LOBO NOTES

20/10 AGAIN

With the win at Wyoming, the Lobos recorded their 10th conference win. With Wednesday night's win against San Diego State, the Lobos reached 20 wins, the third consecutive year with 20 wins and the fifth time under Bradbury.

Only UNM and UNLV have reached the 20-win mark in each of the last three years, with Colorado State needing two wins to join the list. In addition, only UNM and UNLV have won 10 or more MW games in each of the last four years, which will hold true regardless of how the rest of the conference season plays out.

V FOR THREE

Vianè Cumber scored a game- and career-high 24 points behind a career-high eight three-pointers against Montana State, knocking down her first three three-point attempts and made five three pointers in the first quarter alone.

Her eight three-pointers tied for the third-most in a game in program history and was the seventh time a player historically has made eight or more three-pointers in a game. It is also tied for the most three-pointers by a MW player this season.

WILSON'S WORLD

Nyah Wilson has made quite the first impression in her first season as a Lobo, finishing in double figures in 22 games, with 20 or more points in nine games, leading the Lobos in scoring in nine games and setting several career highs.

In her first true game as a Lobo, Wilson finished with 20 points, four rebounds, three assists and a steal. The Dallas, Texas, native went 5-8 from the floor, a perfect 4-4 from behind the arc and nearly perfect at the free-throw line going 6-7. Her 20 points set a then-career high, as did her five made field goals, her four made three-pointers and four attempts.

She later bested that with 22 points on nine made field goals against Texas A&M-Commerce, scoring 15 points in the fourth quarter.

She added 16 points against Tarleton, setting a career high in rebounds (nine), made free throws (eight) and minutes played (33). She improved her career best in free throws, going 9-10 in the game against Georgia Tech and had a career-high 11 rebounds against Southern Utah, the first time with double-digit rebounds in her career.

In her first MW game at Nevada, Wilson went 9-12 at the free-throw line and finished with a team-high 21 points to go with eight rebounds, three assists and her first career block. In the game against Boise State, Wilson went 3-4 from three-point range and tied for the team high with two steals. Against Utah State, Wilson again finished in double figures with 16 points, with perhaps no basket bigger than the three-pointer she hit with 1:17 remaining to put UNM up 66-64 for the final lead change. Wilson created a career-high three steals, her fourth time in the last five games with multiple steals. She continued her streak of double-digit points and multiple steals at Colorado State with 17 points, going 7-11 from the floor and was credited with two steals, and again against Wyoming behind a career-high 23 points and career-high four steals. Wilson bested her career high against Fresno State with 24 points and made a career-high 10 free throws. Wilson had a near identical stat line at Air Force, going 7-11 from the field and 10-12 from the free-throw line to tie her career high set against Fresno State of 24. In addition, she recorded her first career double-double with 10 rebounds.

In the second game against UNLV, Wilson scored a career-high 25 points on a career-high 11 made field goals, scoring 11 points in the third quarter alone. In the game at San Diego State, she scored a game-high 21 points to go with seven rebounds and a game- and career-high six assists.

Wilson has scored in double figures in 15 MW games and has registered multiple steals in six.

On the season, she's scored a team-high 430 points (14.8 ppg) and is second in steals with 34. She is fifth in the MW in points per game and sixth in field goal percentage (.410) and seventh in free-throw percentage (.736). Wilson has made the second-most free throws (106) and taken the second-most free throws (144) amongst MW players.

In conference play, Wilson is averaging 17.3 ppg and is fourth in the MW in scoring as well as fifth in field-goal percentage (.465). The Lobo junior is also 12th in assists per game (2.6) and in steals per game (1.4) and eighth in free-throw percentage (.714).

STEAL THE SHOW

Aniyah Augmon was credited with 11 steals in the first week of the season, with eight at Pepperdine and three against Tarleton State and was a sign of things to come for the Lobo junior.

Her eight steals tied for the second most in a game by a Lobo in program history, with the last time it was done Feb. 8, 1998 by Tamika Stukes. Augmon had four steals in the first 20 minutes with three in the second quarter, which the four alone would have been a career high for the junior. She added two in the fourth quarter, including a steal and layup with 2:04 remaining in the game to make it 50-42 after Pepperdine closed within three at 45-42 with 2:37 to play.

