'DOGS VISIT LOBOS FOR MOUNTAIN WEST OPENER

Fresno State (8-4), who won the 2016 Mountain West Championship after finishing second in conference play, begins league action at New Mexico (7-5) on Wednesday at 6 p.m. PT. The game will air live on ESPN3, WatchESPN, and 940 AM ESPN Radio. Fresno State will host Nevada on Saturday at 4 p.m. in a New Year's Eve showdown with the Wolf Pack.

ABOUT THE NEW MEXICO LOBOS

The New Mexico Lobos are 7-5 on the season, which includes a perfect 6-0 record at home during non-conference play. The Lobos are led by Tim Williams (18.1 ppg/6.8 rpg) and Elijah Brown (16.1 ppg/4.3 rpg/2.9 apg). Fresno State won its first ever game over New Mexico in Albuquerque last season when the Bulldogs defeated the Lobos 92-82 on Feb. 27, 2016. Fresno State trails the all-time series 14-9, but the 'Dogs have two out of the last three contests between the schools.

TAYLOR IS ONE OF NATION'S BEST 3-POINT SHOOTERS

Fresno State junior guard Jahmel Taylor is sixth in the nation in 3-point field goal percentage (35-for-66, 53.0 percent). Before going 0-for-7 from beyond the 3-point arc in the Bulldogs' Dec. 20 loss at Oregon, Taylor had made 13 of his previous 17 3-point field goal attempts. In the game at Oregon, Taylor played without his prescription goggles, which were lost in transit to Eugene, for the first time this season. He has made at least one 3-pointer in 11 of 12 games this season and at least one 3-pointer in 20 of his last 23 games played. He made 11 consecutive 3-pointers over the course of three games from Dec. 6-14, 2016, which was four shy of tying the national record of 15. Taylor is also tied for 57th in the nation in 3-point field goals made per game (2.9).

TERRY CLIMBING BULLDOGS' ALL-TIME WINS LIST

In his sixth season at Fresno State, head coach Rodney Terry has 93 wins and tied for fourth on the Bulldogs' all-time head coaching wins list with Harry Miller (1961-65). He is 11 wins away from tying Jerry Tarkanian (1995-2002), who officially had 104 career wins, for third on the all-time wins list. Terry is the 18th head coach in program history and the fifth Fresno State head coach to coach at least 175 games (181 career games).

HOPKINS FINDING ROLE IN BULLDOGS' BACKCOURT

Fresno State redshirt junior guard Jaron Hopkins has been a key addition in the Bulldogs' backcourt. Hopkins transferred to Fresno State last season from Colorado, where he played significant minutes for the Buffaloes. Hopkins can facilitate the offense, score and defend at a high level. He has averaged 10.7 points, 5.2 rebounds, 4.5 assists and 2.5 steals per game in the last six games. He is also 15th nationally in steals per game.

TAYLOR IGNITES 'DOGS TO WIN AT OREGON STATE

Fresno State junior guard Jahmel Taylor scored a career-high 21 points, and also had career-best single-game marks in assists (4), steals (3) and 3-pointers (6) in the Bulldogs' 63-58 road win at Oregon State. Taylor, who transferred to Fresno State from Washington, made five of his six 3-pointers in the first half and converted 60 percent of his 3-point field goal attempts (6-for-10). It was Fresno State's first win over a Pac-12 team since 2011 and first win over Oregon State since 2006.

BULLDOGS WIN 2016 ORANGE EXPRESS CHAMPIONSHIP

For the second straight season, Fresno State won a nonconference multi-team exempt tournament as the Bulldogs won the 2016 Orange Express with a 3-1 record in the round robin format played at campus sites. In the four-game affair, Fresno State defeated UTSA (69-66), Lamar (83-64) and Oregon State (63-58), and lost to PVAMU (84-78). To win the title, Fresno State won the tiebreaker with Lamar, who also went 3-1 in tournament games, by virtue of the Bulldogs' 83-64 head-to-head win over the Cardinals. Last season, Fresno State won the 2015 Roundball Showcase. Fresno State is now 10-2 since the start of the 2015-16 season in tournament contests.

SAVE MART CENTER

In its 14th year as the home of the Fresno State men's and women's basketball programs and the volleyball program, the Save Mart Center is recognized around the nation as being one of the finest on-campus collegiate arenas, and was named the No. 2 top collegiate venue by Pollstar in 2015, the leading trade publication for the concert and entertainment industry.

With its size, scope, unique architectural features and video, sound and telecom systems, the Save Mart Center serves as a major provider of entertainment and sporting events in the San Joaquin Valley. Seating capacity for the arena ranges from 15,000 to 18,000 seats, with 15,596 listed as the official number for basketball.

The Save Mart Center is a premier entertainment destination for headline events and tours. Designed by Sink Combs Dethlefs (Denver, Colo.), the Save Mart Center is approximately 450,000 square feet and contains 32 private suites, 1,000 Arena Builder seats (commonly referred to as "club seats"), a club level concourse, team locker rooms and athletics training facilities. The entire facility is approximately 48 acres and located off Shaw Avenue adjacent to Highway 168.

The total project value exceeded $100 million and represented the largest privately funded project in the history of the California State University system. The Save Mart Center was financed through revenue from corporate sponsorships, private gifts, leasing of luxury suites, sale of Arena Builder and personal seat licenses, as well as revenue from advertising and signage agreements.

Next to the Save Mart Center is the West Complex, a $17.6 million, two-story, 92,000-square-foot building which features the Student Recreation Center, the Lyles Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship and the Leon and Pete Peters Educational Research Center.

