NOTING THE RAMS

- Colorado State enters year two - and the first true full season - under head coach Steve Addazio who was named the program's 23rd head coach on Dec. 12, 2019. Addazio is in his 11th year as an FBS head coach in 2021 with the Rams after seven seasons at Boston College (2013-19) and two seasons at Temple (2011-12). He is only the second Colorado State head coach (Earle Bruce) to have won a bowl game as a head coach with another school.
- Addazio has been a head coach in five bowl games and led his teams to six bowl games. He has coached in more bowl games as a head coach than all other CSU head coaches except Earle Bruce (10 prior to CSU).
- Colorado State returned all but one starter from the 2020 squad and has a roster which includes 33 senior, fifth-year or beyond players.
- Tight end Trey McBride, fresh off a 2020 All-American season, elected to return to Colorado State in 2021 and is bringing NFL scouts to campus on a weekly basis. McBride appeared on Todd McShay's Big Board as the top tight end and No. 27 overall prospect for the 2022 NFL Draft.
- Senior Ryan Stonehouse, a two-time All-American (2018, 2020), is currently the NCAA's all-time career leader in punt average with a 47.2 mark. The three-time All-Mountain West performer is aiming to finish his career above 46.31.
- SACK MASTERS: Colorado State enjoyed an offseason of highlights at the professional level as former Ram Shaq Barrett - the NFL's leading sacker in 2019 - won a Super Bowl with Tampa Bay, and Al Baker (1974-77) was unofficially named the NFL's single-season sack record holder based on a review of film by Pro Football Reference for his 23 sacks in his rookie season.
- Speaking of sacks, Colorado State returns every contributor from a defensive front that led the nation in tackles for loss per game last season, including All-Mountain West First Team performer Scott Patchan who ranked No. 6 nationally in the category a season ago. The Rams were the most improved defensive line in the nation in 2020.

NOTING THE GAME

- The Rams head on the road this week for their conference road opener at rival New Mexico. It will be the 68th meeting between the schools, placing New Mexico as one of CSU's most frequent opponents (Wyoming - 111; Colorado - 91; Utah - 80; Utah State - 76; BYU - 68)
- The two teams did not play in 2020 as a result of COVID-19 restrictions in the state of New Mexico at the time.
- Colorado State is currently riding a 10-game winning streak dating back to 2010 vs. New Mexico.
- Colorado State receiver Jordan Kress, a Loveland, Colo., native, transferred to the Rams this season after four years at New Mexico.
- The Rams are aiming to begin conference play 2-0 - and remain atop the Mountain Division - for the first time since 2017 when they started the year 4-0.

NUMBERS TO WATCH

458

At 458 receiving yards, TE Trey McBride is currently out-packing any previous Mackey Award winner through their first five games.

1

With one more touchdown catch, Trey McBride will move into second place on the school's all-time touchdown list among tight ends.

11

Placekicker Cayden Camper has hit 11 consecutive field goals after going 5-for-5 at Toledo and a school record 6-for-6 vs. San Jose State.

Media INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, submit a request at CSURams.com/FootballCredentials. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made on game day will not be approved. Credentials are issued to the individual.

As of August 11, 2021, proof of full vaccination status is required prior to being issued a credential. Individuals who are unvaccinated, cannot provide vaccination proof, or are not fully vaccinated may not receive a credential.

MEDIA/SCOUTS WILL CALL AND PARKING: Due to ease of pick up outside Canvas Stadium, credentials will NOT be mailed this season. Credential pick up is available at the northwest corner of Canvas Stadium at a ticket office window and begins three hours prior to kick off.

Parking passes will also be delivered digitally to media and scouts to the phone number listed on the credential application. Parking passes will be sending during game week.

