UCLA ON THE AIR

For the first time in 19 years, UCLA football will be broadcast on a new radio station, appearing exclusively on 790 KABC for the 2025 season. The UCLA Department of Athletics announced the new multi-year agreement on Aug. 21, 2025.

KABC-AM 790 becomes the new official radio broadcast home for the UCLA football program, serving all of Southern California with its powerful 6,600-watt signal. With the move to KABC-AM 790, the Bruins will be the primary sports team on the radio station, signaling a departure from sharing the airwaves with other major professional teams in the Los Angeles region.

All games will be produced by JMI Sports, UCLA's corporate and media rights holder. KABC-AM 790 serves as the flagship station of UCLA Bruins Audio Network. Broadcasts are also available on Sirius XM and through the TuneIn App which can be downloaded from the App Store.

Josh Lewin returns as the voice of the Bruins for his 10th season. Former Bruin quarterback Matt Stevens (1983-86) is set to begin his 29th year on the broadcast team and his 23rd as the analyst in the booth after being welcomed into the SoCal Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2019. Another Bruin signal caller, Wayne Cook (1991-94) is in his 24th season as the sideline reporter.

UCLA defeated New Mexico, 27-13, in the two programs' lone meeting in the 2002 Las Vegas Bowl on Christmas Day.

THE MATCHUP

The UCLA football team welcomes New Mexico to the Rose Bowl for a Friday night contest at 7 p.m. (PT) in Pasadena. The second-ever meeting between the Bruins (0-2, 0-0 Big Ten) and Lobos (1-1, 0-0 Mountain West) will be televised on the Big Ten Network. Fans in the greater Los Angeles region can listen live on AM 790, the new home of the UCLA Bruins Audio Network.

UCLA defeated New Mexico, 27-13, in its only other matchup, occurring on Christmas Day at the 2002 Las Vegas Bowl in Sam Boyd Stadium. The Bruins, led by interim head coach and future UCLA Athletic Hall of Famer Ed Kezirian, broke through with a 74-yard punt return for a touchdown by Craig Bragg to open the second half. True freshman safety Jarrad Page added a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter, and Tyler Ebell made it 27-6 with a one-yard scoring run with 10:40 left.

LAST TIME OUT

UCLA's second-half surge came up short against UNLV last week, falling 30-23 at Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas on Saturday, Sept. 6. Redshirt sophomore Nico Iamaleava threw for 255 yards on 29-of-41 passing and accounted for two touchdowns (one passing, one rushing). Including his team-high 59 rushing yards, Iamaleava recorded 314 yards of total offense, marking the third time in his career he has crossed over the 300-yard mark. UCLA dominated the second half with 318 yards of total offense compared to UNLV's 101. The Bruins were 2-for-3 on third down in the fourth quarter, scoring 10 points in the final frame.

- Sophomore wide receiver Kwazi Gilmer was Iamaleava's top target, hauling in a career-high eight catches for 87 yards. His 87 yards were the second most in his young career. Two of Gilmer's catches came on UCLA's final drive of the fourth quarter for 34 yards, helping put the Bruins at the UNLV 24 yard line.
- UCLA scored on five straight possessions across the second and third quarters. The last time the Bruins accomplished that feat was in a 56-7 home win over N.C. Central in Week 3 of the 2023 season, when they scored on seven straight possessions to open the game.
- Four different UCLA players had a run of 20-plus yards (Jaivian Thomas [32], Nico Iamaleava [30], Anthony Woods [20], Thomas and Jalen Berger [20]). UCLA had most recently achieved this feat against N.C. Central in 2023.

KEY NOTES ON UCLA

- Quarterback Nico Iamaleava has averaged 195.5 passing yards per game on 40-of-63 passing (63.5%), including two touchdowns, over the first two starts of his UCLA career. He has led the Bruins in rushing yards in each of the first two contests of the season (106 total rushing yards).
- Linebackers Isaiah Chisom (13.0) and JonJon Vaughns (12.5) rank first and fourth in the FBS in total tackles per game, respectively. Vaughns has opened his final campaign in Westwood with the first two double-digit tackle performances of his career.
- True freshman Noah Fox-Flores recorded the first catch and touchdown of his career on a four-yard pass from Nico Iamaleava at the 7:48 mark in the third quarter at UNLV (Sept. 6). Fox-Flores is the first UCLA true freshman tight end to record a touchdown since Thomas Duarte in 2013.
- Chisom's 17 tackles in his UCLA debut versus Utah (Aug. 30) are tied with Carson Schwesinger (at Washington, 2024) and Jayon Brown (vs. Colorado, 2016) for the most by a Bruin over the last 10 seasons. Vaughns' 15-tackle performance against the Utes more than doubled his previous career high of seven set against Colorado in 2022.
- Running back Anthony Woods scored UCLA's first touchdown of the season on a 19-yard reception versus Utah in the second quarter during his Bruins debut. The score marked the second receiving touchdown of Woods' career and first since 2023 as a sophomore at Idaho. Woods finished the game with a team-high and career-high 48 receiving yards.
- Twenty-five players made their UCLA debuts during the Bruins' season opener versus Utah in Week 1.
- UCLA's 2025 roster lists 59 new names (37 transfers, 22 true freshmen) for its most since at least the 2012 season. Of the Bruins' 22 starters on the offensive and defensive sides of the ball against Utah, nine of them were incoming transfers.
- The Bruins' offseason was highlighted by the transfer portal addition of redshirt sophomore quarterback Nico Iamaleava who spent the previous two seasons at Tennessee. The Long Beach, Calif. native returns home after leading the Volunteers to an 11-3 record as the starting quarterback and a College Football Playoff (CFP) appearance in 2024. Iamaleava finished last season completing 213-of-334 passes (63.8%) for 2,616 yards (201.2 yards per game) and 19 touchdowns with five interceptions. Iamaleava ranked second in the Southeastern Conference with six 50-plus-yard completions last season.
- N. Iamaleava was tabbed to five preseason watch lists in anticipation of his first game as a Bruin: Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year, Davey O'Brien Quarterback of the Year, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Polynesian Player of the Year.

MOST RECENT MEETING

UCLA 27, New Mexico 13
Dec. 25, 2002 - Sam Boyd Stadium (Las Vegas, Nev.)

Under the guidance of interim head coach Ed Kezirian, UCLA defeated New Mexico, 27-13, on Christmas Day in the 2002 Las Vegas Bowl. Kezirian, also known as "Coach K", was inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 2022 as an Extraordinary Service Honoree.

Neither squad managed an offensive touchdown until the fourth quarter. A 74-yard punt return for a touchdown by Craig Bragg turned the momentum to the Bruin's side after New Mexico was forced to punt on its first possession of the second half. True freshman safety Jarrad Page added a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter, and Tyler Ebell made it 27-6 with a one-yard scoring run with 10:40 left.

New Mexico kicker Katie Hnida made sports history, becoming the first woman to play in an NCAA Division I football game.

