2020 Team Captains: The Wyoming Cowboys voted for team captains the final week of fall camp and on Saturday, Oct. 17 head coach Craig Bohl announced the Cowboys that were selected as 2020 team captains. Sophomore quarterback Sean Chambers was voted a team captain for the second consecutive season.

The other three Cowboy captains earned the honor for the first time in their careers.

2020 Wyoming Team Captains

#12 Sean Chambers, So., Quarterback
 #88 Garrett Crall, Sr., Defensive End
 #73 Keegan Cryder, Jr., Center
 #48 Chad Muma, Jr., Linebacker

Valladay, Cryder and Harris Return After Earning All-Conference Honors in 2019:

Three Wyoming Cowboys return in 2020 after earning All-Mountain West Conference honors in 2019.

He will be joined by returning All-Conference honorees Keegan Cryder at center, who earned Second Team All-Conference as a sophomore, and Logan Harris at right guard, who earned Honorable Mention All-Mountain West honors as a junior.

UW and UNM Have Been Members of the Same Conference Since 1951:

Wyoming and New Mexico are meeting for the 22nd consecutive season since both became founding members of the Mountain West Conference in 1999. Prior to that, they were founding members of the Western Athletic Conference in 1962. Wyoming and New Mexico have been members of the same conference since 1951, when UNM joined Wyoming in the Skyline Conference.

Xazavian Valladay, Jr., Running Back

Valladay Becomes Only the 12th Cowboy to Rush for 2,000 Career Yards, Ranks Ninth in the NCAA This Season in Rushing: Wyoming junior running back Xazavian Valladay rushed for 147 yards against Colorado State on Nov. 5, 2020, to become only the 12th Wyoming Cowboy in school history to rush for over 2,000 career yards. Valladay enters this week with 2,165 career rushing yards. Valladay rushed for 409 yards as a redshirt freshman, recorded 1,265 rushing yards as a sophomore and has 491 rushing yards thus far in 2020.

Running the Ball and Stopping the Run -- Wyoming Ranked Among Nation's Leaders in Rushing Offense and Rushing Defense for Second Straight Season: The Cowboy rushing attack is averaging 238.0 yards per game in 2020 to rank No. 13 in the nation in rushing offense. Wyoming's rushing attack was also among the best in the nation in 2019. As a team, Wyoming averaged 214.8 rushing yards per game in 2019 to rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 23 in the nation. Xazavian Valladay is averaging 122.8 rushing yards per game in 2020 to lead the MW and rank No. 9 in the FBS. He averaged 105.4 yards rushing per game in 2019, which was also No. 1 in the MW and No. 18 in the nation.

Defensively, Wyoming is allowing opponents only 104.5 rushing yards per game in 2020 to rank No. 2 in the MW and No. 14 in the country. In 2019, the Cowboy defense ranked No. 11 in the FBS in rushing defense, allowing opponents only 107.1 rushing yards per outing.

Recent Wyoming-New Mexico Series Marked by Three-Game Winning

Streaks: As the Wyoming Cowboys and New Mexico Lobos prepare to play each other for the 73rd time, this year's meeting will be a first as the two teams will play in Las Vegas, Nev., due to COVID-19 conditions in the state of New Mexico forcing UNM Football to play its home games in the state of Nevada.

The recent series between the two schools have been marked by three-game winning streaks. Wyoming is currently on a three-game win streak (2017-19) over the Lobos. Prior to that, UNM won three in a row from 2014-16, and before that the Cowboys won three in a row from 2011-13.

Wyoming Continues Home Success, 21-6 Home Record Since 2016, Winner of Its Last Nine Consecutive Home Games:

The Wyoming Cowboys have been very successful at home over the last five seasons since 2016, most recently defeating the Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors for their 21st home win in their last 27 home games for a winning percentage of 77.8 percent.

The Pokes have also won their last nine (9) consecutive home games, dating back to the last two home games of the 2018 season.

Wyoming's 21 home wins during this stretch began with the first game of the 2016 season when they won a triple overtime thriller over Northern Illinois by a score of 40-34.

The Cowboys went on to post a perfect 6-0 regular season in 2016 before hosting the Mountain West Conference Championship Game, which they lost 24-27 to San Diego State to finish 6-1 at home.

Chad Muma, Jr., Linebacker

Junior Captain Chad Muma Among the Nation's Leading Tacklers, Ranking Seventh:

Cowboy junior middle linebacker and team captain Chad Muma has been a key contributor on the Wyoming defense for the last three seasons, but now in his junior season he is making his mark as one of the nation's top defenders.

Muma is currently ranked No. 7 in the nation in tackles, averaging 12.0 tackles per game. He is also No. 2 in the Mountain West in tackles in 2020.

The past two seasons, Muma played alongside middle linebacker Logan Wilson and weak-side linebacker Cassh Maluia.

Both Wilson and Maluia went on to be selected in the 2020 NFL Draft -- Wilson by the Cincinnati Bengals and Maluia by the New England Patriots. Muma's intelligence and athleticism enabled him to spell both Wilson in the middle and Maluia on the weak side. While Muma came into the 2020 season having started only two games, it is unfair to describe him as a back-up. He ranked sixth on the Cowboy team in tackles in 2019 with 51 total tackles. Muma has shifted to middle linebacker full-time in 2020, and he has already enjoyed an outstanding season. He had a career high 14 total tackles and a career best 10 solo tackles against the Nevada in the season opener. He added seven tackles in Week 2 vs. Hawai'i, and set a new career tackle best with 17 tackles at Colorado State in Week 3. He had his third double-figure tackle game in four games this season at UNLV in Week 4, with 10 total tackles.

Muma has been involved in creating two turnovers for the Cowboy defense during the 2020 season. He forced a fumble versus Nevada and recovered a fumble vs. Hawai'i.

Muma Named College Sports Madness Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week:

College Sports Madness named its Mountain West Players of the Week on Sunday, Nov. 29 and Wyoming junior linebacker Chad Muma was selected as the MW Defensive Player of the Week for his performance in Wyoming's 45-14 win over UNLV last Friday.

Muma led all tacklers in the Wyoming-UNLV game with 10 total tackles. He made a career high 3.5 tackles for loss for 26 yards and added a career high 3.0 sacks for 25 yards. Muma was credited with six solo tackles and four assists on the day.

He was the leader of a Wyoming defense that held UNLV to only 14 points and limited UNLV to 290 yards of total offense (132 rushing yards and 158 passing yards) and only 19 first downs. On the season, the junior from Lone Tree, Colo., leads Wyoming in total tackles (49), solo tackles (23), assisted tackles (26), sacks (3.0 for 25 yards) and tackles for loss (6.0 for 32 yards). Muma is also tied for the team lead in fumbles recovered (1) and forced fumbles (1).

