LOBO NOTES

SERIES HISTORY

Wednesday will be the third time all-time that the Lobos have faced UC Irvine, with both previous meetings taking place at home. UNM won the first meeting on Nov. 15, 2010 71-59 and the second meeting almost seven years ago to the day 83-61 on Nov. 25, 2017.

Of note, in the last game against the Anteaters, current graduate assistant Jaisa Nunn scored 17 points and recorded a double-double with 18 rebounds, the second-most rebounds in her career.

4-FOR-4 DEAL

The Lobos had a season-high four players score in double figures against Western New Mexico and South Carolina State. Against WNMU, the Lobos were led by 15 from Destinee Hooks, 13 from Viané Cumber, 12 from Hulda Joaquim and 10 from Hargrove, and against South Carolina State, Joaquim led with a career-high 14 points, followed by 13 from Cumber and Hooks and a season-high 12 from Amhyia Moreland.

UNM has had a player score 20-plus points in four of the games this season. Destinee Hooks has scored 20-plus points three times (21 vs. Northern Arizona, 28 at Texas Tech and 24 vs. Gonzaga) and Viané Cumber scored 23 against Morehead State.

GOOD THINGS COME IN THREES

The Lobos have had three different players lead the team in scoring in a game this season, with Hooks leading the team in four (NAU, Texas Tech, Western New Mexico and Gonzaga), Cumber in one (Morehead State) and Hulda Joaquim in one (South Carolina State). UNM has also had three different players lead the team in rebounds this season with Joaquim has led in the last three games, Cumber twice (NAU and Morehead State) and Amhyia Moreland leading in rebounds once (at Texas Tech).

BLOCK IT UP

Blocks have been a prevalent statistic this season with the Lobos, finishing with five or more blocks in four of the games.

In the game against South Carolina State, Amhyia Moreland finished with a career-high six blocks, with the Lobo matching her career high of four by halftime. Of note, she is the first Lobo to record six blocks in a game since Antonia Anderson did it against UC Riverside on Nov. 5, 2019 and one of 12 Lobos to record six or more blocks in a game dating back to 2002. While Carol Moreland holds the program record of most blocks in a game, done twice in 1978, Nike McClure holds the most recent record of blocks in a game with nine, done in 2018 against Oklahoma.

The Lobos finished with 10 blocks against Morehead State, the most in a game since 2021, when UNM had 11 against Houston Baptist on Nov. 23. Seven different Lobos had at least one block with Hulda Joaquim, Destinee Hooks and Alyssa Hargrove leading with two apiece. Lara Langermann recorded her first career block, with Lydie Mwamba, Moreland and Reza Po all contributing one.

UNM has 34 blocks this season with Moreland with 10, Hargrove with seven, Joaquim with five and Hooks, Po and Mwamba with two. As a team, UNM is 15th in the NCAA in blocks per game (5.7) and second in the Mountain West. Moreland is tied for fourth in the MW in blocks per game at 1.7 and 57th in the NCAA in blocks.

QUITE THE STEAL

The Lobos have created six or more steals in each of the games this season, including 13 in two games and nine in the last game against Gonzaga, averaging 9.5 steals per game.

Alyssa Hargrove leads the team in steals with 15 (2.5 per game), following three or more steals in the last three games with four against Western New Mexico and three against South Carolina State and Gonzaga. She's recorded a steal in each game and multiple steals in five. Hargrove led the team in steals against NAU, TTU and WNMU and tied for the team lead against South Carolina State.

Amhyia Moreland has had a steal in each of the last four games and Viané Cumber has had a steal in each of the last three, including a game-high four against Gonzaga, which tied her career high.

Three Lobos are averaging over a steal per game with Hargrove, Cumber (1.5) and Joana Magalhães (1.2). Hargrove is sixth in the Mountain West in steals per game, tied for third in number of steals and 80th in the NCAA in steals.

MOUNTAIN OF STATS

Among the Mountain West teams, the Lobos rank in the top three in six categories, leading the conference in two.

UNM leads the conference in assists per game (16.5) and field goal percentage (.448). UNM is second in blocks per game (6.2) and third in rebounding margin (+3.8), three-point field goal percentage (.338) and assist/turnover ratio (1.1).