UNDER CENTER

- Redshirt sophomore Nico lamaleava accounted for 314 yards of total offense (255 passing, 59 rushing) and two touchdowns in UCLA's loss at UNLV (Sept. 6). The performance marked lamaleava's third career game, and first at UCLA, with 300-plus yards of total offense. With 8:50 remaining in the fourth quarter, lamaleava rushed for a 30-yard touchdown – the second longest scoring run of his career – to cut UNLV's lead to 30-20. lamaleava led the Bruins in rushing for the second time this season with 59 yards on the ground.
- N. lamaleava completed 11 of 22 passes for 136 yards with one touchdown and one interception in his UCLA debut versus Utah (Aug. 30). lamaleava's first score as a Bruin came in the second quarter when he connected with running back Anthony Woods for a 19-yard touchdown pass. lamaleava also totaled a team-high 47 rushing yards.
- N. lamaleava officially signed with UCLA out of the transfer portal on April 20 after spending the previous two seasons at Tennessee. The Long Beach, Calif. native returns home after leading the Volunteers to an 11-3 record as the starting quarterback and a College Football Playoff (CFP) appearance in 2024.
- N. lamaleava was named to five 2025 preseason watch lists in anticipation of his first game in a Bruins uniform: Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year, Davey O'Brien Quarterback of the Year, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Polynesian Player of the Year.
- N. lamaleava finished last season completing 213-of-334 passes (63.8%) for 2,616 yards (201.2 yards per game) and 19 touchdowns with five interceptions. He totaled 299-plus yards of total offense in three contests against UT-Chattanooga (320), Kentucky (306) and Vanderbilt (299).
- Of Samoan descent, N. lamaleava was tabbed as a 2024 Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Finalist during his breakout redshirt freshman season. Also on the awards circuit, lamaleava hauled in four SEC Freshman of the Week awards.
- N. lamaleava became the first Tennessee freshman to lead the program to 10 regular season wins and the first Tennessee quarterback, regardless of class, to win 10 games since Casey Clausen in 2003.
- N. lamaleava ranked second in the Southeastern Conference with six 50-plus-yard completions last season. He posted a career-long completion of 86 yards in the final week of the 2024 season at Vanderbilt.
- N. lamaleava accounted for a career-high 314 yards through the air on 22-of-28 passing with three touchdowns – all coming in the first half – in Tennessee's 2024 season opener versus UT-Chattanooga. His 314 yards broke the program record for passing yards in a half and marked the fourth total 300-yard performance by a Volunteers quarterback.
- N. lamaleava tossed a career-high four passing touchdowns on two occasions last season in Weeks 11 (UTEP) and 12 (Vanderbilt). He threw for multiple touchdowns in five games in his Tennessee career, all of which came in 2024.

- N. lamaleava entered 2025 having totaled 2,930 passing yards and 21 touchdowns on 241-of-379 passing (64.0%) over his 18 games at Tennessee.
- lamaleava was thrust into his first career start as a true freshman versus Iowa in the Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 2024, leading Tennessee to a 35-0 shutout victory in which he was named MVP. He accounted for 178 yards of total offense and four touchdowns (three rushing, one passing) against Iowa's staunch defense.
- lamaleava, a graduate of Warren High School in Downey, Calif., was listed as the No. 1 overall player in the Class of 2023 by On3 and No. 2 overall by Rivals and 247Sports. He was honored as the 2022 Polynesian High School Player of the Year after leading Warren to a 9-2 record and CIF-SS Division II playoff appearance in the final season of his prep career.
- Nico shares the QB room with his younger brother, Madden lamaleava, who joined the Bruins out of the transfer portal as a true freshman from Arkansas.
- There are six total members of UCLA's quarterbacks group, including returners Luke Duncan and Henry Hasselbeck.
- Leading the Bruins' QB room is new UCLA offensive coordinator Tino Sunseri who joins the Bruins from Indiana where he served the same role. Himself a former quarterback, Sunseri has helped develop some of the nation's most productive signal callers in recent years. With help from Sunseri, the Hoosiers tallied 11 wins for the first time in program history, ranked second in FBS in both scoring offense (41.3 points per game) and passing efficiency (174.03) and reached the College Football Playoff.
- Redshirt senior Ethan Garbers started 11 of 12 games last season as UCLA's primary quarterback. Garbers totaled 2,727 passing yards on 235-of-363 attempts (64.7%) and 16 touchdowns with 11 interceptions in his final college campaign. He averaged 247.9 yards per game over his 11 contests (missed Week 5 at Penn State) and finished the season ranked 21st in the FBS with 21.36 completions per game, which was good for third in the Big Ten.

BRUIN BALL CARRIERS

- Four different Bruins logged a 20-plus-yard rush during UCLA's 30-23 setback at UNLV (Sept. 6), marking the first time UCLA had accomplished that feat since Week 3 of the 2023 season in a 59-7 win over N.C. Central. That group included quarterback Nico lamaleava (30-yard TD run) and running backs Jaivian Thomas (32), Anthony Woods (20) and Jalen Berger (20).
- Junior Jaivian Thomas logged UCLA's longest rush of the season with a 32-yard run on the Bruins' first drive at UNLV (Sept. 6). Thomas led UCLA's running backs with 43 yards rushing in the contest.
- Redshirt junior Anthony Woods scored UCLA's first touchdown of the season on a 19-yard reception in the second quarter versus Utah during his Bruins debut (Aug. 30). The score marked the second receiving touchdown of Woods' career and first since 2023 as a sophomore at Idaho. Woods finished the game with a team-high and career-high 48 receiving yards.
- Redshirt seniors Jalen Berger and Anthony Frias II are UCLA's only returning rushers who tallied a carry from last season.
- Berger and Thomas were both named to the 2025 Doak Walker Award Watch List, which is given annually to the top running back in the nation.
- Woods starred at Idaho (FCS) for two seasons (2022-23) prior to redshirting 2024 at Utah due to injury. Woods earned All-Big Sky Conference honors both seasons at Idaho, totaling 2,027 rushing yards and 19 touchdowns over his 24 games as a Vandal.
- Woods was named All-Big Sky First Team in his last season of competition in 2023. He finished his sophomore campaign with 1,155 rushing yards on 206 carries and 16 touchdowns. He posted six 100-yard rushing performances.
- Woods leads all student-athletes on UCLA's 2025 roster with eight career 100-yard performances (all at Idaho).
- Thomas, also known as "Jet", was California's leading rusher in 2024 with 626 yards and seven touchdowns on 100 carries (6.3 yards per carry), despite starting only three games.
- Thomas posted his first career 100-yard rushing performance versus San Diego State in 2024 with 169 yards on 17 attempts. Additionally, Thomas has recorded one multi-TD performance, coming against N.C. State last season.
- Berger appeared in eight games as a reserve in his debut season at UCLA, totaling 178 yards on 48 carries (3.7 yards per carry). The Newark, N.J. native found the endzone twice as a receiver at Rutgers (Oct. 19) and Nebraska (Nov. 2), marking the second time in his career he had posted a score in back-to-back games. Berger's receiving touchdown in his home state of New Jersey marked his first score in a Bruins uniform and the first TD reception of his career.

- Berger has broken the 100-yard rushing mark three times, including a season-opening 16-carry, 120-yard performance against Western Michigan (Sept. 2) for Michigan State in 2022. He started 11 games for the Spartans that year.
- Berger entered the 2025 season with 1,343 rushing yards on 305 carries, including 10 touchdowns, over 32 career games at UCLA, Michigan State (2022-23) and Wisconsin (2020-21).
- Frias saw his most playing time as a Bruin in the 2024 season finale versus Fresno State (Nov. 30), rushing 13 times for 43 yards while catching two passes for 18 yards. He spent the previous two seasons as a reserve running back at Kansas State where he totaled 42 rushing yards on 13 carries.

- Running back T.J. Harden led UCLA with 536 rushing yards on 124 attempts (4.1 yards per carry) in 2024. Secondary backs Keegan Jones and Jalen Berger posted near-identical numbers with 188 yards on 47 attempts and 178 yards on 48 attempts, respectively. Quarterback Ethan Garbers ranked second on the team with 368 yards on the ground.

- UCLA's 211 rushing yards in last year's home victory over Iowa on Nov. 8 were a season high for 2024. The Bruins out-rushed the Hawkeyes by a margin of 211-80, despite Iowa entering the game ranked first in the Big Ten and 10th nationally in rushing offense. UCLA topped 100 rushing yards in two other contests in 2024: at Nebraska (139) and vs. USC (111).

WIDEOUTS

- Sophomore Kwazi Gilmer hauled in a career-high eight receptions for 87 yards in UCLA's loss at UNLV (Sept. 6). His 87 yards were one shy of his career high set at Nebraska last season (88). Two of those catches came on UCLA's final drive to help put the team at UNLV's 24 yard line and set up a scoring opportunity.

- Gilmer has led UCLA in receptions in each of its first two games of the season. His 118 receiving yards are more than double the next-closest Bruin WR (Mikey Matthews, 56 yards).

