Giants, while Pinkins went in the sixth round to the defending Super Bowl champion Seattle Seahawks.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT ... DANNY GONZALES

"I would like to thank Danny for all that he has done for this program in just these last two seasons. We had a vision in mind when we arrived in Tempe and he was pivotal in helping turn that vision toward fruition. He is obviously one of the great young defensive minds in the country and when you have that kind of talent on your staff, you have to accept other places will take notice. We want all of our assistant coaches to succeed, because that means that our program is succeeding. I will always put our coaches in a situation where they have the best opportunity achieve that level success for themselves and for their families. I know that Danny will represent us well in Albuquerque and embody everything that he excelled at here while he was a Sun Devil."

--- Herm Edwards, head coach, Arizona State

"I'm very happy for coach Gonzales to be named the next head coach at UNM. This is great for our university to have someone who is from Albuquerque and cares about our school. I know he will get our program back where it should be. He is a great coach who cares about the kids he coaches. He is a good man and good friend. UNM is lucky to have a coach of his caliber leading our football program. Go Lobos!!"

--- Brian Urlacher, College Football and Pro Football Hall of Fame Member Former Lobo, 1996-99

"Danny Gonzales is a bright mind and an amazing person. He is the perfect fit for The University of New Mexico. We knew as a player and as a graduate assistant when we were together at UNM that he would end up in that position. It was clear from the beginning what he was preparing to do and what his life's work was. The fact that it has come to fruition is magical for both Coach Gonzales and for The University of New Mexico."

DEREK WAREHIME
OFF. COORD./TIGHT ENDS
4TH YEAR AT NEW MEXICO
Tulsa, 2006
Choctaw, Okla.

Derek Warehime returned to The University of New Mexico in 2020, and is the offensive coordinator and tight ends coach for the program. He previously was on staff from 2012-14 serving as the tight ends coach, adding the duties of run-game coordinator in 2014. He came to Duke City after a three-season stint with the University of Texas, where he helped the Longhorns win three straight bowl games.

With the Longhorns, Warehime was with the program under Tom Herman for three seasons, coaching the offensive line in 2017, tight ends in 2018, and then adding special teams coordinator in 2019. The 2019 season saw Texas' special teams make great strides. The punt coverage team ranked 12th, allowing just 3.3 yards per return, and the 30 total return yards ranked 11th in the FBS. Kicker Cameron kicker converted 77.8 percent of his field goals, the best percentage for a Texas placekicker in seven seasons. Dicker earned honorable mention All-Big XII honors.

Also in 2019, Warehime's tight ends group was young, but they were a strength. Cade Brewer ranked third on the Longhorns in yards per catch.

He made the switch to mentor the tight ends in 2018, and his group excelled behind fifth-year senior Andrew Beck, who garnered first team All-Big 12 honors. Beck, who was known as one of the best run-blocking tight ends in the nation, had a career year catching the ball, as well, with 28 receptions for 281 yards and two scores. Behind Beck, sophomore Cade Brewer and true freshman Reese Leitao contributed both offensively and on special teams in 2018.

Warehime's offensive line group dealt with injuries for much of 2017, including one to All-American left tackle Connor Williams, who missed most of eight games. No Longhorn started all 13 games, with Warehime having to use eight different starting combinations throughout the season. Junior left guard Patrick Vahe led the way with 12 starts, while true freshman Derek Kerstetter started the final 10 games of the season at right tackle and sophomore Zach Shackelford started eight at center.

In his second season with the Cougars, Warehime helped UH to a 9-3 record prior to joining Herman on the 40 Acres. UH had two top-five wins, was the only program to defeat two top-five teams and joined Alabama as one of two programs nationally to beat two top-10 teams by double digits.

The Cougars' offense finished the regular season ranked 36th nationally and ranked as one of the least penalized teams in the country. The Houston offensive line allowed just 30 sacks on nearly 500 pass attempts in 2016. UH ranked 15th in third down conversions, ninth in first downs and 21st in scoring offense during the regular season.

Under Warehime in 2015, the Houston offensive line used 11 different starting lineups in 14 games due to injury. Despite the injuries, the line led a team that finished the regular season ranked 13th nationally in rushing offense with 235.8 yards per game. Under his leadership, two linemen earned season honors from The American. Both Alex Cooper, who started at three different positions along the line, and Will Noble, a true freshman who had his redshirt removed six games into the season, were recognized by the AAC. The two honorees under Warehime were part of a group that lost three starters to season-ending injuries and endured a total of 34 games lost due to injuries.

Warehime joined the Houston staff after three seasons with New Mexico as the Lobos' tight ends coach, adding the title of run game coordinator in his final season. In all three seasons with Warehime on staff, the New Mexico offense finished fifth or better in rushing nationally. With him serving as run game coodinator in 2014, the Lobos finished the year ranked fourth nationally in rushing with an average of 310.4 yards per game on the ground. Along with its power on the ground, New Mexico ranked fourth nationally allowing just 11 sacks during the season.

In 2013, Warehime was integral to the offensive line blocking schemes, as the unit paved the way for UNM to average 308 yards per game to rank fourth in the country. It was the second year in a row that New Mexico finished the season in the top five nationally in rushing. His tight ends also became a bigger part of the passing game in 2013, more than doubling their receiving yards from the season prior.

During his first season in Albuquerque, Warehime helped New Mexico become one of the most improved rushing attacks in the country. After finishing 103rd in the nation in rushing in 2011, the Lobos finished fifth in 2012 averaging over 300 yards per game. Under his mentorship, tight end Lucas Reed earned an invitation to the East-West Shrine Game following the 2012 season.

Prior to his time at UNM, Warehime spent two seasons as the offensive line coach at Sam Houston State. In 2011, the Bearkats featured the No. 6 rushing offense in the Football Championship Subdivision, averaging 255.9 yards per game en route to the FCS National Championship Game. SHSU averaged nearly 40 points per game. C Travis Watson and OT Chris Crockett earned 2011 Sports Network/Fathead.com All-America honors under Warehime's tutelage. In his first season, the Kats led the Southland Conference in rushing and had three players earn All-League honors.

Warehime worked for two seasons as the offensive line and tight ends coach, as well as the strength and conditioning coordinator, at the University of Arkansas at Monticello. He was the offensive coordinator in 2009. UAM led the Gulf South Conference in total offense (499.3 ypg) and rushing offense (244.4 ypg).

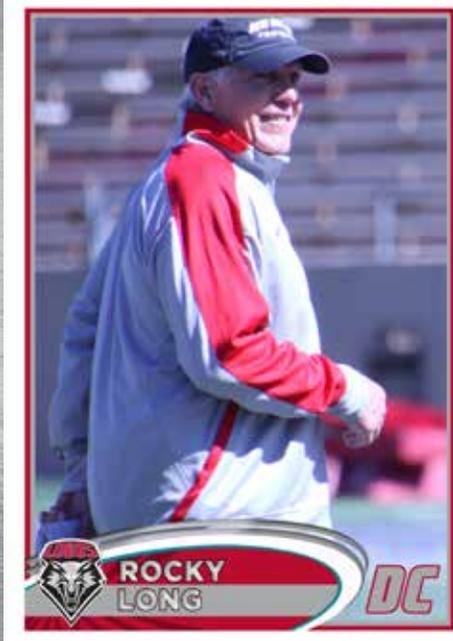

A 2006 graduate of Tulsa, Warehime started 34 games at center from 2001-04. He played on the Golden Hurricane's 2003 Humanitarian Bowl team and was named first team All-Western Athletic Conference in 2004. He spent one season playing professionally with the Tulsa Talons of the Arena Football League.

The Choctaw, Okla. native began his coaching career as a student assistant for the offensive line at Tulsa in 2005. The Golden Hurricane won the 2005 Conference USA Championship and defeated Fresno State in the Liberty Bowl.

Warehime spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons as a graduate assistant for the offensive line at Rice. He was also the assistant video coordinator during that time. The Owls made their first postseason appearance in 45 years and were runners-up in CUSA's West Division, setting 40 new school records on offense.

ROCKY LONG
DEF. COORD./LBs
17TH YEAR AT NEW MEXICO
New Mexico, 1971
Provo, Utah

Rocky Long rejoined The University of New Mexico in January of 2020, as he will serve as the defensive coordinator. He has a long and storied history with The University of New Mexico, dating back to 1969 as a player with the Lobos, through his 11-year stint as head coach of the Lobos.

The hiring is a role reversal of sorts as Gonzales spent the 2017 season as defensive coordinator at San Diego State under Long. Gonzales and Long's association dates to 1998, Gonzales' senior season at UNM and Long's first as head coach.

Long played quarterback at UNM from 1969-71, earning WAC Player of the Year honors in 1971. He then played professionally in both Canada and with the Detroit Wheels of the short-lived World Football League.

The coaching stint will be his fourth at his alma mater. Long was a graduate assistant from 1972-73 and the offensive back field coach and then defensive backs coach from 1978-80 with New Mexico before becoming defensive coordinator at Wyoming, Oregon State and UCLA. He was named UNM's head coach January 12, 1998 and coached the Lobos from 1998-2008, winning a school record 65 games.

Long has UNM bowl eligible for a school record seven straight seasons, and UNM played in back-to-back-to-back bowl games from 2002-04, a first in school history. Long led UNM to a 23-0 win over Nevada in the 2007 New Mexico Bowl, ending a 46-year bowl victory drought for the school.

Throughout is time as UNM's head coach, Gonzales was a player (1998) or on staff with Long. Gonzales was a graduate assistant from (1999-02), video coordinator (2003-05) and safeties and special teams coordinator (2006-08).

Long left UNM after the 2008 season and became San Diego State's defensive coordinator for the 2009 and 2010 seasons before replacing Brady Hoke as head coach for the 2011 season. Long remained as defensive coordinator from 2011-16, bringing Gonzales on staff to coach safeties. In 2017, he stepped aside from serving as his own coordinator and Gonzales stepped in.

Long won 81 games over his nine seasons with San Diego State, never suffering a losing season and winning double digits in four of the last five years. He also led San Diego State to three Mountain West titles and nine bowl games. His final head coaching win was a 48-11 win over Central Michigan in the 2019 New Mexico Bowl, in the same stadium he used to coach and play on.

Long is a three-time Mountain West Coach of the Year and he is the winningest coach in the history of the league, with 143 of his 146 win coming since the league's inception in 1999. Long and his wife Debby have two daughters, Roxanne (a former college women's basketball head coach and current professor at North Texas) and Hannah (head women's volleyball coach at Queens University in Charlotte, N.C.)

JAMIE CHRISTIAN
SPECIAL TEAMS COORD.
1ST YEAR AT NEW MEXICO
Central Washington, 1999
Milpitas, Calif.

Jamie Christian joined The University of New Mexico as special teams coordinator in January of 2020. He came to the university after a three season stint at fellow Mountain West foe Fresno State.

In 2019 with Fresno State, he oversaw another solid position group as Fresno State finished tied for second in the Mountain West in rushing touchdowns, and under his tutelage, Ronnie Rivers tied for the Mountain West lead in rushing touchdowns with 13. Rivers also finished fifth in the league in rushing yards per game. On special teams, Fresno State led the Mountain West in punt return average, and the Bulldogs blocked a pair of kicks as well.

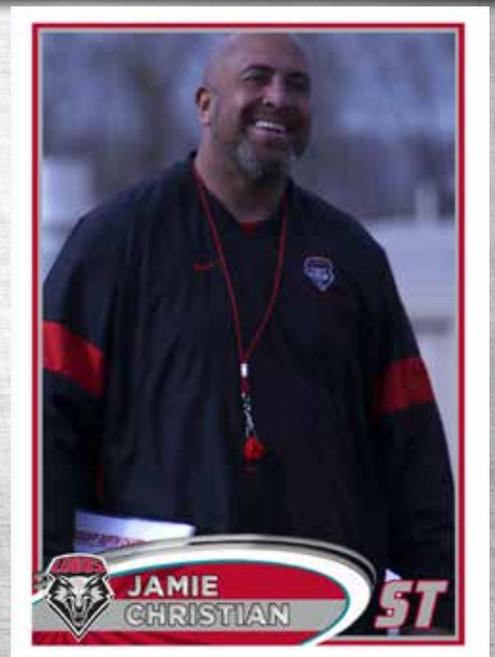

In 2018 the Bulldogs gained more than 2,000 yards on the ground, marking the first back-to-back seasons of 2,000 yards rushing since the 2008-09 seasons. The 'Dogs registered 2,161 yards rushing aided by four different ball carriers producing 250 or more yards apiece. Despite missing three games and starting just seven due to a spring football injury, sophomore Ronnie Rivers led the team with 743 yards and 10 touchdowns, which included a breakout performance in the Las Vegas Bowl that earned him MVP honors. Rivers accounted for the fourth-most all-purpose yards in school history with 286 in the contest, 212 of those being rushing yards.

