HEAD COACH | MIKE BRADBURY

Mike Bradbury enters his seventh season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous six seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 120-65 (.649) overall record. Three times in his tenure (2017-18, 2018-19 and 2021-22) the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark, with the Lobos tying the program record for most wins in a single season with 26 in 2021-22. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury are the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

Bradbury became just the second coach in UNM history to win 100 games with a win over Grambling on Nov. 30, 2021.

The Lobos have sustained success under Bradbury, with the program establishing several program records last season. UNM set the program record in made three-pointers (346), a program-best 171 made three-pointers in conference season, as well as a program-record 596 assists on the season and 292 in conference games. In addition, the Lobos made a program-high 523 field goals in conference and scored the most points in conference in program history with 1,413 points. On Jan. 6 at Utah State, the Lobos set the program record and the MW record in made three-pointers in a game with 21, and three games later made 19 three-pointers for the second most in a game in program history. The Lobos also went on a nine-game win streak, the second longest in program history.

New Mexico ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in made three-pointers (third), made three-pointers per game (fifth, 9.6 per game) and in assists (10th). In total, UNM ranked in the top 30 in nine categories, including scoring offense (14th, 76.7 points per game), assists per game (16th, 16.6 per game), assist/turnover ratio (18th, 1.21), field-goal percentage (19th, 45.1 percent), blocked shots (25th, 147) and three-point field-goal percentage (30th, 35.1 percent).

UNM added six postseason Mountain West honors with a conference-high three all-conference players in Antonia Anderson, Shaiquel McGruder and Jaedyn De La Cerda, an honorable mention in LaTora Duff, an all-defensive player in McGruder and an all-freshman in Paula Reus. The Lobos have had 14 conference selections in the last two seasons.

In the 2020-21 season at the helm of the Lobos, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his third year at the helm, Bradbury continued to put his mark on the program while also continuing to bring Lobo women's basketball back to national prominence. Overall, Bradbury's 2018-19 team went 24-7 and earned a bid to the WNIT for a second-straight season. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 – 2009-10 seasons that the program made consecutive trips to the postseason.

After dropping a one-possession game to Auburn in the preseason WNIT, the 2018-19 Lobos ripped off 11-straight wins to tie the program record and were on the cusp of cracking the national top-25 rankings as well by receiving votes from the WBCA during that stretch. Bradbury would also receive an individual plaudit from the WBCA last season as he was named as one of 13 finalists for the 2019 United States Marine Corps/WBCA National Coach of the Year Award. Impressively, Bradbury was the only coach from a non-Power 5 conference to be a finalist.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 18 All-Mountain West performers with Cherise Beynon, Jayla Everett, Jaisa Nunn, Aisia Robertson and Richelle van der Keijl joining De La Cerda, both Duffs, McGruder, Hurst, Reus, and Anderson in making the All-Mountain West Team. Tesha Buck, Mykiel Burleson and Nike McClure have also earned MW recognition with Buck being the 2017-18 Newcomer of the Year, Burleson being named to the All-Freshman team in 2016-17 and McClure landing on the All-Defensive team in 2018-19.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury has coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Buck in 2017-18 and Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in Duff (2020-21).

Further, a Lobo has been named Mountain West Player of the Week 15 times during his tenure with three Freshman of the Week in its inaugural 2021-22 year.

In year two under Bradbury the Lobos had a breakout season, especially offensively as they ended the 2017-18 season averaging 80.4 points per game while also posting an impressive +9.7 scoring margin. Both marks led the Mountain West and the point-per-game total was 16th-best in NCAA DI last season.

A significant reason for the jump in offensive production was the fact that the Lobos were one of the most potent three-point shooting threats in the country. For the season, the Lobos attempted the eighth-most overall trifectas in DI hoisting 932 long distance shots. Successful 34% of the time, the Lobos made the 11th most 3's burying 319.

Prior to coming to Albuquerque, Bradbury built a successful nine year run as a Division-I head coach with stops at Morehead State (Morehead, Ky.) and Wright State (Dayton, Ohio). Most recently with the Raiders, Bradbury led his squad to five 20-win seasons, including each of his final three seasons. During that time, Wright State has amassed a 75-28 record, the best amongst the 13 Division I programs in the state of Ohio.