MEDIA/STAFF ELEVATOR: An elevator is available for use throughout the game to allow media to travel between the field level, first floor, and sixth floor press box. However, this elevator is also used by food and beverage staff. The elevator may also be held for coaches of either team in the final minutes of each half, and media members are encouraged to use the stairwell if they are physically able to do so.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE: After a cooling off period and conversation with the team, head coach Steve Addazio and select players will be available to the media. Post-game video is available by request.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless they are employed by a reputable publication or the Communications office of the participating schools. Credentials are issued to photographers for the purpose of media coverage only, and images of the game may not be used for commercial purposes without the expressed, written permission of Colorado State Athletics.

SIDELINE AREAS: Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive without proper equipment will not be granted sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Colorado State's locker room is closed at all times.

RECRUITS: Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Each Monday during the season, with the exception of the bye week, head coach Steve Addazio holds his weekly press conference beginning at Noon. Video will be available of the full availability courtesy of Colorado State Athletics.

PRACTICES: During the regular season, practices are open for the final 30 minutes of Tuesday and Wednesday practices. Media members should submit interview requests for student-athletes a day prior to the interview. When attending practice, please contact Kyle Neaves or Mike Brohard prior to entering the facility.

Head Coach STEVE ADDAZIO

3-6 OVERALL // SECOND YEAR

60-61 Overall/11th Year

Steve Addazio, a two-time BCS National Champion with nine years of head coaching experience at two universities prior to coming to Fort Collins, was named the 23rd head football coach at Colorado State on Dec. 12, 2019, the 127th anniversary of the founding of the football program.

Addazio has tallied 58 wins over his 10-year coaching career which included stints at Temple (2011-12) and Boston College (2013-19) where he became the first coach in BC history to lead the program to six bowls in the first seven seasons as a head coach, and the first bowl-winning head coach at Temple in over 30 years in his first season as head coach.

In his first season with the Rams, Addazio was welcomed with a once-in-a-century worldwide pandemic that brought spring practices to a close halfway through, saw the season get cancelled only to return weeks later, and a four-week preseason camp that resulted in just four games. All totaled, three games were lost due to COVID-19 complications at opposing schools, and the Rams played just one game at home in Addazio's initial season.

But what a game it was. The Rams defeated Wyoming to bring the Bronze Boot back to Fort Collins for the first time since 2015.

His 2019 Eagles led the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing offense and ranked No. 6 nationally at 267.8 yards per game while also protecting the quarterback at an ACC-best clip of 0.92 sacks allowed per game – third-best nationally.

Known as hard-nosed teams with powerful rushing attacks, the Eagles had a 1,000-yard rusher in five of seven years under Addazio, highlighted by Heisman Trophy finalist and Doak Walker Award Winner Andre Williams' 2,177 yards in 2013. The Eagles spent four weeks in the 2018 AP Top 25 (hitting a peak of No. 17) and appeared in the College Football Playoff rankings for the first time in 2018, the first time the program had been ranked since 2007.

Addazio's first opportunity as a head coach came at Temple where he spent two seasons, leading the Owls to a 9-4 mark in his inaugural season of 2011. That season, the Owls won their first bowl game in 32 years, capturing the New Mexico Bowl with a 37-15 victory over Wyoming.

An offensive line coach by trade, Addazio is considered one of the top teachers nationally at the position and one of the nation's top recruiters. In 2010, Addazio was honored by ESPN.com as the nation's No. 1 recruiter as he helped put together a pair of recruiting classes in 2009 and 2010 that ranked in the top 5 nationally including the nation's best class in 2010. He spent three years as an offensive coordinator, two at Florida under coach Urban Meyer when the Gators won two BCS national championships. He served as Indiana's offensive coordinator in 2004.

He began his coaching career at Western Connecticut State as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 1985-87. He then stepped back to coach Cheshire High School from 1988-1994, with that team winning three state championships, 49 consecutive games and sending 20 players to college programs.

He returned to college coaching in 1995, the first of four seasons at Syracuse working with tight ends and the offensive line. In 1999, he spent the first of two seasons at Notre Dame, coaching tackles, tight ends and special teams.

