UNM is 4-2 all-time against SUU, however this will be just the second meeting in Cedar City. The last time the Lobos played at SUU was Jan. 6, 1993, a 64-53 loss for the Lobos.

In addition, LaTora returns as the leader in assists, LaTascya as the leader in three-pointers and McGruder as the leader in steals and rebounds.

New Mexico added three transfers and four freshmen in the offseason, with redshirt-senior and Albuquerque native Amaya Brown expected to fill a starting role after spending the past three seasons at Florida

NEW MEXICO WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

SEASON OPENERS ARE GOOD FOR THE LOBOS

This will be just the second time in head coach Mike Bradbury's time at UNM opening on the road, the other being in the 2020-21 season in which the Lobos opened the season at Midwestern State. During Bradbury's tenure at New Mexico, the Lobos are 6-0 in season openers.

EXHIBIT A

The Lobos opened the 2022-23 season with an exhibition against West Texas A&M, with four Lobos finishing in double figures, led by a game-high 17 points for LaTascya Duff, as New Mexico won 84-75. LaTascya Duff nearly tallied a double-double with 14 points and a game-high nine assists, while Paula Reus scored 15 points to go with a game-high eight rebounds and Shaiquel McGruder finished with 14 points to go with seven rebounds, three steals and two blocks.

Between the end of the second quarter and the start of the third quarter, the Lobos went on a 16-0 run (7-0 to close the second and 9-0 to start the third).

UNM came out firing out of halftime, making its first four shots and scoring the first nine points of the quarter to build a 48-40 lead, with the lead reaching its largest point of the game at 13 on an Amaya Brown layup with 6:01 on the clock that made it 57-44. Of note, at that juncture of the quarter, the Lobos had outscored the Lady Buffs 18-4 in the third.

EXHIBIT B

New Mexico's second exhibition was drastically different as the Lobos were never tested against Fort Lewis in a 95-54 win.

The Lobos made their first four shots of the game and their first five three-point attempts. The threes were falling early and often for New Mexico, with the Lobos finishing with 14 in the game, with seven different players making at least one and five with multiple three-pointers. LaTascya Duff and LaTora Duff each made three, with LaTora going 3-for-3 and LaTascya 3-for-4 on the night.

Three Lobos finished in double figures, led by LaTora with 13, LaTascya with 12 and Viané Cumber, who had 10 points off of the bench with two made three-pointers. Shaiquel McGruder was a perfect 4-for-4 from the floor, finishing with nine points and Kath van Bennekom and Jaelyn Bates each contributed eight points.

UNM made seven three-pointers in the first 10 minutes, shooting 77.8% from behind the arc. Of the 11 made baskets, 10 of them were assisted, with Reus leading with four assists. In addition, UNM finished with 14 steals and five blocks with LaTascya finishing with four steals and Aniyah Augmon, van Bennekom and McGruder with two each.

PRESEASON EXPECTATIONS

The Lobo women's basketball team was picked to finish second in the Mountain West predicted order of finish, with UNM also placing three on the preseason All-Mountain West team, as announced by the conference on Wednesday.

As a team, New Mexico received 264 points and two first-place votes, while Shaiquel McGruder was named to the All-Mountain West team, Amaya Brown was named Preseason Newcomer of the Year and Hannah Robbins was selected as the Preseason Freshman of the Year.

It is the second-straight season that the Lobos were picked to finish second in the preseason poll, with UNM finishing second in the conference last season, and the third time in head coach Mike Bradbury's tenure.

Brown joins LaTascya Duff in earning the preseason newcomer accolade, with Duff earning the honor in 2020-21. An Albuquerque native, Brown returns home to play for the Lobos after spending the last three years at Florida State. During her time with the Seminoles, the redshirt-senior played in 44 games and recorded 55 rebounds, 37 assists, 17 steals and six blocks.

Robbins is the first Lobo to be named preseason freshman of the year since N'Dea Flye in 2017, and the fourth overall, joining Mykiel Bureson in 2016 and Jannon Otto in 2015. Out of Phoenix, Arizona and PHH Prep, the Lobo guard averaged 16.5 points, 7.4 rebounds, 3.1 steals and 1.1 blocks per game as a sophomore and 16 points, eight rebounds, three steals and two blocks per game her junior year.

BALANCED ATTACK

The Lobos had balanced scoring last season with five Lobos averaging 10-plus points per game in Jaedyn De La Cerda (14.3), Shaiquel McGruder (14.2), LaTora Duff (12.0), LaTascya Duff (12.0) and Antonia Anderson (11.2). Of the five, the Lobos return three this season.