Muma is tied for No. 6 in the nation in tackles this season, averaging 12.3 tackles per game, and is tied for No. 21 in the country in solo tackles, averaging 5.8 solo tackles per game. He is also averaging 1.5 tackles for loss per game to tie for No. 24 in the NCAA.

Wyoming's Muma Also Named to Pro Football Focus Team of the Week:

Junior linebacker Chad Muma was also named to this week's Pro Football Focus (PFF) Team of the Week. Muma was one of only two linebackers named to this week's team by PFF. He joined linebacker Micah McFadden of Indiana in receiving this week's honor.

Wyoming-New Mexico Series Among the Longest for the Cowboys:

Wyoming's series with New Mexico ranks as the fourth longest series vs. any opponent for the Cowboys.

Wyoming's Longest Series	No. of Previous Meetings	2020 Meeting Will be the

Passing Game Improving for Pokes

in 2020: The Wyoming Cowboys entered this season hoping to improve their passing game to complement a very potent rushing attack. Through the first four games of the season, that hope is becoming a reality.

Wyoming is averaging 191.2 passing yards per game in 2020 to go with 238.0 rushing yards per game. That compares to 2019 when UW averaged 136.2 passing yards and 215.7 rushing yards per game.

The Cowboys' total offense has also increased from a year ago. In 2020, UW is averaging 429.2 yards per game, while in 2019 Wyoming averaged 351.8.

Two Cowboy Receivers Have Posted 100-Yard Receiving Games in 2020:

Redshirt freshman wide receiver Isaiah Neyor showed his talent in Wyoming's season opener at Nevada, catching three passes for 102 yards. His three catches went for 45 yards, 34 and 23, averaging 34.0 yards per reception. That was Neyor's first 100-yard receiving game.

It was also the first time a Cowboy had recorded a 100-yard receiving game since tight end Tyree Mayfield caught four passes for 112 yards in a 35-28 home win over Air Force on Nov. 17, 2018.

In Week 3 of the season, senior wide receiver Ayden Eberhardt recorded the first 100-yard receiving game of his career with seven catches for 132 yards. He had five receptions of 10 yards or more, including catches of 12, 15, 17, 21 and 56.

Isaiah Neyor One Reception Shy of Ranking No. 3 in the Nation in Yards per Reception:

Neyor enters this week with seven receptions for 194 yards for an average of 27.7 yards per reception. He isn't ranked nationally this week because he falls under the NCAA minimum of 2.0 catches per game -- he would need eight receptions through four games to meet that minimum.

But if he met the minimum, he would lead the MW and rank No. 3 in the nation in receiving yards per catch (27.7 yards per reception).

Redshirt Freshman QB Levi Williams Records First 300-Yard Passing Game of Career, Ranks No. 15 in Nation in Passing Yards per Completion:

Cowboy quarterback Levi Williams recorded the first 300-yard passing game of his career in Wyoming's 24-34 loss to Colorado State on Nov. 5. Williams completed 19 of 31 passes for 321 yards against the Rams. His previous high passing game was 234 passing yards in Wyoming's victory over Georgia State in the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. The Arizona Bowl was also Williams' first career start.

Williams currently ranks No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 15 in the nation in average passing yards per completion, averaging 14.6 yards per pass completion.

Explosive Plays -- 70 Percent of Cowboys' Offense Has Come on Explosive

Plays of 10 Yards or More: The Wyoming offense has created a number of explosive plays of 10 yards or more during the 2020 season. The Cowboys have had 32 running plays of 10 yards or more for a total of 554 yards and 30 pass plays of 10 yards or more for a total of 659 yards. Combined the UW offense has had 62 explosive plays for 1,213 yards. That 1,213 yards of explosive plays accounts for 70.6 percent of Wyoming's 1,717 total yards this season.

Offensive Line Leads the Way for Wyoming's Outstanding Rushing Attack, Returns Seven Players with Starting Experience:

Leading the way for Wyoming's successful rushing attack in 2019 was a dominant group of offensive linemen. Entering the 2020 season, Wyoming had seven O-Linemen returning with starting experience, however senior offensive tackle Alonzo Velazquez injured his shoulder in preseason practice and had to undergo surgery. He will be lost for several weeks.

Attendance at 2020 Wyoming Games Limited to 5,000: University of Wyoming Athletics worked with the Wyoming Department of Health to allow fans at War Memorial Stadium for the re-scheduled 2020 season. The number of fans currently allowed at Wyoming home games is 5,000. Due to limited attendance, tickets will only be available on a single-game basis for the 2020 season. Tickets may be purchased online at GoWyo.com/tickets or by calling (307) 766-7220.

War Memorial Stadium Has Become a Great Home-Field Advantage -- Wyoming Posts Second Perfect 6-0 Regular Season in Four Seasons: Wyoming was a perfect 6-0 in home games for the 2019 season. It was the second time in the Craig Bohl era that Wyoming won all six regular-season home games in a single season. The Cowboys also posted a perfect 6-0 regular-season record in 2016. Prior to that, the Pokes had not won all six of its regular-season home games since 1996.

The Pokes Will Seek Their Fourth Bowl Bid in Five Seasons in 2020 -- That Would be a First in Wyoming Football History: As the 2020 college football season approaches, the Wyoming Cowboys will be seeking their fourth bowl bid in five seasons. That would be a first in Wyoming Football history.

Over the past four seasons, Wyoming has appeared in three bowl games -- the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl and the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. That was only the second time in Wyoming history that accomplishment had been achieved. The only other time that UW appeared in three bowls over a four-year period was in the 1987 and '88 Holiday Bowls and the 1990 Copper Bowl.

Wyoming Looking for Fifth Consecutive Bowl-Eligible Season in 2020 -- Cowboys Haven't Accomplished That Since 1995-99: Wyoming has posted four consecutive bowl-eligible records over the past four seasons -- 8-6 in 2016, 8-5 in 2017, 6-6 in 2018 and 8-5 in 2019. UW will be seeking its fifth consecutive bowl-eligible season in 2020. The last time Wyoming posted five consecutive bowl-eligible seasons were 1995-99. Actually, UW posted seven consecutive bowl-eligible seasons from 1993-99. During that seven-season period, Wyoming's records were: 8-4 (1993), 6-6 (1994), 6-5 (1995), 10-2 (1996), 8-5 (1997), 8-3 (1998) and 7-4 (1999).

