WATCH THE GAME:

FRIDAY'S PREVIEW...

First-place UNLV (3-1/1-0) plays the first of its three non-Saturday games of the season by hosting New Mexico (2-2/0-1) Friday night at Allegiant Stadium ... The Rebels, who already have more victories than the last two seasons combined, will set out to earn a fourth win in their first five games of a season for the first time since 2003 under Hall of Fame head coach John Robinson ... The Rebels are coming off a 34-24 win at Utah State while New Mexico fell 38-0 at LSU ... UNLV just won its opening MW game on the road for the first time since 2015 at UNR and can move to 2-0 in league play for only the second time in history (2013) with what would be its third straight victory overall for the first time since taking four in a row in 2013 ... UNLV is one of four schools in the nation to have at least nine different players who have recorded at least 1.0 QB sack ... The Rebels boast one of the nation's top TD men as Louisville grad transfer RB Aidan Robbins is tied with two others for second in the FBS with eight total scores (seven rushing, one receiving) ... UNLV is tied with one team (Louisiana) for second in the nation in turnover margin at plus-nine (USC leads college football at +14).

REBELS vs. LOBOS NOTES...

UNLV's 31-17 win over UNM in Albuquerque last fall gave the Rebels a 13-12 all-time lead in the series ... While the Lobos played games at now-shuttered Sam Boyd Stadium during the 2020 pandemic-shortened season, they are playing UNLV in Las Vegas for the first time since 2018 ... This marks the third non-Saturday game ever between these teams and the first staged in Las Vegas (UNLV lost in Albuquerque on Labor Day Monday in 2005 and won a 38-35 Friday night thriller in 2017) ... UNLV has taken seven of the last 10 vs UNM ... Eight of the last 15 games played between these two programs have been decided by seven points or less ... These schools played five straight seasons (1978-82) when UNLV first thought itself headed to the Western Athletic Conference ... UNLV's third-year running backs coach Scott Baumgartner, who is in his second season also serving as the Rebels' special teams coordinator, was a member of the Lobos' staff from 2013-19 ... UNM special teams coordinator/RBs coach Jamie Christian coached UNLV's RBs in 2015-16.

REBELATIONS...

At USU, UNLV's defense picked off at least five passes in a game for the sixth time in history and for the first time since vs. now-defunct program Pacific in 1992 (school record is six vs. Santa Clara in 1974) ... Adding in the team's first fumble recovery of the fall got UNLV to plus-six in turnover-margin in a game for the first time since vs. Idaho State in 2015 (4 INT, 2 FR) ... UNLV now has nine interceptions (second in the nation), which ties the team's total from all of 2021. In fact, the last time the Rebels had more than nine picks in a year was 2018 when they finished with 10 ... By scoring 52 vs. Idaho State and 58 vs. UNT, the Rebels reached the 50-point mark in back-to-back home games for the first time since 1974 (51 vs. Santa Clara and 63 vs. Prairie View A&M) ... UNLV's league-leading scoring output (39.5 PPG) has been well-balanced as the Rebels lead the Mountain West with nine passing touchdowns (three more than the next team) and sit third with 11 rushing scores ... The Rebels rank second in the MW in red-zone defense (69%) and are even stingier in allowing red zone TDs (just 7 in 16 trips) ... On the other side of the ball, UNLV sits fourth in red-zone offense (89.5%) and has scored four more red zone TDs (15 in 19 trips) than the next best team in the league ... UNLV sits second in the MW with 11 sacks in four games after totalling 22 all of last season ... The QB takedowns have come from nine different players with only Las Vegas product Adam Plant Jr. having more than one. Plant is tied for fourth in the MW with three, is third with five TFL and is also the squad's career leader with 10.0 sacks since transferring home from TCU ... The six-point defeat at Cal marked the seventh one-score loss for the Rebels since the start of 2021 after dropping a school-record six such games last fall (previous record was five in 2012) ... Because the Raiders hosted the Patriots in a preseason game at Allegiant Stadium the previous night, UNLV and Idaho State played their season-opening affair on the NFL team's natural grass field instead of the Rebels' usual artificial turf field for the first time. In fact, the Rebels were on grass for a home game for the first time since former venue Sam Boyd Stadium featured the natural stuff from 1999-2002 ... When Doug Brumfield took the first snap against Idaho State, he became the 14th different quarterback to start a season-opener in the last 19 years at UNLV and ended up winning Mountain West Offensive Player of the Week honors despite only attempting one pass after halftime ... Brumfield, who was named one of last week's Davey O'Brien Award Great 8 honorees as well as a Manning Award Star of the Week, leads the MW in overall passing yards (990), passing touchdowns (eight), scoring responsible for (72 points) and pass efficiency and is second in total offense (278.25 YPG) ... The Rebels feature a trio of sophomore QBs who have all started FBS games: Brumfield also started two outings in 2020 before suffering a season-ending injury; portal transfer addition Harrison Bailey started three games vs. SEC opponents for Tennessee in 2020 (vs. Florida, Vanderbilt and Texas A&M); and Cameron Friel started eight dates as a true freshman last fall ... UNLV actually played four quarterbacks vs. the Bengals as walk-on Matthew Geeting made his collegiate debut by taking the coveted Victory Formation kneel-down ... UNLV has not returned a punt for a touchdown in 21 years -- the longest drought in the nation. The last Rebel to do it was Troy Mason, who went 52 yards vs. San Diego State on Oct. 13, 2001, at Sam Boyd Stadium ... New WR Ricky White III, a transfer from Michigan State, is second in the MW with 79.2 receiving yards per game. White, who played on the same state champion Marietta (GA) High School team as Harrison Bailey, only played the first two quarters vs. Idaho State but brought in eight catches for 182 yards and two touchdowns in his Rebel opener ... UNLV welcomed four new position coaches, including two coordinators: Keith Heyward came from Cal to serve as DC and CB coach; Nick Holz ("Holtz") moved over from the Las Vegas Raiders to take over as Co-OC and QBs coach; Bojay Filimoeatu, who coached at MW schools Utah State and SJSU along with Oregon State, took over the D-line duties; and Michael Bruno followed Heyward from Cal to handle the inside linebackers.

