NOTING THE RAMS

- The Rams begin year one under head coach Jay Norvell who was named the program's 24th head coach on Dec. 6, 2021. Norvell led his Wolf Pack team onto Sonny Lubick Field in the season finale on Nov. 27 and was the final head coach to walk off the turf. He returned to Fort Collins nine days later as the Rams new head coach.
 - Over his five years in Reno, (2017-21) he compiled four-straight seven-plus win seasons and led the Wolf Pack to four bowl games. Colorado State last won seven games in a season in 2017. Norvell is the fourth Colorado State head coach in the last nine seasons, dating back to Jim McElwain's final season in 2014.
 - Colorado State's redshirt freshman quarterback Clay Millen became the first freshman quarterback to start a season opener for the Rams since true freshman Pete Thomas - now the QB coach at Louisville - in 2010 when he took the first snap at Michigan in Week 1. That season, Thomas set the freshman passing record with 2,662 yards in 12 starts.
 - Colorado State last won a conference championship 20 seasons ago this year. That 2002 team won the third title in four seasons under coach Sonny Lubick, a four-year run that included a combined record of 35-15. However, since then, the program has not been able to replicate that level of sustained success.
- MORE ON PAGE 14
- Entering the season, Colorado State's roster featured 15 players with 10 or more starts at the FBS level but just six offensive and defensive starters overall. However, with the four-game redshirt rule and midseason transfers, those numbers have been whittled down to just two on defense. Only Dequan Jackson and Cam'Ron Carter eclipsed eight starts in 2021.
 - Since becoming the primary punt returner at Nevada, Tory Horton is making an impact. At 18.1 yards per return, Horton would be No. 2 nationally in yards per return if he met the minimums (1.2 ret/g; currently at 0.9 ret/g). With one more return, he will meet the minimum for CSU's single-season record book and would currently ranked No. 2 there as well.

NOTING THE GAME

- Colorado State concludes the 2022 season at home on Friday when the program will honor 17 seniors.
- Though the 17 seniors will be honored pre-game, that does not necessarily mean the collegiate careers will be concluded for all. There are just 10 who will have exhausted their eligibility: OL Dante Bivens, K Michael Boyle, LB Cam'Ron Carter, OL Gray Davis, DL Brandon Hickerson-Rooks, LB Dequan Jackson, OL Dontae Keys, WR Justice McCoy, LS Jacob Raab, and DL C.J. Onyechi.
- The Rams are currently riding an 11-game winning streak over the Lobos dating back to 2010. It will be the 69th meeting between the two program, making UNM - the fifth most played opponent by the Rams behind Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, and Utah State.
- QB Clay Millen is chasing the program's single-season completion percentage record and is on-pace to finish the year well ahead of Pete Thomas' 2010 mark of .647. MORE ON PAGE 17

NUMBERS TO WATCH

1K

WR Tory Horton eclipsed 1,000 yards at Air Force, making it the eighth-consecutive season a Ram has gone for 1,000 yards (excluding 2020).

Colorado State's offense is relying on a significant number of redshirt and true freshmen with as many as five getting the majority of the offensive snaps.

Colorado State's 2022 roster includes just six players who accrued more than 200 offensive or defensive snaps on CSU's 2021 roster.

Media INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, submit a request at CSURams.com/FootballCredentials. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made on game day will not be approved. Credentials are issued to the individual

MEDIA/SCOUTS WILL CALL AND PARKING: Due to ease of pick up outside Canvas Stadium, credentials will NOT be mailed this season. Credential pick up is available at the northwest corner of Canvas Stadium at a ticket office window and begins two hours prior to kick off.

Parking passes will also be delivered digitally to media and scouts to the phone number listed on the credential application. Parking passes will be sending during game week.

MEDIA/STAFF ELEVATOR: An elevator is available for use throughout the game to allow media to travel between the field level, first floor, and sixth floor press box. However, this elevator is also used by food and beverage staff. The elevator may also be held for coaches of either team in the final minutes of each half, and media members are encouraged to use the stairwell if they are physically able to do so.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE: After a cooling off period and conversation with the team, head coach Jay Norvell and select players will be available to the media. Post-game video is available by request.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless they are employed by a reputable publication or the Communications office of the participating schools. Credentials are issued to photographers for the purpose of media coverage only, and images of the game may not be used for commercial purposes without the expressed, written permission of Colorado State Athletics.

SIDELINE AREAS: Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive without proper equipment will not be granted sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Colorado State's locker room is closed at all times.

RECRUITS: Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Each Monday during the season, with the exception of the bye week, head coach Jay Norvell holds his weekly press conference beginning at 11:30 a.m. Video will be available of the full availability courtesy of Colorado State Athletics.

PRACTICES: During the regular season, practices are open for stretch and individual periods - roughly the first 30 minutes - on Tuesday and Wednesday practices. Practices begin at approximately 8:30 a.m. each day. Team periods are closed. Media members should submit interview requests for student-athletes a day prior to the interview. Please let Kyle Neaves or Jeff Schmidt know in advance if you plan to attend.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	7	6	10	13	--	36
New Mexico	0	7	0	0	--	7

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — Domination from start to finish. That was Colorado State's defense on Saturday from University Stadium.

