BREAK IT OPEN

- Six times this season the Lobos have scored five or more runs in an inning with two of them against Utah State. Three of the times came in the 3rd inning.
- The eight runs scored in the 3rd inning of the third game at Utah State was the most runs scored in an inning this season, coming off of eight hits.
- The Lobos scored seven runs in the 3rd inning of Sunday's game against Colorado State.
- The Lobos also scored five runs in the sixth inning against Utah State to take the lead after trailing 13-10. UNM also scored seven runs in the 3rd inning against Buffalo on Feb. 17, six runs in the first inning of the season opener at Nicholls and five runs in the fifth inning against NMSU on March 28.

MIXING UP THE LINEUP

- UNM has used 42 different lineup combinations this season, using only the same batting order in the first two games, the same lineup in both games on March 11 against Buffalo and Texas Tech, the same lineup in a four-game stretch - the final two games against the Spartans, the game against NMSU and the first game at Fresno State, and the last two games in the Nevada series.
- The Lobos have had three different players hit leadoff, five different players hit second, eight different players hit third, nine different players in the cleanup spot, nine different players hit fifth, 13 different players hit sixth, 11 different players hit seventh, 10 different players hit eighth and seven different players hit ninth during the season.
- Peyton Robinson has hit leadoff in 38 games, with Keyannah Chavez second in 18 games and Ashley Archuleta second in 14 games, Rachael Hathoot third in 26 games but first in the last six games, and Lauren Garcia has hit in the cleanup spot in 20 games. Emma Bramson has hit fifth in 12 games with Chavez hitting fifth in three of the last five games, Chloe Yeatts has hit sixth in 13 games, Maddie Boldt seventh in 17 games and eighth in 14 games and Jenna Trim ninth in 16 games.
- When it comes to the lineup per position, the Lobos have had just three players start all 45 games at the same position: Rachael Hathoot (shortstop), Keyannah Chavez (left) and Peyton Robinson (center).
- Five different players have started at catcher, six different players have started at first, three different players have started at third and in right and eight different players have been the DP.
- The Lobos are also versatile in their positions as Emma Bramson has started 34 games at third and five at second and Loran Walker has started six games at third, four at catcher and one game at first. Olivia Birkinshaw has played three games in right field, three as the designated player, two games at first and five games at third and Chloe Yeatts has started at catcher in 30 games, as the designated player in seven and at first in one game.

OPEN THE RECORD BOOK

- In the March 19th win at Utah State, the Lobos finished with 18 hits, 15 runs and struck out 14 Aggies.
- The 18 hits were the most since the Lobos had 21 against Howard back in 2018 and the 15 runs were the most since 2019 against UTEP. The 15 runs were the most against the Aggies since April 26, 2014, a 20-3 win in five innings.
- The 14 strikeouts by Amber Linton were the most in a game since 2013, when Lauren Soles struck out 14 against Siena.
- The 11.0 innings pitched by Linton against the Miners back on March 1 were the most innings pitched by a Lobo since

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All interviews with UNM student-athletes and coaches are to be coordinated through the athletics communications office. Interviews may be arranged by contacting Allison Weiss in the athletics communications office (allisonweiss@unm.edu). All interview requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance.

- Soles threw 10.0 innings back in 2016 against San Diego State.
- UNM's 8-0 win over SJSU on March 25 was the first shutout against the Spartans since May 8, 2015.
- The 12 runs scored against CSU were the most runs the Lobos have scored against the Rams since April 15, 2016, a 14-3 win in six.
- Rachael Hathoot's seven triples this season are tied for the third most in a single season in program history. The last time a Lobo had seven was Lainie Horne in 1998. The single-season record is nine, done by Kathy Dyer in 1986. Jackie Van Hooydonk hit eight in 1997.
- Amber Linton's 155 strikeouts this season places her seventh all-time, one behind her strikeout total in 2022, two behind fifth. Her 7.28 strikeouts per game is the highest in program history.

