TIPPING OFF

The Lobos have Houston on the mind this week, set to face Houston Baptist on Tuesday before travelling back to Houston (specifically Katy) for the Van Chancellor Classic set to begin on Friday.

First things first is a Tuesday meeting with the Huskies, with the Lobos looking to get back on track after dropping their first game of the season on Saturday at Houston. LaTora Duff led the Lobos in scoring with 16 points on 7-for-11 shooting, with Jaedyn De La Cerda finishing with 14 points (with four three-point-ers) and LaTascya Duff the third Lobo in double figures with 11. Getting the starting nod, Paula Reus had a solid all-around performance with seven points, seven assists, five rebounds and two steals. Turnovers were the difference in the game, with Houston pressuring the Lobos into 34 turnovers, while UNM caused 18 and could only manufacture nine points off turnovers

The Lobos have four players averaging 10-plus points per game, led by Shaiquel McGruder with 14.3, followed by LaTora Duff and De La Cerda with 12.5 each and Antonia Anderson at 12.0. Anderson and McGruder lead the team in rebounds at 23 and 20, respectively, for 5.8 and 5.0 rebounds per game. LaTora has 28 assists on the season to nine turnovers, a 3.11 ratio and is averaging 7.0 assists per game.

On the other side of the court, Houston Baptist enters with an identical record, losing its first game of the season to TCU (78-48) before winning its next three (St. Thomas (TX), Texas Wesleyan and Hartford). The Huskies are averaging 67.0 points a game while holding opponents to 56.3 points a game.

The Huskies have two players averaging double figures in scoring, led by Timia Jefferson with 15.7 and joined by Julija Vujakovic, who has 11.0. #### Balanced Attack

Much like their M.O. last season, the Lobos had balanced scoring in their first three games of the season with four double-digit scorers before having three finish in double figures at Houston.

Four Lobos are currently averaging 10-plus points per game in Shaiquel McGruder (14.3), Antonia Anderson (12.0), Jaedyn De La Cerda (12.5) and LaTora Duff (12.5).

McGruder, De La Cerda and LaTora Duff have reached double figures in three of the four games this season.

In addition, a different Lobo has led the scoring in all four games: Anderson (16, Lamar), Vianè Cumber (17, Northern New Mexico), McGruder (30, Prairie View), LaTora Duff (16, Houston).

Also of note, New Mexico has scored the first points of the game and the third quarter in every game that they have played in this season. UNM is outscoring its opponents 315-254, with the largest point total in the first quarter (86 points) and largest margin in the second quarter (79-54).

UNM finished with four scorers in double figures in the season opener against Lamar, led by Anderson's game-high 16 points, followed by De La Cerda and McGruder at 15 each and LaTora Duff with 10. Duff was one assist shy of a double-double, tying her then-career high with nine assists, and nearly matching Lamar's team total in assists as the Cardinals had 10 in the game. McGruder was a perfect 7-for-7 from the field, one of two Lobos to go perfect from the floor.

As a team, the Lobos had balanced scoring, scoring 18 points in three of the four quarters and 17 points in the first.

Freshman Mackenzie Curtis and senior McGruder each had 12 points in the win over Northern New Mexico to join Cumber's game-high 17. Nevaeh Parkinson recorded her first collegiate double-double with 11 points and a game-high 11 rebounds, grabbing five offensive boards and six defensive, while also credited for two steals and an assist.

In the game against Prairie View A&M, McGruder led all scorers with 30 points, followed by Anderson's 19 points- with the senior finishing one rebound shy of a double-double - LaTora Duff's career-high 17 points and De La Cerda's 13 points, with nine of those points coming from behind the arc.

Put the 3 in 3-2

Antonia Anderson has made one three-pointer in each game this season and has a six-game streak of making one dating back to last season.

Three-Point Improvement

Her super senior counterpart, Jaedyn De La Cerda, has improved her threepointers in each game this season, starting with one three-pointer against Lamar, increasing it to two against Northern New Mexico, three against Prairie View and four against Houston.

Like Anderson, De La Cerda's three-point streak dates back to last season and is at seven games currently.

Other streaks on the Lobos: LaTascya Duff at six games with a three-pointer.

Shai Time

Shaiquel McGruder took over in Tuesday's game against Prairie View A&M, setting several career highs. The senior forward finished with a career-high 30 points on a career-high 13-for-18 shooting, while adding seven rebounds and four steals to her stat sheet.

The scoring started early for McGruder, with the Lobo winning the tip and immediately making a layup 14 seconds in.

McGruder already reached double digits in the first quarter with 10 points and accounted for three of UNM's five steals.

The senior forward is seventh in the NCAA in field-goal percentage (.694), which leads the MW, and is second in the conference in field-goals made (25)

How May I Assist You?

