5. Conduct of Athletics Personnel: Employee, hired to the duties of their position to support intercollegiate athletics, shall act with honesty and sportsmanship at all times in promoting the honor and dignity of fair play in the context of the high standards associated with collegiate competitive sports. Employee acknowledges that negative statements concerning the Athletics Department, the University, and the State of New Mexico made to the media or in public may be detrimental to recruiting, fundraising, and the morale of coaches, staff and student athletes and the reputation of the University. Therefore, Employee agrees that Employee is highly encouraged that whenever appropriate and in a timely manner, will first direct any complaint or criticism that Employee may have of a particular University Sports Program, the Athletics Department or the University to the DIA before directing the complaint or criticism to anyone else. Failure by Employee to report immediately to the University's athletics compliance staff and, as appropriate the DIA or other responsible University official/department, any alleged violations of University, MWC or NCAA policies, rules or regulations by Employee or, upon becoming aware of violations by any coaches, staff members, student-athletes, or other persons under Employee's supervision that become known to Employee, which failure, in the reasonable opinion of the DIA (i) creates material risk for the University or Program or (ii) negatively affects the University or the Program in a material manner, shall subject Employee to disciplinary or corrective action as set forth in the NCAA enforcement procedure. Such failure to report shall also subject Employee to immediate suspension, at the University's sole discretion, for a period of time without pay, or termination as described in Section 09.

If the University determines that Employee is in violation of MWC or NCAA rules and regulations while employed by the University, or was in violation of NCAA or conference rules and regulations during prior employment at another NCAA member institution, Employee shall be subject to disciplinary or corrective action as set forth in the NCAA enforcement procedure and may be suspended without pay by the University at the University's reasonable discretion for a period of time not to exceed ninety (90) days, or terminated as described in Section 09. If Employee fails to meet his obligations as stated in this Section or fails to complete any University-required training within six (6) months of the beginning of Employee's employment, or otherwise fails or refuses to meet his obligations under any law, regulation, policy or procedure, Employee may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including suspension and termination as described in Section 09.

Employee specifically acknowledges and agrees that Employee's compliance with applicable laws, policies, rules, and regulations are material obligations of this Contract.

8. Non-Applicability of University Employment Policies and Due Process Guarantees: This Contract creates no expectancy of or property interest in continued employment with the University. Employee's Initial DW

If this Contract is terminated for cause, the University shall have no further liability except for base salary and fringe benefits accrued to the date of termination.

Nothing in this Section shall prevent, limit or otherwise interfere with the University's right to terminate the services of the Employee without cause at any time subject to the provisions of Sections 10, 11, 12, and 1309 t herein. Employee expressly agrees that nothing in this Agreement creates any expectancy of or property interest in continued employment and no University Administrative Policy addressing or governing progressive discipline, discharge or the appeal process for discharge shall be applicable to Employee.

- 10. Termination by Request of Employee: Employee may terminate this Contract at any time upon written notice to the DIA. In the event that Employee terminates this Contract pursuant to this Section, the University shall have no further liability except for base salary and benefits accrued to the date of termination.

Employee understands and agrees that termination of this Contract pursuant to this Section prior to the expiration of the Contract Term will cause irreparable harm to the reputation and athletic programs of the University in an amount not capable of precise calculation or quantification. Therefore, if Employee terminates this Agreement during the Contract Term, Employee agrees to pay to the University as liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, fifty percent (50%) of his base salary for the remainder of the Contract Term, within sixty (60) days of such termination.

Liquidated damages may be modified to a lesser amount at the discretion of the DIA, with approval of the University President.

- 11. Termination by Request of University: The University may terminate this Contract at any time by giving Employee written or verbal notice. Notwithstanding any terms or provisions of this Contract or that may be found in University policy regarding employment that may be interpreted to the contrary, Employee's employment relationship with the University shall terminate upon delivery of the notice of termination or as otherwise set forth in the notice of termination.

- a) In the event of termination of this Contract by the University pursuant to this Section the University agrees to pay, and Employee agrees to accept, as severance, the remainder of Employee's base salary for the remainder of the Contract Term.

Employee understands and agrees that there will be no retirement withholding or contribution on the severance payments described in this Section, and that no benefits of any kind will accrue to Employee as a result of such payment. Employee agrees that as a condition of receiving any severance payments under this Section, except for any earned but unpaid compensation as of the date of termination and any legally protected rights Employee has under any employee benefit plan, Employee must agree to not disparage the University and must execute a comprehensive release in a form to be determined by the University, in its sole discretion (the "Release"). Severance payments will not commence until Employee has fully executed the Release.

If Employee's Monthly Compensation from such employment is less than UNM's monthly obligation to pay severance under this Section, the amount of UNM's obligation to pay severance shall be reduced, dollar for dollar, by the amount of Employee's Monthly Compensation from such employment.

No verbal understandings, statements, promises, or inducements contrary to the terms of this Contract exist.
- 15. Severability: If any provision of this Contract is held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability; provided, however, that the remaining provisions will continue in full force without being impaired or invalidated in any way unless such invalid or unenforceable provision or clause shall be so significant as to materially affect the Parties' expectations regarding this Contract. The Parties shall replace any invalid or unenforceable provision with valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid or unenforceable provision.
- 16. Governing Law and Forum: This Contract, and any other amendments, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Mexico.
- 17. Waiver: No waiver by either party of any rights under this Contract will be valid unless set forth in a writing signed by that party. The failure of either party to insist upon strict performance of this Contract shall not be construed as a waiver of any of the party's other rights under the Contract.

- 19. Mandatory, Binding Arbitration: The Parties agree to submit to binding arbitration any claims that they may have against each other, of any nature whatsoever, other than those prohibited by law, pursuant to the New Mexico Uniform Arbitration Act, and hereby waive any rights to file suit in a court of law on any such claims.