THE COMEBACK x5

- The Lobos have five times rallied late in a game to earn the win: the 7-6 win over Charlotte, the 7-6 win over Manhattan, the 15-13 win over Utah State, the 8-6 win over the Spartans and the 4-3 win over the Wolf Pack in extra innings.
- CHARLOTTE: The Lobos trailed four times against Charlotte and responded each time to either tie or take the lead. The Niners again took the lead in the top of the sixth on three-straight singles, all with two outs, although the lead was short lived as Olivia Birkinshaw led off the bottom half with a home run to center. Lauren Garcia followed that up by reaching on an error by the Charlotte right fielder, taking second on the play, and Chloe Yeatts put the Lobos back in front at 5-4 with a single to the outfield. Charlotte reclaimed the lead in the top of the seventh on a two-run home run and down to their final two outs, Keyannah Chavez got the rally started with a single through the left side and Rachael Hathoot drove her in on a double to left field to tie the game at six. Birkinshaw ended the game on the next at-bat with a double of her own scoring Hathoot for the walk-off.
- MANHATTAN: Trailing 6-4 in the sixth inning against Manhattan, New Mexico had its first four hitters reach with Hathoot scoring Jenna Trim on a ball that dropped in shallow right field to make it a one-run game before the inning came to an end with bases loaded. Down to the final two outs and facing a full count, Maddie Boldt tied the game on a home run to center for her fourth of the season. Amber Linton entered in the bottom of the seventh and allowed just an infield single before getting out two and three on swinging strikeouts to send the game to extra innings. In the ninth, Ashley Archuleta led off with a single to the outfield and following a fielder's choice and a flyout to right, Trim kept the inning going with a four-pitch walk. With the lineup turned over, and after fouling off six pitches, Peyton Robinson hit a double to right center to score Yeatts from second to give UNM its first lead since 4-3 in the second inning. Amber Linton left no chance of a rally, retiring the side to secure the Lobo win.
- UTAH STATE: The Lobos rallied to complete two comebacks in Sunday's game, using an eight-run third inning and scoring six unanswered runs between the fifth and sixth innings to win 15-13 over Utah State. The Aggies added six runs in the bottom of the second, but the Lobos had an answer for their own in the top of the third with eight runs on eight hits. Emma Bramson led off with a double, the first of two for her in the inning, with Peyton Robinson laying down a bunt and Bramson scoring on a throwing error by the Aggie first baseman on the play. After Ashley Archuleta reached on a fielder's choice, Rachael Hathoot hit a double to right to move the Lobo around to third and following a walk for Garcia that loaded the bases, Keyannah Chavez was hit by a pitch to score another run. Maddie Boldt put UNM right back in the game with one swing, hitting her fifth home run of the season to clear the bases and pull the Lobos within one at 8-7. After an Aggie pitching change, Chloe Yeatts kept the rally going with a single to right and Bramson hit a double to left to put two more runners in scoring position. With the lineup turned over, Robinson gave the Lobos their first lead since 1-0 with a single to left center that scored both runners for the final runs of the inning. Utah State responded with five runs on seven hits to go back in front 13-9 in the bottom of the third. They were the final runs that the Aggies would score as the Lobos pitched four scoreless innings while the Lobos continued to string together hits and runs in the fifth and sixth. UNM needed just two at-bats to score a run in the fifth as Bramson reached on a single to right and moved to second on a wild pitch, with Robinson scoring her on a single to right, taking second on an error by the right fielder. Chavez started the rally in the sixth, reaching on a bunt. Boldt followed with a single to left and after Jenna Trim walked to load the bases, Savana Martinez brought the first run of the inning in on a blooper to right. A single to right by Bramson scored Boldt and Archuleta singled to left two at-bats later to score Trim to tie the game. Hathoot gave the Lobos the lead on the next at-bat with a single to center that scored Bramson and Robinson.
- SAN JOSE STATE: San José State got out to a 6-0 lead in the first two innings of Sunday's Mountain West series finale, but the Lobos chipped away with three runs in the second, four in the fifth and one in the sixth in the 8-6 comeback win to clinch the series. The Lobo comeback started in the bottom of the second with UNM cutting the deficit in half on a Chavez infield single, a double by Yeatts that scored Chavez from first and a home run to left by Boldt for her sixth of the season. Snow retired the side in the third, allowed one hit in the fourth and worked around two runners on in the fifth to keep UNM within three, which the Lobos closed the gap in the fifth inning with four runs on six hits. Robinson got the inning going with a one-out infield single, beating out the throw to first and moved to second and later third on a wild pitch. Hathoot drove her in on a double to center and Garcia traded places with the Lobo shortstop one play later with a double of her own to center to bring the Lobos within one run. After Chavez reached on a single to shallow right, with pinch runner Leslie Romero moving to third on the play, Yeatts completed the comeback with a hit that got past the Spartan shortstop and traveled all the way to the wall in left center and allowed Chavez to come all the way around to score for the 7-6 Lobo lead. Following another clean inning from Snow with the Lobo retiring the side in order, New Mexico added one final run behind a Robinson bunt, an Archuleta single to left and a bunt by Hathoot to load the bases, with Robinson scoring on a walk for Garcia.
- NEVADA: After giving up three runs in the top of the first inning of Friday's game against Nevada, the Lobos rallied to tie the game in the fifth before walking off in the eighth on a Chloe Yeatts' hit to left. The Lobo defense keeping the game at 3-0 set up the comeback in the fifth as the Lobos tied the game with three runs on three hits. Yeatts got the inning started by reaching on a fielding error by the shortstop, with Grace Rana entering to pinch run. Reyann Tuck entered to pinch hit two at-bats later, reaching on an infield single with Rana safely moving to second. Emma Bramson put the Lobos on the board with a single to right field to score Rana while Tuck advanced to third on the play and with the lineup turned over, Rachael Hathoot cleared the bases on a double to left on the following at-bat to tie the game at three. After Linton struck out the side in both the sixth and seventh innings, UNM had a chance to walk it off in the seventh after Tuck walked on four-straight pitches and Bramson moved her to second on a sac bunt. Hathoot flied out to right, with Jenna Trim (who re-entered to run in place of Tuck) tagging up and moving to third. Keyannah Chavez narrowly was thrown out at first, sliding headfirst into the bag to try to beat the throw, to end the inning and send the game to extras. The Wolf Pack failed to have a runner reach in the eighth, while the Lobos successfully had their first three hitters reach in the bottom of the eighth to load the bases and set up Yeatts' walk-off.

