THE OPENING SERVE

- Northern Arizona wraps up non-conference play this week with a pair of matches versus New Mexico. The home-and-home series between the two teams begins in Flagstaff in the Rolle Activity Center on Thursday at 6 p.m. with the match available on ESPN+.
- The teams will then turn around and play the back half of the series on Saturday in Albuquerque at 1 p.m. MST. That match will be available on the Mountain West Network.
- The 'Jacks will aim to head into the start of the Big Sky schedule with momentum, taking on a Lobos team that is 8-1 this season. Meanwhile, NAU is 1-6 after picking up its first win of the fall last Friday at home in five sets over UC Davis.
- NAU went 1-2 in its home tournament, the Lumberjack Classic, in three highly competitive matches. After the victory versus the Aggies, the Lumberjacks fell in four sets to both Arizona State and Utah Valley.
- Sophomore Lyla Hollis continued her strong start to the season, averaging 4.42 kills per set in three matches last week, compiling a pair of 20-kill matches in the process. She set a new career-high with 22 kills in the win versus UC Davis, and now leads the team - and ranks third in the Big Sky - with 3.37 kills per set.
- Hollis and senior Ryann Davis were named to the Lumberjack Classic All-Tournament Team with the latter hitting .315 across the three matches and putting down 21 kills. Davis, after missing the first two matches of her career to begin the season, is 10th in the Big Sky in hitting overall at a team-high .274.
- NAU continues to get healthy as junior Taylor Jacobsen also returned from injury last weekend. Jacobsen is right behind Hollis in kills, ranking fourth in the league with 3.35 kills per set. Jacobsen, who is second on the team in digs behind sophomore Millie O'Ketter with 2.83 per set, has logged double-doubles in four of six matches.
- O'Ketter not only leads the team in digs with 84 total and an average of 3.00 per set, she is also tied with Hollis for the team-lead in aces with nine.

THE NEW MEXICO SCOUT

- New Mexico has been dominant through the first three weeks of the season, compiling an 8-1 record. The Lobos swept through their first seven opponents before finally dropping a set last week to Seattle in what still ended up being a four-set win. New Mexico's eight-match winning streak came to an end in its home tournament finale though as the Lobos were swept by UC San Diego.
- New Mexico, statistically, has been the nation's best defensive team in terms of opponent hitting percentage, ranking first in the country with an opponent clip of .070. The Lobos are also eighth in digs per set at 18.32, in large part due to the play of Alena Moldan who is third individually nationally with 6.07 digs per set. Kaitlynn Biassou leads the team in kills at 3.50 per set.

NAU-NEW MEXICO CONNECTION

- New Mexico's head coach Jon Newman-Gonchar is an NAU alum, graduating from NAU in December 2005 with a degree in health sciences.
- While at NAU, Newman-Gonchar spent three seasons as a volunteer assistant coach and also coached the setters on the High Altitude Volleyball before being promoted from assistant to head coach. He also assisted with the Flagstaff High School girls' volleyball team during his time in Flagstaff.

UNUSUAL START

- Granted NAU has played a tough schedule so far this year, but NAU's 1-6 start is the program's worst since also starting 1-8 in 2005.
- Dating back to 1980 when full yearly results are available, this is the fourth time that the Lumberjacks have started 1-6 through seven matches (1990, 2004, 2005).
- Even if NAU wins both matches this weekend versus New Mexico, it will still be just the second time since head coach Ken Murphy took over the program in 2013 that the Lumberjacks head into conference play with a sub -.500 record (2017).

LYLA LEVELING UP

- In her second season, sophomore Lyla Hollis has taken her game to another level in 2021. She leads the team with 3.37 kills per set, which ranks third in the conference. Last spring as a true freshman, Hollis averaged 2.10 kills per set.
- She is currently on a five-match double-digit kill streak - the longest of her young career - and has two 20-kill matches in that span. With a career-high 22 kills versus UC Davis and following up with a 20-kill performance versus Arizona State on Sept. 10, she became the first Lumberjack with consecutive 20-kill matches since Kaylie Jorgenson in 2017.
- Hollis earned All-Tournament Team honors at both the SFA Tournament and the Lumberjack Classic. At the SFA Tournament, she totaled 29 kills and hit .267 versus Stephen F. Austin and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi. She followed that up with 53 kills in three matches versus UC Davis, Arizona State and Utah Valley during NAU's Lumberjack Classic at an average of 4.42 per set.

1,315 STRONG

- After playing in an empty gym during the spring 2021 season, NAU welcomed back fans in full force for its home-opening weekend. In the marquee match of the tournament between the Lumberjacks and in-state Pac-12 foe Arizona State, an announced crowd of 1,315 poured into the Rolle Activity Center on Sept. 10.
- The crowd of 1,315 was the second-largest home attendance in program history. The only larger crowd was the 2015 Big Sky Championship match attendance of 1,423 that saw NAU claim the conference title over Idaho State.

