LAST TIME THEY MET

Air Force rose to the occasion in a Wednesday (Feb. 24) evening nail biter against New Mexico (10-3, 7-3 MW), upending the Mountain West's second-place team, 75-73, on Senior Night. The win marked the one-year anniversary of Air Force's first win at New Mexico's "The Pit".

Air Force's senior class, Kaelin Immel, Emily Conroe, and Kassady Huffman, who were honored for Senior Night prior to the game, led with intensity and resolve in helping Air Force to a big win at home. Immel finished with 14 points, three assists and three rebounds. Conroe, the leading rebounder on the squad, added eight points to the final tally, with six rebounds, four assists and three steals. Huffman, who is two blocks shy of the single-season blocks record (43), denied two shots, and snagged four rebounds.

Air Force's Riley Snyder led the Falcon offensive with her second 20-point performance in a row, scoring 20 points on 50-percent shooting from the field. Snyder drained five three-pointers on the night, coming up one three-ball short of a career-best. She rounded out her stat line with four rebounds and four assists. With her second bucket of the game, Snyder crested 1,000 career points, becoming the 18th Falcon in program history to achieve the feat.

Air Force freshmen Dasha Macmillan and Kayla Pilson were critical to the Falcons' success, combining for 10 points and eight rebounds. Macmillan, who shot 50-percent from the floor (3-6) and 100-percent from beyond the arc (2-2), added eight points to the final tally while Pilson's five rebounds helped Air Force maintain key possessions.

Junior point-guard Briana Autrey-Thompson put up 11 points on 40-percent shooting from the floor. She finished with five assists, three rebounds and a steal. Sophomore teammate Kamri Heath had a critical four-point scoring run to help Air Force maintain momentum.

The Falcons had their best night of shooting in league play, knocking down 48-percent from the field and 44-percent from deep. They held the lead for 30 minutes of the game.

UP NEXT

With a win in the quarterfinals round, Air Force or New Mexico will play the winner between (4) Fresno State and (5) Nevada, in the semifinals on Tuesday (March 9), at 5 p.m. PT. The Falcons were unable to secure a win against either team in the regular season.

4,750

The combined number of career points among Air Force's starters. The Falcons' three 1,000-point scorers Immel (1,523), Conroe (1,051) and Snyder (1,101) along with Autrey-Thompson (759) and Huffman (316).

LAST TIME OUT

A third quarter surge propelled ninth-seeded Air Force to victory over eighth-seeded San Diego State, 56-48, in the first round of the 2021 Air Force Reserve Mountain West Basketball Championships, Sunday afternoon in the Thomas and Mack Center. The win marks the Falcons' second-straight season of advancing to the conference tournament quarterfinals.

Veteran leaders Kaelin Immel and Riley Snyder helped change the course of the game in the second half, scoring 26 points after the halftime break. They combined for just seven first half points. Immel finished with a game-high 17 points, while Snyder, who was tabbed honorable mention All-MW earlier today, finished with 16. Immel knocked down a game-high three three-pointers to help lift the Falcons to victory.

Air Force's defensive abilities were put on display in the third quarter as they battled out from an eight-point deficit behind critical SDSU turnovers caused by a staunch Falcon defense. Air Force went on to build a three-point advantage heading into the fourth quarter.

The teams scored back-and-forth through the first half of the fourth quarter but a three-pointer from Snyder starting a chain of events from which the Aztecs would not recover. The Falcons didn't look back as they put up an 11-0 scoring run in the fourth quarter ahead of a San Diego State team running out of steam.

Air Force was led in rebounding by Briana Autrey-Thompson, Emily Conroe and Snyder with seven boards each. Autrey-Thompson finished with nine points while Conroe finished with five. MW All-Defensive Team selectee Kassady Huffman blocked four shots and collected six

The Aztecs were led by Sophia Ramos and Tea Adams with 13 points each. Mercedes Staples snagged the lion's share of Aztec rebounds with eight on the day.

ETCHED IN STONE

Air Force senior Kassady Huffman has impacted the program record book on three occasions this season. She had a career night against UNLV (Feb. 5) as she blocked seven shots, setting Air Force's single-game record for blocked shots in the Division I era.

With her first block of that same game, Huffman denied her 96th shot, taking the seat as the program's leader in career blocks in the Division I era. Huffman now has 120 career blocks.