CONSISTENCY IS KEY

- Freshman Keyannah Chavez has registered a hit in 29 games with 12 multi-hit games and reached base in 39 games this season. She's finished with multiple RBI in five games.
- Chavez reached base in the first 10 games this season, and had a six-game hitting streak, both coming to an end in the Oklahoma State game. The Lobo outfielder also had a 16-game streak of reaching base that came to an end in the series against Boise State.
- Chavez earned her first conference award after being named the Mountain West Freshman of the Week on Feb. 21. Chavez's accolade came after the freshman led the Lobos at the plate hitting .556 with a .778 slugging percentage (tied for the team high), a team-high .600 on-base percentage, team-high five hits, team-high two doubles and finished with two RBI at UTEP's tournament.
- She was named both the MW Freshman and the MW Player of the Week on March 28. Chavez hit .600 in the series against San José State with six hits (tying the team high) and six RBI, scoring four runs and having a .667 on-base percentage. Additionally, she was 8-10 in successfully advancing runners and 5-8 with runners in scoring position. Overall, the Lobo had at least one hit in all three games of the series with three hits in game two and two in game three. The Texas native finished with a season-high four RBI in Saturday's 8-0 win over San José State, going 3-4 to tie her season high in hits. Two RBI came on a single up the middle to open the scoring in the first inning and came around to score from first on the next play that made it 4-0 UNM. Her single in the fourth inning scored another run and the freshman laid down a squeeze bunt in the sixth inning as part of a three-run inning to enforce the run rule. While she went 2-4 and scored two runs in Sunday's win, defensively, Chavez had two huge putouts in the top of the seventh inning with the Lobos leading 8-6, catching two fly balls at the wall to maintain the lead. Chavez demonstrated her speed on both runs scored, scoring from first in both instances.
- Chavez leads the team in walks (18) and second in doubles (7), runs scored (33) and on-base percentage (.414), and is third in hits (43).
- In the MW, Chavez is 15th in runs scored, 18th in on-base percentage and tied for 16th in hits.

