2021-22 Rams Quick Hits

- Colorado State is under the direction of fourth-year head coach Niko Medved, who took over the helm of the Rams' program in 2018-19. In his ninth season as a head coach, Medved has a 144-128 record overall but improved on the previous season's winning percentage in each of his eight years as a head coach, including both years now at CSU.
- The 2021-22 season marks the 117th in the history of the Colorado State men's basketball program. The Rams are 1,315-1,293 (.504) in 2,608 games all-time.
- CSU concluded the 2020-21 season in the National Invitation Tournament, advancing to the final four and finishing 20-8 overall record, including 14-4 in MW play, a three-game improvement over 2019-20 and 11 games over 2018-19.
- The Rams earned their eighth invitation for postseason play in the last 11 years, though postseason events were eventually canceled due to the COVID-19 virus worldwide pandemic.

The Leaders

- Colorado State head coach Niko Medved (Minnesota, '97) is in his fourth season at CSU as head coach with a 65-41 mark and has a 144-128 overall record in his ninth season as a head coach.
- New Mexico head coach Richard Pitino (Providence, 2004) is in his first season with the Lobos with a 7-10 record and 10th season as a head coach overall with a 166-147 mark.

Familiar Face On The Sidelines

- While he may be in just his fourth season in charge of the program, Head Coach Niko Medved was already a familiar face around Fort Collins and to Ram fans. Medved previously was on the coaching staff from 2007-13 under two different coaches. He was a key part of recruiting players who helped the Rams to four consecutive postseason appearances, the last two in the NCAA Tournament that included a win over Missouri in 2013.

A Quick Look at New Mexico

- Returning two starters and seven letterwinners from last year's 6-16 team that finished 2-17 in league play, New Mexico was picked to tie for eighth in the preseason poll.
- The Lobos are led by Jamal Mashburn, Jr. and KJ Jenkins. Mashburn, a sophomore guard who transferred in this year from Minnesota, is tops in minutes and points while Jenkins, a redshirt-junior guard, is the leader in three pointers, steals and free throw percentage.

History Versus New Mexico

- New Mexico holds the lead in this series, 78-49, including 71-48 in conference play, but CSU is 36-26 at home against the Lobos.
- Last season due to COVID situations, the two teams only met once with CSU getting a resounding home win.
- Against current Mountain West Conference teams, head coach Niko Medved is 36-27 overall (22-8 at home), with a 36-26 record while at CSU.

Mountain West Record

- Colorado State - a charter member of the Mountain West - is now 155-191 (.448) in regular-season action against MW foes since the formation of the league in 1999-2000.

Starting 11-0 Is A New Thing

- For the first time in his head coaching career, Niko Medved had his team at 11-0 in the early part of the season. His previous best starts were 3-1 in his only season at Drake and 3-1 in each of his three previous seasons at CSU.
- The only other time CSU was 11-0 to start the season was in 2014-15, when the Rams were a school record 14-0 to start the season but ended up in the NIT.
- The 11-game winning streak is also tied for the second longest in program history with Boyd Grant's 1988-

89 NCAA Tournament squad. The school record is 14 games, set in 2014-15 under Larry Eustachy.

- Overall the 13-1 mark through 14 games is tied for second best start with the 1953-54 Aggies, who finished 22-7, 12-2 in the Skyline Conference to win the league and advance to the NCAA Tournament.

On This Date

- All-time, CSU is 11-13 in games played on Jan. 19, but a solid 8-3 at home.

CSU Preseason MW Favorites

- For the first time in program history, the Colorado State men's basketball team has been picked to win the Mountain West in the annual preseason media poll, announced today prior to the league's Media Days.
- As part of that, juniors David Roddy and Isaiah Stevens were named to the Preseason All-Mountain West squad.