Augmon has recorded multiple steals in 14 games with two against Boise State and Montana State, three against Eastern Illinois, Tarleton State, Hampton, Utah State and Fresno State, four against Georgia Tech, Colorado State and UNLV (twice), five against New Mexico State and Wyoming, eight against Pepperdine. She's had five or more steals in three games.

In her three years at UNM, she's had 26 games with multiple steals and 50 games with a steal. She currently is tied for first in the MW in steals per game at 2.2 and her 59 steals are 25 more than the second-highest player on the team. Nationally, Augmon ranks 71st in the NCAA in steals and 75th in steals per game. In MW games, Augmon leads the conference with 31 steals and a 2.1 steals per game average.

It took her eight games to surpass her season total of steals from her freshman (24) and sophomore (23) seasons.

ALL ABOUT AUGMON

Beyond her ability to impact a game with steals, Aniyah Augmon has scored in double figures in a team-high 23 games this season, including the last 15.

In addition to steals per game, Augmon is ranked fifth in assists per game (3.6), ninth in scoring (13.2) and 12th in rebounds per game (6.0) in the MW. In MW games, she's sixth in points per game (15.1) after scoring double figures in all 15 games she's played in, seventh in field-goal percentage (.418) and in free throw percentage (.718), seventh in assists per game (3.3), first in steals per game (2.1) with a conference-best 31 steals and 12th in rebounds per game (6.3).

She's recorded 15-plus points in 12 games with six or more assists seven times and nine rebounds three times with 13 games with six or more rebounds this season. She recorded her first game with 20-plus points against Wyoming with a career-high 22 points, with a career-best nine free throws.

Augmon recorded her first double-double of the season against Utah State behind a career-high 10 assists and 13 points. Against CSU, she tied her career high in points on a career-high eight made field goals and a career-high 16 rebounds for her second double-double. She added her third 20 point game against San Diego State.

HOT HANDS

Against Texas Southern, Vianè Cumber took over in the fourth quarter, scoring 13 of her game-high 22 points in the final 10 minutes, going 5-7 from the floor and 3-4 from three-point range.

The Texas A&M-Commerce game followed a similar storyline in that Nyah Wilson took over in the fourth quarter to score 15 of her career-high 22 points on 6-8 shooting. Wilson opened fourth with a driving layup and the Lobos continued to rely on the junior with Wilson making three consecutive layups as well as a three-pointer to tie the game at 63. Wilson ultimately scored the first 11 points of the fourth quarter for the Lobos, with her final points starting a 6-0 run that gave UNM a 69-65 lead.

Against Eastern Illinois, Paula Reus finished with a career-high 25 points, 17 of which came in the third and fourth quarters. She scored 10 points in the fourth quarter on 4-5 shooting and two three-pointers. In the overtime period, Cumber scored seven points, including the go-ahead basket with 32 seconds remaining and two free throws with seven seconds on the clock.

Wilson scored nine of her 13 points, Reus scored 10 of her 15 points and Augmon scored seven of her 10 points in the final two quarters against New Mexico State.

In the game against Boise State, Aniyah Augmon scored the first seven points of the third quarter for the Lobos, scoring 12 of her 15 points in the final 20 minutes.

Against Utah State, the Lobos turned a two-point halftime deficit into a 37-30 lead behind four consecutive three-pointers with Cumber responsible for two and Reus and Augmon making one. UNM's lead reached double digits on Wilson free throws, expanding to 14 at 46-32 on another Cumber three-pointer at the 4:51 mark in what amounted to a 21-5 run.

Augmon scored seven of UNM's nine points in the first quarter at CSU and Cumber scored 10 points in the fourth quarter after going 4-6 from the floor and 2-2 from three-point range. In the game against Wyoming, Wilson led the Lobos with 14 points in the first two quarters on 6-7 shooting, while Augmon scored 16 points in the final two quarters, going 9-12 from the free-throw line. After Wyoming led by 13 (44-31) in the third quarter, UNM went on a 17-2 run behind an 7-0 personal run by Wilson and eight points by Augmon to give UNM a 48-46 lead, its first since it was 13-11 in the first quarter.

