LOBO NOTES

DEFENSE DELIVERS
Twice this season the Lobos have held their opponents to five or fewer points in a quarter.

In the win at Pepperdine, the Lobos held the Waves to four points in first quarter and without a point up until the 1:09 mark. Further, UNM held the Waves to 18 points in the first 20 minutes, with the last time that the Lobos held a team below 20 points in the first half was against Louisiana-Monroe on Nov. 27, 2021 (17 points). Pepperdine missed its first eight shots of the game and UNM forced two shot clock violations in that timespan. The Lobos were able to further expand their lead to 16 in the second quarter in part to a 6-0 Lobo run and holding Pepperdine to a 3:06 scoring drought. In the fourth quarter, Pepperdine scored its first points with 6:54 left in the game.

Against Tarleton State, the Lobos held the Texans to five points in the third quarter, outscoring them 20-5. UNM scored the first eight points of the quarter, ultimately going on a 10-1 run through the first 6:05. UNM later scored 10-straight points in a span of 1:55 for its best run of the game to build its largest lead of the contest at 53-31, taking a 53-33 lead into the final 10 minutes.

In addition to holding opponents to low point totals, the Lobos have also relied on defense to close out games. In the last game against Texas A&M-Commerce, UNM held the Lions the final 1:41 and for the final 27 seconds as the Lions held the ball for the final shot.

FOUR-FOR-FOUR DEAL
UNM had a season-high four players finish in double figures in the last game, led by a career-high 22 from Nyah Wilson. Aniyah Augmon scored 16, Charlotte Kohl finished with 16 and Paula Reus added 11.

The Lobos also have four averaging double figures on the season with Wilson at 16.5 ppg, Viané Cumber at 13.0, Augmon at 12.8 and Reus at 10.0. Wilson and Augmon have scored double digits three times (twice with 20 or more points for Wilson), while Cumber and Reus have scored in double digits twice which includes the last two games for Reus.

THREE'S COMPANY
The Lobos have had three players score in double figures in two games, with Nyah Wilson and Viané Cumber reaching double figures in both games, and Paula Reus and Aniyah Augmon once.

The trio of Cumber, Augmon and Wilson all scored in double figures in the season opener, accounting for 59 of UNM's 76 points and matched Texas Southern's total team point total.

Cumber took over in the fourth quarter, scoring 13 of her game-high 22 points in the final 10 minutes, while Wilson and Augmon were effective early, reaching double figures in the first 20 minutes to finish with a career-high 20 points and 17 points, respectively. Wilson and Augmon were also facilitators, with Augmon leading with a game- and career-high six assists and Wilson finishing with the second most on the team with three. Additionally, Wilson was 4-4 from three-point range with Cumber also making four.

It marked the first time that UNM had two 20-point scorers in a game since 2022.

Last game followed a similar storyline in that Wilson took over in the fourth quarter to score 15 of her career-high 22 points on 6-8 shooting. Wilson opened fourth with a driving layup and the Lobos continued to rely on the junior with Wilson making three consecutive layups as well as a three-pointer to tie the game at 63. Wilson ultimately scored the first 11 points of the fourth quarter for the Lobos, with her final points starting a 6-0 run that gave UNM a 69-65 lead.

ON ANY GIVEN NIGHT
The Lobos have been led in scoring by four different players and in rebounds by three different players in the four games this season.

Vianè Cumber (22 points) and Charlotte Kohl (nine rebounds) led in the season opener, Aniyah Augmon (16 points and nine rebounds) led at Pepperdine and Paula Reus and Nyah Wilson (16 points each) and Wilson (nine rebounds) led against Tarleton State. In the last game, Wilson led on her own with 22 points, tying Cumber for the single-game high this season, and Kohl led in rebounds for the second time this season with a career-high 20 rebounds.

BATTLE ON THE BOARDS
While the sample size is small, the Lobos have shown their ability to control the boards, outrebounding their opponents 180-147 (+33).

New Mexico Women's Basketball

Charlotte Kohl leads the team with 40 rebounds (10.0 per game) and Paula Reus averaging 7.0 rpg after collecting a season-high eight boards last game. Kohl had a 20-rebound performance, an 18-rebound outing in the final exhibition against Adams State, had a team-high eight rebounds in the first exhibition and grabbed nine against Texas Southern to start the season. Of her 40 rebounds, 19 are on the offensive end and the second most in the conference. She is ranked 15th in the NCAA in offensive rebounds per game (4.8) and 38th in rebounds per game.

UNM outrebounded Texas Southern 49-36 (+13), Tarleton State 45-35 (+10), Texas A&M-Commerce 47-33 (+14), Adams State 56-25 (+31) and Eastern New Mexico 48-26 (+22).

The Lobos are ranked 35th in the NCAA in rebounds per game (45.0), an improvement from last season in which the Lobos finished 177th in the NCAA in rebounds per game with 36.5. In addition, the Lobos have made an improvement in rebounding margin, finishing last season 246th at -2.0, compared to this season where the Lobos are currently ranked 59th with an +8.2 rebounding margin.