With his top three running backs entering his first season being two true freshmen and one true sophomore, Christian helped the Bulldogs eclipse the 2,000-yard rushing mark for the first time since 2014. True freshmen Jordan Mims and Ronnie Rivers accounted for 1,082 yards and 11 touchdowns in 10 starts to help pile up a team total of 2,170 yards.

Previous to Fresno State, Christian spent two seasons as the running backs coach at UNLV. In his time there the Rebels rushing offense dramatically improved from ranking 102nd (129.2 yards/game) in the FBS before he arrived, to 36th (193.7 yards/game) in his first year, and 15th (241.5 yards/game) in 2016.

Christian arrived in Las Vegas after serving as the special teams coordinator and inside receivers and tight ends coach at Houston.

In Christian's final season at UH before the Tom Herman regime took over, the Cougars had a passing offense that produced 230.2 yards per game and was led by Fresno native (Washington Union HS) Deontay Greenberry, who was named a second-team All-American Athletic Conference wide receiver in 2014.

Greenberry led the team with 841 yards receiving, with the next closest teammate trailing him by 302 yards. He left the program with the ninth-most receiving yards in school history (2,612) and eighth on the all-time list for career receptions (201).

In 2013, Christian's special teams at UH earned three honors from the American Athletic Conference as freshman Demarcus Ayers was named the league's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year and was named to the American's first-team while Richie Leone was named second-team.

Christian's other unit, inside receivers, received postseason accolades in 2013 as well. Greenberry was named to the American's first-team as he led the league with an average of 100.2 receiving yards per game and was second with 11 receiving touchdowns. Greenberry was second in the American with five 100-yard games.

Noted as a strong recruiter with ties to California, Houston and Louisiana, he was named to Rivals' top recruiters list in 2013.

Before joining the Cougars in 2012, Christian spent five seasons coaching the special teams, running backs, tight ends and inside receivers at Arizona State of the Pac-12 Conference, including mentoring 2007 Lou Groza Award winner Thomas Weber. Christian also tutored ASU's Gerell Robinson, one of college football's top pass-catchers in 2011, making 77 receptions for 1,397 yards and seven scores.

Prior to his time at Arizona State, Christian spent five seasons with Dennis Erickson (his uncle) at the University of Idaho (2006), the San Francisco 49ers (2003, 2004) and at Oregon State (2000, 2001). Christian has also coached at Northern Arizona (2002) and at Sacramento State (2005).

Christian was a fullback at Fresno State (1991-93) before transferring to Central Washington to finish out his collegiate career as a running back. In Christian's sophomore season in 1992, Jeff Tedford arrived to Fresno State as a first-year assistant coach. Christian switched to running back as a senior at Central Washington and was its leader in rushing yards and touchdowns and helped lead the Wildcats to the 1995 NAIA National Championship.

In the championship game, Rio Rancho cruised to a 39-17 over Las Cruces for a second undefeated season in three years.

In 2019, Howes nearly won a third championship, advancing all the way to the championship game out of the No. 4 seed line, taking down No. 1 Volcano Vista in the semifinals before losing by eight in the finals.

Howes in his 11 years with Rio Rancho led the team to a 90-41 record as a head coach. Prior to being elevated to the head coaching position, he served as an assistant coach from 2003-08 at Rio Rancho. That following assistant coach-

JASON LENZMEIER
OFFENSIVE LINE
8TH YEAR AT NEW MEXICO
New Mexico, 2005
Frisco, Texas

Jason Lenzmeier re-joined The University of New Mexico in January of 2020, and he is in his seventh year of his third tour of duty as offensive line coach of the Lobos. In his previous stints with UNM, his unit became one of the most dominant run-game units in the Mountain West.

In his second stint with UNM, his Lobos ranked ninth, fifth, fourth and fifth nationally in rushing over his four seasons (2015, 2014, 2013 and 2012, respectively).

In 2015, Lenzmeier's big men up front plowed the way towards a school record-tying 42 rushing touchdowns with 10 different players rushing for touchdowns. Including among those 10 was Reno Henderson, who scored the first rushing touchdown by an offensive lineman in at least the last 44 years. UNM had three different players hit the 800-yard mark for the season and Eden Mahina was named All-Conference.

The Lobos did all that despite having lost two starters prior to the season to season ending injuries and then a third that got hurt in game two. In their place, UNM and Lenzmeier turned to a pair of fifth-year seniors who had zero career starts between them and got a combined 23 starts, allowing UNM's rushing attack to continue.

In 2014, the Lobos averaged 310.4 yards per game on the ground, finishing fourth in the NCAA. UNM is the only team in the FBS to finish in the top five and average 300 or more yards on the ground in each of the last three seasons.

The anchor of that line was four-year starter LaMar Bratton, who was a team captain, the center, and a first team All-Mountain West selection in 2014. Bratton started 49 consecutive games. Lenzmeier's offensive line paved the way for UNM to finish third in the NCAA in yards per carry, averaging 6.4 yards per tote.

New Mexico averaged 308.8 rushing yards per game in 2013 to rank fourth in the country. The total also was the best in the Mountain West and ended Air Force's monopoly on the team rushing crown. The Falcons had been MW rushing champions every season since the Mountain West's inception in 1999.

The Lobos' 40 rushing touchdowns ranked eighth in the NCAA in 2013 and were the second most in UNM history.

UNM has had a 1,000-yard rusher in each of Lenzmeier's five seasons as offensive line coach (2007-08, 2012-14).

He made an immediate impact during his return to New Mexico in 2012. The Lobos rushed for 301.5 yards per game, which ranked fifth in the nation and was the most by a New Mexico team since 1971 rushed for 384.3 yards per game.

UNM set a school record with 10 300-yard rushing games in 2012, tying the 1971 team with nine straight games of 300 yards. Its 34 rushing touchdowns in '12 rank as the second most in school history.

Under Lenzmeier, the Lobos surrendered just 12 sacks in 2012 after allowing 30 sacks in 2011.

Lenzmeier, who began his coaching career at UNM in 2006, spent three seasons at rival New Mexico State (2009-11) prior to returning to the Lobos in 2012.

In 2011, sophomore Davonte Wallace earned second-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors under Lenzmeier's tutelage.

In his first season with New Mexico State, Lenzmeier guided the offensive line as it allowed just 23 sacks on the year, a 21-sack improvement from the 44 sacks given up by the Aggies in 2008. The Aggies' offensive line also helped running back Seth Smith become the first Aggie since 2000 to rush for a 1,000 yards in a season. The Aggies ranked No. 66 in the nation in rushing offense. In 2010, the line allowed just 19 sacks on the season.

A former University of New Mexico all-conference offensive lineman, Lenz-meier spent three seasons with the Lobos, two as the offensive line coach and one as UNM's graduate assistant on offense. He helped the Lobo offense rush for 208 yards a game in 2008 and 135 yards a game in 2007.

Entering the 2007 season at the age of 26, Lenzmeier was New Mexico's youngest full-time assistant coach in 23 years, since Greg Azar, then 24, coached the Lobo defensive line in 1984.

Lenzmeier did an outstanding job in his rookie season as a pair of seniors, offensive tackle Devin Clark and center Vince Natali were named first-team All-Mountain West Conference selections in 2007. The Lobos improved in every offensive category from the previous season.

Natali was also an Academic All-American. In 2008, Lenzmeier guided center Erik Cook to a second-team All-MWC selection. Cook went on to play in the NFL with the Washington Redskins.

A 1999 graduate of Frisco (Texas) High School, Lenzmeier was a four-year starter for UNM on the offensive line from 2000-03, earning first team All-Mountain West honors at offensive tackle as a senior. He played in 47 career games, starting 42, including 35 in a row between his sophomore and senior seasons. He remains the only lineman in Mountain West history to win a conference Offensive Player of the Week honor for his performance during UNM's 47-35 win at No. 23 Utah in 2003.

Lenzmeier signed free agent contracts with the San Diego Chargers and St. Louis Rams in 2004 before returning to Albuquerque in 2005. He graduated from UNM in the summer of 2005.

Lenzmeier and his wife Kelsey have two young sons, Brooks and George.

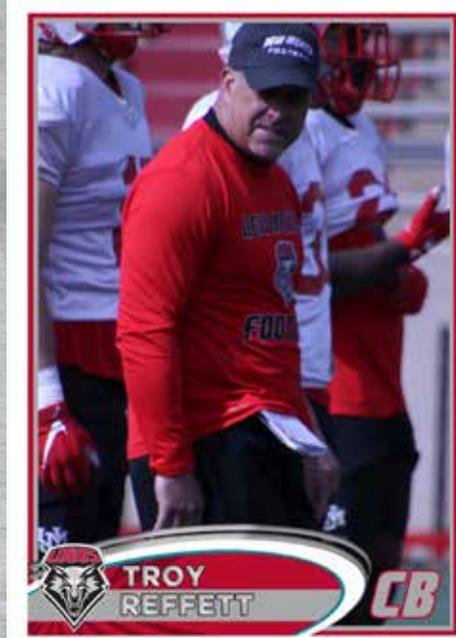

TROY REFFETT

CORNERBACKS

6TH YEAR AT NEW MEXICO

UTEP, 1990

Cynthiana, Ky.

Troy Reffett joined The University of New Mexico in 2020 as cornerbacks coach, his second stint with the university after previously serving on staff from 2004-08. Reffett came to the Duke City from the University of North Texas, where he was the defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

Reffett joined the Mean Green ahead of the 2016 season as the co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach. He was promoted to defensive coordinator prior to the 2017 season.

In 2019, the Mean Green allowed just 410 yards per game, the second-best mark for the program in the previous five seasons. His defense also recorded 30.0 sacks and 74.0 tackles for loss. Three players were named to the All-Conference USA honorable mention squad, and a fourth was named honorable mention by Pro Football Focus.

In 2018, Reffett's defense took a major step forward, holding opponents to 10.8 points per game less than in 2017 (24.2 ppg). The defense played a key role in helping the Mean Green to their second straight nine-win season and third consecutive bowl appearance. UNT intercepted 18 passes, which ranked fifth in all of FBS (18) and forced 22 turnovers (third in Conference USA). The Mean Green also ranked fourth in the league in defensive third-down percentage, holding opponents to just a 35.0 percent success rate.

Cornerbacks Nate Brooks (6) and Kemon Hall (5) were each in the top-10 nationally in total interceptions and Hall ranked third in FBS in passes defended (1.7 per game). Linebacker E.J. Ejiya (121 tackles, 25.0 tackles for loss, 9.0 sacks, a fumble recovery, forced fumble and 11 quarterback hurries), Hall (48 tackles, five interceptions, 14 pass break-ups) and defensive end LaDarius Hamilton (33 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, 7.5 sacks and three quarterback hurries) were all named First Team All-Conference USA. Ejiya ranked third in the country in tackles for loss.

Brooks (67 tackles, six interceptions, 10 pass break-ups, a fumble recovery, forced fumbles and 4.0 tackles for loss) was a second team selection, while linebacker Brandon Garner (68 tackles, 18.0 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks, a fumble recovery and nine quarterback hurries) and safety Khairi Muhammad (67 tackles, four interceptions, five pass break-ups, a forced fumble, fumble recovery and 1.5 tackles for loss) were each named honorable mention selections by the conference.

In 2017, Reffett's first as the defensive coordinator, North Texas won nine games and reached the Conference USA Championship Game and the R&L Carriers New Orleans Bowl. Ejiya (team-high 109 tackles, 12.0 tackles for loss and 7.0 sacks) and safety Kishawn McClain (96 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, a forced fumble and fumble recovery) were each named All-Conference USA honorable mention selections. Linebacker Joe Ozougwu was also named to the league's all-freshman team.

In his first season in Denton, Reffett helped to oversee a defense that held opponents to 8.7 points per game fewer than the 2015 team. That turnaround in scoring defense was the 13th-best mark in the country. Reffett also coached second-team All-Conference USA safety Kishawn McClain, who led the Mean Green in tackles (91) and intercepted a career-high three passes.

He joined the Mean Green coaching staff after spending one season with Memphis as the cornerbacks coach.

At Memphis in 2015 the Tigers had 12 interceptions en route to a 9-4 season and a berth in the Birmingham Bowl. Prior to joining the Tigers, Reffett spend six years with ULM.