- Redshirt senior Ezavier Staples caught his first two passes of the season for 18 yards on back-to-back plays during UCLA's final drive at UNLV. The two receptions marked his first in 17 games played, last recording a catch at Stanford in 2023.

- Junior Mikey Matthews caught his first two passes as a Bruin for 22 yards in UCLA's season opener versus Utah (Aug. 30).
- Sophomore Kwazi Gilmer led UCLA's wideouts with 31 receiving yards on three catches against Utah.

- UCLA has five returning wide receivers that saw game action during the 2024 season: sophomore Kwazi Gilmer, redshirt sophomores Rico Flores Jr. and Carter Shaw and redshirt seniors Titus Mokiao-Atimalala and Ezavier Staples.

- Gilmer led his position group with 31 receptions as a true freshman last season and ranked second among all UCLA wideouts with 345 receiving yards (trailed redshirt senior Logan Loya's 348 yards). Gilmer's two receiving touchdowns in 2024 are tied with running back Jalen Berger for the most among the Bruins' returners.

- Gilmer was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week after his most impactful game of last season at Nebraska (Nov. 2). The Sierra Canyon School product posted a season-high 88 receiving yards while reeling in his first career TD reception on a 48-yard grab.

- Gilmer recorded a catch in 10 straight games to close the 2024 season, marking the longest streak for a UCLA wide receiver that year.

- Mokiao-Atimalala entered his fifth season as a collegian with 675 career receiving yards on 55 catches (12.3 yards per catch), including three touchdowns. His most recent scoring grab was a two-yard touchdown pass in 2024 against Iowa (Nov. 8). It marked his first touchdown reception since the 2022 Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl versus Pittsburgh.

- Mokiao-Atimalala set a career high in receptions (six) last season against USC on Nov. 23, 2024.

- Flores Jr. made three 20-plus-yard receptions over four games last season before his year was cut short due to injury. He caught two passes that went for 39 yards or more at Hawai'i (Aug. 31). His 39-yarder went for a touchdown.

- Matthews transferred to UCLA this past offseason from California where he posted 32 receptions, 272 receiving yards and one touchdown in 2024. While at Cal, Matthews was coached by new UCLA passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach Burl Toler III.

- Matthews, who played in all 12 games as a true freshman at Utah in 2022, enters his third college season with 533 career receiving yards on 61 receptions, including one touchdown.

Y-LIFE

- True freshman Noah Fox-Flores recorded the first catch and touchdown of his career on a four-yard pass from Nico lamaleava at the 7:48 mark in the third quarter at UNLV (Sept. 6). Fox-Flores is the first UCLA true freshman tight end to record a touchdown since Thomas Duarte in 2013.

- Redshirt junior Jack Pedersen matched his career high in catches with three for 20 yards as a reserve TE at UNLV.

- Redshirt senior Hudson Habermehl has started in each of UCLA's first two games of the season after missing the entirety of last year due to injury. Habermehl caught his lone target in the Bruins' season opener versus Utah for nine yards (Aug. 30).

- Pedersen returns after making his first four career starts and playing in all 12 games last season. Pedersen hauled in 12 passes for 126 yards (10.5 yards per catch) and recorded the first touchdown of his career on a 20-yard strike at LSU (Sept. 21).

- Pedersen turned in season highs in receptions (3) and receiving yards (37) in UCLA's loss at Washington last season (Nov. 15).

- Habermehl enters his seventh year at UCLA after missing all of 2024 due to injury. He played in 30 contests and made six starts in his three previous seasons of competition.

- Habermehl's five career touchdown receptions lead all Bruins on the 2025 roster. His last TD reception came in UCLA's 2023 LA Bowl victory over Boise State.

- Senior tight end Moliki Matavao was UCLA's leading receiver in 2024 with 506 yards and 41 catches (12.3 YPC). Matavao was one of two Bruins to have two games with 100-plus yards receiving (104 at Rutgers; 120 vs. Fresno State).

- Matavao was UCLA's lone offensive selection in the 2025 NFL Draft, being picked in the seventh round, 248th overall by the New Orleans Saints. His is the fifth UCLA tight end to be drafted in the last 10 years (since 2016).

- Former UCLA quarterback Jerry Neuheisel (2013-15) enters his second season leading the tight end group after originally working with the Bruins' receivers from 2021-23.

OBSERVING THE O-LINE

- Offensive linemen Courtland Ford (LT), Eugene Brooks (LG) and Julian Armella (RG) made their UCLA debuts in the Bruins' 43-10 loss to Utah (Aug. 30). Both Brooks and Armella were making just their second career starts in the contest.
- Redshirt senior Garrett DiGiorgio started his 40th game as a Bruin at right tackle at UNLV (Sept. 6). The four-year starter has started 13 straight games dating back to Week 2 of 2024 after missing last year's season opener at Hawai'i due to injury.
- DiGiorgio made his first appearance at LT of the season against UNLV, switching over after starting the game at RT.
- Redshirt junior Sam Yoon, the Bruins' other returning starter, has started 10 straight games at center dating back to Week 5 of 2024 at Penn State.
- Redshirt senior Reuben Unije saw action as a reserve right tackle against UNLV.
- New offensive line coach Andy Kwon joins the Bruins from Arkansas State, where he spent four seasons guiding the Red Wolves' offensive line (2022-24) and tight ends (2021). Kwon, who starred at center for Georgia Southern from 2013-16, was a graduate assistant along UCLA offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Tino Sunseri at Alabama in 2019 and 2020.
- DiGiorgio was named to the 2026 Senior Bowl Top 300 list.
- Redshirt seniors Tautai Li'o Marks (26), Reuben Unije (23, four as a Bruin) and Courtland Ford (14) have also made double-digit starts as collegians entering the 2025 season.
- The 2024 UCLA offense saw an uptick in its offensive numbers from Games 5-12. In their first four contests, the Bruins averaged 57.0 rushing yards per game and 262.0 total yards per game. Over its final eight outings, the unit put up 101.4 yards per game on the ground and 362.1 yards of total offense. Yoon started at center in the final eight games.
- Redshirt senior Jaylan Jeffers made his first career start at Washington on Nov. 15, 2024. Redshirt senior Yutaka Mahe logged his first two career starts against USC (Nov. 23, 2024) and Fresno State (Nov. 30, 2024) to close out the season. Each started at left tackle.
- The UCLA rushing attack totaled 211 yards on 39 carries (5.4 yards per rush) in the Bruins' Nov. 8, 2024 home win against Iowa. The Hawkeyes entered the contest surrendering just 106.3 rushing yards per game, good for 18th nationally. UCLA's offensive line did not allow a sack.
- The average height and weight of the Bruins' nine newcomers on the offensive line are 6-foot-5 and 312 pounds.

