OFF THE TOP

San José State has never beaten New Mexico in 14 meetings dating back to 1961 ... Saturday's game will feature the Mountain West's top-two scorers during league play in Brandon Clarke (23.3 ppg) and Elijah Brown (22.0 ppg) ... Clarke is now third all-time at San José State for his 88 career blocks and he leads all Mountain West players during league play at 2.4 swats per game ... The Spartans lost both meetings with the Lobos last year by an average score of 18.5 points ... San José State has reached 10 wins for the first time since the 2010-11 season, and one more MW win will match the total from all of last season.

SERIES HISTORY WITH NEW MEXICO

San José State has never beaten New Mexico in 11 meetings dating back to 1961. The closest the Spartans came to a win was an 82-81 overtime loss at home in 1999. Since joining the Mountain West San José State has lost five games by an average of 14.4 points per game. Last season the Spartans lost 83-64 at home and 74-56 on the road to the Lobos.

LAST TIME IN THE PIT

A 5:25 scoring drought near the end of the first half doomed the Spartans the last time they played in The Pit on Feb. 13, 2016. San José State made things interesting in the second half when Jalen James hit a pair of threes to make it 47-42 midway through the second half. But New Mexico would run away from there for a 74-58 win.

CLARKE LEADS ALL SCORERS IN MW PLAY

Spartan forward Brandon Clarke comes into Saturday's game as the Mountain West's leading scorer during league play at 23.3 points per game. He has scored 20 or more points in seven of the nine MW games, including a career-high 36 on the road at Air Force. Last week he notched a pair of double-doubles with 24 points and 12 rebounds at Colorado State and then 23 points and 15 rebounds in a win over UNLV.

OTHER TOP RANKINGS FOR BC

Clarke's 18.4 points per game this season are coming at a league best 60.4 percent (157-260) shooting clip. During conference play, he's at a MW-leading 64.7 percent shooting and is top-five in a number of other categories including: 8.8 rebounds per game – 4th, 2.8 blocks per game – 1st, and 2.9 offensive rebounds per game – 3rd.

LEAGUE'S LEADING SCORERS GO AT IT

Brandon Clarke and Elijah Brown play different positions but they have one thing in common – Leading scorers in Mountain West play. Clarke hasn't made a 3-pointer this year while averaging 23.3 points per conference game while Brown averages 22.2 makes from range per contest for the year. Brown comes in just behind Clarke at 22.0 points per conference game and both players have been heating up over the last few weeks leading up to the matchup against each other on Saturday.

TERRELL BROWN GETS SEASON-HIGH BURN IN FIRST START

Terrell Brown made the first start of his Spartan career against UNLV and played 38 minutes during the win. He contributed a season-high 14 points. He scored 13 points off the bench in the previous game at Colorado State. While Brown showed that he may be one of the fastest young players in the conference driving to the basket, he hasn't finished well as of yet, going 6-for-22 from the floor. Before the last two games, Brown had been averaging 16.3 minutes per game coming off of the bench.

CLUTCH-FACTOR LIFTS SPARTANS OVER REBELS

San José State's 76-72 win over New Mexico came down to hitting big shots when the team needed it most. Ryan Welage broke a 63-63 tie with his only 3-pointer of the game, Isaiah Nichols and Jaycee Hillsman pitched in with key threes down the stretch of the second half. Finally, Brandon Clarke was there for a put-back that gave SJSU a five-point lead with under three minutes to go. After the Spartans erased the 13-point deficit early in the second half, it was a matter of hitting those shots in order to beat UNLV and end a three-game slide.

SPARTANS REACH 10 WINS

Reaching 10 wins in a season is a first since 2010-11 when the team went 17-16 and reached the CBI Tournament. Last week's win over UNLV not only put the Spartans over the 10-win hump, but gave them their first win over the Rebels since 1996. The number 10 may not seem so significant, but considering just two years ago the team was 2-28 without a win over a Division I opponent. Last Saturday's win was SJSU's third in MW play this year, and one more will match the total from all of last season.

