LOBO NOTES

WHERE IT ALL BEGAN

Thursday is a full-circle moment for Coach Mike Bradbury, who started his head coaching career at Morehead State, coaching the Eagles from 2007-10. In his time at Morehead State, Bradbury went 50-44 (.532), where he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, one First Team All-OVC player and three Second Team All-OVC players.

SERIES HISTORY

UNM has only played Morehead State once, back in 2011. The Lobos defeated the Eagles 69-52 at home.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Destinee Hooks and Alyssa Hargrove were among the highlights in their first game as a Lobo, with Hooks scoring a game-high 21 points and Hargrove finishing in double figures with 12. Hargrove also led the Lobos with four assists and a game-high two steals.

Hooks had 12 points at the half on 5-7 shooting and scored five consecutive points for UNM in the fourth quarter, including a game-tying three-pointer with 49 seconds left to tie the game at 75. She later made a free throw with 2.4 seconds left that tied the game at 78.

Hargrove had seven points through the first two quarters in addition to two steals and two assists and of her 12 points, four came on fast-break layups.

Off the bench, freshman Reza Po also had a strong first game as a Lobo with five points, two assists, a steal and a block and Amhyia Moreland contributed seven rebounds, five points and a block.

FAST-BREAK POINTS

UNM had a 14-5 margin in fast-break points with two three-pointers and four layups. Two of those layups came as a result of steals while the remaining 10 points came off of defensive rebounds.

PAINT POINTS

While a small sample size, the Lobos trend of prioritizing the paint points has continued from last season with UNM scoring 42 of its 78 points in the paint in the season opener, accounting for 53.8%. UNM outscored NAU 42-34 in the paint, with 14 points in both the first and second quarters coming in the paint to account for 28 of UNM's 42 points at the half.

Last season, UNM outscored opponents in the paint in 24 games and by a 978-810 (+168) margin. UNM scored 47.2% of its points (978 of 2071) in the paint last season, averaging 30.6 points per game with 14 games scoring 50% or more of its total points in the paint.

A WHOLE NEW TEAM

The 2024-25 Lobos has a different look than a season ago, with 10 newcomers on the roster. Of the 10, four are freshmen and six are transfers.

UNM returns one starter from a season ago in Vianê Cumber, who averaged 11.4 points per game, 6.0 rebounds per game, both career bests, as well as had a career-best 39 assists, 22 steals and five blocks last season. Entering their sophomore seasons, Lara Langermann and Paris Lauro return after making 32 appearances with six starts and 22 appearances, respectively. Hulda Joaquim begins her third year with the Lobos and played in 31 games last year for a combined 44 games during her Lobo career.

Joining the Lobos in the offseason were freshmen Reza Po, Joana Magalhães, Nayli Padilla and Lilli Hakkarainen. The Lobos are a relatively young team with eight of the 14 underclassmen, however, of the 14, eight also bring Division I collegiate experience with the addition of transfers Drew Jordon (Wagner), Clarissa Craig (Cincinnati), Amhyia Moreland (San José State) and Alyssa Hargrove (Austin Peay) to compliment the four Lobo returners.

GAME 2: NEW MEXICO vs MOREHEAD STATE

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

The roster breaks down to 4 freshmen (28.6%), 4 sophomores (28.6%), 1 junior (7.1%), 4 seniors (28.6%) and 1 graduate student (7.1%). Eight of the 14 are underclassmen (57.1%) with six upperclassmen (42.9%).

AROUND THE WORLD

The roster breaks down further to span across the globe with seven countries represented and seven U.S. states with 12 different languages spoken. UNM has players from six international countries in Germany, Republic Democratic of Congo, Spain, Portugal, Mozambique, Finland as well as a greater U.S. footprint with Washington DC, North Carolina, Ohio, California, Texas, Indiana and New Mexico.

THE CUMBER EFFECT

Viané Cumber picked up right where she left off in the season opener, scoring 14 points with two three-pointers and nearly tallied a double-double with a team-high eight rebounds. She also played a team-high 32:13 without recording a turnover.

Last season, the New Mexico native scored in double figures in 17 games with four games of 20-plus points, leading the Lobos in scoring six times. The Lobo also registered three double-doubles, with 14 points and a career-high 14 rebounds against Eastern Illinois, 21 points and 11 rebounds against Utah State and 11 rebounds and 10 points at San Diego State.