In his final season at ULM, Reffett's defense ranked among the top-20 nationally in passing yards allowed (189.9 ypg/14th), third-down conversion defense (0.326/11th) quarterback sacks (3.00 pg/13th) and tackles for lost yardage (7.5 pg/10th).

All told, Louisiana-Monroe ranked in the top four in the Sun Belt Conference in 10 defensive team statistical categories. The Warhawks led the Sun Belt in total defense, allowing 373.3 yards per game. ULM also led the SBC in third down percentage defense, quarterback sacks and tackles for loss. The team's 26.3 points allowed per game ranked second in the SBC. ULM had two players named to the All-Sun Belt Conference First Team Defense at the conclusion of the 2014 season.

In addition to serving as ULM's defensive coordinator, Reffett coached the Warhawks' corners since the team's appearance in the 2012 AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl.

In 73 games in charge of the defense, Reffett's defense forced 123 turnovers and had at least one in 67 of 73 games. The Warhawks' attacking defense also recorded 135 quarterback sacks and 364 tackles for loss during Reffett's tenure. The 2014 squad had 36 quarterback sacks and 90 tackles for lost yardage.

Louisiana-Monroe's defense led the Sun Belt and ranked 25th nationally in red zone defense (.767) in 2013. The unit also ranked second in the Sun Belt and 10th in NCAA in fourth down conversion percentage defense (.333). Against Texas State, senior safety Isaiah Newson became just the fourth player in FBS history to return two interceptions for touchdowns of 70 yards or more during the 2013 season. ULM had a player at each level of the defense earn All-Sun Belt Conference honors.

Under Reffett's direction, the 2012 Warhawk defense led the Sun Belt in interceptions (16) and ranked 20th in the NCAA. Meanwhile, ULM finished third in the conference and 39th nationally in rushing defense (142.2 ypg). The squad also finished third in the Sun Belt and 33rd nationally in turnover margin (.540). The Warhawk defense held four opponents, including No. 8 Arkansas, below 100 rushing yards during the season. Three Warhawks earned All-Sun Belt honors after the team's record setting season in 2012.

In 2011, the Warhawk defense finished ranked number one in the Sun Belt in both rushing defense (100.0 ypg) and total defense (326.2 ypg). The 100.0 rushing yards per game was a new Sun Belt record and it marked the third season in a row that ULM led the conference in rush defense. The club finished tied for third in the conference in sacks with 28. In the final NCAA rankings the Warhawk defense finished eighth in rushing defense and 21st in total defense (326.2 ypg). The squad also finished 47th in total sacks (2.08 per game). A total of four defensive players earned All-Sun Belt honors.

In Reffett's first season in charge of the Warhawk defense, the unit was the best in the Sun Belt Conference against the run (110.1 ypg) and the second best in total defense (347.0). The Warhawks were the third-best scoring defense in the league allowing 27.3 points per game – an improvement of nearly four points per game from 2008. The Warhawks finished 20th in the NCAA against the run just one season after ranking 112th – the Reffett-led defense allowed 102.6 fewer yards per game on the ground in 2009 compared to 2008.

ULM posted the NCAA's second best defensive turnaround from 2008 to 2009 as it improved by 97.7 yards of total defense between the two seasons – only Kansas State (139.2 yards) had a better turnaround. Reffett was one of just 34 coaches in the country to be on the final nomination list for the Frank Broyles Award which is presented to the top assistant coach in the NCAA as five of his defensive players earned All-Sun Belt honors. Linebacker Cardia Jackson was named Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year after breaking the league's career tackles record.

Reffett's second season saw a trio of all-conference selections and another solid defensive campaign. The Warhawks led the Sun Belt for the second straight year against the run (159.1) and ranked second overall (378.3), taking out a pair of games against BCS Bowl participants (Auburn & Arkansas) the Warhawks allowed just 53.6 yards per game.

Reffett spent five seasons at New Mexico beginning in 2004 where he coached the Lobos cornerbacks – he was promoted to defensive coordinator prior to the 2008 season. He mentored DeAndre Wright and Glover Quin and the pair earned first team All-MWC honors in the final two seasons under Reffett's guidance. Quin was a fourth round selection by the Houston Texans in the 2009 NFL Draft and Wright was a sixth round selection by the New York Giants in the same draft. In addition to Jackson and Morgan, Reffett has worked with David Terrell, who was taken in the seventh round of the 1998 NFL Draft by Washington, as well as Michael Hicks and Crance Clemons, free agent signees by Dallas and Detroit, respectively.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — The University of New Mexico got a pair of second half touchdowns from Sheriron Jones and then staged off a late comeback attempt with a fourth down sack by Jacobi Hearn as the Lobos defeated Sam Houston State, the No. 22 team in the FCS, 39-31 in front of 13,749 fans at Dreamstyle Stadium.

After the game, UNM's post-game press conference was canceled after head coach Bob Davie needed medical attention after meeting with his team. Director of Athletics Eddie Nuñez released the following statement.

"Immediately following tonight's football game between The University of New Mexico and Sam Houston State University, Lobo Head Coach Bob Davie was taken to the hospital as a result of what appeared to be a serious medical incident. The University will release more information as it becomes available. We ask that you keep the Davie family in your prayers."

The Lobos are idle next week and then head to Notre Dame on Saturday, September 14.

UNM led for most of the game as starting quarterback Brandt Hughes threw for 218 yards in the first half. Hughes led UNM to a pair of touchdowns by Ahmari Davis on the ground and three Andrew Shelley field goals, but he suffered a shoulder injury and gave way to Jones in the second half.

Jones, who started seven games last year, entered with UNM down 23-22 after the Bearkats took the opening second half kickoff and went 75 yards in seven plays for what amounted to SHSU's only lead of the game. After a quick three-and-out, UNM got the ball right back and Jones went to work. Anu Somoye made a ridiculous grab near the Bearkat sideline, one of a career-high three catches, to put UNM in Sam Houston territory. Jones then found Aaron Molina twice to get UNM inside the five, but UNM had to settle for a fourth Shelley field goal, giving UNM the lead for good at 25-23.

Jones then gave UNM a 16-point lead with back-to-back touchdowns. After he hit Jordan Kress for 47 yards, Jones rushed to 10 and then 11 to make it 32-23. Sam Houston State punted, Davis rushed 53 yards to the Bearkat seven. Jones then raced to the pylon on the next play for his second career touchdown. That made it 39-23, and then UNM had to deal with Sam Houston State's late comeback attempt.

Down 16, the Bearkats mounted a long, 86-yard touchdown drive that took 12 plays and culminated with a Donovan Williams 4-yard run. Sam Houston went for two and got it, making the score 39-31 with just 3:01 to go. Sam Houston State then hit a little dribble kick and kicker Connor Crow recovered to give the Bearkats a chance. A trick play moved the ball to the Lobo 22, but UNM's defense held firm from there. Alexander "Moana" Vainikolo and Adebayo Soremekun teamed up for a four-yard loss, and then after an incompletion Patrick Peek delivered another tackle for loss to make it 4th and 15. JUCO transfer then clinched a victory with a backside sack of quarterback Ty Brock, and UNM took three knees to end the game.

The Lobos picked up 485 yards of offense on 72 plays, averaging 6.7 yards per play. UNM also had plenty of big plays with eight of 25 yards or more. Sam Houston outgained UNM with 558 yards, but it needed 95 plays to do it. UNM had a solid pass rush with three sacks and six hurries.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — The No. 7 Notre Dame Fighting Irish showed exactly why they were in the College Football Playoff a year ago, throwing for 434 yards and scoring on six straight drives after a respectable start by UNM's defense as New Mexico was on the wrong end of a 66-14 loss in the home opener for the Fighting Irish.

The Lobos fell behind early after getting a stop on Notre Dame's opening drive, forcing a punt. UNM moved the ball from its own two to the 30-yard line, but on third and eight, Sheriron Jones had his pass deflected and in went right to Kyle Hamilton who returned it 34 yards for a touchdown.

From there, the Lobo defense was stout, forcing two more punts and allowing just a 1-yard touchdown on fourth-and-goal at the 11:47 mark of the second quarter. Notre Dame then moved well into the lead with three straight long scoring passes. First Avery Davis took a forward toss on a jet sweep for a 59-yard touchdown, and then Javon McKinley broke several tackles on a 65-yard pass. Chase Claypool also scored on a 37-yard touchdown.

UNM was hampered by three interceptions from Jones, who was 4-for-15 passing for 19 yards. He was replaced by Tevaka Tuioti in the second half, and Tuioti showed why he was the presumptive quarterback heading in to the season, moving UNM well, although UNM turned the ball over on downs at the Notre Dame 35-yard line on one drive, and suffered a fumble and a 28-yard loss on a field goal attempt when the snap sailed over holder Tyson Dyer's head.

UNM's major highlight came from the smallest guy on the field. Bryson Carroll, who led UNM in rushing with xx yards on just x carries, scampered for 47 yards and a touchdown with just 29 seconds left in the first half. It was Carroll's first career touchdown. In the fourth quarter, Bobby Cole scored on his first career touch, a brilliant 37-yard run to the corner of the end zone.

Tyson Dyer had a solid day punting the football, averaging 46.5 yards per punt with three inside the 20-yard line. He also had his first career rush, faking a punt and running two yards for a first down.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- In a game that at times defied logic, and featured brilliant plays after brilliant plays, it came down to a fourth down battle of wills, and New Mexico's will won out. Ahmari Davis leaped over a pile of linemen on fourth-and-inches with just over two minutes on the clock at the Aggie 37-yard line and picked up 17 yards to seal a wild 55-52 win for the Lobos. The win pushed UNM to 2-1 on the season and dropped New Mexico State to 0-4.

The game featured plenty of offense as the two teams combined for 107 points, the second-most ever in the rivalry (the record is 113 back in 1917), and the seventh-most in UNM history. The game was also Lobo Scorigami, as it was the first 55-52 game in the history of the program. UNM has now won two straight in the rivalry, and six of eight overall.

UNM found themselves down 38-34 in the third quarter when Josh Adkins slung a pass to Tony Nicholson for a 3-yard touchdown, Nicholson's second score of the game. It was one of three TD passes by Adkins, who also ran for three, becoming just the third quarterback in the FBS this season to rush for three scores and throw for three in the same game.

UNM went to work after that, methodically moving down the field on what ended up as a 12-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. The final 20 came from Jordan Kress, who caught his second touchdown of the game on a 20-yard pass from Tevaka Tuioti.

After Kress made it 41-38, the Aggies had a chance to tie, but Devin Sanders blocked Dylan Brown's 44-yard field goal attempt, getting just enough of it to have it fall short. That play turned huge when Tuioti hit Cedric Patterson III on the sidelines, and he outraced everyone for his second career catch and first career touchdown. That made it 48-38, and after an errant third down snap forced New Mexico State to punt, UNM's offense went to work again. The key play on the drive was Tuioti hitting a free Elijah Lilly for 29 yards down to the 16-yard line.

After a fumble that Tuioti fell on, UNM got a break on a face mask penalty, and Daevon Vigilant made the Aggies pay with a 1-yard touchdown run to make it 55-38. However, New Mexico State didn't quit. It answered with a 4-yard pass to Jason Huntley with 7:37 to go, and then after an interception, Adkins scored his third rushing TD of the day with 5:22 left and it was 55-52.

UNM's offense wouldn't let the Aggies touch the football again. Tuioti twice kept the ball on zone reads for first downs of 18 and 11 yards, putting the ball across midfield. Bryson Carroll then rushed for four but lost nine on the next play, and UNM faced third-and-15 at midfield. Tuioti then faked a rush and hit Anselem Umeh, who stretched for what looked like a first down with just 2:12 to go, but the ball was ruled just short of the line to gain on a replay review.

Undaunted, acting coach Saga Tuitele went for it at the 37, and Davis leapt the line, and then rumbled to the 20-yard line. On the next play, needing one more first down to clinch the game, Davis got hit at the line and a veritable rugby scrum ensued. When it was finally over, Davis had 11 yards and a first down, and UNM had its 72nd Rio Grande Rivalry win.

UNM got on the board on the second play of the game when Jerrick Reed II intercepted Adkins and returned it 43 yards for a touchdown. Reed was making his first career start.

NMSU scored twice to take a lead at 14-7, but UNM tied with when Davis scored from two yards out. The Lobos then matched every score for State. The Aggies got a 33-yard field goal, and UNM answered with an Andrew Shelley 48-yarder. NMSU scored to make it 24-17, but Kress tip-toed the sidelines for a 55-yard touchdown. UNM looked like it would have a 31-24 lead at the break when Davis scored with 1:07 to go, but NMSU went the length of the field, helped by a 53-yard catch and run to tie the game at 31-31 with two seconds left, setting up the wild finish.