D-LINE DATA

- Redshirt junior Anthony Jones recorded a three-yard sack in the first quarter at UNLV (Sept. 6). It was UCLA's first QB sack of the season, and marked the third of Jones' career. Jones also finished with a career-high 1.5 tackles for loss against the Rebels.
- Redshirt senior Gary Smith III has matched his career high in tackles in each of UCLA's first two games of the season with five apiece against Utah and UNLV.
- Redshirt senior Kechaun Bennett made his first career start against UNLV, lining up at defensive end. Bennett finished with a career-high five tackles (2-3-5) and recorded the first sack of his career.
- Redshirt senior Keanu Williams recorded a career-high-tying four stops (0-4-4) at UNLV.
- Redshirt seniors Gary Smith III and Keanu Williams started Week 1 versus Utah after returning from their respective season-ending injuries (Aug. 30). Smith made his first start versus Utah since 2022 after missing the entirety of 2024 due to injury. Williams' 2024 campaign was cut short after sustaining an injury in Week 3 versus Indiana.
- Jones made his UCLA debut versus Utah on the edge. Jones, making his first start since 2023 while at Indiana, matched his career high in tackles with five against the Utes.
- New defensive-line coach Jethro Franklin brings 33 years of defensive-line coaching experience to Westwood in 2025. He got his start in the profession at his alma mater, Fresno State, where he also spent the past three seasons. Franklin was UCLA's interior defensive line coach in 1999, when current Bruin head coach DeShaun Foster was a sophomore running back.
- Redshirt senior Devin Aupiu and redshirt junior Siale Taupaki are UCLA's two returning starters on the defensive side of the ball. Aupiu started eight games coming off the edge, while Taupaki started seven on the interior line in 2024.
- Taupaki, making the first start of his career, recorded a career-high six tackles (3-3-6) against Oregon on Sept. 28, 2024.
- Aupiu notched two tackles for loss, the Oxnard, Calif. native's first career multi-TFL outing, in the Bruins' win at Nebraska on Nov. 2, 2024.
- Redshirt senior Jacob Busic (five starts off the edge in 2024) picked up a sack and made three tackles in his UCLA debut at Hawai'i on Aug. 31, 2024.
- UCLA had a pair of defensive linemen selected in the 2025 NFL draft. Oluwafemi Oladejo, who moved from linebacker to edge in the Bruins' third 2024 contest, was picked in the second round (No. 52 overall) by Tennessee. Defensive tackle Jay Toia, was drafted by Dallas in the seventh round (No. 217). Edge rusher Laiatu Latu, tabbed UCLA's first ever winner of the Lombardi Award (lineman of the year) and the Ted Hendricks Award (most outstanding defensive end) in 2023, was a first-round selection of Indianapolis (No. 15) in 2024.
- UCLA's rushing defense ranked sixth in the nation with 96.2 yards allowed on the ground per game. Last year, the Bruins finished second in the nation in rushing defense, giving up 80.8 rushing yards per game to opponents in 2023.
- UCLA held Iowa to 80 rushing yards on 31 carries in the Bruins' 20-17 home win on Nov. 8, 2024. The Hawkeyes were averaging 222.3 yards on the ground going into the game to rank first in the Big Ten Conference and 10th nationally.
- Redshirt senior Gary Smith III, who has not seen game action since being injured Nov. 11, 2023, has been selected to the 2026 Senior Bowl Top 300 list and is also part of the 2025 College Football Comeback Player of the Year Pre-Season Watch List. In four seasons with UCLA (2022-24) and Duke (2020, 2021), Smith has put up 72 total tackles (30-42-72), 8.0 TFL and three sacks across 38 games (13 starts).
- Also returning from injury in 2025 is redshirt senior Keanu Williams, who exited the Bruins' Sept. 14, 2024 contest against Indiana. Williams has posted 20 total tackles (9-11-20), 1.5 TFL and 1.5 sacks across 26 games (12 starts) in his four seasons with UCLA (2023, 2024) and Oregon (2021, 2022).

LOOKING AT THE LINEBACKERS

- Redshirt sophomore Isaiah Chisom leads all players in the FBS with 13.0 total tackles per game and ranks third with 26 total tackles.
- Redshirt senior JonJon Vaughns ranks fourth in the FBS and second behind teammate Isaiah Chisom with 12.5 total tackles per game. Vaughns has recorded double-digit tackles in each of UCLA's first two games of the season (15 vs. Utah, 10 at UNLV).
- Vaughns led UCLA with 10 tackles (4-6-10) in its Week 2 loss at UNLV (Sept. 6).
- Redshirt sophomore Isaiah Chisom (5-12-17) and redshirt senior JonJon Vaughns (6-9-15) finished with double-digit tackles in UCLA's season-opening loss to Utah (Aug. 30). UCLA had multiple double-digit tacklers in one game in 2024 (Carson Schwesinger, 15; Oluwafemi Oladejo, 10 at Penn State). Chisom and Vaughns each recorded 1.0 tackle for loss against Utah.
- Chisom's 17 tackles in his UCLA debut against Utah bested his previous career high by six. The 17 tackles are tied with Carson Schwesinger (Washington, 2024) and Jayon Brown (Colorado, 2016) for the most by a Bruin over the last 10 seasons.
- Vaughns' 15-tackle performance against Utah more than doubled his previous career high of seven set against Colorado in 2022.
- Redshirt junior Jalen Woods earned his second career start against Utah after starting the Bruins' 2024 matchup versus USC. Woods finished both games with a career-high six stops.
- New associate head coach and inside linebackers coach Scott White is no stranger to UCLA, as he spent seven seasons in Westwood (2011-17) before returning as a defensive analyst last year. He was a quality control coach before being elevated to linebackers coach and special teams coach during his first stint with the Bruins and guided a decorated linebacker room in 2024.
- The 2024 group included Carson Schwesinger, a former walk-on, who had a breakout season as one of the most dominant and instinctive defensive players in the country, leading the FBS in solo tackles (90) and Big Ten Conference in total tackles (136). He finished the season with 8.5 tackles for loss, four sacks and a team-high-tying two interceptions.
- Schwesinger was named a finalist for the Butkus Award and semifinalist for the Burlsworth Trophy in addition to earning Associated Press First Team All-America honors. Schwesinger was UCLA's first Butkus Award finalist since Eric Kendricks (2014), who White also helped mentor.
- Schwesinger eclipsed 100 tackles for the season at Washington, becoming the first Bruin to accomplish that feat since safety Adarius Pickett in 2018 (123) and first UCLA linebacker since Kenny Young in 2017 (110). Schwesinger saw his streak of six straight double-digit tackle performances come to an end against Iowa (Nov. 8). That streak is good for the longest by a Bruin defender since Eric Kendricks in 2014. Schwesinger led UCLA in tackles in 10 of 12 games in 2024.
- Schwesinger's 136 total tackles are tied for ninth-most in UCLA single-season history.
- Kain Medrano finished second on the team with 72 total tackles (50-22-72) and 11 TFL.
- Schwesinger (second round, pick 33 to Cleveland) and Medrano (sixth round, pick 205 to Washington) were both selected in the 2025 NFL draft. Linebacker Darius Muasau was a sixth-round pick of the New York Giants (No. 183) in 2024.
- Vaughns played in four games last year before sitting out the balance and utilizing a redshirt year. He has played in 48 career games and started 12 of them. Vaughns entered the 2025 season with 113 total tackles (64-49-113), 6.5 TFL, one sack and a pair of interceptions.
- This season is Vaughns' first exclusively as a football player. He previously played 158 games for the baseball team, making 117 starts in the outfield and on the mound. He had a .225 batting average, .386 on-base percentage, .417 slugging percentage, 72 runs batted in, 72 runs scored, 19 home runs, 17 doubles and one triple. On the rubber, Vaughns was 2-1 with a 3.10 earned run average and 16 strikeouts across 20.1 innings.
- Transfers Ben Perry (23 career starts entering 2025) and Isaiah Chisom (11) registered starts at Louisville and Oregon State, respectively.
- Chisom made The Athletic's Freshman All-America Team in 2024 after leading the Beavers with 75 total tackles (30-45-75) as a redshirt freshman. He also had five tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