Among one of the best three-point shooters in the conference, she made three or more three-pointers 10 times: two against Eastern Illinois and SJSU, three at Pepperdine, against Tarleton State and Fresno State, four in the season opener, five against No. 20 Gonzaga, Utah State and Nevada, six against No. 25 UNLV and a career-best eight against Montana State.

Cumber is on the verge of a couple of reachable milestones with 716 points (284 away from 1,000) and 160 three-pointers, eighth all-time in program history and four away from seventh. She is 79 from tying the program record of 239 set by LaTascya Duff and would have to average roughly two to three three-pointers per game.

In her career, she has made a three in 59 games with 45 games with multiple threes and 24 games making three or more three-pointers.

Further, Cumber has scored in double figures 37 times and 20 or more points six times in her career.

SUMMER ABROAD

Two Lobos spent their summer with their respective national teams, playing in the FIBA U20 Women's EuroBasket in Klaipeda and Vilnius, Lithuania.

Lara Langermann played for the German National Team, finishing in fourth place after losing to France in the semifinals and Italy in the third-place game. Lilli Hakkarainen played for the Finnish National Team.

Langermann and Hakkarainen faced each other in the round of 16 with Germany winning 90-60. Langermann scored 11 points on 4-5 shooting, 3-4 from three-point range, while Hakkarainen finished with five points and three rebounds.

Hakkarainen finished the tournament averaging 6.1 ppg, 4.0 rpg, 1.9 apg and 0.7 spg while playing 24.4 mpg. Langermann finished averaging 4.4 ppg, 1.3 rpg, 1.6 apg, 0.7 spg in 14.3 mpg.

POINT OF EMPHASIS

UNM enters the season having to replace its point guard from a season ago in Aniyah Augmon. The Lobos have options in freshmen Reza Po and Joana Magalhães, returning sophomore Lara Langermann and senior Alyssa Hargrove.

All four got reps in the two exhibitions at the one.

Augmon led the Lobos with 109 assists and averaged 33.7 minutes per game last season, with two games with 10 assists. Not only was she a leader on the court, she was also a consistent scorer, scoring in double figures in 26 games and 20-plus points in three games, finishing with three double-doubles.

HELLO FROM THE OTHER SIDE

Amhyia Moreland spent the last two seasons at MW opponent San José State.

Against the Lobos, Moreland scored 19 points on 8-13 shooting with four rebounds and two steals at The Pit on Feb. 14 and scored eight points on the other two occasions she played her future team (both were in San Jose). Moreland averaged 11.6 ppg and 5.9 rpg last season with the Spartans.

MAKE YOURSELF AT HOME

The Lobos have a total of 22 home games on the schedule with two exhibitions, 11 non-conference and nine MW games.

In the opening month, UNM has six home games with two separate three-game homestands broken up by a trip to Texas Tech. UNM has five home games in December with one road trip to Las Cruces and New Mexico State.

UNM has four home games in both January and February and close the MW schedule at home against Air Force on March 4.

The Lobos went 14-4 at home last season and 45-8 (85%) at home in the last three years.

20/10 AGAIN

The Lobos are coming off a 21-11 overall record, 12-6 record in the MW to finish second in the standings. It marked the fourth consecutive year with at least 10 conference wins and the seventh time in Coach Mike Bradbury's eight years at UNM. The Lobos reached 20 wins for the third consecutive year and the fifth time under Bradbury.

Only UNM, CSU and UNLV have reached the 20-win mark in each of the last three years. In addition, only UNM and UNLV have won 10 or more MW games in each of the last four years.

FROM 0-60

A pattern emerged last season centered around the No. 60. 60 was the magic number for the Lobos as UNM was 19-1 when scoring 60 or more points and 14-2 when allowing fewer than 60 points. In conference games, UNM was 11-1 when scoring 60 or more and 7-1 when allowing fewer than 60 points.

OTHER TRENDS

While it is a completely new team, the Lobos developed some trends:

- 6-2 in games decided by 1-4 points
- 12-2 when shooting 40% or better
- 19-1 when scoring 60 or more points
- 17-3 when UNM had a higher FG% and 13-2 with a higher 3-point FG% than its opponent
- 12x UNM had a higher FG% and higher 3-point % FG than its opponent in the same game
- 13-4 when outrebounding opponent
- 14-3 when leading after the 1st quarter, 15-1 when leading at the half and 16-2 when leading after the 3rd

However, in the season opener, the Lobos lost despite all these trends being true.

DÉJÀ VU

UNM was picked to finish sixth in the MW preseason poll for the second-straight season.

