TIP-OFF

The second installment in the Battle of I-25 this season is scheduled to tip-off at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 10, in the Pan American Center as the New Mexico State men's basketball team entertains long-time rival New Mexico. Saturday's game is also sponsored by Wells Fargo.

Adam Young (@younggbbp) will have the call for Aggie fans on the ESPN3 broadcast while former NM State assistant coach Rus Bradburd serves as the analyst. Fans can watch the game online or with the WatchESPN app on a variety of devices.

LOU HENSON NIGHT

Prior to Saturday's rivalry game, the NM State Athletic Department will be unveiling a new banner to honor Hall of Fame head coach Lou Henson for his 779 career wins as a head coach. Then at halftime, there will be also a banner presentation to commemorate the only Final Four team in school history – which was coached by none other than Lou Henson himself.

AGGIELAND DELIGHT

Nine games into the season, Sidy N'Dir (13.7), Braxton Huggins (12.8) and Ian Baker (12.5) paces NM State with all three averaging in double-figures.

Meanwhile, Eli Chuha (6.6) and Jemerrio Jones (6.3) guide the Aggies on the glass with Tanveer Bhullar checking in with 3.5 boards per game.

Jones leads the team with 24 assists on the year while N'Dir (19), Baker (17), Matt Taylor (16) and Huggins (13) rounds out the list of players with double-digit dimes. Jones also boasts a team-high 14 swipes on the year with Baker closely behind with 12 steals.

Huggins has been a deadly shooter for NM State beyond the arc, knocking down 21-of-44 attempts for a team-best .477 shooting clip. Chuha leads the team with a .600 shooting clip (min. 30 FGA) while four other players are shooting above 45-percent.

BAKER NEARS 1,000 POINT CLUB

Aggie floor general Ian Baker currently sits at 960 career points as he prepares to suit up for his 96th-career game in the Crimson & White. Baker, a Washington, D.C., product will become the 33rd player to join the 1,000 point club in program history when he reaches that plateau. He will be the fourth Aggie in the last three seasons to join the 1,000. Other players that recently joined the 1,000 point club include Pascal Siakam (1,126, 2014-16), Tshilidzi Nephawe (1,087, 2011-15) and Daniel Mullings (1,677, 2012-15).

RPI CHECK

After debuting at 94 in the first RPI ranking by the NCAA on Dec. 6, NM State is now sitting at No. 82, good for the highest amongst Western Athletic Conference teams through games on Dec. 7. Utah Valley, who debuted at No. 88 to lead the WAC, is now sitting at No. 96.

AGGIES VS. LOBOS PAR DEUX

Saturday's game against New Mexico will be the 218th meeting between the two in-state rivals and the 105th contest between the Aggies and Lobos in Las Cruces when they tip-off at the Pan American Center at 7:30 p.m.

UNM took the first match-up between the two schools this season in The Pit, 72-59, behind the play of Tim Williams (20 points), Elijah Brown (19) and Sam Logwood (12). The Aggies were paced by Ian Baker's 25 points while Sidy N'Dir chipped in with 14 of his own. Tanveer Bhullar made his 2016-17 debut that night and added nine points and 10 boards off the bench.

Since the two squared off, NM State has reel off five-straight wins, including a come from behind win at San Diego despite the Aggies 21.7-percent in the first half and 34.9-percent for the entire game.

UNM has gone 3-3 since battling New Mexico State, including a 1-2 record at the John Wooden Classic. The Lobos narrowly defeated UTEP this past Wednesday, 78-77, thanks to a late jumper from Brown with 5.8 seconds remaining the game. As a team, New Mexico is shooting 50.1-percent from the floor, but opponents are also shooting 44.5-percent from the floor.

Williams currently leads the team with 19 points and 6.9 boards per game with a .627 shooting clip and has missed the last two games for UNM due to a concussion. The status of the 6-8 forward is uncertain.

Second on the team in scoring is Brown, who is averaging 16.8 points, 5.1 boards and 3 assists. He's also leading the team in 3-point range with 18 on the year for a .300 shooting clip from beyond the arc.