2022 REBEL FOOTBALL

Marcus Arroyo was formally introduced Dec. 13, 2019, as the 12th head coach in the history of UNLV Football. Arroyo then used his next two months to hire a staff, win a Rose Bowl and then secure a record-setting recruiting haul of future Rebels.

Case in point: on Feb. 5, 2020, Arroyo announced his first UNLV recruiting class and the impressive group set multiple program records, including earning the No. 1 ranking in the Mountain West by Rivals and No. 2 by 247Sports. One year later, the 2021 class turned heads nationally, ranking eighth among all Group of 5 schools. Its standing of 67th overall was a stunning 36 spots higher than the average ranking for UNLV's classes in the decade previous to Arroyo's arrival on campus (averaged 103rd from 2010-19). In addition, the Class of 2021's average 247Sports per-player rating of .8324 shattered Year One's school-record mark of .8145. This also marked the first time since the introduction of the recruiting rankings that the Rebels finished in the top two of the Mountain West in consecutive years.

Arroyo, who turned 42 in January, took over the Rebels after most recently serving as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Oregon. Behind his play-calling, the Ducks won the 2019 Pac-12 Conference Championship and then defeated Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl, which marked the eighth bowl game of Arroyo's career. During his time in Eugene, the Ducks went 28-12 overall, including winning 15 of their last 17 outings.

Arroyo was instrumental in the development of quarterback Justin Herbert, the MVP of the Rose Bowl who became the No. 6 overall NFL draft pick and went on to be named the NFL Rookie of the Year after setting multiple league records for a first-year player. Another one of Arroyo's players, offensive lineman Penei Sewell, became the first Oregon player to win the Outland Trophy, which is awarded to the most outstanding interior lineman in college football.

Arroyo joined Oregon after spending two years as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State, and brought experience as a coach for every offensive position except the offensive line. Prior to going to Stillwater, Arroyo spent the 2014-15 season in the NFL as interim offensive coordinator and play-caller for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Before making the move to the NFL, Arroyo spent the 2013 college football season as the offensive coordinator and outside receivers coach at Southern Mississippi. Arroyo's first stint in the Pac-12 saw him spend 2011 and 2012 as the passing-game coordinator and play-caller at California. He spent the 2009 and 2010 campaigns at Wyoming as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, developing quarterback Austyn Carta-Samuels into the Mountain West Freshman of the Year in 2009. In fact, with UNLV QB Cameron Friel earning 2021 MW Freshman of the Year after rookie receiver Kyle Williams earned Freshman All-America and MW Freshman of the Year honors in 2020, Arroyo has now coached five freshman honorees in the last decade alone: WR Williams (UNLV), QB Carta-Samuels (Wyoming), QB Nick Mullens (C-USA All-Freshman Team at Southern Miss) and RB Justice Hill (Freshman All-America and nation's top rookie rusher at Oklahoma State).

