FIRST SERVE

The UNLV volleyball team will stay out on the road with a pair of matches in Albuquerque, N.M., and Colorado Springs, Colorado, this week. The Rebels, who are in the midst of an eight-match win streak with the last two of those coming against Mountain West foes, will face the New Mexico Lobos Thursday at 7:00 pm MT (6:00 pm PT) and the Air Force Falcons Saturday at 6:30 pm MT (5:30 pm PT).

This week's matches are part of a stretch that will see the Scarlet & Gray play five of seven on the road, and it started last Saturday with a 3-1 win against the Utah State Aggies in Logan, Utah. Following home matches with San Jose State and UNR next week, the Rebels will play twice more away from Las Vegas and the Cox Pavilion in Fresno and San Diego, California on Oct. 11 and 13, respectively.

HISTORICALLY SPEAKING

UNLV has faced this week's opponents a total of a total of 84 times with a combined overall record of 63-21. The Rebels and New Mexico Lobos first met in 1985 and have played a total of 41 times with the former holding a 24-17 edge. The head-to-head series with the Air Force Falcons began in 1996, but has been one-sided with UNLV owning a 39-4 advantage.

TUNE IN, WATCH & LISTEN

Live stats for all both of UNLV's matches this week can be found online at UNLVRebels.com in the "schedule" section of the volleyball page. Additionally, each contest will be streamed live via the Mountain West Network, and, they too, will be linked to UNLVRebels.com.

WHAT-A-START

UNLV's 11-3 overall record through 14 matches is tied for the second-best start in program history with the 1998, 2007 and 2014 squads. Occupying the top spot is the 2016 edition that advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament following a 13-1 start.

ON THE SIDELINES

Following Saturday's road match at Air Force, UNLV will return to Las Vegas and the Cox Pavilion for Mountain West contests against the San Jose State Spartans and UNR Wolf Pack on Thursday (Oct. 4) and Saturday (Oct. 6), respectively. Both bouts are slated for 6:00 pm first serves. The UNLV-UNR tilt is part of the Governor's Series presented by NV Energy and Barrick Gold; a head-to-head competition between the Silver State's NCAA Division I competition, and won five times - including last year by a 27-21 score.

GETTING NOTICED

With help from their eight-match winning streak and 11-3 overall record, the UNLV Rebels moved into the "receiving votes" category of VolleyballMag.com's Mid-Major Poll. The Rebels took in four votes and sit 31st in the rankings.

Three other Mountain West squads are mentioned in this week's poll, as Colorado State is No. 6, Wyoming is No. 13 and Boise State, a team UNLV defeated 3-0 last week, is receiving votes (45) for 27th.

REBEL RECORD BOOK RUMBLINGS: DESCAMPS

Elsa Descamps entered her senior season ranked in the top 10 of all three career blocking categories in the program's record book. Descamps sat ninth in both total blocks and assisted blocks, and 10th in solo blocks.

Through five weeks and 14 matches, the native of Mulhouse, France, has bumped her name up to fifth in total blocks (370) and sixth in assisted blocks (322).

In the solo block department, she has 48, one shy of tying Candice Thomas (2010-12) for ninth with 49, while her former teammate Bree Hammel (2013-16) is only four away with 50.

Additionally, she is fifth in hitting efficiency with a .289 average.

REBEL RECORD BOOK RUMBLINGS: HAYDEN

Mariena Hayden has already made a name for herself in the program's single-season and career record books for serving. One year ago, Hayden aced 43 serves to place herself third all-time in the single-season charts.

She's upped her serving game this season with 57 through 14 matches, and that figure has already moved her into first - the most in a single season at UNLV.

Through a total of 45 matches, she has 100 aces, which puts her fourth overall. She needs four more to tie Leiana Oswald (2000-03) with 104. The program record is 116.

REBEL RECORD BOOK RUMBLINGS: TEAM

UNLV's three attack errors against Eastern Kentucky (Sept. 8) were a program low and supplanted the previous mark of five against Southeastern Louisiana in 2015.

HAYDEN MAKES MW HISTORY WITH THIRD STRAIGHT AWARD

UNLV's Mariena Hayden has become the first volleyball player in Mountain West history to earn the Conference's Offensive Player of the Week award for three consecutive weeks. Hayden, a sophomore outside hitter, helped the Rebels to a perfect 2-0 start in MW play with a home sweep of Boise State and a 3-1 win on the road at Utah State.

