2016-17 RECAP

Last season the Broncos finished 19-13 overall and 8-10 in the Mid-American Conference, including an impressive 10-game winning streak in the non-conference season. The overall record falls just two victories shy of tying the school record for wins (21) set in 1978 and is the third straight winning season for the Broncos. The win streak is also the fourth longest winning streak the program has ever seen and longest in the last 20 years.

WMU advanced to the MAC Semifinals for the first time since the 2003 season after erasing a six-point deficit with 1:20 left to play, defeating top seed Central Michigan, 67-63, in the quarterfinals. Meredith Shipman and Breanna Mobley were each named Third Team All-MAC and Deja Wimby was named to the All-MAC Defensive Team.

WHO'S RETURNING

The Broncos return 11 letterwinners including three full-time starters in redshirt senior Marley Hill, and juniors Breanna Mobley and Deja Wimby. Mobley led the Broncos last season averaging 14.4 points and 9.9 rebounds and was honored to the Third Team All-MAC and the All-MAC Defensive Team. Wimby is coming off a tremendous season averaging 11.9 points, 5.2 rebounds and 5.2 assists. The guard was also named to the All-MAC Defensive Team. Hill started in all 32 games, averaging 13.7 points and 5.6 rebounds while leading the team with 34 blocks.

WMU brings back five players that started at least one game last season with senior Najee Smith (18), senior LaTondra Brooks (10), junior Meredith Miller (2), junior Aneisha Carlisle (2) and junior Logan McCane (2). Expected to make an impact this season are transfer students Jillian Fletcher (West Virginia State) and Jasmyn Walker (Valparaiso), who both redshirted last season due to NCAA transfer rules.

NEWCOMERS

A total of four freshmen will hit the court for the Broncos this season, including Kia Brooks (Chicago, Ill. / North Lawndale), Nina Farkic (Kitchener, Ont. / Cameron Heights), Jordan Walker (Muskegon, Mich. / Monta Shores) and Leighah Wool (Evanston, Ill. / Evanston). Brooks finished her high school career as a two-time all-conference selection while Farkic was named WCSSAA First Team All-Star. Walker was named Michigan Miss Basketball after averaging 22.1 points, 8.5 rebounds and 5.5 assists, shooting 43 percent from the floor during her senior campaign. Wool was an all-state selection and a two-time CSL South All-Conference selection while being named an ESPN Top-100 Midwest Player.

ROAD WARRIORS

The Western Michigan women's basketball team will travel approximately 11,500 miles in its 12-game non-conference season including the Florida Gulf Coast Showcase (Estero, Fla.) and the Puerto Rico Tournament. The Broncos begin the season with a six-game road stand traveling to New Mexico (11/10) for their season opener, followed by No. 14 Mid-Major ranked New Mexico State (11/12), Loyola-Chicago (11/15), Iowa (11/19) and concluding the trip at the Florida tournament. Other road games consist of Michigan State (10/3), and Kennesaw State (10/19) and Miami (10/20) in Puerto Rico. The conference schedule features the normal 18-game lineup, with nine home games and nine away games.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE MACHINE

Junior Breanna Mobley was nearly unstoppable during the 2016-17 season, where she nearly averaged a double-double on 14.4 points and 9.9 rebounds. She recorded a total of 13 double-doubles during the season and scored in double figures in 23 games. She made a huge impact on the conference, leading the MAC and tied for ninth in the nation in offensive rebounding (4.4), 15th in scoring, second in overall rebounding and third in field-goal percentage (.569).

THE MATCHUP

The only time these two teams have faced each other was back on November 9, 2007 at the Women's Sport Foundation Challenge. The 2007 NCAA Tournament participant New Mexico proved to be too much for the Broncos, as the Brown & Gold fell, 85-62, in their season-opener. Preseason All-MAC selection Tiera DeLaHous-saye led WMU with 10 points, nine assists and six rebounds.

NEW MEXICO SCOUTING REPORT

The Lobos finished 15-15 overall and 10-8 in the Mountain West, good for a fifth place finish in the league. UNM returns All-Mountain West and Mount West All-Defensive Team member Cherise Beynon who averaged 15.8 points, 7.5 rebounds, 6.6 assists and 1.9 steals. Along with Beynon, UNM returns fellow starters Alex Lapeyrolerie (11.4 ppg) and All-Mountain West Freshman team member Mykiel Burleson (9.7 points). The Lobos are coached by Mike Bradbury, a Chattanooga graduate in his second season with New Mexico. Prior to New Mexico, Bradbury spent six years at Wright State where he posted the highest winning percentage in school history, leading WSU to its first-ever NCAA appearance in 2014.