SCOUTING THE SECONDARY

- Redshirt freshman Kanye Clark recorded a career-high four tackles (2-2-4) in UCLA's Week 2 loss at UNLV (Sept. 6)
- Redshirt senior Key Lawrence led the Bruins' secondary with five tackles (2-3-5) against UNLV. Lawrence leads all UCLA defensive backs with 10 tackles (5-5-10) and ranks third on the team in that category.
- Nine defensive backs made their UCLA debuts in Week 1 versus Utah (Aug. 30): Scooter Jackson, Andre Jordan Jr., Key Lawrence, Cole Martin, Rodrick Pleasant, Robert Stafford III, Bryon Threats, Jewelous Walls and Aaron Williams.
- Redshirt sophomore Cole Martin led the Bruins' secondary with a career-high six tackles (3-3-6) against Utah.
- Junior Scooter Jackson forced the first fumble of his three-year career in the second quarter versus Utah, which was recovered by the Utes.
- The Bruins feature a new-look secondary in 2025, with no returning starters and just one player who saw in action in more than two games last year: Croix Stewart (10 GP, 12 tackles).
- Newcomers Key Lawrence (50), Bryon Threats (41), Jamier Johnson (33), Andre Jordan Jr. (18), Cole Martin (16), Scooter Jackson (16), Robert Stafford III (12), Rodrick Pleasant (11) have all started double-digit games at their previous stops.
- Lawrence accrued 158 tackles and 11 TFLs over stops at Ole Miss (2024), Oklahoma (2021-23) and Tennessee (2020). He was an All-Big-12 honorable mention performer in 2021 after recording three forced fumbles and 47 tackles.
- Safety Bryon Threats totaled 130 tackles and four interceptions over four years at Cincinnati (2021-23) and UCF (2024).
- Former walk-on DB Kanye Clark earned a scholarship during 2024 spring practice. In five games as a true freshman in 2023, Clark made three tackles – including a pair in the Bruins' Starco Brands LA Bowl Hosted By Gronk win versus Boise State (Dec. 16).
- Demetrice Martin returns to UCLA as passing game coordinator/secondary coach after previously serving on the Bruins' staff from 2012-17. Martin has amassed 26 years of coaching experience, including 18 on the FBS level, in defensive backfields. He spent the 2024 season as cornerbacks coach at Michigan State, where he guided a unit that placed in the top half of the Big Ten Conference in passing yards allowed (206.9 per game). Martin spent two seasons each at Oregon (2022, 2023), Colorado (2020, 2021) and Arizona (2018, 2019) before joining the Spartans.

• Gabe Lynn is in his first season as UCLA's safeties coach. Lynn, a former standout defensive back at Oklahoma, joined the Bruin from Colorado, where he spent the previous two seasons on staff as a defensive analyst and the assistant player personnel director. In 2024, Lynn was a quality control analyst on defense with the Buffaloes. He primarily coached the team's safeties, helping the team to a 9-4 overall record and a berth in the Alamo Bowl against BYU. As a team, Colorado allowed just 200.5 passing yards per game and totaled 12 interceptions on defense during the regular season, both ranking top-50 nationally.

SPECIAL TEAMERS

- Junior placekicker Mateen Bhaghani converted on all three of his field goal attempts, from 33, 35 and 33 yards out at UNLV (Sept. 6). Bhaghani has made three or more field goals in a single game on two other occasions; he last accomplished the feat in his first game as a Bruin in Week 1 of 2024 when he went 3-for-3 at Hawai'i, which included a game-winner.
- Bhaghani improved to 32-for-37 (86%) on FG attempts in his career, including a 24-for-28 (86%) as a Bruin.
- Bhaghani is 4-for-4 on his field goal attempts so far this season.
- Bhaghani's first field goal attempt of the season against Utah was good from 46 yards out (Aug. 30). Bhaghani is 9-for-13 from 40-plus yards over his three-year career.
- Bhaghani returns for his second season as UCLA's starting placekicker in 2025. He was one of 30 kickers named to the preseason Lou Groza Award Watch List, becoming the first Bruin to appear on that preseason list since JJ Molson in 2018.
- In 2024, Bhaghani went 20-24 (83.3%) on field goal attempts and 20-20 (100%) on PAT attempts.
- Bhaghani led the Big Ten and ranked 10th nationally with a 1.67 field goals per game ratio in 2024.
- Bhaghani was the recipient of the Tommy Prothro Award as special teams player of the year at the program's 2024 postseason banquet.
- Bhaghani connected on a 57-yard field goal against Iowa on Nov. 7, 2024. That was the longest conversion by a B1G kicker in 2024, and ranked second all-time in UCLA history (trailing only Ka'imi Fairbairn's 60-yarder vs. California in 2015).
- Bhaghani was 3-for-5 on 50-plus yard field goal attempts in 2024.
- Bhaghani was one of six Big Ten kickers without a missed PAT in 2024.
- Bhaghani led UCLA in scoring in 2024 (80 points).
- Bhaghani had eight games with multiple field goals in 2024, including each of the final five contests of the year.
- Bhaghani drilled three field goals, including one that stood as the game winner, at Hawai'i (Aug. 31, 2024). A UCLA kicker had most recently checked both of those boxes when Nicholas Barr-Mira made four, including the decider, against South Alabama on Sept. 17, 2022. Bhaghani's performance earned him Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week.
- Bhaghani posted a career-high five touchbacks, on six kickoff attempts, at Nebraska on Nov. 2, 2024.
- Cash Peterman, who spent the last four seasons at Arizona (2023-24) and BYU (2021-22), is the other kicker on the UCLA roster.
- The Bruins welcome two new punters for the 2025 season in Will Karoll and Lennox Miller. Karoll, a junior, started the last two seasons at Tulane, averaging 43.3 yards per punt. Miller, a true freshman out of Oaks Christian School, was the No. 9 ranked punter by Chris Sailer Kicking. Both Karoll and Miller are natives of Australia.
- Salem Abdul-Wahab, UCLA's primary long snapper in 2024, returns for the 2025 season.
- In 2024, Abdul-Wahab went without a mis-handled snap all year.
- New members of the long snapping corps include redshirt freshman Morrow Evans (Ohio State transfer) and true freshman Halakilangi Muagututi'a (Kahuku High & Intermediate HS).
- UCLA had 43 punts in 2024, second-fewest in the Big Ten and 24th fewest in FBS. The Bruins' total of 27 punts in 2022 was the second-lowest mark by any team in the nation and the fewest in school history.

NOTES ON UCLA'S SPECIAL TEAMS OVER THE YEARS

UCLA'S GAME-WINNING FIELD GOALS

Since 1990, 12 UCLA kickers have converted last-minute or overtime field goals to win games, with Mateen Bhaghani the latest to do so in the 2024 season opener at Hawai'i. Brad Daluiso and Kai Forbath each accomplished the feat twice.

THE STORY OF NO. 36

Head coach DeShaun Foster awarded redshirt sophomore linebacker Wyatt Mosier the No. 36 in honor of Nick Pasquale, who wore the number for the Bruins in 2012 and 2013 before his tragic death in a car accident.

Pasquale was a 5-7, 172-pound redshirt freshman walk-on receiver for the Bruins who had seen his first game action a week before his death in September 2013. He was known for his passion for the game, his limitless determination and his high qualities as a teammate. Current UCLA tight ends coach Jerry Neuheisel was a teammate of Pasquale.

Mosier has played in 13 games over two seasons at UCLA, all on special teams. He has been a frequent recipient of academic honors during his time in Westwood, making the Big Ten Conference Academic Honor Roll in Fall 2024 and making the UCLA Athletic Director's Honor Roll three times. A product of Yorba Linda High School, Mosier made a school-record 365 tackles over four seasons for the Mustangs.

Recent Bruins to have worn No. 36 included defensive back Joshua Swift (2024), defensive back Alex Johnson (2022-23), and wide receiver/running back Ethan Fernea (2019-21).

COACH DONAHUE HONORED WITH STATUE AT ROSE BOWL

The winningest coach in UCLA football and Pac-12 Conference history, Terry Donahue, was celebrated with a statue at Rose Bowl Stadium in 2023. The unveiling and dedication took place Oct. 28, during Homecoming Weekend.

The statue of Coach Donahue is surrounded by 151 bronze roses of varying shapes and sizes to honor the conference- and school-record win total achieved during his career. As a gift by over 100 donors to the Rose Bowl Legacy Foundation, the non-profit that supports the preservation, protection and enhancement of the Stadium's future, each rose has been supported by an individual or family.

Coach Donahue's statue is the fourth on Rose Bowl property to represent key moments and people in the venue's history, joining Jackie Robinson (dedicated in 2017), the 1999 Team USA FIFA Women's World Cup Champions (dedicated 2019) and iconic broadcaster Keith Jackson (dedicated 2019). It is the first statue located inside the Stadium's gates with the other three located outside the venue's fence line near the Stadium's main entrance at Gate A. The statue's location is adjacent to the Charles E. Young Locker Room and UCLA players and coaches pass by the iconic coach before each home game.