At No. 25 UNLV, Cumber led the Lobos with 22 points on six three-pointers, of which 17 points were scored in the final 20 minutes behind five three-pointers that included the game-winner with 3.7 seconds left.

Against Fresno State, it was a balanced effort in the final 20 minutes as Wilson scored 15 points on 5-7 shooting, Augmon went 3-3 from the floor and 4-6 from the free-throw line for 10 points and Cumber scored 11 points as UNM outscored Fresno State 47-41 and shot 59.3% as a team.

In the game at Air Force, Wilson scored 11 of her 24 points in the fourth quarter, going 2-3 from the floor and 7-8 from the line. The storyline was similar in the second game against UNLV with Wilson scoring 11 of her 25 points in the third quarter, going 5-7.

ANIYAH'S AWARD

After a 2-0 week for New Mexico in which the Lobos defeated two previously unbeaten teams in conference in Wyoming and No. 25/23 UNLV, Lobo junior Aniyah Augmon was selected as the Mountain West Player of the Week on Jan. 22.

It marked the first weekly conference award for Augmon, who earned the accolade after leading the Lobos with 18.5 points per game, 4.5 steals per game and 4.0 assists per game and was second in rebounds per game with 5.5.

Augmon scored a career-high 22 points in the win against the Cowgirls, making a career-high nine free throws, while also recording five steals. She finished with nine points in the fourth, going 7-8 from the free-throw line, to finish with 16 points in the final 20 minutes against Wyoming. On Saturday, she added 15 points, seven rebounds, a game-high four steals and a game-high seven assists in the win at UNLV.

Among her highlights against the Cowgirls was a three-pointer in the third quarter that made it a 44-34 game with the Lobos trailing, which started what amounted to be a 17-2 run to give UNM its first lead since it was 13-11 in the first quarter at 48-46. Augmon scored seven points of the run and finished with two steals in the quarter. She later made seven-straight free throws in the fourth quarter, including four free throws as part of the 11-0 run that turned UNM's four-point deficit of 53-49 to a seven-point lead of 60-53, and after Wyoming got within three with 20 seconds left, Augmon knocked down a pair of free throws and scored the final points of the game on a fast-break layup off of a Nyah Wilson steal.

Against the Lady Rebels, she assisted on consecutive Viané Cumber three-pointers that got UNM's deficit down to one at 40-39 in the third quarter, with the final one coming off of a steal, and then again assisted on consecutive Lobo baskets in the fourth quarter that got UNM within one at 55-54 and on the three-pointer that gave UNM at 57-55 lead. Augmon had a huge offensive board and putback in the fourth that gave UNM a 59-57 lead and made a layup and finished through the contact, converting at the free-throw line to put UNM in front 64-63.

NOW IT'S NYAH'S TURN

A career high week led to Nyah Wilson's first career weekly award as the Lobo guard was named Mountain West Player of the Week on Jan. 29.

Wilson earned the honor after averaging 24.0 points per game, 7.0 rebounds per game, shot 58.3% (14-24) from the floor and 83.3% (20-24) from the line as UNM went 2-0 on the week.

The Dallas, Texas native set career highs of 24 points and 10 made free throws against Fresno State, which she matched both at Air Force on Saturday. Wilson went 7-13 from the floor and 10-12 from the free throw line in the win against Fresno State and had a nearly identical stat of 7-11 from the floor and 10-12 from the line at Air Force. In addition, she recorded first career double-double in the win at Air Force following a game-high 24 points to tie her career high and 10 rebounds.

Wilson scored nine points in the third quarter in Wednesday's win against the Bulldogs, including the final seven Lobo points of the quarter as UNM led 58-54 at the end of the quarter, after going 3-4 from the floor and 3-4 from the line. The Lobo added six more points in the fourth quarter to give her 15 points in the final 20 minutes on 5-7 shooting and 5-6 from the free throw line.

Her impact continued on Saturday, as Wilson scored six of UNM's points during an 8-0 run to take an 11-2 lead in the first. She finished 3-4 with two rebounds and an assist in the opening quarter as UNM outscored Air Force 20-7. She closed the game scoring 11 points in the fourth quarter against the Falcons, including two and-ones- one that made it 54-41 and one that made it 59-44. Wilson was consistent at the line, going 7-8 from the line in the final quarter.