UNM has the most assists in a game this season with a conference-best 24 against South Carolina State. The 10 blocks against Morehead State are tied for the second most in a game this season.

On an individual level, Viané Cumber leads the conference in three-pointers per game (3.2) with a conference-best 19 made three-pointers and her three-point percentage (.422) also leads the MW. Cumber's seven three-pointers against Morehead State are the most made by a MW player this season with her 12 attempts in the game also the most.

Destinee Hooks' 28 points at Texas Tech is tied for the most points scored by a MW player this season, with her 11 made field goals in the game the most by a MW player. Hooks is second in the conference in points per game at 17.8 with Cumber eighth at 14.8. Hooks is also fourth in field goal percentage (.550) with Cumber seventh (.449). Joana Magalhães is fourth in the conference in assists per game (3.2), third in number of assists (19) with Alyssa Hargrove tied for fifth in assists per game (3.0) and Reza Po tied for 15th in assists per game (2.5).

KEEP IT BELOW 10

The Lobos have held an opponent below 10 points in a quarter four times this season, doing it twice in a game twice, with both occurring in the second and third quarters.

UNM held Morehead State to eight points in the second quarter and seven points in the third quarter and held South Carolina State to nine points in the second quarter and five points in the third.

STARTING STRONG, NEED TO FINISH STRONG

UNM has entered the fourth quarter with the lead in four games (NAU, Morehead State, Western New Mexico and South Carolina State). In those four games, UNM is outscoring opponents 79-59 in the first quarter and 74-44 in the second quarter (153-103 in the first 20 minutes), 68-46 in the third quarter and 88-81 in the fourth (156-127 in the last 20 minutes). UNM is 3-1 this season when taking a lead into the final quarter.

The Lobos led for the majority of the game in the three games, leading 34:12 and by as many as 13 against NAU but lost the lead and the game late. Against Morehead State, the Lobos led 39:33 and by as many as 24 in the fourth, but the lead was cut down to 10 in the 66-56 final. They only trailed for 3:47 (3:30 vs. NAU, 0:17 vs. MSU) in the first two games of the season. Against Western New Mexico, UNM led by as many as 29 and for 36:38.

On the season, UNM is outscoring its opponents 122-99 in the first quarter for the greatest point differential of +23. The Lobos are outscoring opponents by 99-79 in the second and 104-82 (+22), but trailing 126-120 in the fourth. UNM holds a 445-386 (+59) edge in overall points.

In addition, the Lobos have led for a total of 162:43 this season, leading after the first quarter in five games (exception was Gonzaga), and trailed for a total of 70:58, with the largest time coming against Gonzaga of 39:13. UNM never trailed in the game against South Carolina State, the first time that has happened this season, but also never led against Gonzaga although tying the game three times.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Alyssa Hargrove reached double digits in four official games as a Lobo, averaging 8.0 ppg on the season. Additionally, she is averaging 2.8 rpg, 3.0 apg, 2.5 spg and 1.2 bpg in 28.0 mpg, while shooting 40.0% from the floor and 50.0% from three with two three-pointers in two games. Hargrove led the Lobos with four assists and a game-high two steals in the season opener, and had two steals, two blocks, two assists and three rebounds at Texas Tech. In the game against Western New Mexico, Hargrove had a game-high four steals and 10 points, nine of which she scored in the first quarter to pace the Lobos. In the game against South Carolina State, she had three steals, three assists and four rebounds. She filled the stat sheet against Gonzaga with four assists, three steals, two blocks, three rebounds and five points. It was her third game on the season with two blocks, tied her season high in assists and was the third consecutive game with three or more steals.

Hargrove currently leads the team in steals (15) and is second in blocks (seven) and made three-pointers (seven) with a steal in all six games and a block in four. She is also second in assists with 14 and in made three-pointers with six and fourth in points per game.

Destinee Hooks has been a consistent scorer for the Lobos, reaching double figures in five games and has scored 20-plus points in three games. The Indiana native scored a game-high 21 points in the season opener, including 12 points at the half on 5-7 shooting. Hooks scored five consecutive points for UNM in the fourth quarter, including a game-tying three-pointer with 49 seconds left to tie the game at 75. She later made a free throw with 2.4 seconds left that tied the game at 78. Hooks followed that up with her second 20-point performance at Texas Tech, scoring a game-high 28 points for the second time leading the Lobos in scoring. Hooks led the Lobos in scoring for the third time with 15 against Western New Mexico and the fourth time against Gonzaga with her third 20-plus performance of 24 points.

