LEADING OFF - WINNERS OF 4 STRAIGHT, UNM FACES UNLV

As the New Mexico baseball team enters the final stretch of the 2023 regular season, another crucial Mountain West series awaits this weekend as the Lobos face UNLV in a three-game road slate.

The Lobos (23-17, 10-10 MW) have won four straight games including a three-game sweep of Fresno State at home last week to lift them back into the Mountain West tournament race. This weekend marks the only regular-season meeting with the Rebels, who are 17-25 overall and 8-13 in conference play to sit in sixth place.

LOBOS TAKE THE LEAD IN RIO GRANDE RIVALRY: New Mexico took a 2-1 season lead over New Mexico State with a thorough 14-6 triumph over the Aggies on Tuesday night at home. The victory made it four in-a-row for UNM, and four more home runs from the Lobos upped their season total to 73 which ranks sixth in single-season history.

LAST WEEK: In their most important series of the season up to this point, the Lobos delivered in a big way as they walked away with a three-game sweep of Fresno State at home over the weekend. It was New Mexico's first sweep of a conference opponent since the 2021 season, and it lifted the Lobos back to life in the fast-approaching playoff race.

MOUNTAIN WEST STANDINGS: The Lobos leaped past Fresno State with the series win, and enter this weekend in fourth place in the conference standings with a league record of 10-10. Air Force is directly ahead of the Lobos in third place at 14-10, while Fresno State is right behind UNM at 11-13. UNLV, this week's opponent, sits in sixth place at 8-13 in league play. The top-four teams at the end of the regular season advance to the conference tournament, which is set for May 25-27 at Fresno State.

BACK TO THE TOP OF THE NCAA STAT RANKINGS: New Mexico reassumed its position as the No. 1 hitting team in the NCAA this week, upping its season batting average to .342 which leads the country. The Lobos also rank No. 2 in slugging percentage at .580, fifth in hits with 513, sixth in triples per game with 0.50, seventh in scoring with 9.4 runs per game and in total triples with 20, and ninth in doubles per game with 2.48. New Mexico's 378 runs scored are 15th-most among NCAA teams, and the team ranks 16th in home runs per game with 1.82, 21st in on-base percentage at .418, and 23rd in doubles with 99. Defensively, the Lobos rank 11th in the country with an average of 0.98 double plays turned per game, and the pitching staff's mark of 3.10 walks-per-9 innings ranks eighth in the country.

OLSON BUILDS OFF HISTORIC WEEKEND: Justin Olson had the weekend of a lifetime, homering four times as he powered the Lobos to the series win. The junior first baseman hit three home runs in Saturday's 17-7 triumph, and became the first Lobo since DJ

LEADING OFF - WEEKEND PREVIEW

Peterson in 2013 to drive in eight runs in a game. The three long balls and eight RBIs were both career highs for Olson, and he followed with another home run in a 2-for-5 performance against New Mexico State on Tuesday. Despite starting just 12 games and totaling 56 at-bats, Olson has 10 homers and 25 RBIs to go with a slash line of .411/.535/.982.

SPENRATH CONTINUES POWER PRODUCTION: Reed Spenrath continued his tear at the plate, going 9-for-16 with a triple and three home runs in the Lobos' four-game winning streak. The slugger drove in eight more runs to up his season total to a team-leading 55, and he scored eight times to give him 47 runs scored on the year. Spenrath leads the conference with a slugging percentage of .750, while ranking second in the league with 15 home runs.

RUNION HOMERS IN THREE STRAIGHT: Braydon Runion became the first Lobo since Carl Stajduhar in 2017 to homer in three consecutive games, following his long ball at Arizona with one each in the first two against the Bulldogs. Overall in the series Runion went 7-for-16 with six RBIs, four doubles, two homers, and five runs scored. He followed that by becoming the first Lobo in a decade to collect four extra-base hits in a game, with a career-high three doubles and a triple in Tuesday's win over NMSU. Runion's .387 batting average ranks 56th in the NCAA, while his 17 doubles and 65 hits lead the team.

SMITH WALKS IT OFF: Kyle Smith delivered the hit to clinch the series sweep on Sunday, smoking a ground ball into center field that scored Deylan Pigford from second base to break a 5-5 tie in the 10th inning. It was the Lobos' fourth walk-off win of the year and the second in Smith's UNM career, after he won last season's game on May 20 to cap a seven-run ninth inning against Air Force. Smith went 3-for-5 with three RBIs, four runs, a double, and his fourth home run of the year over the weekend, extending his hitting streak to seven games and his reached base streak to a team-leading 18 games.

STEINKAMP SUPERB: Arthur Steinkamp delivered the best outing of his collegiate career in the series opener, taking over with his team trailing 9-0 and throwing 4 1/3 shutout innings to give the Lobos a chance to get back into the game. Steinkamp allowed just one baserunner in the near-flawless outing, and followed with another shutout inning on Tuesday against NMSU. The big week for the lefty lowered his season ERA to 2.35 across 15 1/3 innings pitched.

MR. HOLLAND'S OPS: Jake Holland had another huge weekend at the plate, going 4-for-9 with his 12th home run of the year and a double. Holland scored three times and drove in a pair of runs, upping his RBI count to 38 in his 27 games played this season. The newcomer's OPS of 1.135 ranks third in the conference, as does his home run total.

ASHBY MATCHES CAREER HIGH: Lenny Junior Ashby matched his career high with four hits in the series opener against the Bulldogs, and overall he went 6-for-13 with a double and a home run last week, while crossing the plate five times. He followed by going 3-for-4 with three RBIs, three runs scored, and his sixth home run of the year on Tuesday. That boosted Ashby's batting average to .372 on the season, and he is getting on base at a mark of .450 while slugging .567. Ashby snapped a hitting streak of 15 games, which was the second-longest of the season by a Lobo, on Sunday, and his reached base streak came to a close at 18 games.

STEPHENS STAYS HOT: Ten of Sean Stephens' 16 hits this season have come in the last five games, as he went 6-for-13 in the series against the Bulldogs. Stephens drove in four runs, thanks to a pair of doubles and his first home run of the season. He also stole his second base of the year, and showed off his speed in the outfield with seven catches in center. Stephens is hitting .333 in his 28 games played this spring.

JACKSON LOGS FIRST-CAREER SAVE: Junior Jaren Jackson, making just the second relief appearance of his collegiate career, picked up his first-career save with three shutout innings on Saturday. The lefty had two strikeouts while allowing just one hit to close out the Lobos' second victory in the series.

GALLEGOS TIES SEASON HIGH: Junior right-hander Isaac Gallegos tied his season high on Sunday, striking out seven Bulldogs in a strong seven-inning performance on the mound. Gallegos gutted out the 113-pitch no-decision, limiting Fresno State to three runs – two earned – on five hits. Gallegos leads the team and ranks second in the conference with an ERA of 3.25, and his opponents' batting average of .228 is also second in the league.

DAVID SUPPLIES BIG DOUBLE: The first of two doubles last week for Jeffrey David helped solidify UNM's 16-10 win in the series opener, as he plated three runs in the bottom of the eighth to cap his team's scoring. David doubled again on Saturday, giving him 10 on the season. The junior was also perfect defensively in 10 chances, primarily playing third base over the weekend.

MCBROOM TWICE THE VICTOR: Brian McBroom was fittingly on the mound when the Lobos completed the sweep, as he collected his second win of the weekend and his fourth of the 2023 season. The right-hander totaled three innings in his two appearances last week, as he twice helped the Lobos out of high-leverage situations to ensure the series win. McBroom owns a 4-1 record with three saves and a 4.32 ERA in his conference-leading 21 appearances on the mound.

WEISSENBORN TALLIES SIXTH DOUBLE: Chase Weissenborn collected his sixth double of the season on Tuesday, bringing home a pair of runs in the 2-for-4 performance. That elevated his batting average to .275, and defensively Weissenborn has had five assists in three of his last four games.

PIGFORD SCORES WINNING RUN: Deylan Pigford kick-started the Lobos' series-winning rally on Sunday, leading off the bottom of the 10th with a base hit and eventually scoring on Smith's walk-off knock. It was Pigford's 38th run scored in his 38 games played this season, and he is hitting .316 with nine doubles, three triples, and five home runs.

BANNISTER EARNS FIRST WIN AS A LOBO: The author of two strong innings on Tuesday, Wil Bannister claimed his first win as a Lobo in the triumph over the Aggies. The right-hander had a season-high three strikeouts, while throwing 48 pitches and allowing just one run.

LIVELY GRABS MW WINS LEAD: Tristin Lively was the first Mountain West pitcher to reach six victories on the season, as he grinded through 5 1/3 frames on Saturday to help the Lobos to the win. Lively reached the century mark in pitches thrown (105) for the fifth time this spring, while upping his season strikeout total to a team-leading 48.

ITURRALDE SCORELESS TWICE: Adolfo Iturralde continued his effective tenure on the mound in relief, delivering two more scoreless appearances over the weekend. The right-hander allowed just one hit in his combined one inning of work, lowering his season ERA to 2.57 across seven innings pitched.

KINKADE'S DOUBLE CRUCIAL: Konner Kinkade stepped up with a game-tying double in the ninth inning of Sunday's win, delivering the clutch knock in a pinch-hitting role. It was Kinkade's fourth double of the year, as he lifted his season batting average to .333 in 39 at-bats.

DITZENBERGER SIXTH IN HITTING: Despite limited playing time, Dylan Ditzenberger continues to rank among national leaders checking in at No. 6 in batting average at .441. That mark leads the conference, and he also ranks No. 26 in the NCAA with 1.62 hits per game.

TOD BROWN was named the head Lobo baseball coach on June 17, 2021 and is in his second season in charge of the program in 2023.

Brown came to New Mexico after a successful 14 years and 341 wins with North Dakota State. At the end of his tenure at NDSU, he was the second-winningest coach in program history and was the all-time leader in wins per season (24.4). In 2021, Brown led the Bison to the 2021 NCAA Tournament, winning their first Division I postseason game 6-1 over Mountain West opponent Nevada. In the same season, NDSU broke a school record with 20 Summit League victories, besting the previous mark of 19 set by his 2017 team, and posted an overall record of 42-19. The Bison also led the nation with 25 road wins and set school records in strikeouts (474) and putouts (1,567) in a single season.

Brown is no stranger to winning as he owns the two highest single season win totals in NDSU history (42 wins in 2021, 40 wins in 2012), and the only two 40-plus win seasons by the program. Brown also owns three of the top-five single-season win totals in NDSU history. Under Brown's leadership, NDSU played in five Summit League championship games, winning it outright in 2021 and 2014, and qualified for the league's baseball championship eight out of his last 11 years.

Brown took the helm of NDSU in 2008 and turned around a program that had faced three consecutive losing seasons, posting just 38 wins from 2005-07. In 2012, NDSU won a then-school-record 40 games, including an 8-2 win over a No. 5-ranked Arizona team that went on to win the 2012 College World Series. North Dakota State had a school-record .973 fielding percentage and posted a team ERA of 3.38, which was the program's lowest ERA in 37 years.

In 2016, the Bison posted a 29-25 overall record and set a record for home wins at Newman Outdoor Field with 17 victories. In addition, North Dakota State set a single season record in saves (17). NDSU defeated No. 19-ranked Minnesota on April 26 in Fargo, marking the second-ever win over an NCAA Division I top-25 opponent.

In the Summit League, Brown has coached two Summit League Players of the Year, one Summit League Newcomer of the Year, 46 All-Summit League selections, 22 Summit League Players of the Week, and 30 Summit League Pitchers of the Week. Under his leadership, Brown has also led players to two Collegiate Baseball Freshmen All-America selections and two College Baseball National Players of the Week.

Not only does Brown produce talent on the field, but also in the classroom. During his tenure at NDSU, Brown had three NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship Winners, one Senior CLASS Award All-America, one CoSIDA Academic All-America Athlete of the Year, nine CoSIDA Academic All-America selections, 11 CoSIDA Academic All-District selections, one Summit League Scholar-Athlete of the Year, 16 Summit League Academic All-League selections, and was twice honored by NCAA with Public Recognition for perfect APR scores (2012-13 and 2015-16).

The Tucson, Ariz., native was a left-handed pitcher for the Arizona Wildcats from 1989-94, leading the team in 1992 to a Pac-10 Championship. In 1993 he won six games and saved eight, setting a record with 35 appearances as Arizona fell one game short of the College World Series.

Brown then made a career out of coaching college ball in the northern tier of the country. He came to NDSU after eight seasons in Ohio as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator for Bowling Green State University.

During this time, he recruited or helped develop eight players who have reached the major leagues, including former UNM pitching standout Jamie Vermilyea, who played for the Lobos from 2001-03. This list also includes Jay Flaa, J.J. Hardy, and pitcher Tim Wood from Sabino High School, in Tucson, Ariz., outfielder Shelley Duncan and pitchers Josh Pearce and Ben Diggins at the University of Arizona, and pitcher Burke Badenhop and outfielder Nolan Reimold from Bowling Green.

After two years as the pitching coach at Sabino High School in Tucson, Ariz., Brown began his collegiate coaching career in 1999 as a volunteer assistant for Arizona. He worked with pitchers and catchers and was the first-base coach for the Wildcats, who qualified for an NCAA regional.

Brown was also a head coach for the San Francisco Seals of the California Coastal Collegiate League in the summer of 1999, compiling a 43-29 record and making a fourth-place finish in the National Baseball Congress World Series.

Brown and his wife Janet have a son, Brooks, and a daughter, Blake.

GAME SUMMARIES & BOX SCORES

GAME 1: OREGON STATE (FEB. 17 AT SURPRISE, AZ)

SURPRISE, Ariz. - Riley Egloff and Brian McBroom combined for 13 strikeouts on Friday afternoon at Surprise Stadium, propelling the New Mexico baseball team to a stunning 7-2 upset of No. 23 Oregon State University on opening day at the Sanderson Ford Classic.

Egloff earned the win, allowing just one run in his five innings of work, before McBroom tossed the final four frames to claim his first save of the year. "It all starts on mound, and we got a great start from Riley," said UNM head coach Tod Brown, whose team snapped a nine-game losing streak to the perennial powerhouse Beavers. "He threw three pitches for strikes today, competed in the zone, and challenged hitters. Defensively we were outstanding with no errors. We made all the plays, and that helps out our staff. Then Brian came in, threw four quality innings, and competed in the zone. They were both outstanding today."