Cowboys Record Third Eight-Win Season in Bohl Era, First Time Since Paul Roach Era That a Wyoming Coaching Staff Has Accomplished That: Wyoming's 8-5 record in 2019 marked the third time in the Craig Bohl coaching era at Wyoming that the Cowboys won eight games in a single season. The 2016 Cowboys posted an 8-6 record, and the 2017 Pokes ended the season 8-5. The last time a UW football staff posted three eight-win seasons during their coaching tenure was the Paul Roach era. Roach's Cowboys posted records of 10-3 in 1987, 11-2 in 1988 and 9-4 in 1990.

Valladay Makes History, Tying School Record for Single-Game Carries:

Running back Xazavian Valladay rushed for 124 yards at Boise State in 2019 for his third-straight 100 -ard game and was the first 100-yard rusher against the Broncos last season. He did so on 37 carries for the night which tied a school record. Running back Ryan Christopherson was the last Cowboy with 37 carries against NE Louisiana in 1994 and quarterback Steve Cockreham had 37 for the Pokes against Arizona State in 1974.

Valladay's 1,000-Yard Rushing Season in 2019 the Seventh Best in School History and the Fourth by a Wyoming Running Back in the First Six Years of the Craig Bohl Era: Wyoming running back Xazavian Valladay rushed for 154 yards against Colorado State on Friday, Nov. 22, 2019, to surpass the 1,000-yard mark on the season.

Valladay rushed for 100 or more yards in seven of the 12 games he played in during the 2019 season, including rushing for 100 or more yards in five of his last six games, including rushing for 204 yards vs. Georgia State in the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl victory.

Valladay's 1,000-yard rushing season was the fourth under head coach Craig Bohl in six seasons. He joins Brian Hill, who rushed for 1,000 yards in 2016 (1,860 yards) and 2015 (1,631), and Nico Evans, who rushed for 1,325 yards in 2018, as the three running backs who have posted four 1,000-yard rushing seasons during the Bohl era at Wyoming.

Offensive Line Earns Its Place on the Joe Moore Award Honor Roll in 2019:

The Wyoming offensive line was named to the 2019 Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll. UW's offensive line group was one of only two Mountain West schools on the list and was one of only 24 teams nationally named to the Honor Roll.

The Joe Moore Award is the only accolade in college football to honor a position group. It is named after Joe Moore, widely regarded as one of the best offensive line coaches in college football history, most notably for his work at Notre Dame and the University of Pittsburgh.

Coach Moore sent 52 players on to the NFL, including Bill Fralic, Mark May, Russ Grimm, Jimbo Covert, Aaron Taylor and others.

Mr. All Purpose, "X" Among Mountain West Leaders in All-Purpose Yardage for the Second Straight Season:

Not only was Cowboy running back Xazavian Valladay (X) the No. 1 rusher in the Mountain West Conference in 2019, but he also led the Mountain West in all-purpose yards and ranked No. 26 in the nation, averaging 124.08 yards per game.

Thus far in the 2020 season, "X" is ranked No. 3 in the MW and No. 24 nationally in all-purpose yardage, averaging 141.75 yards per game.

He recorded 280 all-purpose yards in a 31-3 win over Nevada in 2019. It was the highest all-purpose yardage total in the Mountain West during the 2019 regular season and it was the most by a Cowboy since Brian Hill recorded 302 all-purpose yards against Nevada in 2016. Valladay rushed for a career-high 206 yards and grabbed two catches for 74 yards. Valladay recorded a 53-yard touchdown grab on the first offensive play of the game for the Pokes.

In Wyoming's NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl victory, he ran for 204 yards and one touchdown. Valladay also led all Cowboy receivers with three receptions for 91 yards, including a long reception of 63 yards that set up his rushing TD. It was the longest touchdown reception by a Wyoming running back in the Mountain West era of Cowboy Football. He ended the day with 295 all-purpose yards for the game, eclipsing his 280-yard performance vs. Nevada earlier in the season.

Wyoming Adds Three New Defensive Coaches in 2020:

The Wyoming coaching staff has added three defensive coaches to its staff for the 2020 season.

The Cowboys' new defensive coordinator is Jay Sawvel, who previously served as defensive coordinator at the University of Minnesota and Wake Forest University.

Benny Boyd is the new cornerbacks coach for the Pokes. Boyd is entering his 19th season as a college coach and most recently coached at Eastern Illinois University.

A familiar face to Wyoming fans returns to the Cowboy Football program this year as Marty English returns. English previously coached at Wyoming from 2003-2011. He served as the linebacker coach and defensive coordinator during his first stint in Laramie. He will coach the defensive ends in 2020.

Jay Sawvel joined the Wyoming coaching staff in February 2020 as defensive coordinator. He will also coach the Cowboy safeties. He will be entering his 26th season as a college coach in 2020.

"Jay comes from the great coaching tree of Jerry Kill and has a long relationship with Coach Kill," said Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl. "I've admired Jay's work through the years. He's an outstanding recruiter, a great secondary coach and an experienced coordinator."

Benny Boyd was announced as the new cornerbacks coach for Wyoming Football in February of 2020. Boyd comes to Wyoming from Eastern Illinois University. He will be entering his 19th season as a college coach.

"Benny (Boyd) is a very capable corners coach and special teams coordinator, as well," said Bohl. "He has demonstrated his skills by molding young men and doing an excellent job of mentoring many players over his long career."

Marty English returned to the Cowboy coaching staff in February of 2020. English will coach the Wyoming defensive ends and recruit the state of Colorado for the Pokes. He previously coached at Wyoming for nine seasons from 2003-11.

"Marty English enjoys a great reputation recruiting the Rocky Mountain area," said Bohl. "He has spent time previously here at Wyoming, at Colorado State and at Northern Colorado. He'll be coaching our defensive ends. He has tremendous defensive experience. Marty will add great value on our defensive staff, and we look forward to his recruiting efforts in the state of Colorado."

Defensive tackles and nose tackles coach Pete Kaligis was promoted to Defensive Run-Game Coordinator for Cowboy Football. Kaligis is the longest serving member of the Wyoming coaching staff, entering his 12th consecutive season on the Cowboy coaching staff.

Offensive line coach Bart Miller was promoted to Offensive Run-Game Coordinator for UW after doing an outstanding job with the Cowboy offensive line in 2019, which was his first season on the Wyoming coaching staff.

Interim linebackers coach Aaron Bohl was promoted to be the Cowboys full-time linebackers coach this offseason. Bohl came to Wyoming in 2017 and served as a graduate assistant in 2017 and '18 before becoming the interim linebackers coach in 2019.

Young Wyoming Defense Has Been Extremely Effective and Balanced in 2020:

A young Wyoming defense has been extremely effective and balanced this season.