When it comes to MW games, the trend continued with a conference-high five Lobos averaging double figures, with De La Cerda leading with 15.1 points per game, McGruder at 14.4, Anderson at 13.2, LaTascya at 11.4 ppg, LaTora at 11.2, and Paula Reus the next closest at 8.8.

McGruder reached double figures in 25 games, LaTora in 21 games, LaTascya in 20, and Paula Reus in eight games.

Further, McGruder had seven, 20-plus point games including one, 30-point game, LaTascya tallied six, 20-plus point games and LaTora with two, 20-plus point games.

The Lobos had a player score 20-plus points 27 times last season, including one in 10 of the last 11 games and 12 of the last 13 games.

So far this season, the Lobos had four finish in double figures in the first exhibition and three in the second exhibition.

SHOWING RANGE

UNM's M.O. last season was three-pointers, and in Thursday's exhibition against Fort Lewis, it looked like this year's team will continue that.

The Lobos hit 14 three-pointers, with seven different players making at least one and five with multiple three-pointers. LaTascya Duff and LaTora Duff each made three, with LaTora going 3-for-3 and LaTascya 3-for-4 on the night.

UNM made eight three-pointers in the win against West Texas A&M with LaTascya, LaTora and Viané Cumber each making two.

Last season, the Lobos set the program record for most three-pointers in a season with 346, with LaTascya also setting the program for most consecutive games with a three-pointer at 29 games.

NOT SHAPING AWAY FROM EXPECTATIONS

UNM senior forward Shaiquel McGruder was named to the preseason watch list for the 2023 Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year Award presented by Her Hoop Stats.

McGruder is one of 25 players on the preseason list, and joins Colorado State's McKenna Hofschild as representatives from the Mountain West.

It is the second preseason accolade for the Ohio native, who was named to the Mountain West preseason MW team on Oct. 12.

McGruder earned her first preseason conference honor after being named to the MW All-Conference and All-Defensive teams last season. Last season, the Ohio native led the conference in field-goal percentage, shooting 60.8 percent from the floor, and scored in double figures in 25 games with seven games with 20-plus points.

Defensively, she recorded multiple steals in 20 games, and at least one steal in 28 games including in every conference game but five. Additionally, she had at least one block in 23 games, including twice registering five blocks, a game with four blocks and five games with three blocks. She finished fourth in the MW in steals per game at 1.83 per game, as well as second in blocked shots and blocked shots per game with 49 and 1.36, respectively.

Last season, McGruder produced the best numbers in her career as a Lobo in points, rebounds, steals, blocks, assists, made three-pointers, made baskets and free throws. She also led the team in steals, rebounds and made baskets and was second in scoring.

McGruder enters the season needing just 18 points to reach 1,000-career points and with 622 career rebounds, would be the 18th Lobo in program history to achieve 1,000 points and 500 rebounds.

CONSISTENT TORA DUFF

Returning for another season, LaTora Duff has been the floor general for the Lobos for the past two seasons, starting in every game.

Last season, Duff rarely left the court, averaging 33.3 minutes per game, on her way to earning honorable mention from the Mountain West.

The Lobo scored in double figures in 21 games with 20-plus points in three games, and led the Lobos in scoring in four games. She recorded a career-high 14 assists in the win at Utah State, finishing with a double-double with 13 points and finished with 10-plus assists in three games (12 against Prairie View and 13 against Grand Canyon).

In addition, she had two double-doubles on the season (17 pts, 12 assists vs. Prairie View and 13 points, 14 assists at Utah State) and three times came close to triple doubles (8 rebounds at Utah State and against Prairie View, 8 points, nine rebounds, 13 assists vs. Grand Canyon).

On the season, she totaled 192 assists, tied for fifth most in a single season in program history. She finished third in the MW in assists per game (5.11), sixth in assist/turnover ratio (2.24) and seventh in steals per game (1.61) in MW games. On the season, Duff was third in the MW in assists per game (5.3), sixth in assist/turnover ratio (2.13), 11th in steals per game (1.47) and made three-pointers per game (1.83) and 15th in scoring with 12.0 points per game.

Duff finished 34th in the NCAA in assist/turnover ratio, 23rd in assists per game and eighth in assists.

TRIPLE THREAT TAY

There is no one better in the MW and very few better in the country when it comes to three-pointers than LaTascya Duff.