Delving deeper, UNLV has become only the eighth program in the 19-plus years of the MW to lay claim to three straight weekly awards. Since 2015, the conference has recognized an offensive and defensive player of the week, while it had only named a single individual to the weekly award from 1999 to 2014.

The Minnesota native posted a pair of double-doubles in the two victories and led the team in kills (43), kills per set (6.14), hitting (.382) and aces (five), and tied for the top spot in both digs (27) and digs per set (3.86).

In the three-set win over Boise State, she hit .520 with 17 kills and added 14 digs, and added three aces and one assist. She had a minimum of six kills and six digs in each of the first two sets, and in the first frame alone she hit .750 (6-0-8).

In the four-set victory at Utah State, she hit .314 and tied her career and season high in kills with 26, and notched 13 digs and two aces. She had eight kills apiece in the first two sets and threw down seven more in the fourth.

REBELS SWEEP MOUNTAIN WEST'S WEEKLY AWARDS

Fresh off their all-tournament team performances at the Billiken Invitational this past weekend in St. Louis, UNLV volleyball's Mariena Hayden and Elsa Descamps were named the Mountain West's Offensive and Defensive Players of the Week (Sept. 17), respectively. The duo helped lead the Rebels to a 3-0 mark and a tournament title with wins over Murray State, UMKC and Saint Louis.

Hayden, who was the MW's Offensive Player of the Week last week, led the Rebels in kills (50) and aces (eight), and added 30 digs, five total blocks (three solo) and two assists. She had a pair of double-doubles vs. Murray State and UMKC, and had no fewer than 15 kills, seven digs and two aces in each match.

The Minnesota native began her Billiken Invitational MVP performance hitting .293 with 15 kills, 12 digs and eight aces vs. Murray State. She also added two solo blocks against the Racers. In a thrilling, comeback win over UMKC, Hayden had 19 kills and 11 digs with three total blocks (one solo), two aces and one assist. In the fourth and fifth sets alone, she hit .421 with nine kills. In a 3-0 sweep of tournament host SLU, she hit a staggering .667 with 16 kills. She also notched seven digs, two aces and one assist. Delving deeper, she had at least four kills in each set and nearly hit 1.000 over the second and third with 12 kills and no errors in 13 attack attempts (.923).

Descamps also posted a pair double-doubles, and paced the team in assisted blocks (six), total blocks (eight) and blocks per set (0.67).

The French national, had 13 digs and 10 kills along with three assisted blocks, two assists and one ace in a 3-1 win over Murray State. She followed that with 12 digs, 11 kills, three aces, three total blocks (one solo) and two assists vs. UMKC. In the final vs. SLU, she hit .529 with nine kills and did not commit an attack error. She also chipped in two digs, two total blocks (one solo), one ace and one assist.

HAYDEN HONORED

Just two days after she was named the Rebel Challenge's Most Valuable Player, UNLV volleyball's Mariena Hayden was tabbed the Mountain West's Offensive Player of the Week (Sept. 10). Hayden led the Scarlet & Gray to a perfect 3-0 mark en route to the tournament title.

Hayden led the Rebels in kills (49), aces (16) and digs (26), and added two assists and two assisted blocks. She had no fewer than 16 kills and five digs in each match, which translated to a 4.90 kills per-set and 2.60 digs per-set average, respectively.

The native of Belle Plaine, Minnesota, led off the Challenge with a .375 hitting performance and a double-double with 17 kills and 13 digs to go along with five aces, one assist and one assisted block.

In a sweep of Cal State Fullerton, she had 16 kills, eight digs and three aces.

In the finale, a 3-0 victory over Eastern Kentucky, she hit .500 with 16 kills, eight aces, five digs, one assist and one assisted block. Her 16 kills were only two fewer than EKU's output for the match. In the first set alone, she had eight kills – four more than EKU's tally in the frame – and six aces.

HAYDEN HITS

Mariena Hayden has been a force on both sides of the net for UNLV through five weeks and 14 matches of play this season. The Minnesota native leads the team in kills (248), kills per set (4.77), aces (57), digs (187) and digs per set (3.60), while hitting at a .315 clip.

Hayden has posted double-doubles in 10 of the team's 14 matches and came close to a triple-double vs. Youngstown State (Aug. 31), with a career-high 26 kills paired with 18 digs and nine aces.

For her career, Hayden has 20 double-doubles with 10 coming during her freshman campaign last season.

