BRONCO GAME NOTES

CONSECUTIVE CLASSES WITH A CHAMPIONSHIP

The Broncos' 2021 senior class is already the 23rd-straight group that will leave Boise State with at least one conference title. Of the 22 previous senior classes, 19 left with multiple championships, including 11 with three-or-more. This year's seniors already boast a title in 2019. The last senior class without a league championship was the 1998 group. The streak of 23-straight classes is the longest active streak in the country, and the third-longest in NCAA history. BYU (30; 975-2004) and Nebraska (28; 1975-2002) boast the longest streaks in NCAA history.

PROTECTING THE BLUE

With a win against New Mexico, the Broncos would close the regular season with a home record of 3-3, seemingly avoiding the first losing record on The Blue since 1997 (2-3). An additional home game is not out of the question, as there is still a path for the Broncos to host the 2021 Mountain West Championship Game.

Since installing the nation's first non-green field in 1986, Boise State has only had three losing seasons at home - 1993 (3-4), 1996 (1-6) and 1997.

BOWL-ELIGIBLE WINS

Four of the Broncos' six wins in 2021 have come against teams that are already bowl eligible, tied for the second-most in the country with Michigan, Mississippi State and Wisconsin. Only top-ranked Georgia has more (five). Boise State has wins against UTEP, Utah State, BYU and Fresno State. Three of the Broncos' losses have also come at the hands of teams that have already reached bowl eligibility - Oklahoma State, Nevada and Air Force.

The Broncos will face at least nine bowl-eligible teams in 2021, tied with Indiana and Navy for the most in the country.

BOWL ELIGIBILITY

Boise State has achieved bowl-eligible status for the 24th-consecutive season, the third-longest active streak in the country. The Broncos trail only Ohio State (33) and Georgia (25) on the current list, and each has already extended its streak this season (which is reflected in the numbers).

Entering 2021, Boise State was one of only 16 schools nationally to carry a streak of at least 10-consecutive seasons of reaching bowl eligibility into the season. That list also included the aforementioned schools and Clemson (22), Oklahoma (22), LSU (21), Wisconsin (19), Alabama (17), Oklahoma State (15), Miami (13), Ohio (12), Stanford (12), Texas A&M (12), San Diego State (11), Toledo (11) and Washington (11).

STRONG WINS

The Broncos' "Strength of Wins," a metric calculated by Phil Steele that accounts for total number of victories by opponents a school has defeated, is the sixth-best mark nationally. The Broncos' six wins have come against schools with a combined 32 victories. Georgia has 10 wins over schools with 43 vic-tories, which leads the country. Notre Dame (9; 38), Michigan (9; 34), Wisconsin (7; 33) and Oregon (8; 33) are the only other schools in front of Boise State.

TOP 50 IN INNOVATION

– U.S. News and World Report

We love Bronco Nation, and their engagement with us helps us achieve new heights at a university. Just as they cheer us on in athletic competition, they support us in trail-blazing teaching, research and service. The ‘Blue Turf Thinking’ they help us produce has earned us recognition as one of the Top 50 Most Innovative National Universities, according to U.S. News & World Report.

Our iconic blue football field is a powerful metaphor for our community’s pathbreaking approaches to solving complex problems. Boise State has developed new strategies for how we do the work of a public university — serving our communities, engaging with industry, and supporting the thriving of Idaho and Idahoans.

BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY

IN THE POLLS

CONSECUTIVE YEARS IN THE RANKINGS

Boise State carries a streak of 19-straight seasons in the national rankings into 2021, tied with USC for the seventh-longest active streak in the country entering the season.

Boise State has been ranked for at least one week in either the AP or the Coaches Poll every season from 2002-20.

PRESEASON RANKINGS

Boise State enters its 2020 season receiving votes, but unranked in both the AP and Coaches Poll.

Over the course of the last 19 seasons, the Broncos opened a season unranked on 10 occasions, but finished the year ranked eight times - 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2008, 2014, 2017 and 2019. In two of those seasons, 2006 and 2014, the Broncos capped the year with a victory in the Fiesta Bowl.

SUCCESS WHEN RANKED

Boise State has an all-time record of 119-22 (.844) when ranked in the top 25 of the AP Poll, the Coaches Poll or the College Football Playoff Poll. A complete history of the Broncos in the rankings can be found on pages 30-31.

THE SERIES

Boise State has won 10 of its 11 games played against New Mexico, including a 5-1 record at Albertsons Stadium. The Broncos' only loss to the Lobos came at home in 2015, and since the loss - when UNM opted to take a celebratory postgame team photo on The Blue - the Broncos' margin of victory during the current four-game winning streak has come by an average of 26.5 points per game.

Due to a pandemic-adjusted schedule, the teams did not face each other this past season for the first time since the Broncos joined the Mountain West for the 2011 season.

This will be the fourth time in 11 seasons in the MW that the Broncos have hosted the Lobos for Senior Night, and Boise State has won all three previous games - 2011 (45-0), 2013 (45-17) and 2019 (42-9).

THE MIDDLE EIGHT

When Boise State wins the middle eight, it wins the game. In the Broncos' six wins, during the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half, the team has outscored its opponents, 40-3. In the team's four losses, the Broncos have been outscored 39-7 in the middle eight.

BRINGING THE CHAOS

Boise State opponents have committed 16 starts in five games at Albertsons Stadium this season. In 2018-19 and 2021 (non-COVID years), 60 total false starts and an average of 3.16 per game are best in the nation.

CLOSING TIME

Boise State has won 123-straight games at home when leading after three quarters, a streak that dates back to 1998. Navy, whose streak is third at 62, is the only school whose streak started last century (1999). Alabama (63, began in 2011) and Ohio (54, began in 2007) are the only other schools to boast a stretch that is one-third as long as Boise State's. Of the other 129 FBS schools, 80 have lost a game when leading entering the fourth quarter in the last four years, including 31 this season.