Hooks currently leads the Lobos in scoring at 17.8 ppg, as well as in made free throws (14) and attempts (25), and is third in three-pointers (five). Additionally, she is second in the MW in scoring and fourth in field goal percentage (.550) and currently 27th in the NCAA in field goals (44), 70th in field goal percentage and 71st in points (107).

Off the bench, freshman Reza Po also had a strong first game as a Lobo with five points, two assists, a steal and a block and went 4-4 from the free-throw line with three assists and a block in the game against Morehead State. In the game at Texas Tech, Po had a season-best four rebounds to go with a steal and four points in 23 minutes. In the game against South Carolina State, she scored a season-high six points on two three-pointers. Po is third on the team in assists with 15.

FAST-BREAK POINTS

On the season, UNM has scored 75 fast-break points, while limiting opponents to 41. The Lobos held NAU to five fast-break points, Western New Mexico to four and South Carolina State and Gonzaga to two.

The Lobos have had the edge in fast-break points in five games.

PAINT POINTS

While a small sample size, the Lobos trend of prioritizing the paint points has continued from last season with UNM scoring 234 of its 445 points in the paint, accounting for 52.6% of the points and an average of 39.0 points per game. The Lobos are outscoring opponents 234-168 (+66) in the paint and have outscored opponents in the paint in four games (2-2 in those games).

In the season opener, UNM scored 42 of its 78 points in the paint, accounting for 53.8%. UNM outscored NAU 42-34 in the paint, with 14 points in both the first and second quarters coming in the paint to account for 28 of UNM's 42 points at the half. UNM had a season-best 56 paint points in the game against Western New Mexico, accounting for a season-high 65.9% of the total points. In the game against South Carolina State, UNM outscored the Lady Bulldogs 48-18 in the paint, scoring 60.0% of the total points in the paint. In the game against Gonzaga, UNM outscored the Bulldogs 38-30 in the paint with 55.9% of UNM's total points coming in the paint.

Last season, UNM outscored opponents in the paint in 24 games and by a 978-810 (+168) margin. UNM scored 47.2% of its points (978 of 2071) in the paint last season, averaging 30.6 points per game with 14 games scoring 50% or more of its total points in the paint.

CONSISTENT V

Viané Cumber has scored in double figures in all six games this season, the only Lobo to do so. She scored a season-high 23 points against Morehead State to lead the team in scoring, had 14 in the season opener against Northern Arizona, 10 at Texas Tech, 13 against Western New Mexico and South Carolina State and 16 against Gonzaga.

She picked up right where she left off in the season opener, scoring 14 points with two three-pointers and nearly tallied a double-double with a team-high eight rebounds. She also played a team-high 32:13 without recording a turnover.

She took over in the game against Morehead State, scoring a game-high 23 points and a game-high 12 rebounds for her first double-double of the season, hitting seven three-pointers. It was one point and one three-pointer shy of matching her career highs in both categories. Cumber went 4-4 from three-point range in the fourth quarter and went 5-5 in the final two quarters while bringing down five rebounds.

The Lobo senior recorded her third double-digit game of the season at Texas Tech with 10 points behind two three-pointers and repeated it against Western New Mexico with 13 points, which she matched that total against South Carolina State. She hit four three-pointers and finished with 16 points against Gonzaga. Cumber had nine points on 3-3 shooting from three-point range to lead the Lobos in the third.

In the first week of the season, Cumber led the Lobos with an average of 18.5 ppg and 10.0 rpg, shooting 48.0% from the floor and 56.3% from behind the arc with nine three-pointers.

She is currently averaging 14.8 points per game, 5.0 rebounds per game, 1.8 assists per game and shooting 44.9% from the floor and 42.2% from three-point range. Cumber is second on the team in points per game, made field goals (31) and steals per game (1.5) and third in rebounds per game. She also leads the team in made three-pointers with 19, 12 more than the next Lobo.

Last season, the New Mexico native scored in double figures in 17 games with four games of 20-plus points, leading the Lobos in scoring six times. The Lobo also registered three double-doubles, with 14 points and a career-high 14 rebounds against Eastern Illinois, 21 points and 11 rebounds against Utah State and 11 rebounds and 10 points at San Diego State.