The Rams allowed just 69 yards of total offense to the Lobos, the second-fewest in school history and the fewest since 1948. So essentially the fewest since the invention of the forward pass. Offensively, the Rams took advantage of timely big plays from quarterback Todd Centeio and the reliable right-leg of kicker Cayden Camper who put five more field goals through the uprights at New Mexico.

Tight end Trey McBride tallied a career-high 135 receiving yards, Gary Williams scored his second career touchdown, and the Rams found more consistency in their receiving corps to spread the ball around.

Head Coach JAY NORVELL

2-9 OVERALL // FIRST YEAR

35-35 Overall/6th Year

Jay Norvell, who led the Nevada Wolf Pack to four bowl games in five seasons (2017-21) as head coach, is the 24th head football coach at Colorado State.

Norvell's offensive coaching acumen is unquestioned as he built a conference title contender at Nevada over his five seasons. Wolf Pack quarterback Carson Strong was a two-time MW Offensive Player of the Year as Nevada led the MW in passing offense in 2021 at 365.8 yards per game. The Wolf Pack have posted four-consecutive winning seasons under Norvell including a pair of bowl wins in 2018 (Arizona) and 2020 (Famous Idaho Potato).

Nevada enjoyed an immense turnaround under Norvell's leadership, and it paid off in the postseason honors as well. Including Strong's consecutive offensive player of the year awards, 16 Nevada student-athletes earned All-MW honors in 2021 led by first-team wide receiver Romeo Doubs, who finished the regular season ranked No. 12 nationally in receiving yards.

Norvell's work with Strong may result in the quarterback going in the early rounds of the 2022 NFL Draft this spring. Strong concluded his 2021 campaign ranked top-10 nationally in completions per game (3rd; 30.4), passing yards (4th; 4,175), passing yards per game (5th; 347.9), passing touchdowns (6th; 36), completion percentage (8th; 69.9) and total offense (8th; 330.6).

In May 2021, Norvell was named the 2020-21 College Coach of the Year by the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches. He is the first Black head coach in program history, and the first sitting head coach to be hired since Earle Bruce in 1989.

Norvell's resume and experiences reaches to all corners of college and professional football. He has spent time in the Big 10, Big 12, Pac-12, and NFL with the Indianapolis Colts and Oakland Raiders – a period that included an AFC Championship and appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII in 2002 under head coach Bill Callahan.

During his time as an assistant, Norvell coached in every BCS bowl game during the BCS Era including the 2009 BCS National Championship with Oklahoma. Overall, he has been to 22 bowl games as both a player and a coach.

An All-Big 10 defensive back during his playing career at Iowa under legendary Hawkeyes coach Hayden Fry, Norvell got his first opportunity in coaching under Fry on the offensive side of the football. That move proved fruitful for the young graduate assistant in 1986.

Over stops at Oklahoma, Texas, and Arizona State, Norvell mixed his Air Raid-style offensive scheme with principles of under-center schemes employed in the NFL to put together a highly effective offensive machine. While coaching wide receivers at Oklahoma (2008-14), a period which also including serving as co-offensive coordinator (2011-14), Norvell mentored Oklahoma greats in Kenny Stills, Sterling Shephard and Ryan Broyles, who left Oklahoma as the NCAA's all-time leader in receptions.

His run at Oklahoma coincided with the careers of three of the top four players on OU's all-time receptions list: Broyles, Stills, and Juaquin Iglesias. He also oversaw five of the program's top six single-season reception marks and helped his receiving corps earn 10 all-conference and three academic all-conference first team honors.

The Sooners also enjoyed a potent rushing attack with Norvell on staff as they ranked No. 11 nationally in rushing offense in 2014 and No. 18 in 2013.

Prior to his appointment at Oklahoma, Norvell served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at both UCLA (2007) and Nebraska (2004-06). The Cornhuskers were one of only two teams in the nation to rank in the top 25 in total offense, scoring offense, rushing offense and passing offense in 2006. That same year Nebraska totaled nine wins and finished the regular season as Big 12 North Division Champions.

Aside from the college game, Norvell coached for six seasons in the NFL, four of which were with the Colts and two with the Raiders. While with Oakland he coached tight ends for two seasons and worked alongside an offense that included Hall of Fame receivers Jerry Rice and Tim Brown.

His trip to the Super Bowl in 2002 was led by an offense that led the NFL in total yards and passing yards per game. Norvell joined the Colts coaching staff in 1998 as the wide receivers coach and mentored Harrison to 385 receptions, 5,376 receiving yards and 48 touchdowns during his tenure. His time with the Colts was also the first four seasons of two-time Super Bowl champion Peyton Manning's career.

Norvell was assistant head coach at Iowa State from 1995-97 where he worked with quarterbacks and receivers, including Sage Rosenfels, who went on to play with the Minnesota Vikings. From 1989-94, Norvell coached offensive line, receivers and special teams at Wisconsin, which followed his first full-time position as receivers coach at Northern Iowa in 1988.