It didn't take long for LaTora Duff to get back to form, accounting for 28 assists in the first four games. The point guard tied her career high with nine assists against Lamar, with seven assists coming in the fourth quarter, and added five assists in the second game against Northern New Mexico.

She then bested that performance in the next game with a career-high 12 assists, while also setting career highs in points (17), rebounds (eight) and blocks (four).

The Lobo facilitator is averaging 7.0 assists per game, to go along with 12.5 points per game, 4.0 rebounds per game and 1.3 blocks per game.

Duff is eighth in the NCAA in assists per game and 11th in overall assists. She leads the MW in assists and is second in assists per game.

Connect For Two

Of Duff's career-high 12 assists in the game against the Panthers, she connected with McGruder on eight of them.

An Added Surprise

With 4:00 remaining in the second quarter of the game against Northern New Mexico, LaTascya Duff checked in at the scorer's table and into the game for the first time this season, after being cleared to play earlier in the week. It was thought that Duff would be out through the non-conference portion of the schedule at the beginning of the year, but head coach Mike Bradbury confirmed pregame that Duff was ahead of schedule and available to play.

To make it even better, and a welcomed sight, LaTora Duff delivered a perfect pass to LaTascya on the wing, who drained a three-pointer in her first and only attempt of the game.

Duff has started two games this season and has made at least one threepointer a game this season.

Milestone Watch

Super seniors Antonia Anderson and Jaedyn De La Cerda are closing in on 1000-point milestones. De La Cerda is 57 points away and Anderson is 125 away. Should Anderson reach the milestone, she will be the 17th player in program history to have 1,000 points, 500 rebounds.

In addition, Anderson has played in 119 games at UNM, with the record 134 games set by Angela Hartill (2005-09).

Learn As You Grow

While the Lobos return stability in four starters from a year ago, the makeup of the roster is extreme, comprised of five seniors, two sophomores and six freshmen.

All six that have played so far have found the stat sheet in some capacity, with three also getting the starting nod in Paula Reus, Zeyno Seren and Vianè Cumber.

Aniyah Augmon and Cumber have gotten the most minutes to date with over 67 and 62 minutes, respectively, with Augmon standing out against Lamar and Cumber against Northern New Mexico. Reus started at Houston and had a balanced seven points, seven assists, five rebounds and two steals and has played 40 minutes in two games with one start.

In her first official collegiate game, Mackenzie Curtis went 3-for-7 from three and added three free throws to reach double digits, while recording an assist and three rebounds.

Seren tallied seven points on 3-for-5 shooting against Northern New Mexico, has grabbed eight rebounds this season and added two assists and a steal.

Rebeka Renczes is still looking for her first point as a Lobo, but has contributed two rebounds, three assists and a steal in one game.

She's Just a Freshman

It took all of one week of collegiate play for Vianè Cumber to earn her first award, as the guard earned the inaugural MW Freshman of the Week on Monday, Nov. 15.

The distinction comes after Cumber led all scorers with 17 points on 7-for-10 shooting and 3-for-5 from three-point range in her first collegiate start on Friday. The guard also was credited with an assist and two steals.

Cumber took over midway through the first quarter, accounting for eight straight Lobo points, making three consecutive shots on back-to-back threes and a layup as UNM built its lead in the first quarter, going a perfect 3-for-3 and 2-for-2 from three while also having a steal and an assist against Northern New Mexico. In the third quarter, Cumber went 2-for-3 with a fast-break layup and created the steal that led to a fast-break layup on the next possession.

The Albuquerque native added a layup and a final three in the fourth quarter while grabbing four defensive rebounds.

Her first collegiate basket occurred in the second quarter against Lamar on a jumper that extended the Lobo lead to seven and collected three rebounds. On the week, Cumber averaged 9.5 points, 4.0 rebounds and 1.5 steals per game.

Quarter Lockdown

While the season is still young, the Lobos have held an opponent to single digits in a quarter three times already.

In the game against Northern New Mexico, UNM held the Lady Eagles to seven points in both the second and fourth quarters, while holding them under 15 points in each quarter.

The Lobos held Northern New Mexico to 18.2% in the fourth quarter on 2-11 shooting and 23.1% in the second quarter on 3-13 shooting.

As a whole, NNMC shot just 27.6% in the game with 16 made baskets on 58 attempts and 17.4% from three with four makes on 23 attempts.

Against Lamar, the Lobos shut the Cardinals down defensively in the third quarter, allowing just nine points in the quarter for the 53-37 (16 points) lead.

UNM held Lamar to 2-of-11 shooting from the floor (18.2%) and 1-of-7 (14.3%) from three.

On the offensive end, UNM shot 53.8% from the field in the third quarter to the Cardinals' 18.2%, with Jaedyn De La Cerda accounting for 14 of UNM's 18 points in the quarter.