Donahue won more games than any other coach in the school's and the Pac-12 Conference's history. He ended his career with a winning record against each of the conference's teams, including the Bruins' crosstown rival, the University of Southern California Trojans. Overall, he won 151 games, and 98 of those victories were in the Pac-10. He was the first person to appear in the Rose Bowl Game® as a player, an assistant coach and a coach.

KNACK FOR THE COMEBACK

UCLA has notched two of the three largest comebacks in FBS football history since 1917, overcoming a 34-point deficit to defeat Texas A&M in 2017 and erasing a 32-point lead before prevailing at Washington State in 2019. Each turnaround came in the second half. Since 1980, UCLA teams have won nine times after trailing by 18 or more points.

Head Coach DeShaun Foster

Overall Record
5-9 (2nd season as Head Coach in 2025)

Former UCLA All-American and NFL standout DeShaun Foster completed his first season as head coach of his alma mater's football program in 2024. He was elevated to the role on Feb. 12, 2024.

Foster spent the previous 11 seasons, including 10 at UCLA, in the collegiate coaching ranks. He also coached one year at Texas Tech. Foster spent the 2017-2023 campaigns as the Bruins' running backs coach, adding the title of associate head coach in 2023.

Foster debuted as head coach by guiding UCLA through its initial season in the Big Ten Conference. The Bruins earned their program's first-ever Big Ten win at Rutgers and rode that showing to a three-game win streak that also included victories at Nebraska and versus Iowa. UCLA would win four of its last six games.

Under Foster, linebacker Carson Schwesinger completed his evolution from walk-on to first-team All-American. Schwesinger led the nation with 90 solo tackles and a solo-tackles-per-game rate of 7.5 while pacing the Big Ten in a number of categories, including total tackles (136). He was a Butkus Award finalist as one of the nation's best at his position.

In 2023, the UCLA rushing attack led the Pac-12 for the second straight season (191.1 yards per game) with four backs in the regular rotation averaging at least 5.1 yards per carry. Carson Steele (847 yards) and T.J. Harden (722) led the ground attack while ranking seventh and 10th in the conference in rushing yards per game, respectively.

In the fall of 2022, Foster was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame and nominated for the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach. Zach Charbonnet became the fourth Bruin running back selected in the NFL Draft over the past four seasons when he was chosen by the Seattle Seahawks. Following the 2022 campaign, Foster was elevated to Associate Head Coach, Running Backs.

In 2022, UCLA led the Pac-12 and ranked sixth in the nation in rushing offense (237.2). It marked the first time UCLA had topped the conference in rushing since the 1976 season. The Bruins rushed for 200 yards or more in nine regular season contests during the year, including three of over 300 yards. UCLA set a new school record with an average of 503.6 yards of total offense per game, a mark which rated fourth in the nation. Charbonnet, who paced the nation in all-purpose yards per game (168.0), became the ninth Bruin to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons (1,359). He topped the Pac-12 in rushing (135.9 yards per game) and ranked fourth nationally. Bruin rushers led the Pac-12 with a 6.1 yards per carry average. The Bruin running backs caught over 60 passes on the year and scored five receiving TDs.

In 2021, the Bruins ran for at least 200 yards in all eight wins during the regular season. UCLA's average of 215.1 rush yards per game ranked 14th in the nation. Charbonnet led all Pac-12 rushers with seven 100-yard games this season. He ranked second in the conference in rushing yards per game (94.8) and overall rushing yards (1,137). Brittain Brown's 6.03 yards per carry mark was the best by a Pac-12 back. He also ranked eighth in the league in rushing yards per game (61.5). The Bruins led the Pac-12 in scoring (36.5, 12th in NCAA) and were second in total offense (441.2, 31st in NCAA).

In the 2020 campaign, UCLA rushers averaged 5.1 yards per carry while upping their rushing average by over 70 yards per contest and finishing over 200 yards per game for just the fourth time since 1990. It was the highest average per carry for Bruin running backs since the 1976 squad posted a 5.4 yards per carry mark. UCLA finished 12th in the nation and second in the Pac-12 in rushing yards per game (230.6). It rated 30th nationally in total offense (455.0) and 20th in scoring offense (35.4). Demetric Felton Jr., a consensus All-Pac-12 selection who was drafted by the Cleveland Browns, ranked 14th in the nation and fourth in the Pac-12 in rushing average (111.3). He was ranked sixth in the nation as the conference leader in all-purpose yardage (165.8). Brown rated 15th in the nation in rushing yards per carry (6.62), eighth in the league in rushing (77.6) and was a second-team all-conference pick by PFF. Felton and Brown each gained over 500 yards on the season while averaging at least 5.0 yards per carry to become just the third Bruin duo to hit that pair of milestones since 1975 (Johnathan Franklin and Derrick Coleman in 2011; Wendell Tyler and Theotis Brown in 1976).

In 2019, Joshua Kelley became the eighth Bruin to post back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Kelley, who was selected by the Chargers in the 2020 NFL Draft, finished second in the Pac-12 in rushing yards per game average. Felton set a school mark for a running back with 55 receptions and another record with four scoring plays of at least 75-yards of length during the season. UCLA produced five straight 200-yard rushing games in a season for the first time since the 1978 campaign. Kelley completed his career 14th on the school career rushing list after just two seasons and with a total of 10 100-yard rushing games to his credit, 10th on that all-time school list.

In 2018, UCLA's rushing attack improved by a margin of over 40 yards per game on average. Kelley ran for 1,243 yards, the 10th-highest single-season total in school history. In addition, the junior back racked up 289 rushing yards against USC, the most by any back in the rivalry series, and the third-highest total in school history. Kelley, who ranked ninth in FBS rushing yards per game, finished with six 100-yard rushing games during the season. The Bruins generated over 432 yards of offense, on average, over the course of the last eight games of the season, including over 164 yards per game on the ground.

In 2017, Foster's Bruin running backs upped their rushing average per carry by almost a yard per attempt. Rushing yardage, rushing touchdowns and rushing first downs all went up for the Bruins. UCLA ranked third in the conference in total offense. The top four running backs each produced career-high rushing totals during the season and also generated new highs for receptions.

Prior to joining the Texas Tech staff, Foster began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at UCLA in 2013 while also returning to school. In 2014, in addition to his work on the field, Foster completed his degree and graduated from UCLA. In 2015, he was promoted to Director of Player Development and High School Relations.

Foster rushed for 187 yards in a 35-24 win over No. 3 Alabama in the Rose Bowl in his junior season.

The Bruins were among the top programs in the country during Foster's tenure assisting with the running backs, going 28-11 overall with three bowl appearances during that span. Foster was instrumental in the development of Paul Perkins, who capped off his career third all-time at UCLA in rushing yards.

Foster joined the coaching ranks not long after a successful seven-year NFL career with the Carolina Panthers and San Francisco 49ers in which he recorded more than 4,500 total yards and 16 touchdowns – 3,570 yards and 11 touchdowns on the ground and another 1,129 yards and five touchdowns through the air.

Foster's strong pro numbers came after he missed his rookie season due to a preseason injury. A second-round selection by the Panthers in the 2002 NFL Draft, he recovered from that first-year setback to rush for over 600 combined regular season and playoff yards as Carolina advanced all the way to the Super Bowl. In Super Bowl XXXVIII, Foster rushed three times for 43 yards, including a 33-yard run into the end zone to pull Carolina within a single score against the New England Patriots early in the fourth quarter. It was the fifth-longest touchdown run in Super Bowl history.

Foster put together his best three professional seasons from 2005-07 to close his career with the Panthers, surpassing the 1,000-yard mark for the first time in 2005 with a combined 1,084 yards on the ground during the regular season and two playoff games. Foster rushed for over 100 yards in back-to-back games late in the year, totaling 165 yards in the regular-season finale with Atlanta before pounding out 151 yards in Carolina's 23-0 shutout of the New York Giants to open the NFC playoffs.