UNM received 172 points, with the Lobos receiving 168 points in last year's preseason poll before finishing second in the final standings. The Lobos were picked ahead of Nevada (125 points), Air Force (116 points), Fresno State (109 points), San José State (60 points) and Utah State (41 points), with San Diego State above them in fifth (218 points).

UNLV was picked as the preseason favorite with 21 first-place votes and 298 points, followed by Wyoming (three first-place votes, 251 points), Colorado State (four first-place votes, 248 points), Boise State (221 points) and the aforementioned San Diego State.

STILL THE ONE

The lone returning starter from a season ago, Viané Cumber was selected to the Preseason All-Mountain West Team. Cumber was one of 10 players selected to the preseason team, marking the first conference selection of her career. Entering her fourth year at UNM, the Albuquerque native has appeared in 80 games with 45 starts, including starting all 29 games she played in last season.

Cumber is coming off a season in which she averaged 11.4 points per game, 6.0 rebounds per game, both career bests, as well as had a career-best 39 assists, 22 steals and five blocks. A three-point threat, the Lobo guard made 70 last season, bringing her career total to 158 and her career three-point percentage to 36.0.

Against MW opponents, Cumber averaged 11.4 points per game, 6.7 rebounds per game, and finished in double figures in 12 games with two games with 20-plus points. She registered two double-doubles against Utah State (21 points, 11 rebounds) and at San Diego State (10 points, 11 rebounds) and made at least one three-pointer in all but two conference games. She made multiple three-pointers in 13 MW games and five or more in three, including six three-pointers at UNLV with the sixth one the game winner to give her 22 points.

She led the Lobos in scoring in six games and tied for the team high in one, and led the team in rebounds in seven games while tied for the team high in four.

MIKE BRADBURY

RECORD AT UNM: 162-90 (9TH SEASON)

CAREER RECORD: 340-207 (17TH SEASON)

NOTEWORTHY:

- Named the sixth head coach in program history on March 31, 2016
- 26 wins in 2021-22 tied for most wins in program history
- Led UNM to 25 wins in 2017-18; tied for second-most wins in program history
- Led UNM to 20+ wins in five seasons, and .500 or better in seven
- Earned his 100th win at UNM on Nov. 30, 2021; only the second coach in program history to reach 100. Earned his 300th career win on Nov. 22, 2022 against Western N.M.

Mike Bradbury enters his ninth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous eight seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 162-89 (.645) and 89-51 (.636) in conference and became just the second coach in UNM history to win 100 games with a win over Grambling on Nov. 30, 2021.

Five times in his tenure (2017-18, 2018-19, 2021-22, 2022-23, 2023-24) the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark, with the Lobos tying the program record for most wins in a single season with 26 in 2021-22. Further, the 25 wins in 2017-18 were tied for the second-most wins in program history. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury in 2017-18 and 2018-19 were the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

Further, the last time the Lobos finished with 20-plus wins in three consecutive seasons was 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09.

Of note, there are only three Mountain West teams that have won 20 games in each of the last three years (UNM, UNLV and CSU), and in the last four years, only two MW teams that have won 10 or more conference games all four years (UNM and UNLV).

The Lobos have sustained success under Bradbury as historically, UNM has finished either first or second in the conference in scoring offense in six of the last seven years (four times first). In Bradbury's time at UNM, the Lobos have finished with 15 or made three-pointers 11 times and hold the top-five spots in three-pointers per game in program history.

During the most recent season, the Lobos were among the most consistent defensive teams in the country, ranking 14th in defensive rebounds per game and 10th in the fewest fouls per game. On an individual level, the Lobos garnered several awards with five Mountain West Player of the Week selections, the most since the 2018-19 season, as well as earning MW Newcomer of the Year (Nyah Wilson), MW Defensive Player of the Year (Aniyah Augmon), two All-Mountain West Team selections in Augmon and Wilson, an All-Defensive Team selection for Augmon and a MW Coach of the Year selection for Bradbury.

Wilson became the seventh Lobo to earn Newcomer of the Year and the fourth under Bradbury, with the last one back in 2018-19. Augmon became only the second Lobo to win Defensive Player of the Year, joining Porche Torrance who won in 2011-12. The selection marked the first Coach of the Year award for Bradbury and the third for a New Mexico coach.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 19 All-Mountain West performers, six on the All-Defensive Team and three on the All-Newcomer/Freshman Team.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with Richelle van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Tesha Buck in 2017-18 and Aisia Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Jaisa Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Jayla Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in LaTascya Duff (2020-21).