- Defensive Line: 81 total tackles, Leads team in Tackles for loss (17.5) and Sacks (9.0)
- Linebackers: 95 total tackles, Leads team in Turnovers Forced with 3 (1 Int. and 2 FR)
- Secondary: 98 total tackles, Leads team in Tackles (98) and Passes Defended (9)

John Hoyland Continues Tradition of Cowboy Kickers From Colorado: Current Wyoming starting place-kicker John Hoyland walked on to the Wyoming Football team this year from Broomfield, Colo., where he played at Legacy High School. Hoyland joins a long line of former Cowboy kickers from the state of Colorado.

Wyoming's recently graduated place-kicker, Cooper Rothe, became the leading scorer in University of Wyoming history over his career from 2016-19. But he isn't the only successful UW kicker from Colorado, in fact four of the all-time leading scorers in Wyoming Football history were place-kickers who grew up in Colorado.

2020 Mountain West Conference

Preseason Poll: The Mountain West Conference announced the results of its 2020 Preseason Media Poll and the Wyoming Cowboys were picked to finish second in the Mountain Division by conference media members. The Cowboys received a total of 90 points, including one first-place vote. It is the second time in the last three seasons and the second time in the history of the Mountain West that the Cowboys have been picked to finish second or higher -- the other time was 2018 when UW was also selected to finish second.

Boise State is the preseason pick of conference media members to win the Mountain Division. The Broncos received 20 of the 21 first-place votes, with the Cowboys receiving the other first-place vote. Air Force came in third, followed by Utah State in fourth, Colorado State in fifth and New Mexico in sixth.

In the West Division, San Diego State received 19 of 21 first-place votes to garner top honors. Nevada received the other two first-place votes to finish second. Hawai'i came in third, with Fresno State in fourth, San Jose State in fifth and UNLV in sixth.

Sophomore Linebacker Charles Hicks Named Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week vs. Hawai'i:

University of Wyoming sophomore linebacker Charles Hicks has been named the Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Week for his performance in Wyoming's 31-7 home victory over Hawai'i last Friday.

Hicks was part of a Cowboy defense that held Hawai'i to only 233 yards of total offense, including 123 rushing yards and 110 passing yards.

With the Wyoming Cowboys leading 17-7 in the fourth quarter and Hawai'i driving, Hicks intercepted a pass and returned it 47 yards to the UH 17-yard line, setting up a Cowboy touchdown four plays later to give UW a 24-7 lead with 8:19 remaining in the game. Hicks also had 2.0 sacks and 2.0 tackles for loss against the Rainbow Warriors. He ended the night with 4 total tackles (3 solos and 1 assist).

This is Hicks first MW Defensive Player of the Week award of his career, and is the first Defensive Player of the Week for the Cowboys this season.

Freshman Place-kicker John Hoyland Named Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Week vs. Nevada:

Wyoming true freshman place-kicker John Hoyland was honored as the MW Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance in the first college game of his career at Nevada on Oct. 24, 2020.

Hoyland was a perfect 4 for 4 in field goals and 2 for 2 in PATs at Nevada. Hoyland connected from 27 and 36 yards in the first half to keep the game a one score game (14-6) at halftime. His third field goal came with only 23 seconds remaining in the game. He came in the game in the pressure-packed situation and converted from 42 yards out to tie the game at 31-31. The fourth field goal attempt for the freshman came in the first overtime from 38 yards to give Wyoming its first lead of the game at 34-31.

Xazavian Valladay and Keegan Cryder Selected to 2020 Mountain West

Preseason All-Conference Team: University of Wyoming juniors Xazavian Valladay and Keegan Cryder were named to the 2020 Mountain West Preseason All-Conference Football Team. The All-Conference team was selected by media members covering the Mountain West.

Valladay ended his sophomore season of 2019 being named to the All-Mountain West First Team as a running back in voting by conference head coaches and media. Cryder was named to the 2019 All-Mountain West Second Team as a center by the conference coaches and media. The two helped lead the Cowboys to an 8-5 record in 2019 and a 38-17 win over Georgia State in the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

Wyoming is one of six Mountain West schools -- out of 12 conference institutions -- to have at least two players on this year's Preseason All-Mountain West team.

Valladay is coming off a 2019 season in which he rushed for 1,265 yards to lead the Mountain West. He ranked 18th in the nation in rushing yards per game (105.4). The native of Matteson, Ill., also led the MW in all-purpose yards and ranked No. 26 in the nation, averaging 124.08 yards per game.

His 204-yard performance in Wyoming's 38-17 Arizona Bowl victory earned Valladay a spot on the 2019 Associated Press All-Bowl Team. He also caught three passes for 91 yards in the bowl game and scored one touchdown rushing and one receiving while accounting for 295 all-purpose yards. Valladay was one of only three running backs in the nation named to the team, joining Penn State's Journey Brown and Florida's Lamical Perine.

During the 2019 regular season, Cryder played 769 total snaps and led Wyoming with over 100 knockdown blocks. He allowed only 1.0 sack for the entire 2019 season, and he was also called for only one penalty. He was a key to the Wyoming offense ranking No. 2 in the MW and No. 23 in the NCAA in rushing offense, averaging 214.8 rushing yards per game as a team. Cryder helped Wyoming rank No. 4 in the Mountain West and No. 32 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed (1.62 per game).

Cryder and his offensive line teammates paved the way for four different Cowboys to record a total of 12, 100-yard rushing games in 2019. The Wyoming offensive line unit was one of only two Mountain West O-Lines and one of only 24 nationally to be named to the Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll for 2019.

Logan Wilson and Cassh Maluia

Drafted in 2020 NFL Draft: University of Wyoming senior linebackers Logan Wilson and Cassh Maluia were both selected in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Wilson was selected as the first pick in the third round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. Wilson became the 10th highest overall NFL Draft pick by a Wyoming Cowboy in school history. He also became the highest NFL Draft pick of a Wyoming Cowboy who also was a native of the state of Wyoming. The previous highest selection in the NFL Draft of a Wyoming native, who also played for the Cowboys, was running back Jerry Hill back in 1961, when he was the seventh selection in the third round by the Baltimore Colts. Hill was a native of Lingle, Wyo.

Wilson's senior season he became recognized as one of the nation's top linebackers. He was selected as one of six national finalists for the 2019 Butkus Award. He earned First Team All-America honors from Pro Football Focus, Second Team All-American from USA Today and Third Team All-American from Associated Press.

Maluia was the 25th pick in the sixth round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots. He joined his linebacker running mate Wilson as a 2020 NFL Draft pick. It is the first time since 2017 that Wyoming had two players selected in the same NFL Draft. In 2017, Wyoming running back Brian Hill was selected by the Atlanta Falcons and offensive lineman Chase Roullier was selected by the Washington Redskins. The last time Wyoming had two players taken in the same NFL Draft at the same position was the 1989 NFL Draft when Wyoming defensive linemen Dave Edeen and Pat Rabold were selected by the Phoenix Cardinals and Buffalo Bills, respectively.