Duff made at least one three-pointer in all but one game last season and had a streak of 29 games with a three, the longest streak in program history, which ended in the Feb. 16 game against Utah State.

She finished with 97 three-pointers, the second most in a single season in program history, and made multiple three-pointers in 28 games, making a three-pointer in all but one game. In addition, she made five or more three-pointers in six games and four or more in nine games. She shot 42.7 percent from three-point range, the fifth-best percentage in a single season in program history.

Duff led the MW in three-pointers made, made per game (2.77) and in three-point field-goal percentage on the season. She also led the MW in three-point percentage (.422), made three-pointers (46) and three-pointers per game (2.56) in conference games

Among the NCAA, Duff ranked seventh in three-pointers made, 13th in three-point field-goal percentage and 17th in made three-point field-goals per game.

In conference games, Duff averaged 11.4 ppg and shooting a conference-best 42.2% from three with a conference-best 46 three-pointers and 2.6 per game.

PRIDE OF NEW MEXICO

The Lobos have five New Mexico natives on the roster in freshmen Natalia Chavez and Jaelyn Bates, sophomore Vianè Cumber, redshirt-senior Amaya Brown, and while her hometown is listed as Phoenix, Arizona, Hannah Robbins was born in Albuquerque.

In addition, the Lobos have two New Mexico Gatorade Player of the Year winners in Brown and Cumber, with Brown winning in 2015-16 and 2017-18 and Cumber winning in 2019-20 and 2020-21.

The player who won in 2016-17: recently graduated Jaedyn De La Cerda, meaning the winner in five of the last seven years were Lobos.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE DAUGHTER

UNM has two players on the 2022-23 roster who are continuing the Lobo legacy as their fathers also played for New Mexico.

Hannah Robbins (Rob Robbins) and Amaya Brown (Greg Brown) look to create their own legacy in the Cherry and Silver, which the groundwork has already started before the season even tipped off as Robbins was named the MW Preseason Freshman of the Year and Brown the MW Preseason Newcomer of the Year.

Greg Brown played at UNM from 1992-94, leading the Lobos in scoring in 1993-94 in points (599, 19.3 points per game) en route to WAC Player of the Year. Rob Robbins played basketball at New Mexico from 1987-91. Robbins led the Lobos in three-point percentage in the 1990-91, 1988-89, 1987-88 seasons, in three-pointers in each of his four seasons and in free-throw percentage in the 1988-89, 1989-90 and 1990-91 seasons. Robbins is currently ninth in career scoring leaders with 1,739 points, averaging 13.1 points per game, and eighth in career field-goal leaders with 583 made baskets and a .464 field-goal percentage. He currently also holds the program record with consecutive made free throws with 52 during the 1989-90 season.

When Robbins signed last November, she noted her father in her reasons for wanting to become a Lobo. "Growing up in New Mexico, it has always been a dream to play in The Pit. The facilities along with the coaching staff are unmatched and I am extremely excited to follow in my dad's footsteps at UNM." Of note, Robbins wears #42, the number her father wore as a Lobo and is often referred to as Rob's daughter.

LOBOS GOING NATIONAL

The University of New Mexico women's basketball team will have two Mountain West games broadcast nationally on FS1 or CBS Sports Network, as announced by the conference on Wednesday.

The Lobos' home game against Air Force to open conference play has been moved from New Year's Eve to New Year's Day with a 2 p.m. MT tip time on CBS Sports Network, while their game at UNLV on Saturday, Jan. 14 was selected by FS1 for a 6 p.m. PT/ 7 p.m. MT tip time.

In total, the Lobos will be featured in half of the Mountain West women's basketball regular season games broadcasted nationally this season.

NON-CONFERENCE PREP WORK

Monday's game marks the start of a challenging non-conference schedule as New Mexico has three Power 5 programs scheduled in Arizona State, Arizona and Mississippi State, although the Lobos have the benefit of home court against the Arizona schools.

The Lobos will play six non-conference games on the road and seven games in The Pit.

REWRITE THE RECORD BOOK

The Lobos are coming off of a historic season, setting several program marks.

To start, the Lobos won 26 games, tying the program record for single-season wins. UNM has won 26 games just two other times in program history, the last time being the 2004-05 season (26-5). The other time was the 1997-98 season (26-7).

The Lobos went 17-1 at home, with the last time the Lobos had just one home loss was in that 2004-05 season, going 19-1.

