UMASS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES AND STORYLINES

SERIES HISTORY

UMass and New Mexico will be meeting for the first time in series history.

LAST TIME OUT

The Minutemen dropped a 19-17 decision to Eastern Michigan last Saturday afternoon at Rynearson Stadium (16,138).

Kay/Ron Lynch-Adams scored with 2:42 left in the fourth quarter to help UMass take a 17-13 lead but the Eagles answered back with a touchdown of their own with 1:20 remaining. After Eastern Michigan missed the extra point, UMass was unable to get within field goal range as the Eagles held on for the win.

Lynch-Adams finished with 129 yards rushing for his second 100-yard game in the last three games.

Quarterback Carlos Davis made his second consecutive start, completing 23-of-41 passes for 340 yards and a touchdown but also had three interceptions. He spread the ball around to eight receivers, with Anthony Simpson totaling 101 yards on four catches.

SIMP CATCHING ON

A junior wide receiver, Simpson posted touchdowns in back-to-back games to open the season and now has 14 catches for 289 receiving yards. His 289 receiving yards rank 26th in FBS (first among independents).

In the win at New Mexico State, the Arizona transfer had a 10-yard TD run for the game's first score. Then at Auburn, he took a swing pass 58-yards for his second TD of the season. It marked the first two career touchdowns for the Bloomfield, Connecticut native. He also has four carries for 33 yards this season. He posted 101 receiving yards at Eastern Michigan, including a career-long 67-yard connection in the second half.

PICK SIX

Massachusetts has a pair of pick sixes through the first three games of the season. Isaiah Rutherford grabbed an interception and returned it for a touchdown in the fourth quarter of the season-opening win at New Mexico State (Aug. 26), while Dashaun Jerkins returned an interception for a touchdown against Miami (Sept. 9).

The two interception returns for a touchdown are tied with Utah State, Syracuse and Arkansas for the most in the FBS.

All told, the Minutemen have four interceptions this season with Tyler Rudolph (vs. Miami) and Michael Opong (at New Mexico State) also posting interceptions. The four interceptions rank tied for sixth in FBS.

QUICK HITS

Massachusetts held Eastern Michigan to a 3-for-12 mark on third down last Saturday and now ranks tied for 38th in the FBS in third down defense (13-for-39/.333).

UMass is tied for 12th in FBS with three fumble recoveries and ranks 11th in FBS with seven turnovers gained (four interceptions and three fumble recoveries).

Billy Wooden is one of 11 FBS players with at least two fumble recoveries this season.

Kay/Ron Lynch-Adams has 237 rushing yards through the first three games, which ranks 14th in FBS.

A WIN WOULD ...

Give UMass its first all-time win over New Mexico and even its 2023 home record to 1-1 on the year.

Give UMass two wins in its first five games of the season for the first time since 2018 when the Minutemen opened the season with a 2-3 record including wins over Duquesne and Charlotte (have not beaten two FBS opponents in first five games since moving to FBS).

2023 OVERVIEW

Against New Mexico State to open the year, he totaled two touchdowns, marking his first career multiple touchdown game. He posted 101 yards on 14 carries at Auburn, including a 28-yard run, for his first career 100-yard game.

Last week at Eastern Michigan, Lynch-Adams carried the ball 26 times for a career-high 129 yards. His 366 rushing yards on the season ranks third in FBS (second among independents), trailing only Audric Esteime of Notre Dame (521) and Nate Noel of App State (420).

tory and was a two-time All-America selection (1994 and 1995) and a three-time All-Yankee Conference selection.

Ingoglia became the school and Yankee Conference's all-time leading career rusher with 4,623 yards after he ran for 656 yards during his rookie year, 1,284 yards as a sophomore, 1,505 yards as a junior and 1,178 yards as a senior.

Ingoglia closed out four years of dominance with 10 program records and a pair of the Yankee Conference's top statistical marks. He was the first UMass player in history to average more than 100 rushing yards per game over a career (112.8), posted 21 career 100-plus yard games, three career 200-plus yard performances and outrushed the entire opposing team 18 times in his career.