The Lobos (1-0) racked up 14 hits, had runners on base in every inning, and took advantage of an uncharacteristic three errors by the Beavers (0-1) to grab momentum midway through the game. In his Lobo debut, Dylan Ditzenberger went 4-for-6 with three RBIs and a pair of runs scored. Newcomers Reed Spenrath, Jake Holland, and Deylan Pigford each also had hits in their Lobo debuts, while Jeffrey David delivered what proved to be the winning hit with a two-run single in the top of the fourth. "Offensively we were really good," said Brown. "We left a lot of runners on base early and had a lot more opportunities, but they're a good team and you can't get them all."

The Lobos overcame five runners left on base in the first three innings, as they threatened on multiple occasions but failed to break through before their three-run fourth. After that, UNM added one in the sixth, two in the seventh, and one in the eighth to solidify their first win over a ranked opponent since last year's 12-7 win over No. 11 Arizona on March 23, 2022. "It's huge for us," Brown said. "We've got to get off to good starts, and Riley certainly did that. When he got into trouble he didn't panic, and we played good quality baseball. The guys competed at a high level today."

Ditzenberger led the game off with his first hit in a Lobo uniform, and Lenny Junior Ashby drew a patient walk on a 3-2 pitch to give UNM a pair of baserunners in the top of the first. OSU starter Trent Sellers got out of the jam, but had to work hard to do so as he threw 25 pitches in the opening frame. Egloff, who led the team a season ago with 52 punch outs, got off to a good start with his first strikeout of the year amid a clean first inning.

Pigford took after Ditzenberger's lead and blasted a deep drive to the gap in right-center for a triple in the first at-bat of his Lobo career. Sellers shook off the one-out trouble however, ending the second inning with back-to-back strikeouts to keep the score at 0-0. "Our offense did what it needed to today," said Egloff. "Pigford put it in perspective with that first triple that we are here to play, and everyone was locked in. If we can do that every time, we are going to have a good season. When the pitching and offense are both doing their job, it makes it easy to go on the bump and give it your best."

The Beavers struck first in the bottom of the second, with the first home run of the year by Gavin Turley kicking off a string of three consecutive hits with one out. Egloff did well to limit the damage, stranding two runners on base and ending the inning with the score at 1-0.

GAME 2: UC SANTA BARBARA (FEB. 18 AT SURPRISE, AZ)

SURPRISE, Ariz. - Tristin Lively struck out seven hitters in six shutout innings of work Saturday evening at Surprise Stadium, pitching the New Mexico baseball team to a 3-1 victory over UC Santa Barbara at the Sanderson Ford College Classic.

Lively was remarkably efficient in his debut outing of the 2023 season, needing just 74 pitches to get through his six frames of work. The right-hander earned his seventh-career victory, scattering four hits and issuing just one walk. "Baseball is all dictated by the starting pitcher, and after the first hitter he was really good," said UNM head coach Tod Brown. "He settled in and threw a lot of strikes, and the defense made all the plays they were supposed to."

After issuing a walk – his only free pass of the afternoon – to the leadoff hitter, Lively settled into a groove and was lights out. "We have a great team, and I had confidence in the defense behind us and the pitches being called," said Lively, a fifth-year Lobo senior. "I went out there and tried to attack the zone, and make as many quality pitches as I could."

Wil Bannister earned a six-out save in his first outing as a Lobo, allowing just one baserunner to seal UNM's second straight victory to start the season.

The Gauchos (1-1) received an equally impressive outing from starter Matt Ager, who finished with a career-high 10 strikeouts in six innings of work. Alex Schrier and Nick Welch combined to keep the Lobos quiet over the final three innings, but the big third inning proved to be enough to lift UNM to the win. "Their starter was really good," said Brown. "We had some tough at-bats, then made some adjustments and got a rally there. At that time we didn't know it would be enough to win, but our guys competed at high level and our bullpen did a nice job as well. I'm very happy for the guys, and the message to them was to stay hungry and stay humble."

Dylan Ditzenberger stayed red hot atop the lineup, picking up two more hits to push his total to 6-for-9 through the first two games of the year. Lenny Junior Ashby was 2-for-3 and had the game-winning hit in the third inning, but no other Lobo had more than one hit in the quiet offensive game. "Having a guy like Ditz both in the box and at third is huge for us," Lively said on the Lobo newcomer. "I know anything hit his way he's going to make the play and the great effort. Having plays like that amps you up and keeps you in the game."

The Lobos (2-0) dodged a bullet in the bottom of the first inning, when an apparent 2-run home run off the bat of Christian Kirtley was overruled and called a foul ball. Ditzenberger then then took away what would have been an RBI-single with a leaping snag of a line drive, and Lively finished the inning with a punch out to keep the game scoreless. "Coach (Michael) Lopez talks to us about not being emotional on the mound," said Llvely. "I shook off the first batter and the weird home run call, and went back to work. I tried to stay on the attack, and keep my head up."

Ager continued to cruise early, striking out the side in the top of the second on just 10 pitches.

GAME SUMMARIES & BOX SCORES

GAME 3: OREGON STATE (FEB. 19 AT SURPRISE, AZ)

SURPRISE, Ariz. - Pulling away in its final at-bat on Sunday afternoon at Surprise Stadium, No. 23 Oregon State University topped the New Mexico baseball team 14-6 on Day 3 of the Sanderson Ford College Classic.

The Beavers (2-1) led just 7-6 after seven innings of play, but blew the game open with a seven-run eighth inning in what proved to be the difference. OSU's Tanner Smith had a grand slam in the momentum-changing inning, as the Beavers avenged Friday's 7-2 loss to the Lobos. "We were playing at an extremely high level, and ran into some pitching issues in the late innings," said UNM head coach Tod Brown. "I am proud of how the guys came out and competed. We just have to clean up in the bullpen, and be ready to go tomorrow."

The Lobos (2-1) got a third straight strong outing from their starting pitcher, this time riding a five-inning effort from right-hander Isaac Gallegos in his UNM debut. "He was really good, and had excellent command today," Brown said on the junior from Grants, N.M. "He had really good velocity and life on his breaking ball and changeup. He competed and gave us a good chance to win that game."

Jeffrey David hit the Lobos' first home run of the season, and finished the game 2-for-3 with three RBIs to lead UNM offensively. The Lobos stranded six runners on base in the game.

OSU starter Jaren Hunter worked around a one-out single by David in the first, coaxing a double-play ball off the bat of Lenny Junior Ashby to end the inning.

Ashby and Braydon Runion each did their part in a clean bottom of the first inning, making a pair of running catches to help Gallegos set the side down in order. After making his sliding catch in right field, Runion promptly led off the top of the second with a line-drive single on the first pitch from Hunter. Jake Holland smashed a single off the glove of Beaver third baseman Mikey Kane, and Justin Olson delivered an RBI-single to the gap in right center to give UNM a 1-0 advantage.

Gallegos faced his first test in the bottom of the second, when the Beavers placed runners at the corners with one out. After his first strikeout as a Lobo to get the first out of the inning, Gallegos struck out the final two he faced to strand a pair and keep UNM in front.

David had a pair of web gems in the third inning, twice making sliding stops in shallow right field to take a pair of hits away from the Beavers. Reed Spenrath displayed outstanding footwork on both plays, scrambling to get to the bag on the first and using all of his 6-foot-5 frame to snag David's throw on the second.

Runion laced his second knock of the game into left field to lead off the fourth, and Spenrath blasted a deep drive off the wall in left to double UNM's lead at 2-0. Dylan Ditzenberger extended his reached base streak to 17 games with a base hit in the top of the fifth, which set up David's two-run home run to left-center.

GAME 4: MINNESOTA (FEB. 20 AT SURPRISE, AZ)

SURPRISE, Ariz. - In a game filled with clutch, dramatic moments, New Mexico junior Sean Stephens delivered the final blow as his walk-off single in the bottom of the 12th inning lifted the Lobos to a 4-3 win over Minnesota in the finale of the Sanderson Ford College Baseball Classic at Surprise Stadium on Monday.

After working ahead in the count 2-1 against Minnesota reliever Connor Wietegrefe – who had allowed just three hits in 3 2/3 shutout innings of work to that point – Stephens punched a line drive into the gap in right-center that was deep enough to score Chase Weissenborn from second base and end the four-hour affair. "I was hoping I could get the job done, and I just wanted another chance after the 10th," Stephens said referencing his fly out in the 10th inning with the winning run at second. "My second time up I told myself to see the ball better and be more simple with it, and not try to do too much. It was super fun when I got to first and looked over at my teammates who were getting hyped. It was an adrenaline rush."

Stephens' first-career walk-off hit came after the biggest defensive play of the season in the top of the inning. With a runner on third and one out, Jeffrey David caught a line drive before firing a strike to home plate from right field for a double play that prevented the Gophers from taking the lead. "That ball was a top-spun line drive that I caught on the run, and I had momentum going in," David said. "Kyle (Smith) made a great play on the short hop, and it was a great play all around."

Lenny Junior Ashby's first home run of the year was equally as important as Stephens' walk-off hit, as it came with the Lobos trailing 2-1 in the bottom of the eighth inning. On a day where he had a career-high four hits, Weissenborn got the eighth inning started with his third hit of the day. That set the table for Ashby to win an eight-pitch at-bat against Gopher reliever Seth Clauson and blast the 3-2 pitch over the fence in right field for a 2-run shot. "I told some of my teammates that was probably one of the best and most clutch at bats I've ever seen," Stephens said on Ashby's home run. "Their guy was throwing 94, and Lenny already hit two foul bombs in the same at bat. Watching the third one go out fair was incredible. It was a crazy at-bat."

Terrell Hudson earned his first win of the year and fourth in his Lobo career, throwing three shutout frames with three hits, a strikeout, and a walk to finish the game on the mound. UNM improved to 3-1 with the victory, while Minnesota slipped to 0-4 at the outset of its 2023 campaign.

David was 3-for-5 for UNM, Weissenborn was 4-for-5, and Deylan Pigford had a pair of hits in a game where the Lobos totaled 12 knocks and left eight on base.

Brady Counsell led the Gophers with a 4-for-5 performance at the plate, while Sam Hunt was 3-for-4 with two RBIs and two walks. Minnesota had 14 hits and 14 runners left on.

Hunt got the Gophers on the board in the top of the second inning, roping an RBI-double into the left-field corner to bring Riley Swenson across the plate. UNM starter Jaren Jackson did well to limit the damage to a single run, digging deep for back-to-back strikeouts and a ground out to strand two runners in scoring position.

GAME 5: NORTHERN COLORADO (FEB. 24 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Reed Spenrath hit three home runs in the first four innings on Friday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field, as the New Mexico baseball team blasted Northern Colorado 30-1 in the 2023 home opener.

The Lobos (4-1) used an eight-run second and a 10-run third inning to blow the game open right away, and never looked back on the way to tying the second-highest run total in program history.

Spenrath went 3-for-4 with six RBIs and three runs scored, and was the first Lobo to hit three homers in a game since Braydon Runion achieved the feat on April 15, 2022 against San Diego State. Jeffrey David had a career-high six RBIs and matched his career high with five hits, delivering a double and a triple.

Leadoff man Dylan Ditzenberger extended his reached base streak to 19 games, going 3-for-3 with a career-high four runs while adding three RBIs and stealing a base. Devon Dixon was 3-for-5 with a career-high four runs while hitting his first home run in a Lobo uniform and driving in three runs. Jake Holland also hit his first home run as a Lobo, as UNM tallied a season-high five long balls on the day.

Reigning Mountain West Pitcher of the Week Riley Egloff was magnificent again on the mound, allowing one hit and one walk while striking out eight in five shutout innings of work to earn his second win of the season. Egloff needed just 62 pitches to get through his efficient start, and he was one strikeout off his career high while earning his ninth-career victory.

Benjamin Baker-Livingston allowed one run on four hits with two strikeouts and no walks in three innings of relief, and Adolfo Iturralde struck out a pair in a scoreless ninth inning to finish the game.

Northern Colorado starter Ely Ruiz allowed 13 runs on 10 hits with two strikeouts and three walks in his 2 1/3 innings of work. Four relievers slogged through the Lobo lineup in a forgettable day of pitching for the visitors. No Bear had more than one hit in the game, as Northern Colorado managed just one run on five knocks while striking out 12 times. The Bears fell to 2-2 on the season with the lopsided loss.

New Mexico was one run away from tying the school record of 31, set on April 17, 2004 against Air Force. UNM also missed tying the single-game RBI record of 28 (which has been achieved three times) by one. The Lobos' 28 hits in the game were tied for sixth-most in single-game history, and UNM racked up 51 total bases on Friday.

Fifteen different New Mexico players had a hit, 13 scored at least one run, and a dozen drove in at least one run. Freshmen Caleb Herd and Akili Carris each recorded their first-career hits in the game, and freshman Dominic Felix also made his collegiate debut while picking up his first RBI.

In addition to the headline day at the plate, New Mexico was perfect defensively for the fifth consecutive game and has made zero errors in the first 47 defensive innings of the 2023 season.

GAME 6: NORTHERN COLORADO (FEB. 25 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Taking both ends of a doubleheader on Saturday at Santa Ana Star Field, New Mexico's baseball team topped visiting Northern Colorado twice to extend its winning streak to four games.

The Lobos (6-1) rallied late on their way to an 11-3 triumph in Game 1, before blowing the Bears away in an 18-2 rout in the seven-inning Game 2.

Braydon Runion homered in each game for UNM, finishing the day going 5-for-8 with four RBIs and four runs scored. Justin Olson hit his first home run of the year in Game 1, and Jake Holland added his first as a Lobo in Game 2. Lenny Junior Ashby led the team with eight RBIs in the doubleheader, as he went 4-for-8 at the plate on the day.

Dylan Ditzenberger extended his reached base streak to 20 games, going 3-for-5 with seven runs scored and adding three walks, a sacrifice fly, and a stolen base. A staff of four Lobo pitchers combined to strike out 12 hitters while issuing just one walk in the doubleheader, as Tristin Lively and Isaac Gallegos each earned victories on Saturday.

Northern Colorado (2-4) managed 16 hits in the doubleheader, with Jake King and Caden Wagner each hitting a solo home run in the second game.

Game 1 – New Mexico 11, Northern Colorado 3

The Lobos took the lead in the bottom of the first inning and never looked back, on the way to their third straight victory.