Maluia was a 2019 Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference selection.

Maxwell Award Names Kazavian Valladay to Preseason Watch List, Maxwell Award Presented to Most Outstanding Player in College Football:

The Maxwell Football Club announced on July 24 its 2020 watch list for the 84th Maxwell Award presented annually to the most outstanding player in college football. Among the players named to the watch list was University of Wyoming junior running back Kazavian Valladay.

Since 1937, the Maxwell Award has been presented to the College Player of the Year. It is named in honor of Robert "Tiny" Maxwell, a former standout at Swarthmore College who went on to become a well-known sportswriter and football official.

Valladay is coming off a 2019 season in which he rushed for 1,265 yards to lead the Mountain West. He ranked 18th in the nation in rushing yards per game (105.4). The native of Matteson, Ill., also led the MW in all-purpose yards and ranked No. 26 in the nation, averaging 124.08 yards per game. Valladay was a First Team All-MW honoree as a sophomore as selected by MW head coaches and media.

He rushed for 100 or more yards seven times in the 12 games he played in 2019, and he rushed for over 200 yards twice. His best games were 206 rushing yards vs. Nevada and 204 against Georgia State in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. His 204-yard performance in Wyoming's 38-17 Arizona Bowl victory earned Valladay a spot on the 2019 Associated Press All-Bowl Team. Valladay was one of only three running backs in the nation named to the AP All-Bowl Team, joining Penn State's Journey Brown and Florida's Lamical Perine.

The winner of the 2020 Maxwell Award will be announced as part of the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show on Dec. 10, 2020. The formal presentation of the Maxwell Award will be made at the Maxwell Football Club Awards Gala hosted by Tropicana Hotel & Casino in Atlantic City, N.J., on March 12, 2021.

Kazavian Valladay Selected to Doak Walker Award Preseason Watch List, Award is Presented to the Nation's Top College Running Back:

Wyoming junior running back Kazavian Valladay was named to the prestigious Doak Walker Award Preseason Watch List by the PwC SMU Athletic Forum on July 15, 2020. The Forum annually presents the award to the nation's top college running back.

The PwC SMU Athletic Forum Board of Directors will name ten semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award in November. Three finalists, as voted on by the Doak Walker Award National Selection Committee, will be announced later in November. The committee will cast a second vote in December to determine the recipient. The National Selection Committee consists of past recipients, former NFL All-Pro and college All-America running backs, media members and selected special representatives.

The recipient of the 2020 Doak Walker Award will be announced live on The Home Depot College Football Awards Show. The award is named for SMU's three-time All-America running back Doak Walker.

Keegan Cryder Named to Outland Trophy Preseason Watch List, Trophy

Honors Nation's Most Outstanding College Interior Lineman: Wyoming junior center Keegan Cryder was recognized as one of the top returning interior linemen in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) on July 21, 2010 as the FWAA announced its 2020 Outland Trophy Watch List. The Outland Trophy is presented annually to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman. This is the 75th Anniversary season of the Outland Trophy.

During the 2019 regular season, Cryder was a key to the Wyoming offense ranking No. 2 in the MW and No. 23 in the NCAA in rushing offense, averaging 214.8 rushing yards per game as a team. Cryder helped Wyoming rank No. 4 in the Mountain West and No. 32 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed (1.62 per game).

The Wyoming offensive line unit was one of only two Mountain West O-Lines and one of only 24 nationally to be named to the Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll for 2019.

Only interior linemen on offense (centers, guards and tackles) and defense (tackles and nose tackles) are eligible for the Outland Trophy. The award is named for the late John Outland, an All-America lineman at Penn at the turn of the 20th century. The recipient of the 75th Outland Trophy will be announced in early December. The official presentation to the winner will be made in Omaha, Neb., at the Outland Trophy Awards Dinner sponsored by Werner Enterprises and produced by the Greater Omaha Sports Committee on Jan. 13, 2021.

The junior from Littleton, Colo., earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors from MW head coaches and media as a sophomore in 2019. In 2018, he was named a First Team Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

The Rimington Trophy is presented annually to the most outstanding center in NCAA Division I College Football. Dave Rimington, the award's namesake, was a Consensus First Team All-America center at the University of Nebraska in 1981 and 1982, during which time he became the John Outland Trophy's only two-time winner as the nation's finest college interior lineman.

2020 Will Mark the 124th Season of Wyoming Football:

The 2020 season will mark the 124th season of Wyoming Football. The Cowboys first season was 1893.

Since that first season, there have been only four seasons in which Wyoming has not played football. In 1918, Wyoming had a team but they played no games due to an influenza epidemic. The other three seasons Wyoming did not field a team were 1943, '44 and '45 during World War II.

Wyoming Football's All-Time Record:

The Wyoming Cowboy Football program has played a total of 1,151 games in its history. Wyoming is 37 games under .500 all-time (543 wins to 580 losses), and has played 48 more road games than home games in its history (542 home games to 590 road games). The Cowboys played their 1,000th game on Sept. 6, 2008, against Air Force.

War Memorial Stadium Will Host Its 71st Season in 2020:

The 2020 college football season will be the 71st season of War Memorial Stadium

Wyoming has won 66.0 percent of its games in War Memorial Stadium.

"The War" first opened on Sept. 16, 1950, with UW recording a 61-13 win over Montana State. War Memorial's original capacity was 20,000 in 1950. It was expanded to 25,500 in 1970, and the seating was increased to a capacity of 33,500 in 1977.

Following reconstruction of the upper deck on the West side of War Memorial Stadium in the summer of 2004, the new capacity of War Memorial Stadium was 30,514. With the construction of the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites in 2009-10, the current capacity is 29,181.

Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center Benefitting All UW Student-Athletes:

The University of Wyoming held a Grand Opening for the Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center (HAPC) on Aug. 18, 2018. The HAPC is one of the preeminent athletic facilities in the country. It will add 71,000 square feet of new space and will expand the current Curtis and Marian Rochelle

"A successful athletics program generates excitement," Wyoming Gov. Matt Mead said in when fundraising was announced. "This leads to better student recruitment, better alumni support and stronger schools. I recommended $20 million in matching funds for the expansion and renovation of the Rochelle Athletics Center for these reasons. I thank Marian H. Rochelle for this generous gift and her continued support of the University of Wyoming."

The project is funded by $24 million in private donations that were raised by UW Athletics and the UW Foundation and $20 million in state matching approved by Gov. Mead and the Legislature. Overwhelming interest by donors—55 total—saw the fundraising efforts completed ahead of schedule. Marian Rochelle and her family donated $3 million as a leadership gift to kick off the project, and the combined gifts of Marian Rochelle and her daughter April Brimmer Kunz have since grown to $4.1 million.