Prior to his time in Laramie, Arroyo was the co-offensive coordinator for two seasons and quarterbacks coach for three campaigns at his alma mater, San Jose State. He was the quarterbacks coach and play-caller for the Spartans in 2006, and added co-offensive coordinator duties from 2007-08 under head coach Dick Tomey.

Arroyo began his coaching career with the Spartans in 2003 as an undergraduate assistant coach. He was the offensive coordinator at Prairie View A&M in 2004 before returning to SJSU as a graduate assistant in 2005.

A native of Colfax, California, Arroyo was a three-year letterman at San Jose State, where he played quarterback from 1998-2002. In 2000, he passed for 2,334 yards and 15 touchdowns while leading the Spartans to seven wins, their most in eight seasons. Arroyo graduated from San Jose State in 2003 with a degree in kinesiology. He is married to the former Kelly Thoni and the couple has one daughter and a son.

DANIEL BOOM!

Back for his sixth and final year with the Rebels, PK Daniel Gutierrez set the school record by making his 15th and then 16th consecutive field goal vs. SJSU last fall, besting Jim Cook's long-standing mark of 14 straight set in 1987, before his fourth-quarter attempt was blocked to end the historic streak. The former walk-on turned Lou Groza Award Semifinalist was surprised with a full scholarship during a scrimmage at Allegiant Stadium on August 11, 2021. The final play was a field-goal attempt and as expected, the senior nailed it with ease but then something unexpected happened as he was surprised with a highlight video on the stadium's big screen that closed with a special message that he was being put on full scholarship. Gutierrez responded by turning in a career night in the opener vs. EWU, nailing all four of his field-goal attempts, including a then-personal-best 51-yarder and earning a spot as a Lou Groza Star of the Week. A 2022 Groza Award Watch List member and Preseason Honorable Mention All-America selection by Pro Football Network,

Gutierrez is famous for his consistency, heading into this week an eye-popping 31-of-32 all-time from 39 yards or closer. Currently ranking seventh in the nation among active players with an 82.6% make rate, he needs eight more field goals to move into a tie for second place at the school for a career, and 13 more three-pointers would tie him with UNLV Athletics Hall of Famer Nick Garritano atop the career list.

WHERE THERE'S A WILLIAMS, THERE'S A WAY

Even with the graduation of longtime Rebel star Charles Williams, the UNLV roster remains Williams-heavy in 2022 with no less than five players sharing that same last name, including three who began the year as starters. In fact, all five of the quintet, who are no relation to each other, are members of the team's current two-deep. That means a full 11 percent of the UNLV depth chart is filled by a Williams.

QB1(HUNDRED)

When Doug Brumfield (pictured) finished with exactly 100 net yards rushing against North Texas in Game Three, he became 12th different UNLV quarterback to post a century-mark game on the ground. There have been only 19 such games in history but a full 11 of those have happened since the start of the 2016 season. The list includes five from former Rebel Armani Rogers. Rogers and Jason Thomas (three) are the only Rebel signal-callers to reach the mark more than two times in a career.

STATES OF THE PROGRAM

From Hawaii to Florida, from Alaska to Australia -- the 2022 Rebels come from hometowns spread across the continent and beyond. In fact, no less than 23 different states and two countries are represented on this year's roster. While a vast majority of Rebels naturally hail from California (40), Nevada (10) and Texas (9), six Georgia natives have come to Las Vegas. Meanwhile, Washington is home to no less than five current Rebels while Hawai'i, Utah, Arizona and South Carolina supply three each. Tennessee volunteered two Rebels as did Colorado, North Carolina, Michigan and Oregon. Florida, Alaska, Illinois, Maryland, Iowa, Kentucky, Kansas, Louisiana and New Jersey all are home to one UNLV player. In addition, punter Charlton Butt in 2020 became the first Aussie to sign a scholarship with the program and is joined this year by transfer defensive lineman Ben Key.