SEASON STORYLINES

BRONCOS PICKED FOURTH IN MAC WEST PRESEASON POLL

Western Michigan was picked fourth in the MAC West in the preseason coaches' poll, behind last year's regular season champion Central Michigan, defending tournament champion Toledo and Ball State. Last year the Broncos finished fifth in the division after a 8-10 conference record but made a trip the MAC Tournament Semifinals for the first time since 2003 after upsetting top-seeded CMU in the quarterfinals. Behind the Broncos in the West is Northern Illinois and Eastern Michigan. In the East, Buffalo was tabbed to finish first while Kent State, Ohio, Miami, Bowling Green and Akron round out the division.

MOBLEY HONORED TO PRESEASON ALL-MAC

Junior Breanna Mobley is the first Bronco to be named to the Preseason All-MAC West team since Miracle Woods for the 2015-16 season. The forward placed her name all over the Bronco record books last season, averaging 14.4 points and 9.9 blocks. She set a single season WMU record with 307 rebounds and had the fourth highest field-goal percentage in a single season (.568), finishing with 13 double-doubles. The Lansing, Mich., native made her mark on the conference as well, finishing 15th in scoring, second in overall rebounds, third in field-goal percentage and tied for the MAC lead in offensive rebounding (4.4).

2018 NANCY LIEBERMAN AWARD WATCH LIST

Western Michigan's point guard Deja Wimby was named to the Nancy Lieberman Award Watch List, which was announced by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. The award recognizes the top-20 female collegiate point guards in women's NCAA Division I college basketball. Wimby was a force to be reckoned with on the defensive end all season last year, where she finished with the most steals in MAC play (52) and was tasked with guarding the best offensive guard on the opposing team a majority of her minutes. She averaged 14.0 points, 5.1 rebounds, 4.9 assists and 2.9 steals during MAC play and nearly recorded the first triple-double in WMU history on several occasions. In the record books, Wimby is currently 10th in single season assists (154), third in free-throws made (150) and tied for sixth in steals (82).

WMU INKS THREE TO NLI'S

The Broncos signed three incoming freshmen for the 2018-19 season to NLI's, including guard Jacinta Gibson (Jeffersonville, Ind. / Jeffersonville High School), forward Maxine Moore (Southfield, Mich. / Detroit Country Day) and shooting guard Maddie Watters (Williamston Mich. / Williamston High School). Gibson averaged eight points, 3.9 rebounds, 3.1 assists and 1.6 assists, being named to the top-80 Indiana underclassmen and honored as First Team All-Conference and the News and Tribune Player of the Year finalist. Moore, who brings a wealth of big game-time experience to the Broncos, averages in double-figures and was recognized as a top-20 player in the state of Michigan with All-State honors. The team captain was a big part of her high school winning two State Championships. Watters is coming off her junior season, averaging 18.3 points, 3.9 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 2.3 steals. A 1,000 point scorer, was named Associated Press Class B First Team All-State and the Lansing State Journal Girls Basketball Player of the Year.

COACHING TIMELINE

2012-Current: Head Coach, Western Michigan
2008-12: Asst. Coach, Michigan State
2006-07: Head Coach (15 games), E. Michigan
1999-2007: Asst. Coach, E. Michigan
1996-98: Head Coach, Glen Oaks CC

The Western Michigan Division of Intercollegiate Athletics officially announced the hiring of Shane Clipfell as the sixth women's basketball coach in program history, Friday, April 13, 2012.

Western Michigan has been on the rise since Clipfell took over the program prior to the 2012-13 season, as the Broncos have won 17+ games the last two seasons with Clipfell at the helm. Clipfell has strong ties in the state of Michigan, the Mid-American Conference and the Midwest and has worked at every level of women's basketball.

