About the Cowgirls

The Wyoming volleyball team enters this weekend's MW action tied for second in the league at 14-6 and 6-2 in conference play, and winners of four straight after taking down MW rivals Utah State and Boise State last week in the UniWyo Sports Complex. The Cowgirls went 8-4 in their nonconference slate that included noteworthy wins over then-No. 15 Colorado, Arizona State and Murray State, among others. The Pokes also finished with a pair of tournament titles under their belts with wins at Rumble at the Rockies and the UniWyo Invitational. Picked to finish second in the league for a second-straight year, head coach Chad Callihan and the Cowgirls return six starters plus the libero from a season ago, including 2017 All-MW selections Jackie McBride and Tara Traphagan, as well as MW Freshman of the Year Marissa Harmon.

Also returning are seniors Reed Copeland, Emily Lewis and Cori Aafedt, who have each made significant impacts on the team thus far into the season. Lewis leads the team with 170 kills, while Copeland paces the team in blocks with an impressive 132. Aafedt has turned in a number of impressive performances as the Wyoming setter, racking up 460 assists with a trio of double-doubles on the year.

Last Time Out

The Wyoming volleyball team won its third and fourth-straight matches this weekend inside the UniWyo Sports Complex to wrap up their homestand, knocking off MW foes Utah State and Boise State.

The Cowgirls were led by junior Tara Traphagan who recorded 13 kills and three blocks against Utah State before posting 14 kills and four blocks against Boise State.

Know the Foe(s)

UNLV enters Thursday's match against the Cowgirls at 14-6 with a 5-3 record in MW play. The Rebels split matches last weekend on their California road trip, falling to Fresno State, 3-1, and taking a 3-1 win over San Diego State. Sophomore outside hitter Mariena Hayden leads the Rebels in kills this season with 350 to rank first in the MW and eighth in the nation. Hayden also ranks first in the nation in service aces with 68. Setter Antonette Rolda ranks fourth in the MW in assists with 642. As a team, the Rebels own a .256 hitting percentage which ranks second in the MW and 33rd nationally. Head coach Dawn Sullivan is in her first year at the helm of the UNLV program.

New Mexico is 11-9 entering the weekend, also boasting a 5-3 record in conference matches. The Lobos are coming off a pair of consecutive losses last weekend, dropping road matches to San Diego State and Fresno State. Sophomore outside hitter Lauren Twitty leads the Lobos in kills with 273 on the year to rank fifth in the MW. Junior middle blocker Victoria Spragg ranks sixth in the conference in total blocks with 87 on the season. Defending Their Home Court

The Cowgirls have started off the season strong at home, opening with an 11-0 record so far this season in Laramie. It marks the first time in program history that Wyoming has won each of its first 11 home matches of the season. With the best home record in school history standing at 17-1 and four home matches remaining on their 2018 schedule, the Cowgirls will look to make history as they head into the home stretch.

1,000 Watch

During last weekend's matches against Colorado State and Air Force, a pair of Cowgirls reached 1,000 in a couple of important statistical categories. Libero Madi Fields became the ninth Cowgirl ever to reach 1,000 digs, while middle blocker Reed Copeland eclipsed 1,000 career points. Additionally, setter Cori Aafedt reached 1,000 assists for her career last week against Utah State.

100 and Counting

Chad Callihan became the second head coach in Wyoming volleyball history to earn 100 wins with the victory over San Jose State on Nov. 9, 2017. He currently has won 116 matches during his five seasons in Laramie. Only Hall of Fame coach Mike English has won more matches at UW. English went 124-86 in seven seasons.

During Chad Callihan's tenure, the Cowgirls have a 65-35 mark in MW play, which as a percentage ranks second among active MW coaches and fifth all-time.

Block Party

With a 3.05 blocks per set average this season, Wyoming ranks second in the country and tops on the MW in that category. The Cowgirls also rank second in the nation in total blocks with a total of 229 after 20 matches, also first in the MW.

Individually, three Cowgirls are ranked in the top 10 of the MW in blocks per set as well as in the top eight in total blocks. Reed Copeland is ranked first nationally in blocks per set (1.76); she is second nationally in total blocks (132). Tara Traphagan ranks ninth in the conference and 106th in the country in blocks per set (1.12); she ranks eighth in the MW and 70th nationally in total blocks (83). Finally, Jackie McBride is 10th in the MW in blocks per set (1.12) and seventh in total blocks (84).