A 1986 graduate of Iowa, Norvell was an All-Big Ten defensive back and recorded a league-high seven interceptions in 1985 as he helped the Hawkeyes put together a 10-2 record, a conference championship and a spot in the Rose Bowl. He was a member of the Chicago Bears in 1987 before he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Norvell, who hails from Madison, Wis., has a wife, Kim, and son, Jaden. He is the author of a book, "Complete Wide Receiver," which was published in 2012.

This Week IN HISTORY

80 Yards in 40 Seconds wins in 1983 New Mexico Thriller

By John Hirn, CSU Historian

Coach Leon Fuller, in his second season at the helm of Colorado State football continued to rebuild a program that just two years prior had not seen a win all year. By the October 29, 1983, game against New Mexico, his football team had a 3-5 record and were scrapping for wins along the way. They knew the rebuild would take time and effort and saw many legendary Rams coming of age. Quarterback Terry Nugent, wide receiver Jeff Champine, running back Steve Bartalo and tight end/H-back Keli McGregor had all begun to become stars.

The team was improving, but the New Mexico tilt would prove to be one of the greatest-come-from-behind victories in modern CSU football. While the game had little meaning on the season, it had more meaning on the team's ability to fight for a win and forget the 0-12 season of 1981.

Foregoing the previous 59:20 of the game in which New Mexico never lost the lead and skip to 40 seconds left in the fourth quarter with the Rams starting a drive at their own 20 and no timeouts left. CSU trailed 24-17 and had been fighting the Lobos tooth and nail all day, but it was these 40 seconds which would determine the outcome during an otherwise mediocre season.

Nugent took the ball and completed three passes to wide receiver Champine, the first for 19 yards, the second for 6 and last for 16. That took the Rams to the Lobo 39-yard line. Nugent then completed his fourth pass to McGregor, 17 yards to the 22-yard line. The clocked stopped to set the ball and Nugent knew he had to watch the time carefully.

On the next play, Nugent was rushed by the Lobo defense and rather than take a sack, he intentionally grounded the ball giving up the penalty for 15 yards. Nugent said after the game, "There was no way I was going to be sacked, if I got sacked, time would have run out. It was a good call. Hey, I'll take that call any day."

Now backed up to the Lobo 37-yard line and only seconds on the clock, Nugent called for the Hail Mary. The play is designed so that it is tipped in the air and an offensive player catches the ball. In this case, Nugent lofted the ball to the end zone, the 6-foot-7 McGregor tipped it and the Rams' Ron Jenkins dove to catch the ball on the 1-yard line. A great play, but not good enough with only 1 second left on the clock.

With fans cheering and hoping for the best, Nugent knew that as soon as the ball was set it needed to be put in play. Nugent, who had called his own plays on the drive didn't huddle and yelled at the top of his lungs so that the New Mexico defense and reporters in the back of the end zone could hear him, "quarterback sneak!" The play wasn't so sneaky, but the Lobos were caught off-guard, and Nugent plunged in for the touchdown.

Fuller said after the game, "With 40 seconds left, Terry had to call his own plays." Pausing for a quick smile, Fuller went on to say, "Maybe it's a good thing we didn't have time to send the plays in. What you just saw was a good example of how to run a 2-minute drill in 40 seconds."

The Rams still trailed by a point and Fuller wasn't going to go for the tie in the days before overtime in college football. The Rams lined up and Nugent dropped back to pass, he double pumped and then fired a strike into the arms of McGregor with no time left on the clock to win 25-24. Fans were jubilant; the players almost couldn't believe what they had just pulled off.

Fuller said after the game, "Our players never gave up. We knew we would pull it out."

The great ending overshadowed a career day for Nugent who completed 32-of-41 passes for 434 yards. Champine broke his own personal best by catching 14 passes for 192 yards. The 1983 Rams went on to a 5-7 record, a far cry from the 0-12 record in 1981 and in three years would put in their best performance of the decade. The New Mexico rivalry dates to 1935, but this game is likely the closest and best finish to a football game against the Lobos in the long history between these two teams.

NOTEBOOK

SEASON CAPTAINS NAMED

At the conclusion of the 2022 camp calendar, Colorado State's players voted on their season-long captains. While there is no set number under head coach Jay Norvell, four players received the most votes from their teammates and will serve as captains for the team this season. Vivens left the team prior to the Hawaii game.

REPLACING TWO ALL-TIME GREATS

While the Rams have not enjoyed team success in recent years, individual achievement was still visible around the program. Departed from the 2021 roster are two Rams who etched their names solidly atop the record books and will always have a place in Colorado State Football lore: TE Trey McBride and P Ryan Stonehouse.

CAREER CAPSULES ON MCBRIDE AND STONEHOUSE

Trey McBride

- 2021 John Mackey Award Winner
- First Unanimous All-American in program history
- Career record holder for TE receptions (164) and yards (2,100)
- Single-season record holder for TE receptions (90) and yards (1,121)
- The 1,121 yards were the fifth-most ever by an FBS tight end

Ryan Stonehouse

- FBS Record Holder for Career Punt Avg. (47.8)
- Owns three of the top-four single-season punt avg. marks in school history
- Tallied the longest punt in Canvas Stadium history (81 yards) and fourth-longest in school history

WELCOME TO FORT COLLINS, NEWBIES.