LYNCHBURG, Va. --- After a wild offensive affair just a week ago, offense was at a premium on Saturday in Lynchburg, Virginia, and the Liberty Flames had just enough of it to top New Mexico 17-10 in front of 17,101 fans at Williams Stadium. The loss dropped UNM to 2-2 on the season, and it denied UNM its first 3-1 start in 12 years.

The Lobos looked to get on the board first after the defense turned in a fourth-down stop inside of Liberty territory, but Tevaka Tuioti, threw an interception (one of two) in the end zone on third down, ending UNM's scoring threat. UNM's defense held firm, bending but not really breaking, allowing just an Antonio Gandy-Golden touchdown on the final play of the first quarter, and a late play-action touchdown pass near the end of the second quarter.

Golden's first score came after a 51-yard catch set up the Flames inside the 10, and he caught a short 3-yard pass from Buckshot Calvert two plays later. Liberty's only other touchdown came after another long pass play set up Liberty inside the five, and this time Calvert threw a 2-yard pass with just 23 seconds left in the half.

UNM got a huge red zone stop early in the second quarter down 7-3 when Erin Austin chased down Liberty quarterback Buckshot Calvert as he was at the one-yard line and forced a fumble into the end zone, which was recovered by De'John Rogers for a touchback.

The Lobos got on the board on the strength of a season-long 52-yard field goal by Andrew Shelley, who got the kick-off after Tyson Dyer handled a low snap. The field goal was tied for the sixth-longest in UNM history. It wasn't the only big play for Dyer, who time and again punted UNM out of trouble, averaging 47.8 yards per punt, punting five times and pinning Liberty inside the 20 all five times.

UNM was down 17-3 after a field goal and drove inside the Liberty 45, but a pass from Tuioti to Anselem Umeh was high, and UNM had to punt. After a missed field goal, UNM again drove down the field, but Tuioti overthrew Jay Griffin IV for a second interception. UNM's defense continued to hold, giving UNM a chance to get back in the game, and UNM drove inside the 15-yard line but on fourth down from the 10 yards line needing eight yards for a first down, Tuioti rushed and got seven-and-half yards, turning the ball over on downs at the Liberty 3-yard line.

UNM eventually got the ball back in the final minutes and went the length of the field, with Tuioti hitting Aaron Molina for a 14-yard touchdown with 43 seconds left to make it 17-10. UNM then attempted an onside kick and the ball hung tantalizingly in the air but just before Jordan Kress could snag it, a Liberty receiver snatched it first to seal the game.

The Lobos now flip coasts on a short week to open conference play at San Jose State.

21 Game 5: 10/4/2019
San Jose, Calif.
32 Att: 16,119

SAN JOSE, Calif. --- Sheriron Jones came off the bench and led a game effort for New Mexico, but the Lobos suffered five fumbles (losing two) and four interceptions, and that hurt any chances of a road win. UNM couldn't overcome a 26-0 deficit in losing 32-21 at San Jose State at CEFCU Stadium. The loss dropped New Mexico to 2-3 on the season and 0-1 in the conference.

San Jose State improved to 3-2 on the year and 1-1 in the Mountain West. New Mexico lost its Mountain West opener for the just the second time in the last five years.

The game started well for UNM as Erin Austin and De'John Rogers teamed up for a big play for the second straight week. UNM's Austin hit Josh Love when he went back to pass, forcing a fumble that Rogers recovered. UNM moved the ball inside the 15 but stalled, and Andrew Shelley missed from the far right hashmark from 29 yards, his first miss of the season.

That miss started a roll for the Spartans, a run that was keyed by several big yardage plays by San Jose State. The Spartans got a pair of long passes to set up a 9-yard touchdown by quarterback Nick Nash for a 6-0 lead, and UNM's Adebayo Soremekun blocked the extra point. After UNM blocked a field goal, San Jose State scored again when Bill Humphrey's caught a 5-yard pass from Josh Love to make it 13-0.

UNM drove the field after that and had a chance to get on the board, but Tevaka Tuoti threw an interception in the end zone, the first of UNM's six turnovers. On the next play, Love hit Bailey Gaither, who earlier had blocked a punt, and Gaither traversed 80 yards for a 20-0 lead.

UNM then suffered two turnovers inside the Lobo 25, the first by Bryson Carroll was at the Lobo 2-yard line, and the second was an interception by Sheriron Jones, but UNM's defense held twice, forcing a pair of Matt Mercurio field goals and it was 26-0 San Jose State.

UNM got on the board just before the half when Jones, who had a career-high 104 yards rushing, hit Jordan Kress at the front pylon for a 34-yard touchdown, making it 26-7 at the break.

UNM had a chance to cut the lead further early in the second half when UNM drove inside the 10, but Ahmari Davis fumbled on a second effort play, and UNM turned the ball over. UNM's defense held, and Sheriron Jones led a quick 60-yard, 4-play drive with a 4-yard touchdown run to make it 26-14 late in the third quarter.

However, San Jose State tacked on two more field goals, including a 49-yarder that followed a blocked kick that UNM seemingly would have scored a touchdown on, but the play was ruled dead due a false start by Mercurio. He also added a short field goal later in the quarter.

Jones didn't stop however, and he threw his second TD pass of the game, a 38-yarder on a scramble to Cedric Patterson III to make it 32-21, and UNM nearly recovered the pooch kick from Donovan Murphree at the Spartan 30-yard line. UNM got the stop it needed, but on a third-and-10 play, Jones dropped back and threw his third interception of the game, and UNM's fourth.

35 Game 6: 10/11/2019
Albuquerque, N.M.
21 Att: 15,393

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- Colorado State went 85 yards at the end of the first half, aided by three personal fouls, and scored on fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line with five seconds left to take a lead it would never relinquish as the Rams defeated the Lobos for the 10th straight time, winning 35-21 at Dreamstyle Stadium. The loss dropped UNM to 2-4 on the season at the halfway point, and 0-2 in the Mountain West. Colorado State moved to 2-5 overall and 1-2 in the league.

UNM struggled to overcome mistakes in the game, including three fourth quarter turnovers, 11 penalties for 102 yards (CSU had 10 for 117 yards) and just three of 12 third down conversions.

The Lobos were down plenty of starters on both sides of the ball, but still got some tremendous efforts, the biggest from the littles player on the field. Five-foot-seven Bryson Carroll rushed for 193 yards, the 15th-best rushing total in UNM history. Carroll had several big runs including a 56-yard run to the one-yard line with UNM trailing 7-0. That run should have been 57-yards and a touchdown, but Carroll actually fumbled at the 1-yard line when he let go of the ball before crossing into the end zone.

Luckily, neither team fell on the ball, so UNM retained possession at the 1-yard line and Kentrail Moran, rushing in short yardage situations in place of Ahmari Davis who was injured, scored his first career touchdown to make it 7-6 after Andrew Shelley hit the upright on the point-after try.

UNM took it's only lead on a long drive on the ground that was aided when Colorado State was called for roughing the punter. It ended with Moran's second touchdown of the game, making it 12-7, and Sheriron Jones hit Marcus Williams for a two-point conversion to make it 14-7.

After each team punted, CSU tied the game on one-play as Patrick O'Brien hit Warren Jackson for an 87-yard touchdown.

That left it tied until CSU took over at its own 15-yard line with 2:03 to go. UNM got a sack and then a short gain made it third-and-11, and UNM called a timeout to try to get the ball back. Instead, CSU got a first down and moved to midfield when it faced another third-and-11 at the Ram 44. O'Brien was pressured and threw incomplete, but UNM was called for roughing the pass, moving the ball to the Lobo 41.

UNM then was whistled for pass interference twice in three plays, setting up the Rams at the Lobo 3-yard line. It took four plays, but on fourth-and-goal at the 1-yard line, Marvin Kinsey, Jr. just did break the plane for a back-breaking touchdown with just five seconds left in the half.

CSU moved it to 28-14 in the third with another Kinsey short TD run, but UNM made a game comeback attempt. UNM broke through in the fourth quarter, converting its first two third downs, including a bruising 10-yard run by Jones on third-and-seven at the 14 that looked for certain like a loss of yardage. Carroll then barreled in from four yards out and UNM was down 28-21.

CSU missed a field goal with 8:38 to go, and UNM needed 72 yards for a tie. They got just five. Carroll rushed for five before a muffed fly swap exchange to Emmanuel Logan-Greene was recovered and turned into a Jackson 26-yard touchdown catch for a 35-21 lead. That turnover was the first of three in the fourth quarter for UNM.

10 Game 7: 10/19/2019
Laramie, Wyo.
23 Att: 22,884

LARAMIE, Wyo. --- New Mexico had eight straight drives move into Wyoming territory to end the game, but the Lobos netted just 10 points on those six drives, and it wasn't nearly enough as UNM lost at Wyoming 23-10 in a solid defensive effort for the Lobos. The loss dropped UNM to 2-5 overall and 0-3 in the Mountain West, while Wyoming moved to 5-2 and 2-1, one win from bowl eligibility.

UNM's defensive played well, as Wyoming didn't break the 300-yard mark for the game until well into the fourth quarter. The only score of the first half followed a turnover, as UNM's Bryson Carroll fumbled inside of Lobo territory. Sean Chambers was able to convert it into points with a 1-yard run, and that left it at 7-0 Wyoming. UNM didn't have much of an issue moving into Wyoming territory, but the issue was getting into field goal range.

UNM ran out of time at the end of the first half at the Wyoming 40. Two other drives in the first half stalled at the Cowboy 44 and on the 50. The Lobos defense was stout, holding on most Cowboy drives. The only other scoring chance for the Cowboys came on a missed 47-yard field goal.

The second half saw UNM open and drive quickly into Wyoming territory, but the drive stalled when UNM passed on a 47-yard field goal try into a stiff breeze and got stopped on fourth down. While UNM kept scuffling inside Wyoming territory, Wyoming got a 41-yard scramble by Chambers to set up a 3-yard run by Xavian Valladay to make it 13-0.

Finally, on UNM's sixth foray into Wyoming territory, it got on the board when Aaron Molina had to turn into a defender to prevent an interception, and Andrew Shelley followed with a 25-yard field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter. Wyoming pushed the lead to 20-3 when Chambers hit Josh Harshman for a 15-yard touchdown.

UNM head coach Bob Davie made a switch and inserted Tevaka Tuioti into the game, and he reaped an immediate dividend. UNM got a huge 40-yard run from Ahmari Davis, and then on fourth-and-15 from the 21, Tuioti hit Aaron Molina for a 21-yard touchdown, slicing the lead to 20-10. Wyoming got another long scramble run on third down, this one of 40 yards by Chambers, and the Cowboys led 23-10 with 58 seconds left.

Without much time, UNM moved from the 25 to the Wyoming 17 before time ran out after Tuioti missed Emmanuel Logan-Greene in the end zone.

Overall, UNM outgained the Cowboys 372-345 and threw for 203 through the air, but the lost fumble in the first half was the games' only turnover. Wyoming also had the ball about 10 more minutes, 35:13 to 24:47.

31 Game 8: 10/26/2019
Albuquerque, N.M.
45 Att: 12,617

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- New Mexico made a furious comeback effort, but in the end it wasn't enough. Hawai'i scored on four of its five offensive possessions and also added a 14-yard interception return for another score as Hawai'i raced to a 32-point halftime lead and defeated New Mexico 45-31 to spoil UNM's 95th Homecoming game. The win ended a seven-game losing streak to UNM by the Rainbow Warriors.

New Mexico dropped to 2-6 overall and 0-4 in conference play, while Hawai'i ended a two-game losing streak and moved to 5-3 overall and 2-2 in the Mountain West.

New Mexico was down 35-3 at the half and 45-10 with 9:16 left in the fourth quarter before a furious rally that saw UNM score three times in the just 3:13 and then get picked off at the 3-yard line in trying to get within a score with under two minutes left.

The highlight for UNM was the play of Ahmari Davis, who rushed for a career-high 200 yards, the 14th time UNM has had a 200-yard rusher, and the 10th individual overall. It was UNM's second straight home game with a runner going for at least 100 yards. Davis had a career-long 66-yard touchdown in the third quarter along with a long 39-yard run that set up UNM's first points of the game. Davis has run for at least 100 yards in all three home games that he has played.

Down 45-10 in the fourth after a 9-yard touchdown pass from Chevan Cordiero to Lincoln Victor with 9:16 to go, UNM began the comeback. Tevaka Tuioti hit Anselm UmeH for a 40-yard pass to the 19 yard line, and Davis ran it in on the next play to make the score 45-17.