ANIYAH'S AWARD X2

Aniyah Augmon's impact on Saturday's game was evident, and the Mountain West took notice with the Lobo junior guard named Mountain West Player of the Week on Monday, Feb. 12.

It marked the second weekly conference honor in four weeks for Augmon, and the third player of the week award for a New Mexico player in the last four weeks.

Augmon's latest accolade comes after she led the Lobos with a game-high 22 points (tying her career high) on a career-high eight made field goals and a game-and career-high 16 rebounds for her second double-double of the season in the win against Colorado State.

Nine of her points occurred in the second quarter on 4-4 shooting including 1-1 from three-point range. Augmon scored consecutive baskets that kept the lead at five in the second quarter and was part of a larger 9-2 run that turned a 17-15 deficit into a 24-19 lead. She later had a personal 5-0 run that put UNM up 34-26 as part of a 7-0 run that stretched a one-point lead to an eight-point lead. The junior had 12 points and eight rebounds by the half.

Augmon continued to be effective in the third quarter her 10th rebound led to a three-pointer to start the scoring and her three-pointer on the following possession stretched the lead to double digits at 12 (40-28). Entering the game as the MW leader in steals, Augmon also added a steal that turned into a fast-break layup in the fourth quarter to push the lead to eight and assisted on the three-pointer 40 seconds later that got the lead back up to double digits at 55-44. Augmon capped the night by scoring UNM's final points on an and-one, making the free throw to give UNM its largest margin of 16.

CALL ON KOHL

Charlotte Kohl finished with a dominating stat line of a career-high 14 points, career-high 20 rebounds (10 offensive), career-high four blocks and an assist for her first double-double of the season and second of her career against Texas A&M-Commerce.

Kohl registered the double-double by halftime and became the first Lobo to have 20 rebounds in a game since Richelle van der Keijl had 20 against New Mexico State exactly seven years prior on Nov. 15, 2016. Prior to that, the last Lobo to collect 20 rebounds was Amanda Adamson against Texas Tech on Dec. 13, 2008.

Of note, five of her 10 offensive rebounds translated to 11 of UNM's 16 second-chance points, eight of which were scored by Kohl and the three-pointer she had the assist on.

Her 20 rebounds in a game are the most by a MW player this season.

She was named the Mountain West Player of the Week on Nov. 20 for the first weekly conference award in her collegiate career.

Kohl bested that performance against Mississippi Valley State with a career-high 16 points, matched her career high in rebounds with another 20 rebounds and set a career high in blocks with five. She was an efficient 7-9 from the floor and 2-2 from the free-throw line and recorded her double-double by half with 11 rebounds and 10 points.

CHARLOTTE'S BOARD

Charlotte Kohl became the first Lobo since 1978 to record multiple games of 20 rebounds, which was last done by Carol Moreland. Kohl brought down 20 rebounds in the game against Texas A&M-Commerce and again in the game against Mississippi Valley State.

In addition, she is one of seven DI players to have multiple games with 20 rebounds (Saylor Poffenbarger, Arkansas, Lauren Gustin, BYU, Carter McCray, Northern Kentucky, Phillipina Kyei, Oregon, Angel Reese, LSU and Cameron Brink, Stanford).

PARIS PICKS UP AN AWARD

Paris Lauro was named the Mountain West Freshman of the Week on Dec. 26, earning her first weekly conference honor.

In UNM's lone game of the week at No. 20 Gonzaga, the Dallas, Texas native made three, three-pointers and added a season-high four rebounds, a block and was credited with her first assist while playing a season-high 21:44 off the bench. It was the second-straight game with three or more three-pointers by the freshman, who has seen her minutes increase in each of her seven appearances this season.

Lauro was especially productive in the third quarter, going 3-4 from behind the arc and added two rebounds, accounting for all three made three-pointers and nine of UNM's 11 points in the quarter. In addition, she recorded her first assist as a Lobo in the first quarter on a Viané Cumber three that put UNM up 14-10 and her second block of the season late in the fourth quarter.