Speaking of replacing two greats, Norvell and company got that process started right away via the transfer portal, walk-on program, and first-year signees. In all, the Rams have 52 new players who were not a part of the 2021 roster, including 9 who followed Norvell and many of his coaches from Nevada. All totaled, 23 of those newcomers joined the program via the transfer portal or were a JUCO signee.

GREEN (AND GOLD) QUARTERBACK ROOM

Colorado State's quarterback room this season fits the primary school colors - green. In all, the Rams have four quarterbacks with the word "freshman" in their classification, none had ever started a game prior to Millen's start at Michigan, and only Millen had even appeared in a game and attempted a pass (2-for-3 at New Mexico State for 18 yards) prior to this season.

The room is the youngest in the country and the only quarterback room without a sophomore or higher. In terms of cumulative passes attempted entering the season, they are - you guessed it - also the youngest.

FRESHMEN STARTERS AT QUARTERBACK

Freshmen starting at quarterback are becoming more common across the nation, but they've been few and far between at Colorado State. When Clay Millen headed out for the first snap in Ann Arbor, he became the first freshman to start an opener for CSU since Pete Thomas started all 12 as a true freshman in 2010. Freshmen have been sporadic starters, particularly later in the season, however.

HOME GROWN RAMS

Colorado State's roster features 37 players from the state of Colorado - by far the most among the three FBS schools in the state - and eight from the Fort Collins/Loveland area. Of those eight, seven are expected to be contributors for the Rams this fall, and all seven grew up together playing pop warner football in the area: TE Tanner Arkin, OL Brian Crespo-Jacquez, DB Duante Davis, DB Jack Howell, OL Justin Michael, and QB Giles Pooler

THE PORTAL GIVETH, THE PORTAL TAKETH

In Jay Norvell's first signing class, the Rams brought in 16 scholarship players from Division 1 programs via the Transfer Portal - a powerful tool to begin building a roster for his program. However, since the end of spring practices, 20 scholarship players or key walk-on contributors (Camper, Floyd) have gone into the portal or will enter the portal once the window opens in December. As a result, the Rams have 59 scholarship players overall and 52 available to contribute (six out with season-ending injuries or ineligible). This number does not include six former walk-ons who were given scholarships following the Wyoming game.

#NEXTLEVELRAMS

Colorado State will begin the 2022 NFL season with 10 Rams on rosters in the National Football League, either active, practice squad, or injured reserve. TE Trey McBride was a second round draft pick of the Arizona Cardinals and P Ryan Stonehouse made the 53-man roster in Tennessee after unseating 13-year NFL veteran Brett Kern during training camp.

20 YEARS SINCE THE 2002 MW CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

Colorado State owns three Mountain West championships (1999, 2000, 2002) including three of the first four ever crowned since the league's creation in 1999. However, since that last title in 2002, success has been sporadic for the program. Below are the numbers of the 19 seasons since that championship which include 12 non-winning seasons, five bowl games, and six head coaches.

R.A.M LIFE EXPANDS DEPARTMENT WIDE

Colorado State's player development program was re-imagined in 2020 - using Ohio State as a model - with the creation of R.A.M. Life. R.A.M stands for Real and Meaningful and provides Colorado State student-athletes with a playbook for life after their playing days.

The program assists with resume workshops, organizing weekly speakers, and coordinates job fairs to help Colorado State student-athletes secure internships while they earn their degrees. The program was piloted with football from 2020-21 and was expanded to cover the entire department in 2022.

THE NEW RAM WALK

Under head coach Jay Norvell, Colorado State is hosting two Ram Walks. One is the standard walk for the public to see the team enter Canvas Stadium prior to the game. The other is a more private affair.

On the night before every game, home and away, when the team goes to the stadium for walk-through, former CSU lettermen are invited back to walk the field, arms locked together, with the current players. Only current players and former players are allowed to participate, meaning Norvell and every staff member is prohibited from being involved.

At the end of the 100-yard walk, two alumni are selected to speak privately to the team about their experiences in the Green and Gold. Current players are encouraged to spend the first 50 yards thinking about the next day's game and the final 50 yards thinking about how they will honor the former players.

Notes and TIDBITS

TRADITIONS AT CSU

Colorado State has a number of long-standing traditions around its football program. Some are celebrated each game, some only at home, and some only on Homecoming.

» HOMECOMING FLAG

Since 2014, each Homecoming game, one Colorado State player is selected to run out of the tunnel with an Aggie A flag from 1925. The flag was stolen by CU fans during the 1925 Homecoming game and returned for the playing of the 100th Homecoming game in 2014.

Then-head coach Jim McElwain started the tradition which has been carried on ever since.

YEAR	RESULT	RUNNER
2014	W, 16-13 (Utah State)	Max Morgan
2015	W, 38-23 (Air Force)	Sam Carlson
2016	W, 31-24 (Utah State)	CAM the Ram
2017	W, 44-42 (Nevada)	Jake Bennett
2018	W, 20-18 (New Mexico)	Olabisi Johnson
2019	L, 10-24 (San Diego State)	Brendan Fulton
2020	No Homecoming Game	-
2021	W, 32-14 (San Jose State)	Toby McBride
2021	L, 13-17 (Utah State)	Henry Blackburn

» COMATOSE

Since 1920, military members from the institution have fired the deafening 75 mm cannon "Comatose," an intimidating exclamation point to opponents which just allowed a Rams touchdown, field goal or PAT. Fired today by CSU's Army ROTC, it is the oldest continuous tradition associated with CSU Athletics.

