FRESNO STATE IDENTIFICATION

For athletics department purposes, the University prefers to be called simply FRESNO STATE - never Fresno State University and never shorten to Fresno.

For graphics or abbreviations, we ask that you please use FS - not FRES, FSU, CSUF or Fresno. Another acceptable abbreviations is Fresno St.

The University's formal name is California State University, Fresno. Fresno State is the preferred reference, less formal name for the university. It is acceptable as a first text reference, as well as subsequent references.

"V" IS FOR VALLEY

Fresno State prides itself on being the "Valley's team." This pride can be seen in the form of a green V on the Bulldogs' logo and uniforms, as a symbol to the agricultural community of Central Valley of California.

The San Joaquin Valley is the world's richest agricultural valley in export dollars.

Top of the Mountain

- At 10-3 in MW play, Fresno State trails only Colorado State (12-2) for the conference lead. No other MW team has fewer than five league losses, as Wyoming and UNLV are both 9-5 and tied for third place.
- Since joining the MW in 2012 the highest the 'Dogs have ever finished in the league is 4th place. The team finished in eighth place or lower in each of the last four seasons.

Historic Season

- With an 18-8 overall record Fresno State has its most wins since finishing 18-13 in 2012. The last time the 'Dogs won more than 18 matches was in 2003, when the squad finished 21-7.
- Fresno State is one win shy of matching the program record for conference wins. The 'Dogs won 11 MW matches in 2013, won 11 conference matches as a member of the WAC in 1992 and 1997, and had 11 league wins in the NorPac in 1984.
- The fewest losses for a Bulldog team in the last 14 years was 13, in 2004 and 2012.

Winning on the Road

- The Bulldogs are 7-3 in true road matches this season, more than doubling their road win total from last year in which the team finished 3-12 in road contests.
- With five road MW wins the Bulldogs have more than doubled their total for the last two years, in which the 2016 and 2017 teams combined to go 2-16 in road MW (both were 1-8).
- The last time the 'Dogs ended the season with an overall winning road record was 2013, when they finished 7-5, and the team's best MW road record was 5-5 in 2013.

Fantastic First Year

- Jonathan Winder's 18 victories are tied with UNLV's Dawn Sullivan for second most by a first year coach in NCAA Div. I this year. Only Tennessee's Eve Rackham has more wins this season (20) in her first year leading her team.

- Winder is three wins shy of the Fresno State record for wins by a coach in his or her first season with the program. Lindy Vivas won 21 matches in her first season leading the 'Dogs in 1991.

All-Around Star

- Senior Taylor Slover was named MW Offensive Player of the Week after averaging 4.25 kills and 3.25 digs per set with two double-doubles last week.
- Slover has recorded double-doubles in seven MW matches and is third in the league with 13 double-doubles this year, the most by a Bulldog since Zana Bowens had 15 double-doubles in the 2014 season.
- Slover is leading the 'Dogs in kills per set (3.72) and points per set (4.30) for the second straight season and this year she is also second on the team with 2.49 digs per set and 29 service aces.
- She has recorded double-digit kills in 23 of 26 matches and double-digit digs in 13 matches while also contributing 48 blocks.

Better Blocking

- Fresno State has had the same or more blocks than its opponent in 19 of 26 matches this year.
- The Bulldogs are 17-2 this season when having the same or more blocks than their opponent but 1-6 when trailing in blocks.
- In MW play Haile Watson leads the league averaging 1.48 blocks per set and has tallied at least four blocks in 12 of 13 matches.

She Can Dig It

- Sophomore Reagan Leonard leads the MW averaging 4.76 digs per set this season and has been named MW Defensive Player of the Week twice this year.
- Leonard's current digs per set average would be the third best in a season in program history and, with 481 digs this year, she could challenge the single-season program record

SCOUTING NEW MEXICO (14-12, 8-6 MW)

- New Mexico opened MW play 5-1, then lost four straight matches, and has now won three of its last four contests. The Lobos begin the week tied with Boise State for 5th in the league.
- The Lobos are 7-3 overall at home this season with a 5-2 record in home MW matches.
- In MW play New Mexico ranks no higher than fifth in the league in any statistical category and is last averaging 0.78 service aces per set. Lauren Twitty ranks third in both kills and points.
- The 'Dogs held New Mexico to a .118 hitting percentage in a 3-0 sweep in Fresno on Oct. 13. Taylor Slover had a double-double and Haile Watson had six of the team's nine blocks.
- The 'Dogs have won two straight vs. the Lobos but haven't won in Albuquerque since 2012.

