KAYLA ARD – HEAD COACH

Southeastern Louisiana University, '10
First Year
Utah State Record: 4-17
Career Record: 4-17

Kayla Ard (rhymes with hard) has been named Utah State University's ninth head women's basketball coach in its 32 seasons after being hired on March 23, 2020.

Ard brings 10 years of collegiate experience with her to Utah State, serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Denver, Dayton, Clemson, Troy and Pensacola State. In all, she has coached one WNBA draft pick and 17 players that have played professionally overseas.

Known for her strong recruiting, Ard immediately made her mark at Denver as the Pioneers signed the top-ranked recruiting class in the Summit League in her first season, according to ASGR Basketball. Ard also helped Dayton sign the 19th ranked recruiting class in the nation in 2016, according to ESPN. While at Clemson, the Tigers signed six of the top 43 recruits in the nation at their position, per ESPN. During her time at Troy, the Trojans signed four NJCAA All-Americans and five of the top 31 recruits in the nation at their position, per ESPN. And at Pensacola State, Ard helped recruit and coach eight All-Americans.

Ard comes to Utah State after spending the past three seasons as the associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and offensive coordinator at the University of Denver under Jim Turgeon, as she helped the Pioneers to three-straight non-losing seasons with a 49-43 (.533) overall record and a 26-20 (.565) mark in the Summit League. Prior to Ard's arrival at DU, the Pioneers had suffered through five-straight losing seasons, which included single-digit wins in each of their previous four years.

During the 2019-20 season, Ard spent the last 11 games as the team's interim head coach, leading the Pioneers to a 7-4 record and a third-seed in the Summit League Championships. As interim head coach, Ard led DU to its first road win of the season with a 91-81 win at North Dakota and six straight wins to end the regular season, which included a 72-62 victory at South Dakota State, a program that advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament a year ago. That six-game winning streak for Denver was its longest in eight years, while its win at SDSU was its first since 2015.

Denver finished the 2019-20 season by setting a school record with a free throw percentage of 77.1, while posting the fourth-highest scoring average in program history at 77.6 points per game. In fact, its 2,328 points this past season are the second-most in school history as the Pioneers went 15-15 overall, including a 9-7 record in league play.

Individually, Ard helped Madison Nelson earn first-team all-Summit League honors as she set program records for single-season points (592), rebounds (343) and scoring average (19.7). Nelson also became the first player in Denver's Division I era to average a double-double with 19.7 points and 11.4 rebounds per game.

Ard also mentored Lauren Loven to second-team all-Summit League honors this past season as she finished her career second in conference history with 341 made 3-pointers and 832 3-point attempts, and eighth all-time in scoring with 1,453 points.

In Ard's third and final season at Denver, the Pioneers finished third in the nation in free throws made (504), 14th in free throw attempts (654), 18th in scoring offense (77.6) and 19th in free throw percentage (77.1). In league play, DU was first in free throw percentage (77.1), first in free throws made (504), first in total rebounds (1,264), first in rebounds per game (42.1), second in scoring offense (77.6), second in steals per game (9.3), second in free throw attempts (654), third in 3-pointers made per game (7.2) and third in 3-point percentage (33.7).

During the 2018-19 season, Denver posted an 18-14 overall record and a 10-6 mark in the Summit League, its most overall and league wins in seven seasons. DU also advanced to the Women's National Invitation Tournament for the second time in school history and secured its first-ever postseason win with an 83-75 victory at New Mexico in the opening round.

The Pioneers' offense produced at historic levels throughout the year, resulting in the best offensive numbers in the program's Division I era. DU's 80.3 scoring average not only was the best in school history, but ranked 11th in all of Division I that season. The Pioneers were especially deadly from beyond the arc, ranking third in the country in 3-point percentage (38.6 percent), third in 3-pointers made per game (9.3) and 17th in total 3-pointers made (297). Those 297 treys made also set a school record. Defensively, Denver also ranked 19th in the nation in blocked shots with 161.