At Canvas Stadium, the cannon is located at field level in the southeast corner. The cannon was completely refurbished in Denver in the summer of 2018.

» LARRY LASASSO SPIRIT AWARD

A 1934 graduate of Colorado Agricultural College and former cheerleader for the Aggies, Larry LaSasso returned home from WWII to become the greatest cheerleader in CSU history. Director of Athletics, Harry Hughes, asked LaSasso to help bring some spirit back to Colorado A&M.

Beginning in 1946, LaSasso helped lead Aggie cheers and donned his old cheerleading sweater. He added onto his ensemble by wearing a kilt honoring his Scottish heritage, a beret and white gloves.

Fans around CSU came to recognize the "Aggie Cheerleader" and found his warm personality and love of CSU intoxicating. LaSasso continued to wear his sweater and kilt to homecoming games until 2002; he passed away August 1, 2004 at the age of 92.

In 1983, the Larry LaSasso Spirit Award was created to recognize individuals who have demonstrated exceptional and enduring spirit, enthusiasm, and support for Colorado State Athletics. The winner is presented annually during homecoming weekend.

» TRAVELING TROPHIES

Colorado State football enjoys fierce rivalries with three front-range schools. The Rams and their foes battle for a trio of traveling trophies: The Centennial Cup (Colorado), the Bronze Boot (Wyoming) and the Ram-Falcon Trophy (Air Force).

The Bronze Boot is far and away the most important trophy associated with CSU Football and was created in 1968 from an actual leather boot worn by Cpt. Dan Romero during the Vietnam War.

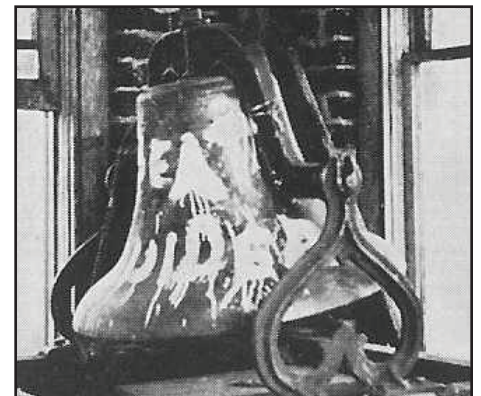

» OLD MAIN BELL

The story of Colorado State's Old Main Bell, which rings before each home football game and housed in the Iris and Michael Smith Alumni Center and Canvas Stadium, is a long and twisting one.

The bell originally rang throughout the campus of Colorado Agricultural College around 1910 before being stolen in 1919 and hidden away in secrecy, it's location known only to a select few. The bell emerged in February 2016 and delivered by an unknown individual on the driveway of Kristi Bohlender, the Executive Director of CSU's Alumni Association.

A complete rundown of the story by CSU's Source can be read HERE.

» THE AGGIE A

The prominent white "A" displayed on the foothills overlooking the old Hughes Stadium site is the second-oldest ongoing tradition associated with Colorado State University.

At a special assembly on Dec. 4, 1923, the students of State Agricultural College agreed it was time to erect an emblem to support the University.

The college declared Dec. 12 a special holiday, and students worked from that morning until mid-afternoon to form the "A."

The following September, students lengthened and widened the "A" to its present size of 450 feet from top to bottom, and 210 feet across at the bottom.

Today, the "A" is an official landmark. Early each fall, freshman football players join forces with several other campus organizations to give the "A" a fresh coat of white paint.

Notes and TIDBITS

PUTTING THE FRESH IN FRESHMEN

It's no secret that Colorado State is in the midst of significant roster rebuild in Jay Norvell's first season, and no place is that more evident than in the starting lineup.

The Rams have started multiple freshmen in each game this season, peaking at six against San Jose State, including five on offense (four true freshmen).

GAME	TOTAL	STARTERS

AND THE YOUTH SHALL LEAD THEM

Continuing the youth theme, the Rams starting lineup is comprised of one of the fewest totals of senior starters in the nation in 2022.

For the purpose of this note, senior starters would include anyone participating during their COVID season or with a COVID season remaining.

FEWEST SENIOR STARTERS

Rk./School	TOTAL SR. STARTERS
1. Texas A&M, Wyoming	3
3. Navy, North Texas, Temple, Cal	4
7. Ball State, Northern Illinois, Utah	5
10. Old Dominion, LSU	7
12. Colorado State, Illinois, Colorado New Mexico	8

The eight senior starters for the Rams includes LG Dante Bivens, RG Gray Davis, RT Dontae Keys, DE CJ Onyechi, DE Mohamed Kamara, LB Cam'Ron Carter, LB Dequan Jackson, and CB Chigozie Anusiem.

WHO'S WHO IN THE LINEUP

Sticking with the starter theme, the Rams have utilized a carousel of starters to this point in the season to account for injuries and roster transition. Only three schools in the country have had more players earn a start this season than the Rams.