EVACUATING IDA

- The Lumberjacks' first weekend of the season was cut short due to the threat of Hurricane Ida through the state of Louisiana. NAU's third and final match of the Tiger Classic versus Michigan was canceled, as was the Lumberjacks' subsequent mid-week match at Nicholls State on Aug. 31.
- NAU departed Baton Rouge on Saturday, Aug. 28 and headed west to Houston, where the team spent an unplanned detour on its way to Nacogdoches for the SFA Tournament.

RECIPE FOR SUCCESS

- Start fast. Serve strong. If there have been two trends that have led to success for the Lumberjacks under head coach Ken Murphy, it would be winning the first set and the battle at the service line.
- Since Murphy's first season in 2013, NAU is 135-24 (.849) when claiming set one as compared to 28-55 (.337) when dropping the first set.
- Meanwhile, the Lumberjacks are 125-27 (.822) when they have recorded more aces than their opponent and 38-52 (.422) otherwise.
- The service line, without fail, determined wins and losses last spring with NAU winning all 10 matches with the ace advantage and losing all six in which it did not.
- This season, NAU is 0-1 when it has won the first set and 1-2 when holding the ace advantage.

EYES ON #4

- The Lumberjacks' roster is headlined by junior Taylor Jacobsen, who returns as an All-Big Sky First Team pick in the spring. Jacobsen ranked second in the league and 72nd nationally in kills last season

THE BIG SKY ON ESPN+

The Big Sky Conference announced a multi-year, multi-platform media rights agreement with ESPN in June, meaning all NAU home matches, as well as all conference road matches, will be available on ESPN+ beginning this fall.

Fans can sign up for ESPN+ for just $5.99 a month or $59.99 per year at ESPN.com, ESPNplus.com or on the ESPN app (mobile and connected devices). It is also available as part of The Disney Bundle that gives subscribers access to ESPN+, Disney+ and Hulu for $13.99 per month (Hulu with ads) or $19.99 per month (Hulu without ads).

at 3.93 per set.

- Jacobsen not only saw a significant uptick in kill production (2.62 per set as a freshman to 3.93 as a sophomore), but she also attacked at a high efficiency. The two-time all-conference performer saw her hitting percentage increase from .191 in 2019 to .258 in the spring.
- Through her first two seasons, Jacobsen has started all 48 matches the team has played and registered a team-high 25 double-doubles. With 553 career kills and 573 career digs, she begins her third season more than halfway towards becoming the seventh player in program history to join the 1,000/1,000 club with the most recent member being coincidentally her older sister, Lauren Jacobsen.

RETURN TO NON-CONFERENCE

- After playing a conference-only schedule in the spring, NAU anxiously awaits the non-conference schedule having compiled a 54-28 (.659) record in non-conference matches since 2013 entering the season.
- In that stretch, the Lumberjacks have not only won matches, but have knocked off a set of Power Five conference teams with wins over Virginia Tech (2015), Florida (2018) and LSU (2019).
- This season's non-conference schedule though will challenge NAU starting with the season-opening Tiger Classic with matches against Florida State, LSU and Michigan. The Lumberjacks also are slated to take on Arizona State and a pair of NCAA Tournament teams in Texas A&M-Corpus Christi and Utah Valley before going into the Big Sky portion of the schedule.

REPLACING THE HAMMER

- The 'Jacks return 12 of 13 players from their spring roster, but the one loss is a huge one in Heaven Harris, who finished her career 12th all-time in kills. Affectionately known as "the Hammer," Harris was one of four Lumberjacks to earn four career all-conference honors.
- Returning on the right side is senior Ryann Davis, who has not missed a set through her first three seasons, and NAU will look to either redshirt junior Morgan Gappmayer or freshman Sophia Wadsworth among others to fill Harris' spot on the right side in NAU's 6-2 system.
- NAU also could fill Harris' offensive void with sophomore Lyla Hollis and the team's three middles taking the next step in their development. Hollis in particular showed flashes in her first season, finishing the spring third on the team in kills at 2.10 per set.

THE TRIO IN THE MIDDLE

- Last season, the Lumberjacks rotated junior Neché Newton, sophomore Savannah Bloom and sophomore Jordan Elder in the middle and each produced when their number was called.
- Newton, the most experienced in the group, saw the most action starting 14 of 16 matches and pacing the group offensively with 43 kills (0.80 per set) and a .295 hitting percentage.
- In their first seasons, Elder and Bloom both excelled defensively with Elder leading the team with 1.07 blocks per set and Bloom second at 0.86 per set. The two players had NAU's two highest single-match block totals with Elder recording a dozen stuffs versus Northern Colorado and Bloom recording seven versus Eastern Washington.

