NOTING THE RAMS

- Colorado State begins a new era under head coach Steve Addazio who was named the program's 23rd head coach on Dec. 12, 2019. Addazio begins his 10th year as an FBS head coach in 2020 with the Rams after seven seasons at Boston College (2013-19) and two seasons at Temple (2011-12).
- Addazio is only the second Colorado State head coach to have won a bowl game as a head coach with another school. Only Earle Bruce had won a bowl game prior to coaching at CSU.
- Addazio has been a head coach in five bowl games, and led his teams to six bowl games. He has coached in more bowl games as a head coach than all other CSU head coaches except Earle Bruce who coached in 10 bowl games prior to arriving at CSU.
- Colorado State returns 69-percent of it's overall team production from 2019 according to ESPN. That mark ranks No. 45 nationally and is tied with Nevada for the most returning production in the Mountain West.
- With an Oct. 24 start, it marks the latest start for a first-year head coach in program history and the second-latest season opener in school history with the latest occuring during the last worldwide pandemic, Nov. 16, 1918.
- An eight-game regular season marks the fewest games Colorado State will have scheduled since 1945, the year the school adopted the Rams nickname.
- Colorado State brought in a number of FBS transfers in the offseason, many of whom are expected to play key roles during the 2020 campaign including: QB Todd Centeio (Temple), TE Brian Polendy (Miami), OL Elijah Johnson (Boston College), OL Cam Reddy (Boston College), OL Adam Kortuz (Boston College), and DL Scott Patchan (Miami).
- Senior Ryan Stonehouse, a 2018 All-American, enters the 2020 campaign as the NCAA's all-time career leader in punt average with a 47.0 mark. The two-time All-Mountain West performer would hold the record if he didn't punt another ball.

NOTING THE GAME

- Colorado State and New Mexico begin one of the odder seasons in history on Saturday as a part of a delayed start by the Mountain West. The Rams haven't begun a season this late since 1914 when Colorado State hosted Colorado on Oct. 24 as well.
- The match-up will be the 68th in the series between Colorado State and New Mexico. For the Rams, it's the fifth-most played series in program history, trailing Wyoming (110), Colorado (91), Utah (80), and Utah State (76).
- Both teams enter the 2020 season with new head coaches. While Danny Gonzales enters the year as a first-time head coach, Steve Addazio begins his 10th season as a head coach.

Media INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Credentials will be issued on a game-by-game basis for 2020, and due to conference and university protocols, space is extremely limited this season. Outlets must request credentials by noon the Monday before Saturday games and the Friday before the Wyoming game. Assignments may not be changed unless there is an extreme circumstance.

SELF-REPORTING SYMPTOM CHECKER: The day prior to kick off, members of the assigned working cohort will receive a self-reporting symptom checker that must be completed the morning of the game. Failure to complete this form prior to arrival will result in that individual being barred from entry. They may leave the premises and return once the form has been completed.

FACIAL COVERING USAGE: Facial coverings will be required for the entirety of the individual's time inside Canvas Stadium. Face coverings/masks must be worn for the duration of your time except for eating and drinking as permitted by state and local public health directives.

Exceptions will only be made for persons who "cannot medically tolerate a face covering" in accordance with state law. Failure to abide by this policy will result in the immediate removal of the offending individual from Canvas Stadium as well as the revocation of that outlet's credentials.

PHYSICAL DISTANCING IN PRESS BOX: Seats will be assigned and spaced at least six-feet apart in the working press area of Canvas Stadium. The athletic communications offices asks for the media's cooperation in maintaining a small footprint at their seat and requires assigned media to utilize the assigned seat for the duration of the game.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE: Post-game press conferences will be held over video conferences for Colorado State. Members of the working media will receive a link prior to the start of the game to log in and participate from their seat in the press box. Headphone usage will be highly encouraged. Following the game, head coach Steve Addazio and select student-athletes will be available.

