WHAT TO WATCH FOR

- The Aggies have never dropped a game to New Mexico through four previous meetings and are a perfect 12-0 all-time against current members of the Mountain West Conference.
- A&M will be seeking its first 3-0 start of the Jimbo Fisher era at Texas A&M, and the team's first 3-0 start since winning the first six games of the 2016 season.
- The Aggies will be looking for their 11th straight win which would be the program's longest winning streak in 29 years (12 in 1992).
- Junior RB Isaiah Spiller recorded the first receiving touchdown of his career, when he hauled in the 18-yard toss late in the fourth quarter to give A&M the lead.
- Against the Golden Flashes, Spiller became the 21st Aggie to pass the 2,000-yard mark, and has upped his career total to 2,115 yards on the ground through two games.
- Junior TE Jalen Wydermyer's 12 career touchdown catches are the most by a tight end at A&M, and his next TD reception will move him into the top 10 among all players in program history.
- Junior WR Ainius Smith needs 69 receiving yards to hit the 1,000-yard plateau and is 120 all-purpose yards away from 2,000 for his career ... Two touchdowns will move Smith into the top 10 on A&M's all-time career receiving TDs list.
- Graduate DB Myles Jones cracked the top 10 on A&M's and the SEC's career passes defended lists last season, sitting at 10th all-time at A&M and eighth in SEC history with 28 breakups to-date.

QUICK HITS

- In the season opener, A&M's triple threat of sophomore RB Devon Achane, junior RB Isaiah Spiller and junior WR Ainius Smith gave the Aggies two 100-yard rushers and one 100-yard receiver in a game for the first time since 2017 when Kellen Mond (109 rush), Keith Ford (102 rush) and Christian Kirk (110 receiving) did the deed against Arkansas.
- The Aggies earned their 10th consecutive victory after topping Colorado on the road, which ties them for the second-longest active win streak in the FBS.
- Senior DL Jayden Peevy and sophomore DB Antonio Johnson led a strong defensive effort by the Aggies against Colorado, both hitting career highs in tackles with seven and nine, respectively ... Johnson also broke up a pair of passes, while Peevy recorded the first pick of his career and forced a loss of yards on two of his takedowns.
- After limiting Colorado to just 54 yards of total offense in the second half and seven points on the day, A&M currently ranks third nationally in passing defense and is tied for fifth in scoring defense.
- Quick starts have been a harbinger of Aggie victories in the Jimbo Fisher era ... The Aggies are 20-4 when scoring first and a perfect 19-0 when leading after the first quarter.
- A&M had one of its most impressive seasons in program history in 2020, making its first appearance in a New Year's 6 bowl game and boasting a No. 4 ranking in both the AP and Coaches polls by season's end.
- The defending Orange Bowl Champs posted a 9-1 mark on the year for the highest winning percentage (.900) since going undefeated (10-0-1, .955) in 1994.

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION IS THE HOME OF TEXAS A&M ...

On August 20, 2020 the Texas A&M Board of Regents voted and approved the use of "Bryan-College Station" as the home of Texas A&M University. "Bryan-College Station" should be used to reference all sporting events, academic events, press releases, marketing collateral, letterhead, and other representations of Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System where a specific postal address is not required.

Aggieland has grown beyond the boundaries of any one municipality. College Station is known as the "Home of Texas A&M University", but the City of College Station and the City of Bryan have had an entwined history since the City of College Station was incorporated in 1938. Bryan and Texas A&M University's historical ties go back to 1871, when Bryan was incorporated and the Texas Legislature established the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas.

The former Bryan Air Force Base was operated as the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center for a quarter of a century before being designated as the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus in 1988, and the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus grew into the Texas A&M University Research Annex before transforming into the RELLIS Campus in 2016. The RELLIS Campus is home to Texas A&M University System entities including ten regional universities, the Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX), the Texas A&M Engineering Experiment Station (TEES) and the Texas A&M Transportation Institute (TTI). In 2007, the City of Bryan gifted more than 200 acres to the Texas A&M University Health Science Center.