Jordan Hunter is tied for fourth on the team with Obij Aget in scoring at 6.4 points per game, but paces the team with 3.9 dimes per game. With Williams out, Aget takes over the team lead in blocks with eight.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE

With a win last Saturday over Long Beach State, NM State extended its home winning-streak to 15 dating back to last season. The Aggies have their first six games of the 2016 campaign at home, matching the 2008-09 team. The 2016-17 squad will now be chasing the 2006-07 team that won 15-consecutive games at home, which also included an 80-73 win over No. 13/15 Nevada team.

LAST TIME OUT

NM State continued its hot-streak at home last Saturday when it defeated former Big West rival Long Beach State 93-85 inside the Pan American Center. The Aggies were led by Braxton Huggins, who racked up a game-high 26 points on top of 4-of-5 starters scoring in double-digits. The win also extended NM State's home winning-streak to 15, dating back to last season.

Eli Chuha finished the night with a career-high 19 points and seven rebounds on 7-of-8 shooting while Sidy N'Dir added 18 points on 4-of-9 shooting and 8-of-10 effort from the charity stripe. Ian Baker chipped in with 15 points thanks to a 9-for-9 effort at the line with Jemmerio Jones rounding things out with his first-career double-double at the Division I level with 10 points and 13

AGGIES ISLAND BOUND

The 2017 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic field has been set which includes NM State. The field for the eighth annual event to be played on Dec. 22, 23 and 25 includes Akron, Davidson, Miami, Middle Tennessee, New Mexico State, USC, Utah State and Hawai'i.

Four of the teams in the field participated in the 2016 NCAA Tournament while NM State participated in the 2016 NIT.

For more additional information can be found on the Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic's official website at www.hawaiianairlinesdiamondheadclassic.com.

GUESS WHO'S BACK?

The NM State men's basketball team is set to return to the Santa Ana Star Center in Rio Rancho, N.M., as it takes on Northern New Mexico on Monday, Jan. 30, at 7 p.m. This is the second time in as many years the Aggies will be playing the Eagles in Rio Rancho.

This is the second year the Aggies will take the court at the Santa Ana Star Center. Last February, nearly 2,500 fans watched New Mexico State clinch an 85-54 victory over Northern New Mexico at the neutral-site venue.

Reserved seats start at $10, with center court seats going for $20 and a limited number of courtside seats available at $50.

Ticket reservations are now being accepted by NM State at the Pan American Center Ticket Office, either in person or by calling (575) 646-1420. Fans can also order tickets through Santa Ana Star Center starting 10:00 AM Friday, December 2 by calling (888) 694-4849, online at SantaAnaStarCenter.com, or in person at Don Chalmers Ford Box Office at Santa Ana Star Center.

AROUND THE WAC

Through Wednesday's games, redshirt sophomore Eli Chuha is fifth in the Western Athletic Conference with 6.6 boards per game and trails the league-leader from Utah Valley Isaac Nielson (10.3). Jemmerio Jones is right behind Chuha on the rebounding list, checking in with 6.3 boards per game. Chuha's .600 shooting clip ranks him third in the WAC while Braxton Huggins' .477 shooting from 3-point range ranks him third behind UVU's Kenneth Ogbe.

Ian Baker is fourth in the league with an 86.8-percent shooting from the free-throw line while Huggins is in sixth with a .850 clip and N'Dir in ninth (.756). Jones' 1.7 steals per game ranks him seventh in the league while Baker sits right under him in eighth with 1.5 swips per game. Matt Taylor's 1.2 blocks per game is good for second in the league while N'Dir and Jones are tied for eighth.

On the glass, Chuha is tied for second in the league with 2.6 offensive boards per game (23) while Jones checks in at seventh with 1.3 rebounds per game on the offensive glass (21).

Paul Weir's team is second the league in scoring defense (65.4) while opponents are shooting 40.5-percent from the floor, also good for second in the WAC. NM State foes are also shooting just 31.3-percent from beyond the arc. The Aggies are also on top with a league-best 40 blocks (4.4/game).