Improvement Always

- Head coach Niko Medved has had extensive success wherever he has coached, both as a head and an assistant.
- As an assistant coach, he helped turn around the CSU program to improving its win totals from his first year in each successive year, ending in four straight postseason appearances.
- He continued that trend at Furman and Drake, improving both programs' win totals from the previous year in each of his five seasons as a head coach, finishing his last three years in postseason play.
- In his first year at CSU in 2018-19, he led the Rams to surpass the previous season's win totals at CSU, both overall and in Mountain West play.
- In 2019-20, the Rams had nine non-conference wins, bettering 2018-19's total of five. The squad also won 20 games overall, improving on 2018-19's total of 12.
- The five-game win streak during the 2020-21 season was the longest for CSU since the Rams won seven straight during 2016-17.
- In 2020-21, Medved led the Rams to their best conference record in program history with the 14-4 mark. The 14 wins were most CSU wins in any conference in history.
- The 11-game winning streak that was recently snapped is also tied for the second longest in CSU history with Boyd Grant's 1988-89 squad. The 2014-15 team, led by Larry Eustachy, won 14 in a row.

Moby Arena Home Court Advantage

- CSU has a record of 579-240 (.707) record all-time at Moby Arena, including 30-5 the last 2+ years under Medved.
- 2019-20's 12-4 mark had to do with some significant differences in major categories in favor of the Rams, with similarities resulting in a 10-1 mark in 2020-21, tying for fifth-best single-season win percentage at Moby.
- This year's 8-0 record at home, follows a similar trend, and has secured a winning home record already.

The Road Is Unique This Year

- Because of six neutral site games in non-conference play (though Birmingham will hardly be neutral for Alabama on Dec. 21), Colorado State's first "true" road game in an opponent's home arena was scheduled to be Dec. 28 at The Pit vs New Mexico, 49 days from the start of the season.
- However due to CSU's COVID pause, the first true road game was played Saturday, Jan. 8, 60 days from the start of the season.
- This is the longest time from the opening of the season until Colorado State played a true road game in the program's modern history.
- The last time CSU played its first road game of the year this late was in the 1971-72 season (which wasn't allowed to start until Dec. 1), when the Rams played Arizona in Tempe on Jan. 14, 1972 (a 78-74 UA win). CSU finished 15-9 that year.

Challenging Schedule

- CSU has six guaranteed opponents that played in post-season in 2020-21 on this year's schedule, combining for at least eight games, with the Rams currently at 4-1 against those teams.
- Creighton, San Diego State, Oral Roberts and Utah State all competed in the NCAA Tournament.
- Saint Mary's and Mississippi State were in the NIT with Colorado State.

Closing In On A Historic Mark (x4)

- Barring injuries, Colorado State could have four players reach the 1,000-point career mark during this season, as only 32 have now reached the mark for the Rams, the last prior to this year being J.D. Paige during the 2018-19 season.
- Junior David Roddy became #31 to reach the 1,000 point mark in his career in the first half of the Mississippi State game on Dec. 11, while junior Isaiah Stevens got to the benchmark in his next game against Air Force on Jan. 4.
- Shown are where the four players currently are in terms of career points and ranking on CSU's all-time scoring chart.
- Junior David Roddy - 1075 points (#20)
- Junior Isaiah Stevens - 1060 points (#22)
- Senior Kendle Moore - 914 points (#46)
- Senior Adam Thistlewood - 877 points (#50)

Shooter U

- While there are seven other schools ranked in the top 25 nationally in at least two of the three shooting percentages (field goal, 3-point and free throw), Colorado State is one of just two in the top 25 in all three (10th in FG, 12th in 3P FG, 3rd in FT). The other is Missouri State (17th in FG, 7th in 3p, 14th in FT).

Valuing the Basketball

- The Rams have done a great job taking care of possessions and making the most of them.
- CSU is 18th nationally in fewest turnovers at 10.14 per game and 12th on assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.54.
- Junior Isaiah Stevens is 14th in the country at 5.9 assists per game and third in Division I with a 3.95 assist-to-turnover ratio.
- Over the past 10 games, Stevens has had 61 combined assists to just 13 turnovers. All this while still averaging 15.6 points and 1.6 steals per game and hitting 47.5 percent from the floor and 85.7 percent on free throws.