Recognizing that over the past decade, Texas A&M University and the Texas A&M University System have expanded into the City of Bryan with seven Texas A&M University System colleges, ten Texas A&M University System universities and multiple Texas A&M University System state agencies on more than 2,200 acres with more than $1 billion in investment, the Board of Regents voted to recognize the long history and partnership between the City of Bryan, the City of College Station and both Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System.

MILESTONES TO WATCH FOR

- Junior RB Isaiah Spiller needs 54 rushing yards to move into 17th on A&M's all-time career list and will pass Johnny Manziel.
- Junior TE Jalen Wydermyer needs one touchdown reception to move into the top 10 on A&M's career receiving TD's list ... Wydermyer's 12 career touchdown grabs are already a school record among tight ends.
- Junior WR Ainias Smith needs 69 receiving yards to hit the 1,000-yard plateau and is 120 all-purpose yards away from 2,000 for his career ... Two touchdowns will move Smith into the top 10 on A&M's all-time career receiving TDs list.
- Graduate DB Myles Jones is climbing A&M's career pass breakups list with 28 to-date, and needs just one PBU to move into a tie for eighth all-time with Dustin Harris (09-12) and Sammy Davis (99-02) ... Jones' PBU career total is also good for eighth on the SEC's all-time list.
- Senior PLK Seth Small needs 11 points to become the fifth Aggie and fourth placekicker to score 300-or-more points in a career.

THREE-HEADED MONSTER

- Juniors WR Ainias Smith and RB Isaiah Spiller, along with sophomore RB Devon Achane have become a reliable and unstoppable force for the Aggies ... The trio is responsible for all five of A&M's touchdowns so far this year, and combined to score 24 of A&M's 41 total touchdowns last season.
- The trio led the offense in week one with Achane and Spiller racking up 124 and 113 rushing yards, respectively, and Smith adding 100 receiving yards ... Achane and Smith also each made a pair of trips to the end zone in the victory.
- Spiller was A&M's most consistent performer in the backfield last season and finished the year third in the SEC in rushing ... He averaged 103.6 yards per game and scored at least one touchdown in six of A&M's eight straight victories to close out the season.
- Spiller, who caught the game-winning TD last week against Colorado, needs 24 receiving yards to reach 500 for his career ... Only six Aggie RBs have reached the 500+ plateau in career receiving yards, most recently Trayveon Williams with 561 yards from 2016-18.
- Smith will still be utilized in the backfield, despite making the move back to receiver in the offseason ... He flexed his versatility last year as he led the Aggies with 10 total touchdowns, six through the air and four on the ground.
- Smith is already the only player in school history with 200+ career yards in rushing (366), receiving (931), punt return (326) and kick return (257) ... The rarity has only been achieved by 14 SEC players, including notables like Carnell "Cadillac" Williams of Auburn, Randall Cobb of Kentucky and Chris Rainey of Florida.
- Achane was second on the team and second among SEC freshman RBs with 364 rushing yards on the season, scoring four times on the ground and once through the air ... His biggest performance of the year earned him Orange Bowl MVP honors after tallying 140 yards on 12 carries, making two trips to the end zone.
- Smith and Achane are the only players on the roster to have scored a rushing and receiving touchdown in the same game ... Smith did so against Arkansas and at Tennessee last season, while Achane hauled in a 52-yard pass and used a 3-yard run to return to the end zone on the very next drive at South Carolina.