"Mick and Susie McMurry's generosity and their commitment to making the University of Wyoming a premier university in both athletics and academics will be symbolized by the High Altitude Performance Center that will bear their name," says Tom Burman, UW athletics director. "We also want to thank Marian Rochelle and April Brimmer Kunz for their generous lead gift for this project. And we of course want to thank Governor Mead and the members of the Wyoming State Legislature for making funds available to match the private funds that we raised for this facility."

"The High Altitude Performance Center will be one of the best facilities of its kind in all of college athletics. It will provide the student-athletes in all of our sports the athletic training resources to compete with the best in the nation, and it will provide our academic counseling unit exceptional resources to help our student-athletes achieve their educational and career goals."

"The Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center will redefine Cowboy football," says UW Head Football Coach Craig Bohl. "This facility will play a critical role in our vision of recruiting to what we call the Wyoming Profile. That recruiting effort involves attracting a young man who is committed to earning a meaningful degree from an outstanding academic institution and has a laser-like focus to win Mountain West Conference championships. The High Altitude Performance Center will put us at the top of the league in terms of training and academic facilities, which is where we also aspire to be on the field of competition."

The new facility will focus on the unique advantages of training at an altitude of 7,220 feet. From strength and conditioning training, to nutrition, to recovery and rehabilitation services following injuries, the HAPC will serve the needs of all of Wyoming's 400-plus student-athletes.

The facility's design will stay true to the architectural tradition of iconic sandstone buildings featured throughout the UW campus.

Located just beyond the north end zone, the High Altitude Performance Center will enhance the aesthetics of War Memorial Stadium. Due to its location, the HAPC will be highly visible for national television audiences. It will show the commitment that the state of Wyoming has in ensuring Wyoming Athletics continues to successfully compete at the NCAA Division I level -- the highest level of competition in college sports.

The ground level of the HAPC will house both an Olympic sport weight-training area and a separate strength and conditioning center for the Cowboy football team that will overlook Jonah Field. Also on the first floor will be a sports medicine area that will nearly double the size of its previous space, allowing for more effective and efficient treatment of UW student-athletes. The football locker room, like the football strength and conditioning area, will overlook the field and will include a player lounge.

The second floor will include an expansive academic center to house academic counselors, tutoring areas and a computer lab, as well as enhanced and renovated football offices, meeting rooms, a new recruiting lounge and the nutrition center/training table. The theater-style team meeting room will span both the first and second floors.

Construction on the project will begin after the conclusion of the 2016 Cowboy football season. It is estimated that the project will take 18-20 months to complete.

The original Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center was opened in 2001 at a total cost of $9.4 million. Fundraising for the RAC included a historic $4.2 million gift from the Rochelles, which was the largest donation in school history at the time. A total of 167 donors contributed to the original RAC.

The 2020 season will mark Craig Bohl's seventh season leading the University of Wyoming Football program and his 18th season as a head coach at the collegiate level. The success that Cowboy Football has enjoyed and the excitement generated around the program under Bohl's direction is just what UW Athletics Director Tom Burman had hoped for when he hired Bohl.

In terms of success, the Cowboys have become regular contenders in the race for the Mountain West Conference title. UW won eight games in 2016, '17 and '19, hosted the 2016 Mountain West Championship Game, earned three bowl bids in four years and won the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl and 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. In addition in the 2018 season, the Cowboys earned bowl eligibility. The last time that UW had achieved bowl eligibility in four consecutive seasons were the 1996-99 seasons. Wyoming also had two players, linebackers Logan Wilson and Cassh Maluia, selected in the 2020 NFL Draft, marking the fourth consecutive year that Wyoming has had at least one player selected in the NFL Draft and the fifth year out of the past six NFL Drafts that the Pokes have had a player drafted.

The excitement surrounding Wyoming Football included the extensive coverage of former Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen, who was selected as the No. 7 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. That marked the highest selection by a Wyoming Cowboy in the history of the program and was the second highest selection by a Mountain West player since Utah's Alex Smith was selected No. 1 in 2005. Leading up to Allen being drafted, Wyoming's Pro Day was covered live by both ESPN and the NFL Network. At the conclusion of the 2017 football season and the 2018 NFL Draft, media coverage of Wyoming Football for the past year was estimated by Joyce

Julius & Associates at over $159 million.

Cowboy linebacker Logan Wilson was one of six national finalists for the 2019 Butkus Award, honoring the nation's top collegiate linebacker. Wilson earned multiple All-America honors, including being named a First Team All-American by Pro Football Focus. In 2018, Wyoming had two finalists for national awards for the first time in program history. Place-kicker Cooper Rothe was one of three national finalists for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award, that honors the nation's top collegiate place-kicker each year. Free safety Marcus Epps was one of only three national finalists for the Burlsworth Trophy, which is awarded to the most outstanding football player in America who began his career as a walk-on. Epps went on to be drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in the sixth round of the 2019 NFL Draft. For the third and fourth times in Bohl's tenure as Wyoming's head coach he had a freshman earn Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). Cowboy center Keegan Cryder earned the honor in 2018. UW defensive end Solomon Byrd earned the honor in 2019.

When Bohl was hired as head football coach at Wyoming, he was open in saying that he wanted to bring Cowboy Football back to a place of national prominence.

The Cowboy defense ranked No. 11 in the nation in scoring defense and No. 11 in rushing defense in 2019. Wyoming's defense also was No. 6 in the country in red-zone defense and scored three defensive touchdowns to rank No. 12 in the FBS. The UW offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in passing yards per completion, were No. 23 in the country in rushing offense and No. 32 in third-down conversions. That combination of offensive and defensive balance led to an 8-5 record and a victory in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

Wyoming was also one of the best defensive teams in the nation in 2018. The Cowboys ranked No. 19 in the nation in total defense, No. 25 in rushing defense, No. 28 in scoring defense and No. 32 in pass defense.

The 2017 season saw the Cowboys post an 8-5 record and finish second in the MW Mountain Division. The Pokes were led by their defense in 2017, ranking No. 1 in the nation in forcing turnovers (38) and leading the Mountain West and ranking No. 9 in the nation in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.5 points per game. Wyoming's defense also ranked No. 1 in fumbles recovered (18), No. 2 in interceptions (20), No. 8 in defensive touchdowns scored, 13th in the NCAA in pass defense, and 23rd in total defense. UW placed second in the Mountain Division and captured the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl in a convincing 37-14 win over Central Michigan.