Starters Get It Going

- CSU's starters getting the scoring going was big last year, as the Rams were 18-3 last year when that group scored at least 50 points.
- In the season-opening win over Oral Roberts, the starting group had 56 points, while the bench chipped in 53.
- This year CSU is 8-0 when the starters tally at least 50.

Second Half Surge

- The Rams are making their move in the second half of games this season.
- CSU is outscoring opponents by an average of 7.6 points per game in the second half, including five games with 50 or more in the final 20 minutes.
- CSU is shooting at a stellar 54.4 percent clip from the field, 38.2 percent from the arc and limiting opponents to 44.2 and 29.9, respectively, while forcing 1.4 more turnovers a game in the second half.

The Cardiac Rams

- The three biggest comebacks for wins in program history have come in the past three years under head coach Niko Medved.
- The most recent was the USVI Paradise Jam championship game Nov. 22, when CSU trailed by 20 (44-24) to Northeastern with 17:15 to play. The Rams closed the game outscoring the Huskies, 47-17, to win the tournament title by 10. This was the second-most points trailed in a win.
- CSU's rally from 26 points down at No. 23 San Diego State on Jan. 2, 2021 made history as it is the largest comeback in both school and Mountain West history.
- The SDSU victory was the largest comeback win in Division I men's basketball last season and one of just five road comebacks of 26 points or more in a game between Division I opponents over the past 10 seasons, according to ESPN Stats & Information research.

- The previous largest comeback in CSU history occurred under Medved last season, as the Rams rallied from 19 down at Wyoming with 14:06 to play to earn a 77-70 win on Feb. 15, 2020.
- CSU's rally from 13 down in the win over Northern Colorado on Nov. 27 ties for the 20th largest deficit overcome in a victory in program annals.
- The Rams also came back from an 11-point deficit against Mississippi State. It was the third time this season and 11th time under head coach Niko Medved that CSU had rallied from double-digits down for the win.

Defense Setting A Tone

- CSU has showed an improved defensive effort, which is highlighted in the stats, despite having the 31st club in the country in terms of experience entering the 2020-21 year.
- In 2020-21, the Rams were ranked in the top 75 nationally in scoring defense, field goal percentage defense, 3-point field goal percentage defense and defensive rebounds.
- CSU held opponents to less than 60 points for five consecutive games. The last time CSU held opponents each to less than 60 points that many consecutive games was in 2012-13 (NCAA Tournament bid and win over Missouri season), where they held six straight opponents to less than 60.
- This year, the Rams had at least five blocks in each of the first three games. This was the first time that CSU had three-straight contests with five or more rejections since 2006-07.
- CSU has held opponents to 63 points or less in eight of its past 12 games, including two at the Paradise Jam.
- The 42 points by San Jose State on Jan. 15 were the fewest by a CSU opponent since holding SJSU to 41 points at home on Jan. 17, 2015 and tied for the 17th lowest opponent total in program history.

Hitting From Deep

- Last year's squad that ranked in the top 70 in the country in 3-point field goals made featured four of the most prolific 3-point shooters in school history (who are all back this year). This year's team is currently eighth nationally.
 - In the win over Creighton Nov. 21, CSU hit a school and Paradise Jam Tournament record 20 3-pointers. The mark is tied for the second most in Mountain West history.
 - Juniors Isaiah Stevens and John Tonje and seniors Kendle Moore and Adam Thistlewood are all in CSU's top-30 for 3-point field goal percentage.

Colorado State Policy on Injury Reports

Due to circumstances surrounding the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), Colorado State University has developed a policy regarding the release of injury information.

CSU student-athletes have the right to hold all injury information, except body part and playing status, confidential and private. As a standard operating procedure, coaches, athletic communications staff, and other athletic department personnel should refrain from sharing specific injury information with the media. However, in certain occasions, injury information could be released at the discretion of the athletic communications department after authorization is obtained from the student-athlete.