The Colorado Springs native recorded her 44th block of the season in the upset win against Colorado State (March 1), exceeding her freshman record and season-high (38, 2016-17), while also becoming the program's all-time single-season blocks leader, overtaking Kim Kreke's spot with 43 (2008-09).

Huffman leads the Mountain West (23rd in the nation) in blocks with 46 rejections this season. She averages 2.00 blocks per game to lead the MW while ranking 35th across the nation. Air Force is third in the league in blocked shots (81).

SNYDER SCORES

Riley Snyder leads the Falcons in scoring, averaging 15.4 points per game, 14.4 in conference, so far this season, a mark that ranks her fifth in the league in points per game. She has seven 20-point games, three of which happened in the last five games against the league's top-two teams. Her 355 points this season ranks her fourth in the MW.

Snyder has also been one of the Falcons' most prolific shooters, knocking down 51 three-pointers this season (3rd in MW) with a 38-percent 3FG shooting average (3rd in the MW). She has the fourth-most field goal attempts (352) and attempts made (133) in the league.

Snyder crested the 1,000 all-time career points mark against New Mexico becoming the 18th all-time Falcon to achieve the feat. Her 1,085 career points ranks her seventh in the Division I era. Her 427 points last season is the third most single-season points in the Division I era, behind two of Kaelin Immel's single-season marks [(2017-18, 464, 1st) (2019-20, 445 pts, 2nd)].

SWIPED

Air Force is averaging 10.1 steals per game, leading the MW and ranking 26th in the NCAA. The Falcons have picked off 243 steals this season, the most in the MW and 15th most in Division I women's basketball. Air Force's staunch defense ranks them first in the league in forced turnovers (17.55 per game).

Autrey-Thompson and Emily Conroe are first and second in the MW, respectively, in steals (57/45) and first and third in the league, respectively, in steals per game (2.52/2.00). Autrey-Thompson's 55 steals this season is good for 27th most in the nation. Across the NCAA, Autrey-Thompson is 50th in steals per game.

AUTREY-THOMPSON LEADS FROM THE FRONT

Air Force point guard Briana Autrey-Thompson is the Falcons' second leading scorer after 22 games, averaging 12.5 points per game, 11.9 in conference. She led the Falcons with a 25-point showing in the season-opener against Denver, marking a career-high performance for the junior out of Suffolk, Virginia. Two games later, she pushed her career scoring high to 26 points against Western Colorado. Autrey-Thompson has displayed her utility on both sides of the ball, averaging 4.0 assists per game (5th in the MW) with 92 assists this season (8th in the MW) and averaging 2.52 steals per game (1st in MW, 27th in the NCAA).

CLIMBING THE ALL-TIME LADDER

Kaelin Immel is the Academy's all-time leading scorer in the Division I era with 1,506 career points. In her junior season, she became the 16th all-time Falcon to achieve 1,000 career points at Air Force.

Emily Conroe is climbing the all-time points ladder with 1,038 career points, a mark that ranks her ninth in the Div. I era., and making her the 17th all-time Falcon to reach the 1,000-point mark.

Conroe is eighth in the MW in rebounds per game (7.0) and seventh in total rebounds (161). She now has 736 career rebounds, 499 are defensive and 237 are offensive. Conroe is the sixth Falcon in Div. I history to achieve the 500-rebound feat. She is currently second in Air Force's Div. I career rebounding. The next rung on the ladder is Alicia Steele (2004-08), who holds the program's career rebounding record with 765.

In just five seasons, Gobrecht has led Air Force to 19 MWC wins, equaling the number of Air Force's total number of MWC wins for the 16 seasons prior to her arrival.

NEW ADDITIONS

Air Force has announced the addition of seven freshmen to the 2020-2021 roster. The class of 2024 will join 12 returners, five starters, for the winter campaign.

COACH G ON THE FRESHMEN

"This is a class with some true talent to add to a veteran group that should be the best team Air Force Women's Basketball has ever put on the floor," Gobrecht said. "So much of their ability to contribute will depend on how fast they learn and how well they handle the challenges of being a freshman at the Academy. We expect big things of this class down the road."