UNDEFEATED WHEN WINNING THE BOARDS IN CONFERENCE PLAY

San José State is a perfect 1-0 when it outrebounds the opponent this year during conference play. That's right, the 76-72 win over UNLV was the first time all year that SJSU beat a MW foe in rebounding, 36-31. The Spartans have a league-worst -7.7 margin on the glass this season. Despite the efforts of Brandon Clarke, who brings down 8.1 per game, the team has struggled to beat the opposition in rebounding.

WELAGE FINDS HIS STROKE

Sophomore forward Ryan Welage had been struggling to find the bottom of the net with the turn of conference play to the tune of shooting 32.5 percent leading up to last Saturday's game versus UNLV. But against the Rebels he hit 8-of-14 from the floor and scored a conference season-high 19 points. The Spartans have become accustomed to that sort of performance throughout his freshman season and the nonconference portion of this year. His season-high 22 points came earlier this year helping lift San José State to a win over Southern Utah. Welage only hit 1-of-4 from downtown in the win over UNLV, but that one broke a 63-63 tie and gave SJSU the momentum it needed to close out the rebels in the final minutes.

SPARTANS LET CSU PULL AWAY

San José State went into halftime trailing by just four points on the road at Colorado State, but the Rams backcourt duo of Gian Clavell and Prentiss Nixon put the Spartans away in the second period. The CSU lead grew to as many as 15 points, and although SJSU was able to cut it down to five points in the final minute, Colorado State put the Spartans away by a score of 81-72.

CLARKE BATTLES CLAVELL IN SECOND HALF

The Spartans had no answer defensively for Colorado State's Gian Clavell who scored 17 second-half points. But on the other end, Brandon Clarke did everything he could to balance out the scoring with 20 points of his own in the second period. Clavell came out of the halftime locker room on fire, scoring nine of the Rams' first 11 points. Then Clarke answered by scoring 10 straight points for the Spartans. Clarke finished the half with 20 points on 7-for-9 shooting. The rest of the team was 7-for-24 shooting for the half.

3-POINT SHOOTING CRITICAL

SJSU is 21-for-73 (28.7 percent) shooting from beyond the arc in the last four games. Although the Spartans rely heavily on Brandon Clarke's presence on the inside, a common thread in SJSU's wins this season is good 3-point shooting. In five of the last six wins, SJSU has shot better than 43 percent from downtown – Three of the five wins have been above 47 percent from deep. On the flip side, while the Spartans are last in 3-point shooting percentage during conference play (29.4%), they still make more threes per game than the Lobos, who are last in the league at 5.1 threes per conference game.

CLARKE WINS PLAYER OF THE WEEK AGAIN

Brandon Clarke won his second MW Player of the Week award after totaling 61 points in 63 minutes during two road games during the week of Jan. 9-15. He shot a sizzling 73.0 percent (27-37) from the floor - all two-point baskets - raising his field goal percentage during MW play to a league-best 67.1 percent. He put in 25 points against San Diego State to begin the week. After foul trouble limited his minutes in the opening period, Clarke played every minute of the second half when the Spartans outscored the Aztecs 38-34. Clarke followed that up with 36 points, five rebounds, five assists and five blocks at Air Force. His 36 points are the most by a Mountain West player in a single game this year which ended in regulation. He jumped up to second in scoring among all players during league play at 23.6 points per game.

SPARTANS SHOOT OVER 60 PERCENT

San José State shot over 60 percent as a team for the first time since 2013 in the win at Air Force. Outside shooters E.J. Boyce and Cody Schwartz were feeling it, pitching in 14 points apiece on a combined 10-for-13 shooting. Both players connected on four shots from downtown on the way to their conference-season highs in points. It was an impressive outing for Schwartz who came out and knocked down three of his first four shots after an 0-for-7 performance in the previous game at San Diego State. While Boyce was raining threes most of the game, his biggest basket of the game was a layup as the shot clock expired to keep the Spartans ahead by five with under two minutes to play.

CLUTCH FACTOR PUTS SJSU OVER UNLV

San Jose, Calif. --- Ryan Welage found his stroke, freshmen guards Isaiah Nichols and Terrell Brown took the reins for the first time, and Brandon Clarke notched another double-double in San José State's 76-72 win over UNLV in Mountain West play inside The Event Center.