RETURN OF RACHAEL

- Rachael Hathoot returned to the field after missing the 2022 season due to an injury, and has been a major boost for the Lobo infield.
- The Albuquerque native has started in 120 games for the Lobos and has tallied 109 hits and 176 total bases that includes 25 doubles, nine triples and eight home runs. Her career batting average is .305, with a .370 on-base percentage and a .493 slugging percentage.
- She is having her best season as a Lobo this year with a .400 batting average, .459 on-base percentage and

- .629 slugging percentage and has exceeded her season best in hits, total bases, triples, walks and RBI. She had a career-best 15-game hitting streak and 20-game on-base streak and set a career high in RBI with five in the April 16 game against Colorado State.
- Hathoot has had 30 multiple hit games and 16 multiple RBI games in her career, including 17 multi-hit games and seven multi-RBI games this season. Hathoot had 13 games with multiple hits in her first two years combined.
 - Her total hits this season (56) is more than her total in her first two years combined and her total bases this season matches her total from the first two years combined.
 - Hathoot got going at UTEP, with three hits that included two triples, had a .778 slugging percentage and finished with three RBI.
 - In the game against NMSU, Hathoot was a single shy of the cycle, hitting a double in the third to score two runs, a triple in the fifth to score a run and hit a home run to start the seventh inning, finishing with four RBI.
 - In the ASU/GCU Classic, Hathoot hit .458 with a .667 slugging percentage that included 11 hits, four RBI, two doubles and a home run. Hathoot hit a double in the bottom of the 7th with the Lobos down to their final two outs and trailing 6-5 that tied the game at six. She then came around as the winning run on the next at-bat as the Lobos walked off against Charlotte. In the second game against UTEP, the Lobo shortstop hit a three-run home run in the bottom of the 6th against to turn the 5-4 UNM lead to 8-4. She had four multi-hit games with two games with three hits and reached base in all seven games.
 - The Lobo leads the team in batting average, slugging percentage, on-base percentage, triples (7), total bases (88) and doubles (9) and tied for the team high in RBI (31). Among the MW, the Lobo leads the MW in batting average (.400), triples (7), is tied for third in hits (56), tied for fifth in total bases (88) and seventh in on-base percentage (.459) and eighth in slugging percentage (.629). Defensively, Hathoot leads with 113 assists on the season and is second in fielding double plays with 14. In MW games, she's tied for the conference lead in assists at 53 and second in fielding double plays with six.

IT STARTS IN THE CIRCLE

- It all starts with returner Amber Linton, who has pitched in 30 games with 24 starts. On the season, she has pitched 149.0 total innings and recorded five or more strikeouts in 14 games this season and 10+ strikeouts three times.
- Linton leads the MW in strikeouts per game with 155 (14 more than the second-highest pitcher) and 47 looking. Nationally, she is 41st in strikeouts.
- The Indiana native is averaging 7.28 strikeouts per game this season, which would be a program record.
- Linton threw her first complete-game shutout in the win over Creighton and struck out nine in back-to-back outings (against Cal State Bakersfield and Creighton). She threw a career-high 11 innings in the first game against UTEP and recorded a then-career-high 12 strikeouts in the complete-game win against Houston. She pitched her second complete-game shutout against Buffalo on March 10 and her third in the second game against SJSU.
- She has thrown 14 complete games, double her total from last season. She set a new career high in strikeouts with 14 in the first game against Utah State after throwing 9.1 innings.
- In her two years at UNM, Linton has 311 strikeouts, placing her sixth all-time and 25 away from fifth.
- The RHP pitched a team-high 156.2 innings last season with a team-high 27 starts. She finished with 10+ strikeouts in two games and five or more strikeouts in 14 games.
- Linton's 6.97 strikeouts per game in 2022 was the single-season program record and her 156 strikeouts were the sixth-most in a single-season in program history.
- The Lobos added two freshmen pitchers in Emmalyn Brinka and Bella Mitchell, a redshirt-sophomore transfer in Taylor Snow and a junior transfer in Jenna Trim.
- Brinka got the start against Oregon State on Feb. 11 and pitched a complete-game shutout after pitching 2.2 innings of relief in Friday's game against LSU. To date, she's appeared in 21 games with nine starts and has thrown 47.1 innings with two complete games.
- Snow has appeared in 27 game with 13 starts, and pitched 88.1 innings, the second highest amongst the pitchers in all three categories. Snow has recorded two strikeouts in eight games with a season-high three strikeouts at Texas Tech and has had six appearances of not allowing a run. Snow entered in relief in the first inning of the second Cal State Bakersfield game and pitched 7.0 scoreless innings to earn her first collegiate win. She pitched 5.0 scoreless innings in Saturday's win against Nevada and didn't allow a walk in either outing against the Wolf Pack.