HISTORY MADE IN CLASSROOM

After never previously fielding an academic All-American, UNLV football now boasts two in as many years as senior defensive lineman Eliel Ehimare was announced as a member of the prestigious team in 2021. After the 2020 season, all-time leading rusher Charles Williams became the first UNLV football player in history to be voted Academic

All-America by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Just one season later, Ehimare became the first defensive player from the Rebels to make the list, nabbing a spot on the second team after he and Williams and linebacker also Austin Ajiake combined to mark the first time three UNLV players were voted academic all-district by the organization. Ehimare became the 33rd UNLV student-athlete overall to earn CoSIDA Academic All-America.

FERTITTA FOOTBALL COMPLEX: A STATE-OF-THE ART FOOTBALL HOME

On October 3, 2019, UNLV Athletics celebrated the official ribbon-cutting of its new, $34.8 million, state-of-the-art training center the Fertitta Football Complex. Just over three years ago the department announced the largest single gift in its history as the Feritta Family pledged an initial $10 million toward the construction. The 73,000-square-foot, two-level complex was built on campus in the north end of the team's practice area and overlooks the Ernie Becker Sr. Football Fields at Bill "Wildcat" Morris Rebel Park. The FFC is now the day-to-day home of the program and includes an academic center, locker rooms, offices, meeting rooms, strength & conditioning center, media room, training table and nutrition bar, athletic training center, player lounge and even a barbershop.

FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK (New in 2021)

Cameron Friel, QB	Nov. 8, 2021

AJIAKE HONORED

Super Senior linebacker Austin Ajiake (“AH-g-kay”) became the first defensive player from UNLV to be named Mountain West Player of the Week since 2019, the league announced Sept. 26. Ajiake helped UNLV earn a 34-24 victory at Utah State in Game Four by leading all players with 11 total tackles, including seven solo stops and one tackle-for-loss. The Fremont, CA, (Bellarmine Prep) product also hauled in his second interception of the season and returned it nine yards to set up a score. It was one of five picks on the night by the Rebels, who are now tied for second in the nation for turnover margin at plus-nine. For the season, Ajiake ranks third in the league with 8.75 tackles per game (42nd in the nation).

WATCHING THE REBELS

College Football Player of the Year Award. UNLV Super Senior Daniel Gutierrez is one of 30 members of the 2022 Preseason Lou Groza Award Watch List after being a semi-finalist a year ago. Finally, UNLV senior long snapper Rex Goossen is one of 25 players on the 2022 Patrick Mannelly Award Watch List, which was named after former Duke University and longtime Chicago Bears long snapper Patrick Mannelly. The award goes to college football’s top player at the special teams position each year and Goossen, who is still recovering from a serious injury suffered last season, is on the list for the second straight year.

NEXT STOP FOR THE A-TRAIN: THE END ZONE

UNLV running back Aidan Robbins, who is tied for second in the nation in total touchdowns with eight, rolled his way to Mountain West Offensive Player of the Week honors on Sept. 19. A graduate transfer from the University of Louisville, Robbins (Louisville, KY) ran 29 times for a nation-leading 227 yards and three touchdowns to help UNLV rout North Texas 58-27 in Week Three. The rushing total ranked eighth in Rebel single-game history. Robbins joined Charles Williams (Nov. 15, 2021) as the only two Rebel running backs to earn the honor since Tim Cornett did it in 2010 and the only two to win it outright since “Jersey” Joe Haro way back in October 2001. Cornett, Frank “The Tank” Summers (2007) and Larry Croom (2002) all won Co-Offensive Player of the Week awards since Haro’s outright win more two decades ago. Since the beginning of the 2020 Mountain West season, there have been three 200-yard-rushing performances in the conference, all by UNLV running backs - Williams twice in 2021 and Robbins in 2022.

UNLV vs. EWU	Sept. 2, 2021	L, 35-33	2	13

UNLV saw its two-game win streak in overtime snapped with a double-OT loss in the 2021 opener to Eastern Washington. It also dropped the program’s home record in OT to 4-9. In 2016, the Rebels broke a two-game losing streak in overtime games with its historic 69-66 victory over Wyoming. It marked the only time that the Rebels won a game that went longer than one overtime period and set a school record for points in extra time with 17. In 2008, the Rebels won back-to-back OT games at No. 13 Arizona State and then at home vs. Big 12 team Iowa State.