Foster followed up his 2005 campaign with a regular season-high 897 yards in 2006. The following year, he closed out his tenure with the Panthers by posting 876 yards before signing with the San Francisco 49ers in the offseason, where he would play one season before hanging up his cleats.

Foster is one of the most accomplished UCLA running backs in school history. He completed his career second on the all-time touchdowns scored list (44), third on the school's all-time rushing list (3,194 yds) and fifth on the all-time Bruin scoring list (266 pts). Foster was ranked 18th on the Pac-10 career rushing list when he left Westwood, and his 722 career rushing attempts were the most in school history. His 13 100-yard career rushing games ranked fifth on UCLA's all-time list and led to his earning first-team All-Pac-10 selections following the 2000 and 2001 seasons.

As a senior in 2001, he led the Pac-10 in rushing with a 138.6 yards per game average, in scoring with a mark of 9.75 points per game and in all-purpose yardage at 154.75 yards per game. He rushed for 1,109 yards, the 10th highest total in school history, after becoming the first Bruin to reach the 1,000-yard mark in as few as seven games. On Oct. 13, playing against a University of Washington defense which had not allowed a rushing touchdown all year, Foster exploded for a school-record 301 yards and four touchdowns on 31 carries. His final scoring run of the contest came on a 92-yard jaunt, the second-longest in school history. He became just the third Pac-10 player, at the time, to have rushed for over 300-yards in a game.

In 2000, he ran for 1,037 yards and scored 13 touchdowns. In the season-opener against Alabama, he tied a school record with 42 carries and finished with 187 rushing yards and three touchdowns. In 1999, he was limited to 375 rushing yards after suffering a severe ankle sprain early in the season. He also played five defensive snaps in the Bruin secondary that season.

In 1998, Foster burst onto the college scene with a school freshman record 673 yards rushing and scored 12 touchdowns. He was the first true freshman to lead a UCLA team in rushing since Skip Hicks in 1993. He scored all four touchdowns (three rushing and one receiving) in UCLA's 34-17 win over USC to tie the school record and set a new mark for Bruin true freshmen.

A local product, as a Tustin High School senior, Foster rushed for 3,398 yards and scored 59 touchdowns, ultimately setting single-season (55) and career (90) CIF Southern Section marks for rushing touchdowns. He was inducted into the Tustin HOF in Fall 2024.

He is married to Charity Foster, and has two sons, Noel Washington and Nolen Washington, and three daughters, Viviana Foster, Destiny Foster and Dream Foster.

TINO SUNSERIASSISTANT COACH, OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS (1st season, Pittsburgh '13)*KEY NOTES ON SUNSERI

- Joins UCLA after one season as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Indiana where he helped the Hoosiers win 11 games for the first time in program history, a CFP appearance and rank second nationally in scoring offense with 41.3 points per game.
- Has developed some of the nation's most productive signal callers in recent years, including Indiana's Kurtis Rourke and James Madison's Cole Johnson, Todd Centeio and Jordan McCloud.
- Indiana finished second in FBS with a 174.03 passing efficiency rating, thanks to starting QB Kurtis Rourke. Rourke completed 222-of-320 passes (69.4%) for 3,042 yards, 29 touchdowns and just five interceptions.

- JMU's Cole Johnson set school single-season records for passing yards (3,779), passing TDs (41) and completions (287) while in the FCS in 2021. In 2022, JMU's Todd Centeio was named Sun Belt Conference Offensive POTY in the school's first season at the FBS level.

- Worked with Alabama's QBs as a graduate assistant under head coach Nick Saban in 2019-20.
- First met DeShaun Foster as a young equipment room staffer for the Carolina Panthers while his father, Sal Sunseri, was a defensive line coach.

SPIEKER FIELD AT THE ROSE BOWL HOME OF BRUINS FOOTBALL

The nation's most famous college football stadium – the Rose Bowl – will be in its 44th season as the home of the UCLA Bruins football team in 2025. The stadium is recognized as both a United States National Historic Landmark and a California Historic Civil Engineering landmark. Thanks to a generous donation in 2017 from prominent UCLA alum Tod Spieker and his family, the playing surface is called Spieker Field at the Rose Bowl.

The Rose Bowl was built specifically for football, but has been utilized as a venue for portions of the 1932 Olympic Games' cycling events and was the soccer site for the 1984 Olympics. The Rose Bowl has also played host to five NFL Super Bowls – XI in 1977, XIV in 1980, XVII in 1983, XXI in 1987 and XXVII in 1993. It was a venue for the 1994 World Cup and the 1999 Women's World Cup soccer tournaments, including the championship games. The USA women's soccer team victory over China in the 1999 event drew over 90,000 fans. In addition, the 1983 Army-Navy game was played in the Rose Bowl.

On Jan. 1, 2018 and Jan. 1, 2015, the Rose Bowl served as the site of one of the College Football Playoff semifinal games. In 2014, the Rose Bowl hosted the final BCS Championship contest. It had also played host to the BCS Championship game in 2002, 2006 and 2010.

Considered an ideal concert venue, the Rose Bowl has hosted shows by such groups and artists as Taylor Swift, Beyonce, Jay-Z, Kenny Chesney, Jason Aldean, One Direction, U2, 'N Sync, Eagles, Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, Michael Jackson, Metallica, Guns and Roses, Depeche Mode and Journey.

The iconic stadium has put the final touches on a $181 million dollar renovation, and now features a new video board, improved exiting, wider aisles in the end zones and the Terry Donahue Pavilion. The Pavilion area houses the press boxes, broadcast booths, premium seating, boxes and suites. In December of 2015, the radio and TV booths were renamed "The Keith Jackson Broadcast Center". Jackson, the former sportscaster, coined the phrase "The Granddaddy of Them All" for the Rose Bowl Game. Also added are field level entrances and exits, and additional concession stands and restroom facilities.

Since 2007, UCLA and its opponents have dressed in new locker rooms located underneath the south concourse of the stadium. The locker area features all of the latest amenities to benefit the players, coaches, sports medicine and equipment staffs. In addition, a new media interview room and working press area were included in the upgrades. In 1998, new individual chairs were installed in the seating areas between the end zones. Also, improved seating areas for the physically challenged were installed, as well as a new sound system.

Completed in 1922 at a cost of $272,198, the Rose Bowl was first used for the USC-California football game that year which was won by the Golden Bears 12-0. The stadium was originally horseshoe shaped and seated 57,000 people when it hosted the 1923 Rose Bowl Game. The south end zone was enclosed prior to the 1929 game to increase seating capacity to 76,000. Further enlargements took place in 1932 (83,677) and 1949 (100,807). A record crowd of 106,869 fans witnessed the 1973 Ohio State-USC Rose Bowl contest.

The Rose Bowl has many firsts in its vast history. On Jan. 1, 1927, radio stations across the nation were linked together for the first time in a coast-to-coast broadcast. On Jan. 1, 1954, The UCLA-Michigan State Rose Bowl Game was the first west-to-east color telecast on a nationwide connection.

The Rose Bowl has 77 rows of seats. It measures 880 feet from the north to south rims and 695 feet from east to west. Its circumference around the rim is 2,430 feet, compared to 1,350 feet at field level. It took 28 miles of lumber to provide the original seats. The square footage of the grass on the floor of the stadium is 79,156.

THIS IS UCLA

The University

In a dynamic, global city, on one of the nation's most beautiful campuses, doors are opened, and anything is possible. UCLA is one of the world's great universities, offering unmatched breadth and depth of scholarship to more than 32,000 undergraduates and nearly 14,000 graduate students. As the No. 1 public university in the nation, it's UCLA's mission to move knowledge into action. For over 100 years, the university's efforts have positively impacted not just those in our communities, but people around the world.

Bruins are a reflection of the university's commitment to excellence, diversity and equal opportunity. According to U.S. News & World Report, UCLA enrolls one of the largest percentages of low-income students among other elite universities.