Further history was made as a team last season, as the Lobos set the program record for most three-pointers in a season with 346.

Individually, several Lobos are re-writing the record book with single-season stats. LaTascya Duff currently has made 92 three-pointers this season, tied for second all-time in single-season three-pointers. Her 42.2% accuracy from three ranks sixth in single-season percentage. Shaiquel McGruder has made 212 field-goals this season, fourth all-time and her field-goal percentage of 61.4% ranks second in single-season field-goal percentage. LaTora Duff has 188 assists this season, placing her sixth and four away from fifth.

In the WNIT win against Grand Canyon, the Lobos set some postseason records as well, with the 27 assists and 14 three-pointers setting the record. The 92 points were the second-most scored and the 34 made field goals tied the program record (last done against Rice in 2018). LaTora's 13 assists set the program postseason record and McGruder's six steals ranked second in individual steals in a postseason game. LaTascya's 27 points ranked as the third-most points scored by a player in a postseason game.

HISTORY MADE IN LOGAN

The Lobo women's basketball team put on a three-point clinic on Jan. 6 against Utah State, setting a program record with 21 made three-pointers in a 98-83 victory.

The previous record was 18, made against Illinois in 2017, which the Lobos already surpassed in the third quarter.

In addition, the 21 three-pointers also broke the MW record of 20, that was achieved three times previously- by Colorado State in 2016, Wyoming in 2010 and BYU in 2001. Of those, only one was against a MW school, Wyoming against Air Force in 2010.

LaTascya Duff and Jaedyn De La Cerda hit seven three-pointers each with De La Cerda finishing with a game-high 27 points and Duff with 24 points. LaTora Duff made three, three-pointers, finishing with 13 points, Antonia Anderson made two three-pointers and Viané Cumber and Kath van Bennekom each made a three. De La Cerda's seven tied her career high, while LaTascya's set a career high, besting the six that she made last year against Utah State. It also extended her three-point streak to 18 games and was her fourth game this season with 20-plus points.

Anderson made it officially the record with a three-pointer with 36 remaining in the third quarter, with the Lobos making seven three-pointers in the first, six in the second and six in the third quarter, shooting 66.7 percent in the second quarter and 60 percent from three in the third quarter.

LaTora also tallied a double-double with a career-high 14 assists to go with her 13 points for her second double-double of the season coming close to a triple-double with a team-high eight rebounds, and Anderson tied her season high with five blocks, the second time this season that the senior has blocked five shots in a game. It was also the third-straight game against the Aggies that the Lobos have neared the 100-point mark, scoring 93 points, 97 points and now 98 points in the last three meetings. In those three games, the Lobos made 15, 16 and 21 three-pointers.

KNOW YOUR OPPONENT

Southern Utah is coming off of an 18-12 season a year ago, although the Thunderbirds went 14-6 in the Big Sky and finished third in the final standings. The Thunderbirds went 10-4 at home last season.

However, this season, SUU is in the WAC and picked to finish sixth in the preseason poll. In addition, the Thunderbirds had two players named to the preseason All-WAC teams in Cherita Daugherty, who was named to the preseason second team and Tomekia Whitman named to the first team. Daugherty led the team in points and steals last season, scoring 317 points and was credited with a team-high 33 steals (1.1 per game). Whitman is a transfer from Idaho State, where she was named the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year.

Last year, SUU averaged 70.6 points per game while allowing 65.8 points per game and averaged 6.6 steals per game and 4.8 blocks per game. The Thunderbirds had four players average double figures, led by Darri Dotson (11.0), followed by Daugherty (10.6), Kinsley Barrington (10.6) and Daylani Ballena (10.0). Of the four, Ballena and Daugherty return.

Lizzy Williamson returns as their lead blocker, finishing the season with 50, and as their top-returning rebounder, averaging 8.1 per game and had 236 on the season. RECORD AT UNM: 120-65 (7TH SEASON)

CAREER RECORD: 298-182 (16TH SEASON)

NOTEWORTHY :

- Named the sixth head coach in program history on March 31, 2016
- 26 wins this season tied for most wins in program history
- Led UNM to 25 wins in 2017-18; tied for second-most wins in program history

Mike Bradbury enters his sixth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous five seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 94-55 (.631) overall record. Twice in his tenure, in 2017-18 and 2018-19, the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark and totaled 49 victories over that time. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury are the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

In his most recent season at the helm of the Lobos, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his third year at the helm, Bradbury continued to put his mark on the program while also continuing to bring Lobo women's basketball back to national prominence. Overall, Bradbury's 2018-19 team went 24-7 and earned a bid to the WNIT for a second-straight season. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 – 2009-10 seasons that the program made consecutive trips to the postseason.