Further, Cumber has scored in double figures 42 times and 20 or more points seven times in her career.

THREES IN VIANÉ'S DNA

The easiest way to know how to pronounce Viané's name is VNA, like DNA but VNA. And three-pointers are in Viané's DNA.

In her career, she has made a three in 64 games with 49 games with multiple threes, three or more three-pointers in 27 career games and 10 career games with five or more three-pointers. She has made at least one three-pointer in 38 of the last 41 games she's played in.

Among one of the best three-point shooters in the conference, she made three or more three-pointers 10 times last season. This season, she's made multiple three-pointers in five games and three or more in three games.

GAME 7: NEW MEXICO vs UC IRVINE

This season, she's made 19 with multiple three-pointers in five: seven against Morehead State, four against Gonzaga, three against South Carolina State and two against both Northern Arizona and Texas Tech. Her seven are tied for the 10th most made three-pointers in a game this season in the NCAA and tied for the eighth most in a game by a Lobo in program history.

She currently leads the Mountain West in made three-pointers, in three-pointers per game (3.2) and in three-point field-goal percentage (.422). Nationally, she is 18th in the NCAA in three-pointers and 26th in three-pointers per game, while 27th in three-point attempts (45).

Cumber is on the verge of a couple of reachable milestones with 791 points (209 away from 1,000) and 177 three-pointers, seventh all-time in program history. She is 62 from tying the program record of 239 set by LaTascya Duff and would have to average roughly two to three three-pointers per game.

DOUBLE TIME

The Lobos had two double-doubles in the win against Morehead State behind a 23-point and 12-rebound performance from Viané Cumber that included seven three-pointers and a 12-point and 10-rebound performance from Hulda Joaquim. It was Cumber's fourth double-double, as well as the fourth time with 10-plus rebounds and seventh time scoring 20-plus points in her career. For Joaquim, it was her career high in points and the third time with double-digit rebounds as a Lobo, recording her first career double-double.

UNM has three double-doubles on the season with Joaquim accounting for two (14 points, 10 rebounds vs. South Carolina State).

A WHOLE NEW TEAM

The 2024-25 Lobos has a different look than a season ago, with 10 newcomers on the roster. Of the 10, four are freshmen and six are transfers.

UNM returns one starter from a season ago in Viané Cumber, who averaged 11.4 points per game, 6.0 rebounds per game, both career bests, as well as had a career-best 39 assists, 22 steals and five blocks last season. Entering their sophomore seasons, Lara Langermann and Paris Lauro return after making 32 appearances with six starts and 22 appearances, respectively. Hulda Joaquim begins her third year with the Lobos and played in 31 games last year for a combined 44 games during her Lobo career.

Joining the Lobos in the offseason were freshmen Reza Po, Joana Magalhães, Nayli Padilla and Lilli Hakkarainen. The Lobos are a relatively young team with eight of the 14 underclassmen, however, of the 14, eight also bring Division I collegiate experience with the addition of transfers Drew Jordon (Wagner), Clarissa Craig (Cincinnati), Amhyia Moreland (San José State) and Alyssa Hargrove (Austin Peay) to compliment the four Lobo returners.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

The roster breaks down to 4 freshmen (28.6%), 4 sophomores (28.6%), 1 junior (7.1%), 4 seniors (28.6%) and 1 graduate student (7.1%). Eight of the 14 are underclassmen (57.1%) with six upperclassmen (42.9%).

AROUND THE WORLD

The roster breaks down further to span across the globe with seven countries represented and seven U.S. states with 12 different languages spoken. UNM has players from six international countries in Germany, Republic Democratic of Congo, Spain, Portugal, Mozambique, Finland as well as a greater U.S. footprint with Washington DC, North Carolina, Ohio, California, Texas, Indiana and New Mexico.

SUMMER ABROAD

Two Lobos spent their summer with their respective national teams, playing in the FIBA U20 Women's EuroBasket in Klaipeda and Vilnius, Lithuania.

Lara Langermann played for the German National Team, finishing in fourth place after losing to France in the semifinals and Italy in the third-place game. Lilli Hakkarainen played for the Finnish National Team.