Lively and Northern Colorado starter Trey Cruz duked it out over the first four innings, with UNM holding a narrow 2-1 advantage. After Cruz struck out six UNM hitters in his first four frames, the Lobos got to him in the fifth and drove him from the game with two on and one out. Runion followed with an RBI-single to make the score 4-1, and New Mexico piled on from there with seven runs over its final three innings.

Lively got through six innings of work, allowing two runs on eight hits with six strikeouts and no walks to earn his second victory of the season. Brian McBroom tossed the final three innings to collect his second save of the year, allowing one run on three hits with a strikeout and no walks.

Zack Herrick and Jake Storey combined to throw the final 3 2/3 innings for the Bears, allowing seven runs on five hits with eight walks and two strikeouts.

King, Austin Bunn, and Wagner each had a pair of hits for Northern Colorado, as it totaled 11 knocks, three RBIs, and six runners left on base in Game 1.

GAME 7: NORTHERN COLORADO (FEB. 25 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

Game 2 – New Mexico 18, Northern Colorado 2 (7 Innings)

In his second start in a Lobo uniform, Isaac Gallegos allowed two runs on two hits with four strikeouts and a walk in five innings. The Grants, N.M., native earned his first victory pitching for UNM, and the 16th of his collegiate career overall.

The Lobos didn't waste any time offensively, plating three runs in the bottom of the first including Runion's second home run of the day. UNM added five more in the second, with the rally highlighted by a two-run triple off the bat of Jeffrey David.

UNM left no doubt with a six-run fourth inning, which featured key knocks from Ashby and Holland to put the game out of reach.

Veteran left-hander Arthur Steinkamp tossed the final two innings for UNM, allowing three hits while striking out one and walking none in his 2023 season debut.

LOBO NOTES: UNM is now 30-10 all-time against Northern Colorado and is 30-9 in home games against the Bears...the Lobos' 12 walks drawn in Game 1 Saturday were the most in a game by the team since it drew 11 on May 7, 2022 against Nevada...the Lobos' streak of consecutive innings without an error came to an end in the second inning of Game 1, after UNM started the 2023 campaign with 48 straight frames of spotless defense...Ditzenberger matched his career single-game best for runs scored for the second game in-a-row, leading the Lobos with four runs in Game 1...Olson's home run in Game 1 was the fifth of his UNM career and the 12th of his collegiate career overall...with his two home runs Saturday, Runion upped his Lobo career total to 15 and his overall college career total to 31...Game 2 marked the second time in Ashby's UNM career he has reached five RBIs, as he achieved the feat on April 29, 2022...his collegiate high is six, which he achieved on Feb. 29, 2021 during his career at Odessa College...Holland was one RBI off his collegiate high of five, which he set on Jan. 28, 2022 during his career at Chipola College...Spenrath matched his career high with three walks in Game 2...UNM is off to its best start since going 6-1 at the outset of the 2016 campaign.

GAME 8: ST. BONAVENTURE (MARCH 3 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. -Jake Holland and Reed Spenrath combined for three home runs and eight RBIs on Friday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field, propelling the New Mexico baseball team to a 14-4 run-rule victory over visiting St. Bonaventure in the opening game of the series.

Holland homered twice and drove in five runs, while Spenrath reached base five times, including his team-leading fourth home run of the year. The big offensive output backed senior ace Riley Egloff, who won his third straight game with a season-high seven innings of work.

Deylan Pigford was 3-for-5 at the plate, and had the winning hit in the bottom of the eighth as he nudged the Lobos ahead by double figures. UNM won its fifth consecutive game, and improved to 7-1 on the 2023 season.

St. Bonaventure lost its fifth straight game to start the season, but gave the Lobos a scare with a four-run second inning to jump ahead. Jackson DeJohn's first home run of the season was a two-run shot during the rally, and Mark Darakjy and Artin Biageyian followed with RBIs to spot the visitors the early advantage.

Egloff shook off a laborious second inning, and put up five straight zeroes after that. The right hander allowed four runs on seven hits with five strikeouts and no walks in his seven innings of work.

Devon Dixon helped Egloff to a clean top of the first inning, making a diving back-hand stop and throwing out Adam Rankie by a half step in the defensive play of the day. It was 1 of 6 plays made by Dixon on the day, who was stellar both at second base and at shortstop in the late innings.

Lenny Junior Ashby extended his hitting streak to 14 games with a knock in the bottom of the first, but SBU starter Bryce Hediger ended the frame with a strikeout.

The Bonnies struck in the top of the second inning, when Thomas Grilli punched a one-out double into the left-field corner and DeJohn followed with a home run to left-center. Darakjy delivered an RBI-triple to center, and Biageyian executed a squeeze bunt to perfection to make the score 4-0.

New Mexico responded in the bottom of the third, with an RBI-single off the bat of Ashby getting his team on the board. Spenrath followed with a three-run home run to left field to tie the score, and Dixon delivered an RBI-single to give the Lobos their first lead of the day.

Braydon Runion led off the fifth with a single, and an ensuing walk issued to Spenrath spelled the end of the line for Hediger. The right-hander allowed five runs on eight hits with one strikeout and three walks in his four innings of work.

Holland's second home run of the year was a no-doubter to left-center, with his towering three-run drive crashing off the top of The Pit. UNM added two more on an RBI-single by Dylan Ditzenberger and an RBI-double by Jeffrey David to make the score 11-4.

GAME SUMMARIES & BOX SCORES

GAME 9: ST. BONAVENTURE (MARCH 4 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Responding to a Game 1 loss to visiting St. Bonaventure on Saturday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field, the New Mexico Baseball team's bats came alive in the nightcap of a doubleheader split.

The Bonnies (1-6) jumped on the Lobos for a 17-8 win in the opener, before UNM responded with a resounding 20-3 triumph to move its record on the season to 8-2.

Dylan Ditzenberger and Braydon Runion each went 5-for-8 in the doubleheader, with the latter driving in six runs and hitting his third home run of the season. Jake Holland was 3-for-9 in the doubleheader with his third home run of the series and fourth of the season, and Chase Weissenborn went 2-for-5 with four runs scored and 10 plays without an error on defense.

Jaren Jackson earned his first win in a Lobo uniform, going six strong innings in the nightcap to lead his team to victory.

Game 1 – St. Bonaventure 17, New Mexico 8

SBU's Danny Manion was 5-for-5 with seven RBIs, homering twice to help the Bonnies set the tone and run away with the opening game of the doubleheader.

UNM starter Tristin Lively battled early command struggles in the top of the first, using a double play turned by Jeffrey David and Weissenborn to work around a walk and a hit batter.

SBU starter Gabe Watts worked around an error in the bottom of the first, and got through a bases-loaded jam with a pair of strikeouts and a ground out to keep the game scoreless.

Just as they did on Friday in the series opener, the Bonnies struck first in the top of the second inning. Manion's first hit of the season was a loud one, as he crushed a two-run home run over the fence in left field to put SBU up 2-0. Jayce Tharnish followed with a ground-rule double on a deep drive to left-center, Adam Rankie drove in a run with a sacrifice fly to center, and Jack Putney made the score 5-0 with a two-out, RBI-double that reached the wall in left. The big blow proved to end Lively's day early, as the senior righty went two innings in his second start of the year.

Manion struck again in the top of the third, hitting an 0-2 pitch well over the fence in left to up his team's lead to 7-0. After a clean bottom of the third by Watts, his offense rewarded him with two more runs including Manion's fifth RBI of the game on a single.

Holland's third home run of the series kick-started a five-run fourth inning, as he turned around on an inside pitch for a two-run shot to left field. Lenny Junior Ashby extended his hitting streak to 15 games with a clutch, two-out two-run single, and Runion capped the rally with an RBI-single to cut the deficit to 11-5 after the fourth inning.

GAME 10: ST. BONAVENTURE (MARCH 4 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

Game 2 – New Mexico 20, St. Bonaventure 3 (7 Innings)

Runion was 4-for-4 with five RBIs by the fourth inning, as he stood out in a game where UNM was ahead 11-2 after the first inning and never looked back. Jackson allowed three runs – two earned – on three hits with four strikeouts and one walk in his six innings of work. Wil Bannister finished the game off with a perfect seventh inning, as UNM claimed the run-rule victory for the second day in-a-row.

Tharnish led off the game with a double to right field, helping the Bonnies capitalize for a pair of runs early to take a 2-0 lead.

The early mishap was quickly brushed away however, as UNM scored a season-high single-inning total of 11 runs in the bottom of the first. The frame included RBIs by five different players, six hits, and two errors by the Bonnies. SBU starter Noah Czajkowksi was driven from the game after recording just one out.

UNM added three more runs in the second, with Runion crushing his second double of the game off the wall in right to make him 3-for-3 with three RBIs through the first two frames of the game. The senior slugger blasted a two-run home run over the fence in left in the bottom of the fourth, amid a three-run inning to make the score 19-2.

Jackson put together a stretch of 11 consecutive batters retired in the first-through fourth innings, before using a double play turned by Weissenborn and Konner Kinkade and his third strikeout of the day to get through the fifth.

LOBO NOTES: UNM is now 2-1 all-time against St. Bonaventure...the first inning in Game 2 was the second time this season UNM has scored 10 or more runs in an inning...the Lobos plated 10 runs in the bottom of the third inning against Northern Colorado on Feb. 24...the 11 runs tied the program record for most runs scored in the bottom of the first inning, matching the mark set by the team on March 25, 1976 against Colorado State... Ditzenberger extended his reached base streak to 24 games, as he reached in both ends of the doubleheader...Ashby's hitting streak came to an end in Game 2, as he went 0-for-1 with a pair of walks.

UP NEXT: The series concludes on Sunday with a noon first pitch scheduled for the fourth and final game. The Lobos will then face a quick turnaround with a Tuesday afternoon road game at No. 24 Texas Tech – their final game before beginning Mountain West Conference play next week at home against Air Force.

GAME 11: ST. BONAVENTURE (MARCH 5 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - A stellar start by Isaac Gallegos was backed by another stalwart offensive performance as New Mexico's baseball team scored early and often in a 16-6 run-rule victory over St. Bonaventure on Sunday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field.

The Lobos (9-2) were up 15-0 after the third inning, plating 11 runs in the third inning to leave no doubt in the series finale between the teams. St. Bonaventure slipped to 1-7 on the season with the defeat, and the Lobos claimed the four-game set 3-1.

Gallegos earned his second win in a Lobo uniform with a rock-solid 64-pitch outing that covered five innings of work. The right-hander scattered three hits in his shutout performance, while striking out five and walking none.

Gallegos found his groove from the start, striking out a pair of hitters in the top of the first inning. Jeffrey David blasted a one-out double into the left-field corner in the bottom of the inning, and Braydon Runion put the Lobos ahead 1-0 with his fifth consecutive hit.

The Lobos played solid defense in the top of the second, with Chase Weissenborn making a head's up play to catch the lead runner at third base on a routine ground ball. Deylan Pigford then chased down a deep drive in left-center, negotiating with the sun to secure his first catch of the game.

After a one-out walk to Pigford in the bottom of the second, Devon Dixon delivered his second home run of the season with a no-doubt shot to left field to put the Lobos ahead 3-0. David kept his hot bat alive, following Dixon's homer with an RBI-triple after Weissenborn legged out an infield single.

Dixon had the defensive play of the day in the top of the third, handling a tricky hop on a sharp ground ball that took him into center field before gunning down Jayce Tharnish by half a step.

Runion led off the big third inning with a double, and Kyle Smith drove his first home run of the season deep over the fence in center to make the score 7-0. Smith's homer drove SBU starter Andrew Ayers from the game, after allowing seven runs on eight hits with two strikeouts and two walks. Dylan Ditzenberger extended his reached base streak to 25 games with his first home run of the season, a two-run shot over the fence in right that made the score 10-0. Reed Spenrath added a two-run double, Pigford delivered a two-run triple, and Dixon ended the 11-run frame by just missing his second home run with an RBI-double off the top of the wall to make the score 15-0.

Lenny Junior Ashby punched a double into left center with one out in the fourth, giving every Lobo starter at least one hit and one run scored in the blowout victory.

GAME 12: TEXAS TECH (MARCH 7 AT LUBBOCK, TX)

LUBBOCK, Texas - In its first midweek game of the 2023 season, New Mexico's baseball team battled tough in a 6-3 loss at Texas Tech on Tuesday afternoon on Dan Law Field.

The Red Raiders (12-2) scored three runs in the second and three more in the fourth, and made the two scoring bursts hold up on the way to their 11th consecutive home victory to start the season.

New Mexico moved to 9-3 on the season, scoring in the second, third, and seventh innings in its final non-conference game before beginning Mountain West play at home this weekend. Lenny Junior Ashby hit his second home run of the season, and was 3-for-4 with a walk to lead the UNM offense.

The Lobos threatened in the top of the first inning, loading the bases with a walk and a hit batter sandwiching a single off the bat of Braydon Runion. TTU starter Zach Erdman buckled down and got through the jam, stranding all three runners with a harmless flyout off the bat of slugger Jake Holland.

Making his first start of the season, UNM's Wil Bannister delivered a clean first inning. Dylan Ditzenberger extended his reached base streak to 26 games with a two-out single in the top of the second, and Jeffrey David delivered an RBI-single to put the Lobos ahead 1-0.

The Red Raiders responded in the bottom of the second, as Dillon Carter drilled a two-run double into the right-center gap to put his team in front. Texas Tech drove Bannister from the game by loading the bases, and Lobo reliever Arthur Steinkamp did well to limit the damage getting out of the inning with a line out and a strikeout with the Lobos trailing 3-1.

After Runion drew a walk, Deylan Pigford roped a two-out double into the gap in right-center to get a run back for the Lobos in the top of the third inning.

A leadoff single off the bat of Gavin Kash was erased by a double play, as Steinkamp used his defense and his second strikeout of the day to put up a zero in the bottom of the third. Runion came through with a run-saving throw from right field in the bottom of the fourth, unleashing a perfect strike to home plate to nab Will Burns. Kevin Bazzell delivered a two-run double though, and Texas Tech turned it into a three-run frame to pull ahead 6-2.

Chase Weissenborn got the bottom of the sixth started with a web gem, twirling behind the bag in center field and throwing to Spenrath at first in time to nab Nolen Hester at first base.