It is the policy of the CSU athletic training staff to not address the media unless it is absolutely necessary. Therefore, inquiries by the media regarding medical situations should be addressed to the Athletic Communications office.

Roddy Named To Watch Lists

- Junior David Roddy was named to the Wooden Award Midseason Top-25 Watch List on Jan. 5 and Lute Olson Award Midseason Watch List Jan. 12. He had previously been named to the preseason Karl Malone Award Watch List, announced by the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. One of 20 named to the initial Malone Award Watch List, this honor recognizes the top power forward in men's college basketball.
- A 2021 First-Team NABC All-District and All-Mountain West selection as well as a 2021-22 preseason All-MW pick, Roddy showed his development in his second year. As a sophomore, he increased both his scoring and rebounding averages, going from 11.4 points and 5.6 rebounds a game to a team-bests of 15.9 points and 9.4 rebounds. Those numbers were even better in MW play at 16.6 points and 9.9 rebounds per game, ranking, fourth and second, respectively, in the league. One of the toughest matchups in the Mountain West, Roddy hit 55.3 percent of his shots from the field, also second in the Mountain West, and ranked 13th in assists at 2.83 per game. Roddy's best game was in the 22-point win over Boise State, where he recorded career bests of 27 points and 15 rebounds in the victory. He also was just shy of the program's first triple-double when he had 12 points, 14 rebounds and nine assists in the March 3 win over New Mexico. He recorded 10 double-doubles last season, nine of them coming in conference play, with the two against Fresno State and the double-double in the comeback win at SDSU earning him Mountain West Player of the Week honors.
- This year after missing part of the opener with an upper body injury, Roddy has since then set career highs in scoring twice, including 30 points in the first round of the Paradise Jam against Bradley.
- Roddy had another career night against Creighton, Nov. 21, scoring 36 points with seven three-pointers to lead CSU to the Paradise Jam championship game.
- The junior was named Paradise Jam MVP after averaging 31.0 points per game in leading CSU to the title.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. -- Playing in front of fans in Moby Arena for the first time in 619 days, Colorado State opened the season in impressive fashion, pulling away in the second half for a 109-80 win over 2021 NCAA Sweet 16-foe Oral Roberts Tuesday night. It was the 14th straight season-opening victory and 41st consecutive home opener win for the Rams.

For the 7,287 in attendance, they were treated to a game that was up-and-down the floor throughout, as CSU built a seven-point halftime lead, 50-43. Coming out in the second half with a pair of starters dealing with injuries, CSU had its lead dip briefly to six before an 18-6 run put the hosts up 70-52 with 13:42 to play, with the margin growing to as many 34 in the closing minutes.

For the game, CSU finished at 58.9 percent (43-of-73) from the field and 45.8 percent (11-of-24) from the three-point arc, while holding ORU to just 39.7 percent (31-of-78) from the floor and 30.0 percent (12-of-40) beyond the three-point line. The Rams won the battle of the boards, 45-36, and outscored the Golden Eagles 50-34 in the paint. CSU also had nine blocked shots, the most since the Rams had 10 at Auburn on Nov. 30, 2004.

CSU was led by junior John Tonje with a career-high 31 points on 10-of-14 from the floor and hitting all eight of his free throws. Junior Dischon Thomas came off the bench with his first college double-double of 16 points and a career-high 10 rebounds along with a career-best five assists. In his CSU debut, fifth-year Chandler Jacobs had 15 points, while junior Isaiah Stevens had 13 points and six assists in the win. Oral Roberts had four players also in double figures, led by preseason All-American Max Abmas with 20, but limited to just 8-of-22 from the field, including 1-of-9 on threes.

STAT OF THE GAME

• After committing turnovers on its first two possessions, CSU had just three rest of the game for five, low under head coach Niko Medved and tied for ninth fewest for CSU in Moby Arena.