UP NEXT

New Mexico State will now hit the road for a pair of games before returning home for another three-game homestand. First up for the Aggies will be Battle of I-10 rival UTEP on Tuesday, Dec. 13, at 7 p.m. in the Don Haskins Center. NM State then travels west for a bout with Pac-12 foe Arizona State for a Saturday showdown at 6 p.m. on the Pac-12 Networks.

Aggies' first road victory against a non-rivalry, non-conference opponent since 2013 against Drake – an 81-69 affair in favor of New Mexico State.

AGGIES OUT SHOOT COLONELS

Heading into the locker room trailing Nicholls State 44-43 at the half, NM State roared back in the second half and outscored the Colonels 43-30 in the second half. Paced by a pair of 20-point performances from Jemerrio Jones and Braxton Huggins, the NM State men's basketball team breezed to an 86-74 victory in the second half on Tuesday, Nov. 22, at the Pan American Center.

After an exchange of leads to open the second stanza, the Aggies jumped into high-gear on the defensive end which catapulted them to a 59-47 lead after Joe Garza drained a three that forced Nicholls State head coach Richie Riley to call a timeout. From there it was all New Mexico State as it cruised to an 86-74 win.

WILDCATS TAMED BY SHORT-HANDED NM STATE

Career night for Braxton Huggins and Sidy N'Dir on offense guided the New Mexico State men's basketball team past Bethune-Cookman, 89-73, in its second game of the University of San Diego Classic.

After trailing Bethune-Cookman the first 9:20 minutes of action, NM State (3-2) erupted in the latter part of the first half and went on a 34-8 run to take a 50-29 lead heading into the break. Huggins scored 17 of his career-high 28 points in the opening half on 3-of-3 shooting beyond the arc on top of his 8-of-10 effort behind the line.

N'Dir also chipped in with 10 points in the opening stanza – including a thunderous dunk at the 1:11 mark that forced a Wildcat (2-2) timeout.

The Aggies' largest lead of the game, 70-44, came at the 11:38 mark when Joe Garza drained a 3-pointer as time expired on the shot clock. From there, NM State managed its lead before cruising to an 89-73 victory over the Wildcats.

AGGIE FALL IN ABQ

The Aggies played a tough New Mexico game at The Pit on Nov. 12 and took a 30-29 lead heading into the break behind 11 points from Ian Baker – who finished with a game-high 25. The Aggies were able to use a 10-5 edge in points off turnovers in the first half to take that lead as well.

However, a scoring lull by NM State late in the second half led to a 20-9 run by the Lobos and gave them their largest lead of the night, 64-51, with 2:12 left in the game. The Aggies were able to cut the lead down to 63-53 with 53 second left to play before falling 72-59.

BULLDOGS TAMED

After a sluggish start to Wednesday's game, forward Eli Chuha energized the Aggies to a 58-48 victory behind a career-high 16 points and 13 rebounds. The win moved NM State to 2-1 on the year while giving head coach Paul Weir his first win over a Division I team since taking over the program.

The Bulldogs cut the NM State lead to two in two different instances in the second half, but the Aggies persevered and used a 10-0 run that spanned 4:35 near the end of the game on top of a 23-11 edge in points off turnovers to pull away from the Bulldogs in the Aggies' opening game of the University of San Diego Classic. Sidy N'Dir added 10 points for NM State while Ian Baker chipped in with nine points, five rebounds, three assists and three steals.

AGGIE DEBUT

The Aggie faithful got a chance to watch the newcomers make their debut on Friday night as Chancellor Ellis, Jemerrio Jones, Joe Garza and Marlon Jones all stepped foot onto Lou Henson

SHARPSHOOTING HUGGINS

After a shooting hiatus the last two games, junior guard Braxton Huggins returned to form and knocked down five shots from deep last game against Long Beach State.

The Bakersfield, Calif., product shot 83-percent from beyond the arc while draining 10-of-12 shots against Bethune-Cookman and Nicholls State earlier in the year.