MULTIPLE ROAD WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS

Last week's victory over Fresno State, ranked No. 25 in the Associated Press Poll at the time, was the Broncos' second road victory over a team in the AP Top 25 this season. It's the first time in school history the Broncos have knocked off top-25 opponents on the road, and the Broncos are one of only four schools in the country to accomplish the feat this season. The other three are Alabama, Fresno State and Georgia.

HELMET STICKER

Boise State always plays for its city, but following a tragic shooting at a Boise mall on Oct. 25, it means more. Starting with the Broncos' game against Colorado State (Oct. 30) and continuing through the remainder of the season, the Broncos will honor their community and those affected with a City of Boise helmet sticker.

GAMES PLAYED RECORD

Prior to the 2021 season, the most games a Boise State football player could have possibly appeared in was 54. Against Air Force (Oct. 16), super senior nickel Kekaula Kaniho surpassed that mark, playing in his school-record 55th-career game. Kaniho has now played in 58 games, starting 44.

Sixth-year senior punter Joel Velazquez has played in 54 games, and super senior Riley Wimpey has played in 52.

SCORING STREAK

Against Colorado State (Oct. 30), the Broncos moved up the NCAA's all-time list for consecutive games without being shut out. Boise State, which passed Air Force (306; 1992-2017) this season on the all-time list, now ranks eighth all-time with a streak of 309-consecutive such games.

The Broncos' season-opening game against UCF was their 300th-consecutive tilt without being shut out. Boise State is one of only nine schools in the history of college football to put a streak together of at least 300-straight such games. The current streak is the sixth-longest active streak in the country. The nation's longest active streaks also include Florida (420; 1988-present), which is the longest in NCAA history, TCU (364; 1991-present), Virginia Tech (343; 1995-present), Georgia (338; 1995-present) and Nebraska (323; 1996-present).

Mountain West student-athletes who already hold a degree will have a little something extra on their jerseys this season. In conjunction with a program that started in 2019, student-athletes who have earned a degree, but have remaining eligibility will see the MW logo on their jersey replaced with one that incorporates both the MW mark and the word “GRADUATE.”

Those from Boise State that have already graduated are listed below:

Daniel Cantrell
Will Farrar
Brandon Hawkins
Donte Harrington
Shane Irwin
Kekaula Kaniho
Davis Koetter
Uzo Osuji
Kurt Rafdal
Jared Reed
Jack Sears
Jake Stetz
Joel Velazquez

THE FAVORITE SON RETURNS

Boise State is in its first season with Andy Avalos at the helm of the program. As a Bronco student-athlete, Avalos was a four-year letterwinner, served as team captain, earned a pair of first-team all-conference accolades at linebacker and was a member of the All-Blue Team – a selection of the 30 greatest players in school history, as voted on by the Bronco fanbase, in the 30th anniversary season of the world-famous turf. Avalos initially returned to The Blue in a coaching capacity in 2012 as defensive line coach, took over as linebackers coach in 2014 and was then promoted to defensive coordinator in 2016. After three seasons leading the Bronco defense, Avalos left for Oregon, where the Ducks captured a Rose Bowl victory in his first season and earned a spot in the Fiesta Bowl in his second.

FIRST-TIME STARTERS

Boise State has had 12 players make their first starts as Broncos this season. Six student-athletes made their starting debuts for Boise State in the season opener against UCF – Stefan Cobbs (wide receiver), Jackson Cravens (nose tackle), Ben Dooley (right tackle), Will Farrar (left guard), Cyrus Habibi-Likio (running back) and Tyric LeBeauf (cornerback).

True freshman Rodney Robinson made his first-career start against UTEP (Sept. 10), getting the call in place of Kekaula Kaniho, who missed the first half against the Miners following a targeting call in the second half of the UCF game. Wide receiver Davis Koetter, a transfer from Portland State, then made his first-career start for the Broncos against Oklahoma State (Sept. 18), transfer cornerback Caleb Biggers (Bowling Green) made his first-career start for the Broncos against Utah State (Sept. 25) and cornerback Damon Cole made his first-career start at BYU (Oct. 9). Against Air Force (Oct. 16), defensive lineman Michael Callahan and cornerback Kaonohi Kaniho each made their first-career starts.

PRESEASON AWARDS

Boise State boasted 15 preseason all-conference honorees in both Athlon and Phil Steele, tied for the most in the Mountain West in each publication. The Broncos’ four Preseason All-Mountain West selections in a poll of the league’s media were also tied for the most in the conference. Senior wide receiver Khalil Shakir is one of only 11 players in the Mountain West to appear on the preseason first-team all-conference lists for Athlon, Pro Football Focus, Phil Steele and the Mountain West.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

Boise State will be looking to make its fifth-consecutive appearance in the Mountain West Championship Game in 2021, and its sixth such appearance in the nine-year history of the game. The MW moved to its current format in the 2013 season. The Broncos’ five appearance thus far are the most in the league, and its four-consecutive appearances from 2017-20 is also a conference record. The Broncos’ current active streak of four-straight championship game appearances is tied with Ohio State for the third-longest in the country. Only Clemson (six; ACC) and Oklahoma (five; Big 12) have a longer current streak of conference championship game appearances.

MOST MW CHAMPIONSHIPS

Boise State will be looking for its fifth MW Championship in 2021, which would be the most in the history of the league - despite the Broncos being a member for just 11 of the conference’s 23 seasons. The Broncos’ four championships are the most by a current member of the league, and tied with BYU, Utah and TCU for the most in conference history.