NOTES

- CSU now leads the overall series 4-1, including 3-0 in Moby Arena.
- This was CSU's 30th 100-point game in history, as the Rams improved to 30-0 in those contests, including 25-0 in Moby Arena.
- The 109 points are the most since CSU had 111 in a triple-overtime win versus Tulsa on Dec. 21, 2019 and tied for the fifth most in program history.
- Tonje surpassed his previous collegiate high of 15 points in the first half, finishing the opening 20 minutes with 18
- This was the first time under Medved a player had 30 or more points in a game and the first time in the program since Prentiss Nixon had 31 at Arkansas, Dec. 5, 2017.
- The 7,287 fans in attendance were the most since the home finale in the 2016-17 season against Wyoming
- 14 Rams saw action in the season opener

SAINT THOMAS, U.S. Virgin Islands – After a slow offensive start in the first half, Colorado State found a better rhythm offensively in the final 20 minutes and rallied for a 66-60 win in the opening round of the U.S. Virgin Islands Paradise Jam Friday afternoon. With the victory, the Rams improved to 4-0 on the season, while the Braves slipped to 1-3 overall.

This was a tight game throughout, as neither team led by more than eight the entire way through in this very physical battle. CSU shot just 24.0 percent (6-of-25) from the floor in the first half as the two teams were tied at 18 before a 9-3 closing run gave Bradley a 27-21 halftime lead.

The second half started with the Rams working the ball inside to junior David Roddy, as he scored the first two baskets to cut the margin to two. The teams then exchanged baskets that put Bradley up 37-32 at the first media timeout. From there Roddy scored six of the next eight points in an 8-0 run that put CSU up for good at 40-37 with 12:10 remaining. The Braves got within a single point on two other occasions, but a 9-2 run over 2:00 gave CSU its biggest lead of the game at 52-44 with eight minutes to go. While it got down to a single possession several times in the final minutes, each time CSU came up with a bucket and a stop to get the win as part of shooting 57.7 percent (15-of-26) in the final period.

Colorado State finished at 41.2 percent (21-of-51) from the floor for the game but just 26.3 percent (5-of-19) behind the arc. Bradley was held to just 39.1 percent (25-of-64) from the field and 25.0 percent (6-of-24) on threes. Bradley did win the board battle, 40-34, but CSU got to the charity stripe more and made it count, outscoring the Braves there 19-4.

Roddy finished with a career-high 30 points, 23 of those coming in the second half, along with a game-high nine rebounds. Junior John Tonje came off the bench with 13 points, while junior Dischon Thomas added 11 points and six rebounds, including three key offensive rebounds in the final minutes. Bradley also had three in double figures, led by Terry Roberts with 24.

STAT OF THE GAME

• After just having two points in the paint in the first half, the Rams got the ball inside effectively in the second half, tallying 22 points in the lane.

SAINT THOMAS, USVI – Colorado State drained a school and U.S. Virgin Islands Paradise Jam record 20 three-pointers and advanced to the finals of the tournament with a 95-81 victory over Creighton Sunday night.

The Rams led for the majority of the first half after junior David Roddy connected on a three-pointer to give CSU a 3-1 lead in the opening minute. CSU had as much as a seven-point lead in the opening 20 minutes but 9-2 Creighton run knotted the game at 33 with 1:43 remaining in the first. Colorado State then used a pair of triples from junior Dischon Thomas and a three at the intermission buzzer from Roddy to finish off a 9-3 run to end the half and give CSU a 42-36 lead at the break.

The second half with another three from Thomas, but the Bluejays went on a 14-2 run over less than three minutes to retake the lead at 50-47 with 16:36 remaining. After each team put two more on the board, the Rams took the lead for good on a three-pointer from freshman Jalen Lake in the right corner. CU answered with a basket, but the long distance shooting continued to stay hot for the Rams, as junior Isaiah Stevens and David Roddy hit on back-to-back possessions to spur a 17-4 run over 3:20 to make it a 72-58 CSU advantage midway through the final 20. CSU maintained a double-digit lead throughout the remainder of the half, building it to as much as 18 on a Roddy dunk in the final two minutes before the final 14-point margin.