That was followed by three years at Indiana (2002-04), the first two as the offensive line coach. He was with Florida from 2005-10 as the Gators won a pair of national championships, first coaching tackles and tight ends before being promoted to assistant head coach in 2007, still working with the offensive line. In 2009-10, he added the duties as the Gators' offensive coordinator. In 2010, Florida ranked 10th nationally in scoring offense, sixth in total offense.

Addazio and his wife, Kathleen, have three children: Nicole, Jessica and Louie.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT STEVE ADDAZIO

Chris Lindstrom
Atlanta Falcons

"Coach Addazio is an outstanding coach and an incredible person. He helped shape my brother and I into the men we are today. I would not be where I am today without Coach Addazio. He brings out the best in everyone he interacts with. He loves his players and we love him."

Mike Pouncey
Los Angeles Chargers

"Colorado State got a great man and great football coach in Steve Addazio. I wouldn't be the man I am today without him. Not only did he help me become the football player I am today, he was also was a father figure to me and my brother, Maurkice, while away from our family. He turned two young kids from Lakeland, Fla. into men."

Urban Meyer
Former Head Coach

"Steve Addazio has all of the qualities you want in a head football coach. Coach Addazio and I have a long-standing relationship through coaching, including winning two national championships together at Florida, and I have seen first-hand how passionate he is about the game of football, the players he coaches, and the programs he leads. He is one of the nation's top recruiters and will represent Colorado State well. I am excited to see the Rams develop under his leadership."

This Week IN HISTORY

Most fans of Colorado State football today are only familiar with the Rocky Mountain Showdown being played in Denver as a neutral-site game. In 1940, the Aggies played three games at the University of Denver's stadium, two of which were neutral-site games, the first against the Colorado School of Mines and the second against the University of New Mexico. Their third game was their annual contest against DU.

While looking in the record books, it may not make sense why the Aggies gave up a home game against the Lobos to play in Denver on October 26. The reason coach Harry Hughes' team played at DU's much larger and nicer stadium rested on the need to be in Denver for a special banquet that night. The 1940 football season marked the 30th season in which the legendary Hughes had been the head football coach of the Colorado Aggies football team. Denver Alumni hosted a banquet at the Shirley-Savoy hotel the evening after the game to honor their legendary coach.

Before the banquet could be held, the Aggies still needed to play their game against the Lobos, who had beaten them in 1938 and 1939, both of those games on Thanksgiving Day in Albuquerque. The rivalry with New Mexico was still in its infancy in 1940, with an overall record of 2-2 dating back to the first game the two schools played in 1935.

The Aggies donned their all-orange uniforms for the matchup against the red-and-silver Lobos while a large crowd found their way into DU Stadium to honor Hughes. Known at the time as the "Dean of American Football Coaches," Hughes' men were showing signs of life again after horrible records in 1936, 1937, 1938 and 1939 when the Aggies sported a combined record of 8-23-1, the worst stretch in Hughes' career.

Some of the Aggies players in 1940, eventually became legendary CSU football icons like Walter "Bus" Bergman, Lewis "Dude" Dent, Leon "Red" Eastlack, Chet Maeda, and the great John Mosley. The hero of the day against the Lobos wound up being sophomore back Sherwood "Woody" Fries, who scored the lone touchdown for the Aggies, kicked the extra point and blocked New Mexico's extra point to guide the Aggies to a 7-6 victory. Fries also provided excellent punting to drive the Lobos deep into their own territory all day long.

After the game, the team, along with numerous alumni dating back to Hughes' first team of 1911, gathered to honor their legendary mentor at the banquet that brought them to Denver. Members of the media, Dr. Floyd Cross and Dr. Charles Lory all spoke at the banquet about the character, respect and record that Hughes had brought to Aggies football and the school in general. His 1911 team presented him with a portable radio and reminisced how Hughes guided them from a winless record to champions in five years.