PAINT POINTS
UNM outscored opponents in the paint in all four games this season, with a +24 margin against Texas Southern (38-14), +8 margin at Pepperdine (34-26), a +10 margin against Tarleton State (34-24) and a +22 margin against Texas A&M-Commerce (50-28). UNM has scored 156 of its 272 points (57.4%) in the paint thus far.

GET AHEAD, STAY AHEAD
So far this season, the Lobos have led for:
•37:53 and led after each quarter against Texas Southern
•36:30 and never trailed at Pepperdine
•39:21 and never trailed against Tarleton State

UNM is outscoring opponents 71-48 (+23) in the first quarter and 140-107 (+33) through the first two quarters. The Lobos have held the lead heading into the fourth quarter in three of four games, outscoring opponents 199-167 (+32) through three quarters. In the fourth quarter, UNM is outscoring opponents 73-69.

In 2022-23, the Lobos were 18-4 on the season when leading after the first quarter and 18-4 overall when leading at the half. When leading at the end of the third quarter, the Lobos were 19-4 overall last season.

CALL ON KOHL
Charlotte Kohl finished with a dominating stat line of a career-high 14 points, career-high 20 rebounds (10 offensive), career-high four blocks and an assist for her first double-double of the season and second of her career against Texas A&M-Commerce.

Kohl registered the double-double by halftime and became the first Lobo to have 20 rebounds in a game since Richelle van der Keijl had 20 against New Mexico State exactly seven years prior on Nov. 15, 2016. Prior to that, the last Lobo to collect 20 rebounds was Amanda Adamson against Texas Tech on Dec. 13, 2008.

Of note, five of her 10 offensive rebounds translated to 11 of UNM's 16 second-chance points, eight of which were scored by Kohl and the three-pointer she had the assist on.

Her 20 rebounds in a game are the most by a MW player this season.

She was named the Mountain West Player of the Week on Nov. 20 for the first weekly conference award in her collegiate career.

THE CUMBER EFFECT
After Vianè Cumber entered the starting lineup against Colorado State on Jan. 26 last season, the Lobo scored double figures in nine of the games including four of the last five. The New Mexico native made six three-pointers and finished with 20 points in the last game of the season at Washington, her second game with 20 or more points last season.

Cumber picked right up in the first game of the 2023-24 season, tying her career high with 22 points that included four three-pointers. It was her 12th career game making four or more three-pointers.

Cumber has scored in double figures in two games this year with nine in the other two, leading the Lobos in scoring in the season opener.

She added three more three-pointers at Pepperdine and again against Tarleton to give her 35 career games making a three-pointer, 28 career games with multiple three-pointers and her 17th career game making three or more three-pointers.

Following a three against Texas A&M-Commerce, she's had 11th-straight games with at least one.

In three years, Cumber has scored in double figures 21 times and 20 or more points three times.

Further, the Lobo guard currently is tied for second in the MW in three-pointers per game with 2.75, and is 59th in the NCAA in three-pointers with 11.

WILSON'S WORLD
Nyah Wilson made quite the first impression in her first games as a Lobo, finishing in double figures in three games and setting several career highs.

In her first true game as a Lobo, Wilson finished with 20 points, four rebounds, three assists and a steal. The Dallas, Texas, native went 5-8 from the floor, a perfect 4-4 from behind the arc and nearly perfect at the free-throw line going 6-7.

Her 20 points set a then-career high, as did her five made field goals, her four made three-pointers and four attempts. She later bested that with 22 points on nine made field goals against Texas A&M-Commerce, scoring 15 points in the fourth quarter.

She added 16 points against Tarleton, setting a career high in rebounds (nine), made free throws (eight) and minutes played (33).

Further, in four games, she's scored 66 points and surpassed her season totals in each of her two years at Syracuse, scoring 36 points her freshman season and 32 points her sophomore season.

STEAL THE SHOW
Aniyah Augmon was credited with 11 steals in the first week of the season, with eight at Pepperdine and three against Tarleton State.

Her eight steals tied for the second most in a game by a Lobo in program history, with the last time it was done Feb. 8, 1998 by Tamika Stukes. Augmon had four steals in the first 20 minutes with three in the second quarter, which the four alone would have been a career high for the junior. She added two in the fourth quarter, including a steal and layup with 2:04 remaining in the game to make it 50-42 after Pepperdine closed within three at 45-42 with 2:37 to play.

She added two steals in the fourth quarter against Tarleton State 1:09 apart, with both resulting in fast-break points.

In her three years at UNM, she's had 14 games with multiple steals.

ALL ABOUT AUGMON
Beyond her career-high eight steals, Aniyah Augmon showcased her all-around ability to take over a game at Pepperdine, leading the Lobos with 16 points, nine rebounds and three assists.

Augmon had a career-high four steals through the first 20 minutes and scored eight points in the second quarter alone, and was the first player to reach double figures on a drive to the basket early in the third quarter. The Lobo junior had eight points, six rebounds and four steals in the final 20 minutes.

In the season opener, Augmon finished with 17 points, six rebounds, and a game- and career-high six assists.