Colorado State finished at 53.0 percent (35-of-66) from the floor overall but an even more staggering 56.8 percent (20-of-34) behind the three-point arc. Creighton was 55.0 percent (33-of-60) from the field, but just 31.8 percent (7-of-22) on threes. The Bluejays won the battle of the boards, 37-26, but CSU went plus-four on turnovers (13-9) and turned that into a 14-8 advantage.

Roddy finished with his second consecutive game with a career high, finishing with 36 points, including a career-best seven three pointers, along with three rebounds and three assists. Thomas also had career highs of 21 points and five three-pointers made. Junior Isaiah Stevens handled the ball effectively with a double-double of 17 points, 11 assists and no turnovers. Creighton had four in double figures, led by Arthur Kaluma with 16 points.

NIKO MEDVED

Head Coach • Fourth Year at CSU • Minnesota (1997)

Niko Medved is starting his fourth year as the head coach of the Rams' men's basketball program in 2021-22. Medved, a Colorado State assistant coach from 2007-13, has continued to show his prowess in program improvement, having led his respective squads to increased win percentage over the previous season in each of his eight years as a leader. That includes all three seasons at CSU, resulting in a nine-win improvement over two years and an 20-8 record this in 2020-21 that earned him Mountain West Coach of the Year from the league's media and United States Basketball Writers Association District Coach of the Year honors.

In 2019-20, the Rams continued their upward trend under Medved and his staff, posting an eight-victory improvement over his first year with a 20-win season. The Rams were also headed to the postseason for the first time in three years prior to the season being halted for the worldwide pandemic. As part of that season, three Rams were recognized for their play on the court, including second-team All-MW pick and the league's all-time leading rebounder Nico Carvacho and the Mountain West Freshman of the Year and third-team All-MW guard Isaiah Stevens.

He previously served as the head coach at Drake University for one season where he guided the Bulldogs to their first postseason berth in six years. Prior to his appointment at Drake, he engineered considerable success as head coach at Furman from 2013-16.

As a Colorado State assistant coach for six years beginning in 2007 when former head coach Tim Miles took the reins of the Rams' program, Medved was instrumental in the rebuild of the program that saw it improve from seven wins in 2007-08 to five consecutive postseason berths, including NCAA tournament appearances in his final two seasons. As recruiting coordinator at CSU, Medved was responsible for recruiting many of the contributing players on the Rams' roster who helped return the program to prominence, a list that includes:

- two-time All-Mountain West selection and eventual Olympian Andy Ogide
- 2013 honorable mention AP All-American and first-team All-Mountain West Conference choice Colton Iverson
- second team All-MW pick Dorian Green
- third team all-league and two time all-defensive team selection Pierce Hornung
- 2012 first team All-MW guard Wes Eikmeier
- 2013 MW Sixth Man of the Year Daniel Bejarano

During his season at Drake, he engineered a 10-game improvement over the previous season, including 10 wins in the Missouri Valley Conference, the most in 10 years and just the 11th time the squad had won 10 or more league games in a season. The turnaround was the 17th best in the nation this year from a 7-24 record prior to his arrival. The postseason berth in the CIT was the first since 2012 and the His squad defeated Wake Forest during non-conference play, the program's second-ever win against an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent. He also had a player named Missouri Valley Scholar-Athlete of the Week seven times during the season out of 11 opportunities and had four players named to MVC Scholar-Athlete teams.

In four seasons as head coach at Furman, Medved guided the Paladins from a seven-win squad prior to his arrival and led it to improved records each season. The run culminated in a 23-11 record in 2016 that earned him Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors and saw the program earn a share of its first SoCon regular season championship since 1990-91. Medved's team reached the semifinals of the CollegiateInsider.com (CIT) postseason tournament in 2016-17, its second consecutive season in the CIT.