BEAUDRY EARNS WIESNER AWARD

Before UNLV's home-opening football game vs. Idaho State, senior linebacker Kyle Beaudry ("BOE-dree") was recognized as this year's recipient of the Tom Wiesner Award (pronounced "WEEZE-ner"). For the 21st consecutive year, coaches selected the player who best exemplifies the courage, enthusiasm, dedication and toughness of the late Mr. Tom Wiesner. Beaudry, who is a local product from powerhouse Liberty High School, is the starter at the WILL position and became the third linebacker to earn the Wiesner, which is designated with special stitching on the front of his jersey. A Wisconsin native and three-time letterman on the Badger football team, Mr. Wiesner sought his fortune out West and became one of the Las Vegas' leading businessmen, philanthropists, politicians and ambassadors. The founder of the successful restaurants that are part of Big Dog's Hospitality Group, Mr. Wiesner helped guide Rebel Athletics from their infancy and was inducted into the UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame as a Distinguished Contributor in 1994. Also a member of the Nevada Board of Regents, he died in 2002 at the age of 63 after a battle with Leukemia.

BRUMFIELD TAKES CONFERENCE KUDOS

Doug Brumfield became the first UNLV quarterback in three years to be named Mountain West Offensive Player of the Week, the league announced August 29. Brumfield led the Rebels to a season-opening 52-21 victory over Idaho State by turning in the second-most efficient passing game in school history. Despite taking the second half off, the sophomore from Inglewood, California, completed 21-of-25 pass attempts for a career-high and nation-leading 356 yards and four touchdowns – nearly all of which came in the first half. The 84.0 completion percentage ranked only behind Caleb Herring's school-record 85.7 (24-28) clip posted vs. Central Michigan in 2013.

IT'S SLOTS-OF-FUN: FAMED REBEL ROLLER RETURNS!

College football's most exciting sideline celebration prop debuted October 16, 2021, vs. Utah State when the Rebel Roller giant slot machine got plenty of use during UNLV's game that evening at Allegiant Stadium. Standing eight feet tall, weighing 700 pounds and worth approximately $60,000, the machine was custom-built specifically for UNLV player sideline celebrations by local gaming giant and longtime university supporter IGT. Ready to roll for players at least 18 years of age who both score or secure turnovers at home games. Video clips from the 2022 season-opener featuring the uniquely Vegas celebration went viral and earned more than eight million views on social media. While not awarding actual prizes, possibilities on the reels include the UNLV arch, the Southern Nevada area code of 702 and the iconic "Welcome to Fabulous Las Vegas" sign.

COME READY TO PLAY!

UNLV became the first football program in history to boast back-to-back Mountain West Freshman of the Year honorees as quarterback Cameron Friel earned the 2021 edition just one year after wide receiver Kyle Williams took home the 2020 honor along with a Second Team Freshman All-America nod. Friel broke the school record for completion percentage in a season by a freshman with a 62.4 clip, which also tied Hall of Famer Randall Cunningham (1984) for third overall by any Rebel. Friel, who came off the bench to lead the team in passing yards and touchdown passes, was named the MW Freshman of the Week after leading his team to a win at New Mexico. Also, his 307 yards on 25 completions at undefeated UTSA marked the most yards thrown by a UNLV true freshman QB. The season award means UNLV head coach Marcus Arroyo has now coached five freshman honorees in the last decade alone: QB Friel (UNLV), WR Williams (UNLV), QB Austyn Carta-Samuels (2009 MW Freshman of the Year at Wyoming), QB Nick Mullens (C-USA All-Freshman Team at Southern Miss) and RB Justice Hill (Freshman All-America and nation's top rookie rusher at Oklahoma State).

NON-SATURDAY FOOTBALL

In its 55-year history, UNLV has played 19 Thursday games, 20 Friday contests, one Sunday matchup, one Wednesday outing and one Monday game on Labor Day 2005 at New Mexico. The Rebels hold a 10-9 record on Thursdays, an 8-11-1 record on Fridays and an overall non-Saturday record of 18-23-1.