2016-17:

The Broncos are coming off another successful season under Clipfell, notching a 19-13 overall record including an impressive 10-game winning streak in the nonconference season. The record falls just two victories shy of the school record for wins (21) set in 1978 while the win streak is the fourth longest winning streak the program has ever seen and longest in the last 20 years. The winning season is the third straight winning season for Clipfell and the Broncos, which hasn't happened in over 10 years. For the first time under Clipfell, Western Michigan reached the MAC semifinals during the 2016-17 campaign. The Broncos defeated Miami in the first round 73-66 giving Clipfell his fifth straight season with a conference tournament victory. WMU would then go on to erase a six-point deficit with 1:20 left to play and defeat top seed Central Michigan, 67-63, advancing to the MAC semifinals for the first time in WMU history since the 2003 season. As a team, WMU scored the sixth most points in school history (2207) and had the sixth most field goals made (823). The team also tied for the seventh highest free-throw percentage (.718) and tied for the 10th most free-throws made (417). Clipfell coached three student-athletes that earned postseason All-MAC awards, as senior Meredith Shipman and sophomore Breanna Mobley were each named Third Team All-MAC and sophomore Deja Wimby was named to the All-MAC Defensive Team. Mobley was also named to the All-MAC Tournament Team.

Shipman was part of Clipfell's first recruiting class. The guard can now be found all over the Bronco record book. Shipman is tied for the third highest free-throw percentage (.814), fourth in 3-pointers made (177), ninth in 3-point field goal percentage (.348), 11th in assists (285) and 13th in steals (159). She also holds the record for 3-pointers made in a single game with nine. Mobley finished with 12 doubles-doubles on the season while averaging 14.8 points, 10.2 rebounds and shot .574 from the floor during conference play. Wimby finished with the most steals in MAC play (52) and averaged 14.0 points, 5.1 rebounds, 4.9 assists and 2.9 steals during MAC play.

Clipfell's players were also getting it done in the classroom where Shipman, Meredith Miller and Logan McCane were named to the Academic All-MAC Team. Shipman was also named a MAC Distinguished Scholar Athlete.

2015-16:

In Clipfell's fourth season, the Broncos finished 17-15 overall, 8-10 in the MAC. Playing well at home has always been important, and 2015-16 was no different as the team finished with a 9-5 record at Read Fieldhouse and started a perfect 7-0. Clipfell made it four straight seasons with a MAC Tournament victory, as the Broncos crushed Northern Illinois 94-52 in the First Round but fell in the Quarterfinals. Senior Jessica Jessing was named All-MAC Honorable Mention while the duo of Jessing and Alex Morton were each MAC Distinguished Scholar Athletes. Jessing became the sixth player under Clipfell to earn a MAC Postseason Award. The Broncos 3-point game was key to the team's success in 2015-16, as WMU finished second in the MAC in 3-point shooting (.344) and led the league in 3-point field goal defense (.283). Junior Meredith Shipman led the team in scoring at 11.0 points per game and hit 76 3-pointers during the season, a mark good for fourth in WMU history. Shipman also hit nine 3-pointers against Toledo in conference season, breaking the WMU school record.

2014-15:

Western Michigan is coming off one of its most successful seasons in program history, boasting a 20-13 overall record - one victory shy of tying the school record for wins (21) set in 1978. The 2014-15 campaign was just the fourth 20-win season in school history. WMU went 11-7 during MAC regular season play, finishing tied for second in the MAC West and fourth overall in the conference, the team's best finish since 2006. The Broncos also won two games in the MAC Tournament for first time since 2003, defeating Bowling Green and Central Michigan. The success was rewarded as Western Michigan received a postseason bid, appearing in the WNIT vs. Arkansas State. It was just the fourth time WMU earned a spot in a WNIT bracket, joining the 1999, 2000 and 2004 squads. The Broncos finished 2014-15 with an RPI ranking of 103, fourth highest in the MAC, and played a tough non-conference schedule that included road games at Big Ten opponents Ohio State and Michigan, as well as Horizon League champion Green Bay. WMU ranked 35th in the nation in scoring defense - only allowing 57.4 ppg - and 34th in field-goal percentage defense, holding opponents to 36.7 % from the floor. Miracle Woods was named Second Team All-

MAC for the second straight season. She led the MAC and ranked 36th in the nation for field-goal percentage, shooting 51.4 %.