UNDEFEATED IN MW PLAY (AGAIN)

Boise State concluded the 2020 regular season with a perfect 5-0 record in Mountain West games, the second-straight undefeated season in conference play. The Broncos are the first school in the league to post back-to-back undefeated seasons since TCU did it three-consecutive years from 2009-11.

Last season also marked Boise State’s 13th unbeaten conference season in program history.

BEST UNIFORMS

In a tournament-style Twitter poll conducted by the Mountain West, the Boise State football team earned the title of best uniforms in the league. The Broncos defeated Air Force and Fresno State to reach the title round, then earned the championship with a win over Wyoming.

CAPTAINS

The embodiment of Blue Collar Mentality. Super senior defensive back Kekaula Kaniho and senior wide receiver Khalil Shakir were selected as team captains for the Boise State football team’s 2021 season. The Broncos will also select a pair of captains on a game-by-game basis throughout the season. Shakir also served as a captain during the 2021 season.

CONFERENCE RECORD

Since 2000, Boise State is a national-best 148-19 (.886) in conference regular-season play. Since joining the FBS in 1996, the Broncos have played in three leagues: the Big West (1996-2000), WAC (2001-10) and Mountain West (2011-Present). Over the campaigns in those three conferences, the Broncos have posted an all-time record of 158-28 (.850).

GAME NOTES

MW SUCCESS

In its 11 seasons in the Mountain West, Boise State has lost just 15 games against conference opponents, and only four of those losses have come by more than seven points. Additionally, no Mountain West team has a winning record against the Broncos, although San Diego State is 3-3 against Boise State.

CONFERENCE TITLES

Boise State will be looking for its 15th conference championship since joining what is now known as the Football Bowl Subdivision in 1996. The Broncos currently have 14 league titles since 1996, tied with Oklahoma for the most in the country during that time. Ohio State (13) and Florida State (11) are the only other schools in the country to win double-digit conference titles during that time.

The Broncos have won 20 conference championships all-time, including four in the Mountain West, eight in the WAC, two in the Big West and six in the Big Sky.

PRESEASON FAVORITES ONCE AGAIN

For the 11th time in their 11 seasons in the Mountain West, the Broncos found themselves atop the predicted order of finish in a poll of media members that cover the league. The Broncos were predicted to win the Mountain Division in 2021 for the ninth-straight season, and were also predicted to win the league in 2011 and 2012 before the conference moved to a division format in 2013.

The Broncos received 23 of 25 first-place votes with a Mountain Division-best total of 148 points. Wyoming received the remaining two first-place votes and 115 points, followed by Air Force (104), Colorado State (72), Utah State (47) and New Mexico (39).

Nevada topped the West Division poll, garnering 19 first-place votes and 141 points. San José State notched five first-place votes and 121 points, followed by San Diego State (96), Fresno State (one first-place vote, 85), Hawai'i (56) and UNLV (26).

ESTABLISHING A LEGACY

The Broncos are the second-winningest football program by percentage in the country since 2000 (230-49; .824), trailing only Ohio State (223-45; .832). Oklahoma (237-52; .820), Alabama (204-64; .761) and Georgia (216-69; .758) round out the top five. For the complete top 15, see page five.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

Boise State carries a streak of 19-straight seasons being ranked in the top 25 into the 2021 season. The streak is tied for 25th in NCAA history (Texas; 1967-85), and Boise State is the only Group of Five school in NCAA history on the list of 25-longest streaks in college football history. The only schools entering this season with an active streak of at least 15-straight years of being ranked in the top 25 can be found below (the list does not include rankings for 2021).

1. Ohio State (53)
- T2. Georgia (24)

4. Oregon (23)

PRESEASON NATIONAL AWARD LISTS

BREAKFAST WITH THE BRONCOS

Boise State kicked off its Mountain West opener against Utah State (Sept. 25) at 10:07 a.m., the earliest local start time for the Broncos since Nov. 13, 2004, when the team traveled to San Jose State for a 9:02 a.m. PT/10:02 a.m. MT kickoff. The Broncos won that game, 56-49 (OT).

The 10 a.m. MT kick was the first for the Broncos since opening the 2019 season against Florida State, Aug. 31. The game against the Seminoles was initially slated for 5 p.m. MT, but was moved as a result of Hurricane Dorian. The Broncos also kicked at 10 a.m. MT to open the 2016 season at Louisiana, at Connecticut in 2014 and at Southern Miss in 2012. The common themes? All in the Central or Eastern Time Zones, and all Bronco victories.

Boise State is also slated for a 9 a.m. PT/10 a.m. MT kick time against San Diego State, Nov. 26.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

IMPROVED RUSHING ATTACK

The return of George Holani to the Broncos' rushing attack has paid immediate dividends to the Broncos' offensive performance. Holani, who has been in the line-up each of the last three weeks, is averaging 87.3 yards per game the last three weeks, and has back-to-back 100-yard games entering the New Mexico game.

The Broncos are averaging 174.7 rush yards per game the last three weeks, which would rank 56th nationally were the number to be extrapolated over the entire season. At 111.5 yards per game in 2021, the Broncos' rushing attack sits at 113th nationally.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL

The Broncos' defense, with its propensity for forcing interceptions and fumbles, has received most of the turnover limelight. But the Broncos' offense, which has turned the ball over just 10 times in 10 games this season, is quietly having an outstanding season. The 10 turnovers lost - four fumbles and six interceptions - is tied for 24th-fewest in the country.

THIRD DOWN CONVERSIONS

Entering the Broncos' game against Nevada (Oct. 2), Boise State ranked 73rd nationally in third down conversion percentage (22-of-57; .386). Over the last six games, the Broncos are 48-of-95 (.505) on third down, climbing all the way to 19th nationally in the statistical category (70-of-152; .461).