Although the 1940 Aggies went on to a disappointing 3-4-2 record, the 1941 team gave Hughes his last winning season with a 4-2-1 mark. Following the bombing of Pearl Harbor, the school went into full war mode and Hughes decided in April of 1942, he would step down from coaching football to help train men for the war effort on the Colorado State campus. His amazing career over a 31-year span, plus four games coached in 1946, netted him a record of 126 wins, 41 losses and 18 ties; the most wins by a football coach in school history.

NOTEBOOK

SEASON CAPTAINS NAMED

Under head coach Steve Addazio, Colorado State names captains for the season as voted on by the team at the end of fall camp.

For 2021, five Rams were voted captains by their teammates: Trey McBride (Two-Time Captain), Dequan Jackson (Two-Time Captain), Scott Patchan, Toby McBride, and Todd Centeio.

The McBride brothers are the only known pair of brothers serving as captains for their teams in the FBS this season.

STONEHOUSE IS RECORD CHASING

All-American punter Ryan Stonehouse currently ranks as the FBS career leader in punt average. Not just the active career leader. The all-time leader.

Todd Sauerbrun's (West Virginia, 1991-94) mark of 46.31 on 167 punts for punters with 150-249 punts stands at the current mark, and Stonehouse will be keeping an eye on that average all season after electing to return in 2021.

NO. 9 MEANS SOMETHING EXTRA FOR STEWART

The story of safety Logan Stewart is well-known around Colorado State. A nearby native from Loveland, Colo., Stewart grew up selling popcorn and sodas in the stands at old Hughes Stadium, dreaming of one day becoming a Ram himself.

After grades forced him to Pima Community College, and then the need for better exposure sent him to Iowa Central, Stewart walked on at Colorado State and slept on teammates' couches just to get by. Then, prior to the 2019 season, Stewart was put on scholarship and subsequently started every game that season.

Stewart switched to No. 9 from No. 37 a year ago to pay homage to his family. Stewart is one of Kari and Jeff Stewart's nine children - six of whom are adopted, including Stewart.

MCBRIDE SETTING THE TIGHT END STANDARD

After a 2019 campaign that saw him fully establish himself as one of the nation's best tight ends, All-American Trey McBride showed no sign of slowing down in 2020. After surprising many and electing to return in 2021, McBride is poised to continue his climb up the Colorado State record book and cement himself as one of the program's all-time greats at the position.

JONES ANOTHER RECORD CHASER

Defensive lineman Manny Jones has enjoyed a productive career in the backfield - of opposing teams - during his career at Colorado State. Jones cracked the Top 10 of the school's career tackles for loss record in 2020 and is well-positioned to climb those ranks in 2021. In 2020, the former linebacker averaged 1.38 tackles for loss per game and another productive season could well move him into the top five at that pace.

RAMS ACTIVE IN THE TRANSFER PORTAL UNDER ADDAZIO

Since coming to Colorado State, head coach Steve Addazio and staff have been active in the transfer market. In 2020, Colorado State brought in six FBS transfers including former Miami defensive end Scott Patchan who was a breakout star for the Rams in 2020. Patchan's connection to the staff runs through his brother, Matt, who played for Addazio at Boston College. In 2021, the Rams added another

LIVING BEHIND THE LINE

Colorado State's defensive line showed massive improvement under the direction of Steve Addazio and line coach Antoine Smith in 2020. In the season prior to their arrival, the Rams averaged just 5.7 tackles for loss per game - No. 83 nationally. In 2020, the Rams led the nation in tackles for loss per game at 10.5 and had the widest margin of improvement year over year of any team in the country.

Heading into 2021, Smith returns every contributor from that front and added depth along the way.