PRINTED MATERIALS: Printed materials, including postgame books and flip cards, will not be distributed this season. Media members, including radio, are encouraged to utilize the live stat systems to track stats during the game. Complete game books will be e-mailed as well as posted in the game story on CSURams.com. A digital flip card will be available prior to kick off.

FIELD ACCESS: Due to conference regulations, field access this year will be limited to only two pool positions for photographers. Details will provided on that closer to game time.

LOWER BOWL ACCESS: For television stations wishing to provide coverage from games, there will be a limited number of positions around the lower bowl of Canvas Stadium. Mask usage will still be required from that position.tes from players and coaches, will be available.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Head coach Steve Addazio holds a weekly press conference each Monday during the season, beginning at Noon in the Canvas Stadium media room. All interviews will be conducted via Zoom in 2020. Please contact Kyle Neaves to request access.

PRACTICES: Due to department COVID-19 protocols, there are expected to be no open practice periods for the 2020 season.

INTERVIEW POLICIES: All requests for Colorado State football coaches, student-athletes, and support staff should be arranged ahead of time through the CSU Athletic Communications office with at least 24 hours notice. Members of the media who violate this policy are subject to loss of credential privledges for themselves as well as their organization.

Head Coach STEVE ADDAZIO

0-0 // FIRST YEAR
57-55 Overall/10th Year

Steve Addazio, a two-time BCS National Champion with nine years of head coaching experience at two universities prior to coming to Fort Collins, was named the 23rd head football coach at Colorado State on Dec. 12, 2019, the 127th anniversary of the founding of the football program.

Addazio has tallied 57 wins over his nine-year coaching career which included stints at Temple (2011-12) and Boston College (2013-19) where he became the first coach in BC history to lead the program to six bowls in the first seven seasons as a head coach, and the first bowl winning head coach at Temple in over 30 years in his first season as head coach.

His 2019 Eagles led the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing offense and ranked No. 6 nationally at 267.8 yards per game while also protecting the quarterback at an ACC-best clip of 0.92 sacks allowed per game – third-best nationally. Not content to simply churn up clock, Addazio's up-tempo Eagles ranked No. 6 nationally in plays per game (76.4) and ranked No. 2 within the ACC in that category behind national leader Wake Forest.

Known as hard-nosed teams with powerful rushing attacks, the Eagles had a 1,000-yard rusher in five of seven years under Addazio, highlighted by Heisman Trophy finalist and Doak Walker Award Winner Andre Williams' 2,177 yards in 2013. Defensively, Boston College allowed 26 points or less the last six years of his tenure, ranking fourth nationally in scoring defense in 2015 by allowing just 15.3 points per game. The Eagles spent four weeks in the 2018 AP Top 25 (hitting a peak of No. 17) and appeared in the College Football Playoff rankings for the first time in 2018, the first time the program had been ranked since 2007.

Addazio's first opportunity as a head coach came at Temple where he spent two seasons, leading the Owls to a 9-4 mark in his inaugural season of 2011. That season, the Owls won their first bowl game in 32 years, capturing the New Mexico Bowl with a 37-15 victory over Wyoming. Addazio's nine wins are still the most-ever by a first-year head coach in the program's history. Addazio's offense set school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. During his time at Temple, Addazio also helped direct the Owls' through the program's transition from the Mid-American Conference to the BIG EAST.

An offensive line coach by trade, Addazio is considered one of the top teachers nationally at the position and one of the nation's top recruiters. In 2010, Addazio was honored by ESPN.com as the nation's No. 1 recruiter as he helped put together a pair of recruiting classes in 2009 and 2010 that ranked in the top 5 nationally including the nation's best class in 2010. He spent three years as an offensive coordinator, two at Florida under coach Urban Meyer when the Gators won two BCS national championships. He served as Indiana's offensive coordinator in 2004.

He began his coaching career at Western Connecticut State as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 1985-87. He then stepped back to coach Cheshire High School from 1988-1994, with that team winning three state championships, 49 consecutive games and sending 20 players to college programs.

He returned to college coaching in 1995, the first of four seasons at Syracuse working with tight ends and the offensive line. In 1999, he spent the first of two seasons at Notre Dame, coaching tackles, tight ends and special teams.