A number of big shots fell for the Spartans in a victory which gives San José State a 10-win season for the first time since 2010-11, and ends a three-game slide.

Any thought of Welage's poor shooting start to the conference season was forgotten when he hit perhaps his most clutch shot of the year, a 3-ball from the right wing which broke a 63-63 tie and put the Spartans ahead for good with 2:49 remaining. Welage finished with a conference-season high 19 points on 8-of-14 shooting.

After UNLV's Zion Morgan nailed a three to cut SJSU's lead to two, 70-68 with 1:11 left, Nichols banged a three of his own on SJSU's next trip down - which you might call his most clutch shot of the season.

Jovan Mooring's NBA-range 3-pointer with 21.4 second left brought UNLV back within two, 73-71, but that would be all as Jaycee Hillsman's two free throws with six seconds left made it a four-point game.

The Spartans (10-10, 3-6 MW) shot 57.1 percent (16-28) in the second half and were 5-for-7 from beyond the arc. For the game SJSU outrebounded the Rebels 36-31, for their first advantage on the glass over a conference opponent this season.

Clarke was was a big part of that with his career-high tying 15 boards, and he was in on the scoring action through the entire half. First he helped the Spartans erase a 13-point deficit beginning with a layup with 18:30 left in the period which made it 40-29 UNLV lead and got momentum going for SJSU's eventual comeback. Clarke's and-one layup with 10:10 to play gave the Spartans their first lead since 17-16 midway through the first half.

Later, Clarke followed Welage's go-ahead 3-ball with a tip-in to make it 68-63. He grabbed his fifth offensive rebound and put it back to make it 70-65 Spartans lead with 1:23 left. He would finished with a game-high 23 points.

Terrell Brown played a season-high 38 minutes and his fellow freshman Nichols was his backcourt running mate for 25 minutes. Brown finished with a season-high 14 points, 10 of which came in the first half. Nichols hit all three of his shots from the field, two of which were critical 3-point baskets down the stretch of the second period - He finished with nine points.

Hillsman only hit one shot, but that one fell into the "big-shot" theme of the night. UNLV had trailed by five midway through the second half, but came back to take the lead again, 57-56, on two free throws by Cheickna Dembele. Hillsman made sure the Rebels lead was short lived when he took a pass from Brown and nailed a corner three that put the Spartans back ahead by two with 6:25 remaining.

Mooring led UNLV with 17 points. The Rebels leading scorer for the season Jaylen Poyser (12.5 ppg) had 13 points in the game but was held to 1-of-7 shooting. Uche Ofogebu was another Rebel in double-figure scoring with 10 points.

After beating UNLV for the first time since 1996, the Spartans will have a mid-week bye before going for two in a row when they travel to The Pit to face New Mexico on February 4.

TOP PERFORMERS

#15 BRANDON CLARKE, F

Scored 23 points and grabbed a career-high tying 15 rebounds ... Two baskets down the stretch of the second half helped the Spartans stay in a close game.

#32 RYAN WELAGE, F

Scored a conference-season high 19 points on 8-of-14 shooting ... Broke a 63-63 tie with a 3-pointer with under two minutes to play.

#10 ISAIAH NICHOLS, G

Contributed with two 3-point baskets in the second half - one which helped SJSU erase a 13-point deficit and another during a nip-and-tuck final four minutes of the game ... Hit all three of his shots from the field and finished with nine points.

SPARTANS OUT OF RHYTHM IN LOSS TO UNM

San Jose, Calif. --- The San José State men's basketball team was outscored by 14 points in the second half and fell 83-64 to New Mexico in Mountain West action at The Event Center.

"We just didn't execute for whatever reason," said Spartans' head coach Dave Wojcik. "I don't know if we've hit a wall or what. We didn't have that pop, and we didn't have it the other night in Boise either. As a staff we have to figure it out and try to come back and get ready for next Wednesday."

The Spartans shot 38 percent (21-56) from the floor for the game while New Mexico, the most efficient shooting team in the league, shot 55 percent (30-55).

"I thought New Mexico did a good job executing their offense and looking for their guy Brown," Wojcik said. He really hurt us and played a hell of a game. Timmy Williams played well for them too with a double-double. We knew those were the guys we had to stop, we just couldn't get the stops we needed."