New Mexico got a run back with Ashby's solo home run to lead off the seventh, but a double play turned by the Red Raiders helped curtail the threat after another single from Runion. Pigford walked and then stole second and third in the eighth, but he was stranded 90 feet from home. UNM managed a final hit in the ninth, but left the tying run in the on-deck circle as Texas Tech closed out the game.

GAME SUMMARIES & BOX SCORES

GAME 13: AIR FORCE (MARCH 10 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Outlasting host New Mexico in a 10-inning affair Friday night at Santa Ana Star Field, visiting Air Force claimed a 9-7 victory in the teams' opening Mountain West Conference game of the 2023 season.

Reed Spenrath hit a game-tying, two-run home run in the bottom of the ninth inning, but the Falcons spoiled the big swing of the bat by loading the bases in the 10th and plating two runs to seal the win. AFA improved to 5-9 on the season and is now 1-0 in conference play, while UNM dropped to 9-4 overall and 0-1 in league action.

Spenrath finished 3-for-5 with three runs scored, and Jake Holland also homered while driving in three runs. Dylan Ditzenberger was 4-for-5 in the leadoff spot for UNM, as that trio accounted for nine of the team's 14 hits in the game.

Sam Kulasingam, Chase Spencer, Trayden Tamiya, and Landon Boyd each had a pair of hits for the visitors, who tallied 12 knocks in the opening game of the series.

New Mexico played from behind the entire game, as Air Force jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the top of the first and never trailed. Air Force's big first inning came with two outs, as a pair of walks and doubles by Spencer and Tamiya pushed the visitors ahead 3-0 off the bat.

Ditzenberger didn't waste any time extending his reached-base streak to 27 games, drawing a leadoff walk in the first. Air Force starter Doyle Gehring bounced back, retiring the next three hitters including a pair of strikeouts to put up a zero. Gehring wound up going six innings in the no-decision, striking out nine to go against a pair of walks and allowing four runs on seven hits.

UNM starter Riley Egloff shook off the big first inning, and cruised through the Falcons in order in the second while capping the frame with his first strikeout of the day.

Spenrath led off the bottom of the second with a single, and Holland sneaked his fifth long ball of the year just over the right-field wall to get UNM on the board.

The Falcons responded in the top of the third, when Jake Greiving hit a one-out double off the wall in center and Spencer drove him in with a base hit. Air Force struck again in the fourth, with a sacrifice fly off the bat of Greiving making the score 5-2.

Ditzenberger punched a one-out double into the left-field corner in the bottom of the fifth, and Lenny Junior Ashby sent a laser into the gap in right-center to help UNM get a run back and cut the deficit to 5-3.

GAME 14: AIR FORCE (MARCH 11 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Tristin Lively threw a career-high 8 1/3 shutout innings on Saturday night at Santa Ana Star Field, and the New Mexico offense took care of the rest in a 15-0 drubbing of Mountain West foe Air Force.

Lively earned his third victory of the season and the ninth of his career with the Lobos, striking out six and walking one while allowing just three hits in the masterful performance. "It feels amazing," said Lively, who was coming off an outing last week in which he didn't make it out of the second inning. "You just have to go back every day and continue to work. That's what I try to do, and it paid off. It felt great to get out there and do my thing."

Lively was backed by superb defense from the Lobos, specifically in the infield with Devon Dixon, Chase Weissenborn, and Dylan Ditzenberger combining to make 14 plays behind him. Dixon matched his collegiate career high with six assists at second base, and had some of the biggest defensive plays of the night. "We have a bunch of big-league fielders for sure," Lively said. "Dev makes every play that he makes look easy, and that was on display tonight. It's fantastic having all those guys make great plays."

In addition to his four assists on the night, Weissenborn matched his career high in hits as he went 4-for-4 at the plate with three RBIs and a pair of runs scored. "I was struggling a bit with my swing, so I showed up early with Coach (Nate) Causey today to hit on the field and I made some adjustments," Weissenborn said. "I started feeling comfortable. Once I got in the box, I was just trying to compete for my guys and do anything I could to bring home a win for the team. The main thing is to compete, see the ball up, and put a good swing on it."

Deylan Pigford was 3-for-4 with three runs scored, and Jeffrey David and Braydon Runion had a pair of hits each. All nine Lobos in the lineup scored a run, while eight different players had hits and seven players had RBIs. New Mexico improved to 10-4 on the season with the victory, and claimed its first Mountain West win of the year to move its conference record to 1-1.

After winning the series opener 9-7 in 10 innings on Friday night, Air Force's offense was silenced with just three hits on Saturday. The Falcons fell to 5-10 on the season and are also 1-1 in conference play.

New Mexico showed off the leather in the top of the first inning, with three infielders each making stellar plays. Dixon handled a sharply-hit ground ball up the middle and Reed Spenrath swiped up a short hop for the second out of the frame. Ditzenberger then laid out fully to his left to snag a sharp line drive and make it a 1-2-3 inning for Lively. "Hats off to Dixon," Weissenborn said. "He makes all the hard plays look so easy, and he's one of the most talented guys I've played with. It's really fun knowing we have that weapon, and it's a blast playing next to him."

David, who entered the week ranked fifth in the NCAA in triples, added his fourth of the season in the bottom of the first before Lenny Junior Ashby plated him with a ground ball to make the score 1-0.

GAME 15: AIR FORCE (MARCH 12 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - An eight-run first inning proved to be the difference on Sunday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field, as the New Mexico baseball team took down visiting Air Force 11-4 to claim a 2-1 victory in its first Mountain West Conference series of the 2023 season.

Lobo right-hander Isaac Gallegos pitched into the seventh inning on Sunday, striking out six while allowing four runs on five hits with three walks to earn his third victory of the season. Terrell Hudson struck out two hitters in two scoreless frames, and Wil Bannister finished the game with a shutout ninth inning for UNM.

Reed Spenrath hit his team-leading sixth home run of the year in the bottom of the eighth, with the two-run shot clearing the hitter's eye and giving momentum back to the Lobos after the Falcons had rallied for four unanswered runs. Braydon Runion hit his fourth home run of the year in the fourth inning, highlighting a 17-hit performance by the Lobo offense. New Mexico improved to 11-4 with the victory, and is now 2-1 in conference play.

Air Force starter Shim Seungmin recorded just one out, as the Lobos jumped on the righty with five consecutive hits to start the ballgame. Relievers Duke Benge, Zach Peters, and Ben Weber did well to limit the conference's leading offense to just four runs the rest of the game, but the damage was done by the end of the first inning. Air Force slipped to 5-11 with the loss, and is now 1-2 in league action.

Gallegos shook off a hit batter in the first inning, fielding his own position and getting help from left fielder Deylan Pigford and second baseman Devon Dixon to put up a zero.

The Lobos were hot from the start, with the first seven batters reaching base and UNM scoring eight runs on nine hits in the lengthy bottom of the first inning. Lenny Junior Ashby drove in the first run of the game with a single to right, and Runion, Jake Holland, Dixon, Chase Weissenborn, and Jeffrey David all had RBIs in the inning as well.

Gallegos fed off the momentum in the top of the second, striking out the side and shaking off the Falcons' first hit of the game off the bat of Trayden Tamiya.

Benge tamed the Lobo bats after the shaky first inning, allowing just two runs in his 3 2/3 innings of work while striking out three hitters.

Runion added to UNM's lead in the bottom of the fourth, turning around on an inside pitch for a solo home run that just stayed fair inside the left-field foul pole.

GAME 16: GRAND CANYON (MARCH 14 AT PHOENIX, AZ)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - A back-and-forth slugfest went the way of host Grand Canyon on Tuesday afternoon at Brazell Field, as the Antelopes topped the New Mexico baseball team 11-8 in the midweek non-conference affair.

Reed Spenrath hit UNM's first grand slam of the season in the first inning, but the hosts used a six-run third to swipe momentum on their way to the victory. UNM slipped to 11-5 on the season with the defeat, while Grand Canyon improved to 12-4 after the only meeting between the teams this spring.

The Lobos got off to a hot start against GCU right-hander Isaac Lyon, with consecutive singles by Jeffrey David, Lenny Junior Ashby, and Braydon Runion loading the bases with one out in the first. That set the stage for Spenrath's team-leading seventh home run of the year, as he sent a towering fly ball over the fence in right-center to put his team in front.

The Lopes got a run back in the bottom of the inning, when a two-out double by Jacob Wilson was followed by an RBI-single off the bat of Zach Yorke to make the score 4-1.

David delivered a two-out, RBI-double into the right-center gap in the top of the second, as he brought Chase Weissenborn home from first and got the run back for the Lobos. UNM starter Jaren Jackson settled into a groove in the bottom of the second, using a pair of strikeouts to collect his first 1-2-3 inning of the ballgame.

Yorke came through with two outs once again in the third, drilling an RBI-double to the wall in right field. Cade Verdusco, Tyler Wilson, and Josh Buckley each followed with RBI knocks, as GCU scored six runs with two outs to take a 7-5 lead. That spelled the end of the day for Jackson, who took the no-decision allowing seven runs on seven hits with three strikeouts and a pair of walks in his third start of the year.

David pulled the Lobos even in the top of the fourth, with a two-run home run to center to make it a 7-7 ballgame, but Verdusco countered with a three-run home run in the bottom of the inning as the back-and-forth affair tilted back to the Lopes 10-7.

In his second inning of work, Lobo reliever Benjamin Baker-Livingston retired the Lopes in order as he used a good play by Weissenborn on a grounder up the middle and his second strikeout to put a zero on the scoreboard. The right-hander connected a sting of six straight hitters retired, and stranded a runner on third to end the sixth thanks in large part to a diving catch by Deylan Pigford in left field. Baker-Livingston allowed three runs on three hits with three strikeouts and a walk in his three innings of work.

David was robbed of a double in the top of the seventh, as Verdusco leapt to snag a deep drive that likely would have scored Dylan Ditzenberger from first base. Runion followed with an RBI-single, but the GCU pitching staff stranded two runners in scoring position with a pair of strikeouts to hang on to a 10-8 advantage.

GAME 17: FRESNO STATE (MARCH 17 AT FRESNO, CA)

FRESNO, Calif. - A five-run bottom of the fourth inning by host Fresno State proved to be the difference on Friday evening at Pete Beiden Field, as the Bulldogs rode a stellar start by Ixan Henderson to a 5-3 Mountain West win over the New Mexico baseball team.

The Lobos started with a two-run first inning, but didn't score again until the ninth as the visitors were otherwise-baffled by the Fresno State ace. In his seven innings of work, Henderson struck out eight while allowing just one walk and scattering eight hits. After five of the Lobos' first six hitters reached base to start the game, Henderson only allowed four baserunners over his final 6 2/3 innings of work.

Dylan Ditzenberger went 4-for-5 in the game, extending his reached base streak to 31 games, his hitting streak to 13 games, and raising his season batting average to .500. UNM brought the tying run to the plate in the top of the ninth, but FSU closer Tommy Hopfe recorded his Mountain West leading fifth save of the season to secure the win for the hosts. New Mexico slipped to 11-6 with the loss and is now 2-2 in conference play.

Nico Mitchell and Payton Allen each had two hits for Fresno State, which did all of its scoring with six total hits while stranding just four runners on base. FSU improved to 9-7 on the season and evened its conference record at 3-3 with the win.

New Mexico wasted no time jumping out to a lead, with Ditzenberger and Jeffrey David leading the game off with back-to-back hits. Braydon Runion followed with an RBI-single, and Jake Holland made the score 2-0 with an RBI-single.

UNM starter Riley Egloff followed with a clean bottom of the first, ending the frame with his first strikeout. The senior right-hander struck out two more hitters in the second, and used a quick pickoff move in the third to erase the Bulldogs' only baserunner to that point in the game.

Mitchell, the Bulldogs' leadoff man, broke the hitless string for the hosts, leading off the bottom of the fourth with a base hit into shallow right field. That led to an RBI-single by Hopfe, and Bobby Blandford capped the five-run inning with a two-out, two-run home run to put Fresno State ahead 5-2.

Henderson retired a string of seven hitters into the seventh inning, before Ditzenberger shot the gap in right-center for his third hit of the ballgame. The left-hander shook off the hit however, stranding the runner in scoring position with a strikeout and a fly out to push his team six outs away from a series-opening win.

Egloff got the first two outs in the seventh inning, before a knock by Mitchell signaled the end of the night for the senior. Egloff allowed five runs on five hits with six strikeouts and a pair of walks in his 6 2/3 innings of work.

The Lobos got the tying run to the plate in the eighth, but Bulldog pitcher Jack Anker got out of the jam with a strikeout to keep his team in front by three.

GAME 18: FRESNO STATE (MARCH 18 AT FRESNO, CA)

FRESNO, Calif. - Tommy Hopfe delivered a heartbreaking walk-off single in the bottom of the ninth inning on Saturday evening at Pete Beiden Field, giving host Fresno State a 9-8 comeback win over the New Mexico baseball team in Mountain West play.

The Lobos were one strike away from securing an 8-7 victory and evening the weekend series, before the improbable rally took shape. Travis Welker punched a single into center field, and an ensuing hit batter and walk loaded the bases for Hopfe. After working a full count, he muscled the game-winning hit into the left-center gap to easily score two runs without a play at home plate.

The final score marked the only time in the game that Fresno State led, as UNM scored early and held the advantage nearly the entire night. The bitter defeat dropped the Lobos' record to 11-7 and 2-3 in conference play. Fresno State meanwhile improved to 10-7 on the year and is now 4-3 in Mountain West action.

Devon Dixon hit a grand slam in the second inning and Kyle Smith added a home run, but the Lobos stranded 10 runners on base in the game.

Dylan Ditzenberger beat out a slow chopper to first base to lead off the game, before coming around to score on a passed ball, a ground out by Jeffrey David, and a wild pitch to make the score 1-0. The Bulldogs countered right away, when Payton Allen punched a two-out, RBI-single into right-center in the bottom of the first to tie the score.

Singles in succession from Reed Spenrath, Smith, and Deylan Pigford set the table for Dixon in the top of the second, and the junior turned around on an inside pitch to blast it over the fence in left-center and give UNM a 5-1 lead.

Smith smashed a low line drive to left field in the top of the fourth, and watched it just carry over the wall to add a run to the Lobos' lead. UNM kept the rally going and loaded the bases with two outs, before Lenny Junior Ashby drove in his team-leading 24th run of the season with a walk to make the score 7-4.