That was followed by three years at Indiana (2002-04), the first two as the offensive line coach. He was with Florida from 2005-10 as the Gators won a pair of national championships, first coaching tackles and tight ends before being promoted to assistant head coach in 2007, still working with the offensive line. In 2009-10, he added the duties as the Gators' offensive coordinator. In 2010, Florida ranked 10th nationally in scoring offense, sixth in total offense.

Addazio and his wife, Kathleen, have three children: Nicole, Jessica and Louie.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT STEVE ADDAZIO

Chris Lindstrom
Atlanta Falcons

"Coach Addazio is an outstanding coach and an incredible person. He helped shape my brother and I into the men we are today. I would not be where I am today without Coach Addazio. He brings out the best in everyone he interacts with. He loves his players and we love him."

Mike Pouncey
Los Angeles Chargers

"Colorado State got a great man and great football coach in Steve Addazio. I wouldn't be the man I am today without him. Not only did he help me become the football player I am today, he was also was a father figure to me and my brother, Maurkice, while away from our family. He turned two young kids from Lakeland, Fla. into men."

Urban Meyer
Former Head Coach

"Steve Addazio has all of the qualities you want in a head football coach. Coach Addazio and I have a long-standing relationship through coaching, including winning two national championships together at Florida, and I have seen first-hand how passionate he is about the game of football, the players he coaches, and the programs he leads. He is one of the nation's top recruiters and will represent Colorado State well. I am excited to see the Rams develop under his leadership."

ADDAZIO'S COACHING STAFF AN EXPERIENCED ONE

While Steve Addazio's 10 years of head coaching experience out-rank all previous head coaches not named Earle Bruce in experience in the top chair before arriving at Colorado State, the coaching staff's total experience as a unit is equally impressive.

Combined, the Colorado State full-time assistants have 190 years of coaching experience, over 100 bowl appearances, eight national championships, and 23 conference championships.

TRANSFERS EXPECTED TO MAKE AN IMPACT

Colorado State has six FBS transfers on the 2020 roster, and many are expected to be impact players right away for the Rams. Three former linemen from Boston College followed Steve Addazio while Scott Patchan's connection to the staff runs through his brother, Matt, who played for Addazio at Boston College. At Miami, Polendey and Patchan were roommates.

PLAYER	POSITION	PREVIOUS SCHOOL
#7 Todd Centeio	Quarterback	Temple (2017-19)
#53 Elijah Johnson	Offensive Line	Boston College (2016-19)
#52 Adam Korutz	Offensive Line	Boston College (2016-19)
#1 Scott Patchan	Defensive Line	Miami (2015-19)
#88 Brian Polendey	Tight End	Miami (2017-19)
#55 Cam Reddy	Offensive Line	Boston College (2018-19)

THE WRIGHT STUFF

Last season. then-true freshman receiver Dante Wright burst onto the college football scene with his play in the Rocky Mountain Showdown vs. Colorado.

Wright was one of just 8 players to tally both a receiving and rushing touchdown in the same game through Week 0 and Week 1 and of those 8, only two were freshmen (Temple's Re'mahn Davis). He became the first true freshman to score twice in a game for the Rams since Warren Jackson did against Alabama in 2017, and the first to score in a season opener since Joe Hansley in 2012.

Wright was one of nine players nationally to have multiple games scoring a rushing and receiving touchdown. He was also the first Ram since Gartrell Johnson to score a rushing and receiving touchdown in consecutive games.

Following the season, he was named an FWAA Freshman All-American and named to the ESPN True Freshman All-American team, becoming the first Ram named to the list since Cory James in 2012.

DEFENSIVE STREAK REACHED HISTORIC LEVEL IN 2019

Colorado State's defensive efforts the final seven games of 2019 set a historic mark. Over the final seven games, all against FBS opponents, the Rams held opposing offenses to fewer than 400 yards of total offense.

It was the longest such stretch since the 1995 squad held eight consecutive opponents under 400 yards.