In 2016, Bohl's team defeated two Top 25 ranked opponents, was named the National Team of the Week by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) for one of those wins and received votes itself in the national polls. Wyoming also captured the Mountain Division title of the Mountain West Conference, earned the right to host the 2016 MW Football Championship Game as the highest ranked team in the conference and was invited to the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. His Cowboys ended the year with an 8-6 record and featured one of the NCAA's top scoring offenses, averaging 35.9 points per game to rank No. 25 in the nation. Bohl was recognized for his turnaround of Cowboy Football by being named the 2016 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year in voting by conference head coaches and media.

Two Cowboys earned All-America honors in 2016 in running back Brian Hill and center Chase Roullier. Linebacker Logan Wilson earned Freshman All-America honors in 2016, joining Andrew Wingard, who earned Freshman All-America honors a year earlier.

Bohl currently serves on the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Board of Trustees, having been elected by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention. He was also appointed to the 13-member NCAA Division I Football Competition Committee in January of 2017. He became a member of the NCAA Football Oversight Committee in August 2020.

Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

Not only did Bohl win three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2020 season will be Bohl's 40th year coaching at the college level. Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 62 years old when the 2020 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

About New Mexico: The Lobos head into the game with an 0-5 overall record after falling to Utah State on the road on Thursday by a score of 41-27. The Lobos have played in either Las Vegas or on the road this season.

New Mexico is allowing 34.6 points per game, while the Lobos are scoring 20.2 points per contest. Offensively, the Lobos average 389.2 yards of total offense rushing for 169.6 yards per game and passing for 219.6 yards per contest. The Lobos allowing 469.6 yards of total offense per game with opponents passing for 208 yards per game and rushing for 161.6 yards.

The Lobo offense is paced by quarterback Trae Hall. He throws for 129.5 yards per game and rushes for 25.5 yards per contest. Running back Bobby Cole rushes for 55.8 yards per game for the season. He leads the team with three touchdowns. Andrew Erickson leads the team with 250 yards receiving. He also has two touchdowns for the season.

The Lobo defense is led by linebacker Brandon Shook with 45 tackles for nine per game. He also has 1.5 tackles for loss on the season. Safety Tavian Combs has 35 tackles for the season. Defensive lineman Joey Noble leads the team with two sacks for the season.

Kicker George Steinkamp is 6-of-11 for the season with a long of 49 yards. Punter Tyson Dyer averages 42 yards per kick this season.

Head Coach Danny Gonzales: Danny Gonzales, a native of Albuquerque is in his first season as head coach at his alma-mater. The new Lobo head coach is certainly familiar with UNM, as a player, staff member and as a Lobo assistant coach, as well as through his time coaching against UNM. He joined his mentor and former coach Rocky Long as Lobo football players returning to coach their alma mater.

Gonzales came to UNM after spending the past two seasons at Arizona State as defensive coordinator, and the previous seven before that as safeties coach and defensive coordinator at San Diego State. In 2018, he was a nominee for the Broyles Award, given to the most outstanding assistant coach in college football.

Gonzales lettered three times with the Lobos and was the 1998 winner of the Chuck Cummings Memorial Award, which is given for morale and spirit, and was the Lobo Club First Team Award winner for unselfish devotion to the team. At UNM, Gonzales played under Dennis Franchione and the aforementioned Long. Gonzales was a part of UNM's 1997 WAC division championship team that went 9-4 and played in the 1997 Insight.com Bowl against Arizona.

After his playing career, he served as a graduate assistant for Long, helping UNM start a school-record seven consecutive bowl eligible seasons from 2001-07. In 2003, Gonzales moved over a few offices to become video coordinator, a role he held from 2003-05. From 2006-08, he coached safeties and special teams.

Pokes' Overtime History: Wyoming has played 17 overtime games in its history. The most recent overtime game the Cowboys played was Oct. 24, 2020. The Cowboys lost at Nevada in that game by a score of 34-37 in a single overtime. Wyoming has played four overtime games at home in War Memorial Stadium. Two of Wyoming's 17 overtime games have been played on neutral sites. The other 11 overtime games have been played on the road.

RECAP: Saturday's season opener for the Wyoming Cowboys was an emotional one. On the third play of the game, Wyoming starting quarterback and team captain Sean Chambers suffered an ankle injury that required him to be carted off the field. But after suffering that dramatic loss of their QB, the Cowboys showed incredible heart as they fought back from a 22-point deficit (28-6) with 3:47 remaining in the third quarter to force overtime before falling 37-34 in the first overtime to the Wolf Pack.

The Cowboy defense kept Wyoming in the game in the first half, forcing two Nevada turnovers and making a dramatic goal-line stand. At halftime, UW trailed by only eight points at 14-6. Nevada would come out in the third quarter and score touchdowns on back-to-back drives to take their largest lead at 28-6 late in the third. But from that point forward the Pokes took charge and fought back to tie the game 28-28 at the 8:30 mark of the fourth quarter. Nevada retook the lead at 31-28 with 3:26 remaining in the game, but the Cowboys would drive 74 yards in 11 plays on their final drive of the fourth quarter and true freshman place-kicker John Hoyland would make a 42-yard field goal with 23 seconds remaining in regulation to tie the game at 31-31 and force overtime.

In the first overtime, Wyoming could not convert a first down and Hoyland would come in to kick a 38-yard field goal, his fourth of the game, to give Wyoming its first lead of the game at 34-31. But Nevada quarterback Carson Strong would find wide receiver Romeo Doubs on a nine-yard touchdown pass to win the game 37-31.

After the game, Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl had this to say about the hard-fought game, including commenting about the difficult week faced by Nevada head coach Jay Norvell, whose father Merritt Norvell passed away earlier this week. "First of all I want to give credit to Nevada," said Bohl. "I know Coach (Jay) Norvell has gone through a lot this week. I knew his father. I'm sure his team rallied around Coach Norvell. I thought they (Nevada) played well.

"We got off to a slow start and there are certainly things we need to work on in all three phases of the game. The desire is there but the execution needs to improve. We have a lot to play for this year, and we play a good Hawai'i team in Laramie this next week.

"Football is a game of momentum. Our guys believed. They didn't panic. They played with poise, and the momentum started to swing our way. I can't say enough about our freshman kicker (John Hoyland). I thought he was unbelievable. There are a lot of good things, but there are things we have to work on."

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys came out of the gate fast on Friday night in their 2020 home opener versus the Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors. Wyoming's dynamic rushing attack and swarming defense resulted in the Cowboys recording a 31-7 win over the Rainbow Warriors in the 25th meeting between the two teams. Both teams are now 1-1 on the season. It was the ninth consecutive home win for Wyoming. The Cowboys have a record of 21-6 (.778) in home games since the beginning of the 2016 season.