NM STATE BATTLES ADVERSITY TO CLAIM FIRST ROAD VICTORY UNDER WEIR

Despite a shooting slump that bled into the opening minutes of the second-half, the NM State men's basketball team was able to claw back from an eight-point deficit and defeat San Diego 56-51. Jemerrio Jones led the Aggies' resurgence with 14 second-half points on 6-of-10 shooting while Ian Baker and Braxton Huggins chipped in with 15 and 11 points, respectively. The win on Saturday made NM State the de-facto champions of the San Diego Classic, going 4-0, with wins over Samford, Bethune-Cookman, Nicholls State and the host, Toreros.

Saturday's win over USD was NM State's first road victory of the season under first-year head coach Paul Weir. It was also the Jones was everything as advertised, finishing with two points, two boards, four assists three steals and a block.

CENTURY MARK

NM State's home-opening 100-52 win was the first time the Aggies have hit the century mark since Feb. 23, 2012, against Hawaii. Friday was just the 10th time NM State has reached the 100 point mark in a season-opening game.

ALLOW US TO REINTRODUCE OURSELVES

Friday's season and home-opener saw a very different Aggie team compared to those from the Marvin Menzies era. NM State was much more active on the offensive end and really put the pressure on Arizona Christian's backcourt with NM State pushing the rock up the floor.

The Aggies upgraded defense forced 22 turnovers and turned them into 36 points. In the paint, the NM State big men gave NM State a 22-8 edge in points off turnovers while the Aggies as a team outscored Arizona Christian 40-10 in the paint.

On the offensive end, NM State had seven players reach double-figures while Jalyn Pennie and Eli Chuha both registering double-doubles. Guard Sidy N'Dir tied his career-high of 14 on 4-of-6 shooting, including 2-of-3 from downtown. In addition, Matt Taylor also had a new career-high in points with 13 while Chuha's 12 rebounds was a new high for the redshirt sophomore. The 100 points was also the most by an Aggie team since Hawaii on Feb. 23, 2012.

BAKER NAMED TO PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Senior guard Ian Baker was named to the Lou Henson Award Preseason Watch List on Wednesday the award committee announced. The honor is especially meaningful for the Aggies with the legendary head coach having led New Mexico State and currently serves as a special advisor to the team. The recipient of the 2017 Lou Henson Award will be announced at the CollegeInsider.com awards banquet on April 31 in Phoenix, site of the men's Division I basketball championship.

MOVIN' ON UP

With the start of his senior season, Ian Baker will have a chance to move himself up the all-time career-list in the 3-point shooting category at New Mexico State. The senior is currently seventh all-time in 3-pointers made 145 should go for the 3-point field-goal attempts category. Baker is also tied for seventh right now with Gordo Castillo (2007-11) in the career 3-point shooting-percentage, checking in with a .407 clip heading into the start of the season.

KNIGHTS LEAD THE WAY

The Oñate High School Choir under the direction of Mr. Ryan Fellman sang the national anthem before NM State's non-conference battle against Air Force (Nov. 30)

MAYFIELD BAND TAKES CENTER STAGE

The Mayfield High School Band, under the direction of Johnnie Lee Lang, was the honorary pep band for the NM State Men's Basketball home-opener on Friday, Nov. 11 when the Aggies took on Arizona Christian. About 30 members of the Mayfield Band filled section 117 in the Pan American Center for the first home game of 2016-17 season. Along with providing a fun game-day atmosphere, the addition of the Mayfield band serves as way to re-incorporate the community back to the NM State Basketball program — an outreach goal of new head men's basketball coach Paul Weir.

The NMSU Marching Band cited other engagements that preclude its participation at the basketball games on Friday, Nov. 11, as well as the men's game against Samford on Wednesday, Nov. 16.

GO, GO, GO!

With the start of the 2016-17 season on Friday, Nov. 11, it marked the start of a wild 15-day stretch for NM State. The Aggies played seven games in 15 days, including three on the road and traveled over 3,000 miles between three states during that stretch.