Overall at Wright State, Bradbury had five winning seasons, all of which were 20-plus win seasons, in six years- a feat made all the more remarkable as Wright State had just one winning season in the previous 22 before his arrival. In the previous 37 seasons of women's basketball at Wright State, the Raider program had tallied 20 wins just once before Bradbury led the team to 20 wins in five of his six seasons.

His most prominent three-year run at Wright State started in 2013-14, when the Raiders won a school-record 26 games on the way to a 26-9 season and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season saw the Raiders finish second in the Horizon League and win its first Horizon League Tournament. It also featured the program's first road win at perennial league power Wisconsin-Green Bay. Kim Demmings was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, and it marked the first time in school history the program had a pair of first team All-Conference selections.

He followed up that by earning Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2014-15 after a 25-9 season that saw his squad lose its Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year less than two minutes into the season opener. The Raiders just missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, falling in overtime in the conference championship game. The team did make its first appearance in the Women's NIT as the league's automatic qualifier, and in 2015-16, the team made it back-to-back WNIT appearances after a 24-11 season, earning the program's first at-large bid.

Those three seasons are the three winningest seasons in the history of Wright State women's basketball.

In his first two seasons at Wright State, he led the team to a 20-13 campaign and a 21-13 mark and berths in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the first NCAA Division I postseason berths for the program. Overall, Bradbury has coached three Horizon League Players of the Year (all in his last three seasons), six first-team All-Horizon League players, three second-team members and four All-Freshman team members.

Prior to his time at Wright State, Bradbury was the head coach at Morehead State where he led the Division I program to a 50-44 mark in three seasons, including a watershed 22-11 season, which was the second-most wins in Morehead State history and the most wins by the Eagles in the previous 38 years. At Morehead State he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, along with one first-team All-OVC pick (two seasons) and three second-team All-OVC picks.

Bradbury also spent time as an assistant coach at Xavier (2002-06), Cincinnati (1996-02), VCU (1995-96), East Tennessee State (1994-95) and Chattanooga (1991-94). In his 29 seasons as an assistant and as a head coach, Bradbury's teams have finished below .500 only three times.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | VALERIE KING

Valerie King enters her seventh season with The University of New Mexico women's basketball program, but her first as associate head coach after being promoted in June 2022. Prior to coming to New Mexico, King spent six seasons as current UNM head coach Mike Bradbury's assistant coach at Wright State. Additionally, King was on his staff during his three-year tenure at Morehead State.

In her time at UNM, King has helped the Lobos to a 120-65 (.649) record over the past six seasons. In three of those campaigns, the Lobos have eclipsed the 20-win mark and in four of the last five seasons have made the postseason. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons in 2017-18 and 2918-19 with King on staff are the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

During the 2021-22 season, the program established several program records under King's guidance. UNM set the program record in made three-pointers (346), a program-best 171 made three-pointers in conference season, as well as a program-record 596 assists on the season and 292 in conference games. In addition, the Lobos made a program-high 523 field goals in conference and scored the most points in conference in program history with 1,413 points. On Jan. 6 at Utah State, the Lobos set the program record and the MW record in made three-pointers in a game with 21, and three games later made 19 three-pointers for the second most in a game in program history. The Lobos also went on a nine-game win streak, the second longest in program history.

Nationally, New Mexico ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in made three-pointers (third), made three-pointers per game (fifth, 9.6 per game) and in assists (10th). In total, UNM ranked in the top 30 in nine categories, including scoring offense (14th, 76.7 points per game), assists per game (16th, 16.6 per game), assist/turnover ratio (18th, 1.21), field-goal percentage (19th, 45.1 percent), blocked shots (25th, 147) and three-point field-goal percentage (30th, 35.1 percent).

UNM won seven MW weekly conference honors (four player of the week and three freshman) as well as added six postseason Mountain West honors with a conference-high three all-conference players in Antonia Anderson, Shaiquel McGruder and Jaedyn De La Cerda, an honorable mention in LaTora Duff, an all-defensive player in McGruder and an all-freshman in Paula Reus.

In the 2020-21 campaign, King was instrumental in UNM's Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season.

Overseeing the guard development, the Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with guard LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In 2018-19, the Lobos went 24-7 overall and returned to the WNIT for a second-straight year. The return trip to the WNIT marked the first time that program had made consecutive postseason trips since the 2008-09 – 2009-10 seasons.