After notching his fourth strikeout of the game in the bottom of the fifth, a two-out single by Welker ended the day for UNM starter Tristin Lively who gave way to Jaren Jackson. Lively wound up allowing four runs – two earned – on 10 hits with four strikeouts and a pair of walks in the no decision.

New Mexico threatened to extend its lead in the top of the sixth, loading the bases with two outs. But Fresno State reliever Zach Statzer kept his composure and stranded all three runners with a harmless pop up to center field. The Bulldogs followed by loading the bases in the bottom of the inning, and Bobby Blandford delivered a two-out, three-run double to tie the score at 7-7.

Ditzenberger came through with a clutch, two-out RBI-single in the top of the seventh, as he brought home Chase Weissenborn from second after the Lobo shortstop singled and advanced on a wild pitch. Brian McBroom used a pair of good defensive plays by Spenrath at first and a strikeout to post a shutdown inning in the bottom of the seventh, before Wil Bannister entered and struck out two hitters in a clean eighth inning.

GAME SUMMARIES & BOX SCORES

GAME 19: FRESNO STATE (MARCH 19 AT FRESNO, CA)

FRESNO, Calif. - Isaac Gallegos struck out a season-high seven hitters in eight stellar innings on Sunday afternoon at Pete Beiden Field, pitching the New Mexico baseball team to a 7-2 Mountain West Conference win over Fresno State in the series finale.

The junior right-hander scattered six hits while walking just one on the way to his fourth win of the season. "He was outstanding," said UNM head coach Tod Brown. "We didn't play great defense behind him, but he went out and competed to give us a good chance to win."

The Lobos snapped a three-game losing streak with the victory, lifting their record to 12-7 on the season and an even 3-3 in Mountain West play. "Last night was about as difficult of a loss as I've ever had," Brown said on UNM's 9-8 defeat on Saturday night. "To bounce back the way we did today was huge."

Jeffrey David went 2-for-3 including a big two-run single during the Lobos' five-run second inning, which proved to be the difference in the ballgame. Dylan Ditzenberger was 2-for-5, Devon Dixon was 2-for-4 with his fourth home run of the season, and Chase Weissenborn had a pair of hits as well. "We capitalized with a couple of big hits," said Brown. "It all came together, and we took advantage of some mistakes and got some big hits."

Weissenborn had a stellar defensive play to get Gallegos out of a jam in the bottom of the first, scooping a tricky short hop up the middle and getting a hand from first baseman Reed Spenrath to complete an inning-ending double play.

The Lobos loaded the bases in the top of the second inning, with a single by Jake Holland sandwiched by walks to Braydon Runion and Deylan Pigford. Weissenborn delivered a two-run single to make the score 2-0, and Ditzenberger followed with an RBI-single to extend his reached base streak to 32 games and his hitting streak to 15 games. David capped the rally with a two-run single, as the Lobos pulled ahead 5-0.

The Bulldogs (10-8, 4-4 MW) took advantage of a fielding miscue in the bottom of the second to plate a pair of runs with two outs, but Gallegos bounced back with a 1-2-3 third inning including his second strikeout of the afternoon.

A leadoff single by Bobby Blandford in the fourth didn't bother Gallegos, who retired the next three hitters including ending the inning with his third strikeout to keep the score at 5-2 in favor of the Lobos.

After committing an error in the bottom of the fifth, Weissenborn made up for it with a run-saving play to end the inning. On a sharply struck ground ball off the bat of Grady Morgan, the junior dove to his back-hand side and made a strong throw to Spenrath just in time to nab the runner.

Gallegos used a double play in the sixth to face the minimum, and retired the final seven hitters that he faced to set UNM up three outs away from victory.

GAME 20: NEW MEXICO STATE (MARCH 21 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Despite one of its most well-pitched games of the 2023 season on Tuesday night at Santa Ana Star Field, the New Mexico baseball team came up empty in a 2-0 loss to rival New Mexico State in non-conference play.

New Mexico starter Benjamin Baker-Livingston matched his career high with five stellar innings pitched, allowing just one run on four hits with a strikeout and a pair of walks. The right-hander threw a season-high 78 pitches in his first start of the year, but suffered a tough defeat. Relievers Brian McBroom, Justin Still, and Terrell Hudson combined to allow just one run over the final four innings, but the mighty Lobo offense failed to fire on Tuesday.

NMSU starter Darius Garcia, an Albuquerque native, tossed 5 2/3 shutout innings to collect his second win of the season, allowing just two hits and two walks while striking out two hitters in his hometown start. Noah Estrella followed with 2 2/3 shutout innings, and Matthew Maloney claimed his first save of the year by collecting the final two outs in the ninth. NMSU improved to 3-15 on the season, and beat UNM for the first time since April 16, 2019.

Kyle Smith smoked a one-out double to the wall in the right-field corner in the bottom of the ninth, moving Reed Spenrath to third and putting the tying run in scoring position. A pop up and a strikeout ended the game however, as the Lobo bats remained quiet.

Baker-Livingston needed just seven pitches to work through the top of the first inning, on his way to a season-high 78 pitches in his five frames of work.

Dylan Ditzenberger kept his reached base streak alive with a four-pitch walk in the bottom of the first inning, before stealing his fourth base of the season. Garcia stranded the Lobo leadoff man at third however, keeping the game scoreless after one inning of play.

Despite a double play turned by Devon Dixon and Chase Weissenborn in the top of the second, the Aggies took the lead with a two-out, RBI-single off the bat of Nick Gore.

Garcia didn't allow a hit until the third inning, when Ditzenberger punched a one-out knock into right field. The left-hander once again stranded the runner by pitching to contact, as the Lobos had eight fly outs in the first three frames.

Aggie centerfielder Cal Villareal had a busy night with a career-high nine catches, with his best one coming in the bottom of the fourth when he robbed Braydon Runion of a leadoff double in the right-center gap.

Villareal made his sixth catch of the game in the bottom of the fifth, and Aggie second baseman Kevin Jimenez ended the inning with a sliding play to take away a hit from Ditzenberger.

GAME SUMMARIES & BOX SCORES

GAME 21: NEVADA (MARCH 24 AT RENO, NV)

RENO, Nev. – Lenny Junior Ashby drove in three runs and reached 200 collegiate hits on Friday afternoon at Don Weir Field, as the New Mexico baseball team defeated Nevada 9-5 in Mountain West action.

Ashby, who finished the game 2-for-3 with a double, had all three of his RBIs by the fourth inning, as the Lobos built an early lead and never looked back. "What makes us really good is there isn't an easy out in our lineup, one-through-nine," said Ashby. "We realized that especially in Fresno, when the middle of our lineup wasn't on. The bottom of the lineup helped us a lot, and those guys came in clutch. Everybody picks up each other."

Deylan Pigford was 3-for-5 with his second home run of the season, and Jake Holland and Jeffrey David each had a pair of hits to lead the Lobos offensively. New Mexico improved its record to 13-8, and nudged above .500 in league play at 4-3 with its second straight conference victory. "We were prepared and ready to play," said UNM head coach Tod Brown. "Getting a win on Friday is really critical in this league, and it helps us get momentum going into Saturday."

New Mexico's strong offensive showing was enough to propel starter Riley Egloff to his fourth win of the season, as the senior right-hander pitched into the eighth inning in the series opener. Egloff had four strikeouts, while allowing five runs on 10 hits with a pair of walks. Brian McBroom allowed two hits in a pair of shutout innings to end the ballgame and secure the win for the Lobos. "It felt really good – it was a little colder than usual, but everything felt good," Egloff said after his sixth start of the season. "All of my pitches felt like they were working."

Nevada scattered a dozen hits in the loss, with Matt Clayton going 2-for-3 with a home run, a double, and two RBIs to lead the offense for the hosts. After Wolfpack starter Kade Morris allowed six runs on nine hits in four innings, Peyton Stumbo threw the final five frames and limited New Mexico to three runs on four hits. The Wolfpack moved to 11-11 on the season, and is now 2-5 in conference play with the defeat.

David beat out an infield single in the top of the first inning, and Ashby got the Lobos on the board first with a sacrifice fly to make the score 1-0. UNM built on its lead in the top of the second with Devon Dixon delivering an RBI-double and Chase Weissenborn driving in a run with a sacrifice fly. "Lenny is unstoppable when he gets into a groove," Egloff said. "We have all seen it, and it is always a matter of time before he figures it out. Big hits are huge, and when one of your best hitters is putting up numbers, it helps that much more."

Nevada got a run back in the bottom of the second on a two-out double by Taylor Holder, but Egloff limited the damage to a single run.

GAME 22: NEVADA (MARCH 25 AT RENO, NV)

RENO, Nev. – Seven shutout innings from starter Tristin Lively was more than enough to propel the New Mexico baseball team to its third consecutive Mountain West victory on Saturday at Don Weir Field, as the Lobos raced past host Nevada 12-1 to secure their second conference series win of the year.

Lively struck out a season-high eight hitters in another dominant performance, and picked up his fourth win of the season. "He was outstanding today," UNM head coach Tod Brown commented on the senior right-hander. "He commanded all of his pitches and set the tone for us. He was on point right from the get-go."

Lively allowed just two hits and two walks in his seven brilliant innings, while throwing 110 pitches. The Lobos improved to 14-8 on the season and are now 5-3 in Mountain West games. New Mexico played error-free defense for the second day in-a-row, and for the 14th game overall this season. "Our pitchers know we have an excellent defense behind them, and it is just a matter of throwing strikes and creating weak contact," Brown said. "We have an excellent defense all around, and a lot of credit goes to those guys. When you pitch well with strikeouts and soft contact, it makes playing defense a lot easier as well."

Like it did in its 9-5 win in the series opener on Friday afternoon, New Mexico scored early and continued to add on in the lopsided victory. Reed Spenrath hit his Mountain West-leading eighth home run of the year, and went 3-for-5 with a pair of RBIs. Dylan Ditzenberger went 3-for-6 with three RBIs and three runs scored, and Devon Dixon was 3-for-5 with two RBIs. New Mexico totaled 17 hits on the day, while leaving nine runners on, striking out four times, and drawing a pair of walks. "We have been doing that a lot, and this entire season we have started out fast," said Brown. "Lately, we have been kind of off the gas for 3-4 innings before getting hot late. We addressed it, talked about it, and we put pressure on them today right from the start."

Lenny Junior Ashby had UNM's first hit with a two-out double in the top of the first, but Nevada starter Jason Doktorczyk stranded the runner in scoring position.

Spenrath led off the second with a single, and Kyle Smith was hit by a pitch to set the table for the Lobos with no outs. Deylan Pigford was robbed of extra bases on a leaping snag by Pack leftfielder Taylor Holder, but an RBI-single by Dixon followed by an error by Nevada spotted the Lobos a 2-0 advantage.

Lively faced his first jam of the day in the bottom of the second, when Nevada loaded the bases with one out. The senior shook off the trouble with back-to-back strikeouts to strand all three runners and keep the Lobos ahead. "It's nothing new – he has been awesome all year," Ditzenberger said on Lively. "As we get into conference games it becomes more and more important. It really makes us as hitters confident, because we know how good he is on the mound."

Spenrath's solo home run came in the top of the third, helping the Lobos continue to build their early advantage and pull ahead 3-0. Lively responded with his first 1-2-3 inning of the game, using a big catch by Jeffrey David in the right-center gap to help keep Nevada off the bases.

GAME SUMMARIES & BOX SCORES

GAME 23: NO. 22 TEXAS TECH (MARCH 28 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. – With two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning on Tuesday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field, Jake Holland hit a heroic walk-off home run to give host New Mexico an 11-10 victory over No. 22 Texas Tech.

The first-year Lobo turned around on a 1-1 pitch from Red Raider reliever Ryan Free, crushing his sixth home run off of a light tower beyond the left-field fence. Holland's blast prompted a mob at home plate, as the Lobos emerged the victor in a roller coaster of a game on Tuesday.

The lead changed hands four different times, with the teams combining to score nine runs in the first inning to foreshadow a wild ballgame. UNM avenged a 6-3 loss to the Red Raiders on March 7 in Lubbock, Texas, as the teams split the 2023 season series. The Lobos improved to 15-8 on the year, while Texas Tech lost its fourth straight game – third consecutive in walk-off fashion – to move to 18-8 on the season.

Deylan Pigford was 2-for-5 with his third home run of the season, and Jeffrey David went 3-for-5 with a pair of RBIs for the Lobos. Making his first start of the season, Konner Kinkade got on base in 3 of 4 plate appearances including an RBI-single and a gritty two-out walk in the seventh to spark a game-tying two-run rally. Brian McBroom earned his first win of the season and the third of his New Mexico career, tossing a scoreless top of the ninth to set up Holland's dramatic game-winner.

The stunning finish diminished a 5-for-5 day at the plate by the Red Raiders' Kevin Bazzell, who drove in four runs thanks in large part to three doubles. Austin Green and Hudson White had three hits apiece among the 15 total for the visitors, who stranded nine runners on base in the game. Jase Lopez was the most effective of six different pitchers used by TTU, as he ate up three perfect innings to give his team a chance to get back into the game. The right-hander struck out four Lobos, while retiring all nine men he faced in the middle three innings on Tuesday.

Owen Washburn spotted the visitors a 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning, drilling his third home run of the season just to the right of the 413 foot sign in center field. The Red Raiders added two more runs to take a sizeable lead right away, but the Lobos were quick to respond.

Pigford smashed the third pitch he saw over the wall in right-center, and ensuing RBI-singles by Reed Spenrath, Holland, and Kinkade evened the score. UNM then took advantage of a fielding miscue, which set up an RBI ground out by Devon Dixon to give the hosts their first lead of the day 5-4.

The second double of the game for Bazzell tied the score in the top of the second, but the Lobos got right back to work in the bottom of the inning. Pigford missed his second home run by not more than a foot, as he settled for a leadoff double that clashed off the wall in right field. David's second hit of the game nudged the Lobos back in front, and UNM starter Jaren Jackson followed with his first shutdown inning of the day. Jackson shook off the big first inning, and finished his outing with a line of six runs on 11 hits with three strikeouts and no walks in four innings of work.

GAME 24: SAN DIEGO STATE (MARCH 31 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. – TJ Fondtain tossed seven stellar innings on Friday night at Santa Ana Star Field, lifting visiting San Diego State to a 5-3 Mountain West win over host New Mexico in the first of three games between the teams.