After dropping a one-possession game to Auburn in the preseason WNIT, the 2018-19 Lobos ripped off 11-straight wins to tie the program record and were on the cusp of cracking the national top-25 rankings as well by receiving votes from the WBCA during that stretch. Bradbury would also receive an individual plaudit from the WBCA last season as he was named as one of 13 finalists for the 2019 United States Marine Corps/WBCA National Coach of the Year Award. Impressively, Bradbury was the only coach from a non-Power 5 conference to be a finalist.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 13 All-Mountain West performers with Cherise Beynon, Jayla Everett, Jaisa Nunn, Aisia Robertson and Richelle van der Keijl joining De La Cerda, Duff, McGruder, Hurst and Anderson in making the All-Mountain West Team. Tesha Buck, Mykiel Burleson and Nike McClure have also earned MW recognition with Buck being the 2017-18 Newcomer of the Year, Burleson being named to the All-Freshman team in 2016-17 and McClure landing on the All-Defensive team in 2018-19.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury has coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Buck in 2017-18 and Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in Duff (2020-21).

Further, a Lobo has been named Mountain West Player of the Week 11 times during his tenure.

In year two under Bradbury the Lobos had a breakout season, especially offensively as they ended the 2017-18 season averaging 80.4 points per game while also posting an impressive +9.7 scoring margin. Both marks led the Mountain West and the point-per-game total was 16th-best in NCAA DI last season.

A significant reason for the jump in offensive production was the fact that the Lobos were one of the most potent three-point shooting threats in the country. For the season, the Lobos attempted the eighth-most overall trifectas in DI hoisting 932 long distance shots. Successful 34% of the time, the Lobos made the 11th most 3's burying 319.

Prior to coming to Albuquerque, Bradbury built a successful nine year run as a Division-I head coach with stops at Morehead State (Morehead, Ky.) and Wright State (Dayton, Ohio). Most recently with the Raiders, Bradbury led his squad to five 20-win seasons, including each of his final three seasons. During that time, Wright State has amassed a 75-28 record, the best amongst the 13 Division I programs in the state of Ohio.

Overall at Wright State, Bradbury had five winning seasons, all of which were 20-plus win seasons, in six years- a feat made all the more remarkable as Wright State had just one winning season in the previous 22 before his arrival. In the previous 37 seasons of women's basketball at Wright State, the Raider program had tallied 20 wins just once before Bradbury led the team to 20 wins in five of his six seasons.

His most prominent three-year run at Wright State started in 2013-14, when the Raiders won a school-record 26 games on the way to a 26-9 season and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season saw the Raiders finish second in the Horizon League and win its first Horizon League Tournament. It also featured the program's first road win at perennial league power Wisconsin-Green Bay. Kim Demmings was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, and it marked the first time in school history the program had a pair of first team All-Conference selections.

He followed up that by earning Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2014-15 after a 25-9 season that saw his squad lose its Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year less than two minutes into the season opener. The Raiders just missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, falling in overtime in the conference championship game. The team did make its first appearance in the Women's NIT as the league's automatic qualifier, and in 2015-16, the team made it back-to-back WNIT appearances after a 24-11 season, earning the program's first at-large bid.

Those three seasons are the three winningest seasons in the history of Wright State women's basketball.

In his first two seasons at Wright State, he led the team to a 20-13 campaign and a 21-13 mark and berths in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the first NCAA Division I postseason berths for the program. Overall, Bradbury has coached three Horizon League Players of the Year (all in his last three seasons), six first-team All-Horizon League players, three second-team members and four All-Freshman team members.

Prior to his time at Wright State, Bradbury was the head coach at Morehead State where he led the Division I program to a 50-44 mark in three seasons, including a watershed 22-11 season, which was the second-most wins in Morehead State history and the most wins by the Eagles in the previous 38 years. At Morehead State he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, along with one first-team All-OVC pick (two seasons) and three second-team All-OVC picks.

Bradbury also spent time as an assistant coach at Xavier (2002-06), Cincinnati (1996-02), VCU (1995-96), East Tennessee State (1994-95) and Chattanooga (1991-94). In his 29 seasons as an assistant and as a head coach, Bradbury has had 27 winning seasons.
