2016-17 Rams Quick Hits

- The 2016-17 season marks the 115th in the history of the Colorado State men's basketball program. The Rams are 1,234-1,228 (.502) in 2,462 games all-time.
- Colorado State is under the direction of coaching veteran Larry Eustachy, who is in his fifth season at the helm of the Rams' program and his 26th as a Division I head coach in 2016-17. Eustachy reached the 500-win plateau in his coaching career with the 85-58 victory over Air Force, Jan. 7, 2017.
- Colorado State men's basketball concluded the 2015-16 season in the Mountain West Tournament Semifinals and finished the year with an 18-16 overall record, including 8-10 in MW play.
- Colorado State basketball declined postseason invitations last year after much consideration of the events as well as the status of the team after the season. The program earned its sixth invitation for postseason play in the last seven years.
- CSU lost four of its five starters, including leading scorers Antwan Scott, a Second Team All-Mountain West selection, and Joe De Ciman, who was the only player from Larry Eustachy's first CSU team to play all four years.

A Win Over New Mexico Will...

- Improve CSU to 46-75 in the overall series against New Mexico, including 12-48 in Albuquerque.
- Move head coach Larry Eustachy to 3-7 against the Lobos in his career and first win in WisePies Arena
- Give Larry Eustachy his 106th win in five seasons at CSU and the 508th of his 26-year career.
- Put the Rams at 11-4 in Mountain West play, the best program record through 15 games in MW action and tie the best in all league starts.

Scouting New Mexico

- The Lobos are 16-11 on the season and 9-6 in MW play.
- Picked to finish in third in the Mountain West preseason coaches' poll, New Mexico returned four starters and nine letterwinners from last season.
- This season, the Lobos are led by redshirt-junior guard Elijah Brown, who is the top Lobo in scoring (18.8 ppg), three pointers (59) and steals (35) while senior center Obij Agat is the top UNM player in blocks (37) and field goal percentage (.591).

Mountain West Record

- Colorado State - a charter member of the Mountain West - is now 116-158 (.423) in regular-season action against MW foes since the formation of the league in 1999-2000.
- Head coach Larry Eustachy is 49-35 (.583) in MW regular-season action in his time at Colorado State and 53-39 including tournament games.

Eustachy Among the Elite

- CSU head coach Larry Eustachy has ranked among the best coaches in his sport for nearly two and a half decades. Now in his 26th season as a mentor at the NCAA Division I level, he just got his 500th career win against Air Force earlier this month, becoming the 62nd Division I head coach (solely counting wins at the Division I level) to reach that milestone ever.
- His 507 wins ranks 18th among active NCAA Division I coaches (same standard) and is No. 60 all-time (list below)

Current Rankings of Division I Wins for Head Coaches

57. Don DeVoe (five schools)	512
58. Nolan Richardson (Tulsa, Arkansas)	509
59. Lec Edmundson (Idaho, Washington)	508
60. Larry Eustachy (current CSU)	507
61. Harold Anderson (Toledo, Bowling Green)	504
62. Billy Donovan (Marshall, Florida)	502
Jay Wright (current Villanova)	502

- The four others that started the year in realistic reach of the 500-win level this year were Wright, Leonard Hamilton (Florida State - 499), John Beilein (Michigan - 499) and Mark Few (Gonzaga - 494).
- In his first season at the helm of the Rams' program, Eustachy became the only head coach in NCAA Division I history to lead five different programs - CSU, Southern Miss, Iowa State, Utah State and Idaho - to 24 or more wins in a season.
- With a career record of 507-315 (.617), Eustachy ranks as one of just 75 head coaches (out of 351 Division I programs) to have a .600 or better win percentage with a minimum of five years experience. He entered the season tied for 57th on the list, and is one of just 33 coaches in the ranking with at least 20 years of Division I experience.

Moving Up the CSU Coaching Ranks

- CSU head coach Larry Eustachy continues to move up the record chart for the Rams in victories.
- Already starting the season with the highest winning percentage among coaches with at least four years at the school, Eustachy moved from seventh to fourth in career wins over the course of the season, passing Boyd Grant (1988-91) with his 82nd win on Feb. 6, 2016 vs. Nevada.
- Eustachy reached the 100-win plateau at CSU faster than any other coach in school history and just passed Dale Layer (103, 2001-07) for third.

Road Improvements

- CSU picked up its fifth MW road win at Wyoming, Feb. 14, and is now 6-4 on the road this year.
- The Rams have won four straight MW road games for the first time ever under head coach Larry Eustachy. The last time this feat occurred was 2010-11 (one of two times ever in conference play).
- The only time CSU has won five consecutive conference road games occurred over the last four games of the 1988-89 and first game of the 1989-90 season in the WAC.
- Under Eustachy, CSU is 25-33 (.431) on the road, above the national average of 32.4 percent.
- Last season, the Rams were 6-11 in games away from Moby Arena.