STAFF ADDITION

Capt Rachel Smith joins the Air Force women's basketball staff for her first season as an assistant coach in the 2020-21 season, replacing Major Brooke Cultra. Capt. Smith is a 2014 Academy graduate and four-year letter winner in both indoor and outdoor track and field. Prior to joining the hoops staff, Capt Smith served as the Air Terminal Operations Center Flight Commander, 305th Aerial Port Squadron, Joint Base (JB) McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst, N.J.

MW TAKES HEALTH PRECAUTIONS WITH REVAMPED SCHEDULE

The Mountain West announced changes to the 2020-21 men's and women's basketball formats on Monday afternoon which emphasize the health and safety of student-athletes, coaches and staff while significantly reducing travel. The Conference will move to a 20-game schedule under a modified format that will play out over 11 weeks within the context of state, county and local guidelines.

In the new format, MW teams will face each other in a two-game series in the same week with a one-day break between contests. Each institution will have five home and five road series, reducing the regular travel schedule by four weeks to help mitigate potential virus exposures.

League play will begin in December and conclude the last week of February. The format adjustments create flexibility throughout the season to potentially reschedule games which may need to be postponed as the schedule plays out. This is a one-year model adopted specifically to address the unique challenges of the current COVID-19 pandemic.

CHRIS GOBRECHT

41st Season as Head Coach
6th Season at Air Force

Chris Gobrecht will begin her sixth season as the head women's basketball coach at the Air Force Academy in the 2020-2021 season. With a track record of 40 years of head coaching experience, Gobrecht was entrusted with a monumental task of laying a foundation and building the program to reach new heights, and for five-straight seasons, she has done exactly that. Since her inaugural year at Air Force in 2015-16, Gobrecht has continued to guide the Falcons to new heights, highlighted by a program-high seven Mountain West Conference (MWC) wins in the 2019-20 campaign. In just five seasons, Gobrecht has led Air Force to 19 MWC wins, equaling the number of Air Force's total number of MWC wins for the 16 seasons prior to her arrival.

In May 2018, Gobrecht signed a five-year contract extension with Air Force athletics under director Col. Jennifer Block, extending her service as head coach through the 2022-23 season. Gobrecht was originally hired on April 14, 2015 and was the first hire of then-Air Force Director of Athletics Jim Knowlton. Gobrecht came to the Academy from Yale, where she served as head coach from 2005-15.

A proven winner and program builder, Gobrecht has coached at programs in the Pac-12 and Atlantic Coast Conference. During her 10 seasons at Yale she restored the program's status as one of the premier women's basketball programs in the Ivy League. Gobrecht has 40 years of head coaching experience, all at the Division I level, and has a career record of 567-595 (.490) which ranks among the nation's top 30 active coaches. Gobrecht is the winningest coach all-time for two schools, Washington and Yale.

"I'm thrilled to bring Chris Gobrecht to the Academy to lead our women's basketball program," Knowlton said. "She is a proven winner and has turned around every program she's led and done it the right way. To get someone of her caliber to the Academy makes me very excited about the future of the program."

"After meeting with Chris during her visit to the Academy, I know our women's basketball program will be in great hands," said USAFA's 19th Superintendent, Lt. Gen. Michelle Johnson. "Chris embodies the values our Academy stands for and her passion for leading young people is unmistakable."

"It is hard to put into words what the opportunity to build the women's basketball program at the Air Force Academy means to me and my family," Gobrecht said. "I am honored to be asked to lead the outstanding young women who make the choice to prepare themselves for service to their country as officers in the Air Force, and I am dedicated to their experience on the court producing success in competition as well as contributing greatly to their accomplishments towards the overall mission of the Academy."

Through her first two seasons, Gobrecht laid the foundation for building the program towards new heights. In the 2016-17 season, Air Force doubled its win total from the previous season. Then-freshman Mariah Forde led the Mountain West freshmen in scoring, averaging 11.0 points per game. The Falcons have improved in scoring, rebounding, blocked shots and free throw percentage in each passing year under Gobrecht's guidance.

In the 2017-18 campaign, Coach Gobrecht and the Falcons continued on the path upwards as Air Force's five wins in conference became the most in the Mountain West era, surpassing the previous mark of four wins, set in 2005-06 and 2007-08. Air Force's signature win came in the regular season home finale, posting a 57-47 win over then-first place Wyoming. In addition to winning four of the last six games of the season, Air Force smashed five team records, highlighted by a staunch defense that only allowed 62.3 ppg in the regular season and 59.7 pp in league action, setting new team records in each respective category. The Falcons held opponents below 60 points 11 times on the season, testament to the progression of the defense under Gobrecht and staff. Air Force's 2017-18 season also yielded six new individual school records including the program's first-ever Mountain West Freshman of the Year in Kaelin Immel, who set four program-records highlighted by the most-ever points scored by an Air Force freshman in the Div. I era.