WYDERMYER SETTING THE STANDARD

- Junior TE Jalen Wydermyer continues to set the bar for A&M tight ends, as his 12 career TD receptions are the most in program history by a tight end ... Against Colorado, Wydermyer became the fourth tight end all-time at A&M to tally over 1,000 receiving yards in his career.
- Wydermyer scored six touchdowns in each of his first two seasons, the second-most in a season by a tight end in program history ... He continues to chase Jace Sternberger's 10 TD receptions in 2018.
- Last year, Wydermyer was the Aggies' leader with 29 catches for first downs ... He also led the team with 14 catches for first downs on third-down plays.
- The Mackey Award finalist did the most damage in the Aggies' two games vs. top-five opponents last season, tallying a combined 13 receptions for 135 yards against No. 2 Alabama and No. 4 Florida.

GREEN ANCHORS O-LINE

- Junior OL Kenyon Green is in his third year as a starter and first as a veteran leader on a young offensive line as the Aggies look to replace four multi-year starters.
- Green, a consensus All-American and 2020 Outland Trophy Semifinalist, has made 25 consecutive starts, which stands as the most on the current roster.
- In the season opener, Green, who was named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week for his efforts in the game, was joined by freshmen Bryce Foster and Aki Ogunbiyi, along with sophomore Layden Robinson and Tennessee grad transfer Jahmir Johnson, all making their first starts at A&M ... The youthful unit cleared the way for a pair of 100-yard rushers and helped A&M tally 595 yards of total offense, good for fifth in the nation through week one.
- Last season, A&M became the first school in the last 10 years to lead the SEC in sacks allowed (0.7), tackles for loss allowed (3.8) and yards per carry (5.45) in the same season.

ACHANE SHOWS HIS SPEED

- Sophomore RB Devon Achane wasted no time settling into his second season in Aggieland, picking up where he left off after last season's Orange Bowl MVP performance ... Against Kent State, Achane rushed for his second consecutive 100-yard game (127), with both games featuring a 60-plus yard sprint for a touchdown.
- Through 10 career games, the two-sport standout is averaging 8.4 yards per carry and has scored six touchdowns on just 64 carries ... Achane averages a rushing touchdown every 10 carries for his career.
- The talented sophomore also runs track for the Aggies, already receiving NCAA All-America selections in the 100m, 200m and 4x100m relay. In his first season, Achane clocked the 11th fastest time in A&M history in the 200m (20.31), along with a 10.22 100m.

SWISS ARMY KNIFE

- Junior WR Ainiias Smith has been called a "Swiss Army Knife" by head coach Jimbo Fisher because of his do-it-all ability on the field ... He's already the only player in Texas A&M history to gain 250+ yards as a receiver, rusher, punt returner and kickoff returner.
- Smith is one of 10 players in SEC history to reach the 250-yard plateau in receiving, rushing and punt and kick return yards ... Smith is one of three SEC players to have accomplished the feat in the past decade.
- Smith is 69 receiving yards shy of becoming the third player in SEC history to gain 1,000 receiving yards while also gaining 250+ yards as a rusher and returner (punt and kickoff) ... The others are Kentucky's Randall Cobb (2008-10) and LSU's Skyler Green (2002-05).
- In the season opener against Kent State, Smith scored a pair of receiving touchdowns while chipping in 127 all-purpose yards (100 receiving, 16 rushing, 11 punt return).

NO FLY ZONE

- The Aggie defense stepped up big in the second half at Colorado, allowing just 54 yards of total offense, including only 23 yards through the air, to keep A&M in position to win ... The unit did not allow the Buffaloes to convert a third down in the half and gave up just four first downs the entire game.
- A&M ranks third nationally, allowing just 99.5 passing yards per game so far this year and boasts the fifth-best scoring defense in the country, and is also tied for 10th in red zone defense.
- The Maroon & White ranks second in the country in team passing efficiency defense.
- Senior DL Jayden Peevy leads the SEC and is tied for ninth nationally in passes defended as he has disrupted four passes through two games.
- After his pair of picks in the season opener, senior DB Leon O'Neal Jr. is tied for the lead in interceptions among SEC players.