Rebounding Emphasis Noted

- Head coach Larry Eustachy makes rebounding one of his top priorities in all practices and games and it shows in his record, as CSU is 90-29 under the leader when winning the glass.
- The Rams have won the battle of the boards in 15 of their 27 games this season, going 14-2 in those contests.
- Colorado State is +3.1 on the glass in its 27 games with at least one player with a double-figure rebounding total in 19 of 27 games.
- Last season, CSU finished second in the Mountain West and ranked 25th nationally at 39.97 rebounds per game as well as second in the MW and 35th in the country with a +5.4 rebounding margin.

Adjusting Over the Halftime Break

- CSU has made good adjustments on both ends of the floor during the halftime intermission this season.
- In 23 of 27 games so far, the Rams have improved their shooting from the floor, percentage wise, from the first half to the second half. Combined, CSU has shot 39.0 percent (312-of-800) in the first half as compared to 46.8 percent (342-of-731) in the second half.
- Defensive adjustments have also been evident, as opponents have shot a lower percentage from first to second half from the field in 14 of the 27 games (CSU 9-5 in those contests).
- The totals have definitely translated to the scoreboard, as CSU, as the Rams average scoring +1.1 compared to opponents in the opening half but improve to +4.4 in the second half.

Quick Bits Under Eustachy

- CSU is 92-7 (39-3 MW) when leading with five minutes to play under head coach Larry Eustachy and 96-7 (43-4 MW) when leading with two minutes to go.
- The 21-point loss at Fresno State, Jan. 18, 2017 was a rarity, as it was just the second time that a Eustachy-led CSU team has lost to a MW foe by more than 15 points (16-2 in his five years in MW games decided by 16 points or more).
- The Rams are 88-26 (38-14 MW) when shooting more free throws than their opponent and 92-23 (41-12 MW) when opponent commits more fouls overall.
- When Colorado State forces more turnovers than it gives up, the good guys have posted a 59-16 overall record.
- When the Rams shoot at least 45 percent from the floor, they are 61-6 (27-4 MW) in five years under Eustachy.
- Last year, CSU was 12-4 when leading at halftime, 13-1 when leading with five minutes remaining and 14-3 when ahead with two minutes to go.

Last Time Out - at Wyoming

- In the first of two meetings over the next two weeks, Colorado State went into hostile territory and escaped with a 78-73 victory over host Wyoming, Feb. 14. Picking up their seventh win in the last eight games, the Rams moved into the top spot of the Mountain West with a 10-4 league record. The 10-4 start also is the best 14-game record ever in MW play for the Rams and ties the school best through 14 conference games, set in 1988-89.
- The Rams scored the first five points of the game on a jumper by senior guard Gian Clavell and a triple from sophomore guard Prentiss Nixon. Wyoming came back and tied it at 14 and 19. Sophomore forward Braden Koelliker knocked down back-to-back three pointers to push the lead back out to six at 25-19, but the Cowboys battled back with a 9-2 run to take their only lead of the game at 28-27 with just under seven minutes to play in the opening period. With both teams shooting well in the opening 20 minutes, CSU reclaimed the lead on the next possession on a jumper by redshirt-sophomore J.D. Paige and eventually built an eight-point halftime advantage at 41-33.
- Wyoming came out in the second half strong, cutting the margin to four in the opening minute of play on a pair of baskets by Jeremy Lieberman. The Rams lead dwindled to two at 47-45, but CSU used a 9-1 run over a four-minute span to build their biggest lead of the game at 56-46 with 12:05 to go. The hosts cut into the lead and eventually got it down to one at 69-68 on Jason McManamen's 3-pointer with 2:40 to go. After single free throws by each team made it 70-69, Clavell drove the lane with 40 seconds to go, dished it to Nixon in the corner and the guard canned a three to make it a four-point game. Wyoming continued to make buckets late, but Nixon was outstanding at the free throw line in the final 15 seconds, hitting all four attempts to seal the win for CSU.
- The Rams finished the game shooting 42.4 percent (25-of-59) from the floor, including 7-of-15 (46.7 percent) from the 3-point line. Wyoming was held to just 35.9 percent (23-of-64) from the field and 31.3 percent (10-of-32) from beyond the arc. The Rams went to the free-throw line 34 times but could only hit 21 (61.8 percent) while WYO was 17-of-23 (73.9 percent) at the stripe. CSU won the battle of the boards, 45-42, and outscored the Cowboys 11-7 on second-chance points.
- Clavell led the Rams in scoring with 20 points and added 5 rebounds and 2 assists. Omogbo recorded a double-double with 19 points and a season-high 16 rebounds, while Nixon tallied 16 points, 3 rebounds and 2 assists. Wyoming was led by Justin James with 23 points, while Alan Herndon had a double-double with 15 points and 12 rebounds.

