NO. 12 NEW MEXICO AIMING TO STAY HOT AT COWTOWN CLASSIC

The 12th-ranked New Mexico beach volleyball team looks to keep its momentum going this weekend as it travels to the Cowtown Classic in Fort Worth, Texas, to take on No. 1 USC, ULM and host TCU.

Currently winners of 13 of their last 14 matches, the streaking Lobos (16-4) have a tough challenge in their penultimate weekend of competition, including strong teams in TCU (14-5) and ULM (9-13) and the hottest team in the nation in USC (19-2).

"I'm expecting another really good weekend," head coach Jeff Nelson said. "With the direction we're going, we've got to stay on track because it's really good and every week good things are happening. We've just got to keep moving forward."

Over the last month, New Mexico has been on an immensely productive run that has placed the team among the best in the nation.

Outside of a loss to No. 6 Arizona in Tucson three weeks ago, the Lobos have been trending upward, with winning streaks of eight games and five games since March 13.

Last week, New Mexico tore through its four-match road swing in Northern California, with marquee wins over Pacific and Washington.

Consequently, the Lobos have been rewarded in the polls, climbing to 12th in the most recent DiG Magazine poll and unofficially 13th in the 10-team AVCA poll, where they're receiving votes.

The key to the Lobos' success has been its exceptional parity between its five pairings. Every position is over .500 during the team's 13-1 run, with a couple of pairs sporting just one loss during that stretch.

UNM's twos, threes and fours pairs have posted the best records in the last month, with Devanne Sours & Lise Rugland in the No. 2 spot (12-1), Hannah Johnson & Julia Warren in the No. 3 spot (12-1) and Eastyn Baletto & Marisa Doran in the No. 4 spot (13-1).

Along with top-seeded Cassie House & Ashley Kelsey (9-6 since March 13) and the Lobos' No.

5 duo of Maddie Mayfield & Carson Heilborn (10-8), New Mexico has dropped just seven points in their last 13 wins.

Overall, Baletto & Doran still lead the pairings with a sterling 19-1 record, and they can top 20 wins on the season by Friday afternoon.

Sours & Rugland have also been nearly untouchable, with an injury forfeit as their only loss in the last month.

POLL POSITION

New Mexico beach volleyball climbed to No. 12 in the nation in the most recent edition of the DiG Magazine Beach Volleyball Poll released April 12.

The Lobos, winners of 13 of their last 14 matches, are ranked in the 20-team DiG Magazine poll for the second-straight week. It's the highest ranking in program history.

New Mexico has also been receiving votes in the 10-team AVCA poll for the last four weeks. In this week's poll that was released on April 11, the Lobos are unofficially ranked 13th.

New Mexico is currently 16-4 on the season, with marquee wins over Washington, Arizona State, Pacific and California.

Italics indicate a 2016 New Mexico opponent

Overall, New Mexico has won 72 of a possible 100 points this season, with six 5-0 sweeps.

USC is the top-ranked team in the DiG Magazine poll, usurping the top position from No. 2 Pepperdine. No. 3 Florida State, No. 4 UCLA and No. 5 Hawai'i round out the top five.

So far this season, UNM has played Florida State, Arizona (currently ranked seventh), Grand Canyon (16th) and California (14th), with an additional three matches against team receiving votes in the poll (South Carolina, Washington and Pacific).

UNM also has matches against the top-ranked Trojans, LSU (11th) and Tulane (17th) upcoming.

YOUNG GUNS

The 12th-ranked Lobos are in the polls after going 13-1 in their last 14 games. And while that is impressive on its own merits, New Mexico's presence in the DiG Magazine poll is even more exceptional considering the program's age.

UNM, just in its second year sponsoring beach, is the only team currently ranked in the top 20 that is as young. No other second-year team is ranked.

No. 11 LSU, No. 14 California and No. 20 Santa Clara are all in their third years, and are the only other programs younger than four years that are ranked.

MOVIN' ON UP

Although the Lobos have been on a roll in 2016, it wasn't until their 4-1 win vs. Pacific on April 8 that the beach volleyball program at UNM rose above .500 for its all-time record.