SCOUTING UNLV (18-8, 9-5 MW)

- UNLV opens the week tied for third in the MW after being picked last in the preseason poll.
- The Rebels have won three straight and are 10-3 overall at home and 5-2 in home MW games.
- For the season UNLV leads the MW and ranks second in NCAA Div. I with 195 service aces, but the Rebels also likely lead the nation with 301 service errors (that stat isn't officially tracked).
- Mariena Hayden leads the nation with 86 aces but has 98 service errors. She also leads the MW averaging 4.45 kills per set and ranks second in NCAA Div. I 535.5 total points this year.
- Fresno State beat UNLV, 3-1, in Fresno on Oct. 11. The 'Dogs outhit the Rebels .324-.210 and had an 11-5 edge in aces with eight fewer errors. The 'Dogs have won three straight meetings.

of 573 digs, set by current Bulldog assistant coach Maggie Eppright in 2015.

• In just her second career start at libero, Leonard broke the single-match program record with 38 digs in the 'Dogs 3-1 win at Eastern Illinois.

On Service

• The service game has been a big factor in Fresno State's success this year as the team is undefeated (12-0) when leading in aces and 6-8 when trailing its opponent in aces.
 • The 'Dogs are averaging 1.57 aces per set in their 18 wins compared to 1.00 aces per set in the eight losses.

Central Valley Stars

• Five of Fresno State's seven starters (six + libero) in conference play are local products from the Central Valley.
 • Madelyn Halteman (Turlock), Taylor Slover (Visalia), Jessica Gilbert (Modesto), Jocelyn Rodriguez (Clovis) and Emily Dzubak (Stockton) have led the Bulldog resurgence this season. Brielle Hefner (Madera) is out due to injury but is also a local player that has been a starter during her career.

Getting Defensive

• In MW matches the 'Dogs lead the league with 15.25 digs per set and are also second in opposing hitting percentage (.165), holding nine MW foes below a .200 hit percentage, and third in blocks per set (2.65).
 • In their 3-0 sweep at Utah State the 'Dogs held the Aggies to -.045 hitting (22 kills- 27 errors), the first time Fresno State has ever limited a MW opponent to a negative hitting percentage since joining the league.

First Set Success

• The 'Dogs won the first set in each of their first seven MW matches and in 17 of 26 total matches this year
 • Fresno State is 15-2 when winning the first set and 3-6 when losing it.

Big Dig Night

• Five different Bulldogs recorded double-digit digs last Thursday vs. Boise State
 • Senior Emily Dzubak led the way with 15 digs while Reagan Leonard (14 digs), Taylor Slover (13), Jocelyn Rodriguez (11), and Madelyn Halteman (10) also had double-digit dig totals.

• The Bulldogs have had more digs than their opponent in 20 of 26 matches this year.

Home Cooking

• Dating back to the 2016 season the Bulldogs have won 17 of their last 22 home matches.
 • Fresno State was 7-3 at home last season and is 8-2 in the Save Mart Center so far this year playing five of its last seven regular season matches in Fresno.
 • The squad has clinched a winning home record for the third straight year and the sixth time in the last seven seasons

Super Support

• Fresno State is one of just five NCAA Div. I schools in California averaging more than 1,000 fans per match and ranks second in the MW in average attendance, trailing only 14-time MW champion Colorado State.
 • The team has topped 1,000 fans in seven of 10 home matches this year. By comparison, the 'Dogs have played only one road match this season (of 10) in which the opponent had more than 1,000 fans (at Colorado State).
 • The 'Dogs have a higher average home attendance than Pac-12 schools Cal and Washington State.

It's Been a While

• The 'Dogs opened MW play with a 3-0 sweep at San Diego State, the first Bulldog road win over the Aztecs since Sept. 24, 1999.
 • Fresno State's home victory over Colorado State was its first over the Rams since Oct. 11, 2012, ending a nine-match losing streak in which the 'Dogs won just two total sets and were swept seven times.
 • The Bulldog win at Wyoming was their first victory in Laramie since Oct. 26, 2013.

Best Conference Start

• Fresno State had its best overall conference start in program history at 9-1, topping the 7-1 record the 2003 team had to begin WAC play.
 • Starting MW 4-0, the Bulldogs equaled the program record for consecutive wins to begin conference play, matching a 4-0 start in 2001 as a member of the WAC.

Stepping Up

• In MW play senior Aubrey Folk is second on the team with 2.52 kills per set and with 0.89 blocks per set after averaging just 1.78 kills and 0.37 blocks per set in the 13 Bulldog non-conference matches.