The Lobos came to life with three solo home runs in the final two innings, and got the tying run to the plate with no outs in the ninth. But the deficit proved too large to overcome as SDSU's Kelena Sauer collected his fourth save of the season. San Diego State improved to 8-13 on the year and 5-3 in conference play, while UNM snapped a three-game winning streak falling to 15-9 overall and 5-4 in league games.

Dylan Ditzenberger extended his reached base streak to 37 games and hitting streak to 19 games with a home run in the bottom of the eighth, which came after Deylan Pigford's solo home run to finally get the Lobos on the board. They trailed 5-0 up to that point, with SDSU striking for a run in the third and adding two each in the fifth and eighth.

Lenny Junior Ashby led off the bottom of the ninth with a solo home run that hugged the right-field foul pole, and Braydon Runion followed with a single to put the tying run in the batter's box. Sauer bore down however, using a strikeout, a routine popup, and a twirling diving catch by shortstop Xavier Gonzalez on a wind-impacted popup into center field to end the game.

Ashby and Pigford each went 2-for-4 in the game, with UNM managing just seven hits against a trio of Aztec arms. Lobo starter Riley Egloff turned in a strong performance of his own, allowing three runs on eight hits with five strikeouts and just one walk in seven solid innings of work. Terrell Hudson allowed just one walk in 1 2/3 shutout innings to finish the game on the mound for UNM.

Egloff started the game with a strikeout, and Devon Dixon flashed the leather early with a diving play in shallow right field to take away a base hit from Shaun Montoya. Egloff cruised through a quick first two frames, striking out four of the first seven hitters he faced.

Fondtain was similarly impressive early on, retiring the first 14 hitters he faced to match Egloff's zeroes. Perhaps the biggest assist for the Aztec lefty came from a noticeable wind, which knocked down a mighty fly ball off the bat of slugger Jake Holland that carried to the warning track in left field in the bottom of the second.

Caden Miller broke the dry spell for SDSU in the top of the third, turning around on an inside pitch and crushing a ball with the wind well over the fence in right field to make the score 1-0. The Aztecs tacked on two more in the top of the fifth, using doubles by Drew Giannini and Cade Martinez, and a single by Miller to jump ahead 3-0.

Holland had the first hit of the game for UNM with a two-out single in the fifth, breaking up Fondtain's 4 2/3 perfect innings to start the ballgame. An ensuing double off the bat of Pigford brought the tying run to the plate, but Fondtain got out of the jam with his seventh strikeout on a 3-2 pitch to Dixon.

GAME SUMMARIES & BOX SCORES

GAME 25: SAN DIEGO STATE (APRIL 1 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Another stellar performance by reigning Mountain West Pitcher of the Week Tristin Lively wasn't enough on Saturday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field, as visiting San Diego State rallied for two runs in the ninth to beat the New Mexico baseball team 3-1.

The senior right-hander matched his season high with eight strikeouts in his eight frames of work, limiting the Aztecs to just one run on five hits with one walk.

Aztec starter Chris Canada was equally impressive however, striking out nine Lobos and limiting the UNM offense to one run on five hits in his 6 1/3 innings pitched. Ricky Tibbett, Robert Brodell, and Kelena Sauer combined to hold UNM scoreless over the final 2 2/3 innings, as the visitors clinched the series victory after Friday's 5-3 triumph.

Poncho Ruiz led off the ninth inning with a double, before an error allowed the go-ahead run to score and break a 1-1 tie. Caden Martinez delivered the final blow with two outs, punching an RBI-single into right field to increase SDSU's advantage to 3-1.

The Lobos brought the tying run to the plate in the bottom of the ninth for the second day in-a-row, when Chase Weissenborn hit a one-out single to right. Konner Kinkade followed with a hard line drive up the middle, but it was right at Aztec shortstop Xavier Gonzalez who turned it into a calm, game-ending double play. The Lobos slipped to 15-10 on the season and moved to 5-5 in conference play with the defeat. San Diego State improved to 9-13, and is now 6-3 in league games.

Weissenborn and Devon Dixon turned an inning-ending double play to get Lively out of a first-and-third jam in the first inning, before the righty struck out his second hitter in a clean second inning.

Weissenborn got ahold of a ball with two outs and a runner on first in the second inning, but TJ Fondtain tracked it down and made a twisting catch in left field to save what would have been a run-scoring hit.

Jeffrey David made one of his top defensive plays of the season in the top of the third, sprinting into the gap in left-center before diving to take away extra bases from Caden Miller.

After a walk to David and the second hit of the day by Lenny Junior Ashby, Braydon Runion put the Lobos ahead with an RBI-double to left field in the bottom of the third. Canada did well to limit the damage, striking out the next two men he faced to strand two runners in scoring position.

Fondtain evened the score in the top of the fourth, lining a one-out solo home run over the fence in left center for his fourth long ball of the season. It proved to be the final run until the ninth inning, as both teams went scoreless over the next four frames.

GAME 26: SAN DIEGO STATE (APRIL 2 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - San Diego State scored 14 runs over the final two innings on Sunday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field, dealing the New Mexico baseball team a 19-7 defeat in eight innings to cap a Mountain West Conference series sweep.

The Lobos led the game 7-5 at the end of the sixth inning, but the Aztecs scored 10 runs in the seventh to blow the game open and run away with the win. New Mexico fell to 15-11 on the season and is now 5-6 in conference play with the defeat, while San Diego State improved to 10-13 overall and 7-3 in league play with the win.

Five different Aztecs had at least three hits in the game, including Brady Lavoie who was 3-for-4 with three legs of the cycle despite entering the game as a pinch hitter. Shaun Montoya went 4-for-6 with three runs scored, while leadoff man TJ Fondtain was 3-for-5 with four RBIs. After a cast of five pitchers allowed seven runs on 10 hits to the Lobos, Eldridge Armstrong iced the game with three shutout frames to earn his second victory of the season.

New Mexico starter Isaac Gallegos took the no decision on Sunday, allowing five runs on nine hits with three strikeouts and three walks. Five Lobo relievers combined to pitch the rest of the game. Making their first starts of the season, Justin Olson and Sean Stephens carried the Lobos offensively, combining to go 4-for-7 at the plate. Olson hit a three-run home run and delivered an RBI-single, while Stephens reached base in 3 of 4 plate appearances on the day. Braydon Runion finished the game 3-for-4, as the Lobos totaled a dozen hits while leaving 11 men on base.

Catcher Jake Holland saved the Lobos a run in the top of the first inning, scooping a nasty breaking ball in the dirt and then pouncing on it quickly enough to keep Montoya from advancing to second base. An ensuing hit off the bat of Tino Bethancourt was deep enough to score a would-be runner from second, making Holland's stellar defensive play crucial in keeping the game scoreless.

The Aztecs jumped ahead in the top of the second inning, rallying for a pair of hits and a pair of runs to take a 2-0 advantage. The Lobos put a pair of runners on in the third, and it took a leaping snag by Fondtain in left field to haul in a hard fly ball off the bat of Lenny Junior Ashby to save a pair of runs from scoring.

After legging out an infield single in the third, Stephens put his Class A speed on display in center field in the fourth as he raced into the gap to snag a deep drive off the bat of Martinez. Fortune favored the Aztecs however, as a towering pop up into shallow left field landed untouched and a deep fly ball by Montoya bounced in and out of Ashby's glove as he collided with the wall on a full sprint. Both plays could have ended the inning, but instead SDSU turned it into a two-out, three-run rally to make the score 5-0.

Olson's second home run of the season came perhaps when the Lobos needed it most, as Holland and Runion set the table for him with a single and a double, respectively, in the fourth. The first baseman then drove a 1-2 pitch over the fence in left-center, cutting the spread down to 5-3.

GAME SUMMARIES & BOX SCORES

GAME 27: SAN JOSE STATE (APRIL 6 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Reed Spenrath went 4-for-5 with six RBIs on Thursday night at Santa Ana Star Field, keying a 16-8 Mountain West victory for the New Mexico baseball team against visiting San Jose State University.

Spenrath hit his ninth home run of the season, two doubles, and scored three times in the Lobos' highest scoring conference game of the 2023 season. Justin Olson added his third home run of the year and Jake Holland hit his seventh, while Braydon Runion finished 2-for-3 with three runs scored and Lenny Junior Ashby drove in three in the game.

New Mexico snapped a three-game losing skid, improving to 16-11 overall and evening its Mountain West record at 6-6. Riley Egloff earned his conference-leading fifth victory of the season, and Brian McBroom matched his career high with six strikeouts over the final four frames to pick up his third save of the year.

Three Spartans had a pair of hits each on a night where the visitors totaled just eight hits. Dalton Bowling homered for SJSU, which struck out 10 times but left just three runners on base in the series opener. The Spartans fell to 13-11 on the season and are now 6-4 in conference play.

Ashby smashed a line-drive single into the right-field corner, and Runion followed with a knock to set the table with two outs in the bottom of the first. Spenrath came through with a three-run home run over the fence in left, spotting the Lobos a 3-0 advantage.

Bowling got his team on the board in the top of the second, crushing his fifth home run of the season over the fence in left-center. The Spartans went on to even the score on a two-run single by Jeriah Lewis, but the defense did well to limit the damage as a good throw from Deylan Pigford in center caught Theo Hardy on the bases for a key second out.

Olson led off the bottom of the second with his third home run of the season, following Spenrath's lead with a deep drive the other way over the fence in left field. Runion's second hit of the night was an RBI-triple, and Spenrath drove him in with a hard line drive into the right-center gap for a double. Holland blasted his seventh home run of the season to left field to make the score 8-4, as the Lobos jumped back ahead.

It proved to be the final frame for SJSU starter Jonathan Clark, who allowed eight runs on eight hits with four strikeouts and three walks in three innings of work.

The Spartans got back into the game in the top of the fifth, taking advantage of two UNM errors to score three runs and pull the deficit down to 8-7. UNM responded again however, with back-to-back two-out RBI-singles from Konner Kinkade and Ashby providing breathing room to the tune of 10-7.

Egloff kept his season-long streak of pitching at least five innings alive, allowing seven runs – four earned – on six hits with four strikeouts and three walks while throwing 106 pitches.

GAME 28: SAN JOSE STATE (APRIL 7 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - A momentum-swinging five-run sixth inning by the San Jose State baseball team on Friday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field was enough to back eight strong innings from starter Micky Thompson as New Mexico was defeated 8-3 in the middle game of a Mountain West series.

Thompson limited UNM's offense to three runs – two earned – on seven hits with six strikeouts and two walks in his first-career outing that lasted into the ninth inning. Darren Jansen recorded the final three outs with a strikeout, as Thompson passed the ball to him with Lobos on the corners and no outs in the ninth.

New Mexico led the game 3-1 after the fifth inning, before the visitors turned the tables and never looked back. SJSU improved to 14-11 on the season and 7-4 in conference play, while UNM slipped to 16-12 overall and 6-7 in league play.

Konner Kinkade hit his first collegiate home run – a solo shot in the fifth – but it proved to be the final run the Lobos managed to score against the tough Spartan left-hander. Jake Holland was the lone Lobo with multiple hits, going 2-for-4 with a run scored. UNM totaled seven knocks in the game, while striking out seven times and leaving seven runners aboard.

For the Spartans Jack Colette and Theo Hardy were each 3-for-5 with an RBI while Matt Spear and Jeriah Lewis each drove in two runs. The Spartans totaled 14 hits, while drawing seven walks and leaving 10 men on base.

On a day where it turned a season-high four double plays, New Mexico got starter Tristin Lively out of a jam in the top of the first going around the horn for its first of the day.

San Jose State took advantage of a wild pitch on a third strike to extend the second inning, and Lewis came through with a two-out, RBI-single to put the visitors ahead 1-0.

Kinkade displayed more good glovework in the top of the third, starting another 5-4-3 double play before ending the inning by handling a high bounce to strand a runner at third base.

The Lobos' breakthrough came on a botched defensive play in the bottom of the fourth, with two errors by the Spartans allowing two runs to score including Kyle Smith who touched all four bases amid the chaos on his ground ball. Kinkade's first collegiate long ball followed in the bottom of the fifth, increasing UNM's advantage to 3-1.

Momentum shifted in the top of the sixth inning, when the first six Spartans reached base. Spear had a two-run single, Theo Hardy and James Shimashita drove in runs with hits, and Robert Hamchuk completed a five-run rally with an RBI-ground out as SJSU pulled ahead 6-3. Lively finished the frame with his third strikeout, but it was the end of the line for the righty as he allowed six runs on 10 hits with three walks in his six innings of work.

GAME SUMMARIES & BOX SCORES

GAME 29: SAN JOSE STATE (APRIL 8 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - A big inning proved costly for the second straight day for the New Mexico baseball team, which fell 14-3 at the hands of San Jose State on Saturday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field.

The Spartans used a five-run sixth inning to win Friday's game 8-3, before plating seven runs in a decisive sixth inning on Saturday to claim the three-game series 2-1. The Spartans improved to 15-11 overall and 8-4 in conference play, while UNM slipped to 16-13 overall and 6-8 in league contests.

Reed Spenrath wrapped up an outstanding weekend at the plate, going 4-for-4 to bring his series hitting line to 9-for-12 with seven RBIs. Deylan Pigford, Lenny Junior Ashby, and Chase Weissenborn had two hits apiece, with New Mexico totaling 13 knocks on the game while stranding 10 runners on base.

Jack Colette was 4-for-6 with a home run, two triples, and a double, driving in five runs and scoring three times to lead the Spartan offense. Hunter Dorraugh was 3-for-5, while James Shimashita and Robert Hamchuk had two hits each. SJSU racked up 15 hits on the day, while stranding 11 runners on base in the victory.

UNM starter Isaac Gallegos was one off his season high with six strikeouts, but couldn't escape the lengthy sixth inning. He suffered his first loss of the year, allowing eight runs – two earned – on nine hits with six strikeouts and four walks. Justin Still and Brett Russell combined to throw the final 2 1/3 innings. New Mexico committed a season-high six errors in the lopsided defeat.

The game was decided in the top of the sixth inning, when SJSU took advantage of two UNM errors and plated seven runs with four hits. Theo Hardy had the visitors' third triple of the day, a dagger that scored three runs with two outs.

After Gallegos collected his first two strikeouts of the day, the Lobos thwarted a double-steal attempt by the Spartans to end the first inning. Devon Dixon cut off a throw by Jake Holland down to second, and fired a strike back to the Lobo catcher in plenty of time to nail Jack Colette at home.