Further, a Lobo has been named Mountain West Player of the Week 20 times during his tenure, with four named Freshman of the Week.

In the 2022-23 season, UNM finished 15th in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game at 8.5 per game, with 12 games with double-digit three-pointers. Of the 12 games, UNM made 18 (against South Carolina State) and three games with 16 (twice against Utah State and at Fresno State).

During the 2021-22 season, the program established several program records. UNM set the program record in made three-pointers (346), a program-best 171 made three-pointers in conference season, as well as a program-record 596 assists on the season and 292 in conference games. In addition, the Lobos made a program-high 523 field goals in conference and scored the most points in conference in program history with 1,413 points. On Jan. 6 at Utah State, the Lobos set the program record and the MW record in made three-pointers in a game with 21, and three games later made 19 three-pointers for the second most in a game in program history. The Lobos also went on a nine-game win streak, the second longest in program history.

New Mexico ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in made three-pointers (third), made three-pointers per game (fifth, 9.6 per game) and in assists (10th). In total, UNM ranked in the top 30 in nine categories, including scoring offense (14th, 76.7 points per game), assists per game (16th, 16.6 per game), assist/turnover ratio (18th, 1.21), field-goal percentage (19th, 45.1 percent), blocked shots (25th, 147) and three-point field-goal percentage (30th, 35.1 percent).

UNM added six postseason Mountain West honors with a conference-high three all-conference players in Antonia Anderson, Shaiquel McGruder and Jaedyn De La Cerda, an honorable mention in LaTora Duff, an all-defensive player in McGruder and an all-freshman in Paula Reus. The Lobos have had 12 conference selections in the last two seasons.

Further, five Lobos finished the 2021-22 season averaging double figures in points per game.

In the 2020-21 season, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his third year at the helm, Bradbury continued to put his mark on the program while also continuing to bring Lobo women's basketball back to national prominence. Overall, Bradbury's 2018-19 team went 24-7 and earned a bid to the WNIT for a second-straight season. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 – 2009-10 seasons that the program made consecutive trips to the postseason.

Prior to coming to Albuquerque, Bradbury built a successful nine year run as a Division-I head coach with stops at Morehead State (Morehead, Ky.) and Wright State (Dayton, Ohio). Most recently with the Raiders, Bradbury led his squad to five 20-win seasons, including each of his final three seasons. During that time, Wright State has amassed a 75-28 record, the best amongst the 13 Division I programs in the state of Ohio.

Overall at Wright State, Bradbury had five winning seasons, all of which were 20-plus win seasons, in six years – a feat made all the more remarkable as Wright State had just one winning season in the previous 22 before his arrival. In the previous 37 seasons of women's basketball at Wright State, the Raider program had tallied 20 wins just once before Bradbury led the team to 20 wins in five of his six seasons.

His most prominent three-year run at Wright State started in 2013-14, when the Raiders won a school-record 26 games on the way to a 26-9 season and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season saw the Raiders finish second in the Horizon League and win its first Horizon League Tournament. It also featured the program's first road win at perennial league power Wisconsin-Green Bay. Kim Demmings was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, and it marked the first time in school history the program had a pair of first team All-Conference selections.

He followed up that by earning Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2014-15 after a 25-9 season that saw his squad lose its Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year less than two minutes into the season opener. The Raiders just missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, falling in overtime in the conference championship game. The team did make its first appearance in the Women's NIT as the league's automatic qualifier, and in 2015-16, the team made it back-to-back WNIT appearances after a 24-11 season, earning the program's first at-large bid.

Those three seasons are the three winningest seasons in the history of Wright State women's basketball.

In his first two seasons at Wright State, he led the team to a 20-13 campaign and a 21-13 mark and berths in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the first NCAA Division I postseason berths for the program. Overall, Bradbury has coached three Horizon League Players of the Year (all in his last three seasons), six first-team All-Horizon League players, three second-team members and four All-Freshman team members.

Prior to his time at Wright State, Bradbury was the head coach at Morehead State where he led the Division I program to a 50-44 mark in three seasons, including a watershed 22-11 season, which was the second-most wins in Morehead State history and the most wins by the Eagles in the previous 38 years.

At Morehead State he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, along with one first-team All-OVC pick (two seasons) and three second-team All-OVC picks.

Bradbury also spent time as an assistant coach at Xavier (2002-06), Cincinnati (1996-02), VCU (1995-96), East Tennessee State (1994-95) and Chattanooga (1991-94). In his 30 seasons as an assistant and as a head coach, Bradbury's teams have finished below .500 only three times.