Following his college career, Ingoglia played parts of three NFL seasons (1996-98) with the Buffalo Bills and the Washington Redskins. He then competed for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe in 1999, where he helped the team to the World Bowl Championship.

GAME ONE: SEASON-OPENING ROAD WIN

Massachusetts opened the season with a 41-30 win at New Mexico State including putting up an impressive 28 points in the fourth quarter to pull away.

In his UMass debut, redshirt junior quarterback Taisun Phommachanh threw for 192 yards on 10-for-17 passing, while rushing for a team-high 96 yards on 17 carries with a touchdown.

Kay/Ron Lynch-Adams totaled 79 yards on 15 carries and found the end zone twice. Anthony Simpson also contributed a TD and had 27 yards on the ground to go along with three receptions for 65 yards.

Defensively Isaiah Rutherford pulled down a pick six, one of three turnovers recovered by UMass on the day.

Tyler Rudolph led the squad with eight tackles and a sack, while Marcus Bradley had six tackles, including five solo stops. Michael Oppong grabbed an interception and Billy Wooden recovered a fumble to help the Minutemen win the turnover battle, 3-0.

The 28-points UMass scored in the fourth quarter matched the most points the team has posted in one quarter in the program's FBS era. The Minutemen also scored 28 vs. Charlotte in the first quarter on September 22, 2018 and 28 in the first quarter vs. Georgia Southern on October 21, 2017.

The 41 points marked the highest offensive output for UMass since defeating Liberty 62-59 in 3OT on November 3, 2018 at McGuirk Alumni Stadium.

Massachusetts improved to 1-0 to start the season for the first time since 2018 when it beat Duquesne 63-15 to open the year on August 25 at McGuirk Alumni Stadium (second time UMass has been 1-0 in its FBS era).

It was also the first road win for the Minutemen since 2018 at UConn (24 games).

GAME TWO: RECAP

Massachusetts had the tough task of hitting the road to play a SEC foe Auburn and dropped a 59-14 decision in front of the largest crowd in Jordan-Hare Stadium history (88,043).

Kay/Ron Lynch-Adams paced the Minutemen with a career-high 101 yards on the ground, including a 28-yard run.

Redshirt junior quarterback Taisun Phommachanh was 8-for-16 through the air while also running for 34 yards and a touchdown. Anthony Simpson added a touchdown for the second consecutive game.

Redshirt senior Carlos Davis came in the game in the second half, finishing six-for-eight for 106 yards and a touchdown.

On the defensive side of the ball, Jalen Stewart had seven tackles (six solo), while Jordan Mahoney added six solo tackles. Tyler Rudolph had two pass breakups

GAME THREE: RECAP (VS. MIAMI (OHIO))

Last Saturday, UMass opened its home schedule, faltering to Miami University (Ohio) 41-28 at McGuirk Alumni Stadium after a near six-hour cumulative severe weather delay.

Due to lightning being within an eight-mile radius kickoff was delayed by two-hours and then the game was stopped with 2:42 left in the first quarter due to an additional lightning strike within eight miles. The game resumed at 9:42 p.m.

In his first career FBS start, quarterback Carlos Davis was 22-for-32 in the passing game, throwing for 244 yards and three touchdowns. Davis threw for an impressive 69% completion percentage, while recording a 163.7 quarterback rating. Junior quarterback Brady Olson then made his 2023-24 season debut midway through the fourth quarter.

Kay/Ron Lynch-Adams led UMass offensively on the ground with 57 yards of his own on 16 rushing attempts.

George Johnson III hauled in a team-high seven receptions, accumulating 50 yards and a touchdown. Greg Desrosiers Jr. followed behind with 40 total yards off of one reception and three rushing attempts, while Mark Pope paced the Minutemen with four receptions for 70 yards, including a 50-yard touchdown reception. Desrosiers Jr.'s catch was for a touchdown, his first career receiving TD and third overall.