In the season opener, she notched short-lived career highs in kills and digs vs. Indiana (Aug. 24) with 24 and 22, respectively. It only took three matches for her to one up herself in kills with the 26 in Pittsburgh against Youngstown State, while the digs' mark was reset at 26 in the finale of the Duquesne Invitational against Bowling Green (Sept. 1). She tied the kill figure in her last outing, with 26 at Utah State (Sept. 22).

She's aced at least two serves in 13 matches and had eight or more in four of those. Initially, she was credited with 10 aces vs. Youngstown State, but the figure was changed to nine - a UNLV single-match record. She aced eight more serves, one day later, against Bowling Green and then duplicated the feat later against Eastern Kentucky (Sept. 8) and Murray State (Sept. 14).

On the defensive side, she's had eight or more digs in 12 matches and reached double digits in eight of those. She had a season-high 22 vs. Indiana (Aug. 24) and then upped her best to 26 vs. Bowling Green (Sept. 1).

REBEL HONORS

-Mariena Hayden has been named the Mountain West's Player of the Week three times this season: Sept. 10, 17 and 24.

-Hayden was named VolleyMob.com's Player of the Week on Sept. 25; had previously earned Honorable Mention status on Sept. 11 and was in the "other notables" category on Sept. 4.

-Hayden was named PrepVolleyball.com's Non-Power 5 Player of the Week on Sept. 19.

TOURNAMENT ROUNDUP

-Mariena Hayden has earned all-tournament honors four times over after her all-around contributions at the UNLV Invitational and Duquesne Invitational, and MVP performances at the Rebel Challenge and Billiken Invitational.

-Elsa Descamps has claimed all-tournament team honors at the last two tournaments: Rebel Challenge and Billiken Invitational.

-Lauryn Burt and Antonette Rolda have garnered all-tourney recognition once apiece, as the former was recognized for her efforts at the Rebel Challenge, while the latter's came at the Billiken Invitational.

-Hayden leads the team with eight double-doubles, while Jillian Berg is next with three, Descamps has two, while Burt and Rolda have one each.

HITTING HIGH

Through five weeks and 14 matches, UNLV has four of its own hitting .308 or better with a minimum of 18 kills. Setter Lauryn Burt leads the team with her .459 average off 18 kills and one error in 37 swings. Middle blockers Kate Brennan and Elsa Descamps are second (.387/100-28-186) and fourth (.308/102-20-266), respectively, while outside hitter Mariena Hayden sits between the two in third (.315/248-81-530).

SETTING PAIR

Newcomers Lauryn Burt and Antonette Rolda have split the setting duties for the Rebels this season, and the duo were only one assist apart through the first nine matches; however, that changed last weekend when the latter was called on as the primary setter.

Rolda leads the squad with 394 assists and a 7.58 per-set average, while Burt has 181 assists and averages 5.48 per frame.

Rolda had a season-best 57 assists in a four-set win over Utah State (Sept. 22). She had 44 in a five-set win over UMKC (Sept. 15), which coupled with her 10 digs in the contest produced her first double-double as a Rebel.

For the year, Rolda has had no less than 11 assists and three digs in any match. She has also aces 17 serves with 11 coming in the last four outings vs. UMKC (Sept. 15/four), Saint Louis (Sept. 15/five), Boise State (Sept. 20/zero) and Utah State (Sept. 22/two).

Burt has dished out at least 16 assists in each outing and topped out at 27 vs. Youngstown State (Aug. 31). She paired 19 assists with 13 digs against Duquesne (Aug. 31) for her first career double-double. In all, she has had five or more digs in eight matches.

Burt has also added 18 kills off .459 hitting to go with 12 aces, four of which came against LIU Brooklyn (Aug. 25).

A BIT OF INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

The UNLV volleyball team will feature three international student-athletes on its 2018 roster with senior Elsa Descamps joined by sophomores Elena Ivanova (Bulgaria) and Thea Sweder (Norway). Additionally, assistant coach Ariel Apolinario hails from Cuba.

The trio, who played for the Rebels in 2017, represents the largest contingent of internationally born players the program has had since as far back as the 2005 campaign. UNLV had two in both 2005 and 2016 as well as one each in 2006, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2015. The 2016 duo was comprised of Descamps and Elisa Woinowsky (Germany). The 2005 pair was Maria Aladjova (2004-08) and Mariana Pencheva (2004-05, both of whom were from Bulgaria - like Ivanova.