FULLY CHARGED BATTERY

- In addition to having six pitchers, the Lobos are fully stocked at the catcher position with six catchers, five of which have made at least one start.
- Leslie Romero returned with the most time behind the plate last season, starting at catcher in 24 games. Savana Martinez and Janae Cameron each started in seven games. The Lobos added two freshmen catchers in Chloe Yeatts and Grace Rana.
- Yeatts has started 33 games with Romero starting in seven, Loran Walker starting in four and Janae Cameron and Martinez in two.
- Yeatts has thrown out five runners with Romero and Martinez each catching one runner trying to steal. Yeatts threw out two runners against San Diego State on April 22.

LOBOS IN THE OUTFIELD

- The Lobos returned outfielder Peyton Robinson, who has played in 147 games with 146 starts in her three years at UNM and started all 53 games in left last season.
- Keyannah Chavez (left) and Peyton Robinson (center) have started all 48 games with Maddie Boldt starting in right in 37 games, Elizabeth Baylor in eight and Olivia Birkinshaw in three games.
- The trio (Chavez, Robinson and Boldt) have led the Lobos at the plate, with Robinson second and Chavez third in batting average and hits, and second (Chavez) and third (Robinson) in on-base percentage. Chavez leads in walks (18), second in runs scored with 33 and tied for second in doubles (7) with Robinson third in runs scored at 26.
- Boldt is second on the team in slugging percentage (.584) but leads in home runs (9), including a grand slam against Utah State. Boldt is tied for second in total bases (59) and third in walks (13) and RBI (26).

STEAL YOUR BASE

- The Lobos are 39-42 in stolen bases this season after starting 31-31 with 12 players having at least one stolen base.
- Peyton Robinson leads with 15 stolen bases, followed by eight from Keyannah Chavez, five from Rachael Hathoot and two for Olivia Birkinshaw and Emma Bramson. Seven players (Chloe Yeatts, Loran Walker, Ashley Archuleta, Janae Cameron, Evany Gonzalez, Elizabeth Baylor and Grace Rana) have one.
- UNM had four stolen bases in each of the games against Cal State Bakersfield and 27 games with a stolen base, including multiple stolen bases in seven games.
- The Lobos have surpassed their stolen bases total than the season total in each of the last nine years and in 11 of the last 12 years.

ANY MEANS NECESSARY

- In UNM's first five games, the Lobos reached base 18 times via either a hit-by-pitch or walk (nine BB, nine HBP). The Lobos drew three walks and five hit-by-pitches in the win at Nicholls.
- UNM has drawn at least one walk and one hit-by-pitch in 20 games, at least one hit-by-pitch in 22 games and at least one walk in 43 games. UNM had a season-high 11 walks in the first game at Utah State and a season-high five hit-by-pitches at Nicholls. UNM has had five or more walks in six games this season.
- 12 different players have reached on a HBP and 15 have reached on a walk. Olivia Birkinshaw currently leads with five hit-by-pitches, while Keyannah Chavez leads with 18 walks.
- The Lobos are currently fifth in the MW in HBP with 30.