Last Time Out Against New Mexico

- Colorado State could not stop a hot-shooting New Mexico team and lost the physical contest to the visiting Lobos, 84-71 at Moby Arena, Jan. 14. Colorado State dropped the physical contest to New Mexico 84-71.
- The game was back and forth in the first 10 minutes of the game, with a CSU season-high 10 lead changes in that span. UNM took the lead for good on a 3-pointer by Jordan Hunter with 10:30 to go in the first half, starting a 7-0 run for the Lobos. From there, the game got no closer than four in the rest of the first half, with New Mexico holding a 44-34 halftime advantage.
- Behind 60.9 percent shooting from the field in the final 20 minutes, the Lobos continued to push the lead higher the second half, building their advantage to as many as 21 at 72-51 with 9:54 to go in the game. CSU did trim it down to 13 with just over four minutes to go in the game but could get no closer.
- For the game, CSU shot just 35.8 percent (19-of-53) from the floor while New Mexico was (55.6 percent (30-of-54), including 6-of-9 from the 3-point line. New Mexico won the rebounding battle 39-29 and outscored the hosts 32-16 in the paint. Colorado State struggled from the charity strip during the contest shooting 66.7 percent (26-of-39) while the Lobos were also 66.7 percent (18-of-27) on free throws.
- Senior guard Gian Clavell led the Rams with 22 points, six rebounds and a season-high five steals, while senior forward Emmanuel Omogbo picked up 14 points, eight rebounds and a career-high four blocks in 38 minutes of play. Sophomore guard Prentiss Nixon finished with 19 points, including 7-of-8 from the free-throw line. Elijah Brown led UNM with 25 points, nine rebounds and seven assists while Tim Williams added 15 points and nine boards.

Last Time in Albuquerque

- The No. 24-ranked Colorado State men's basketball team fell from the ranks of the unbeaten on Jan. 3, 2015, suffering its first setback of the year, 66-53, to the New Mexico Lobos in front of a sellout crowd of 15,225 at The Pit.
- The Rams were led by senior guard Daniel Bejarano who posted the 13th double-double of his career with 14 points and 11 rebounds, leading CSU in each category. Sophomore guard John Gillon also finished in double-figures scoring with 10 points, sparking the Rams of the bench, along with junior guard Gian Clavell who chipped in with nine.
- Despite holding UNM's top scoring tandem of senior guards Hugh Greenwood and Deshawn Delaney to a combined seven points with four and three, respectively, CSU was unable to overcome a 10-1 run by the Lobos to close the first half of play. The run, which came on the heels of Gillon knotting the contest 25-25, at the 3:09 mark, and sent the Rams to the locker room trailing 35-26 at the break.
- The New Mexico lead reached as many as 20 points, 62-42, at the 5:23 mark, but the Rams climbed back to within 63-53 on an 11-1 run that included seven points from Clavell, a pair of Gillon free-throws, and two of J.J. Avila's season-low six points. The Lobos were led by reserve Sam Logwood who posted 15 points off the bench, while starting forward Devon Williams (13 points) was the only other Lobo in double-figures.
- In addition to Avila being held to single digits for the first time this season, the Rams also played the majority of the game without senior forward Stanton Kidd who twisted his ankle on the Rams' second possession of the game.
- The Rams entered the contest ranked first in the Mountain West in scoring offense (73.3 ppg) and three-point percentage (.383), but were held to a season-low 53 points on just 32.7 percent shooting (18-for-55).

HC | LARRY EUSTACHY

Long Beach State, 1979 • Fifth Year at Colorado State
26th Year as Head Coach

Larry Eustachy, the 2000 Associated Press and U.S. Basketball Writers Association National Coach of the Year, enters his fifth season as head coach of the Colorado State men's basketball program in 2016-17. He was introduced as the 19th head coach in the history of the CSU basketball on April 12, 2012.

One of the most decorated active coaches in NCAA basketball, Eustachy enters his 26th season as a head coach as the only head coach in Division I history to lead five different programs - CSU, Southern Miss, Iowa State, Utah State and Idaho - to 24 or more wins in a season. With a career record of 507-315 (.617), Eustachy ranks as one of just 75 head coaches (out of 351 Division I programs) to have a .600 or better win percentage with a minimum of five years experience. He entered the season just 11 victories from the 500-win mark in his career and is 28th on the active career wins list. He is also one of just 33 coaches in the ranking with at least 20 years of Division I experience.

At Colorado State, he has put together the most wins in a four-year span of the program with 87, surpassing Boyd Grant's 81 victories (1988-91). He began his fifth season with the highest winning percentage among coaches with at least three years at the school at .644 and started 13 wins away from 100 and 17 wins from taking over third on the CSU coaching chart. His teams have also won more than 80 percent of their games at CSU's Moby Arena in his four years of leadership.