- Folk has had double-digit kills in five MW matches and recorded four or more blocks in seven league matches.

Going Long

- Fresno State has played at least four sets in 17 of 26 matches this season with six 5-set matches. The team is playing just under four sets per match on average.
- The squad is undefeated (10-0) this season when winning the third set in a match that goes four or five sets.
- The Bulldogs have played 101 sets this year with 11 sets that have gone to extra points.

Two Wins and a Baby

- Over three days Sept. 27-29, first year Fresno State head coach Jonathan Winder not only defeated the top two teams in the MW poll but also had the birth of his third child.
- Sandwiched between the Wyoming match on Sept. 27 and the Colorado State match on Sept. 29, Winder and his wife, Jaimie-Rose, had a planned C-section on Sept. 28 and welcomed their third child, a healthy boy named Hayes Patrick Winder.

Top Attacker

- Senior Haile Watson ranks sixth in the MW this season with a .323 hitting percentage.
- Watson had a career-high 19 kills and just one error in 25 attacks vs. Saint Mary's to hit .720. At the time it was the best single-match hitting percentage in NCAA Div. I this season (min. 20 attacks) and it now ranks eight best in the nation this year.
- Watson's only attack error against the Gaels came late in the fourth set as she nearly broke the program hitting percentage record of .792, achieved by Shauna McQuaid with 20 kills and one error against UALR in 2001.

Taking Down Goliath

- Fresno State knocked off 14-time MW champion Colorado State, 3-1, on Sept. 29, ending a nine-match losing streak to the Rams with its first win since 2012 against a Colorado State team that has qualified for the NCAA Tournament in 23 consecutive seasons.
- The 'Dogs took down the Rams posting a 13.0-5.0 edge in blocks to hold CSU to just a .170 hitting percentage and had solid serving with eight aces to six errors while the Rams had five aces and 11 errors.

Spectacular Season Start

- Fresno State opened a season 7-1 for the first time since 2002. That team was the last Bulldog squad to make the NCAA Tournament.
- Fresno State's 8-3 start was the program's best record through 11 matches since the 2016 team began 9-2.

Fantastic in Five

- The Bulldogs are 4-2 in 5-set matches this year. The 'Dogs played five sets in four of their first seven matches of the season and won all four.
- Fresno State was just 2-4 in 5-set matches last season and the 'Dogs have as many five set wins as any previous team since the 2012 Bulldogs went 7-3 in 5-setters.

Breakout Star

- Senior Jessica Gilbert moved into the starting lineup this season and ranks second on the team with 2.48 kills and 3.11 points per set while hitting .272 and adding 1.19 digs and 0.76 blocks per set. She has had 10 or more kills 10 times this year.
- In her first season with the 'Dogs in 2017 after transferring from Eastern Washington, Gilbert played in just 12 matches while totaling 22 kills.

Starting Strong

- The Bulldogs have won their season opener in eight of the last 11 seasons. The 'Dogs also started 2-0 in each of the last three seasons.
- Fresno State has an even more impressive winning streak in its first true road game of the season, having now won eight straight road openers. The last time the 'Dogs lost their first road game of the season was at Utah Valley in 2010.

Welcome Back

- Fresno State returned the majority of its 2017 roster for the 2018 season as five starters and 11 total players represent more the 75% of the 2018 team.
- Half of the team is comprised of seniors, as seven seniors, one junior, and four sophomores return with a total of 18 years of playing experience as Bulldogs.

Welcome Aboard

- Mixing with the veteran roster is a new coaching staff led by former Washington indoor volleyball assistant and head beach volleyball coach Jonathan Winder. His assistant coaches are Hardy Wooldridge and former Bulldog libero Maggie Eppright.
- The 'Dogs also have three new players in freshmen Kava Durr and Lauren Sabbatini and sophomore transfer Jocelyn Rodriguez, who played her freshman seasons at San Francisco State.

Championship Pedigree

- At Washington, Jonathan Winder helped lead the Huskies to a pair of Pac-12 indoor championships and multiple weeks with the No. 1 national ranking with consecutive NCAA Elite Eight appearances.
- During his playing career, Winder led Pepperdine to the 2004 National Championship as well as three MPSF conference titles and helped team USA win the 2007 Pan American Cup.

HEAD COACH PROFILE

JONATHAN WINDER

Head Coach • First Year • Irvine, Calif. • Pepperdine, 2008

Jonathan Winder was announced as the new head coach for the Bulldog Volleyball program on Jan. 23, 2018.

