#GOLOBOS

LOBOS TRAVEL TO NCAA REGIONAL

- UNM travels to San Antonio for the NCAA Regional
- It is the Lobos' second trip to Texas this season, having played at the Jim West Challenge in nearby San Marcos in the fall
- The Lobos earned an automatic bid into the NCAA Regionals after winning the Mountain West Championship

NCAA REGIONAL HISTORY

- New Mexico is making its 24th NCAA Regional appearance since the format was adopted in 1993
- UNM has advanced from a regional to the NCAA Championships nine times
- The Lobos last advanced from the regionals in 2010 for their overall 15th appearance at the NCAA Championships

MOUNTAIN WEST CHAMPIONS

- New Mexico captured its 10th Mountain West Championship by winning the 2023 event last month at Mission Hills Country Club
- It was the sixth Mountain West title for the Lobos during Jill Trujillo's tenure
- Jenny Lertsadwattana was the medalist, becoming the eighth Lobo to win the Mountain West individual title

SEASON REVIEW

- The Lobos are ranked No. 42 in Golfstat after a season that saw them post five top-three finishes in 10 events (one win, one runner-up and three third-place finishes)
- New Mexico had three individual champions during the season, with Jenny Lertsadwattana winning the Ron Moore Intercollegiate and Mountain West Championship titles and Myah McDonald winning at the The Show at Spanish Trail
- Jenny Lertsadwattana became just the fifth Lobo to win multiple individual titles in a season

HONORS

- Three Lobos were honored last week when the Mountain West awards were announced
- Jill Trujillo was named Mountain West Coach of the Year for the fourth time in her career (2008, 2014, 2021, 2023)
- Jenny Lertsadwattana was named first-team All-Mountain West, becoming the first Lobo with first-team honors since 2018
- It was Lertsadwattana's third All-Mountain West selection as she earned second-team honors in 2020 and 2021
- Lauren Lehigh was named second-team All-Mountain West, her second career honor (second team also in 2021)
