LAYUPS

- As the case has been for the past few seasons under Ryun Williams, CSU is once again one of the nation's top defensive teams. The Rams rank third in the nation in scoring defense (52.5) and fifth in the country in field goal percentage defense (.335). The Rams have paired that with the nation's seventh-lowest turnover rate (11.9) and the eighth-lowest personal fouls rate (13.2) en route to their 12-2 conference record this season.

- CSU has been productive from the three-point arc, ranking 39th in the nation in three-point field goals (200). The Rams improve their advantage from three-point range on the defensive end, as they are limiting opponents to the nation's ninth-lowest three-point field goal percentage against (.266).

- CSU's two seniors, Ellen Nystrom and Elin Gustavsson, have paced the Rams in scoring, averaging 15.2 and 13.4 points per game, respectively. Gustavsson and Nystrom recently became the 18th and 19th players in program history to reach 1,000 career points, respectively. Nystrom ranks fifth in the MW in scoring, while Gustavsson ranks 11th.

- Nystrom and Gustavsson also lead the team in rebounding, averaging 7.8 and 6.2 rebounds per game, respectively. Nystrom, who ranks sixth in the MW in rebounding, has seven double-doubles this season, while Gustavsson has five. Hannah Tvrdy ranks third on the Rams in each of those categories, averaging 8.0 points and 4.6 rebounds per game so far this season.

- Gustavsson leads the team and ranks fifth in the conference in field goal percentage (.523), while Tvrdy ranks ninth in the MW in field goal percentage (.452).

- Nystrom also ranks within the top 10 in the Mountain West in assists (third - 5.2 per game), free throw percentage (third - .848), assist/turnover ratio (second - 1.8), defensive rebounds per game (first - 7.2), minutes played (third - 34.5) and steals per game (second - 2.0). Nystrom ranks 13th nationally in defensive rebounds per game (7.2), and 36th in free throw percentage (.848).

- Of the 30 candidates identified for this season's Senior CLASS Award, Nystrom is the only player to be selected from the Mountain West. Furthermore, Nystrom is the first player from the Mountain West to be a candidate for the award since Caroline Durbin of New Mexico was a candidate in 2012-13.

Williams Reaches 100 Wins Milestone at CSU

- Fifth-year head coach Ryun Williams won his 100th game as head coach at CSU with the Rams' 70-67 overtime win against San Jose State.
- Williams is the third coach in program history to win 100 games as head coach of the Rams. Ryun Williams joins Greg Williams (108 wins) and Tom Collen (129 wins).

Williams Wins Program-Record 57th Conference Game

- Along with earning his 100th win at CSU against San Jose State, fifth-year head coach Ryun Williams also picked up his 57th conference victory, the most under any head coach in program history.
- Williams broke the previous record held by Tom Collen, who won 56 conference games during his tenure as head coach at Colorado State.

Historic Mountain West Win Streaks Come to an End

- CSU had a pair of unprecedented conference win streaks come to an end earlier this season. The Rams had put together program best win streaks of 22 games (including post-season) and 25 games (regular season only) against Mountain West foes.
- CSU's 22-game MW win streak (including postseason) neared the all-time top 20 list in NCAA record books, as official records span back to a 24-game win streak in the Atlantic 10 by Temple from 2004-05.
- The Rams' 22-game conference win streak (including postseason) also ranked as the third best in the nation before ending. CSU ranked only behind UConn and Notre Dame, and was tied with South Carolina.

Defend Moby

- With its win against Seattle on Dec. 18, CSU recorded its 22nd straight win, setting the program record for its longest home winning streak in program history. The Rams had previously won 21 consecutive games at Moby Arena during 1998-99. The Rams' home win streak ended on Dec. 31 vs. Boise State.
- With the win streak that dates back to last season, the Rams currently had the fourth-longest active home winning streak in the country. CSU trailed only UConn, Baylor and Army in that category.
- Under head coach Ryun Williams, the Rams broken program records for longest winning streak (28 in 2015-16), longest road winning streak (12 in 2015-16) and now, longest home winning streak (22 broke the record on Dec. 18).