Cowboy junior running back Xazavian Valladay notched his ninth career 100-yard rushing game and first of the 2020 season. He ended the game with 163 rushing yards on 32 carries. Valladay also caught two passes for 32 yards to end the night with 195 all-purpose yards. The other Cowboy running back who had an outstanding game was graduate transfer Trey Smith, who ran for 89 yards on 20 carries. Both Valladay and Smith each scored two rushing touchdowns.

As a team, the Cowboys ran for 281 yards and had 112 yards passing for 393 yards of total offense. Wyoming's defense held Hawai'i to 233 yards of total offense -- 123 rushing yards and 110 passing.

The defense also forced two turnovers on the night. Junior linebacker Chad Muma recovered a fumble that led to a Cowboy field goal, giving Wyoming a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. Sophomore linebacker Charles Hicks intercepted a pass in the fourth quarter and returned it 47 yards to set up a Wyoming touchdown that extended the Pokes' lead to 24-7.

A total of 6,232 fans attended Friday's game. Wyoming improved its record against Hawai'i to 15 wins and 10 losses. It was the 24th time that the two schools played for the Paniolo Trophy. UW holds the advantage in that portion of the series 15 to nine. The overall series dates back to 1978.

Following the game, Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl shared his thought on the game with media over a Zoom press conference.

"Trey (Smith) really ran hard tonight and made some excellent runs. X (Xazavian Valladay) has a unique ability to put his foot in the ground, be allusive and he has great balance," said Bohl. "To have a one-two punch like that really makes a big, big difference.

"This is one of our trademarks, if we can handle the line of scrimmage, run the football and play good defense that is a winning formula."

Asked what he saw from his team's pass defense on Friday vs. Hawai'i that was different from the defense's performance the week before against Nevada, Bohl responded, "I think we challenged the receivers more tonight. Last week, I thought we were a little bit passive. We were also able to eliminate a lot of their (Hawai'i's) primary runs and that allowed us to get into some different looks and pressure the quarterback. It was a combination of our coverage and our four-man rush."

Bohl was asked if the Charles Hicks' interception felt like a turning point in the game, Bohl said, "I felt like if we could score on that drive it would change the complexion of the game, and it certainly did."

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys came into Thursday night's 112th Edition of the "Border War" looking for their fifth consecutive victory in the series. But a pair of first-quarter turnovers that were converted into 14 points by Colorado State was a deficit that UW could never overcome on way to a 34-24 loss to the Rams in Fort Collins.

There were many outstanding individual performances on the night for the Cowboys, unfortunately they weren't enough to balance out not only the turnovers but also an uncharacteristic eight penalties for 83 yards by Wyoming -- several of them coming at critical times to stop drives. Wyoming entered the game ranked No. 4 in the nation in fewest penalty yards per game at 26.5 yards per game the first two weeks of the season, but had 83 yards in penalties on Thursday night.

Cowboy head coach Craig Bohl acknowledged that the early turnovers and penalties had a big impact on the game, while also giving credit to the way CSU played.

"Colorado State came out with a hard edge and they executed well," said Bohl. "I think we did some things that were uncharacteristic of us. Typically, we've been ahead on the turnover margin and that didn't occur tonight. And I thought we had way more penalties than we normally do."

"When you play a rivalry game you need to be on point and we weren't. We are going to have to take a hard look at our preparation. We have to take ownership of our performance and have some hard conversations about where we're at and how we respond."

Asked how difficult it was to face the early deficit the Cowboys found themselves in, Bohl said, "I was concerned during that early part of the game that the deficit could grow to where it would have been insurmountable, but I thought our guys rallied and kept us in the game. But it seemed like everytime we rallied back they (CSU) answered."

Wyoming junior running back Xazavian Valladay recorded his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game of the season and 10th of his career, rushing for 147 yards on the night. He also surpassed the 2,000-yard career rushing plateau, becoming only the 12th Cowboy in history to accomplish that feat. He now has 2,071 career rushing yards to rank 12th in school history.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Levi Williams also had a career best day passing, completing 19 of 31 passes (.612) for 321 yards. It was his first 300-yard passing game, but Williams was involved in both first quarter turnovers -- one an interception that CSU returned for a pick six and the other a fumble that later led to a touchdown.

Senior wide receiver Ayden Eberhardt was the other Cowboy who had a career best night. Eberhardt caught a career high seven passes for a career best 132 yards. It was the first 100-yard receiving game of Eberhardt's career.

Defensively, Wyoming junior middle linebacker Chad Muma led all defenders in the game with a career high 17 tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss. Senior safety Esaia Gandy recorded nine tackles, including 1.0 sack and 2.5 tackles for loss, which were career highs.

RECAP: The Cowboys (2-2 over, 2-2 MW) rushed for 399 yards in a 45-14 road win over UNLV (0-5 overall, 0-5 MW) on Friday afternoon in Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas. It was the most rushing yards in a game since rushing for 424 yards against San Jose State on Nov. 3, 2018. Wyoming scored six touchdowns on the ground in the contest.

"We talked at halftime about our execution and UNLV good players and we had to make them work hard," UW head coach Craig Bohl. "We reestablished the momentum on the fourth down play and went down and scored and that got thing rolling for us. Our point of attack on the defensive and offensive line were well up to par."

Senior Trey Smith rushed for a career-high 156 yards with one touchdown. He recorded 6.8 yards per carry for the game with a long of 28 yards. Junior Xazavian Valladay added 94 yards and a touchdown from 78 yards a career high. He left the game in the first quarter.

"Our offensive line did a great job of opening up holes," Bohl said. "Trey (Smith) kept his feet moving and made some great runs, it was very heartwarming to see him out there and execute at such a high level."

Freshman quarterback Levi Williams had three rushing touchdowns for the most in a game by a Cowboy since Brian Hill had three against New Mexico on Nov. 26, 2016. He rushed for 44 yards and passed for 99 yards. The Wyoming offense averaged seven yards per play and held onto the ball for over 35 minutes. Wyoming finished the game with 498 yards of total offense for a season-high.

The Pokes defense was stingy all night allowing only 290 yards. Wyoming recorded two turnovers and turned those into points. Wyoming recorded five sacks in the contest. Junior linebacker Chad Muma had three sacks in the game for the most in a contest since Carl Granderson had three against Boise State in 2017. Senior defensive end Garrett Crall made his return and added and sack and two tackles for loss.

"To have two veterans back out there in Garrett Crall and Logan Harris it adds stability and leadership," Bohl said. "Their presence sent steadiness to some of our younger players."

"We knew that UNLV had some weakness and the blitzes our coaches dialed up really allowed Chad (Muma) to make plays. "It is encouraging to see the development from our coaches with our defensive line."