CALL IT THE BLUE ZONE

Boise State is 44-of-47 on red zone opportunities this season (.936), ranking eighth nationally and leading the MW. Of the 44 scores, 26 have been touchdowns and 18 have been field goals.

STETZ, O-LINE SHUFFLE

Sixth-year senior Jake Stetz started at center each of the last three weeks, the third different position in which he has started along the offensive line this season, and his first-career starts at center. Stetz has also started three games at both left guard and right guard in 2021.

Boise State has utilized five different starting combinations along the offensive line in 10 games this season.

LONG DRIVES

Boise State put together a pair of 97-yard touchdown drives against Colorado State (Oct. 30), matching the total number of 90-plus-yard scoring drives from the team's previous 37 games. Against the Rams, Hank Bachmeier connected with Octavius Evans on a 9-yard pass to cap the first 97-yard drive, and Stefan Cobbs put an exclamation mark on the second with an 11-yard touchdown reception from Bachmeier. The drives each went 13 plays, and took 6:09 and 4:08 off the clock, respectively.

HANK AMONG NATIONAL LEADERS

Junior quarterback Hank Bachmeier has thrown for 2,711 yards through 10 games, the 17th-most nationally, and his 271.1 passing yards per game ranks 20th in the country. Bachmeier has thrown 17 touchdown passes (tied for 31st), his 22.0 completions per game ranks 17th and his 268.8 yards of total offense per game ranks 32nd.

KING KHALIL

Senior wide receiver and team captain Khalil Shakir, who entered the 2021 season on the Biletnikoff Award Watch List, now has 195 career receptions, the sixth-most in school history. His 2,688 yards receiving are seventh-most all-time, and his 18 touchdown catches are two away from the all-time top 10. Additionally, Shakir now has nine-career 100-yard receiving games, the seventh-most in school history. He had four such games in a COVID-shortened 2020 season, which was limited to seven contests.

Entering Week 4 of the National Football League regular season, there were 18 Broncos on National Football League rosters, and 13 teams had at least one former member of the Boise State football team on their roster. At least one Bronco has been selected in the NFL Draft in each of the last 12 seasons, and 28 players have been drafted during that time - including nine in the first two rounds.

Shakir's 13-consecutive games with at least 65 yards receiving are the second-longest streak nationally. Jerreth Sterns of Western Kentucky leads the country with 14-consecutive games with at least 65 yards receiving.

Shakir led the Broncos in receptions (52), receiving yards (719) and receiving touchdowns (six) in 2020, earning first-team All-Mountain West honors. The senior team captain isn't just a threat as a receiver, as he has 69 career rush attempts for 377 yards and four touchdowns (5.4 yards per attempt), and is also 4-for-5 in pass attempts for 20 yards and a touchdown.

TIGHT END TOUCHDOWNS

Redshirt junior tight end Tyneil Hopper hauled in his second touchdown of the season against Colorado State (Oct. 31), a 51-yard reception that extended the Broncos' lead to nine points, ultimately putting the game away. The 51-yard reception for a TD was the longest by a Bronco tight end since Jeb Putzier, who was a sixth-round selection in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos, caught an 80-yard scoring pass against San Jose State, Nov. 17, 2001.

Riley Smith caught his first touchdown pass of the season against Wyoming (Nov. 12). It was the second TD grab of his career, and happened one year to the day of his first-career scoring reception, which came against Colorado State on The Blue, Nov. 12, 2020.

WHEN HOLANI FINDS THE END ZONE, GOOD THINGS HAPPEN

When George Holani rushes for a touchdown, Boise State is 5-0. He had one against UTEP earlier this season, one against Utah State in 2020, one against Hawaii in 2019, four against San Jose State in 2019 and two against Utah State in 2019.

BIG PERFORMANCES FOR COBBS

Redshirt junior wide receiver Stefan Cobbs returned a punt 81 yards for a score in the first quarter against UTEP (Sept. 10), tied with Avery Williams for sixth-longest return in school history. The return was the first for a score since Williams' 69-yarder against San Jose State in the 2020 Mountain West Championship. Cobbs added a 61-yard receiving touchdown in the second quarter to become the first Bronco since John Hightower (2018 vs. Connecticut) to have two 50-plus yard touchdowns in the same game.

Against Nevada (Oct. 2), Cobbs recorded his first-career 100-yard receiving game, finishing with a career-high 10 catches for 132 yards and a career-best two touchdowns.

A FAMILIAR NAME

Redshirt senior wide receiver Davis Koetter, a transfer from Portland State, got his first start as a Bronco against Oklahoma State (Sept. 18). He went on to record his first catch as a Bronco on the squad's first drive, and also caught his first touchdown as a Bronco against the Cowboys.

Davis's father, Dirk, was the Broncos' head coach from 1998-2000, and went on to become head coach at Arizona State (2001-06) before spending 2007-20 in the National Football League as an offensive coordinator (Jacksonville Jaguars, Atlanta Falcons and Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and head coach (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 2016-18).

MULTIPLE RECEIVERS

Junior quarterback Hank Bachmeier connected with 11 different targets against UCF in the Broncos' season opener. The total is the highest by a Bronco quarterback since Brett Rypien also hit 11 receivers against Nevada, Nov. 4, 2017. Bachmeier then hit 10 different players in Week 2 against UTEP.

Against UCF, Bachmeier's first nine completions went to nine different players.

SET AT QB

Junior quarterback Hank Bachmeier was named the Broncos' starting quarterback entering the 2021 season, but the Broncos have multiple quarterbacks on the roster with starting experience. Bachmeier and redshirt senior Jack Sears, who transferred from USC prior to the 2020 season, have each started for the Broncos, and Sears also had a start under his belt for the Trojans.