HOMECOURT ADVANTAGE

New Mexico State has enjoyed a lot of success in the friendly confines of the Pan American Center throughout the years and history proves it. Heading into the 2016-17 season, NM State is 589-151 (.796) all-time inside the Pan Am and can notch its 600th win this season.

With the 78-70 win on Wednesday over Air Force, the Aggies are 5-0 at home in 2016-17 and inches one game closer to reaching the 600 win plateau since the opening of the Pan Am Center.

Since its debut in the Pan Am Center for the 1968-69 season, NM State has gone undefeated four times, with the last perfect season at home coming in 1989-90. Heading into its 49th season at the Pan Am, NM State has only had seven seasons with less than 10 wins and of those seven seasons, the Aggies have been under .500 at home twice through 741 games.

NOT THE AGGIES OF OLD

Under the direction of new head coach Paul Weir, fans will see a different style of Aggie basketball on the floor this season. The first-year head coach intends to play a more up-tempo style of play with an even more tenacious defensive, especially with the addition of assistant coach Jesse Bopp.

Ian Baker leads the group of returners as the floor general while Sidy N'Dir, Braxton Huggins, Jalyn Pennie and Matt Taylor rounds out the backcourt for NM State. In the front court, Johnathan Wilkins, Tanveer Bhullar and Eli Chuha will look to protect the rim. Coming out of their redshirt seasons will be Jermaine Haley and Bollo Gnahore.

Weir also added a little extra firepower in the backcourt with the addition of 3-point threat, Chancellor Ellis, and Las Cruces native Joe Garza. In addition to those three, NM State will also have the services of AJ Harris, an Ohio State transfer, in 2017-18 after he sits out this season as required by the NCAA transfer rules. With the new style of play, Weir also recruited some dynamic rim protectors in Jemmerio Jones, Marlon Jones and Johnny McCants.

AND SO IT BEGINS...

On April 26, 2016, long-time Aggie men's basketball assistant Paul Weir was named the 25th head coach at NM State. Weir, who has spent the last nine seasons on the NM State bench, has been the Aggies associate head coach and defensive coordinator since July 2011 for his predecessor Marvin Menzies.

Quickly after taking over the reins, Weir began assembling his coaching staff. His first hiring as head coach was securing legendary head coach Lou Henson as the team's special advisor. Weir then added Jesse Bopp, who came from Chattanooga by way of VCU, to his staff. He then rounded out his staff with CSU Bakersfield assistant Marc Hsu. A familiar face for fans on the bench this year will be Aerick Sanders, who stayed on to work under Weir.

Guy Meyer, a Santa Fe native, also joined Weir as the director of basketball operations. Jordan Sperber filled out the support staff as the video coordinator.

PRESEASON FAVORITES

NM State was picked to win the Western Athletic Conference in both the coaches' and media poll, but by just a slim margin ahead of Grand Canyon. Senior guard Ian Baker was the lone Aggie to earn first-team preseason honors.

IN THE PROS

With the recent signing of Johnathan Gibson to the Dallas Mavericks, this is the first time since the 1999-00 NBA season where two former Aggie basketball alums are on an active NBA roster. Gibson joins Pascal Siakam, who has started all 11 games for the Toronto Raptors this year as a rookie.

SUPER SIAKAM

Former New Mexico State men's basketball power forward Pascal Siakam secured his name into Aggie lore on June 23 after being selected in the first round by the Toronto Raptors as the 27th pick overall in the 2016 NBA Draft.

Siakam is just the third player in NM State history and the first in 46 years to be drafted in the first round since Sam Lacey (fifth overall) and Jimmy Collins (11th) in 1970. The Douala, Cameroon, native is also the first player drafted in the NBA since Randy Brown, who was the fourth pick in the second round of the 1991 NBA Draft.

Siakam becomes just the fourth player from Cameroon since 2000 to be drafted to the NBA, joining Ruben Boumtje-Boumtje (2001, Portland Trailblazers), Luc Mbah a Moute (2008, Milwaukee Bucks) and Joel Embiid (2014, Philadelphia 76ers).