Deshaun Jerkins tallied his first touchdown and interception as a Minuteman, adding three total tackles and a pass break up.

Defensively, Jerkins pulled down a pick six, one of two turnovers recovered on the game. Gerrell Johnson led UMass in tackles, (8) while Billy Wooden added a forced fumble and fumble recovery.

HEAD COACH DON BROWN

SECOND SEASON AT MASSACHUSETTS (SECOND STINT) // NORWICH '77

Highly respected football coach and iconic defensive mind Don Brown returned to the University of Massachusetts football program for his second stint as head coach on November 22, 2021.

Brown, who led the Minutemen to the winningest five-year stretch in program history from 2004 to 2008, is known for his aggressive and blitz-heavy attack on defense and has nearly 46 years of coaching experience to his credit.

In his first season back at UMass, the Spencer, Massachusetts, native began his rebuild by turning the 130th-ranked defense into the 55th-ranked defense in FBS. Following the 2022 season, seven of his players were named to Phil Steele's 2022 Postseason All-Independent Conference Team, including Ellis Merriweather (Second Team RB), Josiah Johnson (Second Team TE), Jalen Mackie (First Team LB), Jordan Mahoney (First Team CB), Marcus Cushnie (Second Team DE), Tyler Rudolph (Second Team S) and Greg Desrosiers Jr. (Second Team KR). Merriweather went on to sign with the New Orleans Saints following the NFL Draft.

Before returning to Massachusetts, Brown spent the previous 13 years guiding defenses at Maryland, Connecticut, Boston College, Michigan and the University of Arizona, where he served as the Wildcats' defensive coordinator during the 2021 season.

While at Michigan, the Wolverines finished among the top-12 units in the nation in total defense from 2016-2019, which included a No. 1 ranking in 2016. Under Brown's watch, the Wolverines led the country in pass defense twice, once in 2016 again in 2017. Michigan made 16 top-25 appearances in total defense, scoring defense, rush defense, and pass defense during the 2016-2019 stretch.

During his time with Michigan, Brown's student-athletes earned 49 All-Big Ten recognitions, with 43-of-44 starters earning all-conference honors as well as 10 players that picked up 14 first team nods.

Prior to his four years in Ann Arbor, Brown spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator at Boston College where he was known for the team's defensive overhaul that brought the squad to two bowl games in three seasons; a matchup with Arizona in the AdvoCare Independence Bowl in 2013 and the Pinstripe Bowl in 2014 against Penn State. The Eagles' ranked No. 92 in total defense the year prior to Brown's arrival and under his leadership earned two top-12 finishes in 2014 and 2015. That 2015 unit led the nation in total defense allowing only 254.3 yards per game. Brown spent one season at the University of Connecticut and the 2009 and 2010 campaigns at the University of Maryland before making his way to Boston College.

Before his tenure as a Power Five defensive coordinator, Brown served as the head coach at Massachusetts (2004-08), Northeastern (2000-03), and Plymouth State (1993-95) where he compiled a career record of 94-45. Brown amassed a combined five conference championships and six playoff appearances during his time at those three institutions. During his first stint at UMass, he led the Minutemen to a 43-19 record in what was the winningest period in program history.

Over the last decade, 29 defensive players who played under Brown have been selected in the NFL Draft. After the total overhaul of the Boston College defense, Brown was tabbed as the American Football Coaches Association, Assistant Coach of the Year in 2015. Brown was a five-time nominee and a finalist in 2016 for the Broyles Award, annually awarded to the nation's top assistant coach.

In 1992, Brown served as the interim head baseball coach at Yale where he led the team to a 26-10 record and an NCAA Tournament bid.

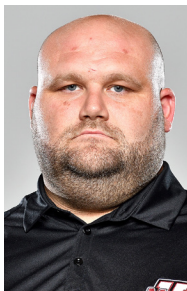

Brown played four years as a running back at Norwich University and lettered for two seasons as a member of the Men's Basketball team. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from NU in 1977.

Brown and his wife Deborah have four children and 11 grandchildren.