She has scored in double figures in three games this season (16 against Texas A&M-Commerce). In addition, she's currently third in the MW in assists per game (4.0) with the third-most assists at 16.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE
The Pit has proven to be a home court advantage for the Lobos of late.

UNM has gone 34-4 over the last three years: 3-0 this season, 14-3 last season and 17-1 the year prior, which doesn't include going 2-0 in the only two home games in 2020-21.

Coach Mike Bradbury is 91-24 in The Pit in his eight years at UNM.

Entering the season, UNM has gone 119-43 (.735) in The Pit with seven seasons with 10-plus home wins and three seasons with 15-plus wins in the last 10 years.

In the past seven years under Bradbury, the Lobos have led the MW in attendance in six (with the lone year the COVID season when UNM had two home games without any fans in attendance).

UNM finished 18th in the NCAA last season in attendance and has finished in the top 20 six times in the last seven years (exception was 2020-21 COVID season).

20/10 AGAIN
Last season, the Lobos finished with 20 wins, the second-straight year with 20 wins and the fourth time under Coach Mike Bradbury.

In addition, the Lobos surpassed 10 wins in the MW, the third-straight year and sixth overall in Bradbury's seven years at UNM.

PRIDE OF NEW MEXICO
The Lobos have three New Mexico natives on the roster in redshirt-freshman Natalia Chavez and sophomore Jaelyn Bates and junior Vianè Cumber.

In addition, the Lobos have a New Mexico Gatorade Player of the Year winner in Cumber, with Cumber winning in 2019-20 and 2020-21.

Recent Lobo Amaya Brown won in 2015-16 and 2017-18 and Jaedyn De La Cerda won in 2016-17, meaning the winner in five of the last seven years were Lobos.

ABOUT MONTANA STATE
The Bobcats are 2-2 on the season having won their last two games against San José State (62-49) and North Dakota (60-53). Montana State is averaging 61.0 points per game, led by two in double figures in Katelynn Limardo (13.3 ppg) and Lexi Deden (11.5 ppg).

However, the Bobcats have not scored more than 62 points this season, outscoring opponents 68-57 in the first quarter, but being outscored in the second (54-47) and third (77-72) with the fourth quarter a tie at 57 scored and allowed.

They average 22.5 three-point attempts a game, making 6.0 and shooting 26.7% from distance. The Bobcats are effective from the free-throw line, attempting an average of 18 a game and shooting 80.6% from the line.

Montana State has recorded seven or more steals in all four of its games with 13 in the first game against BYU and eight in each of the last two games. The Bobcats have also recorded multiple blocks every game this season with five against San José State.

Montana State has started the same lineup in all four games in Limardo, Deden, Marah Dykstra, Madison Hall and Natalie Picton.

Mike Bradbury enters his seventh season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous six seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 120-65 (.649) overall record. Three times in his tenure (2017-18, 2018-19 and 2021-22) the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark, with the Lobos tying the program record for most wins in a single season with 26 in 2021-22. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury were the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

Additionally, Bradbury became just the second coach in UNM history to win 100 games with a win over Grambling on Nov. 30, 2021.

The Lobos have sustained success under Bradbury, with the program establishing several program records during the 2021-22 season. UNM set the program record in made three-pointers (346), a program-best 171 made three-pointers in conference season, as well as a program-record 596 assists on the season and 292 in conference games. In addition, the Lobos made a program-high 523 field goals in conference and scored the most points in conference in program history with 1,413 points. On Jan. 6 at Utah State, the Lobos set the program record and the MW record in made three-pointers in a game with 21, and three games later made 19 three-pointers for the second most in a game in program history. The Lobos also went on a nine-game win streak, the second longest in program history.

New Mexico ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in made three-pointers (third), made three-pointers per game (fifth, 9.6 per game) and in assists (10th). In total, UNM ranked in the top 30 in nine categories, including scoring offense (14th, 76.7 points per game), assists per game (16th, 16.6 per game), assist/turnover ratio (18th, 1.21), field-goal percentage (19th, 45.1 percent), blocked shots (25th, 147) and three-point field-goal percentage (30th, 35.1 percent).

UNM added six postseason Mountain West honors with a conference-high three all-conference players in Antonia Anderson, Shaiquel McGruder and Jaedyn De La Cerda, an honorable mention in LaTora Duff, an all-defensive player in McGruder and an all-freshman in Paula Reus. The Lobos have had 12 conference selections in the last two seasons.

Further, five Lobos finished the 2021-22 season averaging double figures in points per game.

In the 2020-21 season, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 13 All-Mountain West performers with Cherise Beynon, Jayla Everett, Jaisa Nunn, Aisia Robertson and Richelle van der Keijl joining De La Cerda, Duff, McGruder, Hurst and Anderson in making the All-Mountain West Team. Tesha Buck, Mykiel Burleson and Nike McClure have also earned MW recognition with Buck being the 2017-18 Newcomer of the Year, Burleson being named to the All-Freshman team in 2016-17 and McClure landing on the All-Defensive team in 2018-19.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury has coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Buck in 2017-18 and Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in Duff (2020-21).