Nystrom First in Mountain West to Earn Pair of Weekly Honors

- Senior guard Ellen Nystrom put the Rams on her back in their 66-62 win over Seattle. Nystrom recorded her second double-double of the season, including a career-high 33 points with 13 rebounds.
- Nystrom accounted for half of the team's 66 points, while her 13 field goals made were the sixth-most in a single game in program history and over half of the team's 24 field goals made on Sunday.
- The 2016-17 Preseason Mountain West Player of the Year picked up the first and sixth MW Player of the Week honors of the season, becoming the first to win multiple weekly honors during the 2016-17 season.

Rams Navigate One of Nation's Most Challenging Early Schedules

- CSU has not backed down from the nation's top competition through the first few weeks of the season, taking on each of then-No. 15/13 Washington, then-No. 13/12 Oklahoma, Nebraska and No. 18 Colorado on the road.
- CSU is one of only a handful of teams to face a pair of AP top-15 opponents through the first month of the season. Only 10 other schools had done so at that point: Baylor, Cal Poly, Connecticut, DePaul, Gonzaga, Houston Baptist, Maine, Ohio State, South Carolina and Texas.
- Of that list, CSU was only one of seven teams outside the five power conferences to face multiple AP top-15 opponents in November. Furthermore, only two teams in the nation other than CSU faced each of those top-15 opponents in true road contests: Cal Poly and Houston Baptist.
- With CSU's trip to then-No. 18 Colorado on Dec. 8, CSU was at that point the only Division I team in the nation to play three top-20 opponents on the road.

Kaiser's Breakout Week

- On the road against Colorado, the Rams' third top-20 opponent of the season, CSU turned to sophomore Callie Kaiser off the bench. Kaiser responded, scoring a career-high and team-high 17 points on 7-of-8 shooting.
- Following that effort, Kaiser was rewarded with her first career start against New Mexico Highlands. Kaiser strong week continued, as she set another career high for points, tallying 20 against the Cowgirls on 7-of-9 shooting.
- For the week, Kaiser averaged 18.5 points, 5.5 rebounds and four assists. Kaiser shot .824 (14-of-17) from the floor, and .714 (5-of-7) from beyond the three-point arc.

Rams Set School Single-Game Three-Point Field Goals Record

- Having already broken the school single-game blocks record this season, the Rams drained 20 three-point field goals against New Mexico Highlands to add another single-game program record to the list.
- Seven different Rams made at least one three-point field goal against the Cowgirls, and six Rams made multiple three-point field goals. The performance ended up lifting the Rams to a 65-point win (96-31), CSU's fourth-largest margin of victory in program history.
- The previous record was 19, a total the Rams racked up against San Jose State on Feb. 1, 2014. The rest of the then-top five (now top six) performances were made up by a four-way tie at 14 three-pointers in a game. The 2014 team also had one of those 14 three-point field goal outings, recording it against Utah State on Feb. 12, 2014.

Gustavsson and Nystrom Reach 1,000-Point Milestone

- Two of CSU's most consistent scorers throughout their respective careers, seniors Elin Gustavsson and Ellen Nystrom have become the 18th and 19th players, respectively, in program history to reach 1,000 career points.
- The duo of Nystrom and Gustavsson join select company in CSU's history. The only other senior classes to include two 1,000-point scorers are Melissa Dennett/Lindsay Thomas (2002-06), Becky Hammon/Katie Cronin (1995-99) and Karen Hosek-Kreuzer/Sherry Neely (1981-85).

Rams Break Program's Single-Game Blocks Record

- Of the many notable performances from the Rams' 76-29 win over Adams State was CSU's proficiency in blocking shots. The Rams denied 13 of the Grizzlies' attempts, marking a new single-game school record for blocked shots.
- CSU's 13 blocks were the most since the Rams blocked 11 shots against Idaho on Nov. 24, 2006. The Rams tallied 11 blocks two other times previously.
- Of the 13 blocks, six were accounted for by Anna Dreimane in just 12 minutes of action.
- Dreimane's six blocks in that game tied for the third-most in a single game in CSU history. The record is held by Teresa James, who denied 10 shots against Baylor on Dec. 12, 1992.

Nystrom Earns Mountain West's First Player of the Week Award of 2016-17

- Following the top scoring performance of her career, senior guard Ellen Nystrom was the recipient of the Mountain West's first Women's Basketball Player of the Year award of the 2016-17 season.
- Nystrom scored the most points of any Mountain West player through Nov. 13, dropping a career-high 22 points to lead the Rams to a 69-42 win over Omaha. Nystrom shot .571 (8-for-14) for the night, marking the second-highest shooting percentage of any MW player over that period. Rounding out an impressive start to her senior campaign was a career-high three offensive rebounds (five total).
- The weekly honor was the second of Nystrom's career. Her first came on March 6, 2016.