A Lobo has earned Mountain West Player of the Week seven times during King's five years at UNM.

Prior to her time at UNM, King, alongside Bradbury, helped Wright State reach new heights in 2010-11 as the Raiders played in its first Division I postseason tournament with two games in the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI) and secured the program's first 20-win season in Division I. All told, with King on staff, the Raiders made five postseason appearances with WBI seasons in 2010-11 & 2011-12, WNIT appearances in 2014-15 & 2015-16 and the program's lone NCAA Tournament appearance in 2013-14.

With an expertise in outside shooting, King helped turn Morehead State into one of the nation's top 3-point shooting teams. In 2009-10, the Eagles led the NCAA Division I in 3-pointers made with 10.3 per game. During the 2008-09 campaign, MSU led all NCAA and NAIA teams in 3-pointers attempted. King also helped build junior guard Chynna Bozeman into the individual national leader with 3.7 threes made per contest.

That expertise has translated to New Mexico as the Lobos attempted the eighth-most 3-pointers in DI in 2017-18, hoisting 932 attempts from long range. Successful 34% of the time, UNM ranking in the Top-15 in DI in 3-point makes as they ranked 11th overall with 319 makes.

As a player, King was a four-year starter for Cincinnati from 2000-01 through 2003-04 and ended her career as the UC and Conference USA all-time leader in 3-pointers with 338. King is also Cincinnati's all-time career leader in games played (126), 3-pointers attempted (847), 3-point percentage (39.9) and free-throw percentage (86.6).

For her career, King scored 2,156 points to rank second all-time at Cincinnati and is just one of three Bearcats to score 2,000 or more points in a career. A Conference-USA All-Decade selection, her point total ranks fourth in league history.

Additionally, King was named First Team All-Conference in 2001-02 and 2002-03, Second Team All-Conference in 2003-04 and earned C-USA Tournament MVP honors in 2001. She was a five-time Player of the Week honoree during her career and was named Honorable Mention All-America by Basketball Times in 2002. She was signed as a free agent by the Sacramento Monarchs of the WNBA after her collegiate career and spent a short time playing professionally.

In her four years with the Bearcats, the team appeared in postseason in each of King's four seasons, including NCAA tournament appearances in 2002 and 2003. King was inducted into the school's Athletics Hall of Fame on Oct. 27, 2010.

King, a native of Washington Court House, Ohio, graduated from Cincinnati with a degree in communication and earned a master's degree from the University of Louisville in sports administration. King and her husband Brandon welcomed their first child, Camden, in July of 2021, and their second daughter, Emersyn, in July of 2022.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | KEITH FREEMAN

Keith Freeman enters his first season with the Lobos in 2022-23 and joins the Lobos after spending two seasons at Mississippi State.

With the Lobos, Freeman will oversee working with post players and defense.

The new UNM coach comes to Albuquerque with over 30 years of coaching experience.

Prior to his time with the Bulldogs, Freeman was at Old Dominion (2018-20), where the Monarchs made their first postseason appearance since 2015 and recorded back-to-back seasons with 20-plus wins. In 2019-20, ODU went 24-6, finishing second in the C-USA.

The new UNM coach has ties to Coach Bradbury, as well as King, dating back to Wright State where Freeman spent six seasons (2012-18), four of which were with Bradbury as head coach and King as assistant coach.

Beyond his time on the bench as an assistant or associate head coach, Freeman held the role of head coach for 24 seasons, compiling a 415-294 record. Freeman served as head coach at Valparaiso from 1994-2012, and became the all-time winningest coach in program history with 286 victories. Under his guidance, the Crusaders reached the NCAA Tournament twice and won two Mid-Continental Conference championships and two Mid-Continental Tournament championships.

In addition, Freeman was named Mid-Continental Conference Coach of the Year three times, coached 33 players to all-conference honors and after coaching Valparaiso to a 26-7 record in 2001-02 was named a finalist for the National Coach of the Year.

ASSISTANT COACH | NIKE MCCLURE

Nike McClure enters her second season with the Lobos and first as an assistant coach after serving as the director of player development during the 2021-22 season.

McClure has plenty of knowledge and experience to pass on to current and future Lobos as a former player under head coach Mike Bradbury, and then overseeing player development.