THE NATION'S MOST TENURED ASSISTANT

Now entering his 45th season as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level, defensive coordinator Chuck Heater is the nation's most senior assistant both in terms of years and games coached (524) entering 2021. Northwestern's Mike Hankwitz previously held the top spot prior to his retirement in 2020.

Heater has coached at 13 universities - including two stops at Colorado State - and 30 bowl games since beginning his career as an assistant coach at Northern Arizona in 1976. Maryland's Ron Zook (536) and New Mexico's Rocky Long (528) have technically coached in more football games overall when you include time in professional football. Heater has never coached in the professional ranks.

CELEBRATING AG DAY

When Colorado State hosted Vanderbilt on Sept. 11, the school also celebrated Ag Day. Since 1981, Colorado State University has hosted the annual celebration to honor the school's agricultural roots. In 2010, the athletic department began incorporating that celebration into uniform colors when the Rams become the Aggies again for one day.

Colorado State wore a white helmet with a Ram logo last seen in 1968 along with orange jerseys and white pants. The orange jerseys represent the pumpkin color the Aggies wore as the school colors were pumpkin and alfalfa.

For more information on the Ag Day celebration from the University, visit agsci.colostate.edu/AgDay.

RAMS NEARLY 100% VACCINATED

Colorado State is nearly 100% vaccinated against COVID-19, a point of pride for head coach Steve Addazio and the locker room as a whole. The Rams lost the opportunity to play four of their eight scheduled games in 2020, three due to COVID-19 complications and team leaders have all mentioned those moments as the driving force for unity within the locker room to all get vaccinated.

R.A.M LIFE EXPANDING UNDER ADDAZIO

Under Steve Addazio, Colorado State's player development program was re-imagined - using Ohio State as a model - with the creation of R.A.M. Life. R.A.M stands for Real and Meaningful and provides Colorado State student-athletes with a playbook for life after football.

Each player, scholarship and walk-on, receives a tailored suit that is used for team travel as well as for job interviews. Program director Ricky Santo assists with resume workshops, organizing weekly speakers, and coordinates job fairs to help Colorado State student-athletes secure internships while they earn their degrees.

WELCOME TO THE HALL, JOEL

Prior to the Vanderbilt game on Sept. 10, Colorado State officially inducted its 30th Hall of Fame which included former football Ram Joel Dreessen (2001-04). Dreessen was a 2004 honorable mention All-American by Sports Illustrated and Pro Football Weekly and won a conference championship in 2002.

After his CSU days, Dreessen was a sixth-round pick by the New York Jets and spent eight seasons in the NFL with the Jets, Texans, and Broncos before concluding his career in 2013.

Dreessen is the 74th former Ram football player to be inducted into the CSU Hall of Fame.

CANVAS STADIUM

Canvas Stadium is the new name for Colorado State University's 36,500-capacity multipurpose stadium that opened on the school's Fort Collins campus in 2017. Canvas Credit Union received naming rights to the facility through a $37.7 million partnership agreement announced in April 2018. The agreement, which stands as one of the largest collegiate athletic venue naming agreements in history, was part of an ambitious re-branding initiative being undertaken by the previously branded Public Service Credit Union, under the direction of company President and CEO Todd Marksberry.

The $220 million, 727,000-square-foot stadium proved immensely popular and attractive to fans in its inaugural season of 2017, and drew rave reviews from local and national media, as well national television networks that broadcast Colorado State's games to large audiences. The Rams set an all-time attendance record with a total of 192,369 fans and a per-game average of 32,062, representing a 16-percent attendance increase from 2016—eighth-highest in all of college football. Season ticket sales also reached an all-time high of 15,477, a 40-percent increase from the 2016 total of 11,054.

The return of CSU football games to campus from Hughes Stadium in 2017 brought the pageantry and celebration of Rams game days back to the heart of the university for the first time in 50 years, providing countless new engagement opportunities for the entire university. The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game-day and non-game day usage.