Gobrecht's Falcons continued trending upward in the 2018-19 season, averaging 60.1 points per game in regular season and Mountain West play alike, an average mark 4.4 points more than last season's averages and 12.7 more points per game than in her inaugural campaign at Air Force. Gobrecht and a young squad made up predominantly of freshmen and sophomores checked the box on numerous milestones to include the team's first win against Army in over a decade and ending a 13-game losing streak to in-state rivals Colorado State. Under Gobrecht's guidance, freshman standout Riley Snyder, who averaged 10 points per game on the season, was added to the Mountain West All-Freshman team. She is the third freshman since the 2017-18 season to earn the honor.

The 2019-2020 season marked new heights for Gobrecht and the women's basketball team as the Falcons finished 10-21 (7-11 MWC), marking Gobrecht's most single-season wins since joining Air Force and the program's most single-season conference wins since joining the league in 1999-2000. Air Force's seventh-place finish in the league tied its best-ever finish in the MWC, and is the best-ever finish since the MWC became an 11-team league. Under Gobrecht's guidance, the Falcons averaged a program-best 60.7 points per game in league play, marking the team's best conference scoring average since joining the MWC. Air Force also ranked as high as 11th in the nation in offensive rebounds per game and as high as 25th in the nation in steals. The Falcons' Kaelin Immel, who Gobrecht has entrusted co-captaincy to for two seasons, was tabbed Mountain West All-Conference, becoming the first Falcon to receive the honors since 2013. Air Force's historic season was also highlighted by knocking off regular-season champions, Fresno State, at USAFA. The Bulldogs, who were undefeated in conference (15-0) at the time of the loss, had never lost to Air Force before. Gobrecht also guided Air Force to its first-ever win in New Mexico's "The Pit", snapping a 22-game losing streak at New Mexico, as well as the squad's first-ever win against Nevada in Reno, snapping an eight-game losing streak at Nevada.

Prior to coming to Air Force, Gobrecht built Yale's program up to become an annual contender for the Ivy League championship over her last six seasons. She coached the Bulldogs to 56 wins from 2012-14 which tied for the second-most wins in a four-year stretch and most since the class of 1980 won 57 games. Under Gobrecht's leadership, Yale has also recorded the top two marks for most Ivy League wins in a four-year span with 34 Ivy victories set by the Class of 2013 and 33 wins set by the Class of 2014.

HEAD COACH

During her tenure at Yale, Gobrecht coached 27 players that earned Ivy League postseason awards, including two Ivy League Rookies of the Year, five All-Ivy first team honorees, three All-Ivy second team honorees, six All-Ivy honorable mention players, five All-Ivy rookie team players and seven Ivy League academic team honorees. Prior to Gobrecht's arrival at the school, a Bulldog player had not earned All-Ivy League first team accolades since the 1997-98. Gobrecht has also coached two players who competed on the international level.

Yale posted its sixth straight top-four finish in the Ivy League standings in 2014-15 with a 7-7 mark in Ivy play, while posting an overall mark of 13-15. Gobrecht became just the second coach in program history to record 100 victories at Yale with a victory at Columbia on Jan. 31, 2014. She was 117-162 (.419) in her 10 seasons at the school.

The Bulldogs enjoyed their most successful season under Gobrecht's leadership in 2011-12, finishing with a 16-12 record and an 8-6 mark in Ivy League play in a season that included Yale's first-ever meeting with the nation's top-ranked team (No. 1 Baylor, Nov. 22, 2011). It was their winningest season since a 16-10 finish in 1993-94 and the third straight season with at least eight Ivy League victories. The season included several milestones, including Gobrecht's 500th career victory which happened on Feb. 10, 2012, against Cornell.