Hawai'i took over at it's 28 after a fair catch, and on fourth-and-one at its own 37, Rainbow Warrior head coach Nick Rolovich rolled the dice, and it came up snake eyes. Devin Sanders and Brandon Burton broke through for a tackle for loss, and then Hawai'i was hit with a personal foul and UNM started at the 21. After a touchdown was wiped out on a penalty for UNM, Tuioti hit Anu Somoye for a 9-yard score and with 4:41 left, it was 45-24.

Hawai'i opted to not run the ball, and went three-and-out, taking just 15 seconds off the clock. UNM took over after a punt and Tuioti hit Jordan Kress for a 59-yard touchdown on the first play, and with 4:03 left a once insurmountable lead was whittled to two scores. UNM almost cut it further when on second down McDonald's pass went in and out of the hands of Letayveon Beaton, who had room to run on a return.

UNM got it back with 2:25 to go, and drove to the Hawai'i 28 before Ikem Okeke picked off Tuioti at the three to end it.

Davis's 66-yard touchdown to open UNM's second half scoring was set up by UNM's second interception of the season. Erin Austin, a defensive lineman, stunted after a blitzed and dropped into coverage, and he snatched Cole McDonald's pass out of the air and ran it back nine yards. Davis then took it from there, bursting through the line, shaking a tackler and racing the 66 yards for UNM's only score of the third quarter.

Hawai'i, known for its run-and-shoot, high-flying passing offense, scored three rushing touchdowns in the first half. The first came on its second offensive play quarterback Cole McDonald, who is known more for his arm than his legs, surprised everyone with a quarterback keeper around the end that went for a 76-yard touchdown.

10 Game 9: 11/2/2019
Reno, Nev.
21 Att: 15,631

RENO, Nev. --- New Mexico's defense was up to the task, but Nevada's only third down conversion of the fourth quarter went for a back-breaking touchdown, and the Wolf Pack moved within a win of bowl eligibility with a 21-10 victory at Mackay Stadium in Reno. With the loss, New Mexico dropped to 2-7, and will not qualify for a bowl game for a third consecutive season.

Felled of late by poor starts, UNM opened the game with its longest drive of the season, going 90 yards in nine plays, with Ahmari Davis going over from four yards out for a 7-0 lead. It stayed 7-0 until midway through the second quarter, when Nevada put together a 15-play, 80-yard drive that saw a fourth down conversion. Toa Tavaa bulldozed over from a yard out with 7:50 to go to tie the game at 7-7. After a three-and-out, Nevada got a big third down conversion and then Carson Strong hit Romeo Doubs in stride for a 57-yard touchdown at the 5:08 mark for a 14-7 lead, which carried into halftime.

After that score, UNM's Andrew Shelley was just short on a 53-yard field goal, a kick that probably goes in if not for an inadvertent whistle that blew a play dead at the 36-yard line that would have made the 53-yard attempt a 50-yarder.

Nevada threatened for more, but in the final minute, UNM held on a fourth down play from inside the 10, taking it to halftime.

UNM moved the ball once again on the opening drive of the second half, and Shelley connected this time, hitting from 49 yards out to make it 14-10. UNM had a chance to get closer, but Ahmari Davis on fourth-and-1 was stopped just short of the line to gain.

All the while, UNM's defense was solid, allowing just nine yards in the third quarter and one first down. However, with 5:35 to go in the fourth, Strong hit Elijah Cooks for a 20-yard touchdown, and that was the back-breaker that put the game out of reach. UNM drove to the Nevada 40 in the final minutes, but four straight incompletions sealed the deal.

9 Game 10: 11/16/2019
Boise, Idaho
42 Att: 31,492

BOISE, Idaho --- New Mexico quarterback Tevaka Tuioti fumbled on the opening play of the game and Boise State's Sonatane Lui scooped and scored from 24 yards out, setting up a first quarter for the Broncos that put the game away early, as UNM lost 42-9 in UNM's first game since the death of defensive lineman Nahje Flowers.

The loss dropped UNM to 2-8 overall and 0-6 in the conference, and it was UNM's seventh straight loss. For Boise State, the No. 19 Broncos improved to 9-1 overall and 6-0 in the conference. BSU travels to Utah State next week while UNM heads home for its final two games against Air Force and Utah State.

The game started on an emotional note as both teams lined up along the respective sidelines, linked arm-and-arm as there was a moment of silence for Flowers, who died a week ago Tuesday. UNM's captains were at midfield and held Flowers' jersey aloft, and each helmet had a round black sticker with Flowers' 93 inside of it on the back left of the helmet. On the back right was a sticker that was an actual picture of Flowers.

UNM then had disaster strike on the first play from scrimmage as Tuioti was hit by Chase Hatada on an option read and lost the ball, where Lui scooped it up and raced untouched from 24 yards out. It was one of two fumble recoveries for him in the half.

Up 7-0, Boise State forced a Lobo punt and Tyson Dyer pinned BSU at the three with a perfect 59-yard punt, but BSU went all 97 yards in eight plays, the last 17 by Octavius Evans on a reverse after an end around.

BSU made it 21-0 with 3:24 left in the first quarter when Khalil Shakir took a flip from Jaylon Henderson on a jet sweep that went as a forward pass for an 18-yard touchdown, and then with seven seconds left in the half, John Hightower caught a 51-yard pass to make it 28-0.

From there, UNM's defense got on track. Alex Hart picked off a pass to end one drive and Jacobi Hearn forced a fumble on another. However, UNM couldn't capitalize, as the Lobos got into Bronco territory three times in the second quarter, but turned it over on downs once, fumbled once and then missed a long field goal.

The Lobos finally got on the board in the second half when Shelley banged home a 40-yard field goal to make it 28-3, but Boise State answered with a sustained 74-yard drive, their first offensive success of any kind since the first quarter. That ended with an 8-yard touchdown by Andrew Van Buren to make it 35-3. BSU pushed it to 42-3 before UNM's Micah Gray, a Clovis native, scored his first career touchdown, accounting for the final score.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — New Mexico, already short-handed, lost a few more players, and Air Force's air attack stunned UNM, as the Falcons threw for 327 yards and four touchdowns on just nine completions as they turned a close one into a runaway, winning 44-22 at Dreamstyle Stadium. The win was Air Force's first in four tries in Albuquerque, and it propelled them to 9-2 and 6-1 in conference play. UNM dropped its eighth in a row, falling to 2-9 overall and 0-7 in the Mountain West.

The game was close through three quarters, and UNM's already thin numbers suffered a catastrophic injury when starting quarter Tevaka Tuioti went down with a hamstring injury, necessitating freshman Trae Hall into the game. Hall, who had played just two series in two years, was stellar, going 5-for-7 for 55 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He hooked up on his first drive with Jordan Kress for a 31-yard touchdown on his first collegiate throw, putting UNM down 21-16 with 5:24 left in the third quarter, but a bizarre play turned the momentum around quickly.

Andrew Shelley's extra point was low, and it careened off of the helmet of lineman David Zavala and away from everyone, where Milton Bugg III of Air Force grabbed it and used a convoy for a defensive two-point conversion, the first ever scored against UNM, making it 23-16.

From there, it was the Air Force passing game that took over. Darrell Hammond III hit Benjamin Waters for a 59-yard touchdown, then in the fourth quarter he hit Garaud Sanders from 27 yards out and then Waters against from 76 yards, and midway through the fourth, it was 44-16.

Hall got UNM back on the board one more time, leading a 10-play, 77-yard drive, capping it off with a 27-yard pass to Aaron Molina to account for the final score.

The game started out perfectly for UNM with Tuioti leading UNM on a time-consuming opening drive, scoring on a 3-yard Bobby Cole run after a 6:18 drive. Air Force however answered with touchdowns on its first two drives, a 1-yard run by Hammond and a 4-yard run by Taven Birdow.

Air Force only had four drives in the first half as UNM's game plan of keep-away was effective. Down 14-7, Air Force looked to have a touchdown on a 14-yard pass, but an illegal block called it back, and two plays later Alex Hart laid a devastating hit on Birdow, knocking the ball loose. UNM recovered at the 5-yard line as Joey Noble fell on it, and UNM drove the length of the field to get a 40-yard field goal from Andrew Shelley to make it 14-10 at the break. UNM probably should have tied it but Tuioti overthrew a wide-open Kress in the back of the end zone just before the field goal.

Overall, UNM only threw for 90 yards through the air but rushed for 268 as eight players logged carries and six had at least 25 yards on the ground.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — New Mexico fell behind after a big second quarter for Utah State, and a late rally fell short as the Bob Davie era ended with a 38-25 loss to the Aggies on senior day.

Utah State improved to 7-5 overall and 6-2 in the Mountain West. The loss completed UNM's first winless Mountain West season, and it was UNM's ninth straight defeat to end the year, ending the season at 2-10, 0-8.

Utah State jumped out to a 10-0 lead after a touchdown pass in the first quarter and a 45-yard field goal. The Lobos, behind freshman Trae Hall making his first start, got to within 10-6 on a Hall touchdown pass to Jordan Kress in the corner of the end zone. Hall became the fourth Lobo to start at quarterback during the season.

However, Utah State scored 24 points in the second quarter to take a 31-6 lead at the break. Two of the touchdowns came in the final 67 seconds of the half, including a 16-yard pass by Jordan Love to Gerold Bright with 23 seconds left.

The Lobos made a run at it in the third quarter. UNM drove 75 yards off of the opening kickoff, with Hall leading in from a yard out to make it 31-12. De'John Rogers then picked off Love to end Utah State's next drive, and UNM got another touchdown as the Lobos crossed midfield and then Hall hit Cedric Patterson III for 30 yards and Marcus Williams for the final 19. UNM hit the two-point conversion, but a pass interference call moved the ball back to the 18, and UNM then missed its third straight extra point, making it 31-18.

Utah scored its only points of the half on the following drive, making it 38-18 on a 10-yard pass. Starting on its own 8-yard line with 12:43 left, UNM went the length of the field to make it 38-25. Hall eventually scored on a 7-yard run with 4:29 to go, the final play of a 14-play drive. The touchdown was the fourth of the game for Hall, two rushing and two passing.

UNM, down 13, had a chance to cut it further, but after getting to the Aggie 29, Hall was intercepted with 2:06 left to end the game. UNM actually outgained Utah State 383-368, and UNM controlled the ball for 36:07 of the clock.

A New Mexico tradition has been the designation of a walk-on, or former walk-on player as the "New Mexico Man" each week during the season. The selected player leads the team onto the field with the New Mexico state flag before home games as well as in Las Cruces at the Rio Grande Rivalry game between the Lobos and New Mexico State. The player runs with the flag across the field to the north end zone, where he waves it for the home crowd.

Coach Gonzales and his staff select the weekly player based on dedication, work ethic, team spirit and unselfishness that exemplifies Lobo football and the state of New Mexico. Keeping the program was one of the first things that head coach Danny Gonzales vowed to keep. "As a former walk-on myself, I know how important walk-ons are to our program. I hope all of our New Mexico natives strive to earn this honor."

1939 SUN BOWL

Jan. 2, 1939 • El Paso, Texas
Utah 26, New Mexico 0

Playing in its first bowl game, the New Mexico Lobos were shut out by the Utah Utes 26-0 in the 4th Annual Sun Bowl at Kidd Field in El Paso.

(Note: The remainder of this story was written by Albuquerque Journal Sports Editor Paul Weeks and edited by UNM Media Relations.)

Like a kite that had flown too high, New Mexico's far-famed "dipsy-doo" football circus blew up and out of control before 13,000 disappointed Sun Bowl fans with a powerful tribe of Utah Indians (as they were called at the time) pouring on a humiliating 26-0 defeat.

The Utes matched their conservative style of the game as taught by Coach Ike Armstrong against the once-colorful attack of the Hilltoppers (as the Lobos were sometimes called) to claim gridiron superiority as Big Seven champions over the Lobos, co-champs of the Border league.

Never did New Mexico fall so miserably during the entire season as against the white-shirted tribe. Observers declared the team had conquered foes with power equal to the Utes, but there were no alibis for the Sun Bowl loss. It was on the same field that the Cherry and Silver met its first defeat of the season against Texas Mines (now UTEP).

Placed on equal ground before the fray, the two teams were as unevenly matched as a flyweight in the ring with a heavy. The Utes smashed across two touchdowns in the first quarter and followed it up with a 20-0 margin at the half. When New Mexico did not take advantage of breaks given them in the last periods, the Utes coasted in to another score, using two teams with equal results.