BRUMFIELD EARNING NATIONAL NODS

UNLV quarterback Doug Brumfield was named to the Davey O'Brien Great 8 list following Week Three. Brumfield ("BRUM-field"), who with this honor automatically earned a spot on the Davey O'Brien Award Midseason Watch List, helped UNLV post a 58-27 win over North Texas on Sept. 17 by completing 21-of-27 pass attempts for 211 yards and two touchdowns in addition to rushing 12 times for exactly 100 yards and two more scores. After four games, Brumfield leads the Mountain West in total offense (297.67 YPG), pass efficiency, touchdown passes (seven), TDs responsible for (nine) and is second with 257.7 passing yards per game. The sophomore from Inglewood, CA (J Serra HS) was also honored as one of eight Manning Award Stars of the Week by the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

GIANT FIRST HALF LEADS TO OPENING-WEEK WIN

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) – UNLV (1-0) used a dominating early offensive performance to earn an opening-week win for only the third time in the last 13 seasons, 52-21, over Idaho State (0-1) in front of 19,579 fans at Allegiant Stadium Saturday afternoon.

In what was the earliest game in school history by two days, the Rebels celebrated kicking off their 55th year of football by scoring on all seven first-half drives to run up a 45-7 halftime lead and then resting nearly every one of their starting skill players for the remainder of the day. The explosion, which came on the NFL's Las Vegas Raiders' natural grass turf, included tying the school record for most points in a quarter with 35 in the second (tying the same number vs. Idaho State in 2015). It was the most second-quarter points ever scored by UNLV, besting the 31 scored vs. North Texas in 2000.

Sophomore quarterback Doug Brumfield turned in the second-most efficient passing game in school history, completing 21-of-25 attempts for 356 yards and four touchdowns – with all but one, five-yard completion coming in the first half. The 84-percent completion rate ranked just behind Caleb Herring's school-record 85.7-clip vs. Central Michigan in 2013 (minimum 20 attempts).

Brumfield's main target was newcomer Ricky White as the Michigan State transfer wide receiver was scintillating in his Rebel debut, catching all eight passes thrown his way for 182 yards and two touchdowns – all coming in the first two quarters before getting the second half off.

The Rebel defense turned in five quarterback sacks and won the turnover battle 1-0 thanks to Super Senior Austin Ajikae's first career interception, which he returned 47 yards to set up a UNLV score. New linebacker Fred Thompson led all tacklers with 10.

REBEL OF THE GAME: Doug Brumfield, who was the 14th different starting QB for UNLV in the last 19 openers, turned in a career day as his 356 yards tied for the 21st-most in a game by a Rebel. That included a personal-best four scores and represented the most yards in a game for the program since Max Gilliam's 387 vs. San Jose State in 2018.

STAT OF THE GAME: The 45 points scored in the first two quarters were the second-most in any half by a Rebel team (52 vs. ISU in 2015).

QUOTABLE: "I really enjoyed the efficiency of the first half, the way we moved the ball around and the way we moved. Did a nice job on defense stopping the run game...I thought we did a good job of taking care of football. – zero turnovers. I think that is a big deal, especially for week one." UNLV head coach Marcus Arroyo

REBEL NOTES

- Because the Raiders hosted the Patriots the night before, Saturday's game was played on natural grass, marking the first time UNLV played a home game on the natural stuff since 2002, which was the final season Sam Boyd Stadium featured grass
- The Rebels won on grass for the first time since 2018 at San Diego State
- UNLV improved its record in the month of August to 4-6
- New starting running back Aidan Robbins, who transferred in from Louisville, scored three touchdowns in his Rebel debut (two rushing and one receiving) as he totaled 35 yards on 10 carries overall
- With his 39-yard boot, Daniel Gutierrez moved into fifth place on the school's career list with his 38th field goal, tying Jim Cook (1986-88)
- Gutierrez also improved to 29-of-30 all-time in field goal attempts from 39 yards or shorter
- UNLV improved to 25-30 all-time in season-openers and 20-10 when they happened at home
- UNLV improved to 7-2 all-time vs. the Bengals as the home team has won all nine meetings
- New punter Marshall Nichols, who transferred to UNLV from Mississippi State, had to wait until the second half to make his collegiate debut but ended up with a net average of 42.3 yards on three attempts
- Coming in during the final minutes, Stetson transfer running back Jordan Younge-Humphrey ended up leading the team in rushing yards with 71 on just six carries
- UNLV played four quarterbacks in the game – Brumfield, sophomore transfer Harrison Bailey, true sophomore Cameron Friel and walk-on Matthew Geeting, who enjoyed the victory formation kneel-down
- After the hosts were shut out in the third quarter, Friel found Zyeell Griffin for a 14-yard score with just over two

LATE UNLV RALLY TURNED BACK AT CAL

BERKELEY, Calif. (UNLVRebels.com) – The UNLV (1-1) football team was not able to convert a first-and-goal to take a late lead and fell, 20-14, in its first-ever meeting with California (2-0) of the Pac-12 Conference in front of 38,180 fans at Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon.