Reed, Between the Lines

Cowgirl senior Reed Copeland came into her junior season in 2017 just outside the top-ten in blocks with 338. In the midst of her senior season, she sits third all-time with 595. Melody Firehauf (1997-00) sits second in the school record book with 618.

Copeland is also sitting seventh all-time in career hitting percentage with .287 (696-257-1537) as a Cowgirl, right behind Reese Plante at .288 (2010-13).

Among the Best

Copeland's stellar defensive career is in line with the best in the nation. With 595 blocks thus far into her career, she is currently ranked third in total blocks among active NCAA volleyball athletes. Copeland is also one of only two players from the MW within the top-10. Illinois' Ali Bastianelli leads all active players with 666 career blocks. Copeland is currently the second-leading active player in blocks per set with 1.48. Bastianelli (1.57) leads that statistic as well.

Out-Blocking the Nation

With 132 total blocks this season, senior Reed Copeland has recorded more blocks than an astounding 104 NCAA Division I teams this season. That includes three Mountain West squads.

Can You Dig It?

Wyoming junior Madi Fields is just past the halfway point in her career with 1,054 digs. As a sophomore, she posted 427 to tie for the fifth-best in a single season for the Brown and Gold. In the Cowgirls' win against Boise State, Fields surpassed Jill Robins for sixth in the program record book for digs in a career. Fields has recorded a team-high 330 digs this season to rank second in the MW in that category, and sits 18 digs behind Michele Rauter (1,072, 2000-03) for sixth on the list.

Direct Attack

With a team hitting percentage of .253 heading into the weekend, the Cowgirls are third in the MW and are currently ranked 35th in the country in team hitting percentage. Wyoming is first in the MW in opponent hitting percentage at .160, which ranks 25th nationally.

One Cowgirl is ranked in the top 10 of the conference in hitting percentage. Senior Reed Copeland ranks third in the MW and 87th in the NCAA at .345.

Killin' It

Wyoming has spread out its offensive attack so far this year, with five Pokes racking up 149 or more kills. The team has compiled 971 kills collectively, to combine for a 12.95 kills per set average as a squad. Senior Emily Lewis leads the Cowgirls in kills with 170, followed by Tara Traphagan (166), Halie McArdle (158), Reed Copeland (155) and Jackie McBride (149).

McBride Named MW Player of the Week

Wyoming volleyball sophomore Jackie McBride has been named MW Offensive Player of the Week, the conference announced Monday. It marks her second time this season to receive the award and fourth time for any Cowgirl this season.

McBride helped lead the Cowgirls to a 2-0 week in MW play with home wins over Colorado State and Air Force. The Aurora, Colo., native racked up a combined 23 kills on 48 attacks for the week, compiling a .354 hitting percentage. She was also active defensively, posting 14 total blocks along with nine digs over the two matches.

Pokes Against the Pac-12

The Cowgirls have already knocked off a pair of Pac-12 foes this season in Colorado and Arizona State. It marks the second time in program history that Wyoming has completed that feat, with the other time being the 1989 team that knocked off Stanford and Washington on the way to the Elite Eight.

Cowgirls Picked Second

The Wyoming volleyball team has been picked to finish second in the 2018 MW Preseason Coaches' Poll, the conference announced.

The Brown and Gold finished second in the Mountain West last season—its highest finish as a member of the MW—behind a 12-6 conference record and a 17-14 overall mark. Head coach Chad Callihan returns nine letterwinners from his 2017 squad. Among those returners are six starters plus the libero from a season ago.

The Cowgirls finished with 91 points in the poll, just nine behind the favorite Colorado State and 16 ahead of projected third-place finishers Boise State and San Diego State. Wyoming also received a first-place vote in the poll, standing as the only other team outside of Colorado State to earn a first-place selection.

Rookie Standout

Freshman Marissa Harmon led the Cowgirls with nine double-doubles last season. She also became the first true freshman to lead UW in assists since Tasha Weishahn (Beatrice, Neb.) in 2005 when she dished out 1,051 assists (11.42 apts). Weishahn is third all-time with 4,191 career assists. Harmon finished her rookie campaign with 1,101 assists and was 105 away from tying former standout Courtney Chacon for tenth in single season history.

All-MW Trio

Redshirt freshman Jackie McBride and sophomore Tara Traphagan were named All-MW for the first time in their careers last season. Freshman Marissa Harmon joined them as honorable mention All-MW and also the MW Freshman of the Year. It was the seventh-consecutive season UW had at least two representatives on the All-MW team.