Additionally, each received preseason all-conference recognition entering 2021. Sears picked up an honorable mention nod from Pro Football Focus, and Bachmeier picked up fourth-team honors from Athlon and Phil Steele.

Bachmeier entered 2021 with 13 starts for the Broncos, completing 233-of-375 pass attempts for 3,029 yards, 15 touchdowns and eight interceptions. Sears completed 23-of-27 pass attempts for the Broncos in 2020, for 332 yards and three touchdowns.

Boise State selects one player to lead the team onto the field with The Dan Paul Hammer each game. The Hammer was renamed prior to the Hawai'i game, Oct. 12, 2019. Dan Paul, a former fullback from 2009-12, passed away in July of 2019, and symbolized the blue collar culture of the Boise State football team. Traditionally, the honor has gone to the individual that made the best special teams play the week prior. However, the offensive line has been selected in the past, and the entire team entered the field with The Hammer in the MW Championship Games from 2017-20.

A PLETHORA OF RICHES

Of the 12 Broncos to catch a pass in 2020, 10 are available in 2021. The only departures are tight end John Bates, a fourth-round selection of the Washington Football Team in the National Football League Draft, and wide receiver CT Thomas. Of the remaining 10, five wide receivers, three running backs and a pair of tight ends that caught a pass in 2020 are in the mix in 2021.

SMITH POISED TO LEAD TIGHT ENDS

John Bates, a fourth-round selection of the Washington Football Team in the 2021 National Football League Draft, is no longer a member of the Broncos' tight end group. But the unit's top passing target from a year ago returns for 2021. Riley Smith, a former Bronco quarterback turned tight end, led Boise State tight ends in receptions in 2020, catching 15 passes for 155 yards and a touchdown.

1,000-YARD RUSHERS

Boise State carried a streak of 11-consecutive seasons with a 1,000-yard rusher into the 2020 season, a feat most recently accomplished by George Holani in 2019 (1,014). The 11-straight seasons was the longest active streak in the county, and is tied for the second-longest in the history of college football with Texas (11; 1995-2005). Only North Carolina (12; 1973-84) has put together a longer streak in college football history.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Of the Broncos' 35 starts along the offensive line in 2020, 29 were made by student-athletes returning for the 2021 season. The only departure is Nick Crabtree, who started six games at right tackle this past season. John Ojukwu, Garrett Curran and Jake Stetz started all seven games in 2020 at left tackle, left guard and right guard, respectively, while Kekaniokoa Holomalia-Gonzalez started six games at center. Donte Harrington and Uzo Osuji each picked up one start in 2020, at center and right tackle, respectively. Ojukwu and Stetz each picked up second-team all-conference accolades this past season, and were preseason All-Mountain West honorees entering 2021, and Curran was honorable mention selection in 2020.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

SCORING DEFENSE

The Broncos are allowing just 20.1 points per game to opponents this season, ranking 22nd nationally.

Since trailing 13-0 after the first quarter at Colorado State (Oct. 30), Boise State has given up just 33 points. Only Alabama, Georgia, Illinois, Oklahoma State and Wisconsin have given up fewer points in their last 11 quarters.

THREE OR NOTHING

Opponents may have reached the red zone 34 times thus far this season, but getting there is only 76.5 percent of the battle, and teams are more often than not coming away with either three or nothing. Of the 34 attempts, Boise State opponents have scored 26 times, 15 of which have been touchdowns. Put another way, in the red zone, Bronco opponents have kicked 11 field goals and failed to score eight times - three or nothing on 19 of 34 trips inside the Boise State 20-yard line. The Broncos' red zone defense (.765) ranks 30th nationally.

DYNAMIC DUO

Defensive linemen Scott Matlock and Isaiah Bagnah each rank among the top pass rushers in the Mountain West and nationally. Matlock (7.0 sacks; 0.70 per game) and Bagnah (6.0; 0.60) rank tied for 26th and tied for 46th nationally on a per-game basis, and tied for third and tied for seventh in the MW, respectively.

YOUTHFUL SPIRIT

Boise State defensive coordinator Spencer Danielson (32) is the seventh-youngest coordinator in the country, and the third-youngest defensive coordinator nationally. Austin Armstrong, defensive coordinator at Southern Miss, is the youngest coordinator in the country.

TURNOVER PARTY

With 21 turnovers forced in 10 games, the Broncos rank tied for ninth nationally in the statistical category. The mark includes nine fumble recoveries (tied for 11th-most in the country) and 12 interceptions (tied for 15th nationally). The total is also the most by a Bronco defense since 2012 when the team recorded 29 turnovers (14 interceptions and 15 fumble recoveries).

The team's turnover margin (plus-1.10 per game) ranks tied for third nationally.

In the Broncos' home opener against UTEP (Sept. 10), Boise State forced six turnovers for the first time since also recording six against UT Martin, Sept. 7, 2013. The Broncos intercepted three passes against the Miners, the first such occurrence since Nov. 4, 2017, against Nevada, and picked off multiple passes in consecutive games for the first time since 2019 (at Colorado State/at Utah State).

GAME NOTES

Boise State also had three fumble recoveries against UTEP, the first such occurrence since Oct. 12, 2019 against Hawai'i. The Broncos followed with another three fumble recoveries against 10th-ranked BYU (Oct. 9).

There are only 94 players in the country with multiple fumble recoveries this year, and Boise State boasts three of them - defensive tackle Scott Matlock, linebacker Ezekiel Noa and safety JL Skinner. Each has two on the year, tied for 12th-most nationally and first in the Mountain West.