2013-14:

Western Michigan continued its ascend in Clipfell's second season, posting the most wins for program since 2007-08 with a 13-18 overall record, 8-10 MAC record. The Broncos finished fourth in the MAC West after being picked fifth in the preseason poll. The team improved its overall win total & MAC win total by two from Clipfell's first season. The Broncos also improved their seeding by two from the previous year in the MAC Tournament, earning a first round home game as the No. 7 seed, where they defeated Miami, 82-72. WMU went on to make its second straight trip to Cleveland in as many years under Clipfell, after failing to advance to Quicken Loans Arena for tournament play the previous four years prior to his tenure. Coming off a sweep of Toledo in the regular season for the first time since 2006, Western Michigan could not get past the Rockets for a third time in the year, bowing out in the second round of the tournament with a loss to UT. WMU's 78-72 win on the road in the regular season was the Broncos' first in Toledo since 2008. During the MAC season, Western Michigan protected its home floor, going 6-3 at University Arena and 1-0 in the MAC Tournament against its league counterparts. Regardless of venue, the Broncos were not easily disposed of, as five of the team's conference losses were by less than 10 points. WMU's offense had improved significantly, averaging 68.1 ppg in 2013-14 during MAC games, nearly 13 ppg more than the season before. For the second straight year, the low post duo of Miracle Woods and Marquisha Harris earned recognition from the conference. Woods was named Second Team All-MAC, becoming the first Bronco since 2008 to pick up the award, and Harris was named Honorable Mention All-MAC. Both were also MAC Player of the Week selections during the season.

2012-13:

The 2012-13 season marked the beginning of the Clipfell era at Western Michigan, as he took on the task of rebuilding the Bronco program that had posted just 33 wins and 17 conference victories in the four seasons prior. Progress could be seen across the board in Clipfell's first season. The team posted an 11-20 overall and 6-10 MAC record, marking the most wins in five years. The team also advanced to the second round of the MAC Tournament for the first time since 2008 after defeating higher-seeded Eastern Michigan on the road in the first round. Another signature win for the Broncos was a 55-54 victory over then eight-time defending regular season MAC champion Bowling Green in Kalamazoo. Clipfell's totals set a new mark for the most overall wins (11) and MAC wins (6) as a first-year head coach at Western Michigan. He also became the first women's basketball coach to win his first game at WMU (defeated American, 57-53) and win a MAC Tournament game in his first season.

Two Broncos were recognized for their play by the conference. Sophomore forward Marquisha Harris was named Honorable Mention All-MAC and freshman center Miracle Woods was one of five named to the All-MAC Freshman team.

PRIOR TO WMU:

In the previous 14 years prior to Western Michigan, Clipfell worked in different capacities on a Suzy Merchant staff. He began with Merchant as an assistant at Eastern Michigan during the 1998-99 season and coached alongside Merchant at Michigan State for five years after Merchant took the Spartan helm in 2007-08. For the final three years, Clipfell served as the associate head coach at Michigan State, coordinating the program's recruiting efforts, including organizing official, unofficial, off-campus and home visits. In addition to recruiting, Clipfell focused on MSU's offensive game preparation, in-game adjustments and skill development of perimeter players. The Spartans captured their first outright Big Ten title in school history in 2010-11 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament four-straight seasons.

While Clipfell was at Michigan State, the Spartans produced 17 All-Big Ten recognitions, 20 Academic All-Big Ten selections, and several players collected major Big Ten awards. Kalisha Keane was named Player of the Year in 2010-11, after earning Sixth Player of the Year the season prior. The Spartans had back-to-back Defensive Players of the Year in Alyssa DeHaan (2009-10) and Lykendra Johnson (2010-11). Both Keane and DeHaan were named All-Americans following their senior seasons and DeHaan finished her career second all-time in NCAA history in blocked shots.

In the nine seasons at Eastern Michigan, Clipfell helped build the Eagles into one of the top programs in the MAC. EMU compiled a record of 160-103 (.608), including three 20-win seasons, three postseason appearances and two MAC West Division titles. The 2003-04 team claimed the MAC West Division and MAC Tournament championship for the first time in school history, earning the program's first-ever bid to the NCAA Tournament en route to a 22-8 record.

Clipfell was the acting head coach at Eastern Michigan for all but four games of the 2006-07 season, while Merchant was on maternity leave. He guided the Eagles to a 13-12 record and a second place finish in the MAC West with an 11-5 record. For his efforts, Clipfell received votes for MAC Coach of the Year honors. Individually, senior Sarah VanMetre became EMU's first women's basketball player to be named an Academic All-American, senior Patrice McKinney was named MAC Defensive Player of the Year and freshman Alyssa Pittman was named MAC Freshman of the Year.

PERSONAL:

Clipfell (DOB: 8/29/63) earned a bachelor of science degree in communications at Eastern Michigan in 2006. Before Clipfell joined the coaching profession full-time at the collegiate level, he worked in the manufacturing industry. Clipfell and his wife, Connie, have two adult children, John and Lauren.