"Coming back to Albuquerque was a no-brainer," McClure stated. "I am feeling humbled to join a staff with individuals who have the basketball minds of juggernauts. Having played for Mike Bradbury two years ago, I have a strong sense of loyalty to him and this program. Now I will take much pride in becoming a custodian of this institution. I hope to serve this team well while sharing and growing my knowledge of the game. I cannot wait to see familiar faces in The Pit… there is no place like home."

In her first year on the bench with the Lobos during the 2021-22 season, the program established several program records. UNM set the program record in made three-pointers (346), a program-best 171 made three-pointers in conference season, as well as a program-record 596 assists on the season and 292 in conference games. In addition, the Lobos made a program-high 523 field goals in conference and scored the most points in conference in program history with 1,413 points. On Jan. 6 at Utah State, the Lobos set the program record and the MW record in made three-pointers in a game with 21, and three games later made 19 three-pointers for the second most in a game in program history. The Lobos also went on a nine-game win streak, the second longest in program history.

Nationally, New Mexico ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in made three-pointers (third), made three-pointers per game (fifth, 9.6 per game) and in assists (10th). In total, UNM ranked in the top 30 in nine categories, including scoring offense (14th, 76.7 points per game), assists per game (16th, 16.6 per game), assist/turnover ratio (18th, 1.21), field-goal percentage (19th, 45.1 percent), blocked shots (25th, 146) and three-point field-goal percentage (30th, 35.1 percent).

UNM won seven MW weekly conference honors (four player of the week and three freshman) as well as added six postseason Mountain West honors with a conference-high three all-conference players in Antonia Anderson, Shaiquel McGruder and Jaedyn De La Cerda, an honorable mention in LaTora Duff, an all-defensive player in McGruder and an all-freshman in Paula Reus.

Well known to Lobo fans, McClure was named to the Mountain West All-Defensive Team during the 2018-19 season after leading the conference with 67 blocked shots and an average of 2.2 a game, while adding 6.8 rebounds per game. McClure's 67 blocks ranks fifth all-time in single-season blocks at UNM.

Furthermore, McClure accounted for nine of UNM's 14 team blocks against Oklahoma on Nov. 28, 2018, with the 14 tying the second-highest total in program history. McClure's nine blocks ranked third all-time in single-game blocks for an individual.

After graduating from UNM, McClure went on to play overseas in Portugal for CAB Madeira as well as the Anorthosis Basketball Club in Cyprus, where she averaged 16.3 ppg, 17.4 rpg, 3.8 apg, 2.2 spg, 2.3 bpg.

"Nike was a natural fit for anything that has to do with the players and player development," Bradbury stated upon her hiring. "Her personality and enthusiasm are infectious for everybody that she's around and it's great that we were able to get her to come back."

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS | HANNA HUDSON

Hanna Hudson enters her first season at The University of New Mexico and with the women's basketball program, after joining as the director of operations in August 2022.

In her role with the Lobos, Hudson will oversee the travel and scheduling.

Hudson recently graduated from East Texas Baptist University, where she was a four-year letterwinner with the Tigers. During her time at ETBU, she was named to the All-ASC Freshman Team and All-ASC Second Team.

From Grandview, Texas, Hudson obtained a bachelor of science in business administration with a minor in religion, as well as a Master of Business Administration.

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT | ISAIAH FERNANDEZ

Isaiah Fernandez enters his first season as the director of player development with the UNM women's basketball program.

Hired in July 2023, Fernandez will oversee the day-to-day basketball operations, in charge of film, managers and practice players.

Fernandez comes to UNM after gaining experience as a graduate assistant manager at Mississippi State, working under hall of famer Nicki McCray-Penson for five seasons prior to coming to New Mexico. Prior to that, Fernandez was a student manager with the Old Dominion women's basketball team for four years, where he assisted with the scout team.

From Hopewell, Virginia, Fernandez graduated from ODU in May 2020 with a degree in sport management and from Mississippi State with a master's degree in kinesiology.

WELCOME TO THE PIT,

Founded in 1889 as New Mexico's flagship institution, The University of New Mexico now occupies nearly 800 acres near old Route 66 in the heart of Albuquerque, a metropolitan area of more than 500,000 people. From the magnificent mesas to the west, past the banks of the historic Rio Grande to the Sandia Mountains to the east, Albuquerque is a blend of culture and cuisine, styles and stories, people, pursuits and panoramas.
Offering a distinctive campus environment with a Pueblo Revival architectural theme, the campus buildings echo nearby Pueblo Indian villages. The nationally recognized campus arboretum and the popular duck pond offer an outstanding botanical experience in the midst of one of New Mexico's great public open spaces.