STOPPING ON FOURTH DOWN

In Week 5, Nevada became the first team to convert a fourth down against the Bronco defense. BYU went 1-for-3 the following week, then Air went 2-for-2. Through 10 games, opponents are now 4-for-12 on fourth down, and the Broncos' defensive conversion percentage of .33 (4-for-12) ranks tied for eighth nationally.

BECOMING A FORCE

Junior safety JL Skinner has a team-leading 75 tackles (58 solo) through the first 10 games of the 2021 season, an average of 7.5 per game. The per-game tackle total is tied for the 20th-most in the country among defensive backs. Skinner is averaging 5.8 solo tackles per game, ranking tied for seventh nationally and second in the MW (Chad Muma, Wyoming; 6.7).

Skinner also forced a pair of fumbles against UTEP (Sept. 10), each of which were recovered by the Broncos, he has two fumble recoveries on the season and he also intercepted a pass in the end zone against Fresno State (Nov. 6).

WHIMPEY UP FOR THE ACADEMIC HEISMAN

Fifth-year linebacker Riley Whimpey was named a semifinalist for the 2021 William V. Campbell Trophy, Sept. 29. The award recognizes the nation's top scholar-athlete, focusing on academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership. Whimpey joins fifth-year nickel Kekaula Kaniho and former Boise State center Mason Hampton as semifinalists for the award in recent years. Kaniho was named a finalist in 2020, earning an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship, while Hampton earned the same honor in 2017.

BREAKOUT SECONDARY PERFORMANCES

Redshirt junior Tyric LeBeauf, in his first-career start, registered two interceptions in the Broncos' season opener at UCF (Sept. 2), and he added his team-leading third against Utah State (Sept. 25). True freshman safety Seyi Oladipo followed LeBeauf's breakout performance with one of his own, registering a pair of interceptions in his first extensive action on defense against UTEP, Sept. 10. For each, their single-game interception total was more than any single player had in all of 2020.

LeBeauf returned his first interception against the Knights 100 yards for a touchdown, and his 127 interception return yards on the game established a school record. His 128 interception return yards on the season are the most in the country in 2021. The 100-yard return for a score tied the Broncos' school record, initially set by Jamar Taylor against Arizona State in the 2011 MAACO Bowl Las Vegas. LeBeauf is the first Bronco to record multiple interceptions in a game since current Los Angeles Ram Donte Deayon did it against BYU, Sept. 12, 2015.

SACK ATTACK

Since the beginning of the 2010 season, Boise State ranks tied for seventh nationally with Penn State in sacks. Only Clemson (493), Alabama (438), Ohio State (424), Pittsburgh (413), Texas A&M (410) and Virginia Tech (408) have more sacks during that time than Boise State (403).

IRWIN A HIDDEN GEM

Defensive end Shane Irwin made a name for himself in 2020, his first season as a Bronco. A transfer after stops at San Diego State and Long Beach City College, Irwin led the Broncos with 6.0 sacks in his debut season, earning second-team All-Mountain West accolades. His per-game sack total (0.86) this past season ranked 15th nationally. He had back-to-back two-sack performances against Colorado State (Nov. 12) and at Hawai'i (Nov. 21) in 2020, the only time a Bronco has accomplished the feat since the NCAA began tracking the statistic in 2000.

Irwin had a sack in back-to-back games against UTEP (Sept. 10) and Oklahoma State (Sept. 18), including a strip sack against UTEP, which was recovered by Broncos' defensive tackle Scott Matlock at the Miners' 3-yard line. Boise State scored on the first play of the ensuing possession, a 3-yard run from running back Andrew Van Buren. Irwin also had a sack this past week against Wyoming.

BAGNAH'S PRODUCTION

No matter his role, redshirt sophomore EDGE Isaiah Bagnah is producing for the Broncos. Bagnah, who has eight-career starts, has 9.0 sacks over his last 12 games. He started the final two games of the 2020 season, and against Nevada (Oct. 2), in his first start of the season, registered three sacks. The total was the most by a Bronco since MW career sack king Curtis Weaver also had three against UNLV in 2019.

BLUE-COLLAR 'BACKERS

Boise State's linebacker corps is an apt representation of the Blue Collar Mindset of the program. The two returning starters, super senior Riley Whimpey and redshirt senior Ezekiel Noa, have each suffered season-ending knee injuries, with Whimpey having his 2018 season cut short, and Noa having his 2019 season abruptly ended by the injury. Whimpey rebounded in 2019 to be named to the All-Mountain West Second Team, leading Boise State with 83 tackles while making 7.0 tackles-for-loss, a pair of sacks, and breaking up seven passes in coverage. He garnered second-team honors again this past season. Noa, meanwhile, was off to a great start in 2019, making 28 tackles, with 3.0 for loss, before suffering his season-ending knee injury in the fourth contest. He was named honorable mention All-Mountain West in 2020.

TACKLING MACHINE

Senior linebacker Riley Whimpey has been the Broncos' tackling machine the last few seasons, leading the team in tackles in both 2019 (83) and 2020 (61). He also led Boise State in tackles-for-loss this past season (7.5). Whimpey was also the Broncos' leading tackle through nine games in 2018 (49), before an injury ended his season.

FUTURE PRESIDENT KANIHO

Super senior defensive back Kekaula Kaniho has made a name for himself on the football field, earning myriad accolades. But his off-field accolades may outshine his in-uniform production. A first-team Academic All-American in 2020, Kaniho was also named one of 12 members of the National Football Foundation's 2020 Scholar-Athlete Class, and a finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy, which earned him a postgraduate scholarship worth $18,000.

Kaniho was also college football's Senior CLASS Award winner in 2020. The award, chosen by a nationwide vote of Division I FBS football coaches, national football media and fans, is given annually to the most outstanding senior student-athlete in Division I football.