The UCLA faculty are among the most recognized and decorated in just about every field. UCLA boasts eight faculty Nobel Prize laureates, 15 MacArthur fellows, 11 National Medal of Science winners and three Pulitzer Prize winners, along with hundreds of recipients of Guggenheim fellowships, Fulbright awards and other academic distinctions. Bruin alumni are Oscar, Grammy, Tony and Emmy winners; philanthropists and public servants; Olympians, professional athletes and coaches; and educators, engineers, bankers, entrepreneurs and astronauts. Founded in 1934, the UCLA Alumni Association serves more than 600,000 living alumni, with a comprehensive array of services, programs and activities.

With hundreds of service programs, UCLA is integral to the Los Angeles community. UCLA Health is among the world's most comprehensive academic health systems, with a mission to provide state-of-the-art patient care, support pioneering research and train top medical professionals. The arts are also a central part of our lives and essential to the UCLA experience. UCLA Extension offers over 4,000 courses and more than 100 professional certificate programs.

UCLA ON THE AIR

Bruins on the Radio

For the first time in 19 years, UCLA football will be broadcast on a new radio station, appearing exclusively on 790 KABC for the 2025 season. The UCLA Department of Athletics announced the new multi-year agreement on Aug. 21, 2025.

KABC-AM 790 becomes the new official radio broadcast home for the UCLA football program, serving all of Southern California with its powerful 6,600-watt signal. With the move to KABC-AM 790, the Bruins will be the primary sports team on the radio station, signaling a departure from sharing the airwaves with other major professional teams in the Los Angeles region.

All games will be produced by JMI Sports, UCLA's corporate and media rights holder. KABC-AM 790 serves as the flagship station of UCLA Bruins Audio Network. Broadcasts are also available on Sirius XM and through the TuneIn App which can be downloaded from the App Store.

Josh Lewin returns as the voice of the Bruins for his 10th season. Former Bruin quarterback Matt Stevens (1983-86) is set to begin his 29th year on the broadcast team and his 23rd as the analyst in the booth after being welcomed into the SoCal Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2019. Another Bruin signal caller, Wayne Cook (1991-94) is in his 24th season as the sideline reporter.

Bruins on Television

All of UCLA football's home games and/or Big Ten games will be aired on a variety of the conference's television partners (Big Ten Network, FOX Sports, NBC Sports and CBS Sports). Those channels include Big Ten Network (BTN), FOX, FS1, NBC, Peacock and CBS.

BTN will air conference games and ancillary programming which feature football coach and player interviews during the season, including special features.

The UCLA-Oregon State game in 2009 is the last game not to be aired live (it was on delayed television).

Game No. 1 – Aug. 30, 2025
Rose Bowl Stadium (Pasadena, Calif.)
Utah 43, UCLA 10

The UCLA football team fell to Utah, 43-10, in its home opener at the Rose Bowl.

Redshirt sophomore Nico Iamaleava started to find his footing in his debut with the Bruins. The quarterback wrapped the night completing 11 of 22 pass attempts for 136 passing yards and one touchdown. The Long Beach, Calif. native also led UCLA's rushing efforts with 47 yards on the ground in 13 attempts.

Redshirt junior Anthony Woods was the Bruin quarterback's top target, finishing with 48 receiving yards and UCLA's lone touchdown. The running back added 13 yards on three rushes for the evening.

The Bruins totaled 210 yards of offense against Utah (1-0), as the Utes finished the contest with 492 total yards (286 rushing, 206 passing) and scored on seven drives.

Redshirt sophomore Isaiah Chisom anchored the Bruin defense with a team-leading 17 tackles. Redshirt sophomore JonJon Vaughns added 15 tackles, including a team-best six solo tackles.

Utah quarterback Devon Dampier totaled a game-high 293 yards of total offense, accounting for two touchdowns through the air and one on the ground.

Game No. 2 – Sept. 6, 2025
Allegiant Stadium (Las Vegas, Nev.)
UNLV 30, UCLA 23

UCLA's second half surge came up short at Allegiant Stadium, falling to UNLV, 30-23, despite a strong push in the final 30 minutes.

Nico Iamaleava threw for 255 yards and accounted for two touchdowns. Including his team-high 59 rushing yards, Iamaleava recorded 314 yards of total offense, marking the third time in his career he has crossed over the 300-yard mark.

The Bruins outgained the Rebels in total yardage by a margin of 428-351 on the night. UCLA accrued 318 yards in the second half alone, compared to UNLV's 101.

UCLA found itself down 23-0 near the end of the first half, but got itself back into the game by scoring on five consecutive drives, starting with a Mateen Bhaghani field goal to get the Bruins on the board just before halftime.

After the break, the Bruins found the end zone on a 4-yard pass to freshman tight end Noah Fox-Flores to get within two scores, and later cut the deficit to 10 with a 30-yard touchdown run from Iamaleava. Another FG from Bhaghani on the ensuing possession made it a one-score game.

UCLA got a chance to tie it on its next possession, taking over on its own 19 with 2:19 left and driving to the UNLV 24 before the game effectively ended when an Iamaleava pass over the middle was tipped and intercepted.

BRUINS ... DID YOU KNOW?

17 Bruins in National Football Foundation Hall of Fame

In December 2024, Paul Cameron will become the 14th UCLA player, joining three Bruin coaches and 13 previous players, including 2014 inductee John Sciarra, 2012 inductee Jonathan Ogden, 2010 inductee Randy Cross and 2008 inductee Troy Aikman in the National Football Foundation (College Football) Hall of Fame.

6 Bruins in NFL Hall of Fame

Six Bruins have been voted into the NFL Hall of Fame, including Class of 2017 inductee DB Kenny Easley. Other Bruins in the Hall: OL Jonathan Ogden - 2013; QB Troy Aikman - 2006; DB Jimmy Johnson - 1994; WR/coach Tom Fears - 1970; QB/P/PK/DB Bob Waterfield - 1965.

35 First-Round Bruins

The selection of Laiatu Latu (Indianapolis) in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft marked the 35th time a UCLA player has been taken in Round 1.

7 NCAA Championship Head Coaches on Staff

The following Bruin head coaches have won NCAA championships - Margueritte Aozasa (women's soccer), Kelly Inouye-Perez (softball), Billy Martin (men's tennis), Stella Sampras Webster (women's tennis), John Savage (baseball), John Speraw (men's volleyball) and Adam Wright (men's and women's water polo).

25 Bruins on CoSIDA Academic All-America Teams

Twenty-five Bruins have been selected to College Sports Communicators (CSC [formerly CoSIDA]) Academic All-America football teams a total of 31 times over the years. Offensive lineman Chris Joseph (2006, 2007) and receiver Cormac Carney (1981, 1982) were two-time first-team selections. Wide receiver Jake Bobo is the last Bruin to earn a first-team nod (2022). Linebacker Carson Schwesinger is the most recent Academic All-America honoree, being named to the second team in 2024.

6 Bruin QBs on Super Bowl Teams

UCLA has produced six quarterbacks - Troy Aikman, Steve Bono, Billy Kilmer, Tommy Maddox, Tom Ramsey and Jay Schroeder - to have played that position on a Super Bowl team.

21 Times Bruins Have Finished in Heisman Top 10

Gary Beban won the 1967 Heisman Trophy. When quarterback Drew Olson finished eighth in the 2005 balloting it marked the 21st time that a Bruin player has finished in the top 10 of the Heisman voting.

38 of Past 44 Super Bowls Have Featured a Bruin

UCLA has had at least one player on the teams which participated in the Super Bowl game in 38 of the past 44 contests. Kansas City Chiefs fullback Carson Steele (2023) was the latest Bruin to suit up in Super Bowl LIX.

3-Time Consensus All-Americans

The only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pac-12 Conference history are Bruins (LB Jerry Robinson, 1976-78 and S Kenny Easley, 1978-80).

Finalists for National Awards Since 2000

Since 2000, 17 UCLA football players have been either a finalist or winner for a National College Football player award a total of 26 times.