MOST TOTAL STARTERS

Rk./School	TOTAL STARTERS
1. New Mexico	50
2. Texas A&M	49
3. Northern Illinois	48
4. SMU	45
5. Colorado State, Michigan State	43

WALKING ON TO A STARTING ROLE

Colorado State started walk-on redshirt freshman Giles Pooler against Utah State as Clay Millen recovered from an injury.

Pooler was likely the lone walk-on in the country to start for his team at quarterback that week and the first walk-on to start at quarterback for the Rams since MJ McPeck did so in 2012.

Not to be outdone, walk-on true freshman Keegan Hamilton started at center against Boise State and San Jose State. He was one of three walk-ons to start that game for the games (Dane Olson, Ayden Hector)

LET'S CALL IT AN OPPORTUNITY

Putting a silver lining on it - as we do - Colorado State is one of six FBS programs to start three different quarterbacks this season following Giles Pooler's start vs. Utah State.

Separating themselves from the pack, the Rams are the only school of the six to do so with three different freshmen.

SCHOOL	TOTAL QBs	CLASSES
Rutgers	4	Sr., So., So., Sr.
Colorado	3	So., Jr., Fr.
Colorado State	3	r-Fr., Fr., r-Fr.
Liberty	3	r-Sr., r-Jr., r-Fr.
Texas Tech	3	Sr., So., r-Fr.
Northern Illinois	3	r-Sr., r-Fr., So.

MORROW'S BREAKOUT

Prior to coming to Colorado State, Avery Morrow's career-best performance was a five-carry, 88-yard night against the Rams to close the 2021 season. He's turned into the bell cow back in a hurry this season, tallying four 100-yard rushing games, including three straight.

It was longest streak of consecutive games since Dalyn Dawkins posted four-straight 100+ yard games in 2017.

GAME	CARRIES	YARDS	LONG
at Nevada	24	168	23
Utah State	27	116	26
Hawaii	26	147	67
at San Jose St.	17	124	56
Wyoming	22	104	15

TAKING TWO

Against Nevada, the Rams jumped out to a 14-point lead on the heels of a pair of defensive scores. Nickelback Ayden Hector returned an interception 21 yards for the score, and defensive end Mukendi Wa-Kalonji snagged an ill-advised lateral attempt out of the air for a 50-yard fumble return.

It was the first time the Rams have tallied a pair of defensive touchdowns in the same game since Nov. 10, 2012 when Shaq Barrett had a 49-yard pick six and Shaq Bell had a 30-yard fumble return.

INTERCEPTION STREAK

Colorado State recorded an interception in six consecutive games - including three-straight from DB Jack Howell. It was the longest such streak for the program since the 2009 season when the Rams tallied at least one pick in six consecutive games to open the season. They are the longest pair of streaks since at least 2000.

BUILDING A LINE

As far as streaks go, Jay Norvell is aiming to snap one as the Rams' new head coach as he builds his roster for the program's future.

Colorado State last had an offensive lineman honored on the league's All-Conference First or Second teams in 2017 - four seasons ago. The Rams had a stellar run of honorees in that group with at least one from 2013 to 2017 for a total of eight first or second team all-conference lineman.

THE FRONT FIVE

Sticking with the offensive line, consistency within that group has been a challenge due to injuries all season. Colorado State started a different combination of the starting five up front in each of the first six games before settling in with the same five for games five, six, and seven. The Rams were back to their old tricks though in Game 8 when Miki-Han missed the game due to injury.

Notes and TIDBITS

OVERCOMING A DEFICIT

Against Hawaii, the Rams did something that few teams in program history have done before them - they overcame a double-digit halftime deficit.

Trailing 13-3 at halftime, CSU rallied for a 17-13 victory. While it may not seem like much, since 1965, the Rams have trailed by double digits 186 times and overcame them only 12 times.

The game also snapped a 19-game streak of failing to overcome a 4th quarter deficit. The program lost the final two such games under former HC Mike Bobo, all 12 such games under former HC Steve Addazio, and the first five this season under Jay Norvell.

WALK ON TO SCHOLARSHIP

Following the Wyoming game, Norvell awarded scholarships to six current walk-on players, all of whom have played significant roles for the Rams in 2022, including three in-state players.

NOTEBOOK

CANVAS STADIUM

Canvas Stadium is the new name for Colorado State University's 36,500-capacity multipurpose stadium that opened on the school's Fort Collins campus in 2017. Canvas Credit Union received naming rights to the facility through a $37.7 million partnership agreement announced in April 2018. The agreement, which stands as one of the largest collegiate athletic venue naming agreements in history, was part of an ambitious re-branding initiative being undertaken by the previously branded Public Service Credit Union, under the direction of company President and CEO Todd Marksberry.

The $220 million, 727,000-square-foot stadium proved immensely popular and attractive to fans in its inaugural season of 2017, and drew rave reviews from local and national media, as well national television networks that broadcast Colorado State's games to large audiences. The Rams set an all-time attendance record with a total of 192,369 fans and a per-game average of 32,062, representing a 16-percent attendance increase from 2016—eighth-highest in all of college football. Season ticket sales also reached an all-time high of 15,477, a 40-percent increase from the 2016 total of 11,054.