Ard helped pioneer the new-age offense by continuing to develop Nelson, Loven and Samantha Romanowski into all-league selections. Nelson, a second-team honoree, finished third in the league in scoring (16.3 points per game) and first in rebounding average (8.9). Loven, an honorable-mention pick, finished seventh in all of the NCAA in 3-pointers made with 111 and led the Summit League in 3-point shooting percentage at 44.4 percent, also good for eighth in the country. Romanowski also earned honorable mention honors after taking on the point-guard duties, finishing 11th in the country in assists per game with a 6.0 average.

During her first season at Denver, Ard helped the Crimson and Gold to a 16-14 record, which was a 10-win improvement from the previous season and its first winning record in six years. That 10-win improvement tied for the highest turnaround by a first-year staff in the country that season.

In her first season with the Pioneers, Ard successfully implemented a fast-pace offense that saw DU finish the season ranked 27th in 3-pointers made per game (8.5), 40th in 3-point field-goals made (256), 48th in 3-point field-goal percentage (.359) and 72nd in scoring offense (70.6 ppg).

Individually, Claire Gritt earned Summit League Freshman of the Year honors, along with being named to the Newcomer Team and honorable mention team, along with Jordyn Alt.

Prior to her role at Denver, Ard spent two seasons at the University of Dayton, where she served as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. While at Dayton, Ard coached a class that was ranked in the top 20 in the nation in 2015 and also worked with the 2015 A-10 Rookie of the Year.

Prior to her time at Dayton, Ard was an assistant coach at Clemson for two years, helping guide the team to compete in the always-tough Atlantic Coast Conference.

Ard also coached at Troy under Chanda Rigby, whom she followed from Pensacola State before the 2012-13 season. Ard was instrumental in putting together Troy's eight-member 2013 signing class, which included three National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) All-Americans.

Ard was a standout recruiter and assistant coach at Pensacola State College in Florida during the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons, helping the Pirates earn back-to-back appearances in the NJCAA National Semifinals.

As recruiting coordinator at Pensacola State, Ard signed three WBCA All-Americans and coached the players to 13 all-conference honors. Her players moved on to earn scholarships in the Big East, SEC, Pac-12 and Colonial Athletic Conference.

A native of Hammond, La., Ard was highly recruited out of Loranger High School after averaging over 26.0 points a game, earning all-district honors three consecutive years and leading her team to three final four appearances, including a state championship in 2000 under the direction of Rigby.

Ard's collegiate career began on the junior college level at Chipola (Fla.) Junior College. After playing one season there, she transferred to Southeastern Louisiana where she played from 2004-06, including an all-Southland Conference selection in 2005.

Ard graduated from Southeastern Louisiana University in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in general studies. She then earned her master's degree in psychology from the University of Phoenix in 2013.

SCOUTING THE WOLF PACK

Utah State leads the all-time series, 19-13, including an 6-8 record in Reno. In 2019-20, the teams only met once, as Nevada won in Reno, 69-60. The Wolf Pack finished the 2019-20 campaign with a 15-16 overall mark, and a 7-11 record in league play to finish tied for seventh in the MW.

This season the Wolf Pack are averaging 64.2 points per game while shooting 37.8 percent (407-of-1076) from the field and 25.8 percent (68-of-264) from behind the 3-point line, as well as 76.8 percent (209-of-272) at the free throw line. Junior guard Da'Ja Hamilton leads Nevada's scorers, averaging 15.1 points per game, while also leading the squad with 48 assists. Junior forward Megan Ormiston leads the team with 5.6 rebounds per contest.

Defensively, the Wolf Pack have allowed 65.7 points per game, with opponents shooting 41.7 percent (416-of-998) from the field, 29.9 percent (96-of-321) from behind the arc and 72.1 percent (189-of-262) at the free throw line. Freshman guard Kenna Holt leads the team in steals with 25, while junior guard Amaya West leads the squad with 11 blocks.