THE SULLIVAN ERA BEGINS

The 2018 UNLV volleyball team will have a much different appearance on the sidelines with a new coaching staff led by Dawn Sullivan, who will be assisted by Ariel Apolinario and Rebel volleyball alumna Melody Nua.

Sullivan came to UNLV following 13 seasons as an assistant and associate head coach at Iowa State. She served on Christy Johnson-Lynch's staff from 2005 through the 2017 campaign and helped the program achieve a 268-130 (.675) overall record.

After doubling the win total - eight to 16 - in their first year in Ames, Johnson-Lynch and Sullivan guided the Cyclones to 12 straight NCAA Tournaments, which included five regional semifinals and two regional final appearances. By virtue of their postseason success, the Cyclones are only one of 11 NCAA Division I program to have participated in the NCAA Tournament in each of the past 12 years.

Prior to her time in Iowa, Sullivan was an assistant coach at Illinois State from 2002 to 2004. In those three years, the Redbirds increased their win total from 14 to 19 to 22.

The 2000 graduate of Kansas State was an All-American and All-Big 12 Team performer for the Wildcats volleyball program. Sullivan helped KSU reach postseason play all four years in Manhattan.

DAWN SULLIVAN

Overall Record: 11-3, 1st season
UNLV Record: 11-3, 1st season
Kansas State, 2000

January 2018.

Sullivan earned her first career win against Southern Utah, a 3-0 sweep of the Thunderbirds, during the season-opening UNLV Invitational on Aug. 24.

Working under head coach Christy Johnson-Lynch at ISU since 2005, Sullivan helped lead the Cyclone program to a 268-130 (.673) record, which included 12 straight trips to the NCAA Tournament. ISU advanced to the regional semifinals five times and has made two regional finals during that time. More impressively, the Cyclones are one of only 11 NCAA Division I programs to have participated in the postseason in each of the past 12 years.

"We are thrilled to welcome Dawn to the Rebel Family and I am confident that she will lead our volleyball program to lasting success," said UNLV Director of Athletics Desiree Reed-Francois. "She shares our core values, has demonstrated success as an exceptional recruiter and has an uncanny proven ability to connect with and develop student-athletes. She will bring passion, compassion and a competitive spirit that will resonate with our past, current and future student-athletes. We are looking forward to having Dawn, Josh and their children at UNLV."

Sullivan joined Johnson-Lynch's first-year staff with a focus on mentoring the outside hitters. She was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2012 season and has served in that role for the past seven years.

Sullivan helped make an immediate impact upon her arrival in Ames as the program upped its win total by eight (to 16) during her first season. That team also finished five spots higher in the Big 12 standings (11th to sixth) from the previous season. One year later, the squad went 21-11 overall and 12-8 in Big 12 play (fourth place) en route to the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1995.

With Sullivan on staff, ISU volleyball posted 16 or more wins each season, including 12 straight with a minimum of 18 victories. The 2006 season marked the first of seven with 20 or more wins. In 2009, the Cyclones recorded program bests in overall wins with 27, conference victories with 17 and a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

From 1996 to 2004, before Johnson-Lynch and Sullivan were with the program, the Cyclones went 13-167 overall with seven last-place finishes in nine seasons in Big 12 competition. Since 2005, ISU has gone 152-80 in league play with 12 straight double-digit winning seasons. ISU has finished second or third in conference play in each of the past nine seasons.

With Sullivan on the staff, the Cyclones had 13 student-athletes earn

AVCA All-America honors 23 times, while 16 were recognized as AVCA All-Region performers 27 times. ISU has had 30 student-athletes named to the All-Big 12 Team 38 times. Academically, the team placed 56 student-athletes on Academic All-Big 12 teams, which included a program-record 10 honorees in 2011.

Sullivan began her collegiate coaching career as an assistant at Illinois State University in 2002 and helped the Redbirds boost their win total from 14 to 19 to 22 before leaving for Iowa State.

Sullivan played collegiately at Kansas State University from 1996-99 and led the Wildcats to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances behind a total of 1,611 kills and 1,258 digs, which rank as the third and fourth-most, respectively, in program history. She is one of only five KSU players to record 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs in a career.

As a senior, she served as a team captain and was later named an All-American and to the All-Big 12 Team. She also earned Academic All-Big 12 honors in each of her four years. Following graduation, Sullivan played professionally for the Grand Rapids Force of the United States Professional Volleyball League.

Sullivan and her husband, Josh, have three daughters (Katie, Sarah and Emily) and a son (Matthew).
