Chris Russell joined the Lobo Family in July of 2021 as head men's tennis coach. He came to UNM from the University of Washington, where he served for 17 seasons as the associated head coach. He brought with him to the Duke City 14 seasons as a head coach, with five at his alma mater UC Santa Barbara and nine at Oregon. He is the owner of six conference Coach of the Year awards, including winning Pac-10 Coach of the Year honors in 2000.

In 2022-23, Russell led UNM to its third regular season Mountain West title in the last four seasons, going 15-6 overall. He oversaw the Mountain West Player of the Year in Arda Azkara, as Lobo student-athletes picked up three Mountain West Player of the Week honors and three Freshman of the Week honors. UNM also picked up the first CSC Academic All-America honor in program history.

In his first season with New Mexico, Russell led the Lobos to the Mountain West title match despite a lineup of five freshmen. Four of those freshmen earned Mountain West Freshman of the Week honors, and Arda Azkara was named All-Conference twice while earning Mountain West Co-Freshman of the Year honors.

Over his 17 seasons at Washington, he has served as the associate head coach under Matt Anger. With the Huskies, he has helped UW to 12 NCAA Tournaments including Sweet Sixteen berths in 2005 and 2006. The Huskies finished the season in the ITA top 30 six times, and in the overall rankings 14 times. He was the Northwest ITA Assistant Coach of the Year in 2016. Prior to his time with Washington, he served as the head coach of the Oregon Ducks from 1996-2004, Russell achieved unprecedented success with the Ducks, molding them into a nationally respected program, leading Oregon to NCAA tournament appearances in 1998, 2000, and 2004. Those were the first three NCAA trips for the Ducks.

Russell was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 2000 after guiding the Ducks a second NCAA Tournament in the past three seasons, while mentoring individual All-American Guillermo Carter. In 2004 he watched Sven Swinnen also earn All-America honors as the Ducks again made it to the NCAA Tournament.

He went to Oregon after five years as his alma mater UC Santa Barbara. With the Gauchos, he coached both the men's and women's teams, earning five Big West Coach of the year honors (men's in 1989, women's in 1991, 1992, 1993 and 1994). He also coached three Big West Players of the Year, 14 All-Big West singles players and 10 All-Big West doubles tandems.

Chris and his wife Allison have two children, Kylie and Logan. Kylie graduated from the UNM women's soccer team and Logan is a manager with the men's basketball team.

SONAM PHUNTSOK

Assistant Coach

Sonam Phuntsok joined the Lobo Family in December of 2021 as assistant men's tennis coach. He handles all facets of coaching for UNM, including travel arrangements, academics and on-court coaching. Phuntsok spent the 2021 fall season as a volunteer assistant with the University of Arizona. He helped lay some of the groundwork with the Wildcats as Arizona went 21-8, including a 4-2 win over the Lobos in Tucson on March 1. The Wildcats eventually advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, defeating No. 12 Michigan and No. 17 Kentucky in the Lexington Regional.

Prior to Arizona, Phuntsok spent three years with Seattle University as an assistant coach for both the men's and women's programs.

There he helped recruit one of the best classes in program history and coached their No. 1 doubles team to an all-conference selection with two singles players making the list as well. While at Seattle University, he got his masters in sports business leadership.

He played for Lewis and Clark State College from 2012-2016. He was the captain of the team in both his junior and senior year, leading them to a GSAC conference championship his senior year, as well as the second round of the NAIA tournament. He won the 2014 Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) Arthur Ashe Sportsmanship/Leadership National Award and earned his degree in psychology with a minor in theater.

NCAA NOTES

SEMIFINALISTS: For the first time in UNM's history, the Lobos had a doubles team win three straight matches during the 1998 NCAA Championships. Pepe Caballero and Jeff Williams beat doubles teams that were ranked No. 1, Steve Baldas and John Roddick of Georgia, No. 8, David McNamara and Julius Robberts of Middle Tennessee St., and No. 13, Louie Pranic and Gareth Williams of Tulsa, in Athens, Ga. The Lobo duo lost in the semifinal round, earning All-America status.

REGIONAL WINNERS: The Lobos accomplished a first during the 1995-96 season. The format for the NCAA Championships changed in 1994. Unless a team is ranked in the top-eight, they must compete in a regional tournament. The Lobos went to Provo, Utah, for the Region VII Championships and beat two quality programs in Boise State and South Alabama. Unfortunately, the reward was a first round match against the No. 1 seed, the UCLA Bruins, in Athens, Georgia.