The return of CSU football games to campus from Hughes Stadium in 2017 brought the pageantry and celebration of Rams game days back to the heart of the university for the first time in 50 years, providing countless new engagement opportunities for the entire university. The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game-day and non-game day usage.

The agreement with Canvas Credit Union combined with $20 million given in 2016 to name Sonny Lubick Field brings the total naming rights revenues at Colorado State to $57 million for the stadium. This compares favorably with the recently announced $69 million United Airlines Memorial Coliseum at University of Southern California and the $41 million Alaska Airlines Field at Husky Stadium at the University of Washington. The Colorado State agreement with Canvas Credit Union is for 15 years and includes annual escalator clauses for inflation, as well as a signing bonus, in recognition of the visibility and success of the stadium.

2022 RULE CHANGES

Each offseason, college football's rules and regulations are reviewed. The below are three changes that will be in place for the 2021 season.

Targeting Carryover Appeal Process

In games that have instant replay, when a targeting foul occurs in the second half, the carryover penalty (of sitting out the first half of that player's next game) will be eligible for further appeal. The process will begin with a conference submitting a request to the NCAA national coordinator of officials, who would review video of the play. If it is obvious that a player was incorrectly penalized for targeting, the call would be overturned, and the player would be cleared to play in the first half of the next game.

Deceptive Injury Timeout Investigation Process

Schools and conferences will be able to report questionable scenarios to the national coordinator of officials, who will review and provide feedback to the conference for further action. Any penalties levied would be up to the conference office or school involved.

Blocking Below the Waist

The panel approved a proposal to improve safety and simplify the rules governing blocking below the waist. The proposal will allow blocking below the waist only by linemen and stationary backs inside the tackle box. Outside the tackle box on scrimmage plays, blocking below the waist will be prohibited. Analysis of available NCAA injury surveillance data indicates a decreasing knee injury trend that coincides with recent rules changes in this area.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — In their first game under head coach Jay Norvell, with a newly formed offensive line and a freshman quarterback getting his first start, the Rams looked it.

Facing one the most physical front-seven they'll see all season, the Rams allowed seven sacks and new starter Clay Millen was never able to truly get comfortable. The Wolverines were in the backfield all day, producing a sack-fumble for a score and a long interception return for another en route to a 51-7 victory.

There were positives on the day, however, as the defense - despite the final score - proved stout in the redzone forcing three Michigan field goals. Millen was also 16-for-20 on the day and threw his first touchdown pass to Tory Horton, a long, arching throw that is typical of the Air

GAME NOTES

- Coin Toss/Result: Won toss; deferred to the second half
- Faces In The Crowd: The crowd of 109,575 at Michigan Stadium was the largest crowd ever for the Rams' program. They previously played in front of more than 100,000 fans once, at Alabama.
- For Starters: Clay Millen, Tanner Arkin, Brian Crespo-Jaquez, Cam Bariteau and Grady Kelly all made their first starts. It was the first game action ever for Crespo-Jaquez; the rest had appeared in games previously.
- QB Clay Millen: Made his first collegiate start after two prior appearances; Finished 16-of-20 passing for 137 yards; Threw his first career TD pass, a 34-yarder to Tory Horton; the 80% completion percentage was just outside a top-10 single-game performance (.813)

FORT COLLINS — Jay Norvell's home opener was spoiled on Saturday by the visitors from Middle Tennessee who jumped out to a 27-0 halftime lead which blossomed to 34-0 before the Rams found some life.

An offensive line that was missing a pair of starters at tackles was once again unable to adequately protect the quarterback as the Rams, as a team, racked up nine sacks and ended the day with a negative rushing total.

The bright spot came in the third quarter when quarterback Clay Millen and receiver Tory Horton got into a groove, connecting for three touchdowns over a seven-minute span. Jack Howell picked off a pass on the drive immediately following the score, but the Rams were unable to keep the momentum after a penalty and another sack halted the drive.

Horton became the 9th player in school history to tally three touchdown receptions in a game and the first since Preston Williams did it against Air Force in 2018.

GAME NOTES

- Coin Toss/Result: Colorado State won toss; elected to receive.
- Attendance: The announced crowd was 27,641.
- Canvas, To Start: Canvas Stadium opened with a 58-27 victory over Oregon State in 2017. After Saturday's game, the Rams are 3-3 in home openers at the facility.
- One-Time Thing: The Rams are now 13-19-1 against teams they've faced just once in their history. Middle Tennessee will come off this list next year when CSU travels to Murfreesboro, Tenn.
- WR Tory Horton: Became just the ninth player in program history to score three receiving touchdowns in a single game, catching all three in the third quarter; also tallied a 100-yard game in consecutive appearances in Canvas Stadium, but on different teams

PULLMAN, Wash. — Colorado State fell into another big halftime hole and was unable to recover, falling 38-7 at Washington State.

The Rams have yet to score in the opening half of the first three games this season, finding some life in the second half to keep from getting shutout. Quarterback Clay Millen was again under duress most of the day, taking seven sacks and getting hit on many other passing attempts and scrambles.

A rotated offensive line yielded slightly better results, however, as starting center Jacob Gardner moved back to left tackle and Dirk Nelson earned his first career start at center. Other first-time starters included right tackle Owen Sniveley and wide receiver Justus Ross-Simmons. The latter scored the teams' only points of the game, a 14-yard score in the 4th quarter.