After a 3-11 record last season — which featured a loss in the first game followed by one win in its next 12 games — New Mexico had to make up eight games to reach an even-par program record.

The Lobos did that when they topped CSU Bakersfield on March 26, reaching 15-15 all-time. But it wasn't until their win against Pacific that they finally surpassed .500.

Currently, New Mexico sits 19-15 all-time, and the team will finish the season with a program record above .500 should it win three of its final eight games.

WE NEED TO STOP MEETING LIKE THIS

Last season on March 27 in Phoenix, the Lobos played No. 1 USC, falling 4-1 as Eastyn Baletto and Julia Warren won their fifth straight point.

Fast forward to this weekend's Cowtown Classic in Fort Worth. Among the teams New Mexico will play at the TCU Beach Volleyball Courts are TCU, ULM and gasp No. 1 USC.

In both meeting between the two programs, the Trojans were the top-ranked team in the nation, with last year's version winning the AVCA National Championships.

To add even more intrigue to the series between USC and New Mexico, in the teams' most recent meeting indoors, the Trojans were ranked sixth in the AVCA poll. (USC would win 3-0 over the Lobos.)

MARISA AND EASTYN TEARING THROUGH 2016

The duo of Marisa Doran & Eastyn Baletto has opened the 2016 season with 14 straight wins, including victories against No. 6 Florida State, No. 10 Grand Canyon and No. 17 South Carolina.

Their win streak was halted at 14 with a loss to No. 6 Arizona, but the duo's 14 straight wins are by far the most strung together in New Mexico history.

Since then, they've regained their momentum, currently winners of five straight matches.

In the history of the program, Baletto and Julia Warren posted a five-run streak last year to open the season. Additionally, the tandems of Devanne Sours & Lise Rugland and Hannah Johnson & Warren each won seven in a row this season.

Baletto & Doran's 14-match streak also set the program record in wins by a single pair in a single season. Baletto and Warren went 8-6 last season.

STREAKY CLEAN

From March 13 to March 25, the Lobos won eight straight games, including a flawless 4-0 homestand on March 18-19.

After a loss to No. 6 Arizona in Tucson, New Mexico has followed that up with another streak, going a five-game run that featured a 4-0 road trip in Northern California.

All told, after a 3-3 start to the season, the Lobos have won 13 out of their last 14 games.

Individually, six other players are sitting on five-game win streaks of their own, with Devanne Sours, Lise Rugland, Hannah Johnson, Julia Warren, Marisa Doran and Eastyn Baletto winners of five in a row.

3'S LEAD TO WINS

Just like three-point baskets help teams win in basketball, the threes have really been helping the Lobos in the sand.

For New Mexico beach volleyball, their success on the No. 3 court has lead to W's, and UNM's record on that court exactly mirrors the team's overall record.

So far through the first three weeks of the season, New Mexico is 16-4. Also sitting with a 16-4 record two weeks into the season is the Lobos' No. 3 position, which has been manned by the duos of Hannah Johnson & Julia Warren (15-4 in the No. 3 position) and Eastyn Baletto & Marisa Doran (1-0).

There's not much particularly exceptional about that on face, but the No. 3 position is a pretty good indicator of the Lobos' success. When that position wins a point, the Lobos win the match. It's a perfect 16-4 match both ways.

NOTES AND NEWS

HIGH FIVES FROM THE SHORTEST PLAYER ON THE TEAM

Maddie Mayfield, all 5-foot-4 of her, opened the season with a 4-1 record in the No. 5 position, helping the Lobos to wins over Arizona State, Cal and Colorado Mesa.

It's a 400 percent increase in wins compared to last year for the junior from Albuquerque. Also playing out the fives spot, Mayfield went just 1-9 in 2015, a win total she surpassed before the end of the first day of the season.

She moved to 14-6 through the first month of the season, continuing her upward climb.

WELL, THAT WAS QUICK

In its inaugural year of beach volleyball, New Mexico went 3-11, picking up its first win on the first day of the season and its last two wins on the last day of the season.

This season, the Lobos went 3-2 in their opening weekend, topping Arizona State in the season opener before beating Colorado Mesa and Cal.

To get more perspective, look at the math below.

The time between Win No. 1 and Win No. 3 last season was 41 days.