The People

As a Hispanic-Serving Institution, the University represents a cross-section of cultures and backgrounds. In fall of 2017, 25,015 students, attended main campus with another 7,609 students at branch campuses and education centers.
UNM boasts an outstanding faculty that includes a Nobel Laureate, two MacArthur Fellows, 35 Fulbright scholars and several members of national academies. Faculty publish in many professional journals including Scientific American, The New England Journal of Medicine and Nature. UNM professors have been quoted in Newsweek, Los Angeles Times, Business Week, People Magazine, Parade Magazine, U.S. News and World Report, and The New Yorker, among others. They have shared their expertise on CNN, the Today Show, Good Morning America, Nova National Geographic and other news shows.
UNM employs more than 20,000 people statewide, including employees of University Hospital. It has more than 159,000 active alumni, with Lobos in every state and more than 1,400 alumni outside the U.S. More than half of UNM's alumni choose to remain in New Mexico.

The Places

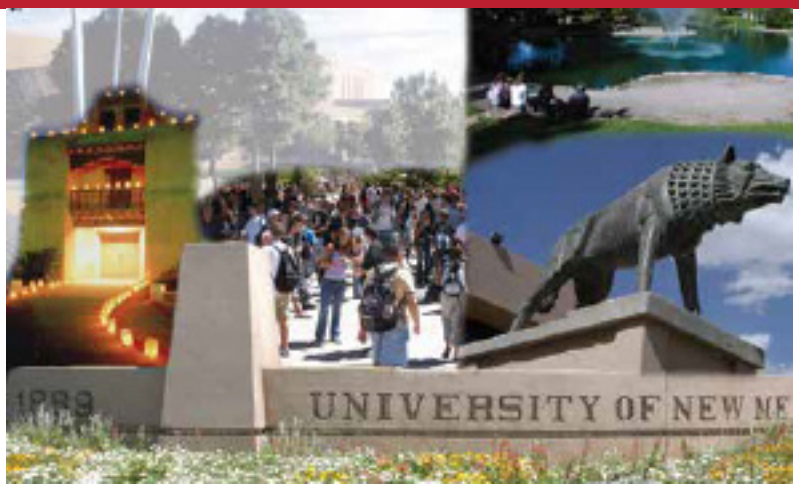

The University has branch campuses in Gallup, Los Alamos, Taos and Valencia County, plus UNM West, an extension campus in Rio Rancho. UNM offers bachelor and graduate degree completion programs throughout the state via Extended Learning and has education centers located at the four branch campus locations as well as in Santa Fe, Farmington, and at Kirtland Air Force Base.
UNM's libraries, museums, galleries and performance spaces are a rich cultural resources for the state. Home to the Lobos and contenders in the Mountain West, UNM athletics draws fans from all over. Dreamstyle Arena is one of college basketball's most famous and recognizable buildings. In fact, The Pit was ranked 8th by USA Today as one of the best arenas to watch college basketball.

The Programs

UNM is a place where cutting-edge research and creative endeavors flourish. UNM research injects millions of dollars into New Mexico's economy, funds new advancements in healthcare, and augments teaching – giving students valuable hands-on training in state-of-the art laboratories.

The Health Sciences Center is the state's largest integrated health care treatment, research and education organization. U.S. News and World Report's 2015 edition of "America's Best Graduate Schools" ranks the UNM

School of Medicine 40th in primary care and 83rd in research, while specific areas also rank again among the top 10 – rural medicine, second, and family medicine, ninth. Additionally, in health disciplines, UNM's nursing/midwifery program is ranked fifth. UNM School of Law is ranked 72th, while ranking ninth in clinical training. UNM College of Fine Arts is ranked 53rd, with its photography program ranked fifth in the nation. The engineering program is ranked 87th nationally, with electrical engineering coming in at 53rd, and Chemical Engineering ranking at 58th.