YES HE KEN

- Head coach Ken Murphy enters year nine in Flagstaff and his resume through the first eight seasons has been nothing short of remarkable.
- His record at NAU entering the 2021 season is 162-73 (.689) and he owns a 97-37 (.724) record in the Big Sky. The Lumberjacks' 162 victories under Murphy since 2013 are the most by any conference program in that span with Northern Colorado in a distant second at 138. Similarly, NAU's 97 Big Sky victories are the most in the league.
- Murphy, the 2018 Big Sky Coach of the Year, has also coached 26 all-conference honorees, which as one may guess, is the most in the Big Sky.
- In addition to becoming NAU's all-time winningest coach in 2019, Murphy will also become the program's leader in matches coached. NAU's match at Northern Colorado on Oct. 2 will be his 248th as head coach, breaking Kelley Siiva's mark of 247.

LUMBERJACK DEBUTS

- Freshman Sophia Wadsworth made her collegiate debut in the season opener on Aug. 27 versus Florida State. Here are how the other members on the roster fared in their debuts.

ROCK THE ROLLE

- A big reason for the Lumberjacks' continued success under head coach Ken Murphy? Owning their home court.
- Since Murphy's first season in 2013, NAU is 77-17 (.819) at home. This season, the Lumberjacks are 1-2 in the Rolle Activity Center.
- In conference play, NAU is 57-11 (.838) against Big Sky opponents.
- From Nov. 1, 2014-Oct. 22, 2016, NAU won a school record 25 consecutive matches in Rolle, which at the time was the second-longest active home winning streak in the country.
- All-time, the Lumberjacks are 250-113 (.689) at home with this fall being the 33rd season that NAU has played its home matches in Rolle.

NAU's season-by-season home record since 2013

SEASON	TOTAL MATCHES	OVERALL (PCT.)	BIG SKY (PCT.)
2021	3	1-2 (.333)	0-0 (.000)
Spring 2021	8	6-2 (.750)	6-2 (.750)

2019	12	11-1 (.917)	8-1 (.889)
2018	12	10-2 (.833)	8-1 (.889)
2017	11	5-6 (.455)	4-4 (.500)

2013	13	11-2 (.846)	9-1 (.900)

ALL ABOUT THAT ACE

- In four of the last five full seasons, the Lumberjacks eclipsed 200 aces as a team, placing in the top 20 nationally in each of those four seasons.
- Maybe not coincidentally, NAU has won at least 20 matches in each of those four seasons as well.

SEASON	ACES	NCAA RANK	RECORD
Spring 2021	100	82nd	10-6
2019	200	20th	21-11
2018	202	12th	26-9
2017	158	71st	13-15
2016	226	1st	24-8
2015	214	4th	28-5

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

- NAU returns 12 players from the spring including all of its statistical leaders led by All-Big Sky First Team selection junior Taylor Jacobsen. Jacobsen led the team in kills at 3.93 per set and 240 total.
- Senior Aubrea Bandfield totaled a team-high 322 assists at 5.28 per set and sophomore Lyla Hollis recorded a team-best 29 service aces. Returning libero sophomore Millie O'Ketter paced the team with 4.03 digs per set and 246 total, while junior Neché Newton and sophomore Jordan Elder led the 'Jacks in total blocks (41) and blocks per set (1.07) respectively.
- Joining the 12 returners are three incoming freshmen, Kacee Moore, Sophia Wadsworth and Jordan Cherniss.

MAKING THE GRADE

- The Lumberjacks posted a 3.68 overall team GPA during the 2020-21 academic year, with an AVCA qualifying cumulative GPA of 3.65 among players who competed in a match during the spring season. As a result, NAU earned the AVCA Team Academic Award for the third time in the last four years.
- The team award is the ninth overall in program history dating back to the first year of the award (1992-93).

HOLLIS ON A MISSION

- Over the summer, sophomore Lyla Hollis took part in her second medical missions trip in conjunction with One World Surgery in the Dominican Republic. The trip followed her first medical missions endeavor as a high school junior in 2018 to Honduras.
- Spending two weeks in Santo Domingo, the country's capitol city, in June, Hollis spent the majority of her time at bateyes - sugarcane worker communities - giving out vitamins, blood pressure medication and other prescriptions that doctors were allowed to give out.
- Hollis, a biomedical science major, intends to pursue a career in the medical field, possibly as a nurse, and aspires to continue to make a difference and help those in need.

SPRING RECAP

- In the most unusual seasons, the Lumberjacks still managed to post a 10-6 overall record in the spring. NAU placed fourth in the conference following a 9-5 regular season consisting of just Big Sky matches.
- The 'Jacks advanced to the Big Sky semifinals for the third consecutive season and sixth time in eight years before bowing out to eventual league champion Weber State.
- However, NAU's signature win of the spring came versus the champions as the Lumberjacks handed the Wildcats their lone conference loss. It was the second consecutive season in which NAU dealt the Big Sky champion its only league defeat.
- Taylor Jacobsen and Heaven Harris were honored at the end of the spring with spots on the All-Big Sky First Team.