SCOUTING THE LOBOS

New Mexico leads the all-time series, 20-6, including an 9-4 record in Logan. In 2019-20, the teams met just once, as New Mexico won in Logan, 54-52. The Lobos finished the 2019-20 campaign with a 15-17 overall mark, and a 6-12 record in league play to finish tied for ninth in the MW.

This season the Lobos are averaging 82.4 points per game while shooting 45.8 percent (388-of-848) from the field and 33.1 percent (131-of-396) from behind the 3-point line, as well as 72.9 percent (164-of-225) at the free throw line. Defensively, the Lobos have allowed 70.4 points per game, with opponents shooting 41.8 percent (333-of-796) from the field, 32.4 percent (78-of-241) from behind the arc and 71.0 percent (171-of-241) at the free throw line. Junior forward Shaiquel McGruder leads the team in both steals and blocks, with 23 and 17, respectively.

A CROWDED CALENDAR

Because of the postponement of the series against New Mexico, originally slated for Jan. 7 & 9, Utah State now closes out the regular season with a packed slate of games. This is the first time the Aggies have played four games in six days or less since the 1986-87 season.

SENIOR DAY SALUTE

USU will hold its Senior Day on Monday, March 1, prior to the second contest against New Mexico. The Aggies will honor graduate forward Jessica Chatman, the lone non-returning senior on the team. New Mexico seniors Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson will be honored, as well.

After transferring to USU from Southern Utah, Chatman made an immediate impact on the team in her lone season as an Aggie. The native of Ridgefield, Wash., currently leads the squad with 11.5 points and 7.2 rebounds per game, and is the only Aggie player to start in all 19 contests.

RED HOT

Utah State senior guard Emmie Harris caught fire in the series against Boise State, going for a career-high 14 points in the first contest, then besting it with another career-high of 16 points in the second. Harris also led the team's passing efforts in both games, including dishing out a career-high six assists on Thursday.

MO'S FIRST DOUBLE-DOUBLE

In Saturday's game against Boise State, junior guard/forward Monique Pruitt posted the first double-double of her career, going for 15 points and a career-high 13 boards to lead the team. Pruitt also logged a career-high five steals in the game, the most in a game by an Aggie player this season.

NOT SO FAMILIAR FOES

The 2019-20 schedule pitted Utah State against each of its upcoming opponents, Nevada and New Mexico, just once, with both games coming down to the wire. The Wolf Pack won in Reno, 69-60, while the Lobos won in Logan, 54-52.

PLUG AND PLAY

The Aggies have used 13 unique starting lineup combinations through 19 games this season, with 11 different players making starting appearances and no lineup being used more than four times. For comparison, last year's squad used six starting lineups through 31 contests.

FROM UTAH COUNTY TO UTAH STATE

Utah State has two alumni of American Fork (Utah) High School on their roster in junior forward Taylor Franson and freshman guard/forward Halle Nelson. The duo played one season together as teammates in 2017, when they helped the Cavemen win the Utah 5A state championship with a 25-1 overall record.

DROPPIN' DIMES

In USU's second game against Fresno State, the Aggies dished out a program-record 29 assists on 34 made shots, led by sophomore guards Kamalu Kamakawiwo'ole and Faith Brantley, who each had a career-high seven dimes. This mark is tied as the ninth-most assists in a single game by any team in the NCAA this season.

JUST KEEP SCORING

USU's 85 points against Fresno State were the most points scored by an Aggie team in nearly three years. The last time the Aggies hit that mark was an 86-78 win over San José State on Feb. 27, 2018. The team shot 53.7 percent (34-of-64) from the field, their best shooting outing since Feb. 23, 2019, against Boise State.

SHOOTERS SHOOT

Freshman guard Kinley Falslev found her stride with a career-high 14 points in the second contest against Fresno State, all of which came in the fourth quarter. She became the only Aggie freshman to score 14 points in a quarter since the NCAA switched from halves to quarters in 2015. Falslev had totaled 17 points in 12 appearances prior to this outburst.

SMALL BUT MIGHTY

Standing at just 5-foot-4, Latone is the shortest player in the Mountain West. She also ranks as the shortest Aggie player since the program's reinstatement in 2003.