In his first year at the helm, Eustachy led the Rams to arguably the best season in school history, guiding the squad to a then-program-best 26-9 record, and an NCAA Tournament victory over the Missouri Tigers before bowing out against eventual national champion Louisville. The Rams also cracked the Associated Press top 25 for first time since 1954.

Eustachy continued to rewrite the Rams' record books in his third season in 2014-15, leading the Rams to a school-record 14-0 start before once again notching a program-best season record at 27-7. The Rams' advanced to the postseason (NIT) for the second time in three years under his watch, and ranked for two weeks in the AP Top-25 and three weeks in the USA Today Coaches poll.

A veteran mentor with more than 35 seasons of coaching experience - including 25 seasons as a head coach - Eustachy has amassed an impressive 499-312 record in stops at Idaho (1990-93), Utah State (1993-98), Iowa State (1998-03) and Southern Miss (2004-12) and CSU (2012-present), leading his squads to 11 campaigns of 20 or more victories, nine postseason berths (including five NCAA tournament appearances), and six conference championships.

Eustachy, a native of Alameda, Calif., and a 1979 graduate of Long Beach State University, has garnered numerous coaching honors throughout his illustrious career. In addition to his two National Coach of the Year nods in 2000, he was also the 2001 runner-up for the AP's top coaching honor.

He was twice named the Big West and Big 12 Coach of the Year during stints at Utah State (1995 and 1998) and Iowa State (2000 and 2001), respectively, and joins the Rams after leading his Southern Miss Golden Eagles' squad to 25 wins in 2011-12 to earn the 2012 Conference USA Coach of the Year award. Eustachy was also the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 11 Coach of the Year in 2012.

Eustachy's coaching career began at the age of 22 as an assistant coach at Citrus (Calif.) College, where he played two seasons after a standout prep career at Arcadia High School. From 1981-90, Eustachy honed his skills as an assistant at Division I schools Mississippi State (1981-86), Idaho (1986-87), Utah (1987-89) and Ball State (1989-90) before taking his first head coaching job at Idaho (1990-93).

Following his stint at Idaho, Eustachy spent five seasons (1993-98) as the head coach at Utah State (1993-98). He then took over for close friend Tim Floyd at Iowa State, spending five seasons in Ames, Iowa, and leading the Cyclones to the Elite Eight in the 2000 NCAA tournament.

Eustachy spent the previous eight seasons at Southern Miss, where he resurrected the Golden Eagles program and led USM to four 20 win seasons, including each of his last three campaigns in Hattiesburg.

Eustachy is a native of Alameda, Calif. He and his wife Lana live in Fort Collins. Eustachy has two sons, Hayden and Evan.

The Eustachy Philosophy

Eustachy's philosophy is a unique mixture of several coaches who had great influence on him during his years as a player and as an assistant coach. Eustachy's teams put a premium on defending and rebounding, combining that with peak physical conditioning and strength, all the while incorporating an offense that best utilizes the talents of the respective members of the team.

It's a philosophy that contains the contribution of a number of coaches, including his influential junior college coach Neil Edwards, former USC and Mississippi State Coach Bob Boyd - Eustachy's mentor - former NBA and current UTEP Head Coach Tim Floyd, whose own philosophy had bits of Don Haskins and his father, Lee Floyd, a former coach during the 1950s and '60s at Southern Miss.

Eustachy not only instills physical toughness in his players, but he also strives to make his players value the mental part of the game, an aspect that is created through stressful practice. It's during those practices that Eustachy knows he and his staff need to be at their best, for that is where the battles on the court are often times won and lost.

Media Credentials

- Media credentials are distributed on a season or single-game basis. Requests should be made at least one week prior to an event.
- Credentials will be left prior to the game at media will call, located at the lower (ground level) southwest entrance of Moby Arena, adjacent to the Anderson Academic & Training Center and directly across the street (to the north) from the Ram Field softball complex.

Photographer Credentials

- Photo credentials are issued only to accredited photographers. Passes must be displayed at all times.
- Photographer's boxes are located at both ends of the playing court, on the south side of each basket standard, opposite the team benches. Still and video photographers are allowed to be positioned in either of these boxes only.
- Photography is not allowed from any of the court-side media or donor seating along either baseline or the south side of the playing court, the team bench area, or official scorer's table.
- No photography equipment (i.e., cameras, strobes) shall be attached to the backboard, goal standards or tables located courtside without specific, prior written permission.
- Still photographers may not utilize flash attachments at any courtside location.
- Tripods may not be placed on or beside the playing floor, or on any table.
- Upper-level still and video photographer positions are located above the south side seating areas and in the press box overhead on the north side. Photographers are unable to use the south side location for any game that is being televised. Individuals seeking to use the north side location must be granted permission by a member of the Athletics Communications staff.