SAFETY TANDEM BACK

The Broncos' starting safeties from 2020, redshirt senior Tyreque Jones and junior JL Skinner, who boasted a combined 20 starts in the backfield entering this season, return in 2021. Skinner started each of his six games played last year, and Jones has started at least four games in each of the last three seasons - five in both 2018 and 2020, and four in 2019. Jones has 71-career tackles (51 solo), including 4.5 for-loss and a sack, in addition to an interception, six pass break-ups, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. Skinner has 51-career tackles (31 solo), including 2.0 for-loss, in addition to an interception and five pass break-ups.

THE REPLACEMENTS

While both starting safeties from a year ago are back for 2021, Boise State must replace each of its starting cornerbacks. Avery Williams, a fifth-round selection of the Atlanta Falcons in the National Football League Draft, and Jalen Walker combined for 68 starts during their Bronco careers. There was exactly one returning start at cornerback on the Broncos' roster entering 2021, made by Markel Reed against Air Force on Halloween in 2020.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

MAKING THE MOST OF THE OPPORTUNITIES

The Broncos have returned just 11 punts in 2021, but are averaging 15.64 yards per return – the fifth-best mark nationally.

PHENOMENAL START TO A CAREER

Prior to his fourth-quarter field goal attempt against Oklahoma State being blocked, sophomore kicker Jonah Dalmas had made two field goals against the Cowboys, pushing his start as a Bronco to 14-for-15. The mark tied Kyle Brotzman (2007-10) and Haden Hoggarth (2017) for best start for a kicker in school history.

Dalmas ranks second nationally in field goals per game (2.20) in 2021, and is tied for 12th nationally in scoring (9.9 points per game). His field goal percentage of .917 (22-of-24) this season ranks ninth nationally, and his career field goal percentage of .906 (29-of-32) is the highest nationally amongst active kickers.

Dalmas has gone 4-for-4 on field goal attempts in each of the Broncos' two victories on the road over ranked opponents (BYU, Oct. 9; Fresno State, Nov. 6), and had a streak of having a field goal in 12-straight games snapped against Colorado State (Oct. 30), when he did not attempt one. That was the longest streak by a Bronco since Tyler Rausa's 16-game stretch in 2015-16.

Dalmas, a Lou Groza Award semifinalist, has made each of his last 14 field goal attempts, the fourth-longest active streak in the country.

GAME-CHANGING SPECIAL TEAMS

Boise State is one of only three schools nationally (San Diego State and Kansas State) to have a punt return for a touchdown in each of the last five seasons. Pittsburgh and TCU each carry a streak of four-straight seasons into 2021, but have yet to accomplish the feat this year.

Additionally, the Broncos are one of only 49 schools in the country to have multiple blocked kicks in 2021, ranking tied for 22nd nationally with two. Redshirt junior defensive tackle Scott Matlock blocked a field goal attempt against Utah State (Sept. 25), and redshirt junior linebacker Brandon Hawkins blocked a punt against Colorado State (Oct. 30). With Hawkins' blocked punt, Boise State has blocked a punt in eight-straight seasons.

FLIPPING THE FIELD

Sixth-year senior punter Joel Velazquez is averaging 44.2 yards per punt this season, ranking 30th nationally. Of his 41 punts on the year, 12 have been downed inside the 20 (29.3 percent) and 12 have gone for 50-plus yards (29.3 percent).

ALL THE SPECIALISTS ARE BACK

The Broncos' kicker, punter, long snapper, holder and kickoff specialist are all back in 2021. Sophomore kicker Jonah Dalmas, an honorable mention All-Mountain West selection in 2020, went 7-for-8 on field goals during his debut season, including a long of 51 yards. Sixth-year senior punter Joel Velazquez has spent three of the past four seasons serving as the Broncos' starter, averaging 39.9 yards on 102 punts. This past season he averaged a career-best 41.0 yards per punt, including a long of 71 yards. He has also served as the Broncos' kickoff specialist each of the last four seasons, putting 164 of 266 kickoffs into the end zone for a touchback. Daniel Cantrell has 34 games in three seasons under his belt as Boise State's long snapper, and Connor Riddle, the son of tight ends coach Kent Riddle, has been the Broncos' holder in 20 games the past two seasons.

REPLACING AVERY

Avery Williams, the two-time Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Year and the 2020 Mountain West Male Athlete of the Year, is now a member of the Atlanta Falcons after being selected in the fifth round of 2021 National Football League Draft. The 2020 Consensus All-American and Jet Award Winner, given to the nation's best return specialist, departed college football with nine-career return touchdowns, tied for the most in NCAA history.

Albertsons Stadium - and Lyle Smith Field - is the home of Boise State football and the annual Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Smith, who passed away in July of 2017 at the age of 101, is the undisputed father of Bronco football, who from 1946-67 built one of the top junior college programs in the country. When he retired from his head coaching position to become the athletic director, Smith had a record of 156-25-6 (.850).

Completed during the summer of 1970 at a cost of $2.2 million, what was originally known as Bronco Stadium had a seating capacity of 14,500. Since that time the stadium has expanded four times to its current capacity of 36,387.

Boise State established a first in 1986 by installing the first blue AstroTurf in the country. The second blue AstroTurf field was installed in 1995, with the third going in prior to the 2002 season. The first Blue FieldTurf surface was installed in 2008. A second Blue FieldTurf field was installed prior to the 2010 season, and the most recent edition was installed prior to the 2019 season - making a total of six different blue fields at the stadium.

Boise State's was the first collegiate stadium to have the entire field produced in a special color.

Since 1986, Boise State is a combined 193-43 on The Blue, a winning percentage of .818. And since 2000, Boise State has gone 124-13 at home (.905), the second-highest winning percentage in the country during that time.