The time between Win No. 1 and Win No. 3 this season was less than 48 hours.

HOW SWEEP IT IS

Last season, New Mexico experienced six sweeps, losing three matches in five and claiming all three of its wins in five.

This season, UNM has been a part of six 5-0 matches, with three sweeps of Colorado Mesa and a single sweep each of New Mexico State, Sacramento State and Washington.

A CLEAN SWEEP

As noted above, the Lobos have swept six matches in 2016, including a pair against Sacramento State and Washington this past week in Sacramento.

However, those two sweeps were especially remarkable since all of those previous sweeps in program history came against first-year Division I teams, DII teams or scrimmaging opponents.

Last season, it was TCU on the first day of matches ever for both programs and a pair of sweep of Colorado State in scrimmages for the Rams.

This season, three of the Lobos' sweeps were against Division II Colorado Mesa and one against New Mexico State, who (like CSU) was scrimmaging.

But these past two sweeps against Sac State and Washington were against established Division I programs. The Hornets are in their fourth season, while the Huskies are in their third.

BROOMS > PITCHFORKS

To open the season, New Mexico beat Arizona State 3-2 at the PERA Club in Tempe, Ariz. Two weeks later, at Lucky 66 Bowl in Albuquerque, the Lobos topped the Sun Devils again, this time by a 4-1 score.

It's the first time any New Mexico athletic team has swept a season series from Arizona State since men's tennis swept a two-game season series against the Sun Devils in 1984.

In fact, beach volleyball's two wins over ASU is just the 21st time in UNM history that any team has won multiple duals (team vs. team) in a single season.

It's also just the 14th time a UNM team has swept a season series vs. Arizona State in a single season.

THERE MIGHT NOT BE BEACHES IN ABQ, BUT THERE ARE IN CALI

New Mexico beach volleyball played exclusively in Arizona and New Mexico last season, and continued that trend to open 2016 as they played in Arizona.

When the sport was called sand volleyball, those locations nevertheless fit the theme of the sport. (There's plenty of sand in both states.)

However, when the NCAA renamed the sport "beach volleyball" this past year, the joke was that New Mexico makes no sense for beach volleyball because there aren't any proper beaches.

But the Lobos finally got to play beach volleyball on a beach. When New Mexico played Irvine Valley College and MiraCosta College on March 14, they did it at the Newland Street Courts on Huntington Beach in California, which, as the name implies, is an actual beach.

SCOUTING TCU

At 14-5 on the year, TCU has posted a strong turnaround from 2015, where the Horned Frogs went 0-11 to open their program.

Like New Mexico, TCU has played a strong schedule, including four matches against top-10 teams. And while the Horned Frogs lost all of those matches, they've been on a hot streak since late March, winning seven of their last eight matches. Consequently, TCU is currently receiving votes in the DiG Magazine poll.

Michelle McNamee/Sarita Mikals have gone 13-6 out of the No. 1 position for head coach Erik Peterson, while No. 3 duo of Jillian Bergeson/Jaelyn Greene is a team-best 15-4.

In fact, TCU has posted record above .500 on all five courts, and every player on the team sports a record above .500.

NOTES AND NEWS

SCOUTING USC

Quite possibly the hottest team in the nation, the top-ranked Trojans have won 15 straight duals, including a 3-2 victory over then-No. 1 Pepperdine last Saturday to reclaim the top spot in the national polls. USC's only setbacks this season were to Pepperdine on March 5 and then-No. 4 Florida State on March 11.

Since its loss to the Seminoles, the Women of Troy have downed every team they've played, including seven wins over top-10 teams. On the season, USC has won 17 matches vs. teams ranked in the national polls.

The Trojans are led by their outstanding top pair of Kelly Claes/Sara Hughes, who have gone 21-0 in match play this season. They've won 52 straight matches overall and are a 71-3 together over their career.

Only two pairs for USC have remotely struggled this season, as its No. 2 tandem of Sophie Bukovec/Alexa Strange is 15-6 and its No. 5 team of Jo Kremer/Zoe Nightingale is 12-6.

Still, over their 15-game winning streak, the Trojans have dropped all of seven points.