Langermann and Hakkarainen faced each other in the round of 16 with Germany winning 90-60. Langermann scored 11 points on 4-5 shooting, 3-4 from three-point range, while Hakkarainen finished with five points and three rebounds.

Hakkarainen finished the tournament averaging 6.1 ppg, 4.0 rpg, 1.9 apg and 0.7 spg while playing 24.4 mpg. Langermann finished averaging 4.4 ppg, 1.3 rpg, 1.6 apg, 0.7 spg in 14.3 mpg.

POINT OF EMPHASIS

UNM entered the season having to replace its point guard from a season ago in Aniyah Augmon. The Lobos have options in freshmen Reza Po and Joana Magalhães, returning sophomore Lara Langermann and senior Alyssa Hargrove.

All four have been the one in games this season. Magalhães leads the team in assists with 19 (3.2 per game), followed by Hargrove at 18 (3.0) and Po at 15 (2.5). Langermann had a career-high four assists in the game against Gonzaga.

Augmon led the Lobos with 109 assists and averaged 33.7 minutes per game last season, with two games with 10 assists. Not only was she a leader on the court, she was also a consistent scorer, scoring in double figures in 26 games and 20-plus points in three games, finishing with three double-doubles.

FROM 0-60

A pattern emerged last season centered around the No. 60. 60 was the magic number for the Lobos as UNM was 19-1 when scoring 60 or more points and 14-2 when allowing fewer than 60 points. In conference games, UNM was 11-1 when scoring 60 or more and 7-1 when allowing fewer than 60 points.

This season, the Lobos are 3-0 when both occur. The win against Morehead State followed suit, scoring 66 points and allowed 56, as did the win against Western New Mexico, scoring 85 and allowing 56 and against South Carolina State where UNM scored 80 and allowed a season-low 38.

UNM is 3-3 when scoring 60 or more points this season and 3-0 when allowing fewer than 60 points. UNM opponents are averaging 64.3 ppg.

HELLO FROM THE OTHER SIDE

Amhyia Moreland spent the last two seasons at MW opponent San José State.

Against the Lobos, Moreland scored 19 points on 8-13 shooting with four rebounds and two steals at The Pit on Feb. 14 and scored eight points on the other two occasions she played her future team (both were in San Jose). Moreland averaged 11.6 ppg and 5.9 rpg last season with the Spartans.

MAKE YOURSELF AT HOME

The Lobos have a total of 22 home games on the schedule with two exhibitions, 11 non-conference and nine MW games.

In the opening month, UNM has six home games with two separate three-game homestands broken up by a trip to Texas Tech. UNM has five home games in December with one road trip to Las Cruces and New Mexico State.

UNM has four home games in both January and February and close the MW schedule at home against Air Force on March 4.

The Lobos went 14-4 at home last season and 45-8 (85%) at home in the last three years.

So far, UNM is outscoring opponents 377-311 in home games and averaging 75.4 ppg while allowing 62.2. The Lobos are shooting 44.4% and 33.9% from three-point range, making an average of 8.4 three-pointers per game. UNM is also outrebounding opponents 41.0-34.6 (+6.4) and averaging 10.2 steals per game and 6.2 blocks per game in The Pit.

20/10 AGAIN

The Lobos are coming off a 21-11 overall record, 12-6 record in the MW to finish second in the standings. It marked the fourth consecutive year with at least 10 conference wins and the seventh time in Coach Mike Bradbury's eight years at UNM. The Lobos reached 20 wins for the third consecutive year and the fifth time under Bradbury.

Only UNM, CSU and UNLV have reached the 20-win mark in each of the last three years. In addition, only UNM and UNLV have won 10 or more MW games in each of the last four years.

DÉJÀ VU

UNM was picked to finish sixth in the MW preseason poll for the second-straight season.

UNM received 172 points, with the Lobos receiving 168 points in last year's preseason poll before finishing second in the final standings. The Lobos were picked ahead of Nevada (125 points), Air Force (116 points), Fresno State (109 points), San José State (60 points) and Utah State (41 points), with San Diego State above them in fifth (218 points).

UNLV was picked as the preseason favorite with 21 first-place votes and 298 points, followed by Wyoming (three first-place votes, 251 points), Colorado State (four first-place votes, 248 points), Boise State (221 points) and the aforementioned San Diego State.