Though the bowl was not filled to capacity, more than 500 perched on the barren hills surrounding the field. The crowd stripped overcoats and concessionaires did a rush business in sun glasses because of the summery temperature. The tang of autumn football weather was entirely lacking.

1944 SUN BOWL

Jan. 1, 1944 • El Paso, Texas
Southwestern 7, New Mexico 0

(Note: The following story was written by A.V. Gullette from the Associated Press and edited by UNM Media Relations.)

A final quarter forward pass, starring tailback R.W. MacGruder of San Marcos, gave Southwestern of Texas a 7-0 victory over the University of New Mexico in the 9th Annual Sun Bowl.

The 37-yard toss from fullback R.L. Cooper clicked after the underdog New Mexico Lobos had beaten back the highly-touted ground game of Southwestern's Pirates through three quarters and eight minutes of the final period. The Pirates took the ball at the start of the fourth quarter on the 13. A pass, MacGruder to Cooper, made 27 and the two backs hit the line for a first down and MacGruder broke loose for 22 yards to the New Mexico 19.

Here New Mexico held and taking the pigskin, punted to the 46. Cooper passed to Hollon, Pirate end, for a first down and then to MacGruder for the winning tally.

The Lobos threatened only twice, in the second and third periods, but could not get beyond the Southwestern 16.

The game started under cloudy skies, but the sun broke through in the second half and playing conditions were nearly ideal.

The vaunted Southwestern defense held the Lobos to just four first downs and 48 yards total offense.

1946 SUN BOWL

Jan. 1, 1946 • El Paso, Texas
New Mexico 34, Denver 24

(Note: The following story was written by the Associated Press and Albuquerque Journal writer Clayton Byers. It was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

Don Rumley, a 19-year-old Navy reservist from Princeton, Ill., led New Mexico to a 34-24 victory over Denver University in the 11th Annual Sun Bowl. The 180-pound halfback passed for three touchdowns and rushed for another in the highest scoring game in the 11 years of this New Year's Day football event.

A crowd of 15,000 was on its feet throughout a 28-point fourth period in which New Mexico came from behind to capture its first bowl victory in three attempts. It was also the first victory for a Border Conference team in the El Paso game's history.

Denver, Big Seven champion, rolled up 10 points before New Mexico countered, and remained dangerous the last scoring its final touchdown with less than two minutes to play.

A 63-yard dash with an interception sent fullback Rudy Krall over with UNM's first score in the second period. Krall and Rumley engineered a 70-yard drive to set up the next score when Rumley scooted in from nine yards for a 13-10 Lobo lead.

Then, after a scoreless New Mexico third period, when Denver had regained the lead at 17-13, Rumley whipped out two aeriels for touchdowns to sub end William Moseley and a third to Lavon McDonald.

One reason the Lobos were Sun Bowl champs is a story of gridiron heroism. It's about Fred Doar, UNM's star center, chief linebacker and kicker.

The 210-pound Navy trainee was on the bottom of a heap in the first play of the game. After that he played outstanding ball stopping Denver backs time after time. But teammates noticed their captain wasn't "talking it up" as usual. In fact, he was silent. X-rays after the game showed that Doar had broken his jaw in two places on the first play.

Blue skies and a blazing sun made it baseball weather for the game. Nearly 16,000 short-sleeved customers heard a minister intone a prayer dedicating this game to the nine members of the Lobos' 1939 Sun Bowl team who left the football field to die on the battle field during World War II.

1947 HARBOR BOWL

Jan. 1, 1947 -- San Diego, Calif.
New Mexico 13, Montana State 13

(Note: The following story was written by the Associated Press and was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

The University of New Mexico Lobos came from behind to earn a 13-13 tie with Montana State College in the first San Diego Harbor Bowl before a crowd of 7,000.

Both teams displayed a flashy brand of football which kept the fans on edge throughout.

New Mexico opened the scoring soon after the game started when Hubert Hackett connected on a 26-yard pass to Lou Cullen. Hackett's place kick was wide.

Montana State surged back shortly after the second period started sparked by Neil Brooks 48-yard dash from scrimmage to paydirt. The placekick was blocked but Gene Bourdet picked up the ball and ran over for the extra point (allowed at this time).

Bill Nelson set the stage for the next score when he took Bourdet's short pass at midfield and streaked 42 yards down the sideline to the Lobo 8. After three plays netted just one yard, Bourdet passed to Ken Card on fourth down putting the Bobcats in front. The kick was again blocked.

The Lobos tied the count early in the fourth quarter as Cullen and quarterback Bryan Brock combined to engineer a 75-yard drive on the ground and through the air. Brock scored from two yards out cutting over tackle. Hackett's kick was good to knot the score.

The Lobos had a chance to win the game in the final minutes. UNM drove to the Montana State 12, however, Brock was thrown for a 12-yard loss. Hackett eventually tried a field goal from 35 yards out but failed.

1961 AVIATION BOWL

Dec. 9, 1961 -- Dayton, Ohio
New Mexico 28, Western Michigan 12

(Note: The following story was written by Albuquerque Journal Sports Editor Dan Russell and was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

New Mexico struck for early touchdowns in both the first and third quarters to defeat Western Michigan, 28-12 in a chilled Aviation Bowl football game.

Freezing weather, including sleet and snow, nearly grounded the inaugural (and only) Aviation contest and limited the contest to approximately 4,000 fans even though advance sales had surpassed 5,000.

New Mexico drove for two touchdowns to open the game and to also open the second half. Then it capitalized on Western errors to add the two other touchdowns.

Two fumble recoveries in the first quarter helped set up the second touchdown of the game. Chuck Cummings intercepted a pass and streaked 43 yards for the final Lobo touchdown.

Quarterback Jim Cromartie plunged for three yards for New Mexico's first touchdown. Halfback Bobby Santiago picked up the second touchdown from 10 yards out, and Bobby Morgan also went over from the 10 for the third score.

Santiago, who suffered bruised ribs at the end of the first half and saw only limited action in the second half, was voted the top back of the game. Santiago gained a total of 86 yards and had a 60-yard touchdown run nullified by a clipping penalty. Cummings was voted the outstanding lineman.

"Our kids were really up," said UNM head coach Bill Weeks. "They came to play and they hit hard and executed well throughout. Santiago and Cummings were outstanding and I felt that Bobby Morgan had his best game of the year."

1997 INSIGHT.COM BOWL

Dec. 27, 1997 -- Tucson, Ariz.
Arizona 20, New Mexico 14

New Mexico would lose its first bowl game in 36 years, 20-14, on Arizona's home field. The Cats struck first, scoring on Kelvin Eafon's 15-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter.

UNM took almost no time in the second stanza to knot the score. Graham Leigh ran 17 yards for a first down, then tossed a 15-yard TD pass to senior Milton Thomas. Colby Cason's PAT tied the score at 7-7 and completed the eight-play 69-yard scoring drive.

On Arizona's next possession, quarterback Brady Batten threw for 51 yards and Trung Canidate ran for 13 more, including a three-yard touchdown, which allowed the Wildcats to reclaim the lead, 13-7. UA missed the PAT.

The Lobos marched right back down the field, reeling off a 14-play, 45-yard drive. UNM could not cash in on its possession, however, as Colby Cason missed a 37-yard field goal.

The second half began in a disastrous fashion for the Lobo offense, as it went three-and-out on its first possession, then Leigh threw two consecutive interceptions. The resiliency of the UNM defense was the only thing preventing Arizona from increasing its lead, as the Lobos forced the Wildcats to punt on each of their first two series.

After Leigh's second interception of the quarter - his third of the game - UA capitalized. Canidate rushed for 30 yards, culminating with Eafon's 1-yard TD. The score upped Arizona's lead to 20-7 with 2:07 left in the third quarter.

Once again, UNM would not allow Arizona to keep its momentum. Leigh found Brian Messer for a 35-yard gain on the Lobos' first play from scrimmage. Two plays later, Leigh found Chris Shelton over the middle for an 18-yard gain to the Wildcat four. Leigh found paydirt on the next play, and with the five-play, 60-yard drive, New Mexico was right back in the game, trailing only 20-14.

New Mexico would get one more chance to stage a rally, taking over at the UA 48 with 5:31 remaining. On second-and-nine, Leigh dropped back and spotted Pascal Volz flashing across the middle downfield. His pass sailed just a bit, however, landing right in the arms of Wildcat DB Kelly Malveaux to seal it for the Cats.

2002 LAS VEGAS BOWL
 Dec. 25, 2002 -- Las Vegas, Nev.
 UCLA 27, New Mexico 13

The Lobo football team did more giving than receiving on Christmas Day, giving the UCLA Bruins three turnovers, which they turned into 17 points, as UCLA beat New Mexico 27-13 in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl.

Following a DonTrell Moore fumble, UCLA got on the board first with a Nate Fikse 49-yard field goal. UNM then took a 6-3 lead when senior cornerback Desmar Black picked off UCLA QB Drew Olson's pass in the flat and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown at the 8:20 mark of the first quarter. Junior kicker Katie Hnida then made her first career appearance, but had her extra point blocked. Already the first and only woman to dress for an NCAA Division I bowl game, Hnida became the first woman to make an appearance in an NCAA Div. I-A football game.

"I made the decision to let Katie (Hnida) kick the first extra point," head coach Rocky Long said. "She has been a vital part of this team all year, and I felt that she deserved the opportunity to make a play."

The Lobos' had a chance to increase their lead in the second quarter after driving to the UCLA 17, but Kenny Byrd's 34-yard FG attempt sailed wide right, ending a UNM streak of 19 straight scores in the red zone. Fikse connected on his second field goal from 39 yards out to knot the game at 6-6 with 6:21 remaining in the second quarter. The kick was set up by a questionable pass interference penalty on the Lobos in the end zone.

The UCLA special teams rose to the occasion when Craig Bragg took a punt back 74 yards early in the third to give the Bruins a 13-6 lead. More bad luck followed in the fourth quarter as QB Casey Kelly's throw bounced off the back of TE Zach Cresap into the waiting arms of Jarrad Page. Page returned it 29 yards for a touchdown to give UCLA a 20-6 advantage.

On the next Lobo possession, WR Joe Manning caught a pass from Kelly only to be stripped of the ball. New Mexico's third turnover of the game set up a 1-yard leap by freshman Tyler Ebell, handing the Bruins a 27-6 lead. Kelly found Manning in the back of the end zone for a touchdown that brought the Lobos to within 27-13, but New Mexico would get no closer.

Kelly finished with a season-high 237 yards. Moore, hobbled by a sprained right ankle late in the second quarter, was limited to 17 yards on 14 carries. The defense certainly did its part, holding the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards. UCLA only had to travel 76 yards for its three offensive scores, two field goals and a touchdown.

2003 LAS VEGAS BOWL
 Dec. 24, 2003 -- Las Vegas, Nev.
 Oregon State 55, New Mexico 14

Steven Jackson tied a bowl game record with five touchdowns, and Oregon State's defense overwhelmed mistake-plagued New Mexico in a 55-14 win. Jackson ran for 149 yards on 28 carries. He caught a 34-yard pass from Derek Anderson five minutes into the game and added touchdown runs of 3, 11, 6, and 1 yards.

Former NFL star Barry Sanders scored five touchdowns for Oklahoma State against Wyoming in the 1988 Holiday Bowl, and Sheldon Canley of San Jose State had five against Central Michigan in the 1990 California Bowl.

The Lobos' scores came on a 27-yard pass from Casey Kelly to Hank Baskett in the first quarter and Kole McKamey's 17-yard toss to Dwight Counter in the fourth.

Unable to run or pass against OSU's defense, the Lobos had only one first down in the first half and 21 total yards through the first three quarters. The stats also included 6 yards rushing, seven first downs and 127 total yards.

New Mexico got its second first down on a 46-yard pass from wide receiver Baskett to Counter with just more than 10 minutes left. DonTrell Moore, who led the Mountain West Conference with 1,438 yards this season, finished with 12 yards on 10 carries. His second-quarter fumble at the New Mexico 15 led to Jackson's third TD and second in a span of 1:39.

New Mexico had the fourth-best rushing defense in the country this season, but after gaining just 11 yards in the first quarter, Jackson found plenty of holes and scoring chances.

Oregon State scored on its first two possessions, with Jackson catching a 34-yard screen pass from Anderson on third-and-19 and Kirk Ylioniemi booting a 21-yard field goal.

New Mexico kept the Beavers' touchdown drive going with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty for celebrating too long and too loudly after stopping Jackson for a 2-yard loss on third down at the OSU 40. The Lobos then sacked Anderson for a 10-yard loss, but the Lobos were offside on the play.