Following an early season bye week, the Rebels took the field for the first time in September and quickly fell behind 14-0 but would not surrender another touchdown to the Golden Bears. UNLV got into the game with an impressive second-quarter drive capped by a Doug Brumfield to Kyle Williams 11-yard touchdown play.

The Rebels trailed 17-7 at halftime after racking up 70 yards in penalties. After Cal made another field goal, UNLV pulled to within six after a 31-yard rushing score by Aidan Robbins. The Rebels would eventually have four shots at the end zone, getting as close as the eight-yard line, with just under three minutes remaining but were ultimately turned away. UNLV also forced another punt and had one last shot before Cal closed things out.

REBEL OF THE GAME: Louisville graduate transfer Aidan Robbins rushed 14 times for a career-high 84 yards and his 31-yard touchdown scamper was the fourth overall of the young season (three rushing and one receiving).

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV was just 1-of-12 on third down vs. Cal.

QUOTABLE: "We let that one get away. We have a locker room full of guys right now that are disappointed because they wanted to finish that game, but we've got to capitalize versus quality opponents. We had some things in this game we didn't do in the opener that put us in a situation where we had to make up a lot of ground and we're going to go back and look at that. We've also showed we'll fight. Our guys will fight, there's no doubt about it." UNLV head coach Marcus Arroyo

REBEL NOTES

-The Golden Bears are scheduled to return this game in Las Vegas to open the 2026 season

-UNLV fell to 6-33 all-time vs. teams from the current makeup of the Pac-12 Conference

-Four current UNLV coaches – including head coach Marcus Arroyo – previously coached at Cal

-Rebel tight ends coach Nate Longshore was Cal's starting quarterback in 2006-08

-UNLV posted four quarterback sacks all by different players

-Jerrae Williams picked off Jack Plummer deep in Rebel territory for the team's second interception of the season and the first for Williams as a Rebel

-UNLV suffered its first turnover of the season on the final play of the game when Brumfield was picked off

-Kliiinahe Mendiola-Jensen made his first career start on defense at cornerback after starting two games at wide receiver as a true freshman in 2021

REBELS BLOW PAST MEAN GREEN

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) – The UNLV (2-1/0-0) football team scored the final 28 points of the game to pull away, 58-27, over North Texas (2-2/1-0) of Conference USA at Allegiant Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The Rebels, who posted consecutive victories at home for the first time since 2018, ran for 365 yards, 227 from Aidan Robbins and 100 on-the-dot from quarterback Doug Brumfield. They scored their most points since 2016 and won two of their first three games in a season for only the second time since 2009 and first time since 2018.

Brumfield also completed 21-of-27 pass attempts for 211 yards and a pair of touchdowns, including a 23-yarder to Kyle Williams on the game's opening drive. After UNT returned the kickoff 99 yards for a score, the Rebels eventually blocked a UNT punt that went out of the end zone and resulted in a safety. After the Mean Green kicked a go-ahead field goal, UNLV went back up on Robbins' first touchdown run and never lost the lead again.

Brumfield became the first Rebel to pass for at least 200 yards and rush for at least 100 in the same game since Armani Rogers (211 & 193) did it at New Mexico in 2017.

Senior linebacker Austin Ajjake led all tacklers with 12 total while UNLV won the turnover battle 2-0 with a pair of interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown to put the finishing touches on the victory.

REBEL OF THE GAME:

Louisville graduate transfer Aidan Robbins posted career highs in rushing attempts with 29 and yards with 227 to go with three touchdowns and give him seven overall TDs in just three games (six rushing, one receiving).

STAT OF THE GAME:

UNLV stopped UNT on three of four fourth-down attempts and turned all three into touchdowns, including a 99-yard drive in the fourth quarter.