THE HONOR IS OURS

- New Mexico junior pitcher Amber Linton was named Mountain West Pitcher of the Week and New Mexico senior outfielder Peyton Robinson was named Mountain West Player of the Week following their performances at the Texas Tech Invitational. Keyannah Chavez earned Mountain West Freshman of the Week on Feb. 21 and again on March 28, while also named MW Player of the Week on March 28.
- The selection marks the second weekly conference honor for Linton, the first for Robinson and the second and third for Chavez.

NEW ERA IN LOBO SOFTBALL

- Nicole Dickson is in her first season at the helm of the softball program after being hired on June 3, 2022.
- Dickson spent the past six seasons at Stephen F. Austin. Of note, her first win at SFA was against New Mexico, a 5-1 win on Feb. 17, 2017. Her second win was also against UNM, a 3-1 final on Feb. 18, 2017.
- Shortly after being hired, Dickson added Morgan Spearman as an assistant coach, joining her at UNM from SFA. She completed her staff with her second assistant coach in Skylar Black.
- Coach Dickson oversees the pitching group and will occupy the third base coach's box, while Coach Spearman works with the outfielders and oversees the Lobo offense and will be in the first base coach's box when the Lobos are at-bat. Coach Black works with the catchers and the infielders.
- Dickson and staff hit the recruiting trail, adding reinforcements in the circle in Taylor Snow, Jenna Trim and Emmalyn Brinka, as well as a catcher in Chloe Yeatts and an outfielder in Maddie Boldt.

FIRST GAME, FIRST WIN

- Coach Dickson became just the second coach to win in their Lobo coaching debut, doing so with the largest margin of victory (+9). Erica Beach was the other head coach to win in her first game (a 10-2, five inning win against Utah Valley on Feb. 12, 2011).

WHAT'S NEW WITH UNM

- There are a total of 11 newcomers on the 2023 roster, with eight freshmen and three transfers.
- UNM added three pitchers, four outfielders, two catchers, one infielder and a pitcher who can also play infield.

MAKING A STATEMENT FROM THE START

- UNM had its first five hitters reach base in the season opener at Nicholls and scored six runs in the first on four hits, two hit-by-pitches and two walks. UNM added three runs in the third, two in the fourth and one in the fifth to earn the run-rule victory.
- UNM's win was the first season-opening run rule since 2011, a 10-2 win over Utah Valley in five and the fourth in program history (1993, 1992).
- The Lobos picked up a signature win on Feb. 11, defeating No. 19 Oregon State 8-0 in five innings.
- It was UNM's first win over a ranked opponent since No. 23 Nebraska back on March 19, 2016 (a 6-3 win) and the first done in run-rule fashion since Feb. 23, 2012, a 15-3 win over another Power 5 opponent in No. 14/16 Texas A&M in six. Historically, it was UNM's ninth win over a ranked opponent.
- The Lobos needed just two innings to produce their eight runs on eight hits, scoring four in the first and four in the third. Six different Lobos contributed a hit with Chloe Yeatts and Maddie Boldt leading with 2-3 outings at the plate with Boldt driving in three RBI, while Olivia Birkinshaw added three RBI on a pinch-hit double in the fourth. Six of UNM's runs came with two outs.

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

- UNM was picked eighth in the MW Preseason Coaches' Poll with 23 points. The Lobos were 2 points behind a three-way tie for fifth with Fresno State, Nevada and San José State and two points ahead of Utah State.

HEAD COACH NICOLE DICKSON

Nicole Dickson enters her first season at The University of New Mexico and became the sixth head coach in program history when she was hired on June 3, 2022.

Dickson spent the last six seasons as the head coach at Stephen F. Austin, with the Ladyjacks surpassing 30 wins in four of five seasons and were on pace for another stellar result in the shortened 2020 season with a 19-4 record. Through her six seasons, Dickson compiled a 169-123 record and was named the 2021 Southland Conference Coach of the Year. Under her leadership, SFA had 20 all-conference selections, as well as two hitter of the year and pitcher of the year selections, a player of the year and a freshman of the year.