GAME NOTES

- Coin Toss/Result: Lost; Washington State deferred; Rams receive kick
- Lining Up: Just three weeks into the season, Colorado State has had three different starting offensive lines. Jacob Garner, Gray Davis and Dante Bivens have been the constants. Gardner, who started the first two games at center, moved to left tackle, with Dirk Nelson getting his first career start at center. Owen Sniveley made his first career start at right tackle.
- A First: Justus Ross-Simmons became the first true freshman to start a game this season. Avery Morrow made his first start at running back.

FORT COLLINS — A nine-game slide for the program grew to 10 as the Rams fell to an FCS opponent in consecutive seasons with a 41-10 result vs. Sacramento State.

The Rams again were largely non-competitive against the No. 6 ranked Hornets, and after taking 23 sacks in the first three games, it was the 24th that finally knocked starting quarterback Clay Millen out of the contest. In Millen's place, true freshman Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi saw his first game action and provided a spark, leading the offense on it's longest scoring drive of the season just before halftime.

After the break, however, the Rams couldn't find the same spark and were shutout in the final two frames.

RENO, Nev. — Jay Norvell returned to Reno where he led the Wolf Pack for five seasons and got his first win as head coach of the CSU program on Friday night.

In front of a Black Out crowd celebrating Mental Health Night, the Wolf Pack crowd created a hostile environment for the Rams who blocked out the noise and came away with the victory.

Two defensive touchdowns gave the Rams an early lead that they would never relinquish on a night when the offense was largely ineffective. True freshman quarterback Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi saw his first start in relief of the injured freshman Clay Millen.

Tied at 14-14, CSU took over with 2:17 remaining in the contest and drove 53 yards into field goal range for walk-on kicker Michael Boyle. After missing his first from 48, a five-yard penalty for running into the kicker gave Boyle new life. He didn't disappoint.

FORT COLLINS — In front of the 4th largest crowd in stadium history, the Rams couldn't hold on to a 10-7 halftime lead and fell to the defending Mountain West champions on homecoming.

Starting their third different freshman quarterback in as many weeks, the Rams were largely ineffective on offense while the defense turn in a stalwart effort for the second week in a row.

On the opening drive, Mohamed Kamara forced an errant throw from USU quarterback Cooper Legas that landed in the hands of Cam'Ron Carter to give the offense a short field. However, the Rams were able to move the ball just 23 yards - 19 coming from a trick play from WR Tory Horton throwing to RB A'Jon Vivens - to settle for a field goal.

Legas and his replacement, Levi Williams, were both knocked out of the game as true freshman Bishop Davenport rallied the Aggies to a third quarter score that proved to be the difference.

The Rams were just 12-for-33 passing on the day.

GAME NOTES

- Coin Toss/Result: Colorado State deferred; Utah State received.
- Attendance: The Homecoming Day crowd was 35,009. It is the fourth-largest crowd in Canvas Stadium history.
- QB Notes: Giles Pooler made his first start at quarterback, the third Ram to start at the position this season. He becomes the first lefty to start at QB since DJ Busch back in 2001, the first QB who began as a walk-on to start since MJ McPeck in 2008.
- Block Party: Dane Olson blocked a punt in the second quarter, the first for the Rams since 2019. That also came against Utah State, with Troy Golden doing the honors.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Facing his first assistant coach to become a head coach in Timmy Chang, Jay Norvell's Rams rallied for their first victory in Canvas Stadium in over a full calendar year with a come-from-behind victory over Hawaii.

The Rams overcame a 10-point halftime deficit for just the 12th time (out of 186 tries) in program history since 1965, and snapped a 19-game losing streak when trailing entering the 4th quarter. While not pretty, the game could serve as affirmation for a toughness that Norvell has been seeking from his team since taking over the program in December.

Avery Morrow rushed for 100+ yards for the third consecutive game, and Clay Millen returned after missing 2.5 games due to injury to lead the offense on a 13-play drive that covered 80 yards over seven minutes. Ayden Hector came up with the game-sealing interception in the final minute.

BOISE, Idaho — Starting a walk-on freshman center and two other walk-ons in key areas, Colorado State's youth was no match for Boise State on Saturday.

A 76-yard touchdown strike, snapped from true freshman Keegan Hamilton to redshirt freshman Clay Millen and caught by true freshman Justus Ross-Simmons was the main offensive highlight of the evening for Colorado State.

Avery Morrow, who entered the game with three consecutive 100-yard rushing performances, exited with a mild injury and saw limited time in the second half.

Attendance	20,121

USAFA, Colo. — Colorado State scored a pair of second-half touchdowns but were ultimately unable to stop the nation's No. 1 rushing offense on the road at Air Force.

With a frigid temperature at 21*, the Rams and Falcons squared off for the Ram-Falcons trophy in a place where the Rams haven't won since 2002.

Clay Millen - one of five freshmen starters for the Rams - completed 79 percent of his passes to remain one of the nation's leader in pass completions. Tory Horton tallied 35 receiving yards to eclipse 1,000 yards on the season, the eighth consecutive season for the program with a 1,000-yard receiver.