From All Over

The 2018 Cowgirl volleyball roster consists of 15 players from 10 different states. States represented on the roster include Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, Texas, Washington and Wyoming.

Staff Changes

Cowgirl volleyball head coach Chad Callihan announced the promotion of assistant coach Dan Georgalas to the position of associate head coach this offseason. He will enter his fifth season with the Cowgirls this coming fall, having joined Callihan's staff prior to the 2014 season.

Callihan also announced that Kindra Gillen will join the Cowgirl coaching staff as an assistant beginning this upcoming season. Gillen comes to Laramie after spending a season at Liberty University where she helped the Lady Flames to the Big South Volleyball Championship semifinals under head coach Shane Pinder. Before her time at Liberty, she was an assistant coach during the 2016 season at Nicholls State in Thibodaux, La., for what was her first collegiate coaching experience.

In the Classroom

Of the 54 Wyoming athletes honored on the Fall Academic All-Mountain West team last season, 11 were from the Cowgirl volleyball program.

Cowgirls Cori Aafedt, Lily Austin, Madi Fields, Marissa Harmon, Emily Lewis, Haie McCardle, Jackie McBride, Laurel Place, Marley Taylor, Tara Traphagan and Faith Waitsman were each honored for their efforts in the classroom.

A league-record 618 student-athletes were named to the Fall 2017 Academic All-Mountain West team. Fall sports include men's and women's cross country, football, women's soccer and women's volleyball. The mark surpasses the previous Conference record of 614 fall-semester honorees, set during the 2016-17 academic year.

To be eligible for selection, student-athletes must have completed at least one academic term at the member institution while maintaining a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better, and be a starter or significant contributor on their athletic team.

2017 Wrap-Up

+ Following an impressive regular season and a second-place finish in the Mountain West, the Cowgirls (17-14) competed in the 2017 National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC). While the Cowgirls came up short in the first round match to TCU, the NIVC selection marked the first postseason selection for UW since 1994. It was the fifth postseason appearance in the history of Wyoming volleyball.

+ Wyoming finished second in the MW with a 12-6 conference record. It was the highest finish as a team while a member of the MW. Half of those wins came on the road, which was also a new high in conference play.

+ Wyoming finished the season hitting .230 (1482-575-3943) as a team. It was the seventh best team percentage in single season history. The Cowgirls had 508 blocks assists and 295 total blocks at season's end. Those marks both became eighth best in single season history.

CHAD CALLIHAN

HEAD COACH - 6TH YEAR

AT WYOMING

- The 2018 season is the sixth for Chad Callihan at the helm of the Wyoming Cowgirl volleyball program. He was named the head coach on May 28, 2013 and became the 13th head volleyball coach in Cowgirl history.

- Since joining the Cowgirls in 2013, Callihan has led 13 Pokes to All-MW recognition, while also overseeing 51 Academic All-MW selections.

- With a 61-35 record (.641 win pct.) in Mountain West matches, Callihan ranks fifth all-time among MW coaches in win percentage against MW foes. He ranks second among active MW coaches.

- The 2017 season was the first for Callihan at Wyoming that ended in postseason play. It accepted a bid to compete in the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), where it fell to TCU in the opening round. UW ended the season with a 17-14 overall record. Additionally, the Brown and Gold finished second in the Mountain West with a 12-6 record. It was the highest finish as a team since becoming a member of the MW.

- Callihan led UW to its fourth-consecutive season with an RPI within the top-100. Tara Traphagan and Jackie McBride each garnered their first All-MW honors, while Marissa Harmon was selected as the MW Freshman of the Year.

- UW completed the 2016 season with an 18-13 overall mark after an 11-7 campaign in conference play. Callihan recorded his 300th win against Idaho on Sept. 15.

- Wyoming posted one of its best seasons in 2015, finishing with a 23-7 overall record, and a 13-5 mark in the Mountain West. The 2015 season ended with the second-best winning percentage in school history (.767) and the 13 wins in conference play were the most in any season for UW volleyball.

- Callihan followed up a successful, 21-win first season with another 20-plus wins in 2014. The Cowgirls finished the year with a 23-8 overall record and a 12-6 mark in the Mountain West. Wyoming would open up the year with a seven-match winning streak and win a school best 14 matches in a row dating back to the end of the 2013 campaign. It surpassed the 13-match winning streak set by the 1989 team.