In 2021, the program set three program records. SFA's 25 league wins and just two conference losses were a program best, with the team setting another program record with 18 consecutive wins.

In the shortened 2020 season, Dickson and the Ladyjacks went 19-4 and set a program record with a then-13 consecutive wins with a NCAA Division I best nine true road wins.

In the 2019, SFA went 36-23, compiling wins over Power Five programs Illinois, Mississippi State, Indiana and Baylor.

Before taking the helm at SFA, Dickson gained experience as the head coach at Tyler Junior College (2013-16) and a spent a year as the head coach at Paris Junior College (2012-13). Dickson got her start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Hardin-Simmons in 2008 before getting her first coaching job as an assistant coach at Howard College in 2010.

Dickson earned a B.S. in health and physical education from Eastern New Mexico in 2008 and earned a master's in sports management and kinesiology from Hardin-Simmons in 2009.

Coach Dickson has several ties to New Mexico. She pitched at Eastern New Mexico from 2007-08 and umpired in the summers in Albuquerque while in college.

In addition, Coach Dickson's first win at SFA was against UNM (a 5-1 win on Feb. 17, 2017).

ASSISTANT COACH MORGAN SPEARMAN

Morgan Spearman enters her first season as an assistant coach with the Lobos after joining the program in June 2022.

In her role with UNM, Spearman's primary responsibilities will be hitting and outfield with recruiting as a secondary responsibility.

"We have worked together for five years now and balance each other well," stated Dickson. "Her strengths include player development and teaching the game, with an incredible work ethic and task efficiency, and preparation with scouting and practice plans. I'm excited to have her join UNM Softball."

As mentioned, the new Lobo coach has worked with Dickson for the past five seasons at Stephen F. Austin, working with the Ladyjack outfielders and hitters as well as handled team travel and program operations.

Working with Dickson, Spearman was instrumental to the Ladyjacks' success in winning the Southland Conference in 2021 and the WAC Southwest Division in 2022 and in accumulating 30-plus wins in four of the past five seasons. Working with the hitters, Spearman developed the 2021 Southland Hitter of the Year along with three named to the All-Southland First Team, two placed on the All-Southland Second Team and one on the All-Southland Third Team in 2021. This past year, Spearman helped two players earn All-WAC Second Team honors.

During her time at SFA, the Ladyjacks had two hitter of the year selections.

Previous to serving as the assistant coach at SFA, Spearman was an assistant coach at Eastern New Mexico from 2016-17 and was a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Angelo State, from 2014-16.

Spearman played collegiately at Angelo State from 2011-14, earning All-America honors in 2013 and 2014. Further, she was named to the first team all-region and a NFCA Third Team All-American in 2013 and in 2014, was named to the NFCA All-America First Team and named the Division II Softball Player of the Year Honda Cup Award winner. An outfielder, Spearman was the Lone Star Conference Player of the Year in 2014, and broke Angelo State and Lone Star Conference single-season records her senior season after hitting .506.

ASSISTANT COACH SKYLAR BLACK

Skylar Black enters his first year as an assistant coach at UNM after being hired in July 2022.

As a former catcher at Stephen F. Austin, Black will oversee the catcher position and serve as the infield coach with the Lobos.

Black joins the program after serving as a volunteer assistant coach at SFA with the baseball team, where he garnered experience working with the catchers and was the secondary infield coach.

"I have worked with Skylar for two years, so he knows our expectations and culture," stated Dickson. "He's a high-character individual that is hard working and can teach and develop players defensively, which is what we need."

As aforementioned, Black was a catcher for the Lumberjacks. His senior season, Black was named to the 2021 All-Southland Conference Second Team after leading the team in total RBI (34), home runs (seven), total bases (74) and slugging percentage (.510). As a sophomore, he split time as catcher, first base and designated hitter.

After graduation, Black spent a season with the Missoula Paddle-Heads in the Pioneer League.