SCOUTING ULM

The University of Louisiana at Monroe heads into the Cowtown Classic on a bit of a downward trend, losers of four straight. A streaky team, the Warhawks are 9-13 on the year, with a 8-2 stretch sandwiched between a six-game losing streak and their current four-game slide.

Unlike last season when ULM went 15-6 and saw time in the national rankings, the Warhawks have struggled against top teams in 2016, falling in every match vs. a team either ranked or receiving votes in the national polls.

ULM's top pair of Hope Pawlik/Taylor Zaeske have posted a 10-11 record this season, and have been the only pair to be relatively consistent this season. Overall, the Warhawks have used 17 different pairings this season, with just four playing more than 10 matches.

COMING TO A SCREEN NEAR YOU

New Mexico had its March 25 match vs. Arizona broadcast live and nationwide on the Pac-12 Network. The Lobos lost 5-0 to the 6th-ranked Wildcats.

It was not only the first match in program history to be on national television, it was the first match in program history to be broadcast/streamed in any fashion.

GOLDEN EQUIPMENT DONATES $14,625 TO LOBO VOLLEYBALL

New Mexico volleyball program and head coach Jeff Nelson are proud to announce that Golden Equipment Company has presented a donation of $14,625 to the UNM volleyball program.

The donation, which is part of Golden's "Colors for our Community" service program, is tabbed to help the continue the development of the Lobo volleyball program, including the beach volleyball team as it enters its second season next week.

"We are so grateful to Golden for their support of Lobo Athletics and for this amazing contribution to our volleyball programs," Nelson said. "Because of efforts like the one Golden has made on our behalf we can do so much more for our program and student athletes."

In Golden's "Colors for our Community" program, Golden chooses an organization, nonprofit or charity and decorates one of its pieces of equipment in the colors or logos of the benefiting organization. For 12 months, Golden's rents out that equipment, with a portion of the proceeds going back to the beneficiary.

In 2015, the Lobo Club was picked for "Colors for our Community", with all of the proceeds generated by the UNM-themed excavator going toward Lobo Volleyball.

The $14,625 raised for Lobo Volleyball is the most ever raised by one of Golden's "Colors for our Community" campaigns.

A PRIMER ON BEACH VOLLEYBALL

Beach volleyball and court volleyball share many of the same basic rules. Each side gets three hits, there's rally scoring, and a team earns a points when the ball hits the ground or goes out of bounds. But there are some key difference between the two sports:

- Beach volleyball is a partner sport played during the spring. Court volleyball is a six-player sport played during the fall.
- Beach volleyball plays the best of three sets, with the first two sets played to 21 points, and a tiebreaker set played to 15 points, if necessary. A set must be won by at least two points.
- Open-handed tipping is prohibited in beach volleyball and the block touch counts as one of three permitted contacts.
- Coaches may only speak or give any kind of input to their players during timeouts or between sets.
- Beach volleyball players switch sides of the court every seven points during a 21-point set and every five points during a 15-point set.
- Beach volleyball is usually contested in dual matches, where the winning team is the school that wins three of five individual matches versus its opponent. Similar in format to tennis, each of those individual matches consist of a doubles — a pair of teammates ranked by ability — that are matched against their corresponding doubles from the opposing team.

NCAA APPROVES BEACH VOLLEYBALL AS 90TH CHAMPIONSHIP

The NCAA approved beach volleyball as the 90th NCAA Championship at the 2015 NCAA Convention, allowing the sport to advance from the emerging sports for women list to a full-fledged NCAA championship in spring 2016.

The NCAA Beach Volleyball Committee also determined the sport will be officially referred to as "beach volleyball". When the sport was placed on the list of emerging sports for women in 2009, it was called sand volleyball. But because the sport is known as beach volleyball at all other levels of play throughout the world, the committee made its decision to refer to the sport as beach volleyball.

The inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championships will take place May 6-8, 2016 at the Gulf Shores Public Beach in Gulf Shore, Ala. The championship will have an eight-team bracket that will be played in a double-elimination format.

Beach volleyball is the fastest-growing NCAA sport with 48 colleges and universities sponsoring it as of January 2016. NCAA rules require 40 sponsoring schools to request an NCAA championship.
