

POSTGAME NOTES: NEW MEXICO 75, WYOMING 66

Matchup Notes

- Starting Lineup: Antino Jackson, Joe Furstinger, Dane Kuiper, Makuach Maluach, Jachai Simmons
- Lobos now lead the all-time series vs Wyoming 69-67
- Attendance: 9,846

Paul Weir Notes

- Career record: 36-16
- UNM record: 8-10, 3-2 MW

In-Game Notes

- Before the game, UNM had not won a game this season when they trailed at the half this season (0-9), while Wyoming had never lost a game when they were leading at the half (6-0)
- UNM held Wyoming's leading scorer, Hayden Dalton (23.3 points per game) to 10 points on 4-10 shooting
- The Lobos' defense held Wyoming to zero made-threes in the second half
- Antino Jackson broke his UNM career-high in points with 20 (7-12 FG) and in steals with four
 - Tied his UNM career-high in field goals made with seven
- Joe Furstinger finished with 17 points and 10 rebounds, his seventh-straight game with double-digit points and his fifth double-double this season
- Makuach Maluach broke his career-high in free throws attempted and made (6-6) and broke his career-high in minutes played (33 minutes)
 - Tied his career-high in rebounds, assists and steals (5, 3, 2)
- Vladimir Pinchuk set a new career-high in blocks (2)
- Anthony Mathis broke his career-high in free throws attempted (tied his career-high in free throws made, 5-6) and broke his career-high in minutes played with 28

- Lobos won the rebounding battle 34 to 23 with 10 offensive rebounds compared to Wyoming's four
- Both teams combined for 38 turnovers (18 for Wyoming, 20 for UNM)
- Wyoming's Justin James scored a career-high 31 points on 11-18 shooting