The 6-9 forward had a breakout season in 2015-16, averaging 20.3 points and 11.6 rebounds and ended with Siakam earning AP All-America Honorable Mention. He also racked up Western Athletic Conference Player of the Year, NABC First-Team All-District VI, USBWA All-District VIII and Lou Henson All-America honors.

He led the nation with a whopping 27 double-doubles as a redshirt sophomore and was finished in the top 40 in several statistical categories, averaging 20.3 points (26th), 11.6 rebounds (eighth) and 2.4 blocks (32nd). Of the 22 players in 2015-16 that averaged a double-double, Siakam was the only player to score 20-plus points per game.

In just two seasons in Las Cruces, Siakam recorded 1,126 points – which ranks 21st in the program's all-time scoring list. His two-year total in points is also the fourth-best in NM State history while his 658 career rebounds rank him 15th all-time.

His 690 points this season is the second-most in Aggie history for a single season while his 396 rebounds were the third-highest. The 396 boards was also the fourth-best mark in a single-season for the WAC. Siakam's 658 career rebounds also ranks him 15th in conference history.

Paul Weir became the 25th head men's basketball coach at New Mexico State on April 26, 2016, after spending nine seasons as an assistant coach, including five seasons as the associate head coach, for the Aggies.

He coached NM State to five WAC Tournament Championships (2010, 2012-15) and five subsequent NCAA Tournament appearances. The Aggies collected three WAC Championships during Weir's tenure, including back-to-back WAC regular-season titles in 2015 and 2016 to go with their first WAC regular-season title in 2008. Overall, NM State has claimed seven WAC titles during his nine years with the program.

The Aggies' defense led the Western Athletic Conference in scoring defense and field-goal percentage defense the last two seasons. The Aggies ranked 10th nationally in scoring defense in 2015-16, allowing just 63.1 points a game. NM State ranked 11th nationally in field goal percentage defense, as opponents shot just 39.2-percent from the floor – NM State's lowest since the 1960-61 season and fourth-best in program history.

In 2014-15, the Aggies allowed the opposition only 59.8 points a game, ranking 21st nationally in scoring defense. NM State held three opponents under 40 points in the 14-15 campaign, all ranking in the top 10 of fewest points allowed by an Aggie team since 1950.

In addition to his defensive work, Weir also directed the recruiting efforts for the Aggies. He was responsible for signing Daniel Mullings, the first WAC Player of the Year in school history and first AP All-American in 11 years at NM State in 2014. Mullings is the only player in school history to start on four-straight NCAA Tournament teams. He also landed Sim Bhullar, a two-time WAC Tournament MVP and the first Aggie in 24 years to play in the NBA. Bhullar was also the first player of Indian descent in NBA history.

Weir came to NM State in 2007 after two seasons as the director of basketball operations at Iowa, where he served under Steve Alford. In 2005-06, his first season at Iowa City, the Hawkeyes won 25 games on their way to a Big Ten Tournament Championship.

He got his start in collegiate basketball as an assistant for Mike McConathy at Northwestern State (La.) in 2004-05. The Demons went 21-12 and won the Southland Conference regular-season title.

Weir served as the head coach at Don Bosco Catholic High School in Toronto, Canada, posting a 41-32 record before entering the collegiate ranks. His 2002-03 team was ranked ninth in the greater Toronto area.

Weir was an outstanding player as well, gaining regional and city all-star honors as a point guard and team captain at Iona Catholic Secondary School before going on to play at York University (Toronto, Canada) in 1998-99, where he was the starting point guard for the Lions as a freshman.

Weir graduated with honors while earning his bachelor's degree from York in 2004. He earned his master's degree in health and human performance from Northwestern State in 2005, added a second master's degree in sports psychology from Iowa in 2010 and a third master's degree in business administration from New Mexico State in 2012. He is currently enrolled in the Educational Leadership Doctoral Program at NM State.

Weir and his wife Alma, a Las Cruces native, have one son, Theodore.