Elijah Brown scored 19 of his career-high tying 33 points in the second half to lead the Lobos (11-8, 4-3 MW). It is the second time in the last three games that SJSU has allowed a 30-point scorer. Tim Williams finished with 22 points and 11 rebounds for his fourth double-double of the year.

Frank Rogers scored 16 points to lead San José State (6-14, 1-7 MW). Brandon Clarke joined Rogers in double-figures scoring with 14 points. Both players grabbed eight rebounds.

San José State trailed 37-32 at the break, but hot New Mexico shooting coupled with SJSU turnovers and poor free throw shooting allowed the Lobos to pull away. San José State finished 15 of 28 from the line and committed 17 turnovers.

Brown's three-point basket with 3:18 remaining gave UNM its largest lead of 25 points.

DAVE WOJCIK

HEAD COACH

FOURTH SEASON

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY, MARYLAND, 1991

Dave Wojcik (WOE-jick) enters his fourth season as San José State University's head men's basketball coach in 2016-17. He joined the Spartans in March of 2013 after six conference championships and 11 postseason appearances as an assistant coach.

The 2015-16 season, Wojcik's third at SJSU, was a turning point for the program. The team achieved its highest production in points, rebounds, blocks and steals since Wojcik's arrival. The squad's 449 assists were third-most in a single season, and the highest total since 1984-85.

Production on offense jumped up 16.8 points per game from the year before, leading to a 6.5-game turnaround which ranked 48th in the nation. The Spartans defeated three teams which won 20 or more games and reached the NCAA Tournament the previous season. One of the three was a signature 68-63 win on Senior Night against Boise State, where Wojcik was an assistant for three years before becoming a Spartan.

Fueling the surge was a group of four true freshmen that ended the season accounting for 43.4 percent of the team's points – ranking second only to Kentucky among Division I teams. Under Wojcik's guidance, forward Brandon Clarke became the first freshman at SJSU and in the Mountain West to win the Sixth Man of the Year award. The balanced recruiting class also featured the Mountain West's top two three-point shot makers in Cody Schwartz and Ryan Welage.

San José State didn't only see a production increase on the court in 2015-16. Wojcik's emphasis on academic success has helped the team raise its grade point average one full point in the last year. The Spartans earned a pair of Academic All-Mountain West awards, and Jalen James was named an Arthur Ashe, Jr. Sports Scholar.

Prior to accepting the head coaching position at San José State, Wojcik spent three seasons (2011-13) as the associate head coach at Boise State under head coach Leon Rice. The 2013 Broncos received an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and recorded a second 20-win season in three years.

Wojcik has an extensive resume as an assistant coach at building successful basketball programs. He started his coaching career in 1991-92 under Lefty Driesell at James Madison University. Coach Driesell amassed 786 wins over his coaching career and was inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007. Wojcik then was hired the next season as an assistant at West Liberty State College.

Wojcik returned to his alma mater in 1993 as an assistant to the former Wake Forest head coach, the late Skip Prosser. Wojcik helped coach the Greyhounds to one of the top-15 turnarounds in NCAA Division I history at the time, the 1994 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Tournament title and Loyola's first NCAA Tournament appearance in its 105-year men's basketball history. Wojcik followed Prosser to Xavier where the duo reached the NCAA Tournament twice in three years.

Wojcik coached at the U.S. Naval Academy (2004) and Dayton (2005) before spending the next four seasons (2006-09) as the associate head coach at the University of Tulsa, working on the staff of his brother Doug Wojcik. The Golden Hurricane recorded an 81-53 overall record during that time, including three consecutive 20-win seasons. The team played in back-to-back Conference USA Tournament title games, won the inaugural College Basketball Invitational championship in 2008 and reached the second round of the 2009 NIT.

Wojcik also was successful as a collegiate player at Loyola. He is the only player in school history to record a triple-double with 14 points, 10 rebounds and 11 assists against St. Francis (Pa.) in 1989. Wojcik earned his bachelor's degree in education from Loyola in 1991. He and his wife, Heather, have one son, Jake.