STONEHOUSE IS RECORD CHASING

Entering the 2020 season, senior punter Ryan Stonehouse currently ranks as the FBS career leader in punt average. Not just the active career leader. The all-time leader.

At 47.0 yards per punt for his career with 160 punts, the 2018 All-American's mark would pass Todd Sauerbrun's (West Virginia, 1991-94) mark of 46.31 on 167 punts for punters with 150-249 punts.

REPLACING WARREN JACKSON

Rising senior wide receiver Warren Jackson was named the 2020 Mountain West Preseason Offensive Player of the Year on the heels of a dominant performance where he was often unguardable in 2019. However, when the Mountain West postposted the 2020 season, Jackson - who surprising a few people by returning to Colorado State to chase a championship - opted to begin his draft preparations ahead of schedule.

In 2019, Jackson caught 77 passes for 1,119 yards and eight touchdowns and was a frequent match-up nightmare with his 6-foot-6 frame.

Colorado State returns the dynamic Dante Wright, a 2019 All-American, as well as a legitimate candidate for the John Mackey Award in tight end Trey McBride. Jackson was going to be another weapon for offensive coordinator Joey Lynch who is now - along with receiver coach Kenny Guiton - tasked with developing his replacement.

NO. 9 MEANS SOMETHING EXTRA

The story of safety Logan Stewart is well-known around Colorado State. A nearby native from Loveland, Colo., Stewart grew up selling popcorn and sodas in the stands at Hughes Stadium, dreaming of one day becoming a Ram himself.

After grades forced him to Pima Community College, and then the need for better exposure sent him to Iowa Central, Stewart walked on at Colorado State and slept on teammates couches just to get by. Then, prior to the 2019 season, Stewart was put on scholarship and subsequently started every game that season.

Stewart switched to No. 9 this season from No. 37 a year ago to pay homage to his family. Stewart is one of Kari and Jeff Stewart's nine children - six of whom are adopted including Stewart.

CANVAS STADIUM

Canvas Stadium is the new name for Colorado State University's 36,500-capacity multipurpose stadium that opened on the school's Fort Collins campus in 2017. The newly re-branded Canvas Credit Union received naming rights to the facility through a $37.7 million partnership agreement announced in April 2018. The agreement, which stands as one of the largest collegiate athletic venue naming agreements in history, was part of an ambitious re-branding initiative being undertaken by the previously branded Public Service Credit Union, under the direction of company President and CEO Todd Marksberry.

Canvas Credit Union is a not-for-profit, state-chartered, member-owned financial cooperative that has been in business since 1938. Today, the credit union has more than $2.3 billion in assets and more than 238,000 members – and a mission to help individuals and families make better decisions and grow stronger financially. Learfield's Rams Sports Properties and their Campus+ business brokered the agreement as part of its ongoing support for Colorado State University athletics.

The $220 million, 727,000-square-foot stadium proved immensely popular and attractive to fans in its inaugural season of 2017, and drew rave reviews from local and national media, as well national television networks that broadcast Colorado State's games to large audiences. The Rams set an all-time attendance record with a total of 192,369 fans and a per-game average of 32,062, representing a 16-percent attendance increase from 2016—eighth-highest in all of college football. Season ticket sales also reached an all-time high of 15,477, a 40-percent increase from the 2016 total of 11,054.

The return of CSU football games to campus from Hughes Stadium in 2017 brought the pageantry and celebration of Rams game days back to the heart of the university for the first time in 50 years, providing countless new engagement opportunities for the entire university. The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game-day and non-game day usage.

The agreement with Canvas Credit Union combined with $20 million given in 2016 to name Sonny Lubick Field brings the total naming rights revenues at Colorado State to $57 million for the stadium. This compares favorably with the recently announced $69 million United Airlines Memorial Coliseum at University of Southern California and the $41 million Alaska Airlines Field at Husky Stadium at the University of Washington. The Colorado State agreement with Canvas Credit Union is for 15 years and includes annual escalator clauses for inflation, as well as a signing bonus, in recognition of the visibility and success of the stadium.