PRIDE OF NEW MEXICO

The Lobos have three New Mexico natives on the roster in redshirt-freshman Natalia Chavez and sophomore Jaelyn Bates and junior Viané Cumber.

In addition, the Lobos have a New Mexico Gatorade Player of the Year winner in Cumber, with Cumber winning in 2019-20 and 2020-21.

Recent Lobo Amaya Brown won in 2015-16 and 2017-18 and Jaedyn De La Cerda won in 2016-17, meaning the winner in five of the last seven years were Lobos.

ABOUT NEVADA

The Wolf Pack enters the game 14-15, 8-8 in the Mountain West and have gone 3-3 in their last six games losing the last three. Nevada is 4-4 in MW road games.

Audrey Roden is the only player averaging double figures at 11.8, and is also leading the team with 59 steals and 62 assists.

As a team, Nevada is scoring 63.4 ppg and allowing 64.4 ppg on the season, and scoring 63.0 ppg and allowing 64.5 ppg in conference play. Izzy Sullivan leads with 11.4 ppg, joined in double figures by Roden's 10.8 ppg.

Nevada leads the MW in offensive rebounds per game at 12.9 and is second in offensive rebounds against conference opponents at 12.0.

Mike Bradbury enters his eighth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous seven seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 141-78 (.644) and 77-45 (.631) in conference. Four times in his tenure (2017-18, 2018-19, 2021-22 and 2022-23) the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark, with the Lobos tying the program record for most wins in a single season with 26 in 2021-22. Further, the 25 wins in 2017-18 were tied for the second-most wins in program history. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury in 2017-18 and 2018-19 were the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

Additionally, Bradbury became just the second coach in UNM history to win 100 games with a win over Grambling on Nov. 30, 2021.

The Lobos have sustained success under Bradbury as historically, UNM has finished either first or second in the conference in scoring offense in the last six years (four times first). In Bradbury's time at UNM, the Lobos have finished with 15 or made three-pointers 11 times and hold the top-five spots in three-pointers per game in program history.

In the most recent season, UNM finished 15th in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game at 8.5 per game, with 12 games with double-digit three-pointers. Of the 12 games, UNM made 18 (against South Carolina State) and three games with 16 (twice against Utah State and at Fresno State).

During the 2021-22 season, the program established several program records. UNM set the program record in made three-pointers (346), a program-best 171 made three-pointers in conference season, as well as a program-record 596 assists on the season and 292 in conference games. In addition, the Lobos made a program-high 523 field goals in conference and scored the most points in conference in program history with 1,413 points. On Jan. 6 at Utah State, the Lobos set the program record and the MW record in made three-pointers in a game with 21, and three games later made 19 three-pointers for the second most in a game in program history. The Lobos also went on a nine-game win streak, the second longest in program history.

New Mexico ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in made three-pointers (third), made three-pointers per game (fifth, 9.6 per game) and in assists (10th). In total, UNM ranked in the top 30 in nine categories, including scoring offense (14th, 76.7 points per game), assists per game (16th, 16.6 per game), assist/turnover ratio (18th, 1.21), field-goal percentage (19th, 45.1 percent), blocked shots (25th, 147) and three-point field-goal percentage (30th, 35.1 percent).

UNM added six postseason Mountain West honors with a conference-high three all-conference players in Antonia Anderson, Shaiquel McGruder and Jaedyn De La Cerda, an honorable mention in LaTora Duff, an all-defensive player in McGruder and an all-freshman in Paula Reus. The Lobos have had 12 conference selections in the last two seasons.

Further, five Lobos finished the 2021-22 season averaging double figures in points per game.

In the 2020-21 season, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 13 All-Mountain West performers with Cherise Beynon, Jayla Everett, Jaisa Nunn, Aisia Robertson and Richelle van der Keijl joining De La Cerda, Duff, McGruder, Hurst and Anderson in making the All-Mountain West Team. Tesha Buck, Mykiel Burlison and Nike McClure have also earned MW recognition with Buck being the 2017-18 Newcomer of the Year, Burlison being named to the All-Freshman team in 2016-17 and McClure landing on the All-Defensive team in 2018-19.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury has coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Buck in 2017-18 and Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in Duff (2020-21).