The Save Mart Center has hosted four major collegiate sporting championships, which most recently came in March 2012 when Fresno State hosted an NCAA women's basketball championship regional for the second time. In March 2004, the facility served as the host site for the McCaffrey Western Athletic Conference Basketball Tournament. The following year, the Save Mart Center was the venue for the first and second rounds of the 2005 NCAA women's basketball championship. In 2007 and 2012, Fresno State was one of four schools that hosted the regional semifinals and championship games for the NCAA women's basketball tournament.

RODNEY TERRY

FRESNO STATE HEAD COACH

6TH SEASON | ST. EDWARD'S (1990)

Rodney Terry is in his sixth season as the 18th head coach in Fresno State men's basketball history and led the Bulldogs during their transition into the Mountain West - one of the nation's best and most competitive conferences.

Known as an outstanding recruiting and bench coach, Terry's resume includes coaching two national players of the year and 12 appearances in the NCAA tournament. Under Terry's tutelage, 13 players in the last decade have been selected in the NBA Draft, including nine first-round and five lottery picks (Kevin Durant, LaMarcus Aldridge, D.J. Augustin, T.J. Ford and Tristan Thompson).

During the 2015-16 season, Terry guided the Bulldogs to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 15 seasons by winning the 2016 MW Basketball Tournament Championship and entered the Big Dance on a nine-game winning streak. Fresno State finished the season with a 25-10 record, including a 13-5 mark and a second place finish in conference play. He coached Marvelle Harris to MW Player of the Year honors as the senior guard became Fresno State's all-time leading scorer. The Bulldogs' 13 conference wins were the program's most since winning 13 conference games during the 2002-03 season. Fresno State also earned a No. 2 seed for the MW Basketball Championships, which was the program's best seed for a conference tournament since 2001. The 'Dogs closed the regular season by winning six consecutive games and eight of its last nine contests. Fresno State won 16 home games to set a new Save Mart Center record for most home wins in a single season and the Bulldogs' 16-2 home record (88.9 percent) led the Mountain West as the best home winning percentage in the league.

In 2014-15, Terry continued his ascension in conference with 10 league wins and posted wins over four of the 68 teams that reached the NCAA Tournament (Boise State, San Diego State, UC Irvine and Wyoming). With the win over then-No. 25 San Diego State, Terry guided the Bulldogs to the program's first victory over a team ranked in the top 25 since 2002. The 10 conference wins marked the third-straight season that Terry led the 'Dogs to more league victories than the previous season. He also coached junior guard Marvelle Harris to first-team All-Mountain West and All-Defensive team honors. Harris was the first Bulldog to earn first-team all-conference accolades since 2008.

In 2013-14, Terry led the Bulldogs to the program's first 20-win season and postseason appearance in seven years with Fresno State reaching the finals of the 16-team College Basketball Invitational. He coached guard/forward Paul Watson to Mountain West Freshman of the Year honors, along with two other all-conference selections in Harris and senior guard Tyler Johnson. In league play, he led Fresno State to a fifth-place finish and orchestrated the best turnaround in conference history by guiding the Bulldogs to a 9-9 record in MW play after starting the league slate 1-7. No MW team had started that 1-7 or 0-8 had ever won more than a total of four conference games. The Bulldogs closed the regular season by winning eight of their last ten games.

During the 2012-13 season, Fresno State scored a historic sweep of UNLV, including the program's first-ever road win over the Rebels, and handed Wyoming its second loss of the year after the Cowboys started 14-1. As a league, the MW earned the NCAA's best Ratings Performance Index and had five NCAA Tournament teams.

In his first season at Fresno State in 2011-12, the Bulldogs ranked third in the state of California in attendance playing in the 15,596-seat Save Mart Center to finish ahead of the Pac-12's Stanford, UCLA and USC. Terry instilled a relentless work ethic and passion in the Bulldogs' culture. He guided Fresno State to a series of fearless rallies highlighted by a road win at the Pac-12's Arizona State and a neutral site NIT Season Tip Off win over SMU.

Prior to joining the Bulldog family, Terry was a central architect of Rick Barnes' program at Texas for nine seasons and led the Longhorns to the NCAA Tournament in each of his nine seasons in Austin. This included a trip to the Final Four in 2003, the Elite Eight in both 2006 and 2008 and four Sweet Sixteen showings. Overall, the Longhorns posted a 232-80 (.744) record and produced 20-win seasons in all nine seasons of Terry's tenure. For seven weeks prior to coming to Texas, Terry served on Jerry Wainwright's staff at the University of Richmond after spending the previous four seasons under Wainwright at UNC-Wilmington. Prior to joining the staff at UNCW, Terry served two years as an assistant coach at Baylor (1996-98). He spent one season (1995-96) as the varsity coach at Angleton (Texas) High School and two years as the head coach at Somerville (Texas) High School. Terry posted a 15-13 mark at Angleton and a 49-21 overall record at Somerville, where he led the school to the Class 2A state semifinals in 1993-94. He also worked for two years (1991-93) as an assistant coach at Austin Bowie (Texas) High School. Terry started his coaching career as an assistant coach at his alma mater, St. Edward's University in Austin, Texas. He worked for one season (1990-91) at St. Edward's before moving on to his post at Bowie High. Terry graduated from St. Edward's University in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and a minor in physical education. During his collegiate career, he was a three-year starter at point guard and a three-time Academic All-Big State Conference selection. The Hilltoppers won the Big State Conference title during his freshman season in 1986-87, and he also served as team captain during his junior and senior campaigns.

Terry, a native of Angleton, Texas, was born on March 27, 1968.