The agreement with Canvas Credit Union combined with $20 million given in 2016 to name Sonny Lubick Field brings the total naming rights revenues at Colorado State to $57 million for the stadium. This compares favorably with the recently announced $69 million United Airlines Memorial Coliseum at University of Southern California and the $41 million Alaska Airlines Field at Husky Stadium at the University of Washington. The Colorado State agreement with Canvas Credit Union is for 15 years and includes annual escalator clauses for inflation, as well as a signing bonus, in recognition of the visibility and success of the stadium.

2021 RULE CHANGES

Each offseason, college football's rules and regulations are reviewed. The below are three changes that will be in place for the 2021 season.

Team Area and Coaching Box

After evaluating the adjustment in 2020 for COVID-19 and to allow for social distancing, the Rules Committee has made a permanent extension of the Team Area and Coaching Box. On each side of the field, a team area in back of the limit line and between the 20-yard lines shall be marked for the exclusive use of substitutes, athletics trainers and other persons affiliated with the team. The front of the coaching box shall be marked with a solid line six feet outside the sideline between the 20-yard lines.

Extra Periods

In Football Bowl Subdivision competition during the 2020 season, overtime accounted for an average of 16.8 additional plays per overtime period in those games. There shall be an equal number of possession series unless Team B scores other than on the try. Beginning with the second extra period, teams scoring a touchdown must attempt a two-point try. Although not illegal, a one-point try attempt by Team A will not result in a score. Beginning with the third extra period, a team's possession series will be one play for a two-point try from the three-yard line, unless relocated by penalty.

Feigning Injuries Emphasis

Feigning an injury for any reason is unethical. An injured player must be given full protection under the rules, but feigning an injury is dishonest, unsportsmanlike, and contrary to the spirit of the rules. For questionable game action, an institution or conference has the option to consult the National Coordinator of Football Officials who would then facilitate a video review. After the review, the National Coordinator will communicate any findings with the Director of Athletics at the institution for further action.

South Dakota St.	7	14	14	7	-	42
Colorado St.	0	10	0	13	-	23

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) — Chris Oladokun passed for 224 yards with two touchdowns and ran for another, Pierre Strong, Jr. rushed for two more scores as South Dakota State thundered past Colorado State 42-23 on Friday night.

Oladokun, who came to SDSU as a graduate transfer (Samford, USF) over the summer was 18-for-28 passing without an interception. Strong piled up 106 yards by halftime, finishing with 138. Sophomore Isaiah Davis rushed for 84 yards and a TD, most in the second half. Jadon Janke caught six passes for 92 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The Rams failed to convert a risky fourth-and-1 in their own territory on their first possession of the third quarter when David Bailey was stopped for no gain at the 38. The Jackrabbits scored in two plays when Oladokun passed for 21 and 17 yards, the latter to Janke, pushing the lead to 28-10.

After pinning South Dakota State at the 3 with a deep punt, Colorado State regained possession at midfield, but Todd Centeio was sacked and fumbled. Davis capped SDSU's eight play drive with three straight carries including a fourth-down conversion from the 3 and a touchdown from the 2.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Colorado State jumped out to a 14-0 lead mid-way through the 2nd quarter and was firing on all cylinders, but the Rams were ultimately unable to land a knockout blow and allowed Vanderbilt to come back for a 24-21 victory.

After tying the game on a 3-yard touchdown pass to Trey McBride on 4th and Goal, Colorado State allowed the Commodores to drive it 55 yards, aided by a 15-yard targeting call and 15-yard pass interference call, for the game-winning field goal.

After racking up 305 yards in the first half, the Rams only managed to tally 160 in the second half and just 44 in the third quarter.