Both teams entertained the Christmas Eve crowd of 25,437 with first-half trick plays that produced a touchdown for the Beavers and set up New Mexico's first score.

The Beavers scored on the final play of the first quarter on a 42-yard flea flicker. Anderson handed off to Jackson, who tossed it back to the quarterback for a pass to Mike Hass, who had beaten cornerback Brandon Payne.

New Mexico used a pass from wide receiver Michael Brunker to backup quarterback McKamey to set up the Kelly-to-Baskett score.

2004 EMERALD BOWL
 Dec. 30, 2004 -- San Francisco
 Navy 34, New Mexico 19

Aaron Polanco ran for three touchdowns and passed for another, and Navy capped the academy's best season in 99 years with a 34-19 win over New Mexico in the Emerald Bowl.

Polanco scored on runs of 14, 1 and 27 yards and completed a 61-yard touchdown pass to Corey Dryden, the longest of the season by Polanco and the first career score by Dryden. The Midshipmen's defense was impressive, too, despite the rain-soaked field at SBC Park.

The unit forced two first-half turnovers that led to TDs and staged a goal-line stand late in the third quarter. Then Navy kept the ball for the next 14 minutes, 26 seconds, and held New Mexico to only seven plays in the fourth quarter.

The Midshipmen (10-2) tied for the most wins in school history, last accomplished when Navy went 10-1-1 in 1905. It was a fitting end for the Mids, some of whom will head off to war in the coming year. Only two months ago, Navy's players dealt with the death of former teammate JP Blecksmith in a military operation in Fallujah, Iraq.

Polanco finished the season with 16 rushing touchdowns, a record by a quarterback this year. Temple's Walter Washington ran for 15. Polanco gained a Navy bowl record 133 yards on the ground for his fourth 100-yard rushing game and threw for 101 yards. He even caught a 17-yard pass from Frank Divis to set up his second TD - and his two receptions were the most by any Navy player.

New Mexico quarterback Kole McKamey had nearly as big a day after the Lobos (7-5) lost star tailback DonTrell Moore to a torn left ACL late in the first quarter.

McKamey threw for 207 yards and also rushed for 138, the first Lobo player to accomplish the feat since Graham Leigh in 1997. But McKamey threw two interceptions.

Moore, who has rushed for more than 1,000 yards in each of the past three seasons and came in averaging 108.3 yards per game, was carted off the field after catching a shovel pass and taking a hard hit from cornerback Vaughn Kelley that caused Moore to fumble with 3:52 left in the first quarter.

Linebacker Lane Jackson pounced on the ball for his first fumble recovery this year, and Polanco scored five plays later. Jackson also made an interception as time expired in the first half.

Navy built a 21-7 lead eight seconds into the second quarter on Polanco's 61-yard touchdown pass to Dryden.

The Lobos couldn't stop Navy's impressive triple-option offense. The Midshipmen snapped New Mexico's five-game winning streak and kept the Lobos from their first bowl victory in 43 years.

New Mexico lost in the Las Vegas Bowl the past two years and hasn't won a postseason game since beating Western Michigan 28-12 in the 1961 Aviation Bowl. The Lobos had won 11 straight games when they scored first.

2006 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 23, 2006 -- Albuquerque
San Jose State 20, New Mexico 12

San Jose State linebacker Matt Castelo saw New Mexico halfback Rodney Ferguson hit the hole near the goal line and prepared for a collision.

"I saw the running back get the ball and it was like in slow motion," Castelo said. "I got down low and I think he tried jumping over me. Tried to put the ball out for a touchdown."

Ferguson never made it to the end zone. Castelo hit Ferguson and his helmet knocked the ball out and right into fellow linebacker Damaja Jones' hands. In a season where San Jose State's defense carried the Spartans to their first bowl game in 16 years, Castelo and Jones teamed up for what may have been the biggest stop of the year.

Adam Tafalis threw three touchdown passes and San Jose State beat New Mexico 20-12 on Saturday in the inaugural New Mexico Bowl, extending the Lobos' postseason drought to 45 years.

One big pass play by Tafalis and that costly fumble by Ferguson — both in the first half — set the tone for the Spartans' first bowl win outside of California.

Jones returned Ferguson's fumble 57 yards to the New Mexico 37. Although the Spartans didn't score on that drive, they had the momentum for good.

"I saw Matt set him (Ferguson) up," Jones said. "He tried to jump over Matt and Matt put his helmet right on the ball. I was trying to get over the top and the ball fell right in my hands."

For the Spartans (9-4), the win provided a final highlight in a season in which they won more games than they had in the three previous seasons.

Tafalis, who was 11-of-18 for 209 yards, threw scoring passes of 36 and 24 yards to James Jones and 76 yards to John Broussard. The pass to Broussard on the first play of the second quarter — in which New Mexico's defense totally blew the coverage — got the Spartans' offense rolling.

New Mexico's only touchdown came with 15 seconds left in the game on a 15-yard pass from Chris Nelson to Marcus Smith. The rest of the Lobos' scoring consisted of a 40-yard field goal by Kenny Byrd with 1:11 left in the second quarter and a safety when San Jose State punter Waylon Prather stepped out of the end zone with 1:08 left.

Byrd's field goal was his 25th straight from 40 yards or closer and the first made field goal by New Mexico in 10 bowl appearances.

San Jose State struck first after the teams combined for seven punts in the first quarter.

Tafalis found Broussard 20 yards behind the nearest Lobo. Broussard caught the pass at the 35 and easily scored.

New Mexico came right back with a drive that started with DeAndre Wright's kickoff return to the San Jose State 40. Eight plays later the Lobos had a first-and-goal at the 1. The Spartans' defense toughened and on third-and-goal from the 2, Ferguson fumbled.

The Spartans made it 13-0 on Tafalis' 36-yard pass to James Jones with 3:59 left in the first half. James Jones caught the ball near the sideline at the New Mexico 16 and slipped out of the grasp of Wright. Matt Strubeck missed the extra point.

The Lobos' offense had 377 total yards but was stagnant most of the day. Neither freshman quarterback Donovan Porterie, who started, nor Nelson, who played in the second half, could sustain drives. What plays did work often were erased by holding penalties and three second-half fumbles, including one by wide receiver Travis Brown at the San Jose State 1 with just over 3 minutes left.

Ferguson, who led the Mountain West Conference in rushing this season, had 102 yards on 22 carries.

James Jones and Broussard each had 106 yards receiving, Jones with six catches and Broussard with four.

2007 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 22, 2007 -- Albuquerque
New Mexico 23, Nevada 0

For coach Rocky Long, it was just the next game, another brick to continue building his program. For delighted New Mexico fans, it marked the end of a 46-year skid.

Paul Baker ran for 167 yards in his first start, and Donovan Porterie threw for career-high 354 yards and two touchdowns to help New Mexico beat Nevada 23-0 in the New Mexico Bowl. The Lobos (9-4) ended a 46-year span without a postseason victory and gave Long, the team's 10th-year coach, his first bowl win in five tries.

"It gets it off our back. We don't have to listen to it anymore," Long said. "But this program was good before we won today."

John Sullivan made field goals from 53, 39 and 37 yards, but give credit to New Mexico's defense, which delivered just the second shutout loss for Nevada under Hall of Fame coach Chris Ault.

The Wolf Pack (6-7) hadn't gone scoreless since losing 10-0 to Weber State on Sept. 27, 1980, a span of 329 games — the longest current streak in college football and the second longest in history. It's the first time Nevada was shut out since moving to Division I-A in 1992.

"It's certainly a compliment to their defense," Ault said. "They played a great game. At the other end of the spectrum, we played as poorly on offense as we've played in a long time."

It was New Mexico's first bowl victory since beating Western Michigan 28-12 in the 1961 Aviation Bowl at Dayton, Ohio. The Lobos also notched a nine-win season for just the fourth time in school history.

"I'm very proud of our team," Long said. "I thought they were as focused as they've been all year long for any game."

New Mexico's defenders pestered redshirt freshman quarterback Colin Kaepernick all afternoon and made Nevada's "Pistol" offense look more like a pop-gun. The Wolf Pack averaged 36.2 points and 488.9 yards during the season. Nevada had logged 23 scoring plays that covered at least 25 yards — second only to Oklahoma's 25 big-play TDs.

This time, Nevada had 210 total yards, with only 73 yards rushing. On a chilly day, with the temperature at kickoff 34 degrees, Kaepernick finished 13-of-31 for 137 yards. He had 10 carries for 40 yards rushing.

"Everybody was locked in," linebacker Brett Madsen said. "They have a really explosive offense. The quarterback can really run. We knew we had to contain the quarterback, and he didn't do much with his legs."

Madsen, despite not starting, was selected the defensive player of the game after recording two sacks, two tackles for lost yardage and four total tackles. But he agreed the award could have gone to any New Mexico defender.

Baker made the most of his chance. He moved into the starting lineup this week when Rodney Ferguson, New Mexico's leading rusher over the past two seasons, was ruled academically ineligible.

"My team believed in me and that was enough," Baker said. "I knew I could get it done."

The Wolf Pack blocked two field goals, Sullivan missed another 43-yard try and the Lobos failed to score after having first-and-goal at the late in the third quarter. But Nevada just couldn't take advantage.

"We didn't do a good job with any consistency on the run game or the pass game," Ault said. "Colin Kaepernick didn't have a chance to get into type of rhythm. We just shot ourselves in the foot."

Despite the cool weather, Porterie had no trouble warming up. He threw a short slant pass on the third play from scrimmage to Marcus Smith, who raced to the end zone for a 66-yard scoring play. Later in the period, Brown got behind the Nevada defense and Porterie found him on a 39-yard TD pass.

2015 GILDAN NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 19, 2015 -- Albuquerque
Arizona 45, New Mexico 37

It was nearly one of the greatest comebacks in school history. Nearly. In the end, the Lobos whittled an 18-point second half deficit down to five, and then with a chance to go for the tie threw an interception as the Arizona Wildcats defeated New Mexico 45-37 in a highly entertaining 10th Annual Gildan New Mexico Bowl in front of a crowd of 30,289.

Both teams combined for 1,025 yards of offense, with UNM gaining 333 on the ground and 189 in the air. Arizona was about the opposite with 174 on the ground and 329 in the air. Things looked bleak when Lamar Jordan threw an interception on a play starting at his own 1-yard line that led to a short touchdown run and a 42-24 Wildcat lead with 7:35 left in the third quarter. Jordan, who played well with 135 yards rushing and a 110 yards passing, got UNM back in it with his third rushing touchdown to make it 42-31.

Jason Sanders then hit a perfect surprise inside kick that Donnie Duncan recovered for New Mexico. Jordan got hurt on the drive, leaving the game for good, and Austin Apodaca came in and scored his first career rushing touchdown on an option keeper to make it 42-37. The Lobos went for two and missed the conversion.

UNM got the break it needed on a missed field goal, but UNM turned the ball over on downs. On second-and-3 at the Wildcat 18, DaVonte' Neal broke up a pass intended for Carlos Wiggins, and then Chris Davis fumbled an option pitch for a loss of seven yards. On fourth-and-13 in no-man's land, UNM went for it but Apodaca was sacked. That led to a field goal and a 45-37 lead for Arizona, with one last chance for UNM.

Taking over at the 26 with 1:29 and no timeouts, UNM picked up two first downs to get to the Arizona 36, but there was just 35 seconds left. Looking for a big hitter, Apodaca was pressured and his pass missed Dameron Gamblin and fell into the waiting arms of Cam Denison for a game ending interception.

UNM opened the scoring with a 37-yard Zack Rogers field goal, but Arizona used a couple of long passes to go up 14-3. Jordan had his first rushing touchdown of the day to cut into that lead, but Arizona answered on an Anu Solomon run.

UNM scored an unlikely touchdown on a 92-yard pass from Jordan to Delane Hart-Johnson, the second-longest in UNM history and the fourth-longest in bowl history. Hart-Johnson outraced his brother Will Parks to the pylon for the score.

However, Arizona scored just before, and just after halftime to boost the lead to 18, setting the stage for UNM's near-comeback.

GARNETT S. STOKES PRESIDENT

Garnett S. Stokes was installed as the 23rd president of The University of New Mexico on May 12, 2018.