Konner Kinkade had UNM's first hit of the day in the bottom of the first, but was stranded in scoring position as the game got off to a scoreless start.

Gallegos faced trouble again in the second inning, with a pair of walks putting two runners on with two outs. The right hander dug deep, and stranded two more runners with his third strikeout of the day.

Spenrath's first triple in a Lobo uniform came at the outset of the bottom of the second, and Jake Holland gave the Lobos the lead with an RBI-single into center field.

The Spartans evened the score in the top of the third, taking advantage of an error that allowed Colette to score after his second triple of the game.

GAME 30: CSU PUEBLO (APRIL 11 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Konner Kinkade emerged as the hero on Tuesday night at Santa Ana Star Field, delivering a one-out sacrifice fly in the bottom of the ninth to give New Mexico a come-from-behind 8-7 win over visiting Colorado State Pueblo.

Kinkade's decisive swing of the bat came with the bases loaded and the score tied, after a pair of errors by the ThunderWolves helped the Lobos pull even in the ninth. CSU Pueblo led the game 1-0 in the third, 6-1 in the sixth, and 7-6 in the eighth, but in the end lost its 10th consecutive game to fall to 12-24 on the season.

The Lobos improved to 17-13 with the non-conference victory, which was their third walk-off win of the 2023 season. Reed Spenrath was 2-for-4 with three RBIs, Justin Olson hit a solo home run, and Lenny Junior Ashby had a pair of knocks to lead the Lobo offense on a night where they totaled 11 hits and stranded seven runners on base.

UNM starter Jaren Jackson threw a season-high seven innings, allowing six runs on eight hits with four strikeouts and a walk in the no-decision. Jackson threw 61 of his 82 pitches for strikes, with his strike percent of 74.4 being the second-highest by any Lobo starting pitcher in a game this season. Brian McBroom earned his second win of the year, striking out three and limiting the ThunderWolves to one run on three hits in the final two innings.

Jackson made quick work of the ThunderWolves, needing just seven pitches to get through a clean first inning. Ashby picked up the Lobos' first hit of the game with a two-out single in the bottom of the first, but CSUP starter Travis Farrell recorded a pair of strikeouts to put up a zero in the inning.

The Lobos got a pair of stellar plays from second baseman Devon Dixon in the top of the second, as he handled a slow roller before making a full-on running catch on a popup midway down the right field line.

The visitors took the lead in the top of the third, when Joseph Quintana punched a two-out double into the gap in left-center and Reggie Williams delivered an RBI-single to make the score 1-0. Farrell wrapped up his three innings of work with two strikeouts, while allowing no runs on two hits in his first start of the season.

Jackson continued his remarkable efficiency in the fourth, and benefitted from a pair of good defensive plays by Jeffrey David at third base on two hard-hit balls. Through the first four frames, Jackson threw 33 of 40 pitches for strikes.

Ashby greeted ThunderWolves left-hander Frank Wierman with a leadoff double in the bottom of the fourth, before Spenrath got UNM on the board with his team-leading 33rd RBI of the season. Dixon put the Lobos ahead with a bases-loaded single, but CSU Pueblo limited the damage when centerfielder Noah Hennings threw out Kyle Smith trying to score from second to keep the score at 2-1.

Jackson did well to strand a runner in scoring position in the top of the fifth, working around a leadoff double by Elijah Borjas thanks in large part to two more big defensive plays. David snagged a sharp line drive just before it hit the turf, before shortstop Chase Weissenborn made a twirling throw on a ground ball up the middle to nab Quintana by half a step and prevent the tying run from crossing the plate.

GAME 31: CSU PUEBLO (APRIL 12 AT ALBUQUERQUE, NM)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Inning-ending double plays in the seventh and eighth innings on Wednesday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field propelled visiting Colorado State Pueblo to an 8-6 win over the New Mexico baseball team in non-conference play.

The Lobos had the bases loaded with one out in the seventh and runners on the corners with one out in the eighth, but could not capitalize on two prime opportunities to overcome a narrow deficit. A sharp line drive off the bat of Deylan Pigford was right at ThunderWolf second baseman Kolton Miller, who ended the seventh by doubling off the runner at first. New Mexico put the tying run on base again in the eighth, but this time it was a double play turned by Kysen Howard and Miller to end the inning and push the visitors three outs away from victory.

Ruben Portillo then pitched a scoreless ninth inning, and completed his first save of the season with two strikeouts against a walk and a hit in two innings of relief. Edwing Corrales earned the win for CSU Pueblo, allowing two runs on six hits with two walks and a strikeout in 4 1/3 innings of work.

Jeffrey David was 4-for-5 with a home run and two doubles, while Lenny Junior Ashby went 3-for-5 as that duo led the Lobo offense. Jake Holland and Deylan Pigford hit back-to-back solo home runs, and Reed Spenrath and Justin Olson each drove in a run. The Lobos slipped to 17-14 with Wednesday's defeat.

Cody Macias and Christian Casteneda were each 3-for-4 for the visitors, who snapped a 10-game losing streak with Wednesday's victory. CSU Pueblo improved to 13-24 on the season with the win.

The Lobos took the lead in the bottom of the second, on back-to-back home runs by Holland and Pigford. Holland's deep blast to left field landed up against the building adjacent to The Pit, and Pigford's pulled shot to right wound up in University Blvd. across the street from the field.

The ThunderWolves responded immediately in the top of the third, as Macias led off the frame with a double and Elijah Borjas and Casteneda delivered two-out knocks to tie the game at 2-2.

Ashby smashed a line drive to the wall in center for the 52nd double of his career, and Spenrath picked up his team-leading 36th RBI of the season with a two-out double into the right-field corner to make the score 3-2.

Another leadoff double, this time off the bat of Cole Knightley in the fourth, led to two more runs as CSU Pueblo pulled back ahead. Jeremiah Sanchez beat out an infield single to tie the game before a sacrifice line out by Howard made the score 4-3 in favor of the visitors. Knightly tacked on a three-run home run to left in the top of the fifth, increasing the TunderWolves' advantage to four runs.

David led off the bottom of the fifth with a solo home run over the hitter's eye in center field, getting the Lobos one back to cut the deficit to 7-4.

GAME 32: NEW MEXICO STATE (APRIL 18 AT LAS CRUCES, NM)

LAS CRUCES, N.M. - Dylan Ditzenberger got on base in all five plate appearances, Jaren Jackson threw five shutout innings, and the New Mexico baseball team exacted revenge in a big way on Tuesday night at Presley Askew Field with a resonating 13-0 victory over host New Mexico State.

The run-rule triumph was a far cry from a 2-0 loss to the Aggies on March 21, as the Lobos evened the season series between the teams. New Mexico improved to 18-14 on the year, while NMSU fell to 9-23 with the defeat.

Jackson earned his second win of the season with five dominant innings, as he struck out a season-high six hitters while scattering five hits. "Everything was working – my changeup and slider were working," said the junior left-hander. "I was hitting all my spots, and was able to come through with big pitches when I needed them. It was nice to be able to get through those tough moments with runners on base."

Jackson allowed just one walk among the 80 pitches he threw, going at least five innings for the fourth time among his six starts this season. "It was much needed," Jackson said after allowing six runs on eight hits in seven innings in his last start on April 11 – a no-decision. "Whenever I got into situations with runners on tonight, I tried to change my mindset, bear down, and figure out what I needed to do. I just tried to hit my spots when I needed to, and it worked out."

Justin Olson hit his fourth home run in the last six games, and Devon Dixon and Lenny Junior Ashby each added long balls on Tuesday night. Ditzenberger finished 3-for-3 while walking twice, Braydon Runion was 2-for-3 with two doubles and three RBIs, and Reed Spenrath, Jake Holland, and Dixon drove in two runs apiece. "It helps a lot when you have one of the best hitting teams in the nation behind you," said Jackson, who had an 8-0 lead after throwing just one inning. "It gives you confidence in tough innings to get after it and get the job done."

In his return to the lineup after missing six games, Ditzenberger drew a leadoff walk that kicked off a big first inning. Runion hit an RBI-double off the wall in center, Spenrath followed with a two-run single, and Deylan Pigford capped the rally with a two-out, RBI-single to make the score 4-0.

Spenrath showed off his athleticism in the bottom of the first, straying from his position to field a high-chop ground ball before diving to the bag to beat speedy NMSU leadoff man Keith Jones II in a bang-bang play.

Ditzenberger led off the top of the second with his eighth double of the season, and the Lobos turned it into four more runs on two-out, two-run hits by Runion and Holland to make the score 8-0.

Jackson built off the momentum in the bottom of the second, working around a one-out single and picking up his first strikeout of the evening on the way to another zero. The lefty added another strikeout in the third and closed the fourth with back-to-back punch outs. "After the third inning, I felt every pitch working for me again," Jackson said on building strength as the evening progressed. "It helped me get through that and get a win. It especially eases the pressure when the team has 11 runs by the fifth inning."

GAME 33: AIR FORCE (APRIL 21 AT COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.)

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO. - Four-run sixth and seventh innings on Friday afternoon at Falcon Field lifted host Air Force to a 9-6 win over the New Mexico baseball team in the opening game of a Mountain West Conference series.

The Lobos led 2-1 after the top of the sixth inning, riding Braydon Runion's fifth home run of the season to a mid-game lead. The Falcons broke through in the middle innings however, and then withstood a late come-back effort by the Lobos to secure the victory.

Jake Sansing earned the win for the hosts, allowing two runs on five hits with five strikeouts and two walks in seven innings of work. Sawyer Hawks secured his fourth save of the season, coming in and recording the final out in the ninth to help the Falcons improve to 17-23 overall and 10-9 in conference play.

New Mexico made a comeback push with a four-run ninth inning, but the tying run was left in the on-deck circle when the final out was recorded. The Lobos fell to 18-15 with the defeat and slipped to 6-9 in conference play with the loss.

A two-out knock by Lenny Junior Ashby led to a two-run home run off the bat of Runion, as the Lobos took a 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning. UNM starter Riley Egloff responded with his first strikeout of the day, and an ensuing double play turned by Dylan Ditzenberger, Devon Dixon, and Reed Spenrath made it a zero for the hosts.

Deylan Pigford punched a one-out double to right field in the second, but Sansing worked around the hit to strand the runner in scoring position.

Egloff faced his first stressful situation of the game in the top of the second, when three straight singles loaded the bases with just one out. The senior coaxed a comebacker off the bat of Matt Thompson, which he fired to Jake Holland at home to start an inning-ending double play.

Runion led off the fourth with a walk, before hustling around to third on a base hit by Spenrath. The Lobos failed to capitalize on the opportunity however, as Sansing got out of the jam with a strikeout and a pair of routine plays by his defense. The Falcons got on the board in the bottom of the inning, on Jay Thomason's Mountain West leading 14th home run of the season.

Ditzenberger made the defensive play of the day in the bottom of the fifth, diving to snag a ground ball while shifted up the middle and throwing to Spenrath just in time to nab Sam Kulasingam to end the inning.

The Lobos put runners on the corners again in the top of the sixth, but Sansing once again stranded a pair to keep his team within one.

GAME 34: AIR FORCE (APRIL 23 AT COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.)

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO. - Reed Spenrath had three home runs and eight RBIs in a doubleheader on Sunday afternoon at Falcon Field, as the New Mexico baseball team split a Mountain West doubleheader with host Air Force.

Behind a dominant outing by senior pitcher Tristin Lively and Spenrath's first two home runs of the day, the Lobos claimed the opening game 12-1. The Falcons retaliated in the finale to take the series however, bouncing back with a 13-8 win in the nightcap.

Jake Holland hit two home runs in the second game and Spenrath added his third, as that duo combined for seven of UNM's eight RBIs. The Lobos moved to 19-16 with the split and are now 7-10 in conference play.

Spenrath upped his season home run total to 12 as he moved within two of Air Force's Jay Thomason, who hit his 14th of the year in Air Force's 9-6 win in the series opener on Friday.

It wasn't the first time this spring that Lively thrived against the Falcons, as he turned in a career-best 8 1/3 shutout innings with six strikeouts and just three hits allowed in New Mexico's 15-0 rout on March 11 in Albuquerque. Including Sunday's performance, Lively allowed zero runs on 10 hits with nine strikeouts in 15 1/3 innings pitched against Air Force this season. Lively moved into a tie for the Mountain West lead in victories with his fifth of the season.

Chase Spencer went 5-for-8 and Sam Kulasingam was 4-for-8 with five runs scored and three RBIs to lead Air Force offensively on the day. The Falcons moved to 18-24 overall and are now 11-10 in conference play with the split.

Game 1 - New Mexico 12, Air Force 1

Air Force starter Doyle Gehring made quick work of the Lobos with a 1-2-3 first inning, but it proved to be his only trouble-free inning in his outing.

Lively shook off a leadoff walk, and got through a scoreless bottom of the first which concluded with his first strikeout of the game. The Lobos struck first in the top of the second, taking advantage of a hit batter and a walk that put runners on the corners. UNM then executed a double steal with Kyle Smith taking second and Braydon Runion crossing the plate with two outs to make the score 1-0.

Increasing its lead with a big third inning, New Mexico loaded the bases with singles by Dylan Ditzenberger and Lenny Junior Ashby sandwiching a walk to Jeffrey David. Runion then lined a two-run single into left field, before Spenrath blasted a three-run home run over the fence to make the score 6-0. David drove in another run in the fourth, as the Lobos continued to expand Lively's cushion into the middle innings.

New Mexico drove Gehring from the game after three innings of work, with the righty allowing six runs on five hits with two strikeouts and two walks.

GAME 35: AIR FORCE (APRIL 23 AT COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.)

Game 2 – Air Force 13, New Mexico 8

Air Force overcame a 7-1 deficit in the third inning, rallying to win the series finale, take the series 2-1, and even the season series between the teams at 3-3.

The Falcons struck first in the series finale, when Kulasingam connected on a solo home run to put his team ahead 1-0 after the first inning.

Back-to-back walks issued to Spenrath and Olson set the table for Holland in the top of the second. The slugger hammered a 1-1 pitch well beyond the fence but foul, before smashing the next pitch over the fence in left-center to give UNM a 3-1 lead.

UNM starter Isaac Gallegos worked around a jam in the bottom of the second, picking up his first strikeout before a pair of routine fly outs stranded two Falcons on base.

David led off the third with a single and Ashby followed with a walk, before Runion drove in another run with an RBI-single to left field. Spenrath then struck again, smashing his third home run of the day over the fence in left field to make the score 7-1.