GAME NOTES

- Coin Toss/Result: Vanderbilt won the toss and deferred to the second half. CSU received.
- For Starers: Colorado State has now received the opening kickoff 12 straight games. Their touchdown ended a streak of five straight games having to punt on the first drive.
- Back-to-Back: Running back David Bailey became the first Ram since Dante Wright in 2019 to have at least one receiving and one rushing touchdown in each of the first two games.
- Tough Loss: Last time CSU led at half and lost was in 2019 against Air Force (14-10). Last time CSU gave up a double-digit lead and a loss was 11/11/17 to Boise State. Colorado State led 28-3 in that game.
- Ryan Stonehouse: Robert Floyd, a walk-on, Gerick Robinson (WR) and Evan Olaes (QB) were the only true freshman to play in the game for Colorado State.

TOLEDO, Ohio — For the first time since 2002, a Colorado State kicker went 5-for-5 on field goals, and that was enough to carry Colorado State over Toledo, 22-6, in a game where all of the scoring came via special teams.

The Rams defense proved tough all afternoon against a Toledo team which, a week prior, took Notre Dame down to the wire. Colorado State held Toledo to just 14 yards on 28 carries and surrendered just two field goals.

Offensively, the Rams were effective on the ground behind David Bailey while tight end Trey McBride accounted for 99.1% of the team's receiving yards. McBride went over 100 catches for his career on the day.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: Trey and Toby McBride, Todd Centeio, Dequan Jackson and Scott Patchan.
- Coin Toss/Result: Lost/kickoff.
- Dirty Dozen: Toledo won the toss and elected to receive, ending a streak of 12 games where Colorado State received the opening kickoff.
- True Start: True freshman Jack Howell made his first career start, opening up at safety for the injured Tywan Francis and with backup Logan Stewart suspended for the first half due to a targeting call the week prior. He finished the game with nine tackles.
- Long Time Coming: Thomas Pannunzio returned a punt 70 yards for a touchdown, the first scoring punt return for the program since 2016. Robert Ruiz was the last to do it, 91 yards, on the road at San Diego State.
- No Go: CSU's defense held Toledo to 14 yards rushing, the best effort since limiting UTSA to -1 rushing back in 2016.

IOWA CITY, Iowa — It was a game of matching styles as both 5/6 Iowa and Colorado State looked to establish their physical running styles from the beginning.

Colorado State starting running back David Bailey was injured on the games' first play, and the Hawkeye defense was stifling all day.

Iowa took advantage of long pass plays on their scoring drive to take a 7-0 lead, but the Rams were able to tie the game just before half on a Todd Centeio designed run.

On the ensuing drive, Iowa quarterback Spencer Petras drove the home squad down the field but walk-on freshman receiver Robert Floyd ripped the ball away for Petras' first interception of the season. After the 62-yard return gave the Rams a short field, Centeio found Gary Williams on a roll-out to send CSU into the break up 14-7.

The lead wouldn't last though as the Hawkeyes showed why they are one of the nation's top teams, blanking the Rams in the second half and escaping with a 24-14 win.

GAME NOTES

- Coin Toss/Result: Won toss/Receive
- Two-Way Player: Thomas Pannunzio had a pair of second-quarter rushes on jet sweeps, having already appeared as the team's nickelback. The last CSU player to appear in an offensive and defensive role in the same game was Anthony Hawkins back on Oct. 6, 2018. Hawkins started at wideout and played in the secondary, too.
- Top 10: Colorado State entered the game 2-13 all-time against teams ranked in the AP Top 10.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Despite returning largely their entire roster from the 2020 Mountain West Championship team, it was Colorado State who looked more like a defending champion with a 32-14 drubbing of San Jose State on Saturday.

The Rams were methodical on the opening drives, going eight plays for 75 yards and capped with a one-yard touchdown score from Jaylen Thomas. And the host team, in front of the 4th-largest crowd in Canvas Stadium history, never let us.

Cayden Camper set a school record with six made field goals, including a 53-yarder in swirling winds, and Todd Centeio connected with Ty McCulloch for a 60-yard strike on third down to send the fans into a frenzy.

The Rams began conference play 1-0 for the first time since 2014.