Further, the Lobos held the Panthers scoreless for the first 2:16 of the game, the first Lamar points came at 7:15 remaining in first and the Lobos held the Lady Eagles the final 5:06 of the first quarter without a point.

AA Battery

It didn't take long for freshman Aniyah Augmon to bring energy to the Lobos, providing an immediate spark and has found ways to make an impact on each game this season.

When the Cardinals answered with an 8-0 run of their own to tie the game, it was freshman Aniyah Augmon who stepped up to provide the spark off of the bench with a personal 5-0 run that entailed a fast-break layup, a steal and a three-pointer.

Augmon had a full stat sheet with eight points (3-for-3 shooting), six rebounds (tying the team high) and three steals (a team high) in her first collegiate game and nearly matched it in her second game as a Lobo.

The energy and contributions continued into game two, as the California native registered four rebounds, three assists, a steal and six points in the win over Northern New Mexico, going 2-for-3 from the floor and 2-for-2 from the free-throw line.

In the game against Prairie View, while the freshman was held to just one point, she found other ways to help the Lobos, with six rebounds and three steals.

Among the MW, Augmon is tied for sixth in steals per game and in the top 20 in rebounds per game.

Managing Expectations

After winning the Mountain West regular season in 2020-21 for the first time since 2004-05, the Lobos were picked to finish second in the preseason MW poll with 251 points and seven first-place votes.

It is the second time in head coach Mike Bradbury's tenure that the Lobos have been picked to finish second, with the last time occurring in 2019-20 when the Lobos earned three first-place votes and 280 points.

New Mexico finished above UNLV with the Rebels at 232 points and three first-place votes, and fourth-place Colorado State with the Rams earning 207 points and one first-place vote.

State and Colorado State with one each, San Diego State with two, UNLV at three, UNM with seven and Fresno State the preseason favorite with 13 first-place votes and 269 points.

In addition, senior Antonia Anderson was selected to the MW preseason all-conference team, one of five players to earn the distinction. For Anderson, the Cibolo, Texas native is coming off of a campaign in which she averaged 12.1 points per game, 6.2 rebounds per game, 1.9 assists per game, 1.0 steals per game and 1.0 blocks per game and scored 10-plus points in 13 games with a career-high 29 points in the victory over UNLV on Jan. 17. Anderson led the team in rebounds and rebounds per game, was second in made field goals and blocked shots and third in total points.

In MW contests, she averaged 12.6 points per game and a team-high 6.6 rebounds per game, as well as led the conference in field-goal percentage with 49 percent. Further, Anderson was eighth in blocks per game at 1.07 and ranked in the top 15 in scoring, rebounding, field-goal percentage, blocked shots and defensive rebounds, resulting in her first all-conference honor in being named to the Mountain West all-conference team.

Pride of New Mexico

The Lobos have two New Mexico natives on the 2021-22 roster with freshman Vianè Cumber and senior Jaedyn De La Cerda. In addition to being from New Mexico, the duo has something else in common: New Mexico Gatorade Player of the Year distinctions.

Cumber was named the 2019-20 and 2021-21 New Mexico Gatorade Girls Basketball Player of the Year after averaging 26.5 points, 9.3 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.5 steals her senior season and 22.4 points, 10.6 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 3.3 steals as a junior at Sandia High School in Albuquerque. Out of Roswell, N.M. and Roswell High School, De La Cerda earned the 2016-17 New Mexico Gatorade Player of the Year.

Know Your Opponent

Houston Baptist enters Tuesday's game with a 3-1 record, having won its last three games after a season-opening loss to TCU (78-48).

The Huskies have two players averaging double figures in scoring, led by Timia Jefferson with 15.7 and joined by Julija Vujakovic, who has 11.0. N'Denasija Collins leads in rebounds at 7.3 rebounds per game and Collins and Kennedy Wilson share the team lead in assists with nine each. Vujakovic has accounted for a team-best eight steals and is second on the team in blocks with three. Amy Cotton leads with four blocks.

HBU has three players who have started all four games in Vujakovic, Enya Maguire and Abbey Sutherland, with Collins starting three, Jefferson starting two and Marilyn Nzoiwu starting two. Twelve Huskies have seen playing time so far this season.

The Huskies were voted second in the Southland Conference preseason poll, receiving one first-place vote. Timia Jefferson was also named to the 2021-22 Southland first team All-Conference team and Kennedy Wilson was named to the Southland second-team All-Conference.HBU finished 11-11 last season.