A four-time All-American and the 2007 NCAA Player of the Year as a student-athlete at Pepperdine, Winder spent the last three seasons as an assistant coach for the University of Washington women's indoor volleyball program and the head coach of the Husky beach volleyball team. A 2008 graduate from Pepperdine, his coaching career began at his alma mater where he served as assistant coach for the men's team from 2013-15 after playing professionally and for the U.S. national team.

"I'm thrilled and honored to be named the head coach at Fresno State," Winder said. "Fresno is a place that has always been about the people and that really shows with the administration and their commitment to the student athlete's well-being. The West Coast has tons of talent and I'm excited to get to work and lead this program to new heights."

A native of Irvine, Calif., Winder helped lead Washington to a 105-21 record over the last three seasons. The Huskies won back-to-back Pac-12 championships and had consecutive NCAA Elite Eight appearances in 2015 and 2016 while reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2017. Courtney Schwan, the 2016 Pac-12 Player of the Year, was one of eight All-Americans and 18 different All-Conference Husky student-athletes Winder coached.

Washington reached the No. 1 national ranking for several weeks under Winder as the team finished 1st, 1st, and 2nd in the Pac-12 in his three years with the program. He has recruited extensively in California and brought in multiple top 25 student-athletes in the classes of 2017, 2018, and 2019, including five top 80 players in 2018 class.

"I am excited to welcome Jonathan to our Bulldog family and I am looking forward for the future of our volleyball program," Fresno State Senior Associate Athletics Director Carrie Coll said. "Jonathan is a passionate competitor and exceptional recruiter with strong West Coast ties. His genuine leadership style and confident energy will make a positive impact on our team, university and Valley community. I look forward to having Jonathan and his family here at Fresno State."

In two seasons leading the Husky beach volleyball program Winder led the team to a third place finish in the 2017 Pac-12 Championships after taking fourth place in 2016. He improved the team's record from 4-7 to 11-7, finishing 2017 ranked No. 16 in the NCAA. He coached six All-Pac-12 student athletes on beach with eight selections over 2016 and 2017, second only to national champion USC.

"I want to express my gratitude to all the players I have worked with at Washington and to Keegan Cook, Jen Cohen, and Erin O'Connell," Winder said. "They are the standard of doing things the right way in college athletics. It has been a pure joy to work with all the incredible people in the administration at UW."

In his first full season as a coach at Pepperdine in 2014 the Waves tied for first in the MPSF with an 18-6 record, reaching the conference tournament semifinals and ending the year ranked No. 4 nationally. Winder initially returned to Malibu in 2013 to work as an academic coordinator in the Pepperdine athletics department. He then moved into his assistant coaching role in June of 2013 under legendary head coach Dr. Marv Dunphy, serving as the team's acting head coach in October 2015 when Dunphy was coaching at the World Championships.

Winder had one of the most storied collegiate men's volleyball careers in NCAA Div. I as he is one of only 11 four-time AVCA All-Americans in NCAA history. As a setter he led Pepperdine to an NCAA National Championship as a freshman in 2005 and was the NCAA National Newcomer of the Year and a second-team All-American. He earned second-team All-America honors again in 2006 and was first team in 2007 and 2008, leading the team to the final four and earning NCAA National Player of the Year honors as a junior and taking the team to the NCAA Finals as a senior.

Winder holds the career assists record at Pepperdine with 5,118, and ranked fifth all-time with 656 digs. He was also a standout in the classroom, earning 3rd team ESPN/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in 2008 and being an MPSF Academic All-Conference selection in each of his four seasons.

Following his collegiate career Winder became a member of the U.S. National Team and was an alternate for Team USA at the 2012 London Olympics. In 2007, he was on the U.S. squad that finished first at the Pan American Cup and was on the 2009 team that finished in second place. He also helped the U.S. place sixth at the 2010 FIVB World Championships and was part of several other national team rosters, including the 2012 FIVB World League and as Team USA captain at the World University Games in 2006. He also played professionally overseas in France, Germany, Greece, and Romania.

Winder has connections to Fresno as his wife, Jaimie-Rose, is a Fresno native who attended Clovis West High School and Fresno City College. Winder's father-in-law, Vance Walberg, is the boys basketball coach at Clovis West and his sister-in-law, Heather Long, is the girls basketball coach at Clovis North.

Winder graduated from Pepperdine in 2008 with a B.A. in Advertising and earned a Masters of Business Administration in 2015 from the Devry University Keller School of Management. He and his wife welcomed their first son, Hudson, in January of 2015, their first daughter, Sutton, in August of 2016, and had their second son, Hayes, in September of 2018.