STILL THE ONE

The lone returning starter from a season ago, Viané Cumber was selected to the Preseason All-Mountain West Team. Cumber was one of 10 players selected to the preseason team, marking the first conference selection of her career. Entering her fourth year at UNM, the Albuquerque native has appeared in 80 games with 45 starts, including starting all 29 games she played in last season.

Cumber is coming off a season in which she averaged 11.4 points per game, 6.0 rebounds per game, both career bests, as well as had a career-best 39 assists, 22 steals and five blocks. A three-point threat, the Lobo guard made 70 last season, bringing her career total to 158 and her career three-point percentage to 36.0.

Against MW opponents, Cumber averaged 11.4 points per game, 6.7 rebounds per game, and finished in double figures in 12 games with two games with 20-plus points. She registered two double-doubles against Utah State (21 points, 11 rebounds) and at San Diego State (10 points, 11 rebounds) and made at least one three-pointer in all but two conference games. She made multiple three-pointers in 13 MW games and five or more in three, including six three-pointers at UNLV with the sixth one the game winner to give her 22 points.

She led the Lobos in scoring in six games and tied for the team high in one, and led the team in rebounds in seven games while tied for the team high in four.

LOBO WOMEN'S Basketball

MIKE BRADBURY

RECORD AT UNM: 165-92 (9TH SEASON)

CAREER RECORD: 343-209 (18TH SEASON)

NOTEWORTHY:

- Named the sixth head coach in program history on March 31, 2016
- 26 wins in 2021-22 tied for most wins in program history
- Led UNM to 25 wins in 2017-18; tied for second-most wins in program history
- Led UNM to 20+ wins in five seasons, and .500 or better in seven
- Earned his 100th win at UNM on Nov. 30, 2021; only the second coach in program history to reach 100. Earned his 300th career win on Nov. 22, 2022 against Western N.M.

Mike Bradbury enters his ninth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous eight seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 162-89 (.645) and 89-51 (.636) in conference and became just the second coach in UNM history to win 100 games with a win over Grambling on Nov. 30, 2021.

Five times in his tenure (2017-18, 2018-19, 2021-22, 2022-23, 2023-24) the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark, with the Lobos tying the program record for most wins in a single season with 26 in 2021-22. Further, the 25 wins in 2017-18 were tied for the second-most wins in program history. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury in 2017-18 and 2018-19 were the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

Further, the last time the Lobos finished with 20-plus wins in three consecutive seasons was 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09.

Of note, there are only three Mountain West teams that have won 20 games in each of the last three years (UNM, UNLV and CSU), and in the last four years, only two MW teams that have won 10 or more conference games all four years (UNM and UNLV).

The Lobos have sustained success under Bradbury as historically, UNM has finished either first or second in the conference in scoring offense in six of the last seven years (four times first). In Bradbury's time at UNM, the Lobos have finished with 15 or made three-pointers 11 times and hold the top-five spots in three-pointers per game in program history.

During the most recent season, the Lobos were among the most consistent defensive teams in the country, ranking 14th in defensive rebounds per game and 10th in the fewest fouls per game. On an individual level, the Lobos garnered several awards with five Mountain West Player of the Week selections, the most since the 2018-19 season, as well as earning MW Newcomer of the Year (Nyah Wilson), MW Defensive Player of the Year (Aniyah Augmon), two All-Mountain West Team selections in Augmon and Wilson, an All-Defensive Team selection for Augmon and a MW Coach of the Year selection for Bradbury.

Wilson became the seventh Lobo to earn Newcomer of the Year and the fourth under Bradbury, with the last one back in 2018-19. Augmon became only the second Lobo to win Defensive Player of the Year, joining Porche Torrance who won in 2011-12. The selection marked the first Coach of the Year award for Bradbury and the third for a New Mexico coach.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 19 All-Mountain West performers, six on the All-Defensive Team and three on the All-Newcomer/Freshman Team.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with Richelle van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Tesha Buck in 2017-18 and Aisia Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Jaisa Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Jayla Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in LaTascya Duff (2020-21).

Further, a Lobo has been named Mountain West Player of the Week 20 times during his tenure, with four named Freshman of the Week.

In the 2022-23 season, UNM finished 15th in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game at 8.5 per game, with 12 games with double-digit three-pointers. Of the 12 games, UNM made 18 (against South Carolina State) and three games with 16 (twice against Utah State and at Fresno State).