Soon after taking office on March 1, 2018, Stokes announced her intention to better understand the campus, the communities that surround it and the state of New Mexico. She initiated a multipronged approach to listening to students, faculty, alumni, staff, and community members, including participating in nearly 100 events during her first 100 days in office. During her first five months in office, she travelled nearly 4,300 miles through all 33 counties in New Mexico – visiting 38 cities and 3 Indian reservations as part of her Statewide Listening Tour. To date, she holds traveling office hours across North, Central and Main campus in order to meet with students, staff, and faculty in a casual manner and hear their thoughts on successes and challenges at UNM.

She spoke to more than 1,320 New Mexicans on the Statewide Listening Tour, which helped frame her immediate presidential initiatives of campus safety, supporting student Veterans, and furthering the University's mission of world-class research.

On February 5, 2019, Stokes announced the UNM Grand Challenges, calling on researchers from across disciplines to address problems of global, national and regional significance. After receiving proposals from research teams from across UNM's campuses, Stokes chose three focuses for the UNM Grand Challenges: Sustainable Water Resources, Successful Aging, and Substance Use Disorders. She charged researchers with developing goals that enable multiple paths towards solutions and that are relevant across varied disciplines and communities.

In collaboration with the Board of Regents, she plans to continue solidifying relationships with key stakeholders to move the University's strategic plan forward. She also continues her success in hiring diverse and talented leaders from across the country, capitalizing on the unique opportunity to hire a Provost and EVP for Academic Affairs, Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration, and Vice President for Equity and Inclusion, all within her first 15 months at UNM.

A first-generation college graduate, Stokes earned a B.A. in psychology from Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tennessee, and M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Georgia in industrial/organizational psychology. She is a fellow of the Association for Psychological Science, the American Psychological Association, and the Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology.

Stokes is the first female president in UNM's 129-year history. Her husband, Dr. Jeff Younggren, is a forensic psychologist and a retired Colonel in the U.S. Army. They have four grandchildren, two boys living in Redondo Beach, California and two girls living in Seattle, Washington. They reside on campus at University House.

EDDIE NUÑEZ ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Eddie Nuñez enters his fourth year as UNM's Athletic Director, being named to the top post in athletics on August 31, 2017. Nuñez is UNM's 13th Athletic Director, dating back to 1911 when Ralph L. Hutchinson was named the school's first AD. He is just the third AD in the last 25 years, following Rudy Davalos, who served from 1992-2006, and Paul Krebs, who served from 2006 up until he announced his retirement on June 2, 2017.

"My number one priority at UNM is always going to be the student-athlete and making sure their experience offers the support and resources they need to achieve great things on and off the field of play. We are going to bring passion, transparency and energy to everything we do here."

In his first three years with the Lobos, the department has enjoyed plenty of success stories. The 2019-20 academic year was one of great success as UNM's student-athletes set a host of records for grade point averages. Additionally, three programs were honored by the NCAA for APR public recognition, women's golf was the top academic program in the nation for a season straight year, and UNM led the Mountain West is scholar-athletes for an eighth straight year. The 2018-19 academic year saw four teams (women's soccer, women's cross country, men's golf and men's tennis) win Mountain West titles, and UNM picked up a national runner-up finish in women's cross country and its highest finish, fifth, in women's indoor track & field. The department also had a pair of individual national champions and five CoSIDA/Google Cloud Academic All-America selections.

Throughout it all, academic success has defined his tenure. Since becoming AD, 10 of UNM's 14 programs have set program GPA record, and 13 of 14 have turned in at least two top-5 semester GPAs. Additionally, GPA records for male, female and all student-athletes have been set twice. In the 2017-18 academic year, the Lobos had 65 degrees conferred to student-athletes, in 2018-19, 93 earned degrees and in 2019-20, 63 walked across the stage, including during a highly successful virtual graduation ceremony that had hundreds of live viewers.

In August of 2020, Nuñez was named to a 30-person working group by Lead1. The Working Group for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in College Sports will explore initiatives to strengthen senior leadership pipelines, expand professional development opportunities, influence legislation that supports underrepresented populations and recommend strategies of accountability. He is one of three sitting athletic directors to be named to the committee.

Since 2003, Nuñez has served in a variety of high-level administrative capacities at LSU, one of the nation's top athletic departments. Among his most recent specific duties, Nuñez has had sport oversight of LSU men's basketball and men's and women's tennis. He also has served as the department's liaison with LSU Sports Properties, the Tiger Athletic Foundation and University Licensing and Brand Management.

While he held seven positions and titles at LSU, the department has continually flourished. Under his guidance, LSU experienced of $400 million in facility renovations and construction, and Nuñez led the renegotiations of a 10-year multi-media rights agreement with Outfront Media Sports.

Additionally, he oversaw the planning and management of the LSU Athletics Strategic Plan, Marketing and Promotions, Athletic Communications, Social and Digital Media, Creative Services, Video/Network Broadcast Services and all capital projects.

While he has made his mark collegiately at LSU, Nuñez began his career as a collegiate administrator at Vanderbilt University, where he was the Director of Game and Event Management. Additionally, he assisted in construction and planning of numerous facility upgrades.

A former college athlete, Nuñez played four years of basketball, starting at Miami-Dade Community College before transferring to the University of Florida, playing for Billy Donovan. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant under Donovan at Florida before being named an administrative assistant at Marquette in the men's basketball program.

A native of Miami, Florida, Nuñez received his Associate Degree in arts and architecture from Miami-Dade Community College, his Bachelor's Degree in Sports Management and Master's Degree in Sports Administration from the University of Florida. He is married to the former Jane Hess and the couple are proud parents of two daughters, Elizabeth and Anna.

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 22nd year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 21 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

Changes in the NCAA governance structure set the table for another Conference first, when two members of the MW Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) were included in the June 2014 meeting of the Mountain West Board of Directors. New Mexico track and field athlete Kendall Spencer, the national chair of the 2014-15 NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and Air Force Academy volleyball player Emma Dridge joined the BOD members in this historic meeting to advance the discussion on student-athlete involvement in the NCAA and MW governance structure. For the last six academic years, MW student-athletes have participated in monthly membership calls and have joined MW administrators in the annual Joint Council Spring Meetings in Arizona.

The Mountain West is well-represented within the new NCAA governance structure, including individuals who were appointed to serve on committees tasked with managing the day-to-day business of Division I athletics. Kendall Spencer, the former chair of the DI Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and UNM track & field athlete, was the first student-athlete in the history of the organization to serve on the Division I Board.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the only conference to have the same member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLV's Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San José State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

HISTORY

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2020 season, the MW has nine (9) postseason opportunities, including a spot in a New Year's Six Bowl (highest ranked non-autonomous 5 champion), five (5) primary bowl positions with the Los Angeles Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, New Mexico Bowl, NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl and SoFi Hawai'i Bowl - and three (3) secondary positions.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

2019-20 IN REVIEW

From the gridiron to the diamond, Mountain West teams enjoyed a strong year in 2019-20. In football, the seventh annual MW Football Championship Game took place on December 7, 2019, at Albertson's Stadium in Boise, Idaho. The Broncos, champions of the Mountain Division, hosted West Division champion Hawai'i with the Broncos claiming their third Conference title, 31-10.

For the sixth straight season, the Mountain West sent at least six teams into postseason bowl games. The league has earned 103 bowl bids since 1999 and holds a 56-46 (.549) all-time record (2018 First Responder Bowl between Boise State and Boston College was canceled due to weather). The 2019 bowl season marked the 12th consecutive year the MW sent at least five teams to bowls and the 16th time overall since the league's inception. The seven bowl participants marked the most since 2016 and tied for second-most all-time (eight in 2015).

San Diego State captured the Mountain West regular-season men's basketball title, while Utah State won the tournament championship for the second year in a row. The Aztecs finished the season as one of three teams in men's Division I hoops with just two losses. In addition, SDSU was the first program to reach 30 victories this year. San Diego State finished the campaign ranked No. 6 in both major polls and climbed as high as No. 4 during the 12th week of the season.

In women's basketball, Fresno State won its first outright Mountain West regular-season title with a 16-2 Conference record. Boise State won its fourth-consecutive Conference tournament title, defeating the Bulldogs to become the first program to win the league tournament four-straight seasons. The postseason in men's and women's basketball was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

In women's volleyball, Colorado State earned its 25th consecutive NCAA tournament appearance, while securing the programs 16th Mountain West title. The Rams concluded the season with an NCAA tournament loss in the opening round against South Carolina after posting a 29-2 record, including 18-0 in MW play. Boise State, UNLV and Wyoming all participated in the NIVC.

After back-to-back regular-season titles, Boise State earned its first MW title in women's soccer in 2019, as the Broncos made their second overall NCAA Tournament appearance and first since joining the MW.

In cross country, the New Mexico women's program won its 12-straight MW title, while the Utah State men's program earned its first Conference title. UNM junior Weini Kelati won the NCAA individual championship in the 6K, crossing the finish line in a time of 19:47.5 and with an impressive 9.6-second margin of victory.

During the indoor track season, a total of 17 All-American honors were earned by Mountain West student-athletes following the 2020 indoor season. For the second year in a row, Colorado State claimed the Mountain West Men's Indoor Track & Field Championship, while UNLV won the MW Women's Indoor Track & Field Championship. It marked the fourth MW championship for the Colorado State men's indoor track & field program and the second for the UNLV women's track & field program.

In women's swimming and diving, San Diego State won its second-consecutive Mountain West title and fifth overall, while nine MW student-athletes earned CSCAA All-American honors.

On March 12, the Mountain West Board of Directors canceled all spring sports competitions and MW championships due to the COVID-19 pandemic, ultimately shortening the seasons for baseball, men's and women's golf, softball, men's and women's tennis and outdoor track and field.

ACADEMIC CONSORTIUM

From the outset, Mountain West member institutions have been committed to creating strong academic relationships, as well as athletic competition. To that end, the chief academic officers of each institution have explored academic exchange programs, library crossovers and shared research. In addition, the faculty athletics representatives routinely provide educational assistance and test-taking services for student-athletes visiting from fellow member institutions for competition.

OPPORTUNITY

The Mountain West provides a first-class athletic and academic experience for more than 5,100 student-athletes each year. Over the past 21 years, 43 Mountain West student-athletes have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, and since the league's inception in 1999, an additional 41 student-athletes have been named MW Scholar-Athlete of the Year and awarded league-sponsored postgraduate scholarships. Four Mountain West student-athletes have earned distinction as Rhodes Scholars (Jessica Mellinger, Wyoming, and Delavane Diaz, Brittany Morreale and Rebecca Esselstein, Air Force).

Conference student-athletes are also given a voice regarding pertinent issues within the MW and NCAA governance structure through representation on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). The Mountain West SAAC is comprised of 24 members (22 student-athlete representatives, the MW representative to the Division I National SAAC and one faculty athletics representative). The committee reviews and reacts to legislation and to other topics referred by the Conference constituent groups or committees related to the student-athlete experience. Since the inclusion of two SAAC members at the June 2014 meeting of the MW Board of Directors, the Conference maintains its commitment to the participation of student-athletes in its governance structure, which is consistent with the Mountain West's focus on enhancing the student-athlete experience.

ACHIEVEMENT

The MW has produced 1,545 All-America selections among its 18 sponsored sports (men's swimming was discontinued as a Conference sport following the 2010-11 season) in the last 20 years, including a league-record 103 All-America honorees in 2016-17. A total of 208 MW student-athletes have also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The Mountain West has sent at least 25 teams to NCAA postseason events in each of the past 21 years, capturing five team national championships in women's cross country and producing 50 individual national champions in the sports of men's golf, men's cross country, women's diving, and men's and women's indoor track & field and outdoor track & field.

Mountain West members have participated in 103 bowl games under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games and one CFP game. The MW has earned 84 postseason bids in men's basketball, with six Sweet 16 appearances, as well as three NIT Final Four berths. MW women's basketball has tallied 81 postseason slots, including 38 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000. Wyoming won the MW's first WNIT championship in 2007 with a win over Wisconsin. In women's volleyball, the MW has had 44 NCAA bids with nine Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Women's soccer has earned 34 NCAA bids since 1999, with two Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Mountain West men's golf has sent at least three teams to the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals in each of its 20 years, while women's golf has had at least three teams participate in NCAA Regionals 15 of the last 20 years.

SPORTSMANSHIP

Named a Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport in 1998, Commissioner Thompson has been a driving force for sportsmanship within intercollegiate athletics. As part of its continuing growth and development, the Mountain West implemented an extensive Sportsmanship Initiative, endorsed by both the MW Joint Council and MW Board of Directors. The program is made up of several elements, which are both practical and philosophical in nature. While the MW has significant penalties in place to deal with violations, the Sportsmanship Initiative is primarily promotional and educational in nature. The goal is to develop an environment that fosters appropriate behavior from all Conference constituencies.