Rams Picked to Win Mountain West Title

- For the third consecutive season, the Rams have been the pick by conference coaches and select media to win the Mountain West. The preseason nod is the CSU's fourth all-time. In each of the previous three instances, the Rams have gone on to win the Mountain West.
- CSU received 283 points in the voting, including 17 of 29 possible first-place votes. Boise State finished second in the voting with 271 points and 11 first-place votes, while Fresno State checked in at third in the league with 221 points. New Mexico received the remaining first-place vote, and finished sixth in the preseason poll (176 points).

Nystrom Named Preseason MW Player of the Year

- Leading the top returners for CSU is senior guard Ellen Nystrom, who was named the 2016-17 Preseason MW Player of the Year as part of the preseason conference voting. During conference play last season, Nystrom averaged 11.1 points, 5.8 rebounds and 5.7 assists per game, along with the league's best assist/turnover ratio (2.6).
- Program records held by Nystrom include CSU's single-season assists record (186) – a record previously held by CSU great Becky Hammon – as well as the single-game program record for assists (16), which she set in the 2016 MW Tournament championship game.

CSU in the National Polls to Open 2016-17

- In the first polls leading up to the 2016-17 women's basketball season, Colorado State is receiving votes in both national polls – the AP Poll and the USA Today Coaches' Poll. At the start of the season, CSU received 17 votes in the coaches' poll, and 10 from the AP.
- The Rams entered the polls last season, climbing as high as No. 22 entering NCAA Tournament play. Last season's stretch of rankings marked the first time since 2002 that CSU had been nationally ranked by the AP Poll.

Rams Look for Fourth Straight Postseason Berth

- Entering the 2016-17 season, the Rams will be looking for their fourth straight postseason appearance. The 2015-16 Rams reached the NCAA Tournament after a dramatic win over Fresno State in the MW Tournament championship game, while each of the 2013-14 and 2014-15 teams earned selections to the WNIT.
- CSU's bid to the NCAA Tournament last season was its sixth all-time. Before the 2015-16 season, the Rams had not reached the NCAA Tournament since 2002.

Rams to Defend Three Consecutive MW Regular Season Titles

- CSU was once again picked to win the Mountain West in 2016-17, and will look to defend each of its regular season and tournament titles. The Rams have won the MW in the regular season in each of the past three seasons (2013-14, 2014-15, 2015-16).
- No other program in Mountain West history has ever won three consecutive regular season conference titles outright. Additionally, no current MW member has ever won consecutive regular season titles. The only other program to win consecutive regular season titles was Utah.

Elite Defense

- During the Ryun Williams era at CSU, one of the hallmarks of CSU's success has been stellar defense. The Rams expect to be strong on the defensive end again in 2016-17.
- In 2016-17, the Rams ranked fifth in the nation in field goal percentage defense, sixth in scoring defense and eighth in three-point field goal defense. CSU was the only team in the country to be ranked in the top eight in each of the three defensive categories at the end of last season.

Shooters Shoot

- One of the major factors in CSU's success this season will be adjustment to changing roles from prior seasons to the 2016-17 season. One of those roles will be filling the void beyond the three-point line left by the departure of Jamie Patrick, one of CSU's all-time top three-point shooters.
- Ellen Nystrom and Elin Gustavsson, who will look to increase their scoring roles this season, shot .356 and .372 from beyond the arc, respectively, last season. Stine Austgulen took 68 three-point shots last season, the second-most on the team, while Hannah Tvrđy ranked third with 59 attempts and Sofie Tryggedsson placed fourth with 53.