During the 2021-22 season, the program established several program records. UNM set the program record in made three-pointers (346), a program-best 171 made three-pointers in conference season, as well as a program-record 596 assists on the season and 292 in conference games. In addition, the Lobos made a program-high 523 field goals in conference and scored the most points in conference in program history with 1,413 points. On Jan. 6 at Utah State, the Lobos set the program record and the MW record in made three-pointers in a game with 21, and three games later made 19 three-pointers for the second most in a game in program history. The Lobos also went on a nine-game win streak, the second longest in program history.

New Mexico ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in made three-pointers (third), made three-pointers per game (fifth, 9.6 per game) and in assists (10th). In total, UNM ranked in the top 30 in nine categories, including scoring offense (14th, 76.7 points per game), assists per game (16th, 16.6 per game), assist/turnover ratio (18th, 1.21), field-goal percentage (19th, 45.1 percent), blocked shots (25th, 147) and three-point field-goal percentage (30th, 35.1 percent).

UNM added six postseason Mountain West honors with a conference-high three all-conference players in Antonia Anderson, Shaiquel McGruder and Jaedyn De La Cerda, an honorable mention in LaTora Duff, an all-defensive player in McGruder and an all-freshman in Paula Reus. The Lobos have had 12 conference selections in the last two seasons.

Further, five Lobos finished the 2021-22 season averaging double figures in points per game.

In the 2020-21 season, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his third year at the helm, Bradbury continued to put his mark on the program while also continuing to bring Lobo women's basketball back to national prominence. Overall, Bradbury's 2018-19 team went 24-7 and earned a bid to the WNIT for a second-straight season. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 – 2009-10 seasons that the program made consecutive trips to the postseason.

Prior to coming to Albuquerque, Bradbury built a successful nine year run as a Division-I head coach with stops at Morehead State (Morehead, Ky.) and Wright State (Dayton, Ohio). Most recently with the Raiders, Bradbury led his squad to five 20-win seasons, including each of his final three seasons. During that time, Wright State has amassed a 75-28 record, the best amongst the 13 Division I programs in the state of Ohio.

Overall at Wright State, Bradbury had five winning seasons, all of which were 20-plus win seasons, in six years – a feat made all the more remarkable as Wright State had just one winning season in the previous 22 before his arrival. In the previous 37 seasons of women's basketball at Wright State, the Raider program had tallied 20 wins just once before Bradbury led the team to 20 wins in five of his six seasons.

His most prominent three-year run at Wright State started in 2013-14, when the Raiders won a school-record 26 games on the way to a 26-9 season and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season saw the Raiders finish second in the Horizon League and win its first Horizon League Tournament. It also featured the program's first road win at perennial league power Wisconsin-Green Bay. Kim Demmings was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, and it marked the first time in school history the program had a pair of first team All-Conference selections.

He followed up that by earning Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2014-15 after a 25-9 season that saw his squad lose its Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year less than two minutes into the season opener. The Raiders just missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, falling in overtime in the conference championship game. The team did make its first appearance in the Women's NIT as the league's automatic qualifier, and in 2015-16, the team made it back-to-back WNIT appearances after a 24-11 season, earning the program's first at-large bid.

Those three seasons are the three winningest seasons in the history of Wright State women's basketball.

In his first two seasons at Wright State, he led the team to a 20-13 campaign and a 21-13 mark and berths in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the first NCAA Division I postseason berths for the program. Overall, Bradbury has coached three Horizon League Players of the Year (all in his last three seasons), six first-team All-Horizon League players, three second-team members and four All-Freshman team members.

Prior to his time at Wright State, Bradbury was the head coach at Morehead State where he led the Division I program to a 50-44 mark in three seasons, including a watershed 22-11 season, which was the second-most wins in Morehead State history and the most wins by the Eagles in the previous 38 years.

At Morehead State he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, along with one first-team All-OVC pick (two seasons) and three second-team All-OVC picks.

Bradbury also spent time as an assistant coach at Xavier (2002-06), Cincinnati (1996-02), VCU (1995-96), East Tennessee State (1994-95) and Chattanooga (1991-94). In his 30 seasons as an assistant and as a head coach, Bradbury's teams have finished below .500 only three times.