MIKE BRADBURY Record at UNM: 97-56 (6th Season) Career Record: 275-173 (15th Season)

NOTEWORTHY :

- Named the sixth head coach in program history on March 31, 2016
- Led UNM to 25 wins in 2017-18; tied for second-most wins in program history
- Spent six years at Wright State (2010-16) and went 128-73 for the Raiders
- Most single-season wins in Wright State history (26)
  - Five 20-win seasons at Wright State with five postseason appearances

Mike Bradbury enters his sixth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous five seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 94-55 (.631) overall record. Twice in his tenure, in 2017-18 and 2018-19, the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark and totaled 49 victories over that time. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury are the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

In his most recent season at the helm of the Lobos, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his third year at the helm, Bradbury continued to put his mark on the program while also continuing to bring Lobo women's basketball back to national prominence. Overall, Bradbury's 2018-19 team went 24-7 and earned a bid to the WNIT for a second-straight season. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 – 2009-10 seasons that the program made consecutive trips to the postseason.

After dropping a one-possession game to Auburn in the preseason WNIT, the 2018-19 Lobos ripped off 11-straight wins to tie the program record and were on the cusp of cracking the national top-25 rankings as well by receiving votes from the WBCA during that stretch. Bradbury would also receive an individual plaudit from the WBCA last season as he was named as one of 13 finalists for the 2019 United States Marine Corps/WBCA National Coach of the Year Award. Impressively, Bradbury was the only coach from a non-Power 5 conference to be a finalist.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 13 All-Mountain West performers with Cherise Beynon, Jayla Everett, Jaisa Nunn, Aisia Robertson and Richelle van der Keijl joining De La Cerda, Duff, McGruder, Hurst and Anderson in making the All-Mountain West Team. Tesha Buck, Mykiel Burleson and Nike McClure have also earned MW recognition with Buck being the 2017-18 Newcomer of the Year, Burleson being named to the All-Freshman team in 2016-17 and McClure landing on the All-Defensive team in 2018-19.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury has coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Buck in 2017-18 and Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in Duff (2020-21).

Further, a Lobo has been named Mountain West Player of the Week 11 times during his tenure.

In year two under Bradbury the Lobos had a breakout season, especially offensively as they ended the 2017-18 season averaging 80.4 points per game while also posting an impressive +9.7 scoring margin. Both marks led the Mountain West and the point-per-game total was 16th-best in NCAA DI last season.

A significant reason for the jump in offensive production was the fact that the Lobos were one of the most potent three-point shooting threats in the country. For the season, the Lobos attempted the eighth-most overall trifectas in DI hoisting 932 long distance shots. Successful 34% of the time, the Lobos made the 11th most 3's burying 319.

Prior to coming to Albuquerque, Bradbury built a successful nine year run as a Division-I head coach with stops at Morehead State (Morehead, Ky.) and Wright State (Dayton, Ohio). Most recently with the Raiders, Bradbury led his squad to five 20-win seasons, including each of his final three seasons. During that time, Wright State has amassed a 75-28 record, the best amongst the 13 Division I programs in the state of Ohio.

Overall at Wright State, Bradbury had five winning seasons, all of which were 20-plus win seasons, in six years- a feat made all the more remarkable as Wright State had just one winning season in the previous 22 before his arrival. In the previous 37 seasons of women's basketball at Wright State, the Raider program had tallied 20 wins just once before Bradbury led the team to 20 wins in five of his six seasons.

His most prominent three-year run at Wright State started in 2013-14, when the Raiders won a school-record 26 games on the way to a 26-9 season and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season saw the Raiders finish second in the Horizon League and win its first Horizon League Tournament. It also featured the program's first road win at perennial league power Wisconsin-Green Bay. Kim Demmings was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, and it marked the first time in school history the program had a pair of first team All-Conference selections.

He followed up that by earning Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2014-15 after a 25-9 season that saw his squad lose its Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year less than two minutes into the season opener. The Raiders just missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, falling in overtime in the conference championship game. The team did make its first appearance in the Women's NIT as the league's automatic qualifier, and in 2015-16, the team made it back-to-back WNIT appearances after a 24-11 season, earning the program's first at-large bid.

Those three seasons are the three winningest seasons in the history of Wright State women's basketball.

In his first two seasons at Wright State, he led the team to a 20-13 campaign and a 21-13 mark and berths in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the first NCAA Division I postseason berths for the program. Overall, Bradbury has coached three Horizon League Players of the Year (all in his last three seasons), six first-team All-Horizon League players, three second-team members and four All-Freshman team members.

Prior to his time at Wright State, Bradbury was the head coach at Morehead State where he led the Division I program to a 50-44 mark in three seasons, including a watershed 22-11 season, which was the second-most wins in Morehead State history and the most wins by the Eagles in the previous 38 years. At Morehead State he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, along with one first-team All-OVC pick (two seasons) and three second-team All-OVC picks.

Bradbury also spent time as an assistant coach at Xavier (2002-06), Cincinnati (1996-02), VCU (1995-96), East Tennessee State (1994-95) and Chattanooga (1991-94). In his 29 seasons as an assistant and as a head coach, Bradbury has had 27 winning seasons.