LEAL LOOKS TO LEAD DEFENSE

- Junior DL DeMarvin Leal has gained the reputation as one of the country's most disruptive defenders after an impressive 2020 campaign.
- Leal earned a number of preseason All-America first team and national watch list accolades entering the season after leading the Aggies in QB hurries (8) and finishing top-five on the team in tackles (37) a season ago.
- Leal is one of three returning starters on the defensive line and was a key contributor on one of the nation's best defenses last season, as the Aggies boasted the No. 2 rush defense in the country and finished the year at No. 9 in total defense.
- Against No. 4 Florida, Leal recovered a fumble late in the fourth quarter that set up A&M's game-winning drive and sparked the team's eight-game win streak to close out the season.

HANSFORD'S JOURNEY TO STARTER

- Graduate LB Aaron Hansford started all nine games he played in last season and finished the year second on the team with 49 tackles, sitting only behind fellow linebacker and current Pittsburgh Steeler Buddy Johnson.
- Hansford was originally recruited to A&M as member of the receiving corps and made the transition to the defensive side of the ball as a junior after battling a pair of season-ending injuries in 2016 and 2018.
- For the second straight season Hansford led the charge on defense in the season opener as his eight takedowns against Kent State were a squad-best ... To start the 2020 season, Hansford set a new career mark with 11 tackles in the win over Vanderbilt.
- Hansford played in 13 games as a junior, making his first start at then-No. 1 LSU ... He made some of his biggest plays against big opponents, recording his first career sack against No. 1 Alabama for a 10-yard loss and had another for an 8-yard loss at No. 4 Georgia.

THE ELKO EFFECT

- After not finishing in the top 50 nationally in total defense for more than a decade, Mike Elko's arrival in Aggieland as defensive coordinator in 2018 has coincided with consistent top-35 finishes, including a top-10 ranking in the 2020 final FBS total defense standings.
- Elko has produced top-50 defenses in each of the last nine years with multiple programs (Texas A&M, Notre Dame, Wake Forest, Bowling Green).
- The Aggies led the SEC in 2020 in total defense at 317.3 yards/game ... They finished the year second in the SEC in rushing defense (92.0) and pass defense (225.3), and third in scoring defense (21.7).
- For the first time since joining the SEC in 2012, Texas A&M finished better than No. 9 in all four defensive categories (total, rush, pass, score).
- Another way the Aggies have improved under Elko and with the style of play by head coach Jimbo Fisher is the dramatic drop in number of snaps faced per game by the defense ... Texas A&M's defense was facing just 58.7 snaps/game in 2020, which is similar to the numbers from 2018 (60.4) and 2019 (64.8) ... Prior to Elko's arrival in 2018, the Aggies faced 72.5 snaps in 2017 and a whopping 79.6 in 2016.

Bible because of injuries to his football team ... Gill never entered the game but "stood ready" in the Aggies' 22-14 win over the powerhouse Centre College Praying Colonels.
- In honor of the tradition, the Texas A&M student body "stands ready" to show their support of their team on the field.
- The 12th Man Kickoff Team tradition was started in 1983 by then-head coach Jackie Sherrill after being inspired by watching students build the famous Aggie Bonfire. "I knew that I could find, out of 40-some-odd thousand students, 11 guys that would cover kickoffs, but have no regard for their body and be tough as nails," Sherrill said. (Source: MyAggieNation.com) Beginning in 1991, a single 12th Man was chosen to represent the study body on the kickoff unit.

- Junior WR Ainias Smith has been one of the most versatile contributors on offense and special teams throughout his 3-year career.

The rarity has only been achieved by 14 SEC players, including notables like Carnell "Cadillac" Williams of Auburn, Randall Cobb of Kentucky and Chris Rainey of Florida.
- Smith was not unfamiliar with the SEC prior to committing to Texas A&M, as his brother Maurice Smith was a cornerback at Alabama before transferring after graduation to Georgia ... Maurice has played three seasons in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins and Washington Football Team.