QUOTABLE:

"It's awesome to get our fan base excited and gassed up. It's been an awesome first couple weeks on getting engaged and excited about the brand of football that we are playing. It's a big deal for us, it fuels us to come in here and make this place hard to play in -- that's what we're trying to push for."

-UNLV head coach Marcus Arroyo

REBEL NOTES

-UNLV, which put up 52 on Idaho State in its opener, scored at least 50 points at home in back-to-back games for the first time since 1974 (51 on Oct. 5 vs. Santa Clara and 63 on Oct. 12 vs. Prairie View A&M)

-RB Aidan Robbins' career-high 227 yards rushing marked the eighth-most in one game by a Rebel

-Cameron Oliver's 20-yard interception return for a touchdown with 42 seconds left in the game marked the first defensive score by a Rebel since future NFLer Javin White's 65-yard pick-six at Ohio State in 2017

-Robbins (227) and Brumfield (100) marked the first time UNLV boasted two 100-yard rushers in the same game since 2018 when Lexington Thomas had 120 and QB Armani Rogers finished with 122 vs. Prairie View A&M

-The Rebels did not commit a turnover for the second time in three games this season

-UNLV recorded its second blocked punt of the season when Spencer Briggs got to the ball

-The Rebels turned the block into their first safety since Sept. 15, 2018, vs. Prairie View A&M

-Doug Brumfield turned in his first career 100-yard rushing game with 100 on 12 carries, including two scores. It marked the 19th 100-yard rushing game by a UNLV quarterback in history and the first since 2020 when Max Gilliam went for 139 vs. Fresno State

-Jerrae Williams became the ninth different Rebel to record at least one quarterback sack this season as he took down the UNT QB for a 10-yard loss on the opening drive

-CSU Pueblo transfer Nick Williams made a big impact with two receptions, both going for first downs, totaling 59 yards through the air minutes remaining

FOOTBALL DOWNS DEFENDING CHAMPS TO IMPROVE TO 3-1

LOGAN, Utah. (UNLVRebels.com) – The UNLV (3-1/1-0) football team won for the third time in its first four games of a season for only the third time since the start of the Mountain West in 1999 (2003 and 2008), 34-24, over Utah State (1-3/0-1) Saturday evening at Maverik Stadium. The victory also snapped a six-game losing skid vs. USU and represented UNLV's first victory over the Aggies in Logan since 2007.

Quarterback Doug Brumfield ran for two early touchdowns and also threw another while the Rebel defense picked off USU signal-caller Logan Bonner five times to highlight the complete team victory. Including another fumble recovery, UNLV finished the game an eye-popping plus-six in turnovers.

Senior linebacker Austin Ajjake led all tacklers with 11 total and cornerback Nohl Williams posted 118 all-purpose yards between returning punts, kickoffs and interceptions.

REBEL OF THE GAME:

Despite seeing the game's top two receivers (Kyle Williams and Jeff Weimer) both leave with injury, Brumfield was surgically efficient all night. He finished completing 21-of-31 attempts for 217 yards and a score to go with his two rushing TDs.

STAT OF THE GAME:

UNLV's defense picked off five passes thanks to four different players (two by Nohl Williams, one by Austin Ajjake, Cameron Oliver and Jerrae Williams). It marked the first five-INT game for the Rebels since 1992 vs. Pacific.

QUOTABLE:

"These guys are excited. To win on the road in conference play against the defending Mountain West champions after a (USU) bye week is a big deal. We were sloppy on some things, we did some things we haven't done all season, but that's going to happen when we play on the road versus a quality opponent. The program has come a long way to win a game like that while playing imperfect and that's exciting."

-Aidan Robbins, who led all rushers with 81 net yards, scored one touchdown to give him eight overall on the year (seven rushing and one receiving). The Louisville transfer has scored in all four games as a Rebel

-Daniel Gutierrez made both of his field goal attempts to move into a tie with Dillon Pieffer (2000-03) for third in program history with 40 field goals

-WR Kyle Williams scored his team-leading fourth receiving TD before leaving the game with an injury

-In the second quarter, USU turned in the first blocked punt against UNLV since San Diego State in 2020

-That play resulted in the Aggies recording the first safety against the Rebels since Southern Utah got on Aug. 31, 2019

-UNLV finished 6-for-6 in the red zone while limiting USU to just two scores in four trips
