KICKING OFF

To say that the 2020-21 season was unprecedented may be an understatement. When the world came to a halt due to the COVID-19 pandemic, so did the entire sport industry. Nonetheless, the Lobos persisted AS ONE.

As one, the Lobos have posted a 10-1 regular season record, earning the the Mountain West Regular Season Title. On the season, the Lobos have outscored opponents 29-6.

The Lobos have shown a level of unity through a tough season that has been growing over the years. Although the team returned many letterwinners, there have been many newcomers that have made an impact as well, including Paige Satterlee, who made the Mountain West All-Newcomer team.

The newcomers have caught on quick to the blue-collar culture that comes with New Mexico. The team will rally until the end, and that is what is so special about this team. The word "quit" is not in their dictionary.

The Lobos have again made history, becoming the first women's soccer team in the state of New Mexico that has advanced in the NCAA Tournament.

Needless to say that the Lobos have the momentum in their favor to shine in the NCAA Tournament like they have all season. Although the Lobos are able to fire on all cylinders, make sure to keep an eye on Gwen Maly (16th in the nation in goals per game .82), Alesia Garcia and Jady Edwards. These powerhouses will be key in this game, along with goalkeeper Emily Johnson.

2020-21 WOMEN'S SOCCER

HEATHER DYCHE | @HEATHERDYCHE
RECORD AT UNM: 65-38-10 (6TH SEASON)
CAREER RECORD: SAME

NOTEWORTHY :

- » Named the fourth head coach in program history on January 29, 2015
- » Ranks second in program history in wins with 54
- » Led team to consecutive Mountain West Tournament Championship Games

HEATHER DYCHE enters into her sixth season as the head women's soccer coach at The University of New Mexico, and has most recently been named the Mountain West Coach of the Year for the 2021 Spring Season.

The Albuquerque native owns a 64-38-10 overall record and a 32-18-5 mark in Mountain West play. This past season, Dyche guided the Lobos to an 11-8-1 record and the semifinals of the Mountain West Championships.

Additionally, Dyche's 2018 Lobo team set a program record for goals scored with 45 and posted second-best program marks in assists (33) and points (123). In terms of individual player accolades, three standouts received All-Pacific Region honors from the United Soccer Coaches, which was a program record. From the Mountain West, the 2018 team had five honorees, three of which were first team selections.

All told, Coach Dyche has coached 11 All-MW selections while at UNM. Success has also come under Dyche's leadership in the classroom. In each semester since Dyche's arrival, the UNM women's soccer team has posted a team GPA of 3.46 or higher and four times have posted GPA's above 3.7. The team has received the Team Academic Award from the United Soccer Coaches three times under Dyche's leadership.

In her first season, Dyche became the third coach in Lobo women's soccer history to begin her career with double-digit victories by going 10-8-2 in 2015. That record included a 7-3-1 record in Mountain West play and a run to MW Tournament semifinals.

Along with leading the Lobos, Dyche traveled to Brazil to assist the U.S. Women's National Team during the 2016 Summer Olympic Games - assisting with scouting and analyzing opponents. She also served as an assistant coach for the U-18 U.S. Women's National Team's trip to Australia in the summer of 2017.

Dyche is also a coach, instructor and scout with the United States Soccer Federation (USSF). Dyche is an assistant coach for the US Youth National Team U14 and U15 Girls. There, Dyche is granted the opportunity to identify and work with the most talented U15 soccer players in the country and the core of the US team that competed in the 2018 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup. She also serves on the USSF instructional staff, instructing USSF B- and USSF C-licensed national coaching schools across the country.

Dyche's footprint at the elite level spans past the national stage, as she has also assisted for national teams from Antigua, St. Kitts and Nevis and Grenada.

Dyche serves on the instructional staff for The Confederation of North, Central American and Caribbean Association Football (CONCACAF). As the only female of the CONCACAF educational board, Dyche teaches C, D and grassroots courses in order while developing and writing content for all women's grassroots programs.

Dyche is a US Youth Region IV ODP head coach. There, she coaches the team at Olympic Development Interregional events and identifies top players in the region to participate in the Olympic Development Program Regional Team.

Finally, she is also the co-founder and head coach of LEAD Academy (Leadership and Empowerment through Athletic Development Soccer) - an all-girls soccer leadership training school

2020-21 WOMEN'S SOCCER

A YEAR OF POSSIBILITY

This has been a year of adversity for the Lobos, being in a state that was shut down longer than many others. With that being said, the Lobos have been a dominant force on the field, and with Tuesday's win, New Mexico became the first team in New Mexico history to advance in the women's soccer NCAA Tournament.

COACH OF THE YEAR

After leading her team to a 10-1 record in the 2020-21 conference season and winning the Mountain West Regular Season Championship, The University of New Mexico women's soccer head coach Heather Dyche has been named the Mountain West Coach of the Year. This is the first Coach of the Year honor for Dyche and the first for the program since 2010.

LOBO DOMINANCE

The Lobos' 28 goals this season are the most in the MW this season, while the defense has limited opponents to just five goals, the fewest in the Conference this spring, and the lowest in program history. This season, the Lobos have recorded seven shutouts and owns the fifteenth-best goals against average (.452) in the nation. Offensively, UNM is ranked 13th nationally, averaging 7.18 points per game.

ALL ON THE LINE

The Lobos earned a birth into the NCAA Tournament by defeating San Diego State for the Mountain West Regular Season Conference Title. The Lobos won it in a 3-2 overtime thriller, as Jadyn Edwards scored the golden goal in the 96th minute.

SHUTOUTS GALORE

The team has posted seven shutouts through ten games, and Emily Johnson has been a rock for the Lobos in the goal. The red-shirt senior has allowed just six goals this season with a .555 goals against average, the 26th-best in the nation.

MONSTER Maly

Maly started the season scoring at least one goal in each of the first five games. Since then, the redshirt-senior has blown up, posting a Mountain West-leading 9 goals and 21 points through ten games. Maly has been named to the All-Conference First Team because of her efforts this season, and has twice been named the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Week. This season has been extremely impressive for Maly, considering she is competing one year after facing an ACL injury that was thought to end her collegiate career. Maly can't be stopped.

GARCIA MAKES HISTORY

Junior Alesia Garcia made Lobo history in UNM's 5-0 shutout Colorado College on March 19, scoring four goals at home for the first time in Lobo history. Garcia becomes the first Lobo in 25 years to score four goals in a game. The last Lobo to achieve such a feat was Laurie Hedgedorn at South Alabama in 1996.

RAKING IN THE HONORS

The Mountain West announced Thursday that six members of the UNM squad had earned All-Mountain West honors. The five members on the All-Conference First Team are Gwen Maly, Emily Johnson, Jadyn Edwards, Karlee Maes and Alexa Kirton, Paige Satterlee was named to the All-Conference Newcomer Team.

FAMILIARITY

The Lobos return 19 letter winners from the 2019 season along with seven that were starters. In 2019, the Lobos finished 11-8-1 and made it to the Mountain West Tournament semifinals, where they fell to Boise State.

CELEBRATING SENIORS

UNM honored its six seniors on April 9, Gwen Maly, Akane Takada, Kate Browning, Sarah Lucero, Avadney Gerard-Osbourne, and Delaney Markham. Gwen Maly went on to score five points in the match including two goals and one assist.