UNM is the only Hispanic-Serving Institution in the U.S. that is also classified a Carnegie Research University with Very High Activity. Recently, Hispanic Business Magazine ranked four University schools among the top 10. The list included: UNM School of Law, seventh; UNM Anderson School of Management, fourth; UNM School of Medicine, seventh; and the UNM School of Engineering, sixth.

Among the University's outstanding research units are the Center for Advanced Research Computing, Cancer Center, New Mexico Engineering Research Institute, Center for High Technology Materials, Design Planning Assistance Center, and the Mind Research Network.

UNM Traditions-The Lobo Nickname

A number of legends have arisen over the years as to how The University of New Mexico got "Lobo" as its official nickname. When the university began playing football in 1892, the team was simply referred to as "The University Boys" or "Varsities" to distinguish themselves from the prep school kids.

The student body, at least as early as 1917, began to seriously explore the possibilities for both a mascot and a new name for the student newspaper, which was then called simply the "U.N.M. Weekly." Several names for the paper were suggested, including The Rattler, the Sand Devil, the Ki-yo-te and the Cherry and Silver. However, there was no single name that struck a responsive chord among the students and when school opened in the Fall of 1920 the U.N.M. Weekly was still there.

On Sept. 22, 1920, sophomore George S. Bryan, editor of the U.N.M. Weekly and student manager of the football team, was present at a Student Council meeting for the purpose of suggesting that the University teams be given a mascot name as at that time many universities had mascot names for their teams. Bryan suggested Lobo, the Spanish word for wolf, as the nickname. The name was enthusiastically received. The Oct. 1 issue of the student paper said, "The Lobo is respected for his cunning, feared for his prowess, and is the leader of the pack. It is the ideal name for the Varsity boys who go forth to battle for the glory of the school. All together now; fifteen rahs for the LOBOS."

From that beginning, the Lobo nickname has remained with The University of New Mexico for over almost 100 years.

UNM Traditions - The Lobo Mascot

After "Lobo" was adopted as the school's nickname in 1920, it was not long thereafter that a real Lobo became the mascot.

Bruno Dieckmann, class of 1902, and by 1920 a successful Albuquerque insurance and real estate agent, acquired the first Lobo for the University at his own expense. At the time he was treasurer of the Athletic Association and "one of the most admired men in town."

Elsie Ruth Chant, class of 1923, recalled, "All of the girls on campus wanted to be seen with him. He was an accomplished concert violinist as well as being a successful businessman, and he was rich. He drove a Stutz Bearcat convertible around town and all of the girls would compete to get rides with him. Sometimes he had five or six girls in the car, and when he finally got married, he left broken hearts all over campus. Anyway, he either caught it himself or he paid to have a wolf captured in the Mount Taylor area. The wolf was brought into the school and a student by the name of Bowman would take it on a leash to the football practice area."

Apparently, a government trapper named Jim Young caught a wolf pup on the Floyd Lee Ranch near Mount Taylor in western part of the state. The cub became the responsibility of the cheerleaders and it appeared in harness at every football game. However, in the late 20s, a child teased the wolf and the child was bitten at one of the games. UNM officials were forced to dispose of the wolf, as one historian put it, "for fear other ill-bred brats might become tempted to play with the wolf and bring a damage suit."

A live wolf was not a part of the scene for over 90 years, but recently, Zoerro the Wolf from the Wild Spirit Wolf Sanctuary has been at events for photo opportunities and to educate UNM fans on the wolves and to "educate the public about wolves, wolf-dogs, and other related species, our eco-system and how we all play a part in it, and the excellent, ethical care and treatment of all animals domestic and wild." In the early 1960s a human mascot named "Lobo Louie" was created. A second mascot, "Lobo Lucy" was created in the early 1980s. Both are now members of the school's cheerleading squad.

UNM Traditions - Cherry and Silver

The most common origin of New Mexico's school colors dates back nearly 100 years. Apparently, the school colors in the early 1890s were black and gold. Ms. Harriet Jenness, a faculty member who taught drawing, delsarte (drama), penmanship, and music, suggested a change in school colors because black and gold did not give a true feeling of New Mexico. She suggested the crimson evening glow of the majestic Sandia mountains to the east. The silver came from when students and faculty took picnics in the Sandias and noted the Rio Grande looked like a silver ribbon winding through the valley below. Her ideas were enthusiastically adopted by the faculty and staff. The crimson was later changed to cherry, the color of a Sandia sunset. Miss Jenness died in 1895, two years before the colors were adopted as "official." From 1973-79, turquoise was integrated into the official school colors, at least, for the athletics teams. The football team wore turquoise jerseys at home during those years. Cherry and silver returned as the predominant colors in 1980, and teams will now wear turquoise as an alternate or throwback jersey.