In 2010-11, Gobrecht guided the Bulldogs to their first-ever appearance in the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT). The Bulldogs finished with a 14-15 overall record, which, until 2011-12, was Yale's highest win total since the 2001-02 season (14-13). Gobrecht coached the Bulldogs to the biggest win in program history, a 91-85 win over then-No. 14 Florida State. It was Yale's first win over a nationally ranked opponent in the program's 38-year history. She followed that historic victory by guiding the Bulldogs to a 10-4 finish in Ivy League play, which matched the most wins for Yale in League play (10-4, 1988-89). The 2010-11 Ivy League season included Yale's first sweep of Harvard since the 1993-94 season, which helped the Bulldogs finish in second place in the Ivy League standings for the first time since 1988-89, clinching the Ivy League's automatic berth in the WNIT.

After posting a 3-24 mark in her first season with the Bulldogs, Gobrecht led the team to 12 wins in the 2006-07. The nine-win improvement was one of the best in Division I that season. The 2006-07 season was highlighted by a six-game winning streak and a 15-point victory over a Marist squad that would reach the Regional Semifinals (Sweet 16) of the NCAA Tournament. Yale was also the only Ivy League team to defeat league champion Harvard.

Though the 2008-09 team was hampered by a multitude of injuries, Gobrecht led her team to an 11-17 record and a landmark victory over North Carolina State, Yale's first win over an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent. Gobrecht also reached a milestone 450th career coaching win last season.

Prior to coaching at Yale, Gobrecht was the head coach at her alma mater, Southern California, where she posted a 93-108 record in seven seasons. She became the 33rd active coach to reach the 400-win mark during her time with the Women of Troy. She reached the milestone with a victory over Pepperdine on Dec. 4, 2002. Gobrecht took over a struggling Florida State program in 1996 for year, leading the school to a 5-22 record before going to USC.

Gobrecht coached the University of Washington from 1986-96. In 11 seasons at Washington, her teams went to the NCAA Tournament on nine occasions. The Huskies reached the NCAA Regional Semifinals four times during her tenure, and advanced to the Regional Finals (Elite Eight) in 1990. She won at least 16 games every year at Washington, including eight 20-win campaigns (six consecutive), and is the Huskies' all-time winningest coach with a 243-89 record. Washington won three conference championships and finished second four times during her tenure. A two-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year, Gobrecht led Washington to a school-record 28 wins and a number-three national ranking in 1989-90. The Huskies were the only team to beat eventual NCAA Champion Stanford that season. In lieu of her success with the Huskies, the University of Washington announced Gobrecht as one-of-seven individuals along with one team to be inducted into the Husky Hall of Fame in October 2018.

Gobrecht began her Division I coaching career with a struggling Cal State Fullerton program in 1979-80. She coached the Titans for six seasons, posting an 84-92 record. She led Cal State Fullerton to an 18-12 record in her third season on the job. In the 1984-85 season, Gobrecht's last with Cal State Fullerton, the Titans posted a 19-11 record and made their first appearance in the WNIT, making her a finalist for national Coach of the Year honors.

She served as an assistant for a USA Basketball select team that played in Czechoslovakia and Italy in 1990. In addition, six of Gobrecht's former players have played professionally in the WNBA and ABL.

Her coaching career began in 1978 at Santa Fe Springs (Calif.) High School, where her team went 20-4 and made the CIF AAA playoffs. The next year, Gobrecht led Pasadena City College to a 25-5 record, a conference championship and second place in the state junior college tournament.

A Toledo, Ohio, native and a graduate of Huntington Beach (Calif.) High School, Gobrecht earned a bachelor's degree in public affairs from USC in 1977. Then known by her maiden name of Chris Geiger, she was a three-year starter for the Women of Troy from 1974-76 and also played two seasons of volleyball at USC. After graduation, she spent a year volunteering in the Peace Corps, where she worked as an English teacher at St. Mary's College in Apia, Western Samoa.

Chris and late husband, Bob Gobrecht, have two children, Eric and Madeline. Eric is a graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy and a graduate of the Air Force's flight school. A Major, he is a pilot stationed at Beale AFB, CA. In October 2011, Eric married Catherine Cheney, a 2010 graduate of Yale, they welcomed their first son, Bennett Gobrecht, in February of 2020. Mady graduated from Yale in 2011 after four standout seasons on the women's basketball team. She married Greg Moviel, a 2007 graduate of Vanderbilt University, in 2015. Grandson, Mack, born to Mady and Greg in May of 2018 was joined by the newest addition to the family, Mark, in June of 2020. Mady is currently a registered nurse serving at Memorial Hospital in Colorado Springs.