Overall, since the construction of Albertsons Stadium in 1970, Boise State is 276-60 (.821), the second-highest winning percentage of any stadium in the country currently in use. Only Alabama's Bryant-Denny Stadium (283-54-3; .837), built in 1929 has a higher winning percentages for its tenant.

UNIFORM COMBINATIONS

Boise State unveiled a new look for the 2017 season, the first time the Broncos had overhauled their Nike uniforms since 2011.

Included in the new slate were blue, orange and white, and the jerseys featured new stripes on the sleeves and "Blue Collar" on the inside of the neck. The Broncos added a black set of uniforms that were unveiled against Air Force, Sept. 20, 2019.

The uniforms are from the Nike Vapor Untouchable line, with stretch woven material, a seamless front and shoulders and laser perforation fabric instead of mesh. The uniforms combine materials and science designed for speed and comfort for the players, based on four core principles - fit, durability, weight and core body temperature.

Boise State University named Andy Avalos, a former Bronco student-athlete, assistant coach and defensive coordinator, the 11th football head coach in the program’s history as a four-year institution, Director of Athletics Jeramiah Dickey announced Jan. 9, 2021.

Avalos, a team captain and all-conference linebacker during his playing career (2000-04) under head coaches Dirk Koetter and Dan Hawkins, is just the second graduate of Boise State to lead the Broncos’ football program (Bryan Harsin). He previously coached at Boise State from 2012-18 under head coaches Chris Petersen and Harsin, ascending to defensive coordinator for the 2016-18 seasons before accepting the same role at Oregon for the last two seasons (2018-19) under head coach Mario Cristobal.

In addition to coaching stops at Boise State (2012-18) and Oregon (2019-20), Avalos also spent time working under Hawkins at Colorado (2006-08), at Sacramento State (2011) and at Nebraska-Kearney (2009-10).

During his five seasons as a defensive coordinator, Avalos established himself as one of college football’s premier coordinators. He was named a semifinalist for the Broyles Award, which honors college football’s top assistant coach, during his first season at Oregon in 2019.

The Ducks won Pac-12 championships each season with Avalos in charge of the defense, adding to three Mountain West Championships the Broncos captured with Avalos on staff (2012, 2014 and 2017) and two Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference championships while at Nebraska-Kearney (2009-10). As a student-athlete, Avalos won three Western Athletic Conference championships (2002, 2003, 2004) in his four years as a starting linebacker.

In Avalos’ two seasons at Oregon, the Ducks earned a victory in the 2020 Rose Bowl and played in the 2021 Fiesta Bowl, a game the Broncos also appeared in during the 2014 season, defeating Arizona (38-30) for Boise State’s third victory in the game. With Avalos on staff, Boise State also appeared in the Las Vegas Bowl (2012 and 2017), the Hawai’i Bowl (2013), the Poinsettia Bowl (2015) and the Cactus Bowl (2016), and was selected to play in the First Responder Bowl (2018). While Avalos was playing for the Broncos, Boise State appeared in the 2002 Humanitarian Bowl, the 2003 Fort Worth Bowl and the 2004 Liberty Bowl, a game in which he returned an interception 92 yards for a touchdown.

Avalos has overseen the development of 50 student-athletes that have garnered all-conference honors, and multiple All-Americans, of whom several will be familiar to Bronco Nation - DeMarcus Lawrence, Curtis Weaver and Leighton Vander Esch. Ducks defensive end Kayvon Thibodeaux picked up All-America accolades this past season, in addition to being one of four student-athletes to earn Freshman All-America honors in Avalos’ two seasons with Oregon (linebacker Noah Sewell in 2020, and Thibodeaux, defensive back Verone McKinley III and linebacker Mase Funa in 2019). Thibodeaux and Sewell were named Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year in back-to-back seasons (2019-20).

Vander Esch was named MW Defensive Player of the Year for the Broncos in 2017 before declaring early for the National Football League Draft and ultimately being selected in the first round by the Dallas Cowboys. Lawrence and Weaver also opted to forego their final seasons of eligibility with the Broncos, being selected in the second and fifth rounds, respectively.

Oregon led the Pac-12 in sacks over the course of his two seasons as coordinator, and ranked third in the conference in both rush defense and total defense. Oregon finished the 2019 season ninth in the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 16.5 points per game. The Ducks ranked 13th nationally in rushing defense (108.93 yards per game) and 22nd in total defense (329.1 YPG). Avalos’ defense disrupted opposing offenses, finishing second in the country in interceptions (20), sixth in passes defended (76), 13th in sacks (41.0) and 21st in tackles-for-loss (97.0).

Prior to joining the Oregon staff, Avalos spent seven seasons coaching at Boise State, including the final three as defensive coordinator. During his time as coordinator the Broncos led the MW in sacks, ranked second in rush defense and third in total defense. While at his alma mater he also served as defensive line coach (2012-13) and linebackers coach (2014-15).

Avalos started his coaching career in his hometown of Corona, Calif., where he coached linebackers at Corona High School. He then spent three seasons as a graduate assistant at Colorado before coaching two seasons at Nebraska-Kearney and one at Sacramento State.

A four-year letterwinner for the Broncos, Avalos earned first-team All-WAC honors at outside linebacker in each of his final two seasons. He completed his career ranked fourth all-time with 355 tackles, and led the Broncos in the statistical category in each of his final three seasons. He was named to the All-Blue Team during the 2016 season, a list of the 30 greatest players at Boise State since the inception of The Blue in 1986.

Avalos and his wife Summer had their first child, a daughter named Paityn, Jan. 31, 2014, and added a second daughter, Paige, April 12, 2016.