2015-16 at a Glance

- CSU put together one of the program's all-time best seasons in 2015-16, reaching the NCAA Tournament after a MW Tournament championship and its third straight MW regular-season championship. The Rams went 31-2 (.939) in 2015-16, and finished a perfect 18-0 in conference play.
- With their 18-0 league record, the Rams became the first team in conference history to win the Mountain West outright in three consecutive seasons. CSU went 15-3 in each of 2013-14 and 2014-15 en route to respective regular season titles in each of those seasons.
- The 2015-16 CSU squad is also the only team to this point to finish unbeaten in conference play since the Mountain West transitioned to an 18-game league schedule, and only the third team to accomplish that feat overall. The last team to finish unbeaten in MW play was Utah in 2007-08. No current MW member other than CSU has ever gone undefeated in league play.
- The Rams MW Tournament championship hoisted them to their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2002. CSU also cracked the AP Top 25 in 2015-16, a feat the Rams had also last accomplished in 2002.
- CSU's winning percentage of .939 last season was the best in program history. The Rams enter this season with active win streaks of 15 games at Moby Arena and 12 games in true road contests.
- Ellen Nystrom became the second Ram all-time to be named MW Player of the Year (Gritt Ryder in 2014-15). Ryun Williams was named MW Coach of the Year, earning the award for his second time in four years.

RYUN WILLIAMS

Ryun Williams, a veteran coach with over 20 years of experience, begins his fifth season as the head coach of the Colorado State women's basketball program.

Under Williams' guidance, the CSU women's basketball team has enjoyed one of its most successful stretches in program history. The Rams finished 31-2 (.939) in 2015-16, marking the second-highest single-season wins total in school history, as well as the most wins in a single season by any school in Mountain West Conference history.

Williams coached the Rams to an NCAA Tournament appearance and national ranking in 2015-16, which were each firsts for the program since 2002. CSU's NCAA Tournament bid in 2015-16 also marked the program's third consecutive postseason appearance, building upon selections to the WNIT in 2013-14 as well as in 2014-15. CSU won the MW conference and regular season titles in 2015-16, and is the first program in conference history to win the regular season championship in three consecutive seasons.

Williams' 2015-16 squad finished Mountain West play with a perfect 18-0 record, marking only the third time in league history that a team has run the table in conference play and the only time a MW school has gone undefeated since the conference transitioned to an 18-game league schedule.

The Rams won a program-record 28 straight games in 2015-16, shattering the previous school record of 19 consecutive victories. CSU enters 2016-17 with 15 straight wins at Moby Arena, the third-longest winning stretch at home in school history, as well as with a program-best 12 straight wins in true road contests. The Rams were undefeated at home for the entirety of the 2015-16 season, a feat that had only been accomplished previously by the Rams during the 1998-99 season.

Williams earned his second MW Coach of the Year award in 2015-16, while Ellen Nystrom was named MW Player of the Year that same season. Nystrom was Williams' second MW Player of the Year, joining Gritt Ryder, who earned the award in 2014-15.

The Rams went 11-19 (.367) in Williams' first season, but quickly turned into a perennial contender, winning back-to-back Mountain West Championships with a 25-8 (.758) record in 2013-14 and a 23-8 (.741) mark in 2014-15. The improvement from Williams' first to second seasons ranked as the third-best turnaround in the country in 2013-14, and is the best in program history. Following the team's strides in his second season, Williams was awarded with the 2014 Russell Athletic/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year award.

Tasked with repairing what had been nearly a decade of sub-par results, Williams brought eight new faces to the Rams' 2013-14 roster in his second season at the helm. The team quickly realized it had an irrefutable chemistry, which resulted in win streaks of eight and 10 games and included a stretch of 17 wins in 18 games. CSU skyrocketed to the top of the 2013-14 Mountain West standings and won its first regular season championship in 12 years.

The Rams, who were picked to finish seventh in 2013-14 Mountain West preseason poll, more than doubled their win total from the previous season to produce their best record in 13 years as well as the third-most victories in program history.

The team earned a program-record 10 all-conference awards between six players, and Williams earned his first MW Coach of the Year honor. The Rams also received their first postseason invitation in 10 years with its first of two trips to the WNIT under Williams.

In 20 seasons as a head coach at various schools, Williams has compiled an impressive 402-227 career record, with stops at South Dakota (2008-12), Wayne State College (1998-2008) and Sheridan College (1995-98). Williams' basketball teams have recorded nine campaigns with 20 or more victories, seven postseason berths and three conference championships.

A native of Gillette, Wyo., Williams earned his associate's degree from Sheridan in 1990, his bachelor's degree from South Dakota in 1992 and his master's degree from South Dakota in 1997.

Williams and his wife, Lyndy, have two daughters, Natalie and Emily.