UNM Traditions - The Alma Mater

The Alma Mater (in Latin means "Nourishing" or "Dear Mother") was a source of contention at UNM in 1947. The original Alma Mater was set to the tune of "Annie Lyle," which was an unpopular tune with the student body for a long period of time. The student body voted in a general election to change the Alma Mater and found Glee Club Director Craig Summers to oblige. Actually Mr. Summers and his father wrote the present Alma Mater three years before and called it "The New Mexico Hymn."

New Mexico, New Mexico
We sing to honor thee.
This golden haze of college days
Will live in memory.
This praise we sing will ever ring
With truth and loyalty New Mexico, your fame we know Will last eternally.

UNM Traditions - The Fight Song

The UNM fight Song was written in 1930. The music to the Fight Song was written by Dean Lena Clauve, who served the University for 32 years as a professor of music education and as the Dean of Women. Dr. George St. Clair, professor in the English Department, wrote the lyrics.

Hail to thee, New Mexico,
Thy loyal sons are we. Marching down the field we go,
Fighting for thee.
RAH! RAH! RAH!
Now we pledge our faith to thee,
Never shall we fail.
Fighting ever, yielding never.
HAIL! HAIL! HAIL!

MISSION

The Lobo Center for Student-Athlete Success, in conjunction with the University of New Mexico, provides support services for prospective, current, as well as former student-athletes in an effort to increase academic and personal success. Student-athletes are encouraged to develop personal responsibility, intelligent decision making, and leadership skills through the provision of educational experiences both inside and outside of the classroom. The Lobo Center also celebrates the academic and civic achievements by our student-athletes.

SERVICES OFFERED

Study Hall

The study halls are sport specific and designed to accommodate each athletic team in a structured and professional academic setting. The atmosphere is intended to foster an environment that is conducive to learning and group facilitation.

Each team study hall is staffed and monitored by at least one study hall monitor. The study hall monitors are proficient in a myriad of subjects and provide assistance to the student-athletes when needed

Athletic Computer Labs

The athletic computer lab is an academic aid to student-athletes, and its primary purpose is to facilitate the scholastic pursuits of student athletes at the University of New Mexico.

Laptop Computers

Laptop computers are available to all student-athletes on a first come, first serve basis. The laptops are for student-athletes to use when they are on the road traveling for competition.

Learning Strategist

The Center also has an in-house Learning Strategist devoted to providing support to student-athletes who have been diagnosed with a learning disability as well as those who need additional instruction in specific content areas and general study skills. The Learning Strategist also provides workshops that address study skills and time management. Individual appointments can be made as needed as well as class specific reviews can be coordinated.

Books on Loan

A benefit of being a student-athlete on scholarship is an in-house bookroom where student-athletes can get their textbooks for their classes. Our bookroom administrator can look up student's class schedules to determine the necessary textbooks, which eliminates the time-consuming tasks of going to the bookstore to research the books for each class and then standing in long lines to purchase them!

Academic Monitoring

Student-athlete progress is monitored by the Student Support Staff, housed in the Lobo Center. Three times a semester instructors will provide feedback on student-athletes academic progress. Progress forms are sent at the 4th, 8th, and 12th week during the academic semester. The information provided in these forms are forwarded to coaches and used to help student-athletes with their academic progression.

Academic Advisement

Each student-athlete at UNM is required to meet with their athletic academic advisor at least once a semester for class registration advisement. Once a major is declared, the student athlete is required to meet their assigned major advisor at least once per semester and then return a completed pre-enrollment form to their assigned athletic advisor. An athletic academic advisor is always available to answer any and all questions.

University 101

University 101 is a three (3) credit hour course that is designed to help freshmen student-athletes successfully transition into life and learning at the university. This course provides freshman student-athletes with a special orientation to the university community, the UNM athletics program, and the NCAA rules and regulations. Although the course does not fulfill core curriculum requirements, it is applicable towards elective credit. Furthermore, it is required for all incoming freshmen scholarship student-athletes.