Air Force starter Dylan Rogers exited after the Lobos' big third inning, allowing seven runs on five hits with no strikeouts and four walks in his three innings of work.

Gallegos relied on his defense for an assist in the bottom of the third, as a double play limited the damage from a pair of walks to a single run.

The Lobos loaded the bases with two outs in the fourth, bringing the red-hot Spenrath to the plate. Air Force lefty Seungming Shim won a seven-pitch battle however, striking out the slugger and preventing the game from being blown open.

Momentum began to shift in the fifth inning, when Spencer laced a two-out, RBI-single into right field to kick off a string of 11 unanswered runs scored by the hosts. Air Force took advantage of two Lobo errors to score three runs in the sixth, and a two-run home run off the bat of Trayden Tamiya kick-started a seven-run seventh inning that ultimately won the game for the Falcons. Covin, Thomason, and Spencer each drove in runs during the big inning, while Greiving had a big two-run double as Air Force built a 13-7 advantage.

The Lobos got one run back in the eighth on Holland's second home run of the game, but their bats were kept quiet after that. Shim earned the win with four shutout innings, allowing just three hits while striking out four and walking none. Sawyer Hawks struck out five hitters over the final two innings to finish the game for Air Force.

GAME 36: ARIZONA (APRIL 25 AT TUCSON, ARIZ.)

TUCSON, Ariz. - Sixteen of the 19 runs scored on Tuesday night at Hi Corbett Field came across the plate in the first three innings, as host Arizona held on for an 11-8 win over the New Mexico baseball team in the mid-week affair.

After the game got off to a wild start, with Arizona leading 9-7 after the third, both offenses quieted down and combined to score just three runs the rest of the game. The Lobos got as close as down 9-8 after the top of the fifth inning, but Arizona's bullpen kept the nation's third-leading offense off the scoreboard across the final four innings.

New Mexico moved to 19-17 with the defeat, while Arizona won its sixth game in-a-row to improve to 23-15 on the season.

Jake Holland homered and led the Lobo offense with three RBIs, and Braydon Runion drove in two runs including his sixth home run of the season. Eight of the Lobos' nine starters had at least one hit in the game, as UNM battled back from an eight-run deficit early to keep the game interesting to the end.

UNM's relief corps of Adolfo Iturralde, Arthur Steinkamp, Justin Still, Wil Bannister, and Brian McBroom combined to allow just three runs over the final 7 2/3 innings of the game, and the Lobo pitching staff issued just one walk while striking out four hitters in the game.

Arizona's bullpen put up a similarly impressive line, with its final six pitchers combining to allow just two runs over the last 6 1/3 innings of the game. The Wildcats struck out 13 Lobos while issuing just one free pass on the evening. Six different Arizona players had two hits and four drove in a pair of runs in the balanced offensive effort.

Arizona got on the board in the bottom of the first, when Chase Davis delivered an RBI-single into left center that brought home Mac Bingham. Kiko Romero followed with an RBI-triple, and a sacrifice fly off the bat of Emilio Corona capped the scoring burst to make it a 3-0 ballgame.

The Lobos got a run back in the top of the second on Holland's 11th home run, a towering blast that carried above the 410-foot marker in left-center field.

Tony Bullard doubled off the wall in left-center in the bottom of the second, igniting a six-run inning that gave the Wildcats a hefty 9-1 lead. Nik McClaughry, Davis, and Garen Caulfield had RBI-singles in the inning, Corona added an RBI-triple, and an error by the Lobos aided in the big frame.

New Mexico responded immediately, getting right back into the game with a six-run top of the third. Two-out RBI-hits by Runion, Reed Spenrath, Holland, and Sean Stephens narrowed the deficit to just 9-7. Iturralde followed with a shutdown inning, collecting his first strikeout of the day en route to a zero in the third.

GAME 37: FRESNO STATE (APRIL 28 AT ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. – Arthur Steinkamp delivered the best pitching performance of his career perhaps when the New Mexico baseball team needed it most, as he sparked the Lobos to an historic come-from-behind 16-10 victory over Mountain West foe Fresno State on Friday night at Santa Ana Star Field.

The junior lefty from Los Alamos delivered 4 1/3 one-hit, shutout innings, which gave the Lobo offense time to come back from an early 9-0 deficit for an improbable but important victory. It was the first time since at least 2003 – 20 years – that New Mexico won a game in which it trailed by nine runs, as UNM came roaring back for 11 runs in the seventh and eighth innings to decide the game.

While Steinkamp was the biggest hero, the series opening night featured many clutch performances up and down the Lobo lineup. Braydon Runion was 3-for-5 with two doubles, a home run, and three RBIs, Reed Spenrath was 3-for-4 with four RBIs and his 13th home run of the year, and Lenny Junior Ashby went 4-for-6 with three runs scored. Konner Kinkade delivered a go-ahead, infield single in his lone at-bat, Sean Stephens supplied a go-ahead two-run double, and Jeffrey David solidified the victory with a bases-clearing double in the bottom of the eighth to extend UNM's lead to six runs.

The win lifted UNM's record to 20-17 overall, and the Lobos nudged their way back towards .500 in conference play at 8-10 on the season. Brian McBroom claimed his third win of the season throwing the final two frames, after Adolfo Iturralde recorded a crucial out to end the seventh inning with a runner stranded in scoring position.

The Bulldogs (21-20, 11-11 MW) jumped on starter Riley Egloff, with eight of the first nine batters reaching base to start the top of the first inning. Bobby Blandford delivered the first run of the game with a sacrifice fly, before the next five Bulldogs notched hits to make the score 6-0.

Runion laced a two-out double into the gap in left-center to give the Lobos two runners in scoring position in the first, but Fresno State starter Ixan Henderson worked out of the trouble with a routine fly ball off the bat of Spenrath.

Egloff used a strikeout to work around a leadoff single in the second inning, stranding the runner at third base and putting up a zero. A leadoff triple off the bat of Ben Newton led to another big inning in the third, as Travis Welker plated a run with a bloop single and Grady Morgan drove Egloff from the game with a two-run home run over the hitter's eye in center field to make it 9-0. Friday marked the senior right-hander's shortest outing of the season, as it was the first time he did not pitch at least five full frames.

The Lobos jumped to life in the bottom of the third inning, as a two-out single by Ashby kick-started a three-run rally. Runion drove in a run with his second double of the game, and Spenrath made the score 9-3 with a two-run single.

GAME 38: FRESNO STATE (APRIL 29 AT ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - A career-high three home runs and eight RBIs by Justin Olson on Saturday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field highlighted a blowout 17-7 victory for the New Mexico baseball team, as the Lobos ensured a Mountain West series victory over visiting Fresno State.

The Lobos hit a season-high seven home runs – the fourth-highest total in program history – with Olson leading the barrage with a three-run home run, a grand slam, and a solo shot in successive at-bats. Olson had a chance to tie the school and Mountain West records in the bottom of the seventh inning, but his deep fly ball to center field carried to the warning track before being hauled in by Bulldog centerfielder Nikoh Mitchell.

New Mexico had an insurmountable lead by the end of the fourth inning, when the margin read 12-2. The Lobos improved to 21-17 overall and are now 9-10 in conference play, while Fresno State slipped to 21-21 overall and 11-12 in league play with the defeat.

Olson's eight RBIs were the most by a New Mexico player since DJ Peterson drove in eight on March 17, 2013 against No. 21 UNLV. He joined Reed Spenrath – who also homered Saturday – as the second Lobo this season to hit three home runs in a game.

Spenrath clubbed his 14th home run of the season in the first inning, kick-starting a game that the Lobos led by no fewer than five runs after the third inning. Lenny Junior Ashby hit his fifth home run of the year, Braydon Runion hit is seventh of the season and made it three straight games with a long ball, and Kyle Smith delivered his fourth homer of the season.

Amid the offensive chaos, Lobo starter Tristin Lively secured his Mountain West-leading sixth victory of the season, battling through 5 1/3 frames to collect the win. The senior allowed seven runs on 10 hits, while striking out three and walking none in the 105-pitch effort. Adolfo Iturralde delivered another scoreless performance to complete the sixth, before Jaren Jackson picked up his first collegiate save. The junior left hander allowed just one hit and one walk over the final three innings, while striking out a pair in just his second relief appearance of the season.

Olson doubled his career single-game high in RBIs, as he had collected four in a game twice before including on April 2 with a grand slam against San Diego State. Spenrath was 3-for-5 with three runs scored, Runion was 2-for-6 with three RBIs and three runs, and Sean Stephens had another productive day going 3-for-5 at the plate.

Roman Angelo took the loss for the Bulldogs, allowing 12 runs on 10 hits with two strikeouts and five walks in 3 2/3 innings to start the game. Bryce Armstrong limited UNM to two runs on five hits in his 3 1/3 innings of work, and Robbie Peters pitched the eighth for the visitors.

The Bulldogs grabbed the early lead for the second day in-a-row, this time however managing just one run in the top of the first thanks to a wild pitch.

GAME SUMMARIES & BOX SCORES

GAME 39: FRESNO STATE (APRIL 30 AT ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. – Kyle Smith smoked a walk-off, RBI-single up the middle in the bottom of the 10th inning on Sunday afternoon at Santa Ana Star Field, prompting the New Mexico baseball team to a dramatic 6-5 win over visiting Fresno State to complete a three-game Mountain West series sweep.

Smith ended a game that tilted heavily towards both teams before all was said and done, with what proved to be the final blow among a series of plays that rescued the Lobos from defeat. New Mexico improved to 22-17 overall, and pulled its conference record even at 10-10 to move into fourth place in the standings. Fresno State meanwhile fell to 21-22 overall, and is now 11-13 in league play with the defeat.

The late dramatics started in the top of the ninth inning, with the Bulldogs trailing 4-3 and facing defeat. A pinch-hit single by Michael McKernan followed by two walks loaded the bases with two outs, before Nikoh Mitchell stunned the home crowd with a go-ahead two-run single to right-center that gave the Bulldogs their first lead since the top of the first inning. Fresno State was down to its final strike on six different pitches during the inning, but managed to hang on and take the lead.

Undeterred by the unexpected change in momentum, the Lobos held their ground and pulled even in the bottom of the ninth. Smith started the game-saving rally with a walk, before Jeffrey David singled to give UNM a pair of baserunners. Konner Kinkade delivered the biggest hit of the game up to that point, splitting the gap in left-center with a game-tying double that brought the score to 5-5. Fresno State avoided the loss temporarily, with reliever Tommy Hopfe striking out two Lobos to strand the bases loaded and get the game to extra innings.

The tides again appeared to shift in favor of the visitors in the top of the 10th, when Bobby Blandford led off with a single, Payton Allen doubled, and an ensuing intentional walk loaded the bases with one out. This time it was reliever Brian McBroom who saved the day, as he struck out McKernan before inducing a pair of foul-ball popups handled by Smith at first base as the Bulldogs left the bases loaded.

New Mexico left no doubt in the bottom of the 10th, with Deylan Pigford notching a leadoff single and Sean Stephens scampering to first to beat out a bunt single. After getting ahead in the count 1-0, Smith rocketed a ground ball past the dive of second baseman Ben Newton that gave the speedy Pigford plenty of time to score the winning run from second base.

The walk-off winner was New Mexico's fourth of the season, and it was the second in Smith's career after he got the job done in UNM's 13-12 win over Air Force on May 20, 2022 in Albuquerque.

After homering three times and driving in eight runs in Saturday's 17-7 win over the Bulldogs, Justin Olson kept the momentum going as he demolished his fourth home run of the weekend over the fence in right field in the bottom of the second inning. Olson finished the game 2-for-3, and on the weekend the slugger was 5-for-8 with nine RBIs.

GAME 40: NEW MEXICO STATE (MAY 2 AT ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. – Nine consecutive hits in the bottom of the second inning led to an eight-run frame that ultimately decided Tuesday night's Rio Grande Rivalry baseball contest at Santa Ana Star Field, as host New Mexico topped New Mexico State 14-6 in a weather shortened contest.

With unexpected lightning landing in the vicinity of the field after the top of the eighth inning, the teams agreed to end the contest with the Lobos ahead by eight runs. New Mexico won its fourth straight game and improved to 23-17, while New Mexico state slipped to 11-29 with the defeat on Tuesday.

The Lobos strung together 10 hits in an inning for the first time since the 2017 season, as Kyle Smith and Justin Olson led off the game-deciding second inning with back-to-back home runs and UNM never looked back. Chase Weissenborn and Braydon Runion each had two-run doubles, and Lenny Junior Ashby and Olson each had RBI-singles to cap the eight-run inning.

Reed Spenrath hit his team-leading 15th home run of the season in the bottom of the third, after Ashby added his sixth long ball to put UNM ahead 12-3. A sudden wind changed the complexion of the playing conditions in the fourth inning, as a relatively calm evening turned into a treacherous night that foreshadowed the inclement weather. Runion hit a bloop RBI-triple in the fifth and Spenrath added a sacrifice fly to cap the Lobos' scoring for the night with a 14-5 advantage.

NMSU got one run back in the sixth on a solo home run by Christian Perez, but that was the end of the scoring for the visitors.

Wil Bannister earned his first win in a Lobo uniform, limiting the Aggies to one run in two innings while striking out a season-high three hitters. Jordan Martinez also contributed two innings, while Arthur Steinkamp upped his scoreless inning streak to 5 1/3 with one shutout frame to end the day on the mound for the Lobos.

Runion was 4-for-5 with four RBIs, three doubles, and two runs scored, he became the first Lobo with three doubles in a game since Kyle Landers on March 29, 2022, and the first Lobo with four extra-base hits in a game since Reece Weber on May 10, 2015. It was Runion's first-career three-double game.

Ashby went 3-for-4 with three RBIs and three runs scored, while Spenrath, Olson, and Weissenborn each had two hits and two RBIs apiece. With their four home runs on Tuesday, the Lobos upped their season total to 73 long balls which is the sixth-highest tally in UNM single-season history.

Lobo starter Benjamin Baker-Livingston got his outing started with a 1-2-3 first inning, and was rewarded with a run by his offense in the bottom of the inning. Ashby drew a one-out walk, before Runion smashed his first double off the wall in left-center to make the score 1-0. It took a diving play by Aggie shortstop Nolan Funke to turn a would-be RBI-single off the bat of Spenrath into an inning-ending double play.
